"I didn't know you were going to announce the program, Dick," she said.

He chuckled. "Neither did anybody else. They had one of the new men scheduled. But I talked him out of it."

"How?" Hoe of Dick, knowing how frightened she'd be to insist on being there with her, giving her one chance. Except that—all at once she remembered what Elton Day had hinted. And that Dick was worried on the same show. If people talked things it had nothing to do with himself or employed that Dick Elton had stolen the job for her, then his insistence on announcing her would be a point against him, a new cause for suspicion. Oh!

"Dick, it sounds silly, of course, but I'm so anxious to—well, to stand on my own feet."

His eyes darkened. She could tell he was saying, "Yes, I see. You think you can get along without me, so you don't want me around any more. You don't want to feel under any more obligation. Something like that."

It wasn't true and she wanted to tell him it wasn't. But it would be better for Dick to feel this way, she thought, than to know the truth. To know Elton had got her the job by tricking him, that he could only affect Dick Mason if it were discovered. She must let him think that she really wanted to be let alone. Nothing else would do.

CHAPTER TWENTY

Judy smiled at Dick. "I'd like to feel I didn't have to impose on you any more," she said. "You've done so much more for me already than you ought to have done Dick. Don't worry about announcing me. Don't you understand?"

"Yes." Dick said slowly. "I understand, Judy. But, . . . impose." I didn't mean that, Dick. When I try to talk I always get the wrong words. I just mean I don't think it's fair to worry you any longer when you've so much on your mind, yourself."

Having said that, she could have bitten off her tongue. For the dark flush showed on Dick's face again; the flush that she had learned to take. I told you a secret I'd kept from everybody. And now you keep thinking that I'm going to tell it."

"She could see him hurrying through the crowds along Randolph St.

Men love to have women feel sorry for them. Judy's golden rule said: And don't pretend that rule. Men don't want you to pretend you're sorry for them; they want to feel she is hiding her pity. Men are funny that way. Judy had never learn, and yet Judy was sure it was right.

"Well," she attempted now, "I'll have to rest on your gratitude, Dick?"

Dick's dramatic show. David Owen is doing it, fmart director. He stages 'Skippy,' too. I—Hello Harry!"

A tall, dark-haired man. "Hello, Dick" and who on into one of the studios. Judy's eyes looked questions and Dick added the rest of something new, answered. "Harlow Wilcox. One of the best announcers in the business. Does all kinds of programs. You ought to see his fan mail."

"Oh. I've heard of him of course. He's good."

"Yes."

Dick had none of the jealousy the stories had taught Judy you must expect from actors. Or perhaps, she reasoned, he had insisted he wasn't an actor, really.

Down the hall came a tall man, running and carrying to open a violin case as he ran. Perspiration streamed from his face, his breath came gasps, he tumbled mat them. shot through a door, disappeared. Dick laughed.

"He was due on the air just exactly two second ago," he said. "And he's got to stand up in front of the microphone and play something soft and lazy, maybe 'Meditation.' Probably ran all the way from the taxi. Nice assignment, playing a violin, when you're so out of breath you can barely stand."

Judy giggled. "So many of them miss programs?" she asked.

"Not every often. Lots of times they just get under the wire. We had to ad lib a lot of times, though' filling time until the guest star showed up."

"Ad lib?"

"Keep talking without having anything to talk about. Nobody's supposed do ad lib on the air, except the Three Doctors, that is. But lots of us have to. You know, the Three Doctors always ad lib. Never have a script. Never know exactly what they're going to say on a program."

"Oh."

Judy, thinking of the terrible microphone, of the fright that raced through her veins such a little while before, gasped at the poise and confidence of men. How could go on the air without having every word written and ready. "How can they do it, Dick?"

"Lots of other acts wish they knew, Judy. But most of them don't. One night I heard about the famous actor, who's been on the stage ever since 1851. And yet the first time he went on the radio—doing a scene he's done thousands of times in the theatre—he went all to solutely cold. Couldn't say a word. Just gasped and choked and shivered. Scared to death."

"Ang, what happened?"

"I asked questions. And answered 'em myself, until time was up. And then got a lot of letters telling me what a conceited fool I was flirting on the air with a really great man was supposed to be on the air."

"Of course not, Judy. You must not talk back to people. When you are on the air you're working for them, and they've got a right to tell you how awful you are as often as they feel like it."

"Oh! And maybe I'll get letters like that?"

"Maybe, Judy. But I don't think so. You're not conceited, are you? That'll tell the story. And—well, until then . . ."

He glanced at the clock.

"Jee, Judy said quickly, "I've got to go, Dick. Promised to meet Elsie for lunch."

"Oh." Disappointed. Hurt a little perhaps.

"I'll be sad, "I'll stay here, then. Got to work on an idea, anyhow."

"Something new, Dick?"

He grinned. "Can't tell you a thing, Judy. Only that the program writers in the business are ex-saxophone players or ex-clowns. Never wrote a thing in their lives until radio came along. And if they can do it, maybe I can, too. Anyhow, I'm trying something."

"Yes?"

"The jury's still out, Judy."

"Well, I'll let me see?"

"No. Can't."

"Dick!"

He nodded past her. "Friend of our coming," he said softly.

Judy saw Elton Day, smooth, polished, begging somebody's pardon, edging somebody else who'd caught at his coat lapels tapping a nervous rhythm on the wall with his fingers as he walked along the corridor toward them.

"Morning," he brightly.

"Hello," said Dick.

"Something New Dick?"

Judy said nothing at all.

"Good show," Elton went on. "Very good. Heard it up in my office. Client heard it, too. Just phoned me. Says it's fine. If the mail comes—if no mail. . . ."

Repetition of that phrase made Judy wonder.

"If the mail so important?" she asked.

"Tell her, Dick." Elton suggested suavely. "Tell her about the mail."

Dick said only, "Well, mail is the way the client tests a program."

But Elton added "You see, we all know mail doesn't mean a thing. There are some people who'll always write for any kind of free sample. All right. Never tell a client that. He believes if he gets a lot of mail it's a riot, and if the mail isn't big it never occurs to him his sample is no good; he just decides the program is to blame. So the mail box's a big shot around here. So, Dick?"

"Yes," Dick said curtly. "Going Judy?"

"Yes, Dick."

"I have some points in the program talk to Miss Allison about, Dick," he said. "Better wait a couple of minutes, Judy. Unless you're hungry for something."

"Of course not," Judy said quickly. "Dick, I'll see you at the broadcast this evening?"

"Yes," Dick said, not looking at her. Jealous! But why should he be, Judy wondered? He must know how much she felt. Ought to know what she thought of Elton Day. But men forget. And Dick walked away, quickly, leaving Judy with Day.

Leaving her to hear him say, very softly, "Too bad our lady likes you so much, you see. They'll never get over it if she could."

"Oh, don't thank me. Don't thank anybody. Just be glad about it."

"You wanted to tell me something about the program?"

"Who."

"But you said. . . ."

He waved a deprecatory hand. "Never can tell what a Day will say. Old family custom. Say what pops into the mind. If it doesn't pop, say it anyhow. Get the right words going and people go away and form everything's simple."

She nodded. "Yes. You've said so before, haven't you?"

"Many times," he agreed calmly. "Always say something like that to the conversation started. And then when the lady is angry—"

"But the lady isn't angry."

"That's a comfort, So."

"The lady isn't angry," Judy repeated as she walked past Elton Day. "She's merely bored. Good-by, Mr. Day."

She left him. And did not look back to see him. Didn't face an expression that was not usual for him. A look of sorrow, almost. As if Elton Day wished, for the moment only, that Elton Day were not what he always had been.

The mail came. Letters in pink envelopes, and letters in square, white envelopes, and letters sprawled with pencil on brown wrapping paper stock into envelopes painfully made at home. Letters asking the Beauty Builder for help. Letters telling strange pitiful stories with naive abandonment of reticence, with complete confidence in the Beauty Builder that made Judy suddenly ashamed. Almost a little afraid.

My husband is going to leave me, because he says I'm getting fat and ugly. I've tried. But there's so much work to do and I've no money and I spend what I have on the children instead of buying things for myself. And . . . . . Please tell me what to do.

Letters like that. Letters that Elton Day displayed amusedly, handing them on to Judy, shuffling them with his thin hand. "Minneapolis," he announced. "South Bend, Joplin, Kansas City, Sioux City, Milwaukee. Fan mail. All points west."

"Who answers them?" Judy asked.

"Some correspondent."

"But shouldn't we—"

"You shouldn't do anything but talk. That's where your job begins and ends" he said. "Let somebody else worry about the rest of it."

"But they're supposed to get personal answers."

"They will."

"From a correspondent?"

"From me Judy. Don't I know the answers to all the possible problems of life? Of course I do, Judy. It's all answers. All the questions, too."

With that he went on his way.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

A man Judy had never seen before came looking for her, following Paige.

"Miss Allison?"

"Yes." Judy said.

"I'm John Flavin. The Beauty Builder sends me. One of gone. And Mr. Jenks, the client, wants to meet you. He told you to come over to his office. I'll go along."

TO BE CONTINUED

TO BE EX-CHAMPION'S WIFE SOON

Jack and Mrs. Sharkey

It would be worth far more than the proverbial penny to know just what Mrs. Jack Sharkey is thinking as she gazes at her dosing husband, seated at a New York ringside. Maybe she is figuring that if Primo Carnera takes away Jack's world heavyweight title June 29 it may be a cinch that Jack may then retire and always be in Boston with his family, to which he is devoted.

RUBY DELINE FRACTURES ARM WHILE PLAYING

Tweed, June 21—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rollins and children of Belleville spent Sunday in town with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gordon celebrated their wedding anniversary on Sunday.

Messrs. R. Thompson, H. Thompson and L. Richards of Trenton spent the week-end at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Davis spent Sunday in Cobourg with friends from Trenton.

Mr. C. W. Foster of Toronto, called on friends in town on his return from Arden on Sunday.

Ruby Deline of Bubbids, thirteen year old daughter of Fletcher Deline while playing fell and fractured both bones of her right arm. She was brought to Dr. Dales office. Her arm was X-rayed and the fracture was reduced.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Houston and children, Dorland and Margaret, were Sunday visitors in town.

Tourists from various parts of eastern Canada as well as from the neighboring republic are making use of the tourist camp at Memorial Park. A number of them were in evidence during the week end.

The infant daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Nicholls, born on June 14th, is the first baby to be born during a ministers residence in the present parsonage which was erected 42 years ago.

During the absence of Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Dales and children, they attended a reunion of the Dales' family at Newmarket on June 16th. Among the relatives were Professor and Mrs. J. N. Dales of Saskatoon, Sask., Rev. and Mrs. Dales' sons, daughters-in-law, daughter and grandchildren, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Dales and children, Ancaster, Ont., and 4 brs. M. G. Dales and children, Newmarket, and Mrs. T. W. Dales and children, Newmarket, Mrs. Charles Thomson, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Dales and daughter, Toronto, and Mrs. J. J. Marble and children, Huntsville. A family photo was spent at Jack-son's Point on Lake Simcoe, after which the party motored to the home of Dr. L. Dales, Ancaster, market where the reunion was concluded.

Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Dales also visited relatives in Belleville and Fergus, arriving home on Saturday.

PICNIC AT COBOURG IS MUCH ENJOYED

Thomasburg, June 21—Mr. and Mrs. Clare Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carter motored to Mr. and Mrs. Wright's at West Huntingdon on Sunday.

Mr. Wilbur Sherry of Belleville, is visiting his brother, Mr. G. H. Sherry.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Prindle and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thompson were in Napanee on Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Miss Ella Way is spending a few days this week with her sister Mrs. Albert Beatty at Bethel.

Mrs. Izobel Beatty has returned home after visiting Mrs. Thos. Matthews and Miss L. Smith in Stirling.

Thomasburg baseball team bowed to defeat in their first game this season on Friday evening in Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. M. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kennedy, Mr. and re. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hamilton enjoyed a picnic at Cobourg on Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Geen and Mrs. F. Bowyer are visiting friends in Myrtle this week.

Mr. James Brown and Miss Ila Brown of Peterboro, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown and other relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. C. J. Carleton, Mrs. G. A. Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop and family of Belleville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bateman and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Geen spent Friday evening at Mr. Ernest Bateman's at Farnsworth's Corners. Arrangements were made to hold the annual Bateman reunion again this year.

The public school teachers have been reengaged for another term. Miss Helen Schell of Deseronto as principal and Miss Mary Porter as assistant.

Mrs. D. Elliott is spending this week with relatives in Foshoro.

Friends will be sorry to hear Mr. Wm. Walter Carleton is quite poorly also that Mr. John Calberry is confined to bed.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Adams on the birth of a baby girl, also to Mr. and Mrs. Rhys Fuller on the birth of a baby boy.

The morning service in Christ Church on Sunday will be in the room of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grills, Father's Day is observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Francis and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Francis of Stirling and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Keogh of Walbridge spent an evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Geen.

Mrs. G. Brown and baby of Roslin spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bateman.

Mrs. W. S. Embury is visiting in Belleville this week.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM HUFF'S ISLAND

Huff's Island, June 21—Mr. J. Fleming Begley was a caller at Mr. Geo. Huffs on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Lottie Walbridge spent Sunday with Miss Lorraine Walbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Black, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hatfield spent Sunday at Mr. S. Black's, Scibaris.

Miss Julia Mary Mr. Geo. Hurt spent Sunday afternoon in Picton calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Walbridge were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McPaul on Sunday.

Miss Mary Hall is spending a few days with Mrs. Thos. Nightingale.

Mr. John Black was among those who with Mr. Webster, Ag. Rep. visited on the County Council, Sidney Street on Monday.

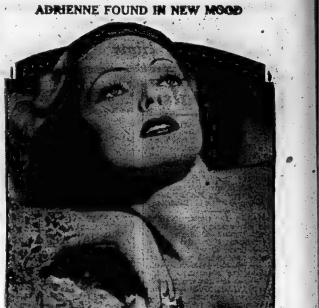
Mr. and Mrs. P. Wesse, Belleville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Wesse.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Kerfoot, Belleville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. Roots.

Miss Verna Belnap entertained four girls from Belleville on Sunday last.

Mr. Joe Brickman spent a few days in Toronto last week.

A number from here spent Sunday down at Mohawk Beach.



Rosamore and Massassaga had a game of softball on Friday night, Rosamore winning by 14 to 8.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Officers of the Grand Black Chapter of British America elected Tuesday, June 20th at Regina were: J. Wes. Benson, of Toronto, re-elected for the tenth term as Grand Secretary; H. Hammond, Regina, Deputy Grand Registrar; C. H. Spoont, Toronto, re-elected Grand Treasurer; W. Brad Vanzoover, Deputy Grand Treasurer; J. L. Mellas, Toronto, Grand Lecturer; V. Patterson, Hamilton and A. McCullough, Toronto, Grand Censors. Rev. W. C. V. Martin, of St. John, was named Grand Chaplain; Samuel Cotterell, Hamilton, Grand Marshal; G. Nelsh, Toronto, and J. A. McCullum, Campbellton, N. S., Standard Bearers.

The oldest known medical school was founded by the Persian conqueror Darius in Egypt.

ADRIENNE FOUND IN NEW MOOD

ADRIENNE AMES

Presenting a lovely study of Adrienne Ames, the New York and Fort Worth, Tex., society girl who went west and made good.

Watch them EAT!

CHILDREN love the snap, crackle and pop of Kellogg's Rice Krispies and they never tire of the delicious flavor.

So nourishing and easy to digest. Fine for the evening meal as well as breakfast. Oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

Listen!—

get hungry

Let's bring back the good old Strawberry Festival

. . . now that Ontario's fresh, juicy, healthful Strawberry crop is ready for our enjoyment

Women's organizations, Church societies, Service Clubs, Fraternal bodies can raise money in no more acceptable manner than organizing Strawberry Festivals.

It's So Simple . . .

GIVE the people Strawberries and Cream, Strawberries and Ice Cream, Strawberry Shortcake, Strawberry Pie—strawberries! Bring back old memories—let friend meet friend—promote sociability and good will. Ontario grown strawberries will fill the bill as nothing else can.

Help the Ontario strawberry grower to sell his crop—it will enable him and his family to spend money for the goods or services you have to sell.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture will publish advertisements from time to time to help the Ontario producer of farm, orchard and dairy products to sell his goods in his home market: Ontario.

Ontario Department of Agriculture

Col. The Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister

James B. Fairbairn, Deputy Minister

Ontario Leaf Lettuce

Leaf lettuce grown here in Ontario is higher in food value, minerals and vitamins than the imported head lettuce. Enjoy better health and help your farmer neighbor to prosper by asking for Ontario Leaf Lettuce.

ONTARIO

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

Mr. George Putnam Superintendent of Women's Institutes, Department of Agriculture, Toronto, was in the city yesterday and today en route to District Institute Conventions for Hovks and East Hastings.

Yesterday marked the twentieth anniversary of the Consecration to the Episcopate of His Excellency, Archbishop O'Brien of Kingston.

Miss Jean I. Gunn, Toronto, second vice-president of the International Council of Nurses and Superintendent of Toronto General Hospital, is one of the Ex officio delegates from Canada who will attend the seventh quadrennial conference of the International Council of Nurses at Paris and Brussels, July 9 to 15. Miss Gunn is a former resident of this city. The Canadian delegation of 150 nurses will sail from Quebec the latter part of June.

Women's Institute members of this county will be interested to know that Mrs. William G. Towriss, (Louise Yates Tweedie, Athens, who, as Summer Series Lecturer for the Department of Women's Institutes, addressed meetings in sixteen addressed meetings in sixteen points recently in the East Hastings recently in the East Hastings district, is a former resident of this city. The Canadian delegation of 150 nurses will sail from Quebec the latter part of June.

Mr. J. Dorland Anderson of Banff, is visiting in Belleville, and district on his way to the Eastern States where he will attend a great Rotary gathering. Mr. Anderson, a native of Ameliasburgh Township is well known in Belleville. He had been in the West for twenty-two years.

The postponed games of the Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club were played off yesterday, the winning rink being composed of Mrs. Sandercock, Mrs. ——, Mrs. McCreary and Mrs. Walker (skip). Tea was served at the club house over on the scheduled day, the hostesses being Mrs. C. McBride and Mrs. C. Browne.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holway gathered at the family home, 134 Bridge street, for a miscellaneous shower in honor of the bride and groom. Thirty-five guests were present and Mr. and Mrs. Holway received some lovely gifts. Cards and games were enjoyed and a delicious lunch served.

Mrs. Holway was formerly Miss Irma Coolin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coolin, Albert, Mich., and her marriage to Mr. Bill Holway took place in Chicago on June 9th.

Mr. F. E. Foster of Chicago is visiting his sister Mrs. Alfred Dyer and Mr. Gilbert Dundas street east.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Deacon, William street have returned home after visiting the World's Fair at Chicago.

Mrs. V. Blakslee Mrs. H. Corby, Miss Corby and Mrs. C. B. Coughlin left this morning for the Country Club this afternoon.

OBITUARY

JOSEPH J. DURAND

Joseph John Durand passed away Monday at the Hotel Dieu Windsor. The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durand of Toronto and was 37 years of age at the time of his death.

Besides the parents surviving are four brothers, James and William of the Border Cities, and John and Charles of Toronto and three sisters, Mrs. J. J. Murray of the Border Cities; Mrs. John Obey of St. Catharines and Mrs. Joseph Sullivan of Toronto.

The funeral will take place in Toronto on Thursday.

PROMPT, EXPERT CARE FOR MEN'S WEAR . . .

Men's suits cleaned here perfectly and returned promptly. Phone 729 for the kind of efficient service you like. . .

FLANNEL TROUSERS

Send them here regularly for correct cleaning to preserve their smartness.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
191 Front St. Phone 729
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

WHAT WERE THOSE DELICIOUS LITTLE CHEESE BISCUITS DOROTHY SERVED?

TOASTED CHEESE THINS

CHEESE THINS! DON'T YOU EVER READ THE PAPERS?

toasted CHEESE THINS

EDUCATOR

BE SURE YOU GET GENUINE EDUCATOR'S

Women's Institutes of North Hastings Hold District Meeting

160 Delegates Convene at Wellman's; Annual Reports Given

MEMBERSHIP OF 373

Mrs. Jas. Bailey, Eldorado Re-elected to Office of President

On Tuesday, June 20th, over one hundred and sixty women gathered in Wellman's United Church for their twenty-fifth District Annual Convention of the North Hastings District of Women's Institutes.

The church was adorned with beautiful peonies and potted plants and a wonderful exhibit of sewing, all made from cast-off material in the home, also the Institute motto, "For Home and Country."

Mrs. James Bailey of Eldorado, occupied the chair, and Mrs. John Beagle officiated as pianist; Mrs. Percy Jackman of Wellman's, and Mrs. Fred Barnum of Rylestone, were in charge of the registration.

The convention opened with community singing and The Lord's Prayer in unison.

Mrs. T. L. Nickle of Madoc, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes of the 1932 annual meeting and the executive, the various letters of correspondence and in her report of the nine branches she said 121 meetings were held with an attendance of 2038. 137 papers were given and the memberships totals 373 members.

Mrs. Carl Clancy of Wellman's, welcomed the guests in a neat speech on behalf of the Rylestone and Wellman's branches, who were the hostesses for the day and Mrs. Ernie Moore of Cooper, and Remington very gractously replied.

The president, Mrs. Bailey in her address told of the many visits she had made to the various branches and gave a few of the numerous activities in each branch.

The branch activities gave their individual reports in the following order: Ivanhoe, Cooper, Rylestone, Wellman's, Eldorado and Bannockburn, Springbrook, Rylestone, Cooper and Remington, and the secretary read a splendid report from Mrs. Grass of Cashel, telling of the great need there. All the branches reported well on hand and the president remarked "the depression hasn't hit the institutes very hard."

The secretary also reported for the "Busy Bee Juniors of Madoc," the only organization in the district which is composed of school girls.

All branches are engaged in relief work and the president asked that any relief sent to Mrs. Grass to be distributed to the needy around Cashel.

Roll call was taken as to who had paid their "Federation Fees" and two branches had neglected doing this. The president urged that this fee is most necessary.

"The Institute Woman" was sung and the reports of standing committees followed.

Committee Reports

Mrs. F. Nickle of Eldorado, reporting on "Health," also included "Child Welfare" and urged that the children be given sun baths daily, using discretion, as it is wiser to know how to keep well rather than what to do when we become ill. Many branches had demonstrations given by a nurse on invalid trays, First Aid kits, etc. Special mention was made of papers given at Ivanhoe on "Active Middle Age Surpasses Youth."

Mrs. G. Webb of Springbrook, reporting on legislation said: "We are so vitally affected by legislation that in knowing the women of Canada to devote some time to this subject." Splendid papers have been Papers had been given on this topic given on banking, laws of the land, how we are governed, etc.

MARJORIE WHITE

A native of Winnipeg and Toronto, Marjorie White has been acting since she was four years old. She has been in motion pictures three years. "Her Bodyguard" is her latest.

Mrs. W. Barlow of Springbrook, reporting on education, pointed out that "a well educated child at home appears well educated abroad," and the department trusts youth for citizenship and we must remember that affection of parents and appreciation of the teacher is often lacking. This department stocks libraries and also buys books and equipment for public schools.

The branch activities gave their individual reports in the following order: Ivanhoe, Cooper, Rylestone, Wellman's, Eldorado and Bannockburn, Springbrook, Rylestone, Cooper and Remington, and the secretary read a splendid report from Mrs. Grass of Cashel, telling of the great need there. All the branches reported well on hand and the president remarked "the depression hasn't hit the institutes very hard."

The secretary also reported for the "Busy Bee Juniors of Madoc," the only organization in the district which is composed of school girls.

All branches are engaged in relief work and the president asked that any relief sent to Mrs. Grass to be distributed to the needy around Cashel.

Roll call was taken as to who had paid their "Federation Fees" and two branches had neglected doing this. The president urged that this fee is most necessary.

"The Institute Woman" was sung and the reports of standing committees followed.

Committee Reports

Mrs. F. Nickle of Eldorado, reporting on "Health," also included "Child Welfare" and urged that the children be given sun baths daily, using discretion, as it is wiser to know how to keep well rather than what to do when we become ill. Many branches had demonstrations given by a nurse on invalid trays, First Aid kits, etc. Special mention was made of papers given at Ivanhoe on "Active Middle Age Surpasses Youth."

Mrs. G. Webb of Springbrook, reporting on legislation said: "We are so vitally affected by legislation that in knowing the women of Canada to devote some time to this sub-

Mrs. Bailey, Eldorado re-elected president, and Mrs. Barlow, Springbrook, re-elected secretary-treasurer, were in every branch, some going into local industry methods thoroughly.

Reporting on Relief, Mrs. O. C. Moon of Madoc told of the wonderful work Institutes had accomplished for the needy last winter. Direct relief was given in many communities, donations to Coe Hill Hospital and the Children's Shelter, while the work of the branch in Cashel had been almost entirely relief.

Mrs. H. R. Haacke of Deloro, reporting on Immigration, said: "A splendid letter from an English woman who had made her home here six years ago. This told of the appeal of Canada, first impressions and lasting effect of the new country." Home Economics, a popular phase of Institute work, was reported by Mrs. John Clements of Ivanhoe. Courses in handicraft and cookery were given as well as demonstrations on various home topics. Mrs. Wright, of Marmora, reported on Sabine's report on Publicity.

Community Activities were discussed by Mrs. P. Barnum of Campbellford, showed organized effort on the part of branches to aid in community enterprises. Cemeteries were beautified; crippled children helped; community banquets and picnics formed a part of the community activities of the North Hastings branches.

In Eldorado branch a novel community enterprise was the offering of a bounty of one cent on woodchuck tails and one cent a pair for crows' legs. The children of the neighborhood made a raid on these pests with the result that thirteen hundred woodchucks and nearly a hundred crows were killed.

Agriculture was reported by Mrs. Clifford Clancy giving the report of Mrs. Todd of Wellman's and Historical Research by Mrs. George Ferguson of Cooper. At this point Rev. F. G. Smith, pastor of Wellman's United Church, gave his greetings to the gathering stating a sincere tribute to Institute work and ideal.

During the afternoon Miss Nellie Webb told of her two weeks' scholarship course at McMaster Hall and entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Heagle Harold; Mrs. Banderson and Mrs. Brown, Marmora and Deloro.

Mrs. Parks of Cooper, gave a detailed description of the splendid exhibits displayed by Cooper and Remington branch which showed the neatness of a little clever ingenuity in transforming odds and ends into decorative and useful articles. Afghans and rugs made by Mrs. Bailey, an eighty-five year old member, were especially noteworthy.

A message from the Federation, of Women's Institutes was brought by the area representative, Mrs. W. C. Haggerty of Cherry Valley. Care in reading the minutes of federated meetings and correspondence from the Federation and Department was advised by Mrs. Haggerty for much thought and planning was behind messages to the branches. Mrs. Haggerty gave a detailed account of how Institute funds are expended by the Federation.

The district was honored in having as a guest Mr. George Putnam, Superintendent of Women's Institutes, Department of Agriculture, Toronto. Mr. Putnam had many helpful hints and suggestions for the district and branches and his interesting address was greatly appreciated.

"The really important work of the Women's Institute is not the annual convention, district or international, but the individual work accomplished by each branch. The officers of 1932 to 1934 have a great responsibility before them because rural districts need the Women's Institutes more than ever and the Federation and the Department has planned to offer vitally interesting information regularly to the branches."

Mr. Putnam explained that the little paper "Home and Country" was a new undertaking of the Department. It contained valuable information and should be thoroughly studied.

The speaker stressed the great value of standard and nutrition course, but counselled the members not to forget their own monthly meeting at which homemakers passed on their knowledge from years of experience were of greatest value. A real study of nutrition was decided in most communities and the literature at present available should be sought by members.

Earnestness and the Institute motto of helpfulness during the coming year would make it the best in the history of the association concluded Mr. Putnam who told his hearers to remember that Ontario led all provinces and all countries in Institute development.

Weddings

FISHER—DOOLITTLE

A pretty wedding took place at eight o'clock last evening, at the Baptist Parsonage, when William Fisher, eldest son of Mrs. R. Fisher, Bond street, was united in marriage to Miss Marguerite eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doolittle, Sidney, the bride of Mr. John William Fisher, only son of Mrs. R. Fisher, both of the city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Hilliard Jones. The bride wore a lovely frock of hyacinthe blue with accessories of navy blue with white hat and accessories. She was unattended by the groomsman.

After the ceremony supper was served at the home of the bride at which twenty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left on a wedding trip to Toronto, the bride travelling in a navy sport ensemble. They will reside in Belleville.

FLOWER—BELL

Front Road United Church, beautifully decorated with peonies and delphinium, was the scene of a charming wedding at two o'clock when Lavina Ruth, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell became the bride of Mr. Norman Reid Flower of Massassaga. Rev. Mr. Keough officiated.

The bride was charmingly attired in a frock of ivory lace chiffon and a picture hat. Miss Leola Bell attired in pale green organdie was bridesmaid and her sister's bridesmaid while Mr. Benny Leamon was groomsman and Mr. Arlington and Dorland Bell brothers of the bride were ushers.

Wedding music was played by Miss Helena Bradshaw while Miss Helena Bradshaw while Miss Helena Bradshaw sang "I Love You Truly." A pink and white and twenty-five guests were present.

The bride and groom left on a wedding trip by motor to Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in her travelling in a smart ensemble of light beige. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Flower will take up residence at Massassaga.

Hawks and eagles are said to sleep standing up.

Jack LaRue, Miriam Hopkins and William Gargan in "The Story of Temple Drake", opening at the Belle Theatre tomorrow (Thursday.)

The Favourite then—now

MORE Flavour than ever

TODAY, Canadians enjoy Maxwell House Coffee more than ever because its exquisite flavour is kept ever-fresh by the Vita-Fresh pack.

This exclusive packing process removes the air inside the tin that robs other coffee of its flavour. Maxwell House is roasted and packed in Canada. Try it.

MH16-33

MAXWELL HOUSE Coffee

"GOOD TO THE LAST DROP"

"TEMPLE DRAKE" ROLE LIFTS MIRIAM HOPKINS TO TOP SCREEN RANK

As the last of the "wild" Drakes, Miriam Hopkins gives a superb characterization in the title role of Paramount's "The Story of Temple Drake", which opens tomorrow, (Thursday) at the Belle.

The picture based on a William Faulkner novel, features an excellent cast including Jack LaRue, William Gargan, William Wellman Jr. Irving Pichel and Sir Guy Standing.

In one of the screen's most difficult roles Miriam portrays with perfect understanding the complexities of Literature's most spirited character. Temple Drake is a strange composite of good and evil forces, and Miss Hopkins gives a splendidly comprehension of the character. Jack LaRue is menacing as the ruthless "Trigger" while William Gargan portrays Stephen Benbow, the young attorney in love with Temple Drake.

The story revolves around the unrestrained acts of the girl who possesses an inheritance, and the tragedy following her marry the man she loves that she may not ruin his life, are ruin off with a member of the gay younger set for a lighthearted fling which ends in a crash in front of a moonshiner's hangout. There, Temple Drake, who has been thoughtlessly flirting with boys her own age, meets Trigger. What happens when Benbow seeks her out and her atonement for the unfortunate affair has brought to others makes a thrilling climax.

The story of "Temple Drake" was directed by Stephen Roberts who was responsible for the production. It is the eminently successful "The Night of June 13th." It is based on the long life of Miriam Hopkins' successes, which are rapidly mounting to make a well established reputation as one of the screen's most capable performers.

"Easy on the Eyes", is the title of a new black comedy which is to be presented on the same program with the popular Belle Canadian News, with Abe Lyman and his Merry Knights of Melody in a clever melodious and vaudevillian offering.

"Welcome Night" Gifts

Tomorrow night, (Thursday) at 9 p.m. Ten beautiful gifts will be distributed free to patrons, the special prize this week is a beautiful manicure chest. The special care has been taken in the selection of the gifts this week.

Two Features Tonight

One of this year's most unusual pictures "Zoo in Budapest", with Gene Raymond and Loretta Young in the Belle Theatre at a time when a novelty on the screen is being a breath of spring filled with natural drama and climaxed by one of the most thrilling episodes ever filmed. "Pleasure Cruise" the new fun feature comedy featuring Genevieve Tobin and Roland Young is the second feature to be shown tonight.

Some form of poison ivy is found in almost every part of the United States except on high mountains and in the desert.

You can't produce a great composition with all the distractions of the modern age.—Frank Dumont.

Marion Davies in "Peg O' My Heart" now at the Capitol Theatre until Friday.

TOO MUCH MACKEREL FOR MARION DAVIES IN PEG O'MY HEART

Ancestral English homes furnished the interior decorations for the magnificent settings in "Peg O' My Heart," Marion Davies' new picture currently playing at the Capitol Theatre. Antiques of various periods, assembled for the production, were traced back to the homes of old British families from which they had been auctioned off and passed into the hands of dealers. These include coats of armor, silver service sets, tapestries and period furniture.

Training a dog to chase a fox is a cinch, according to Henry East, motion-picture dog trainer. But training a fox to chase a dog is quite another task. In one of the scenes for "Peg O' My Heart" a dog is shown running after a fox. The next scene shows the fox chasing the dog.

Charles Sterling, who plays opposite Marion Davies in "Peg O' My Heart," was born in Liverpool England, and went on the stage as a child. He entered films from the theatre making his first important appearance as the writer in "Once in a Lifetime."

Marion Davies won't want to see a fish for a long, long time. In making the opening scene of "Peg O' My Heart," Miss Davies wrestled with hundreds of pounds of mackerel. After several days she admiting she didn't care if she never saw another mackerel—dried, fresh or smoked!

Although his name doesn't appear in the cast, Michael is one of the most important players in Marion Davies' new picture, "Peg O' My Heart". Michael is a nine-year-old mongrel dog which is with Peg during all her trials and tribulations. He has been in more than a hundred films and never need to be told what to do. He is training to follow the action of the human player with whom he is working.

"Peg O' My Heart" opened a three-day engagement at the Capitol today, and the crowds are promise to be capacity days.

The programme includes "Africa Speaks English" (a comedy), sports and Canadian news.

SELECTION OF DINNERWARE

On Friday night ladies will have the opportunity of securing the piece they lack in the Wedgewood "Kirkelley" dinnerware set by attending the Capitol's Selection Girl Night.

Pieces are also obtainable on Friday afternoon by purchasing 50 cent tickets.

There will be one piece given for each paid admission and the piece will be the lady's choice.

BGU 4

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go.

Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth its cost.

Watch repairing is our specialty.

We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.

J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 518 324 FRONT ST.

Deposits in the post office and trustees savings banks in England increased more than $100,000,000 last year.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Domestic Financial Markets Inclined to Slow Down Pace—Pound Drops Two Cents And Dollar Mildly Reactionary—Mining Market Steams up Following Quiet Early Session—Distillery Socks Traded Actively on Toronto Board

WALL STREET FINANCIAL

New York, June 21 (AP) — The wandering United States dollar rested on European waxlaps today and domestic financial markets uncertain following their moderate setback of yesterday were inclined to slow down their pace.

The pound, sterling, which has lately become as barometer for stocks, dropped back about 2 cents and the Canadian dollar and other exchanges were mildly reactionary, share trading opened up with a half-hearted rally, but buyers began to disappear and prices eased. The lapse was about two points behind floor transactions at one time, but in some issues it was mildly. Most leading stocks, after moving aimlessly in the forenoon, showed some degree of firmness late. Wheat, corn and cotton were in a trifle higher, although lacking their usual exuberance. Bonds were irregular.

Most Canadian stocks and bonds moved in a narrow range. Both the Dominion Government 4½s and 4½s were fractionally lower, as were shares of International Nickel, Hollinger, Porcupine and Canadian Pacific. Dome mines gained about a point. The Dominion's currency sagged ¼ of a cent to 89⅛ cents.

WALL ST. CLOSE

New York, June 21 (AP)—After trailing about narrowly, stocks finished the late trading today under substantial buying in oils, surfaces and various commodity stocks. Improvement spread to other groups, although rails were rather quiet. Sales totaled 1,300,000 shares, about 4 points each. United States Steel and Allied Chemical Dye shone were up around a point while advances of 2 points or so were shown by Standard Oil of New Jersey, Seaboard Oil, Atlantic Refining, American Tobacco, Great Western Sugar, National Distillers, American Can, Continental and Dupont. Transfers approximated 3,500,000 shares.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, June 21 (CP)— Merger rumors affecting the distillery shares were trotted out again today and the Walker stocks were given one of the biggest whirls they have had this year. The common advanced nearly 1 1-2 points to 19 1-8 and the preferred advanced nearly 2 points to 18 3-4. Volume was heavy in both. The general list was firm at the close.

The other distillery issues also speeded up, the Distillery Seagram issue gained 1-4 to 8 1-2 and Industrial Alcohol 1-4 to 5 1-2. Bear shares showed weakness, Bud selling quite heavily at 8 and Canada Malting down 1-2 at 26 1-2.

Oils moved ahead strongly. International Pete closing at 5 1-2 for a new high while imperial was up more than a point to 13 3-8 and British American Oil up 1-4 at 13. Pete was traded in heavy volume. Smuggler was up 1-4. Utilities moved ahead in spots and loaned divided about equally.

In the interlisted group G.P.R. added 3-4, Penn 1-4, Brazilian Nickel 40 cents and Smellers 2 while Brazilian fell back about 1-4.

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, June 21 (CP)—Eldorado Uranium and Beaver were the only stocks to show heavy-action today in the Standard Mining Exchange's general tone, remaining firm, especially at the close. The market was quiet and lapsed with price movements narrow and irregular, while base metals held to the up side by narrow margins.

TORONTO

B.A. Oil, 13¾.
Imperial Oil, 13⅞.
McColl Frontenac, bid 11⅛.
International Nickel, 40⅞.
Supertest, 8¾.
Distillers Seagrams, bid 8⅝.
Walker, G. & W., 18¾.
Walker's, pfd. 18¾.
Canadian Distillers, common, 8¼.
Canada Bud, 8.
Cons. Smelters, 21¼.
Bell Telephone, 101.
C.P.R., 19⅛.
Canada Cement, 8⅝.
Canada Malt, 26¼.
Crushers, 6¼.
Dominion Stores, bid 20½.
Ford A., 5¼.
Smelters, 130.
Loblaw A, 13¾.
Montreal Power, 37¼.
Massey Harris, 6¼.
Page Hersey, 8¼.
Canada Vinegar, bid 22.
Steel of Canada, bid 27½.
Brazilian, 16.

NEW YORK

American Can., 92¼.
Auburn, 68¼.
Am. Pow. Power, 16¼.
Anaconda, 16¾.
A.T. Central, 39¾.
Case, 86¼.
Electric Auto Lite, 23⅛.
Cons. Oil, 5⅝.
General Motors, 25⅝.
Inter. Telephone, 17¼.
Standard Oil of N.J., 38¾.
Chrysler, 23¼.
North American, 33.
Montgomery Ward, 34.
Radio, 9⅝.
Standard Brands, 20.
Stewart Warner, 7¼.
Amer. T. and T., 128½.
Interlake Aircraft, 23¾.
Vanadium, 35¼.
Westinghouse, 47.
U. S. Steel, 56⅝.

ANNIVERSARY OF NILE'S CORNERS CHURCH MARKED

Niles Corners—Mr. Ben Ellis and Mr. Joseph Ellis were the host guests of their sister, Mrs. George Newson of Rose Hall.

A very fine congregation assembled both afternoon and evening on Sunday last at Nile's Corners Church to mark the fifth-eighth anniversary of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. York of Trenton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McClure.

Miss Dot McDonald and Miss Evelyn Baird of Wellington were guests of Mrs. Will Ellis and Mrs. Earl Ellis on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clapp and Vernon were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Mannon, Rose Hall.

Mrs. Munroe of Greenbush, also Miss York of Trenton, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. D. McPaul.

Mrs. Ross Cruickshank of Melville, visited her father, Mr. Bruce Ellis one day last week.

Mr. Bolton Emerson, and Mr. McLeod of Hillier, called on H. Lunn on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bullard and little son and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wheeler and children of Bellevil'e were Sunday visitors at A. N. Dafoe's.

The community extend their sympathy and sincere sorrow to the Dee and family in the death of their aunt, Mrs. Alex Dorland. The funeral was held from Wellington Church on Tuesday afternoon.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, P. H. Willis branch manager. Quotations at 3.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley, 1.15.
Amulet, 36.
Arno, bid 05¼.
Barry Hollinger, bid 12.
Base Metals, bid 3.25.
Central Patricia, bid 28.
Dome, bid 23.50.
Eldorado, 3.69.
Hollinger-Ankerite, 4.19.
Granada, bid 1.36.
Hollinger, 4.75.
Hudson's Bay, 9.25.
Howey, bid 32.
Kirkland Lake, bid 42.
Lake Shore, bid 41.00.
Macassa, bid 71¼.
McIntyre, bid 31.50.
Mining Corporation, bid 2.15.
McLeod River, bid 03¾.
Nipissing, bid 2.75.
Noranda, 23.00.
International Nickel, 19.95.
O. S. Pioneer, bid 14.75.
Pend, Oreille, bid 1.35.
Sherritt, 1.20.
Teck, 1.37.
Stadacona, bid 06.
Sudbury Basin, 1.71.
Sylvanite, 1.34.
Teck Hughes, 6.35.
Vipond, bid 56.
Ventures, 1.67.
Wright Hargreaves, 6.10.
Ajax, 1.10.
Big Missouri, bid 26.
Bralorne, bid 6.80.
Brewis, 04¼.
Can. Kirk., 09½.
Castle Trethi., bid 55.
Consol. Smelters, bid, 6.00.
Comiaurum, bid 46.
Dom. Explor., 07½.
Goldale, 14¾.
Kirk. Hargreaves, bid 37.
Moss Mines, 12.
Manitoba, bid 03.
Moffatt Hall, bid 02¾.
McVitte, bid 06.
McWatts, 91.
Premier, bid 1.30.
Reno, bid 18.
St. Anthony, bid 38.
S. Antonio, bid 1.06.
Wayside, 10½.
Waite Ackerman, bid 1.33.

GARBAGE SCENES AT DAYBREAK

For some time early morning risers have witnessed the spectacle of garbage untenderly contents about the city, being salvaged by enterprising patrolmen who developed in more than one gleaner with bags, hand carts and now improvised sulky arrangements.

ALL CROPS ARE IN NEED OF RAIN

Field crops and garden produce throughout the whole province of Ontario, the province, parched and dry, are generally in need of rain, tokens of rain, that has not been felt in the district for weeks. Lightning flashed and thunder rolled northward on Monday afternoon, but only a few light drops of rain from the storm, which poured over very little moisture in Kingston to Brockville, according to railway men, lead to hopes of rain and relief in worse condition, than it has been in previous years at this time.

LOCAL HORSES IN THE MONEY

Wilmer Hillick, teamster of the Belleville fleet of that city, shared in the spoils at Kemptville yesterday, two of his horses earning money in the races contested. Vernon McGillivray, was second to Baldwin in the 2.18 stake for $500, the last heat being 2.17 1-4. Catharine Hanna owned by Frank Orr of this city took second money in the slow class winning the first heat and dropping the next three to Dispatch owned by Dr. E. H. Herrington of Pictqn. It is understood that the track was heavy as the horses suffered much from the heat. Two accidents, neither of which was serious occurred during the races.

NAZI RAID ENDS IN DEATH OF MAN

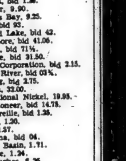
Berlin, June 21—Chancellor Adolf Hitler's Nazi administration moved against Dr. Alfred Hugenberg's nationalists today with a series of raids on various party headquarters. Only one man was killed, and with orders given for disarmament of nationalist auxiliary organizations.

The fatality occurred at Frankfort-on-the-Oder, where a man was shot during a raid on the party headquarters.

TO VISIT EUROPE

New York, June 21 (CP)—Edward Johnson, Canadian tenor with the Metropolitan Opera Company, is scheduled today on the steamship Albert Ballin for Germany. He will join his daughter Florentina at Munich and will spend the summer in Europe visiting various music festivals.

Westminster Hotel
TORONTO



Centrally situated, close to shopping district and theatres. Fireproof. Tea room open till midnight. Single room with bath, $2.25; Double room with bath, $3.50 and up. Breakfast 25c to 70c. Luncheon 50c. Dinner 60c

Write for illustrated folder

See Harris St. Toronto
Phone Adelaide 9881

NATION OF INTELLECTUALS BEING BUILT IN PALESTINE

Dr. and Mrs. Chaim Weizmann, Pioneers of Zionist Colonization, Setting up Almost Utopian State

Dr. and Mrs. Chaim Weizmann
They claim almost Utopian ideal in Palestine

By THOMAS C. WATSON
Central Press Canadian Writer

London, June 21 — Palestine's amazing success in transforming its intelelectuals into successful peasants has been quoted as an example to the United States and Great Britain.

In Palestine the one-time professional man now tills the soil and makes a living instead of adding to the long queues of unemployed white-collared workers.

Mrs. Chaim Weizmann, wife of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, one of the pioneers of the Zionist colonization movement, is in London on a visit from Palestine.

"Could the British or any other governments adopt the same methods of colonization for its unemployed as that which has been so successfully applied in Palestine?" she was asked.

Mrs. Weizmann, who was the first woman medical officer of health ever appointed in Palestine, replied: Britain was uncertain, but she ventured an opinion that a study of the methods in Palestine would be a great help to either Britain or America, particularly in the case of the unemployed intellectuals. She said:

"I don't think that ordinary colonization could be carried on in the same manner now. One cannot do all these things under compulsion.

"It is only the enormous idealism that lies behind it that has induced the Jewish intellectual to renounce his profession and the amenities of cultural life, in order to become the foundation of a new peasant structure on which the future nation is being built.

"Our pioneers in Palestine are men and women who are willing to live without money so long as they have the bare necessities of life. It sounds almost a Utopian ideal, but it is, nevertheless a fact.

"Private individuals can buy as much land in Palestine as they please or can afford, but the only migrant is provided only with as much land as he and his family can cultivate.

"The land belongs to him and his children's children as long as they cultivate it with their own hands. They have the right to sell it. In this way land speculation is avoided. Many of the people coming to immigrants settled in the country by the help of the Zionist funds.

"Another of the great difficulties —one is the individual settlement consisting of farmsteads. Each individual is given a piece of land, and as much as he and his family can work without hiring labor, and so many cows and chickens, sufficient to keep the family on the farm.

"The other type is that of the co-operative settlement. There is a co-operative house, each couple having one room. There is a co-operative dining room and kitchen.

"In these co-operative settlements the children live in a separate house of their own. There they learn their elementary lessons from games under the supervision of trained nurses and kindergarten mistresses.

"Proceeds of the sale of produce are put in a common pool and are divided according to the needs of the whole community. Its members are paid by their market gardens and are perfectly happy with the results achieved.

"In other countries Jews have been prominent in science, the arts and finance, but there is practically no Jewish agricultural population outside Palestine. They are now building up a future Palestinian nation based on the firm foundation of a solidly-rooted peasantry."

STRAWBERRY CROP A DISAPPOINTMENT

Lonsdale—Strawberry time is here again, many have been disappointed —the crop has been almost a failure owing to the very dry weather. All are wishing for a good rain to come soon.

Some of the farmers are busy planting potatoes.

Miss Ella Mashotte, central telephone operator, returned home on Wednesday after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Tweed.

Mrs. A. E. Thompson is visiting, accompanied by his daughter and some friends, from Ottawa, took dinner with Mrs. A. E. Hall & H. McCullough on Friday.

Mrs. H. Mashotte attended a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. M. McCullough.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pearson of Deseronto, called on Mr. and Mrs. Milburn on Monday.

Rev. A. J. Wilson, Napanee, also Mr. MacGregor called on Mr. Frank McCullough on Friday evening.

Mr. John McCullough, Belleville, visited friends on Wednesday.

About fifty people attended the ball game which was played on the Percy Kimmerly's, Tuesday evening. A very enjoyable time was reported. Refreshments were served.

Mr. Ben Hall visited at Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCullough's on Wednesday.

Miss Florence McRae and Mrs. J. McHaih called on some friends on Monday.

Mr. Frank Kinnear lost a valuable cow last week. The animal had its leg broken and had to be destroyed.

Quite a number attended the concert and play given for the Women's Institute hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. Reid, butcher, called on some farmers on Saturday, looking for lambs.

Mr. J. Roach calling on J. McCullough and Mr. W. Haight on Monday.

Word has been received from Mrs. Alexander Mrs. Milburn's sister that she has arrived safely at her brother's in the west.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

Owing to a number of citizens using water on lawns out of hours it is necessary to put an Inspector out to check this practice. The hours for the use of water for any purpose are from 7.00 to 9.00 in the morning and 5.30 to 9.00 in the evening. Any person found violating these rules the water will be turned off and will not be turned on again after the fine has been paid at the office.

This does not apply to consumers on meter.

By Order,
WATERWORKS DEPARTMENT
121-41.

IN MEMORIAM

BAKER—In sad and loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Chris Baker, who left us June 21st, 1931.

We often think of you dear wife and mother,
And of how you died.
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
The flowers we placed upon your grave,
They wither and decay,
But the love for you that always be-neath
Will never fade away.
—Sadly missed by Husband, Daughters and Sons. 121-1t

BIRTHS

MASON—On June 30th to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mason, Frankford (Eversor) a daughter. (Barbara June).

DEATHS

WADE—In Brighton Township on Monday, June 19, 1933, Thomas Wade, aged 87, husband of Marcus H. Wade in her 53rd year.

The funeral service will be held from her late residence in the Lewis Church on Thursday, June 22nd. at 2.30 p.m. Interment at Mt. Hope Cemetery. 121-1t

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
218-220 QUEEN ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2965
F. C. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Manufacturer Cryptic Fur Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkston
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON
FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 87 and Phone 311
Nights and Sundays 1313

MONUMENTS

A. C. Campbell
Belleville Cemetery
21 Bridge Street East. Phone 3

34 and 36 Ponton St.
Double House
For Sale
at 1200.00
MUST BE SOLD AT ONCE
THIS IS A BARGAIN
BELLEVILLE LOCATORS
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
'Phone 99 House 'Phone 637

PHONE 1340
BELLEVILLE-MADOC BUS
Leaves Clarke Daily 9 A.M
Returning Leaves Belleville
2 P.M.
Parcel Express. Orders Called for and Delivered
E. STAPLEY—Phone 1340

Classified Ad. Rates PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Notices, etc. Marriages and Engagement Notices, 1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Memorium Poetry, minimum charge, $1.50 for 10 lines over that 5c per count line; Resolutions of Sympathy, Acknowledgments, minimum charge, $1.00.

CLASSIFIED (Per line, minimum 40c).—3 1-2c per word each for first TWO insertions; 1c per word for insertions 3c per word, minimum 20 words.

COMING EVENTS—No per insertion for 25 words or under; over that amount 1c per word.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS AND BUSINESS CARDS (Yearly Contract) $3.00 per month per inch.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including those concerning Legal Sales) 15c per agate line (14 lines to inch) For Third insertion and for each subsequent insertion 10c per line.

AUCTION SALE—3c per word, heading no more than 12 words, minimum $2 words for 75c; consecutive insertions, 2c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ad; when it is more convenient. PHONE 99.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Want Ad ordered by telephone.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to a number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

MAN NEAT APPEARANCE TO qualify as branch manager for haberdashery firm. Apply C. Walsh, Queen's Hotel. 121-1t

SECOND HAND STOVE filled 7-in. hole. Apply stating particulars and cash price. Ritchie Wells, R. R. Marmora, Ontario. 116-tf

$700 SECOND MORTGAGE ON city property. Apply Box "W" Ontario Intelligencer. 121-tf

THREE BURNER OIL STOVE in good condition. Apply 21 Earl St. Phone 1768W. 119-3t.

TO-LET

SIX ROOM DWELLING. All conveniences except furnace. Garage. New Bridge Street. Possession at once. Rent twenty. Chas. Ashley.

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, LARGE front bed sitting room, ground floor, private entrance, under-stairs. 121-1t

FURNISHED SIX ROOM COTtage between Northport and Telephone Exchange. Electric light and boat. Good bass fishing. $12 per week. Apply W. R. Barker, R. 2, Picton. 121-4t.

SIX ROOM HOUSE ON WEST Bridge St. All modern conveniences. Apply 14 Isabel St. 118-tf.

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences, 12 Albion St. or tel 9063. tu26-tf.

MODERN APARTMENT, STEAM heated, suitable adult couple, stove, hardwood floors. Apply to Ontario Intelligencer. 121-tf

5 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT. Every convenience immediate possession. Apply Geo. Hinds, Front St., Phone 1679. 435-tf.

7 ROOM APARTMENT HEATED on otherside. Electric stove, electric refrigerator hardwood floor. Garage. Apply 104 Dundas St. or Phone 1679. 121-tf

2 LOWER APARTMENTS. CONveniences. Garden and garage. Only possessed. Apply 172 Pinnacle St. 121-tf

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. P. H. Willis, Branch Manager. 35-1y.

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Conveyancer. Civil Engineer. Land Surveys Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly executed to. Office: P. O. BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1344 137 Front St.

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
137 Front St.
Phone 1344 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
121 Front St. Phone 138

HALL & EARLE
General insurance, Fire, Automobile Accident, Plate Glass
274 Front Street Phone 1154W

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, EAVESTROUGHING
General Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1372

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLIcitor, Notary Public, etc., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. 23 tu4-tf.

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public. Solicitors for Royal Bank. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., D. Arnott. Offices: 319 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Bellellor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers. Offices 36 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. D. Ponton, K.C. R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Wallbridge, (late F. S. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Money to loan. Canada Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 28 Bridge Street E. E. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, PH.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiocaleograph. Specialist in early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all disease treated. Phone 900 or write 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Picton, Tuesdays and Fridays.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher CHIROPRACTORS

(Honour Graduates)
Faihe-Newmercier Service
42½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1314 Belleville, Ont

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S. and CHARLES ARMAND, M.D.C.M. Westinghouse X-Ray Equipment at Office Hours:
8 to 10 a.m. 1 to 2 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle Street, Belleville
Phone 371 o6-5m.

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1085
A. L. HOWARD, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Forin St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Kelchesan and Co., today:

Wheat—July 67 3-8; Oct. 69 5-8; Dec. 70 7-8.
Oats—July 54; Oct 56 3-8; Dec. 58.
Barley—July 36 3-8; Oct 40 3-8; Dec. 3-4.

EXCHANGE RATES

Exchange rates at 3 p.m. today were: Pound sterling in Montreal 4.83 3-4, U.S. dollar in Montreal 1.11; Pound sterling in New York 4.17 1-2; Canadian dollar in New York .90.

TOURIST TRAFFIC IS MUCH HEAVIER

Northern resort tourist camp owners of this district report a greater influx of tourists this year than for the past several years. Belleville'ans south of the border this year is given as the cause. Tourists this year started to come into the district of Belleville on the 15th of May, earlier this year than for years past, according to Mr. A. Vader, of Bancroft. Bancroft lake is one of the magnets attracting the American visitors, and owners of cottages on the lake declare themselves already fully engaged in caring for them. Mr. A. Nickle, one of the camp owners reported that two-thirds of his summer cottages have been filled already.

ARM BROKEN BY PITCHED BASEBALL

Kitchener, Ont., June 21 (CP)—Garfield Reddon, president of the Intercounty Baseball Association, is suffering from a fractured arm. X-ray examination revealed today. He was injured Monday night when a pitched ball hit him on the arm. It was not until today, however, that the extent of the injury was ascertained.

TOURIST TRAFFIC

Northern resort tourist camp owners of this district report a greater influx of tourists this year than for the past several years. Belleville'ans south of the border this year is given as the cause. Tourists this year started to come into the district of Belleville on the 15th of May, earlier this year than for years past, according to Mr. A. Vader, of Bancroft. Bancroft lake is one of the magnets attracting the American visitors, and owners of cottages on the lake declare themselves already fully engaged in caring for them. Mr. A. Nickle, one of the camp owners reported that two-thirds of his summer cottages have been filled already.

Produce Market

Toronto, June 21—(CP)— The following quotations on produce offered at Toronto were supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. today: Eggs extra, doz. 15c; eggs firsts, doz 12c; eggs, seconds, doz. (cracked) 10c; creaming cream No. 1 lb., (F.O.B.) 18c; Churning cream No. 1 lb., (delivered truck) 16c; churning cream No. 2 lb., 15c; Butter, No. 1, solids 19 1-2c; butter No. 2, solids 18c; Potatoes per bag 80c; new imported potatoes per barrel $4.50; Beans, dealer's prices in carlots, F.O.B. a point of shipment $1.00.

TOURIST TRAFFIC IS MUCH HEAVIER

Northern resort tourist camp owners of this district report a greater influx of tourists this year than for the past several years. Belleville'ans south of the border this year is given as the cause. Tourists this year started to come into the district of Belleville on the 15th of May, earlier this year than for years past, according to Mr. A. Vader, of Bancroft. Bancroft lake is one of the magnets attracting the American visitors, and owners of cottages on the lake declare themselves already fully engaged in caring for them. Mr. A. Nickle, one of the camp owners reported that two-thirds of his summer cottages have been filled already.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

Change of Time Effective April 30th, 1933

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No. 118 12.40 A.M.

Mail and Express Monday only. North Station No 12 12.25 A.M.

Mail and Express Daily, except Sunday.
The Maple Leaf Daily.

North Station No 26 11.38 A.M.
Port Hope to Orillia Daily.

North Station No. 448 6.40 P.M.
Daily except Sunday.

North Station No. 18 11.55 A.M.

The International Limited Daily except Sunday.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No 19 2.55 A.M.
Mail and Express Daily.

North Station No 17 4.10 A.M.
The Inter-City Limited Daily except Sunday.

North Station No 27 1.28 P.M.
Pool Train Daily.

North Station No 5 2.20 P.M.
The Maple Leaf Daily

North Station No 25 8.00 P.M.
Daily except Sunday.

Leaves Tweed 15 7.25 P.M.
The International Limited Pool Train.

BELLEVILLE & PETERBORO

North Station No 11 6.00 A.M.
Local Passenger Daily except Sunday.

BELLEVILLE & PICTON

North Station No 93 8.05 A.M.
Local Passenger Mon. Wed. Fri.
Leaves Picton for Belleville 12.30 P.M. same days

BELLEVILLE & MADOC

North Station No 95 8.00 A.M.
Local Passenger Tues. Thurs. & Sat Leaves Madoc for Belleville 12.00 noon same days.

Spying on Sports

BY
William Ritt
Central Press Canadian

TWO OPINIONS are voiced in regard to the recent Brooklyn-New York three-player trade.

Opinion 1—It may result in the National league pennant for the Giants.

Opinion 2—It may raise the Dodgers from the second division to pennant conicendership.

Both opinions may be correct. Anyway, the deal has a chance to prove an excellent one for both clubs.

Giant fans are certain they got the best of it. Dodger fans think their club did. However, the real lovers may prove to be the Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs, three National league teams with pennant hopes.

X X X

THE TRADE—Letty Clark and Lefty O'Doul for Sam Leslie—is the fourth player swap negotiated between the Giants and the Dodgers in 30 years. These two clubs traded players less often than any other two teams in the big leagues.

In 1902 the Dodgers gave Bill Dahlen, who later became a star shortstop, for Charley Babb and Jack Dreckle and nothing.

In 1916 the Giants took Lew McCarty, a catcher, for Fred Merkle, an outfielder.

In 1927 the two clubs and the Phillies did some trading. Burleigh Grimes was sent by the Dodgers to the Giants who gave up Fresco Thompson and $25,000 and Thompson in turn was turned over to the Phils who gave the Dodgers Butch Henline.

X X X

SAM LESLIE has begun his Brooklyn career in brilliant fashion. In his first several games as a Dodger he has looked better than even optimistic Flatbush fans, the most optimistic in the world, dared hope.

Leslie cannot be expected to be a brilliant player every day but, at least he finally answers Brooklyn's two-year prayer for a first class first baseman. Ever since Del Bissonette was cut down by his persistent jinx the Dodgers have been trying to settle their first base problems.

Brooklyn aided the Giants in the trade but that couldn't be helped Because Manager Bill Terry is just about the best first baseman in the National league all the Giants lost in Leslie was a bench warmer and retained needed southpaw pitching and a potential star hitter.

X X X

IF THE CURRENT sprightly play of the Dodgers isn't a flash in the pan, the club now secure at first base, may go places.

O'Doul, despite a bad season at bat, hasn't lost his confidence. A new uniform may be just what the former National league batting champion needs. William Watson Clark, now recovering from sinus trouble, gives the Giants needed southpaw slab help for Pitcher Carl Hubbell.

Should this deal prove to have strengthened both Giants and Dodgers the going is going to be all the tougher for the fallen Pirates, the hopeful Cards and puzzled Cubs.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL SCHEDULE

June 20:
South End A.C. at Belleville Fruit
June 23:
Maple Leafs at South End A.C.
June 27:
Belleville Fruit at Maple Leafs
June 30:
Belleville Fruit at South End A.C.
July 4:
South End A.C. at Maple Leafs
July 7:
Maple Leafs at Belleville Fruit
July 11:
South End A.C. at Belleville Fruit
July 14:
Maple Leafs at South End A.C.
July 18:
Belleville Fruit at Maple Leafs
July 21:
Belleville Fruit at South End A.C.
July 25:
South End A.C. at Maple Leafs
July 28:
Maple Leafs at Belleville Fruit

CUTTERS BACK TO WORK

PORT ARTHUR Ont., June 20. —(CP)—Pulpwood cutters who have been on strike for several days for higher pay have agreed to contractors' terms, and threatened closing up of the various camps, throwing nearly 2,000 men out of work, has been averted.

The longest flight reported for a banded bird made by a fledging Arctic tern, which flew from Tuhnvath Bay, Labrador, to Margate, Natal in South Africa.

ADDITIONAL SPORT, PAGE 10

THE BEACHES ARE CALLING
Come in and see the newest styles in Jantzen and Kling-tite Bathing Suits.
CHAS. J. SYMONS
166 Front St. Phone 43

FITTING IN - - - By Jack Sords

O.H.A. Temporarily Refuse to Issue Transfers to 45 Who Seek to Change Residence

Players Will Have to Appear Personally to Explain Move

OFFICERS BLAMED

Evidence Given at Recent Trial Probably Responsible For Action

Toronto, June 21—(CP)—In one sweeping gesture, the Ontario Hockey Association today had put the stamp of disapproval on tourist players by an expedient of temporarily at least refusing to grant transfers to every one of the 45 players, who seek ratification of their change of residence.

The association's executive last night considered applications of the 45, refused them all and announced players would have to come before it and explain satisfactorily why they moved after last season, to qualify for playing certificates in new towns.

Obviously of the opinion, that clubs in certain cities were feeders in the latest player-trek, the executive ordered officers of the Hamilton, Kitchener, Midland, Oakville, Oshawa, Stratford, Toronto Marlboros and Toronto Nationals teams have representatives at the next meeting to explain what part, if any they took in the movement.

Officers Responsible

"The executive believes, that in the majority of these cases the officers of the clubs rather than the players have been chiefly responsible for the applications being before the association," read a resolution passed last night. So club officials are to do some explaining along with players.

Brief admission was paid disclosures made during the hearing of A. B. (Andy) Taylor's suit against Maple Leaf Gardens and concerning Toronto Nationals.

"In view of the fact that the litigation, which has aroused great interest concerning one of the clubs of our association has not yet terminated, the executive committee deems it advisable to defer consideration of the position of that club to a later meeting," the executive decided.

Among the 45 players, seeking transfers were four now living in Hamilton, four who have moved to Kitchener, five to Midland, six to Oakville, five to Oshawa, five to Stratford three to Toronto Marlboros and three to Nationals.

Hamilton's new men are Max Bennett sensation winger from Fal, conbridge, formerly of Sudbury Wolves, Charlie Tenn, goalie from Windsor, George Downey from Niagara Falls and C. J. Chisholm from Toronto Nationals.

Kitchener asked transfer of A. J. Miller from Port Perry, Edward Wheeler from Montreal Royals, Eddie Wroxman from Stratford Midgets and A. J. Zuch from Chesley. New players in Midland are Lawrence (Dutch) Cain from Collingwood Lawrence Devine from Coldwater, Stanley Dobson from Toronto Nationals and Richard and Emmett Devine from Kenora.

The six Oakville pow harbors are Ken Brother and Frank Harding of last year's Newmarket Redmen, Canadian junior champions; Lloyd Rockel from Stratford Midgets, Saral Allen from National Juniors Donald Rae from Burlington and Charles Swayze from Grimsby.

Oshawa Imperils Five

Oshawa hoped to get transfers for four Northern Ontario players — Henry Frost and Bill Morris of New Liskeard, Tony Grabowski of Kirkland Lake and Leo Lamoureaux of Timmins—and William Morrison of Galt. They are all juniors.

Four members of Hamilton Petricias, O.H.A. senior B. champions, asked permission to play next season in Stratford. They are John Howard, Gordon Anderson, Steve Cusnick and Bill Bellingham. John Draper of Ottawa also sought transfer to Stratford.

Marlboro Club's newcomers are Normie Mann, ace of the Newmarket Juniors last winter; Bill Duman and Dalton Smith of Sudbury. Nationals asked transfers for Harold Ingram and Gordon Dillon of last year's Moncton juniors and Bert Mayes of Brantford.

Brantford juniors asked a transfer for Eddie Rankins of Campbell, ford. Clinton one for Ross McEwen of Stratford, Niagara Falls for permission to use Alif Hoch of Kitchener and Les Cuthbert of Port Colborne. Woodstock Juniors want to play Ralph Henderson of Ingersoll. Windsor Mic Macs want Ralph Jones of Stratford.

DAUGHTER HANDLING FILES

WINDSOR, Ont., June 21—(CP)—While her father is holidaying in England Miss Wilkinson, daughter of Superintendent James Wilkinson, City Police Fingerprint specialist, is handling his office at headquarters, flying away cards and otherwise making herself useful.

Mystery Island in Quebec, the national domain, supplying all the Canadian Boy Scouts, has been made a bird sanctuary by the Canadian Government.

PULLMAN'S WIN 26-3

Easily Defeat Trinity United in Special Series

Madoc, June 21 (Special)— The fourth in the series of games played in Madoc between the 1932 champions (Trinity United softball team and the challengers Pullman's) was played on Monday evening. Pullman's winning their second relief by a score of 26-3. Score by innings:

Pullmans	850 004 164—26
Trinity—D. Ashley (A. Ross), C. Johnston, W. Dingman, K. Kinraid (M. Caverly), M. Caverly (D. Ashley), W. Poole, E. Alexander, G. Rivers, A. Ross (C. Kinraid).
Pullmans—J. Watson, A Rupert, K. West, T. Rupert, D Whylock, V. Jack, F. Asey, L. Walkinge, G. Scopis.

Umpires—Dr. Dewer and P. Naylor.

CRYSTALACS ON TOP RUNG

Defeat Moose 4-2 in Well Played Interesting Game

Art Young's Crystalac juniors pulled into the lead position of the local Junior O.B.A.A. loop, when they defeated the Moose Juniors by the score of 4 to 2 in the hardest fought game yet played this season at the Alemite grounds last evening.

McLean started on the hilltop for the "Lac" kids but was forced to give way to Langdon, who stepped into the pitching box in the fourth innings to stop a Moose rally, after the "Lodge Boys" had scored two runs and seemed headed to a sure victory. Lankton went on to blank the Moose outfit. Harris buried the complete game for the Moose and although defeated let the hard hitting "Easterders" down with six hits.

"Mase" Rigby, stellar centre fielder of the "Lacs" proved to be the big hitter of the day collecting two safeties. Sero also accounted for a brace of hits for the winners. Harris, Bennett and Knott were the best allround players for the losers. Bennett, the centre fielder for the Moose kids provided the fielding sensation of the day, when he literally robbed Rigby of what looked to be a sure home run on a nice running catch. Don Thomas handled the grinds of the "Lac" pitchers superbly throughout.

The lineups

Crystalacs—Gray, Sinfield, Rigby, Sero, Thomas, Bennett, Demark, McLean, Cole and Langton.

Moose Jrs.— Knott, Connors, Henn, Brown, Kidd, Keliher, Bennett, Robinson, Harris and Munnings.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Moose Jrs.	000 200 0—2	5	1
Crystalacs	010 003 2—4	6	1

Engineers have estimated that it would cost more than $250,000,000 to duplicate the Great wall of China.

BETWEEN INNINGS

FREDDY HEIMACH being on the shelf, due to a leg injury, the Brooklyn Dodgers have been operating with a seven-man pitching staff, just about the smallest in the major league.

X X X

CINCINNATI REDS are figured a chance to land in first division by National league rivals because of the team's hustling spirit, along with the club's improved personnel.

X X X

LOU FINNEY, Frank Higgins, Bob Johnson, Ed Chilnock, Sugar Cain have all made good with the A's this season— and this gives Philadelphia a big lead over other clubs in developing new men this year.

X X X

CHICK FULLIS of the Phillies and Heinie Manush of the Senators have come to bat oftener than any other player in their respective leagues this season.

X X X

SPENCER ABBOTT'S Portland Beavers are putting up one of the best title offenses while on the baseball scene. The team is playing a consistent brand of ball in the Coast League.

X X X

OWEN CARROLL, the Dodger pitcher who came to the big show from Holy Cross, insists that the college moung star must "learn all over again" when he becomes a major leaguer.

X X X

BOB BURKE would have dropped to the minors this season but the Cleveland Indians refused to waive on the Senator moundsman, so the Washington club decided to keep him.

X X X

MIKE CVENGROS, one-time American league twirler, is just about the top shot pitcher of the Texas league. He has an ever-increasing string of victories for the Houston team.

GOLF FACTS

NOT THEORIES!
By
Alex J. Morrison

PUTTING RIGHT HAND INTO SWING AT ANY TIME IS BOUND TO SPOIL THE SHOT.

Putting right hand into swing at any time is bound to spoil the shot.

ALEX MORRISON says:

Several of our leading players have been quoted as saying that they are conscious of putting their right hand punch into their swings just as the club head is about to land on the ball.

I am willing to bet that these or any other players can't consciously speed up the right hand in the down swing and make a truly successful shot.

Even if this was a good idea it would be impractical because you haven't the time to think about such things in your down swing if you're going to be successful.

It takes such a small fraction of a second for you to bring the club down from the top of your back swing that the best thing for you to do is to think about swinging smoothly and keeping your chin back.

Next: Hitting Lofted Ball Straight.

A.R.A.F. airplane transported 600 trout to the desert streams feeding the Jupiter-Amon Oasis in Libya a year ago. An inspection of the streams shows that the trout have become acclimatized, and that the waters are now swarming with young fish.

AL GETZEWICH

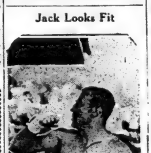
After hiding behind a mask for over two years the Masked Marvel will absolutely show his face to the patrons following his bout with Sandor Szabo tonight.

Ties World Mark!

Jesse Owens

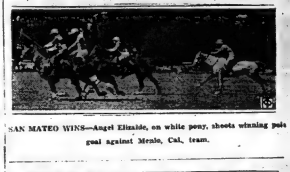
Astounding track followers, Jesse Owens, colored sprinter of East Tech high of Cleveland, O., ties the world record for the 100-yard dash, 9.4 seconds, to win that event at the University of Chicago national interscholastic meet in Soldier's Field, Chicago.

English Summer WASH TIES



The Smartest Looking Things in Men's Neckwear We've Seen in a Long, Long Time.

Possessing Great Tying Qualities and Coming in Every Pattern and Shade Imaginable



— 50c —

QUICK AND ROBERTSON
CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

Jack Looks Fit

SAN MATEO WINS—Angel Elizalde, on white pony, shoots winning polo goal against Menlo, Cal., team.

JACK FIGHTS SHADOW—Giving his shadow a merciless beating Jack Sharkey goes through his paces in camp

Jack Sharkey

Those agile arms of Jack Sharkey pound away at a punching bag as he trains in Orangeburg, N.Y., for his heavyweight title bout, June 29, against Primo Carnera. The champ looks in shape, doesn't he?

HARVARD FOUR — Harvard's hard-riding polo team which defeated a fine Army squart, 10-8

PRIMO SPARS WITH LES KENNEDY

Carnera and Kennedy in a ... Working out against a heavy bag, Italian giant Primo Carnera, contender for world's heavyweight championship, awaits Les Kennedy about as the ... his title bout in New York June 29, against Heavyweight Champion Jack Sharkey.

Amateur and Pro Sculling Champions To Meet in Match Race

BOBBY PEARCE

Reports from London indicate that a match has at last been arranged between Bobby Pearce Olympic champion sculler, and Diamond Sculls winner, and Ted Phelps of England, world's professional sculling champion. Pearce who has not yet turned pro, has been residing in Hamilton, Ont., for the past five or six years. He hails originally from Australia. The match will be staged in Toronto during the Canadian National Exhibition.

Ted Phelps

A Reel Romance

By E. J. Hemingway

The rain swept down with a malicious gusto, riding the back of a shrieking wind, and in Dame's heart, as she sidestepped puddles and hung grimly to her umbrella, was the sad thought that she owned a pair of rubber deep enough she'd jump right into it and let Hollywood's official worries worry about the rest. At that moment she felt very dismal, very wet and very discouraged.

Arriving, rain-soaked, at the Consolidated Casting Bureau, she chose a seat and waiting her turn for the usual crisp, "Nothing today, dear," that the red-headed Miss Palmer usually delivered in her stern yet sorrowful voice. Miss Palmer, however, told her to wait.

Diane's hopes jumped upward. An order to "wait" was usually followed by an assignment. And ever since she had descended upon Hollywood, three years back, Diane had been waiting and praying for the assignment that would prove to be more than an "extra" but that would place her on the road to feature billing and stardom.

Perhaps, she told herself, this was to be her big chance.

Miss Palmer glanced up from the card she had been studying. "Our record doesn't mention whether you can swim. DeSoto wants fifty girls who can swim two hundred yards in evening dress."

Diane didn't answer at once. She had never attempted to swim two hundred yards. Nor had she ever taken a plunge in an evening dress. And yet . . . this might be the big chance . . .

"Is that for 'The Jungle Girl'?" she said, marveling for time.

"Righto. Don't take it if you can't swim, because you'll be sorry as hell from a burning yacht. Burning isn't any pleasanter than drowning."

Diane smiled with grim determination. "When shall I report?"

"Tomorrow at eight," the other answered, adding the inevitable "Weather permitting." Her pen scrolled a short note.

Next morning the weather permitted. Shortly after noon Diane reheared, with a hundred other young men and women, a trick walk that Alvin DeSoto, filmdom's leading exponent of glittering spectacle, wanted to introduce in "The Jungle Girl". It was to be at the height of a night of wild revelry, while a queen was in progress aboard the heroine's yacht that a sudden explosion was to occur, followed by fire.

DeSoto's assistant director hurried the extras with a rapter tongue, clicking, modified. Diane, at the most cried outright when he called her a "blubbering yak," and after her ignorance of what a yak might be had her partner's firm hand administered her from her wailed restrained her from screaming an exasperated reply that would have resulted in her dismissal.

She decided that she didn't like her partner. Two girls had advised her to "use the noodle, dearie," murmuring that he was DeSoto's nephew and that the director was training him for stardom.

Diane heard this she felt a pang of jealous resentment. It was pull after all, that counted in Hollywood. Not ability, nor courage and beauty — not even luck. And this "Ted Dearborn," for his uncle's whim, was to receive for the asking what she had to fight for with all her heart—and perhaps might never achieve.

That was why she decided to die, like him.

She resented his gentle smile, his gay manner. His little phrase, "Follow me, please," "Tell your head this way." "I'll get your picture into the camera range," roused her to fury. The arrogant, indolent condescending manager of him! His patronizing impudence! His revolting

"You don't like me," he divined during the rehearsal.

Much you care about that", Diane retorted.

"But I certainly do," he smiled. "Oh, dear! Are you sullen?"

"Looks like it."

Later:

"Don't be a girl like that. I've got to see you sometime."

"Maybe I'll never have any more sometimes."

"What do you mean?" His eyes grew anxious. "Why don't you tell me. If—if you're not sure you can swim—"

Impatiently, with a queer lump in her throat, Diane interrupted. "Stop acting gallant about me!" Without rhyme or reason she added, "I'm sick of—of you movie heroes—when you try to—to be in character off-screen."

At last everything was in readiness for the "shooting." Each detail had been rehearsed over and over again down to the apparently insignificant bits of "business." Oil was traced along the deck and on the cabin roofs where the flames were spread for striking pictorial effects. Every actor and actress was told precisely when and where to spring overboard.

The directorial staff, the camera, men and sound technicians clugged off in launches in four different directions. At a signal from DeSoto's launch, the deafening explosion was heard. Flame and artificial smoke fumes leaped into the air. Panic, real and pretended, gripped the players. Some cried out: a few of the faint-hearted jumped before their cues were timed.

Diane leaned against a rail, staring spell-bound at the water below. One by one the others plunged down, screaming, splashing. She thought she was alone when one of the supernumeraries, mingling with extras, yelled into her ear, "Don't stand there! We're sinking! Jump!"

In a daze, she climbed the rail and went over. Down into that churning mass of water she went and flung out her arms as she went under. Coming up, she barely screamed. Then she sank again.

It was Ted whose face she first saw when her eyes opened. His uncle, very red of face, was standing beside him in the screened cabin.

"That was a big drink you swallowed," Ted said, grinning. "Feel strong enough to be taken home?"

Diane squinted under his uncle's intense gaze. "I'm sorry," she plead. "I—I hope I didn't ruin the scene."

"Ruin the scene?" Alvin DeSoto uttered a gloating laugh. "My girl, we got a beautiful rescue! Right into the camera. All of it. Everything when we saw you go down. W——"

"Don't excite her now", Ted begged him.

But the older man swept on: "That bit will stay—and we'll add a couple of you low in the water —close range.

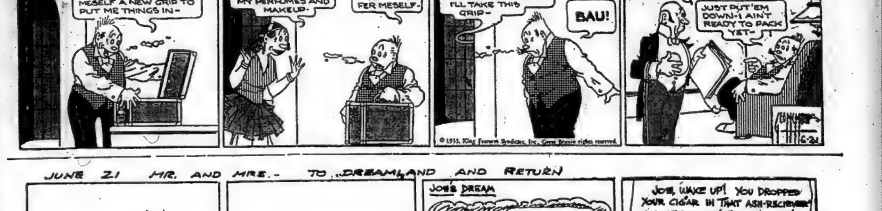
To Dame the mental vision of herself struggling again in the water was acutely painful. She winced.

"But first," Ted announced, "I'm going to teach you how to swim. No more heroics for me—if you please."

Diane's blue eyes focused on him. It would be awfully hard to go on pretending if dislike him. Practically impossible she realized.

I would not sell the vital interest of the Untouchables of India for the sake of winning the freedom of India.—Mahatma Gandhi.

Manners which are put on like cosmetics never have the charm of those which are real.—Emily Post.



Miss Lonelyheart's is the title of a new novel about a newspaperman who conducts an "advice" column on a big New York daily.

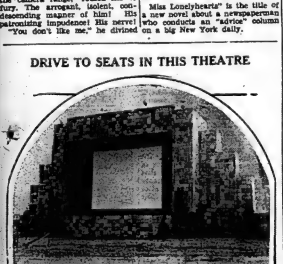
TILLIE THE TOILER

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Krakl spent a sleepless night He realized that soon. Tarzan would discover the loss of his pouch of diamonds and that he would return and demand an accounting of the three Londoners he had befriended. So in the first streak of dawn the Russian left his bed of dried grasses and crept from his shelter. "There is but one diamond in a thousand," he muttered to himself, "that I can reach the coast alive with them." And he caressed the sack of diamonds tucked in his shirt.

"But that chance is worth every effort. I have the wealth of a thousand kings in my possession. What can't I do with it in Paris or London!" Presently the vermin of the jungle closed about Carl Krakl and the Russian as he disappeared forever from the lives of his companions. The mystery of his going did not bother his friends much. His footprints were discovered leading into the jungle and they concluded Krakl had perhaps walked in his sleep and that some beast of prey had finished him.

But in the jungle fastness Krakl moved doggedly He was forced to make a detour and emerge through along the trail, rifle slung over his shoulder and a the tangled mass of underbrush beyond the snake, heavy automatic pistol grasped in his right hand. with his flesh scratched and bleeding from innumHis ears strained for the first sounds of pursuit or erable thorns. His clothes were torn and tattered other danger. Alone in the mysterious jungle he was and infested with vicious ants whose attacks renexperiencing a nightmare of terror. With every mile dered him half-mad with pain. He tore at his clothes, traveled Krakl's fear of the diamonds became less and less in his frantic efforts to rid himself of the torturing important to him. He would gladly have given up pests, but clung like grim death to his weapons and from a low-hung branch, barred his way, yet he did ammunition, and the precious sack from the Valley not dare to fire. of Diamonds.

DRIVE TO SEATS IN THIS THEATRE

No sweltering for Camden, N.J., movie fans this summer! The first automobile film theatre in the world is being constructed there so that patrons will rest in comfort in their cars while they watch the flickers unfold. By an arrangement of elevated parking spaces it will be possible not only to view the pictures from their cars, but automobiles will be able to arrive and leave through a 50-foot aisle without obstructing the vision of those remaining. Top, screen of the outdoor theatre; below, the parking space.

Little Benny's Note Book

Ma and Pauda Simkins and Lucky Leroy Shoonter was wawking along tawking about different subjects as whether it would be fun or fun to be a millionair or whether it would be too much trubble adding up the intrist all a time and figuring out how much trying to get you to give them some or even lend it to them if necessery, Pauda says ing, O well, I wouldn't mind taking a chance just to see how I liked it.

Me neither. I said, I often think how grate it would be if I found some rich cannibil king traveling around the world, and he liking me so much that after he got home to his cannibil island he would make me a big bote full of treasures every Christamas, like pearls and diamonds and dug up gold and silver and all kinds of treasures, I said.

That wouldn't be so bad, Puds Simkins said. I often think it would be a swell idea if I thawt of some way to term ordinery pennies into solid gold, and then I'd half to do would be to melt them and any jooiry store would be glad to buy them, he added.

It would be pritty handy all rite, Sherry Judge said, I often think I wouldn't mind finding a misterious old treasure. I feel be in a tres fore mine or maybe ony to a lot of buried berried treasure, he said, an' Lucky Leroy Shooster said, O be sertin.

Hearing one laying on the payment, and he quick stooped down and got it, me saying A penny, why cant us other guys ever find anything like that?

Because youre not naturelly lucky, Lucky Leroy said. So you mite as well keep on having fancy dreems, he said.

Wich we proberly mite as well.

SOFTBALL GAMES CREATE INTEREST

Mountain View, June 21— Miss Hazel Minaker took dinner on Sunday with Mrs. Clarence Sprague and family.

Mr. Carson Hubbs of Picton, spent the dinner hour on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Parliament.

Mrs. Mary Cross of Christian St. spent Saturday with her daughter Mrs. Clarence Sprague and family.

Miss Sybil Vancott of Birch Run, Mich., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sprague and daughter, Mrs. Howard Wallbridge of Massassaga spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Badgley of Big Island.

Mrs. John Bovay Spent Monday in Toronto returning home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague and Eleanor also Mrs. James Way and Lora of Bowerman's and Miss A. Way spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers of Frankford.

The teacher in this vicinity held school on Saturday forenoon for her entrance pupils. All wish them success in their examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Gosden and Mrs. A. J. Jordon also Miss M. Kavanagh of Cherry Valley spent Sunday with Miss E. Jordon and enjoyed a picnic together.

A number from this vicinity attended the ball game on Monday night at Rednersville.

Carrying Place lost to Rednersville with a score of 12-3.

Miss Sybil Vancott and Eleanor Sprague attended the birthday party of Little Paulina Sprague on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Fox and Eleanor spent Sunday with relatives at Wooler.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wood and Carl of Belleville attended the Victoria and Ameliasburg ball game and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Parliament spent Saturday afternoon in Belleville.

Miss Emma Barlow spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leigh and family of Bull's Island.

The boys and girls softball team are planning an ice cream social which will be held early in July.

Hanna's softball team of Belleville played a pressure game with Victoria team on Wednesday night resulting in a win for Victoria.

POWDER HOUSE IS BLOWN UP

Minto, N. B., June 20—(CP)—The powder-house at the Tweedie mine operated by the Minto Coal Company was blow up with a detonation that shook this town last night while negotiations were in progress between striking miners and company officials.

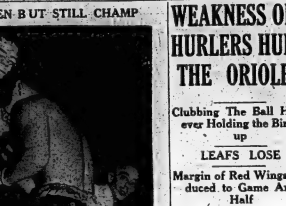
The explosion completely demolished the powder house some distance apart from the mine. Two and a half boxes of dynamite, 2,100 detonator caps and a few coils of fuse were stored in the small wooden frame building.

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES

(Eastern Standard Time)

WEDNESDAY



4.00—Al Fresco—CHCT
4.00—The Marionettes—WBEN
4.30—Bernard Gabb—CHCT
4.30—Singing Lady—WJZ
4.45—Orphan Annie—WJZ
5.00—Paul Whiteman—WJZ
5.45—Do-Re-Mi—WABC
6.00—Slumbers Rumble—WJZ
6.00—On the Air—WABO
6.30—Singing Lady—WJZ
6.30—Black and Blue—WGR
6.30—Three X Sisters—WJZ
6.30—Lowell Thomas—WJZ
6.45—John Pierce, Tenor—WEAF
6.45—Amos 'n' Andy—CHCT
6.00—Mildred Bailey—CFRB
6.15—Phoebe Mansfield—WGR
6.30—String Symphony—WJZ
6.30—Eight Lumberjacks—CKCL
6.45—Gene Goldberg—CFRB
6.45—Richard Andrew—CFCA
7.00—Variety Hour—CFCA
7.00—Variety Prog.—WEAF
7.00—Jack Smith—WABC
7.30—Donald Novis—WEAF
7.30—Tom Hamilton—CFRB
7.30—Minstrel Review—WJZ
7.30—Countess Albani—WEAF
7.30—Dick Cook—CFRB
7.45—Jean McLachlan—CFRB
8.00—Old Prog.—WEAF
8.00—Irvin S. Cobb—WABC
8.00—Lindsdown Brass—CFRB
8.00—Thos. Lyon, Tenor—CKOC
8.15—The Street Singer—WABC
8.15—Jesse Crawford—WJZ
8.30—Celtic Choir—CFRB
8.30—Waltz Dreams—WABC
9.00—Corn Cob Club—WEAF
9.00—Musical Prog.—CFRB
9.30—Echo C. Hill—CFRB
9.45—Columbia Orch.—WABC
10.00—Light Opera Gems—CKLW
10.15—Little, Jack Little—CFRB
10.30—Don Bestor's Orch.—WABC
10.30—Phantom Gypsy—CHCT
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.30—Dog Bestor's Orch.—WABC

THURSDAY

7.00—Radio City Organ—WEAF
7.15—Xylophonists—WJZ
7.30—Morning Glee Club—WEAF
7.45—Havana and Mack—WABC
8.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.00—Poplar Prog.—CKOC
8.15—Goldy and Dusty—WGR
8.15—Florenda Trio—WEAF
8.30—Cheerio—CHCT
8.45—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
9.00—Southern Singers—WJZ
9.30—Ann Thenn—WGR
9.15—Clara Lou and En—WJ Z
9.30—Morning Prog.—CFRB
9.30—The Happy Rambler—CHCT
9.45—Phoebe Mansfield—WGR
9.45—Barbara Gould—CFRB
10.00—Singing Strings—WJZ
10.00—Organ Melodies—CKCL
10.15—Frances L. Barton—WEAF
10.15—Freddy Miller—WABC
10.15—Memory Lane—CKCL
10.30—Hall Erwin, Tenor—WEAF
10.30—Wisconsin Day Prog.—WJZ
10.45—Al Howard, Tenor—WGR
11.00—Hall Erwin, Tenor—WEAF
11.00—Concert Prog.—CHCT
11.15—On Wings of Song—WEAF
11.30—Concert Minatures—WABC
11.45—Melody Maids—WGR
12.00—Rex Battle's Orch.—CKCL
12.15—Song Review—WJR
12.30—Concert Prog.—WEAF
12.30—Morehouse Prog.—CKOC
1.00—Ann Leaf, Organ—CFRB
1.30—Concert Ensemble—CHCT
1.45—Buffalo Quart.—WBEN

1.45—Skillet Sisters—CFCA
2.00—Echoes of Erin—WEAF
2.00—Berumen Musicale—CFRB
2.15—Radio Troubadours—CFCA
2.30—Wesphals' Orch.—CFRB
2.45—Happy Jack—WJZ
3.00—Vespers—WABC
3.00—Thursday Special—CHCT
3.30—Soloist and Orch.—WJZ
3.45—Afternoon Melodies—CFRB
4.00—Green Brothers—WEAF
4.15—Associated Artists—WGR
4.30—Trio Romantique—WEAF
4.30—Singing Lady—WJZ
4.30—Opera Half Hour—CKAC
4.45—Orphan Annie—CHCT
4.45—Ray Heatherton—WEAF
5.00—Organ Melodies—CHCT
5.00—London Conference—CFRB
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Betty Barthell—CFRB
5.45—Roger-Gallet Prog.—CFCA
5.45—Amos 'n' Andy—CHCT
6.00—Chas. Carlile—WABC
6.00—Soloist—CFRB
6.30—Soloist-Orch.—WJZ
6.45—The Goldbergs—WGR
6.45—Variety Fragments—CHCT
7.00—Variety Prog.—CHCT
7.00—Do-Re-Mi—WABC
7.30—Mary Morgan—CFRB
7.45—Singing Lady—WJZ
7.45—"Four Aces"—CFRB
8.00—Henry's Showboat—WEAF
8.00—Hall Erwin, Tenor—WEAF
8.30—Col. Stoopnagle—WABO
8.30—Dance Hour—CHCT
9.00—Commissioner Prog.—CFCA
9.00—Musical Cocktails—WJZ
9.00—Jack Pearl-Orch.—WEAF
9.30—Golden Chorus—WJR
9.30—Dance Review—WABC
10.00—Harmony Trio—WJZ
10.00—Variety Orch.—WEAF
10.15—Phil Regan, Tenor—WABO
10.30—Jamboree Orch.—WJZ
11.15—Mills' Play Boys—WEAF
11.30—Tarzo's Orch.—WJZ
12.00—Buddy Harrod Orch.—WABO

CHAMP BEATEN BUT STILL CHAMP

Miller, left, and Arizmendi

Baby Arizmendi, Mexico's flistic 10-round lightweight champ, gives Freddie Miller, the co. Cal., but Freddie is still champion of the National Boxing Association's join. — Associated Press featherweight champion, a tasty stake in this particular fight.

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

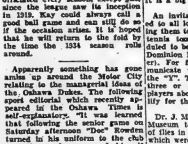
Owing to the fact, that all of the participants in this evening's wrestling bouts are slightly on the hefty side Promoter Joe Corcoran had his attendants straighten the ropes, and the ring in general, over at the Arena. As local ring fp but a 25 foot affair the "grapplers" naturally went off the hemp often Than they did in the Sherbourne centre, where the rings are usually 24 or 26 foot rings. Of course that bounding off the rope act always takes the eye of John Fan as it gives the public plenty of action and, after all that's what makes the wrestling game, eh.

All of the men to appear in the ring tonight have had a fair week's rest and should be in good shape to go. Considerable street gossip has been heard about town relative to this all-star show and right following a senior ball game the old "one legged" lassie, as the largest wrestling crowd, that is judging from the amount of public interest being taken locally. Apparently the fans feel that at last Belleville's wrestling fans are being offered big time wrestlers at popular prices.

When the Pretorius executive named their three official umpires at the week's C.O.B.A. meeting it was noted, that the league's veteran arbiter Alex. Ward was absentee. As a matter of fact Mr. Ward has been slowly sliding his way out of the Central loop for some time past as has "Curly" Lebert and at least two other veteran officials of over ten years standing in the loop. No reason has been given to understand, that before many more months have passed the above named arbiters along with Cliff Boundy of Oshawa, Cy. Brownell, Joe Thomas of Bowmanville and some of the boys who called the ball in the palmy days of the Central loop will return to their posts, in those days the integrity of the umps was never "on the spot" as is the case today. (Don't worry those days are closer at hand than one would imagine).

In passing we might make mention of the fact that Alex Ray is the league's veteran umpire, having officiated every game, except one, since the league saw its inception in 1919. Ray could always call a good ball game and can still do so if the occasion arises. It is hoped that he will return to the fold by the time the 1934 season rolls around.

Apparently something has gone amiss up around the Motor City relating to the managerial chair of the Oshawa Dukes. The following sport editorial which recently appeared in the Oshawa Times is self-explanatory. "It was learned that following the senior game on Saturday afternoon "Doc" Rowden turned in his uniform to the club executive and announced himself as through for the season. Just what is behind the move is not known but as rumors of internal dissention in the club have been rife for some time, this may have something to do with his action. It is probable however, that he will reconsider his action and again be out with the team."



When R. A. Fanning's Victoria take to the field against Ernie Gibbard's charges in Napanee this afternoon, Carl Casey will assume the mound duties for the Vics. Casey, who hurled the odd few games for the Nationals quite successfully last season, received his release from the Mills-managed crew recently and will do his annual training on the hillstop for the Vics. Later in the season Casey is scheduled to join the Nationals, however, Strength-wise I'll be, under the calibre of Casey the Vics, providing they can score a few runs for him, should about take the Walter Gerow crew into camp. On the other hand Tommy Fenlon and Ben Joslin quite a few rather tough luck performers and may turn up "Chummy" Gerow's pets. All in all it's going to be a corker of a game and should be the tit-bit of intermediate ball in the Quinte loop, that is providing the weatherman smiles. It must be remembered, that rain checks are issued either the day or the day of every baseball game the Belleville Nationals have played at home for two seasons now. (Cross your fingers boys).

It might be news to some to know that down in Napanee they are sponsoring six O.S.S.A.A. baseball circles this year. Apparently Ernie Gibbard has been doing something right with his manufacturing furniture lately. He has two Gibbard circles in Napanee, one in the local loop and the other in the Lennox County league. Recently he organized a Napanee town junior league, which boasts of four clubs, each one of which limit the age of 18 years have signed up in this league." Mr. Gibbard informed us recently. Then with their new baseball park and the present construction baseball seems headed towards a real future in Napanee. Incidentally we are passing through Napanee just drop up near the Napanee Collegiate and take a "gander" at their new ball park. It is a big one by all respects.

An invitation has been forwarded to all local tennis players inviting them to enter the master open tennis tournament, that is scheduled to be run off at Kingston on Dominion Day. (Red Ackerman, Sr.). For further particulars communicate with Ralph Mowden at the "Y". There should be at least three or four outstanding tennis players about town, who could qualify for this meet.

Dr. J. M. Aldrich of the National Museum tells of capturing specimens of flies in South Dakota about 1890 which were so rare that none have ever been found since.

Ground sloths are extinct animals, there are modern sloths that live in trees in the Amazon forests.

BOBBY SWIMS — Though no longer the wife of Johnny Weissmuller, aquatic star, Bobby Arma enjoys a swim.

WEAKNESS OF HURLERS HURT THE ORIOLES

Clubbing The Ball However Holding the Birds up

LEAFS LOSE

Margin of Red Wings Reduced to Game And Half

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pitching weakness continues to check Baltimore's bid for a place among the leaders in the International League pennant race, but so long as the Orioles club ball as they've been doing all season they must be reckoned as dangerous contenders.

Manager Frank McGowan's flingers were just as consistent yesterday but the Orioles pulled through for a 19-8 triumph over the Toronto Leafs with the aid of three home runs and moved to within three games of the third-place Leafs.

Baltimore might have gotten a well-pitched game from Cunningham but the former major leaguer was hit on the leg by a batted ball in the second inning and had to be carried from the field. His successors were hit hard but Baltimore's batsmen found Toronto's pitching even easier. Russ Ariel connected for his 19th homer and McGowan and Julius Solters also contributed circuit homers. Baltimore concentrated most of its 13 hits in the fifth and sixth frames when all 10 Orioles' runs were scored.

Evidence of Recovery

Newark's champion Bears, holding second place, gave further evidence of recovery from their recent slump by beating Montreal five to four and 6-4. Jim Weaver hung up his 13th victory in the opener although Johnny Murphy had to come to his rescue in the ninth. The second game scheduled for seven innings, went nine innings before Jack Salvaggio's homer with one on broke up the battle. The Bears had gained a tie at 4-4 in the sixth when Martin, who clouted a homer and scored behind Johnny Welsneck, Charley Devens, seeking his ninth triumph in a row, was driven to cover in the seventh and Marvin Duke received credit for the victory.

Jersey City made it three out of four from Buffalo Bisons with a 7-4 decision gained in the 10th, when Joe Brown's double drove Hank Lindgren home with the winning run. Charley Perkins had the game won in regulation time but Buffalo tied him to it when with two out three-run rally, that tied the score in the ninth.

Rochester's first place advantage over Newark shrank to a game and a half as the Redwings dropped a night game to Albany's Senators, 11 to 5. Albany needed Ferry, Hyde to man hard and finally clinched the decision with a four-run outburst in the seventh. Al Sheady allowed 12 hits but worked behind a stiff pair batters during his sojourn on the mound.

On the other hand the "Mechanics" blasted the offerings of Chick Barrieau and Cap Smith to all corners of the ball yard collecting seven runs on 15 hits throughout. Hailey, Barringe and Reid were the best performers for the winners.

The line-ups:

Grills' Garage — J. Barrieau; Boyle, Barrieau; Barnett; Halsey; W. Barrieau; Edmond; E. Clarke; Reid and Wilson.

S. E. A. C.—Carter; Smith; Risen; Henn; Barringe; Bilger; Elliott; Cornell; Scrimshaw; Faux; A. Knott and W. Knott.

Score by innings R H E
Grills' Garage .....103 305—14 15 2
South End A. C. .....202 000— 4 8 5
Umpires—Ehler and Miles.

BELLEVILLE WOMEN WIN FROM PICTON

Score 17 1-2 to 9 1-2 in Favor of Belleville Golf Club

In a scheduled league golf match the Belleville Golf Club ladies defeated the Picton ladies by the score of 17 1-2 to 9 1-2 at the Belleville Golf links yesterday afternoon. The local ladies outplayed their Prince Edward County rivals and piled up the large score when four of the local members took all points in their respective matches.

Mrs. "Archie" Cameron proved a hospitable hostess and was assisted by Mrs. R. E. Orr. The afternoon's entertainment and play was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The scores:

Belleville:
Mrs. Reeves	½
Mrs. Henney	1
Mrs. Orr	1
Mrs. Patterson	1
Mrs. Kelchenon	1
Mrs. Cooke	1
Mrs. Train	½
Mrs. Calder	1
Mrs. Pezard	1
Total	9½
Picton:
Miss Barker	0
Miss Leavens	½
Mrs. Adams	0
Mrs. Pierce	0
Mrs. Black	0
Mrs. Wamsley	0
Mrs. Bowerman	1
Mrs. Calnan	0
Mrs. Cowell	1
Total	9½

FRUIT GIRLS DOWN S.E.A.C.

Girls' Softball League Opens at Armouries Lawn

Continuing where they left off last season as champions of the Belleville Girls' Softball League, the Belleville Fruit nine auspiciously opened the current girls' softball season when they defeated the South End A. C. girls by the score of 17 to 4 at the Armouries Lawn Tuesday evening.

With their slender hurler "Babe" Lewis, on the hilltop the champions experienced little difficulty with the newly formed S.E.A.C. outfit, when they out-played their rivals in every department. Miss Lewis was in complete command of the tilt from the time the first ball was pitched after which she turned back her opponents with five stingy hits. Pitching a steady game and using her speed ball to an advantage she elongated young lady from Trenton hurled one of the best games of her career. Lois Carter, late of the Maple Leafs, who opposed Miss Lewis proved no mystery to the Fruit hitters, when she was nicked for 12 safe hits. Errors, however proved costly to the hosts.

To "Pete" Knott, veteran third baseman of the S.E.A.C. team, fell the honor of hitting the first home run of the season, when she clouted one of Babe Lewis' slants over the centre field fence for the circuit. Pat Fisher was the only other South Ender to hit for an extra base when she collected a double.

Dolly Canning proved to be the real-smith of the winners when she connected safely four times out of five official times at bat. Beryl Turide, Vera Dyer and Helen Smith also hit well, while Doris Bland and E. Thrasher provided the fielding sensations.

The line-ups:

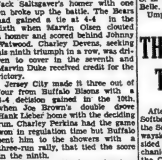
Belleville Fruit—Kelleher, cf; Tuttle 1st; Thrasher ss; Smith 2nd; Bland 3rd; Dyer lf; Canning rf; Canning c; and Lewis p.

South End A. C.—Ehler 1st; Burley 2nd; H. McMichael ss; Cousins lf; Thompson cf; Knott 3rd; Carter p; N. McMichael s and N. Cooke cf.

Score by innings R H E
S. E. A. C. ...000 000 101— 4 8 7
Belle. Fruit ...340 213 22x—17 13 3
Umpires—Chapper and Colling.

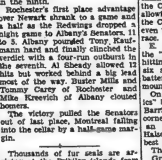
THREE TEAMS TIE FOR LEAD

After leading the local Men's Softball League alone for 24 hours Tuesday night, C. C. nine fell by the wayside and dropped a rather one-sided affair to Wally Gird's "Mechanics" by the score of 16 to 4 at the Cricket Field last evening thus allowing the Delaney Bearings and the College' Hill Cubs to pull up on even terms with them in the league race.



R. E. Clarke was in rare form for the "Mechanics" and let the hard hitting "South Enders" down with a small hit behind aiding his mates batters during his sojourn on the mound.

The line-ups:



Grills' Garage — J. Barrieau; Boyle, Barrieau; Barnett; Halsey; W. Barrieau; Edmond; E. Clarke; Reid and Wilson.

S. E. A. C.—Carter; Smith; Risen; Henn; Barringe; Bilger; Elliott; Cornell; Scrimshaw; Faux; A. Knott and W. Knott.

Score by innings R H E
Grills' Garage .....103 305—14 15 2
South End A. C. .....202 000— 4 8 5
Umpires—Ehler and Miles.

In British Tourney

Ross Somerville.

C. Ross Somerville, American amateur champion, heads a delegation of Canada golfers who will participate in the British national open tournament to be played over the historic St. Andrews course, Scotland, July 3-7.

Thousands of fur seals are arriving at the Pribiloy islands from their winter haunts farther south.

CANADIAN WINS

Travelling to Washington from Toronto in a forty-dollar car, and sleeping wherever they could on the way, marathon runners representing the Monarch A. C. of Toronto proved their worth in the U.S. National A. A. U. Marathon, when Dave Komonen flashed home winner above is seen Komonen being assisted by his trainer after the courageous 106-yard sprint which won him victory over many of the best marathoners on the continent.

To Ride Winooka

Jockey E. Britt

Jockey E. Britt, youthful Australian rider, will ride Winooka, Australian "wonder horse", in the steed's proposed campaign in the United States.

Going Good

Joe Mowry

Joe Mowry, purchased earlier in the season from the Minneapolis American association team by the Boston Braves, is distinguishing himself at third base for the Braves this year. Joe's father was also a National leaguer.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Thursday Attraction! Sale of Girls' Pretty Print Dresses

Thursday, each 89c

A host of styles to select from, all for this season and amazing value at this unusual low price. Fashioned from a fine, crisp cotton print, of good weave and weight for long service. Colors too, are in a great variety and all with fast-wearing qualities. Styles that feature clever little puff sleeves, interesting collar and neckline, and displaying smart pleated and belted effects as well. For the younger moderns, age 7 to 14 years — there's wonderful choice and substantial savings for early morning shoppers. Thursday, each

89c

—main floor centre

"La Brilliant" Rings Each 95c

We are happy to be able to present these rings in time for Summer . . . the season when beautiful things are uppermost in people's minds . . . for these offer a great deal of beauty at little cost! Their imitation stones are of blue white color and sparkling brilliancy!

Each ring is sterling silver, made from the dies used for gold or platinum rings . . . thus giving duplicate designs of high priced rings, yet the price of each is less than one dollar!

Their expensive appearance will enhance your Summer ensemble—see them Thursday and be among the first in Belleville to have one. The price is only each 95c.

Thursday Specials in the Foodstore

SIRLOIN STEAK lb. 19c | LOIN Pork Chops lb. 18c

CHOICE QUALITY Peaches Heavy Syrup No. 2 Squat Tin ... 14c

ONE HOUR SPECIAL ONLY 2 P.M.—4 P.M.
Old Dutch Cleanser tin 5c
Limit 3 Tins to a Customer with Your Grocery Order.
A SAVING OF 15c ON THREE TINS

CHOICE Potatoes 2 Peck 29c

PURE LARD 1 LB. PRINTS 3 lbs. 25c

CALIFORNIA GRAPE FRUIT 3 for 22c

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES

YANKEES AND GIANTS JUST HANGING ON

Yanks Lead by One Game And Giants Only by Half

RUTH A HERO

Leaves Sick Bed to Help Teammates Down Chicago 15-8

(By Hugh Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer).

New York's two baseball clubs, the giants and Yankees, appear ready to sink or swim together this season. And the danger of their sinking is not to be regarded lightly.

When the Giants moved into the National League lead on June 4 they started the first stretch of any appreciable length. The Giants won two clubs from the same city have topped the league in the past, but how it appears more than likely, that they will go down at the same time.

Twice in the past few days the Yankees have come to the Washington threat just in the nick of time. Today their margin was only one game and the Giants had only half that lead over the Louis Cardinals.

It was the one and only Babe Ruth who lead the Yankees out of danger yesterday and paced them to a 15-8 victory over Chicago White Sox when a defeat would have thrown them into a tie with the Senators for the American league lead. The Babe climbed out of a sick bed and promptly made Chicago fans wish he had remained there by clouting his 18th home run of the season in a major part of the seven-run rally in the sixth inning, that put the game away for New York.

The National League

The Giants after ringing up two straight shutouts against Chicago Cubs, went down to a rather ignominious 5-3 defeat. But Terry and Burleigh Grimes got together for a good pitching job with only one weak inning, while the Cubs pounded Herman Bell and Glen Spencer steadily.

St. Louis nearly mowed a game off the Giants lead by staging a slugfest at the expense of Brooklyn pitchers and winning 12-6. The Dodgers and winning 12-6. The Dodgers gathered 17 hits including homers by Leo Durocher and Joe Medwick in the eighth inning, when they scored eight runs.

Pittsburgh's Pirates moved further along toward a threatening position by trouncing Boston Braves 10-3. Their fourth straight victory as Bill Swift pitched six-hit ball and the Bucs put over five runs in the third. Troy Phillips broke out in a rash of hits and took two games from Cincinnati 7-4 and 6-5. Phillips assault enabled Johnny Jackson, former University of Pennsylvania flinger, to win his first major league start.

GRAPPLERS IN CITY, READY

Card to be Presented One of Best Ever Offered

With a finish match between Al Getzewich, the Unmasked Marvel, and Sander Szabo, Hungarian heavyweight champion, as the feature, the wrestling season will have its local opening at the Arena tonight. There is much interest in the return of Getzewich, who is billed as "The Masked Marvel, proved to be a sensational favorite. Interest is aided, also, by the first appearance here of Szabo, one of the most highly touted heavyweight ranks, a man, who has met the best of them with more than a fair amount of success.

Szabo will probably have an advantage in actual wrestling science, while Getzewich is undoubtedly the speedier and the rougher of the two. An added feature is that win or lose Getzewich will remove his black mask immediately after the bout and give local fans their first look at his features.

Stanley Pinto, Bohemian "bad man" from Chicago, who has been wrestling in a lot of important main bouts, will clash with Tibber McCoy in the semi-final and will have to be very wary to escape McCoy's crushing flying tackles McCoy has another trick, which is just as spectacular as it is effective.

Hans Schroeder of Germany who came to America with his friend Max Baer, recently, is scheduled to create quite a name for himself on the mats, will appear in the first bout against Mike Mazurki of New York, a former football star from Manhatatan University.

The program occupares favorably with those held at Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto and big muster Corcoran is able to bring such men here because Bilger got lucrative purses from him in Toronto and other cities of similar size and cannot well refuse smaller purses to come to Belleville. Corcoran is recognized as one of the continent's four leading promoters, the other three being Jack Curley and Joe "Toots" Mondt of New York and Paul Bowser of Boston.

WILLIAM ANTONOWICZ IS HANGED FOR CRIME

Shot And Killed Mrs. Mandzuk of Kirkland Lake

Haileybury, Ont., June 21.—(CP)—William Antonowicz, 38-year-old Ukranian laborer, was hanged early today for the slaying on January 9, of Mrs. Annie Mundzuk, at Kirkland Lake.

Antonowicz was sentenced April 12 after a jury had returned a verdict of guilty on the capital charge. Since then he had been in close confinement in the death cell and spent the intervening time quietly. A formal application to the cabinet council at Ottawa for commutation of the death sentence was refused.

Hangman Sam Edwards sprung the trap and Antonowicz met death quietly.

About one out of every 8,000 lobsters hatched reaches maturity.

Primo's Salute

Primo Carnera, heavyweight contender, gives the Fascist salute to visitors at his Sunset Lake, N.J. training camp. He is the huge Italian is training for his title bout with Jack Sharkey in New York June 29.

PROBABILITIES
Lower Lake Region and Georgian Bay: Partly cloudy today and Friday: cool tonight; moderate to fresh northerly to easterly winds.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1933

FOURTEEN PAGES

KILLED ON CULTIVATOR
TRENTON, Sask., June 22.—(CP)—Theodore Inglin, farmer, met instant death here, when struck by lightning, while seated on a cultivator in the field.

VERY HEAVY DAMAGE AT MADOC BY HAIL

Church Windows Broken, Grain Levelled, Communication Cut Off by Hail, Wind at Madoc

Brief But Destructive Storm Passes Over Madoc Wednesday

STRIKES BARN

Charles Empey in Township Losses Barn and Contents by Fire

Madoc, June 22 (Special)—Hailstones the size of small hen eggs, driven by terrific wind and rain storm, and cutting a swath of almost seven miles in width, completely destroyed grain and field crops in the Madoc district late Wednesday afternoon. Brief as it was disastrous, the storm commenced at 4:10 o'clock, and lasted for but ten minutes.

But in its ten minutes' duration the hailstorm cut down trees as if they were chaff in the vicinity of Eldorado and Bannockburn, stripped the leaves and small branches off the trees.

At Madoc.

In the village of Madoc practically all the glass in windows facing west and north are broken. All the stained glass windows, save one, in the Presbyterian church are smashed in, and nearly all the windows in the Roman Catholic church have been destroyed. The public schools of the village were window facing north and west, when hoods and the hail and rain beat into the class rooms. Three large locust trees on the grounds of Mr. Ted Wilson were uprooted by the blast and fell toward the street where they were supported by the various electric lines and cables.

In Mr. C. O. Reid's residence (the old Dale home) considerable damage was done. The family were at supper when the storm struck and windows, window shades and curtains were completely ruined.

A barn on the farm of Mr. Charles Empey in Madoc township was struck by a bolt of lightning and it and its contents completely destroyed by fire.

Lines Cut.

The fall wheat just past the heading stage, was swept to the ground, while the later grain and the potatoes and roots were driven into the ground. Telephone communication to the northern part of the county and to Bancroft is cut off, but it is understood that there is considerable damage to the crops in North Hastings. No serious injury to life nor loss has been reported as yet.

The storm, which was accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning, left the trees for miles practically without leaves, which were left as with knives. Belleville received only the tail-end of the storm, though the rainfall was heavy. No damage was done in this immediate area.

It was one of the briefest, though most disastrous storms to have visited the lower northern section of this country in many years.

Great Damage.

Almost without exception, every house which possessed windows to the north and west, suffers broken panes, torn shades and ruined curtains. Nearly all the stained windows of the Presbyterian Methodist Church are in complete ruin. In the Catholic Church many of the beautiful windows are broken. Brett's roof was again blown off after being repaired from the recent storm. D. C. Reid's large brick house on Dale's Hill Sandly a window is left, and much of the furniture and the floors ruined. Watson's house has lost forty-one panes of glass, Cochrane's have forty-seven broken panes, and others report nearly as many, while the damage to the Reid and Dale hardware has a ruined roof, and the stores has their windows driven through. Mr. Bedford of McIntosh Bros. reports broken skylights in the store, and goods ruined by rain and hail, and many broken windows in his house. At Charles Empey's farm in North Madoc Township, the barn was burned, being struck by lightning, and all its contents a complete loss. O'Reilly's barn was blown down after the end had been blown in by the gale. Many others are reported blown across the roads east of the village. Two Hills beautiful locust trees are uprooted and destroyed. Mr. Fraser Cole is estimating half of the large tree destroyed by last week's storm.

Barber Shop Ruined.

Sixteen of the eighteen windows in the Barber Shop were broken. A total of forty-eight large panes. Webb's barber shop was almost ruined, and most of his upper windows were broken. In Carswell's house much damage was done by wind and rain, many windows being broken or blown in. Everyone you meet on the street reports broken windows, ruined curtains, damaged floors and damaged furniture. At the schools, the damage done cannot yet be estimated. All of the beautiful school alone eighty large panes were broken, causing about $1,000. The high school north and west windows are also smashed, and damage done in the teacher's offices.

Cars on the road had their roofs shattered. Many farmers had to stop not being able to see through their blinding storm. Crops also suffered heavy damages, also the livestock belonging to the farmers.

The children of the public schools were released about the time the storm broke, and while many suffered no hardship, several cases are reported of children who were arriving home in a condition verging on hysteria. Many remained in the neighboring houses until the fury of the storm had passed, while many bravely continued on their way in spite of wind and thorn.

When Stephen Crystal, now of Montreal was forced to flee from Poland, his native land. 21 years ago, he had to wife and two weeks-old daughter. Reports came through later that they had both been killed in riots. This week, however, Stephen and his daughter, Zetta Crystal, were reunited in Toronto after one of the strangest finds fate could play. Somehow Zetta had escaped the horrors of Poland and been taken to New York; where she has lived ever since until a Toronto woman visiting there, happened upon her and identified her. Pretty Zetta is shown above.

CREME BRULEE IS CUP WINNER

Finishes Two Lengths Ahead of Kennedy's Nitsichin

NEWBURY, England, June 22.—(CP Cable)—Creme Brulee, five-year-old gelding Creme Brulee by Brulette out of Miss Carnation won the Newbury Summer Cup here this afternoon, finishing two lengths in front of Sir E. Kennedy's Nitsichin with the Aga Khan's Tej Kasru third another two lengths back.

Fourteen ran the mile and a half of the big amateur handicap and Creme Brulee, ridden by Lieut. Ernest Harrison, won by a length from Nitsichin and 9 to 2 against Tej Kasru.

NEWS DISTRIBUTORS AND LIBEL DAMAGES

London, June 22—(CP Cable)—A contempt of court suit has been raised by the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada today in action against the well-known firm of news agents, W. H. Smith and Son of London. This was whether distributors are liable for damages if the contents of publications they distribute are found libellous.

The case, which is being heard by the High Court, Chancery Bench, and a special jury in the Law Courts, arises from libellous statements attacking the Sun Life's methods of investing funds and supplying profits and losses contained in the London periodical "City Mid-week," published July 12, 1929.

10 P. C. CUT FOR SHIPMEN

35,000 Men Likely to Protest New Cut in Wages

Montreal, June 22—(CP)—A new wage cut affecting some 35,000 shopmen of Canadian railroads will be made effective July 16, railroad officials and company heads stated here today.

The cut is similar to that of which notice was served on the railroads last May, and which involved machinists, boilermakers, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, all workers, sicanfitters and moulders, who form part of division four of the Federated Shop Crafts of the American Federation of Labor, Canadian section.

A meeting of the general chairmen of the Brotherhood belonging to the Federation will be held in the near future to decide the next move, it is expected in which their wage will oppose the reduction.

ACQUITTAL OF N. Y. BANKER

Chas. E. Mitchell Found Not Guilty of Tax Evasion

New York, June 22 (AP)—Charles E. Mitchell was acquitted today on all counts in the indictment which charged him with income tax evasion.

The jury which had heard the government charges that Mitchell former chairman of the National City Bank, had cheated the government in 1929 and 1930 of more than $850,000 in income taxes, took the case at 11.25 a.m., E.S.T., yesterday.

It returned the verdicts a little more than 24 hours later.

CREME BRULEE IS CUP WINNER

Finishes Two Lengths Ahead of Kennedy's Nitsichin

NEWBURY, England, June 22.—(CP Cable)—Creme Brulee, five-year-old gelding Creme Brulee by Brulette out of Miss Carnation won the Newbury Summer Cup here this afternoon, finishing two lengths in front of Sir E. Kennedy's Nitsichin with the Aga Khan's Tej Kasru third another two lengths back.

Fourteen ran the mile and a half of the big amateur handicap and Creme Brulee, ridden by Lieut. Ernest Harrison, won by a length from Nitsichin and 9 to 2 against Tej Kasru.

NEWS DISTRIBUTORS AND LIBEL DAMAGES

London, June 22—(CP Cable)—A contempt of court suit has been raised by the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada today in action against the well-known firm of news agents, W. H. Smith and Son of London. This was whether distributors are liable for damages if the contents of publications they distribute are found libellous.

The case, which is being heard by the High Court, Chancery Bench, and a special jury in the Law Courts, arises from libellous statements attacking the Sun Life's methods of investing funds and supplying profits and losses contained in the London periodical "City Mid-week," published July 12, 1929.

10 P. C. CUT FOR SHIPMEN

35,000 Men Likely to Protest New Cut in Wages

Montreal, June 22—(CP)—A new wage cut affecting some 35,000 shopmen of Canadian railroads will be made effective July 16, railroad officials and company heads stated here today.

The cut is similar to that of which notice was served on the railroads last May, and which involved machinists, boilermakers, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, all workers, sicanfitters and moulders, who form part of division four of the Federated Shop Crafts of the American Federation of Labor, Canadian section.

A meeting of the general chairmen of the Brotherhood belonging to the Federation will be held in the near future to decide the next move, it is expected in which their wage will oppose the reduction.

Canada Threats in Br. Amateur Golf Championship Eliminated

Somerville Loses 2 And 1 While Nash Is Out on 19th Hole

Hoylake, England, June 22 (C.P. Cable)—Canada's contenders in the British Amateur Golf Championship were eliminated in the sixth round this afternoon, George Dunlap defeating Stanley Somerville, London, the U.S. amateur titleholder, 2 and 1, and H. L. Holden of Toronto losing to Leonard Nash of London out in a 19-hole struggle.

"Silent Sandy," who had an ill heart on adding the British title to the American, was sadly erratic at times as he went out before the slim, fair-haired American star.

Nash played his third consecutive extra-hole struggle but this time came out on the wrong end to the little known player from the Royal St. George's Club.

Duff 6 Rounds

Somerville was out of bounds on the third hole, but got a beautiful run the tee at the fourth, topped his tee shot and then again out of bounds on the fifth, had a poor drive and then took three putts on the tenth and then was dormie two an 18-foot putt on the 17th. to win the match. Scores: Somerville, 74; Nash.

Nash made a remarkable recovery after a bad start in his match with Holden. He was three down as late as the 13th but pulled through with the 19th to lose in the first extra hole. In the other match Holden gone to the 19th. hole to beat Rex Hartley, noted British amateur.

Besides Dunlap and Holden, the quarter-finals will include Michael Scott of Sandwich; R. H. Hardman of Sandway; Cyril Tolley, twice former champion; R. A. Hardman of Birkdale; Douglas Grant of Sandwich, and A. A. Bourn of Sunningdale.

Michael Scott

Michael Scott, one of Britain's better known amateurs, won his sixth round match over Dr. W. Tweddell of Stourbridge, a former champion, by one up after Tweddell had eliminated the noted Roger Wethered.

Cyril Tolley had a fairly decisive three and two victory over A. C. Gilles of Sandwich. Other gratifying scores the sixth round only by 19-hole win over H. N. Pogy.

Hardman on the 19th. to take the quarter-finals by defeating J. Z. Chew of Bradford, four and three, and Grant, a native of the United States, who has been a resident of Wimbledon, two and one.

Bourn defeated Thomas of Formby, five and four and Schunck completed the quarter-finals today with a smashing five and four win over J. J. Cowan of Carlisle.

Dunlap will meet Somerville and Tolley will battle Holden. Nash's conquerer, in the quarter-finals tomorrow.

TORONTO AUDITOR SAYS SURPLUS IS CORRECT

Might Be Reduced by $750 But Not $2,000

TORONTO, June 22—(CP)—City Auditor Scott, K. Scott today advised Board of Control that reducing three searching inquiries into the books of the Public Library Board he was not prepared to make any material changes in his original report which he fixed the surplus of the Library Board at $8,138. He found any surplus would be reduced by $250, but said there was no reason to change his fig ures reducing the surplus to $2,000, the amount which Mayor W. J. Stewart and members of the Board contended to be correct.

Mr. Scott presented his observations on the Board of Controls request that he investigate the suppressed regret for the misunderstanding.

70 YEAR AGE LIMIT AROUSES FIRE CHIEF

Hamilton, Ont., June 22 (CP)—Hamilton's civic affairs were in a turmoil today following the city Controll's decision to retire all civic officials who had reached the age of 70. W. J. James, fire chief, commented briefly on his retirement. "I'll show them in December," he said, intimating he would run for office in the municipal elections.

Magistrate H. W. Burbidge demanded the retirement of Controller on such short notice as a "poor reward for years of faithful service to the city.

HAIL DAMAGE AT WOLF ISLAND

KINGSTON, Ont., June 22—(CP) Hail, rain and wind caused heavy damage on the island last night. The gale swept the eastern end, flattened barns, uprooted trees and damaged crops.

It cut a swath across the island about half a mile wide and virtually carried everything before it. Hail, driven by the wind, fell on Wolfe Island and several houses damaged crops.

News Flashes

Windsor, Ont., June 22 (CP)—A brief truce has been arranged" in the suit of Lead Lafferty against Premier George S. Henry of Ontario, with no indications as to the length of time for which the next step will likely be taken.

LONDON, Ont., June 22.—(CP) After being out 25 hours, a party of day found Peter Lucas, Ernest Fihl and Lorne Harris, experienced hunters, guilty of unlawful assembly. They were remanded until Tuesday for sentence.

Simcoe, Ont., June 22.—(CP)—The death of Baby Wales in an infant home here on Tuesday, in the hands of the Department of Health, Joel Smith, local Children's Aid Society Superintendent, today stated.

Windsor, Ont., June 22—(CP) Ground guilty of breaking into the Immaculate Conception Church here, Charles H. Crownshields, 31, native of Belleville, was sentenced to five years in Portsmouth Penitentiary today.

GHOSTS QUIET TOWN

Inhabitants of Quebec Hamlet Believe They Will Return

Ste. Jeanne D'Arc D'Almaville, Que., June 22 (CP)—For two nights now the ghosts of Ste. Jeanne D'Arc have been still. For nearly a month the inhabitants of Quebec have been startled by the sounds of a family quarrel that disrupted the empty walls of a haunted house. Last night two police officers and a physics professor joined with the villagers in keeping a vigil. In the presence of these skeptics, the family feudists declined to renew their quarrel.

But the villagers are not surprised. They believe the ghosts will return to re-enact their shadow travels when the Western hours grow. Then there will be heard again the tread of feet on the creaking stairway, the slam of a door, the grumbling curses of a man, the screams and imploring tones of the wife, the savage blow and the pitiful cries of the children.

The haunted house was once a hotel. Then it was converted into four flats. Three of the flats are occupied, but the fourth is vacant.

So real is the ghostly performance to those in the neighborhood, however, that Abbe Desilets, the parish priest, has been persuaded to bless the premises.

GIRL STEERS BANDIT AUTO

Continental Thieves Visit London Store And Steal Jewels

London, June 22—(CP Cable)—A woman's waiting at the door of a powerful car took part in a daring raid today on a jewelry store in one of the most fashionable centers of the west end, when a tray of diamond and emerald rings valued at $10,000 was stolen.

The alarm was quickly raised but of Messrs. Hartley. The big saloon car in which the woman had two male companions stopped outside the store. A car jack was thrown through the store window and the tray of rings grabbed the tray of rings.

With a wild yell the woman swerved the car through traffic and was half a mile away before the police in pursuit could get under way. Police searching for the robbers believe the raid was organized by continental gangsters.

LOANS FOR FARMERS PRESSED BY SEGUIN

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—Government loans to farmers, similar to loans was today urged upon Premier George S. Henry by Charles A. Seguin, M.L.A., Russell, for 100 farmers, of Cyrville, near Ottawa, who suffered totalling $150,000 in a recent storms. While agreeing some assistance should be forthcoming from either the Ontario or Dominion governments, Mr. Henry said there was no precedent for such procedure, but agreed to have the matter placed before the Cabinet for discussion.

HENRY STAYS AS LEADER OF PARTY REPORT

Stratford Beacon-Herald Says Premier to Make Two Statements

NO ELECTION?

Mitchell Appearance of Premier to Reply to Rumors

Stratford, Ont., June 22 (CP)—The Stratford Beacon-Herald publishes the following in its news columns today:

Premier Hepburn's close to the inner circles of the Conservative party it was learned today that Premier George S. Henry may choose next Wednesday night, when he is to address the Conservative convention at Mitchell, to make two definite statements.

"One, it was said, will be that he will continue as leader of the party in Ontario.

"The other will be that there will be no general election in the province this year.

"Premier Henry" has made no public utterances since the close of the legislature over a month ago into the current 'oratorical campaign' in the province is for the sole purpose of replying to certain charges that have been flying about during the past several weeks.

"Although significance is attached to some quarters to the silence of the campaign, local Conservatives maintain that it does not indicate at all the probability of an election in the near future."

PICTURE CLUE TO REUNION

Romance as Father Sees His Daughter For First Time

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—A bus terminal in Toronto today was the setting for a happy ending to a drama which began in Poland twenty years ago, when Stephen Crystal, and Crystal, was forced to flee the country with his wife and unborn daughter.

After fleeing war-gripped Poland young Crystal settled in Canada, later meeting a cousin here, Mrs. Z. Trimbal of Toronto. A chance meeting of friends from New York that Mrs. Trimbal obtained a picture of the Irish Free State. Attaching punitive tariff measures strongly he spoke against in line with the Russian proposal to abolish all administrative and financial measures which permit imposition of discriminatory tariffs against an individual country.

World Conference.

The work of the conference remained adjourned while the delegates sought to find a basis for new proposals on reduction of production and organization of exports, when the meeting. The two will leave for Montreal later today where the girl will meet her brothers and step mother.

Sterling at $4.23 for Record High

London, June 22 (CP Cable)—The United States delegation told the World Conference today the United States would not take any steps to stabilize the dollar at the present time, and coincidently the pound sterling rose to a record point, the British pound soaring to $4.23, a new record since Britain left the gold standard.

Stabilization of Dollar is Merely Delayed Say British in Comment on U. S. Attitude

Exchange Problem Feared by U. S. as Hazarding Conference

FRENCH OBJECT

British Commentators Say No Need of Tragic View

London, June 22.—The British attitude towards the refusal of the United States to consider currency stabilization at the present time is that it merely means postponement, not abandonment, of this vital question.

Introducing a resolution dealing solely with the necessity of removing trade barriers and ignoring the problem of currency stabilization, the American delegation to the world conference today declared its government felt currency stabilization would be desirable and possibly lead to a violent price recession which would harm the conference's prospects of success.

The French, leading the gold standard countries, have been insistent that currencies should be stabilized before other considerations, backed other problems. They have receded somewhat from this position and today agreed privately with the Americans that currency stabilization talks could be delayed for the time being.

No Long Delay.

Great Britain, more moderately, holds firmly that currency stabilization cannot be long delayed. Canada, through Prime Minister R. B. Bennett last week, pleaded urgently that the United Kingdom and the United States should not establish the dollar likewise.

"Delay is the tragic a view of it," a high British authority told the Canadian Press after today's American declaration, "and the conference will go on just the same."

The American attitude is interpreted in British circles not as a refusal to stabilize. Stabilization, it is felt here, will come eventually and in this regard particular attention was drawn to the declaration in the American statement that "the American delegation has been instructed to discuss a resolution designed for the ultimate world-wide stabilization of unstable currencies." This is the Pittman currency-backing proposal.

Meanwhile, the Anglo-French tariff dispute arising from the non-payment of the June 15 debt instalment to Britain was brought before the conference by Senator Joseph Caillaux, leading the French State. Attacking punitive tariff measures strongly he spoke against in line with the Russian proposal to abolish all administrative and financial measures which permit imposition of discriminatory tariffs against an individual country.

World Conference.

The work of the conference remained adjourned while the delegates sought to find a basis for new proposals on reduction of production and organization of exports, when the meeting. The two will leave for Montreal later today where the girl will meet her brothers and step mother.

Sterling at $4.23 for Record High

London, June 22 (CP Cable)—The United States delegation told the World Conference today the United States would not take any steps to stabilize the dollar at the present time, and coincidently the pound sterling rose to a record point, the British pound soaring to $4.23, a new record since Britain left the gold standard.

LOANS FOR FARMERS PRESSED BY SEGUIN

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—Government loans to farmers, similar to loans was today urged upon Premier George S. Henry by Charles A. Seguin, M.L.A., Russell, for 100 farmers, of Cyrville, near Ottawa, who suffered totalling $150,000 in a recent storms. While agreeing some assistance should be forthcoming from either the Ontario or Dominion governments, Mr. Henry said there was no precedent for such procedure, but agreed to have the matter placed before the Cabinet for discussion.

Red Envoy to U.S.?

Gregory Sokolnikoff, former ambassador to England, will be named as the first envoy of the U. S. S. R. to the U.S. when President Roosevelt formally recognizes the Russian government by sending an envoy to Moscow, Sokolnikoff is now vice commissar for foreign affairs.

WEATHER

"Toronto, June 22—Synopsis — A trough of low pressure extends from Hudson Straits southward to the New England States, and a moderate depression is moving slowly eastward across the Western Provinces, while the barometer is relatively high over the Mackinac Valley and Northwestern Ontario. Showers have occurred in many parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan also from Southern Ontario to New Brunswick. Temperatures are moderate throughout the Dominion.

Northern Ontario — Moderate winds; fair today and Friday; cool tonight.

Ottawa, Upper St. Lawrence, Northwestern Quebec and Lake St. John—Light to moderate winds; fair and comparatively cool. Friday —Moderate northerly to easterly winds; fair with much change in temperature.

Lower St. Lawrence Valley—Fresh northeast winds; partly cloudy and comparatively cool today. Friday northwest winds; fair; not much change in temperature.

Lake Erie—Moderate winds; partly cloudy; not much change in temperature.

Manitoba — Moderate to fresh easterly winds; partly cloudy, with much the same temperature; probably showers by shower.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Partly cloudy, with local showers; not much change in temperature.

Coming Events

VICTORIAN ORDER WELL BABY Conference will be held in the City Hall tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30. 22-1t

DANCING AT QUINTE INN every Thursday night. Come and enjoy an evening's dancing at the Quinte Inn. Music by Dutch Turney's Commodores. 22-1t.

JOHN STREET CHURCH HELP invites you to afternoon tea at residence of Mrs. Graham, John Road, Friday, June twenty-third from two to seven. Home-made delicacies for sale. Evening concert from three-thirty on. Admission 25c and five cents. 22-1t

AFTERNOON TEA, STRAWBERries, ice cream and homecooking Friday, summer home of Mrs. W. McIvery, Rossmore. Cars will leave St. Andrew's Church at 2:30. 22-1t

STREET DANCE MARKET Square, Saturday, June 24, 22 8.00 o'clock p.m. Music by City Drivers Band. Monster Community Dance! Belleville and District invited to join. Jitney dancing 5c. per dance. Dancing until midnight. 22-2

DANCE AT SHANNONVILLE Orange Hall, Friday, June 23rd Good orchestra. Auspices Shannonville Ball Club. Admission 25c. 21-3

FUNNIES IN THE NEWS

San Benito, Tex., June 22 (CP) —This three-cent stamp business is the case of A. H. Marksowsky, post office dispatcher here a nuisance. He handled a letter with a two-cent stamp in the usual place but alongside was a penny, glued to the paper.

Wenatchee, Wash., June 22.—A. J. Albright swallowed a needle in 1921. Monday he removed it from a thigh which had been giving him pain.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 22 (C.P.) —King Hill, auto highway employees lives line on Hill Avenue near the foot of King Hill.

Boston, June 22 (CP)—Dr. J. J. Lynch almost had a new car for a few minutes. The salesman drove the automobile to the doctor's home and went inside to complete the physician's car purchase. The doctor looked out to admire the machine. He looked in vain, someone had stolen the car.

Watonga, Okla., June 22 (CP) —R. Sabin got a birdie at the Northwest Oklahoma Golf Tournament here today. The bird was dead when they picked it up from the foot of the three into which Sabin aimed.

Ford's Museum of Science Costing Millions of Dollars on Display

DETROIT, June 22. (AP) — Henry Ford's Museum of Science and Industry, product of a dozen years of effort and expenditure of literally millions of dollars opens its doors to the public for the first time today at Dearborn.

The labored "Chug Chug" of early apparatus and the high pitched hum of modern machinery will tell in their own languages the development of the motor car, automobile, the aeroplane and even the steamboat.

The history of the dynamo will be told and exhibits ranging from back to Faraday's first experiments, into thousands of rare pieces.

The innandescent lamp is tracked back past Thomas A. Edison's pioneering work. Other carefully collected exhibits trace developments in transportation, science agriculture, home life and industry.

An early apothecary's shop is contrasted with a modern chemical Laboratory. A wheelwright's shop, harness-maker's still, Clockmaker's bench tell the stories of industries hardly recognizable in their modern forms.

Luther Burbank's spade is there as are articles used by George Washington and a collection of early American furniture running

Canada Threats in Br. Amateur Golf Championship Eliminated

Somerville Loses 2 And 1 While Nash Is Out on 19th Hole

Hoylake, England, June 22 (C.P. Cable)—Canada's contenders in the British Amateur Golf Championship were eliminated in the sixth round this afternoon, George Dunlap defeating Stanley Somerville, London, the U.S. amateur titleholder, 2 and 1, and H. L. Holden of Toronto losing to Leonard Nash of London out in a 19-hole struggle.

"Silent Sandy," who had an ill heart on adding the British title to the American, was sadly erratic at times as he went out before the slim, fair-haired American star.

Nash played his third consecutive extra-hole struggle but this time came out on the wrong end to the little known player from the Royal St. George's Club.

Duff 6 Rounds

Somerville was out of bounds on the third hole, but got a beautiful run the tee at the fourth, topped his tee shot and then again out of bounds on the fifth, had a poor drive and then took three putts on the tenth and then was dormie two an 18-foot putt on the 17th. to win the match. Scores: Somerville, 74; Nash.

Nash made a remarkable recovery after a bad start in his match with Holden. He was three down as late as the 13th but pulled through with the 19th to lose in the first extra hole. In the other match Holden gone to the 19th. hole to beat Rex Hartley, noted British amateur.

Besides Dunlap and Holden, the quarter-finals will include Michael Scott of Sandwich; R. H. Hardman of Sandway; Cyril Tolley, twice former champion; R. A. Hardman of Birkdale; Douglas Grant of Sandwich, and A. A. Bourn of Sunningdale.

Michael Scott

Michael Scott, one of Britain's better known amateurs, won his sixth round match over Dr. W. Tweddell of Stourbridge, a former champion, by one up after Tweddell had eliminated the noted Roger Wethered.

Cyril Tolley had a fairly decisive three and two victory over A. C. Gilles of Sandwich. Other gratifying scores the sixth round only by 19-hole win over H. N. Pogy.

Hardman on the 19th. to take the quarter-finals by defeating J. Z. Chew of Bradford, four and three, and Grant, a native of the United States, who has been a resident of Wimbledon, two and one.

Bourn defeated Thomas of Formby, five and four and Schunck completed the quarter-finals today with a smashing five and four win over J. J. Cowan of Carlisle.

Dunlap will meet Somerville and Tolley will battle Holden. Nash's conquerer, in the quarter-finals tomorrow.

TORONTO AUDITOR SAYS SURPLUS IS CORRECT

Might Be Reduced by $750 But Not $2,000

TORONTO, June 22—(CP)—City Auditor Scott K. Scott today advised Board of Control that reducing three searching inquiries into the books of the Public Library Board he was not prepared to make any material changes in his original report which he fixed the surplus of the Library Board at $8,138. He found any surplus would be reduced by $250, but said there was no reason to change his fig ures reducing the surplus to $2,000, the amount which Mayor W. J. Stewart and members of the Board contended to be correct.

Mr. Scott presented his observations on the Board of Controls request that he investigate the suppressed regret for the misunderstanding.

70 YEAR AGE LIMIT AROUSES FIRE CHIEF

Hamilton, Ont., June 22 (CP)—Hamilton's civic affairs were in a turmoil today following the city Controll's decision to retire all civic officials who had reached the age of 70. W. J. James, fire chief, commented briefly on his retirement. "I'll show them in December," he said, intimating he would run for office in the municipal elections.

Magistrate H. W. Burbidge demanded the retirement of Controller on such short notice as a "poor reward for years of faithful service to the city.

HAIL DAMAGE AT WOLF ISLAND

KINGSTON, Ont., June 22—(CP) Hail, rain and wind caused heavy damage on the island last night. The gale swept the eastern end, flattened barns, uprooted trees and damaged crops.

It cut a swath across the island about half a mile wide and virtually carried everything before it. Hail, driven by the wind, fell on Wolfe Island and several houses damaged crops.

HENRY STAYS AS LEADER OF PARTY REPORT

Stratford Beacon-Herald Says Premier to Make Two Statements

NO ELECTION?

Mitchell Appearance of Premier to Reply to Rumors

Stratford, Ont., June 22 (CP)—The Stratford Beacon-Herald publishes the following in its news columns today:

Premier Hepburn's close to the inner circles of the Conservative party it was learned today that Premier George S. Henry may choose next Wednesday night, when he is to address the Conservative convention at Mitchell, to make two definite statements.

"One, it was said, will be that he will continue as leader of the party in Ontario.

"The other will be that there will be no general election in the province this year.

"Premier Henry" has made no public utterances since the close of the legislature over a month ago into the current 'oratorical campaign' in the province is for the sole purpose of replying to certain charges that have been flying about during the past several weeks.

"Although significance is attached to some quarters to the silence of the campaign, local Conservatives maintain that it does not indicate at all the probability of an election in the near future."

PICTURE CLUE TO REUNION

Romance as Father Sees His Daughter For First Time

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—A bus terminal in Toronto today was the setting for a happy ending to a drama which began in Poland twenty years ago, when Stephen Crystal, and Crystal, was forced to flee the country with his wife and unborn daughter.

After fleeing war-gripped Poland young Crystal settled in Canada, later meeting a cousin here, Mrs. Z. Trimbal of Toronto. A chance meeting of friends from New York that Mrs. Trimbal obtained a picture of the Irish Free State. Attaching punitive tariff measures strongly he spoke against in line with the Russian proposal to abolish all administrative and financial measures which permit imposition of discriminatory tariffs against an individual country.

World Conference.

The work of the conference remained adjourned while the delegates sought to find a basis for new proposals on reduction of production and organization of exports, when the meeting. The two will leave for Montreal later today where the girl will meet her brothers and step mother.

Sterling at $4.23 for Record High

London, June 22 (CP Cable)—The United States delegation told the World Conference today the United States would not take any steps to stabilize the dollar at the present time, and coincidently the pound sterling rose to a record point, the British pound soaring to $4.23, a new record since Britain left the gold standard.

LOANS FOR FARMERS PRESSED BY SEGUIN

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—Government loans to farmers, similar to loans was today urged upon Premier George S. Henry by Charles A. Seguin, M.L.A., Russell, for 100 farmers, of Cyrville, near Ottawa, who suffered totalling $150,000 in a recent storms. While agreeing some assistance should be forthcoming from either the Ontario or Dominion governments, Mr. Henry said there was no precedent for such procedure, but agreed to have the matter placed before the Cabinet for discussion.

Stabilization of Dollar is Merely Delayed Say British in Comment on U. S. Attitude

Exchange Problem Feared by U. S. as Hazarding Conference

FRENCH OBJECT

British Commentators Say No Need of Tragic View

London, June 22.—The British attitude towards the refusal of the United States to consider currency stabilization at the present time is that it merely means postponement, not abandonment, of this vital question.

Introducing a resolution dealing solely with the necessity of removing trade barriers and ignoring the problem of currency stabilization, the American delegation to the world conference today declared its government felt currency stabilization would be desirable and possibly lead to a violent price recession which would harm the conference's prospects of success.

The French, leading the gold standard countries, have been insistent that currencies should be stabilized before other considerations, backed other problems. They have receded somewhat from this position and today agreed privately with the Americans that currency stabilization talks could be delayed for the time being.

No Long Delay.

Great Britain, more moderately, holds firmly that currency stabilization cannot be long delayed. Canada, through Prime Minister R. B. Bennett last week, pleaded urgently that the United Kingdom and the United States should not establish the dollar likewise.

"Delay is the tragic a view of it," a high British authority told the Canadian Press after today's American declaration, "and the conference will go on just the same."

The American attitude is interpreted in British circles not as a refusal to stabilize. Stabilization, it is felt here, will come eventually and in this regard particular attention was drawn to the declaration in the American statement that "the American delegation has been instructed to discuss a resolution designed for the ultimate world-wide stabilization of unstable currencies." This is the Pittman currency-backing proposal.

Meanwhile, the Anglo-French tariff dispute arising from the non-payment of the June 15 debt instalment to Britain was brought before the conference by Senator Joseph Caillaux, leading the French State. Attacking punitive tariff measures strongly he spoke against in line with the Russian proposal to abolish all administrative and financial measures which permit imposition of discriminatory tariffs against an individual country.

World Conference.

The work of the conference remained adjourned while the delegates sought to find a basis for new proposals on reduction of production and organization of exports, when the meeting. The two will leave for Montreal later today where the girl will meet her brothers and step mother.

Sterling at $4.23 for Record High

London, June 22 (CP Cable)—The United States delegation told the World Conference today the United States would not take any steps to stabilize the dollar at the present time, and coincidently the pound sterling rose to a record point, the British pound soaring to $4.23, a new record since Britain left the gold standard.

LOANS FOR FARMERS PRESSED BY SEGUIN

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—Government loans to farmers, similar to loans was today urged upon Premier George S. Henry by Charles A. Seguin, M.L.A., Russell, for 100 farmers, of Cyrville, near Ottawa, who suffered totalling $150,000 in a recent storms. While agreeing some assistance should be forthcoming from either the Ontario or Dominion governments, Mr. Henry said there was no precedent for such procedure, but agreed to have the matter placed before the Cabinet for discussion.

Red Envoy to U.S.?

Gregory Sokolnikoff, former ambassador to England, will be named as the first envoy of the U. S. S. R. to the U.S. when President Roosevelt formally recognizes the Russian government by sending an envoy to Moscow. Sokolnikoff is now vice commissar for foreign affairs.

WEATHER

"Toronto, June 22—Synopsis — A trough of low pressure extends from Hudson Straits southward to the New England States, and a moderate depression is moving slowly eastward across the Western Provinces, while the barometer is relatively high over the Mackinac Valley and Northwestern Ontario. Showers have occurred in many parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan also from Southern Ontario to New Brunswick. Temperatures are moderate throughout the Dominion.

Northern Ontario — Moderate winds; fair today and Friday; cool tonight.

Ottawa, Upper St. Lawrence, Northwestern Quebec and Lake St. John—Light to moderate winds; fair and comparatively cool. Friday —Moderate northerly to easterly winds; fair with much change in temperature.

Lower St. Lawrence Valley—Fresh northeast winds; partly cloudy and comparatively cool today. Friday northwest winds; fair; not much change in temperature.

Lake Erie—Moderate winds; partly cloudy; not much change in temperature.

Manitoba — Moderate to fresh easterly winds; partly cloudy, with much the same temperature; probably showers by shower.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Partly cloudy, with local showers; not much change in temperature.

Coming Events

VICTORIAN ORDER WELL BABY Conference will be held in the City Hall tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30. 22-1t

DANCING AT QUINTE INN every Thursday night. Come and enjoy an evening's dancing at the Quinte Inn. Music by Dutch Turney's Commodores. 22-1t.

JOHN STREET CHURCH HELP invites you to afternoon tea at residence of Mrs. Graham, John Road, Friday, June twenty-third from two to seven. Home-made delicacies for sale. Evening concert from three-thirty on. Admission 25c and five cents. 22-1t

AFTERNOON TEA, STRAWBERries, ice cream and homecooking Friday, summer home of Mrs. W. McIvery, Rossmore. Cars will leave St. Andrew's Church at 2:30. 22-1t

STREET DANCE MARKET Square, Saturday, June 24, 22 8.00 o'clock p.m. Music by City Drivers Band. Monster Community Dance! Belleville and District invited to join. Jitney dancing 5c. per dance. Dancing until midnight. 22-2

DANCE AT SHANNONVILLE Orange Hall, Friday, June 23rd Good orchestra. Auspices Shannonville Ball Club. Admission 25c. 21-3

City and District News

HAILSTONES LARGE IN STORM AT TWEED

Hailstones that fell in the district of Tweed during the late afternoon on Wednesday were big ones, as residents of that district can testify. Some of the larger ones picked up by Mr. W. E. Tummon, M.P., measured as much as three inches, according to Mr. H. B. Stock of this city who viewed the huge pellets.

LOSES SIGHT OF ONE EYE

The many friends of Mr. Henry Bowser, formerly of this city, but now of Chicago, will hear with regret that he had the misfortune to lose the sight of an eye recently. Mr. Bowser visited his native city frequently in recent years and is deservedly popular.

NEW POTATOES OFFERED ON MART

New potatoes were offered on the local mid-week market today for the first time for many years at 20c the berry box. According to local market vendors the appearance of new potatoes at such an early date is somewhat of a novelty, as potatoes are never generally offered for sale until after July 1st. The freshly dug potatoes that were offered on Thursday's market were of a fine size, some being two inches in diameter.

Strawberries declined in price however, selling at straight ten cents a box. Shelling peas, fresh from the pod, brought 40c a quart, while other green vegetables remained relatively low in price, 5c being sold for lic the dozen.

The market, for a first evening gathering, was large.

TIRED FEET NEED RELIEF

Foot Soap

For Burning, Tired, Perspiring Feet.

Foot Powder

Deodorizing and Soothing

BOTH

35c

McKeown's

Drug Store

HOT

Try Our

Buttermilk

Fresh daily at your favorite fountain or delivered with your morning milk.

WALMUIR DAIRY

PHONE 1598 or 2304

J11-2t.

TREE FALLING DISRUPTS TRAFFIC

Traffic was held up and the telephone service disrupted in the vicinity of Rose Corners, a few miles north of Belleville on the Foxboro road yesterday afternoon following the falling of a large limb from a big elm tree across the highway. It was only after several persons had gathered that the Bell Telephone linesmen cleared the highway so both highway and telephone service was restored. The limb was a big one, practically one half of a large elm tree, that skirts the highway just south of Rose Corners.

LOU GANOT IS SECOND IN STAKE

Lou Ganot, owned by Percy Morgan, of Campbellford and trained by Sabo Elmhirst at the local track took plenty of money in the 2:16 stake raced at Kemptville on Wednesday, when he broke the old track record for Belleville at 2.07 1-3. Elmhirst teamed his charge home in front in the first heat but met interference in the final at the mile and was eighth. The third heat Lou Ganot stuck and was first at the fourth mark to tie in the summary with Bud Wenger. A storm at this juncture broke and rained on grounds and the race was held up for over an hour with Bud Wenger winning the fifth and final heat. After leading in the half, Lou Ganot made a standing break and was easily beaten. The winner broke the track record for the third heat pacing the mile in 2.11 flat.

FREAK SHOT AT BELLEVILLE CLUB

Funny things happen on a golf course with freak shots adding their quota. Saturday at the Club was playing in a foursome against Toronto visitors, while Captain Hunter of the Trenton club was driving from the fifth tee with another foursome. Fearing the ball was going to hit Mr. Cather, the driver shouted "fore" and Joe ducked in time. The ball hit Mr. Cather on the head and rolled down into the golf bag, which he carried.

COOLER WEATHER ON THE WAY

Hot sunshine on Thursday continued to hold temperatures at a fairly high level, with little variation in readings being recorded during the past twenty-four hours. Seventy-eight at noon on Thursday contrasted with the highest point of eighty-two marked on Wednesday. Cooler weather is on the way, according to the weatherman, with possible showers soon.

WORK FAR INTO NIGHT TO REPAIR DAMAGE

Telephone Service Interrupted to Sterling, Madoc and Tweed

Bell Telephone Company employees of this district, on the local and district circuits, worked far into the night, Wednesday, to get things again back at work early Thursday morning after an attempt was made to restore service on nearly all rural lines, and on the main lines from this city, caused by the storm which swept the district on the Wednesday. Scores of telephone poles and miles of wire lie along roads, being to the earth with the force of the blow. On the Belleville to Stirling line, according to unofficial reports, trees, that have been blown down have added to the difficulties of the company. Service on that line was said to have been interrupted for a short period. On the Belleville to Madoc line services were also cut, such interruption being caused by broken lines. Belleville district suffered twelve telephone poles down altogether. By Thursday a good start had been made on the repair work and restoration of service.

BOWLING TOURNEY IS HELD AT TWEED WED.

Local Rink Misses Final by One Shot

Spirited competitions resulted in the lawn bowling competitions held in Tweed on Tuesday and Wednesday Club on Wednesday. Teams from Belleville, Brighton, Desoronto, Madoc, Stirling, Picton and other neighborhood points in this central district made the event the largest competition yet held in Tweed. Two teams were entered by Belleville, one of which missed making the finals by only one shot. Composing the team were Mr. W. Embury, Mr. W. Rexbury, Mr. W. Dawson, Mr. A. Stock and Mr. A. R. Symons—skip. Belleville's second team composed of Mr. Cyril McBride, Elmer Dixon G. T. Woodley and Mr. Chris Boyce —skip were not, successful in the consolation. Winners of the eliminations were as follows, when a tie game was played between Desoronto and Stirling, with Desoronto winning the highest honors, the Gordon trophy, while Stirling team as second place winners, were awarded the Tweed Club Bowling Cup. Handsome prizes were given the runners up in the other teams which competed.

Every Minute

SOMEONE BUYS A

CHEVROLET

J. B. BOYCE

Sales, Parts, Service

TRADE UPTURN IS INDICATED

Insurance Men Hear Reports of Better Conditions

Another evidence of the general improvement in business was given at an agents' meeting of The North American Life Assurance Company in Belleville yesterday.

The meeting was called to hear addresses from Mr. Rutledge, the general manager of the company and Mr. McCanna who is the agency supervisor. Both addresses dealt with the co-operation which has been given by head office to the field representatives the Central Ontario Branch during the first $100,000 of applications for $1000 or more business all written in the current week.

This branch has a very enviable record, having headed the entire Dominion last year in writing the best volume of business. An interesting feature of the applications handed in for Kingston during the first half of it was on the investment plan which has been sold there recently at the present time. This especially attracted the writer to the fact that the company have been enabled to continue their dividend rate unchanged during the present difficult years and as a result of this have received many flattering compliments from policy holders.

Meeting with the agency manager for only six months, Mr. R. B. Cooper has become a consistent producer, and Agents Mr. J. J. Kingsley and Mr. M. W. Sparling has helped materially in maintaining the record which was established last year.

Women's Society of United Church Meet in City

Three hundred women, delegates and visitors to the first convention of Ladies' Aids, Women's Associations, Church Aid Societies and Sewing Circles, Hastings and Prince Edward of the Belleville Presbyterial of the United Church assembled at the Tabernacle Church this morning for the opening session of Rev. Soford E. Dixon is the organizer.

The delegates who registered were received by representatives of the Tabernacle Church. Community singing led by Miss Aud Brickman of Victoria, while the devotional period was in charge of Miss Maud Bessie of Madoc and Mrs. (Rev.) Mrs. W. H. Kells of Sidney, was in convention. Secretary and treasury the morning was devoted to the reading of reports from each society represented.

LOCAL STORES' NEW BUYING PLAN

New Business Arrangement Is Made By Local Druggists

A new business arrangement of considerable public interest is given formal announcement in an advt. column of this issue in which six Belleville drug stores are concerned. These stores are members of the Independent Druggists' Association and includes some two hundred other Ontario druggists. The Belleville druggists referred to are A. L. Geen, Doyle's Drug Store, Dolan the Druggist, Laliberte, Caisson and Sidney's Pharmacy. This business arrangement, it is announced, is for the purpose of consolidating the buying power of more than two hundred druggists for the larger quantities, at lower prices, as well as giving a better service all round.

Belleville I. D. A. stores mark their entrance into the new arrangement with a three-day special price sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

GARMENT EXPERT TO VISIT WOTTEN'S LTD.

An interesting visitor to Belleville tomorrow will be Miss Dorothy Robb, style specialist of the Monarch Knitting Co. Miss Robb comes to Belleville in the interests of all those who are interested in the art of hand knitting and she will be in the wool department of Wottens Limited all day tomorrow and part of Saturday. Ladies bringing with them a sample of the newest models in hand-knitted garments will be especially engaged from Monarch yarns and she would like to meet all the ladies who are interested in this fall-and-winter art.

PALMER'S

IF YOUR BOY OR GIRL passes their examinations reward them with a gift they will keep and cherish.

WE HAVE

Wrist Watches $8.88 Up

Parker Pen Sets $1.50 Up

Signet Rings $2.50 Up

Also many other timely Graduation Suggestions

Saturday Special Cut Glass WATER TUMBLERS 9c EACH

26 BRIDGE ST. E.

JUNE ROSE SHOW AT Y

Flower Lovers Visit to View Brilliant Hued Flowers

The annual June Rose Show of the Belleville Horticultural Society opened in the Y.M.C.A. rotunda on Wednesday evening and is continuing today and this evening. Coming with the rose competition is a display of Delphinium, Sweet William and Canterbury Bell. A number of members in the society and flower lovers have visited the exhibit to view and discuss the display.

The following are the awards:

Rose (single bloom), Light Pink—1, Mrs. Ball; 2, B. Freeman, Mrs. Ball. Dark pink, J. B. Freeman, Mrs. Ball, Miss Rowland. Red, J. B. Freeman, Mrs. Ball, Miss Richman. White, Mrs. Ross, J. B. Freeman. Miss Rowland. Yellow, F. Domenico, Mrs. J. W. Pearce. Any other, Mrs. Rose, F. Domenico, Mrs. J. W. Pearce.

Roses (3 blooms,) light pink, Mrs. Ball, F. Domenico. Dark Pink, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Stillman. Miss Rowland. Red, Miss Rowland. Mrs. Ross, F. Domenico. White, J. B. Freeman, Mrs. Ross, F. Domenico. Yellow, F. Domenico, Mrs. J. W. Pearce, Mrs. Ball. Any other, J. W. Pearce, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Hartman. Varied, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Stillman.

Rose Polyonthus (single) White, Mrs. Ross. Red, J. B. Freeman, Mrs. Ross. Mrs. Bell. 2 sprays, white, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Farnsworth. Pink, Mrs. Ross.

Basket, any one color—Mrs. Ross. Varied color, Mrs. Ross, J. B. Freeman.

Six Varieties—Mrs. Ross, J. B. Freeman. Collection, Mrs. Ross, J. Watson. Mrs. Farnsworth. Rose bowl —Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Sa't.

Bowl of Delphinium—Mr. Drummond. Best basket of Canterbury Bell, Mr. Mott, Mrs. Drummond. Best container of Sweet William, Mr. Mott, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Drummond.

DAMAGE HERE LIGHT FROM WED. STORM

Comparatively slight damage from the fringe of the storm which swept the back section of the city was noted marked in Belleville on Wednesday. Only a few trees were blown down, limbs of the city were blown down, while a larger number of other trees were stripped of several large branches when the velocity of the wind was at its height. Several downtown Front Street store signs were loosened from their mountings and swung dangerous until repaired. Plenty of warning was given by the ominous black clouds which piled in the north enabled sailors in various craft on the bay to make shore safely. No casualties were reported except a few which had been reported loose from their moorings and adrift.

SIDNEY SLUGGERS TAKE CARMEL 16-9

Return to the Game After Being Out Over Year

Sidney Sluggers returned to action again after a period out over a year, when they defeated Carmel on their own diamond last Wednesday evening. The score was 16 to 9 in Sidney's favor. Sidney obtained seven runs in the first innings and kept the lead throughout the game. The Sidney players played like well regulated machine, also the Carmel outfielders are to be commended for their clever fielding. Gerald Frederick at short stop played an excellent game, hitting for keep the game well within Sidney's hands. Lorne Reid as pitcher is getting into his old stride again. Mr. McNabb at left field used his height to good advantage when he brought down one of the finest catches of the season. The infield and right fielder also did good work. A return match will be held at Carmel, Thursday, June 29th.

The Sidney lineup being: R. Smith, lb, G. Irvin, 2b, Curtis Jr, Grenville Frederick c, Gerald Frederick ss, Reid p, Ross rf, F. Hedington c, W. McNabb lf.

PRINCIPAL IS PAID HONOR

Mr. M. W. Mott Tendered Farewell Banquet on Retirement

The staff of Queen Alexandra School, Wednesday evening, in the Dickens' and Son restaurant, tendered a dinner to the retiring principal of their school, Mr. Miller W. Mott, and Mrs. Mott. Mr. Mott terminates his 21 years' connection with the school at the close of the present school term. At the last meeting of the Board of Education, he was the object of laudatory remarks by members of the Board, when his retirement was spoken of, and his successor Mr. O. W. Anderson, appointed. On night the members of his staff met to pay tribute to his services as a principal teacher and as a kindly co-worker and friend. Belleville's public school system has been associated with Mr. Mott since he became principal of the school, and Mr. H. J. Clarke, inspector of Public Schools for Hastings, Prince Edward was an invited guest at the affair. Mr. Clarke in a brief address, spoke eulogistically of Mr. Mott's long years of successful endeavor as an educational, and added such praise to the staff for the evening were students together during their course at Model school.

During the course of the pleasant evening, on behalf of the members of the teachers of Queen Alexandra School made a presentation to Mr. Mott, of a fine handsome upholstered chair, while Mrs. Mott was the recipient of a beautiful cut glass water set. Miss McPherson conveying the gifts. Refreshments were served in a neatly worded and kindly address.

Miss Grace Horie, a teacher of the school, whose appointment as principal, made possible her severing her connection with the school, was also remembered by the staff members, and on their behalf, Miss Horie presented her with a beautiful table.

Appreciation of Worth

In making the presentation to Mr. Mott, his successor in his remarks, referred to the expressed part the high esteem and affection in which Mr. Mott was held. Praise was held by those who had been his co-workers. Mr. Anderson said in part: The rewards of teachers are few, as far as material rewards go but rewards of far more value and consequence mean more than all to the true-hearted profession such as you. Your influence for good will be felt by hundreds who have passed through your hands and in their turn will influence one another. The echoes will roll in from soul to soul and grow forever and ever. You have seen your pupils grow from childhood to manhood and womanhood and no one has had a greater feeling of pride in the success of those pupils than yourself, or none felt more genuinely glad than you did of others than you.

In your long tenure of office you have seen a panorama of human nature past before you. You have seen every phase, every mood of human nature and that insight has enabled you to conduct your school so efficiently and well.

Conscientiousness has brought you the esteem of the School Board and that of the teachers who have served under you. From your conduct and administration your teachers have learned valuable lessons and never has aught transpired to mar the cordial relationship which we have had with you. Your study of human nature, your sympathy with staff in their difficulties and your willingness to seek and accept advice in a subdued and tolerant light are appreciated by us.

The many hours you have spent in this chair may you rest from your labors in peace and may you generally come to you in your leisure hours the service you rendered only the pleasant part of your long and eventful career. May you live long to enjoy a well earned period of rest and may the years to come be such that you will still be a familiar figure in the school corridors and may those who remain to continue the work which you have done notably "Industry and Patience" shall be cherished as watchwords.

Thanks Tendered

Mr. Mott was most affected by the kindness shown him by his staff, and was able only briefly to thank his colleagues for their gift. Mr. Mott's behalf for the hands as signed by Mrs. Mott.

Mr. Mott retires the end of the present month after a term of 21 years service to the educational interests of this city. For 31 years he was connected with Queen Alexandra School, Ann Street, and in his long years of service has had thousands of noble school scholars past through his hands. Prior to the new old pre-th School and the Collegiate and Vocational School, at present the 1st Form of the Collegiate of the 28 head scholars are from the Mott's school passing to the higher school at the last entrance examinations.

The retirement of Mr. Mott leaves a vacancy in the long, active and honorable career as an educationist, he will be missed by many friends in this city and district.

ON SALE

Friday to Tues.

DUKE SQUARE GALVANIZED

Wash Tubs

With one equal share pie plate and one shell cake pan FREE

Total Value $1.80

SALE PRICE

$1.29

SMITH HARDWARE

PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

DEBATORS OF JOHN ST. WIN

Belleville Team Now In Finals After Defeat of Courtice

Last night at Trinity United Church, Cobourg, debators from John Street Church, Belleville, defeated Courtice in the semi-finals of the Bay of Quinte Conference Debating League. This debate represents the first time in the history of the league which has been under way since January of this year. The progress of the John Street Y. P. Society toward the finals has been marked by their triumphs over Northport and Odessa to give them Belleville Presbytery honors, and a place in the third round and now enter the finals by the eight stimulating Courtice, the champions of the Oshawa Presbytery. They will meet Cavan, winners of Peterboro Presbytery, at the Young People's Biennial Conference to be held in Cobourg next October, when the Conference championship will be decided.

The subject debated last night was: Resolved, that much reading of newspapers and magazines is an intellectual dissipation which, in the interest of sound knowledge, should be discouraged." Miss Alice Curtis and Mr. Arthur Pound formed a strong team for Courtice on the affirmative. The former was ably upheld by Miss Mary Drummond and Miss Isabel Hinds of Belleville.

The affirmative delivered multitudes of well-chosen arguments, presented with demonstrative fire and energy, which formed quite a contrast to the cool deliberateness of the negative. The eager responsiveness of the audience indicated the speakers noticeable, especially in timely allies of an during the debate which were exceptionally worth while.

The judges were Dr. W. H. McGuire of Albert College, Belleville; Rev. W. R. Tanton, of Cobourg, and the Pastor of the United Church at large.

Rev. Robert Hall, Pastor of John Street United Church, headed a strong delegation of Belleville supporters, who attended the debate.

OBITUARY

MRS. JAMES CAVANAGH

Following a lengthy illness, the death occurred this (Thursday) morning at the home of her son, Hamilton Road, of Mrs. Margaret Cavanagh, widow of James Cavanagh who predeceased nine years ago. The deceased was born at St. Lambert, Que., 80 years ago, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Ryan. She resided in Belleville for the past 40 years. Mrs. Cavanagh was a devout member of St. Michael's Church and had enjoyed the friendship and respect of many in this city.

The immediate relatives surviving in whom sympathy is extended are two daughters, Mrs. J. P. McCabe of Montreal, and Miss Mary of Hamilton; one son, Thomas of this city; and a sister, Mrs. P.Haggerty of Montreal.

LATE MRS. L. L. MOORE

Many friends were Wednesday afternoon in attendance at the funeral of the late Mrs. Moore, which was held from her late residence, 54 Porin street. The Rev. Dr. Bird, assisted by Rev. Alexanders of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, conducted the service at the house and at the graveside in the Belleville Cemetery. Many floral tributes evinced the esteem and love in which Mrs. Moore had been held during her lifetime by her many friends here.

Acting as bearers were Messrs. W. J. Campbell, Harry Hill, Arthur Moore, George A. Reid, D. M. Farrell and H. W. Greenleaf.

LATE MRS. CARMAN ASHLEY

Many friends and neighbors were, Wednesday afternoon, in attendance at the funeral of the late Mrs. Carman Ashley, which was held from her late residence, 32 Donald street. The Rev. H. B. Neal, pastor of the Holloway United Church, conducted the service at the home at which Mrs. S. P. Hagerman and Mrs. James Cordes rendered most sweetly an appropriate duet. Mr. Neal also officiated at the graveside in the Cemetery. The many beautiful floral offerings silently bore tribute of the love and esteem in which Mrs. Ashley had been held during her lifetime.

Acting as bearers were six cousins of the deceased. Messrs. Clayton, Aubrey and Birdie Reid, Harry Perrie, George Fox and Clarence Wesse.

Floral tributes included:—

Wreaths—Husband, mother and father; Mr. and Mrs. T. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. S. Reid.

Basket of Roses—Mr. and Mrs. B. Wannamaker, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wesse, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannah, staff of the British American Oil Company.

Potted Plant—Mr. and Mrs. A. Foster.

Sprays—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. George Harris and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. George Deline, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Bunnett, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Schryver, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cheesman and family, Mrs. Della Bray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Sligh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kellar.

Bouquets—Miss Julia Ashley, Mrs. Fluette, Miss Pearl Telling, Mrs Charles Ashley, a friend.

T. ALEXANDER LESLIE

The sympathy of their many friends throughout Toronto and the surrounding townships goes today to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Leslie and family in the sad loss they sustained Wednesday in the passing away of Thomas Alexander Leslie. The lad had been ill only a short time, and while deeply mourned by many youthful companions in the vicinity where he had resided all his life of sixteen years, the late T. Alexander Leslie was born in Thurlow and passed away at his parents' home in the fourth concession of that township. He was a member of the most regular attendant of the Salem United Church and was a well known and popular lad in the neighborhood.

Immediately surviving are the parents, one brother, Donald, and two sisters, Helen and Norma at home, and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Miller resides at Corbyville.

LATE MRS. FLORENCE CUTHBERTSON

TWEED—The funeral of the late Mrs. Florence Ann Cuthbertson took place from her late residence on Wednesday June 19th to Sunday June 19th 1933, from the Methodist Church by Victoria Cemetery, Tweed. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Price assisted by Rev. Mr. Price of Actonville.

The late Mrs. Cuthbertson, who had made her home since 1929 with her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Colton, Sulphide, passed away on June 16th a victim of heart trouble. She was born in Dromahaire, England in 1874 and in 1913 was married at Belleville to Mr. Cuthbertson, who Louis A. Cuthbertson. Following her marriage she and Mr. Cuthbertson moved to Havelock, where she was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church.

The deceased is survived by one son, Alex. Cuthbertson of Madoc, and three daughters, Mrs. Ernest Pindlay, Bristol, Quebec; Mrs. Gilbert Colton, Sulphide and Miss Mary Cuthbertson, R.N., Detroit, Mich.; two brothers, Robert Harry Perrie, Newport, Vermont; Richard Hanson Devonshire, England; and four sisters, Mrs. W. Rice, Nova Scotia; Mrs. P. Durrett, Sherbrooke, Que.; Mrs. Richard Meade, Sherbrooke, Que.; Mrs. W. Brown, Sherbrooke, Que.

The pall bearers were Messrs. A. W. Mairs, F. C. Bowen, H. J. Conroy, John Deline, A. Corbett and James Corbet.

Relatives who were present at the funeral included: Mrs. P. Durrett, Mrs. R. Meade, Mrs. W. Brown of Sherbrooke, Quebec; Mrs. E. Pindlay of Bristol, Quebec; Miss Mary Cuthbertson, Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Rice, Havelock, Mr. Ralph Hanson, Belleville, Mrs. Frank Hansford, and Mr. Harold Meade of Sherbrooke, Que.

Miss Robb is one of the foremost style and hand knitting specialists in Canada, and she comes to Wottens Limited direct from the largest centres to instruct and suggest in your knitting problems. The Monarch Knitting Co. and Wottens Limited invite every lady who is interested in hand knitting to visit this store on Friday and take advantage of Miss Reob's knowledge of creating, and developing beautiful things from wool.

MISS ROBB WILL BE IN THIS STORE SATURDAY MORNING ALSO, AND DURING HER STAY WILL DISTRIBUTE FREE FIFTY (50) OF MONARCH'S NEW KNITTING BOOKS

Miss Dorothy Robb is Coming TOMORROW

Wottens Limited

LADIES' WEAR STORE

Repairs Your Watch No Matter How Badly Broken $2 Satisfaction Guaranteed GEO. L. FINCH WATCH EXPERT 17 W. M. Theatre 26 Bridge St. E.

TODAY

And

Tomorrow

—ONLY—

Sad moments, glad moments . . . they're all here in the story of immortal Peg that has won the heart of the world!

MARION Davies in PEG O' MY HEART

with Onslow Stevens J. Farrell MacDonald Juliette Compton

FRIDAY 18 WEDGWOOD "RICHELIEU" SELECTION GIFT NIGHT!!

Other Attractions

COOLED

CAPITOL

TODAY

BELLEVILLE GETS THE MOST THRILLING LOVE STORY OF THE SCREEN!

Paramount's version of William Faulkner's novel sensation

THE STORY of TEMPLE DRAKE

with

MIRIAM HOPKINS

JACK LaRUE

William Gargan

William Collier, Jr.

So Vividly Told We Do Not Recommend It For CHILDREN

—PLUS—

Mack Sennett Star Comedy—Belle News—Abe Lyman and His Band.

Belle Theatre

House of Cool Breezes

DAILY 2.30 — 7.30 — 9.10

EXTRA! TONIGHT!

9.00 P.M.

TREASURE GIFT NIGHT

$10 Gift Night

10 prizes including a Beautiful WALNUT CEDAR CHEST

STARTS SATURDAY—JOAN CRAWFORD GARY COOPER in "TODAY WE LIVE"

Canada's Two Contenders for British Amateur Title Win Their Sixth Round Matches

Somerville Defeats Kyle And Nash Takes Rex Hartley

HARD BATTLES

Both Canadians Meet Stiff Opposition in Next Round

Hoylake, England, June 22 (CP)—Canada's two contenders for the British amateur golf title progressed to the sixth round this afternoon with victories over redoubtable opponents, while in a battle of champions Dr. W. Tweddell of Stourbridge eliminated Roger Wethered, twice former holder of the title.

C. Ross Sandy Somerville of London, Ont., the United States amateur titleholder, defeated Edward P. Kyle of Scotland, one of the tourney's dark horses, three and two while in another rousing battle Jack Nash of London went to the 20th to eliminate Rex Hartley.

Somerville this afternoon collides with George T. Dunlap, Jr., sole remaining contender from the United States, who won this fifth round match over Lister Harley 5-4, while Nash comes up against either J. W. Jones or H. L. Holden.

Cut Visit to Help Somerville in His Drive

Hoylake, England, June 22 (CP Cable)—Hero of all Canada's youthful golf domain, C. R. "Sandy" Somerville, of London, Ont., holder of the United States Amateur title and reigning threat in the current British championship, had a young Canadian home supporter at his side today.

John Alan Grierson, Somerville's Toronto caddie, just heard two days ago while visiting his grandmother in Glasgow, that Somerville was competing in the title hunt here. Jock was born at Glasgow but he quickly cut short his visit and rushed to join and console silent Sandy in his drive for the crown. He arrived today in time to start out with Somerville in the fifth round.

AUSSIE SPRINTER

Austin Robertson, of Melbourne, Australia, professional foot race champion, as he arrived in Los Angeles, Calif., recently aboard the liner Monterey, to fill track engagements in America. Robertson's records for the sprints are: 75 yards in 7 6-18 seconds; 130 yards in 12 3-16 seconds, and the 220 in 21 seconds.

ORATORICAL DUEL CALLED OFF FOR TIME

McCrea And Hepburn Fail to Agree on Subject For Debate

PART GOOD FRIENDS

Liberals Plan Meeting on Hydro And Invitation to Premier

Toronto, June 22—The McCrea-Hepburn oratorical duel is off — indefinitely postponed because of the inability of the "prim gladiators" of the political arena to agree upon the subject matter.

Meeting at Queen's Park.

With Progressive Leader Hon. Harry Nixon as a single and virtually silent umpire of preliminaries, Ontario Liberal Leader Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., met Ontario Minister of Mines Hon. Chas. McCrea at the latter's square, glass-topped desk at the Parliament Buildings late Wednesday evening.

They agreed to a debate on July 14, agreed that it should be held in Massey Hall, agreed to divide admission tickets between rival Conservative and Liberal supporters, agreed that Mr. Hepburn should speak first for 45 minutes and Mr. McCrea an hour, with another 15 minutes given to Mr. Hepburn for reply; and they agreed that the debate should be broadcast.

But the two eager protagonists failed utterly to agree upon what they should talk about, and the more they talked about that important item the further apart they got. Mr. McCrea stipulated "Georgian Bay Canal charter"; Mr. Hepburn insisted upon "Hydro affairs generally." Mr. McCrea, as a concession, offered to include St. Lawrence waterways but Mr. Hepburn remained unimpressed.

"The Georgian Bay Canal charter has whiskers a foot long," the public knows, and could be disposed of in five minutes," declared Mr. Hepburn in his usual swift, fiery manner. "It would be utterly impossible to discuss adequately Hydro affairs within the time limitations you have set for such a deliberate fashion, "and we must have some definite restriction as to the limitations of debate."

Amicable, but Stern.

And there they stuck. They did not fight. They did not shout at each other. They did not even wave menacing fingers in each other's direction. It was an amicable but apparently stern battle that was waged within the inner sanctum of the Ontario Mines Department. As they disengaged forces for the evening—Mr. McCrea to go home for supper and Mr. Hepburn to hasten to Barrie for a political meeting—they indicated nothing but mutual respect. And Mr. Hepburn's final words in a statement to The Globe last night were: "I don't want to indicate any hard feelings whatever toward Mr. McCrea. I have nothing but the highest regard for him."

Constituting himself a disinterested onlooker, as disinterested as he could be under the circumstances with his political ally about to go to platform victory, Premier Hon. Harry Nixon, throughout the comparatively short conclave, merely looked from one to the other of the duelists as they laid their pieces, or shook their heads in emphatic disagreement upon the main article to govern the debate. Seldom did entirely intervene, however. When Mr. McCrea resisted Mr. Hepburn's effort to have a "pride-open" Hydro debate, suggesting, "How about including the Abitibi?" But according to Mr. Nixon himself, Mr. McCrea said: "No, no, no."

Agree to Disagree.

And so they parted friendly enemies, agreeing to disagree, and no doubt, mentally weighing the respective positions before the public in the cancellation of hostilities on the eve of what was heralded to have been a "bonny fecht."

The last such public debate of any great Provincial moment was the Macpherson-Ferguson vs. Ferguson on the O.T.A. issue. It was declared a draw but both battlers eventually secured promotion in their own particular spheres.

Just one important "threat" emerged from this private debate. Mitchell Hepburn says that if Mr. McCrea does not accept his challenge to debate Hydro issues generally, the Liberals will hire Massey Hall themselves for the purpose of a Hydro discussion, challenge Premier Henry or any of his Cabinet to appear in debate, and place them in the position of "defaulting" the battle if a Henry Cabinet spokesman does not appear. Both Mr. McCrea and Mr. Hepburn however, last night stated their engagement at the public debate stage if they can get together on the subject matter.

NOTED WOMAN GOLFER MOTHER OF DAUGHTER

Seven Pounds Girl Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Vare, Jr.

Philadelphia, June 21 (CP)—Mrs. Edwin H. Vare, Jr., the former Glenna Collett, five times women's United States golf champion, is the mother of a seven-pound girl.

The baby was born on Mrs. Vare's thirtieth birthday, and the father, president of a construction company and an expert golfer in his own right, said the child is to be named after her mother.

The Vares were married in June, 1931.

DINNERWARE PROVES LASTING POPULARITY

1200 Women in Belleville Receive First Article of Dinnerware

The old saying that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach" can safely be changed to apply to ladies as "the way to a lady's heart is by the gift of dinnerware!"

No less than 1200 ladies in Belleville secured the first article of the new "Royal Princess" Dinnerware set given away at the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, and of that 1200 there was not one lady who was not keenly appreciative of the quality and design of the china.

Like everything British, this dinnerware is the best and comes direct from England where it is manufactured in the world famous potteries at Staffordshire.

When one stops to realize what one can procure for 39c is it any wonder that ladies flocked to the Capitol during the last two days? And to complete a perfect setting in the cool atmosphere of the Capitol there was not one piece of chinaware dropped during any one performance. This alone proves that the ladies hunt well their dishes tightly, realizing the sterling worth of their gift.

Next week there will be, no doubt, a repetition of this worthy gift to dinnerware collectors to the Capitol.

INGENUITY IS FAR REACHING

Harry McGuire Has a Punt That is a Punt

When the boyhood of Belleville becomes aquatically inclined, its ingenuity is far reaching. The punt complex that made its renewed appearance last summer has developed by leaps and bounds the present year, and numerous blunt fore and aft flat-bottomers are braving the waves of Belleville harbour and the Bay of Quinte these summer days.

The boys in the neighborhood of the upper railway bridge have a fleet of six and one would-be canoes, constructed from material garnered from the usual dumps in the west side of the river at that point. Just how these things are put together and hammered into shape and made air-tight, heaven alone might know, but there are, however, affording untold pleasure and amusement for the boys in that section of the city.

The latest addition to the marine activities of Belleville's boyhood was seen for the first time Wednesday afternoon on the rippling bosom of the Moira. It is the craft of Harry McGuire Intelligencer plant. Harry McGuire, member of the Collegiate hockey team, was the owner, designer and chief navigator, and will probably be the sole passenger of as brainy a piece of boyhood craft as has been seen in some months on the watery vicinity of Belleville. Although speed will not make this sloop notable, still the owner of many a faster boat will take his pleasure from his craft than Harry will from this brain wave of his, the child of his own brain.

Oil Barrel Hollowed.

On two short timbers joined by cross pieces, the constructionist has placed an oil barrel; the mid section of the upper half of the barrel has been sawed away and discarded making a snug cockpit for the captain of the boat. The barrel has been chopped from an apparently fairly heavy stock with plenty of buoyant strength at one end of it provides the motive arrangement. Harry was not content with an unfinished job, so the craft boasts of two colors of paint, one for the body of the barrel or the superstructure, and another has been applied to the steel sheet hoops binding it.

DEEP HOLE IS VERY POPULAR

Lazier Mill Dam Rendezvous For Many Swimmers of City

The deep hole above the old Lazier mill dam, midway between this city and Canniffton, has come, this season, into its old time own popularity as a swimming place. Forty and fifty years ago following the annual run of logs down the Moira, this spot used to be a favorite place for bathing, and for the youth of that immediate vicinity, but boys would flock there from both the east and west hills and way stations.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, some forty young men and boys were noted along the Canniffton Road, either headed for or departing from the waters above the old dam. No doubt of what they had been doing or what their seasonal intentions were, as each was swinging a bathing suit. In the old days at this spot such a garment would have been considered effeminate, but time changes many old time habits. On the west bank of the Moira above the dam Tuesday evening there must have been between 125 and 150 boys, youths and men either in the river or along the bank in bathing suits. The deep hole at Lazier's dam has again come back to its summer own.

To increase Vitamin D content of milk, three methods are commercially used; feeding cows irradiations, irradiation of the milk, adding vitamin concentrates to the milk.

COOK'S! COOK'S!

Anniversary Sale Ends Saturday

Many people have taken advantage of this Sale and they were greatly pleased with the values they obtained. If you have not been in don't delay—there are

Special Bargains for Friday — Saturday

Porch Dresses—89c
Porch Dresses in fancy prints and plain linene. Neat styles. Reg. 1.25. On Sale at 89c

Celanese Crepe Dresses—1.95
Crepe Dresses in fine celanese in summer shades. Neat styles. Sizes 14 to 42. On Sale at 1.95

Voile Dresses—2.95
Voile Dresses in a variety of styles, in light and dark colors. Sizes 16 to 52. On Sale at 2.95

Hoover Dresses—1.39
Dresses in hoover style, in fancy prints. On sale at 1.39

Ripple Crepe Pique
Ripple Crepe Pique, a new material for summer wear. Colors of yellow, green, blue and sand. Only yard 50c

Princess Slips
Princess Slips in fine striped rayon with lace trimmings. In white and colors. On Sale at 1.25

Ladies' Bathing Suits—1.95
Bathing Suits in fine all wool. Sizes 36 to 42. On Sale at 1.95

Kiddies' Sox—2 pairs 25c
Kiddies Sox in plain and fancy. Sizes 4½ to 7½. Reg. 35c. On Sale 2 pairs 25c

54 Inch Vivella Flannel—1.95 yd.
Vivella Flannel in fine quality, cream only; 54 inches wide. On Sale at 1.95

Fancy Rayon Crepe—59c yd.
Rayon Crepe in a variety of patterns and colors. 36 inches wide. Reg. 79c to 1.25. On Sale at, yard 59c

Frilled Curtain Scrim—10c yd.
Curtain Scrim in colors of rose, blue, yellow and green. On Sale at, yard 10c

Curtain Net—19c yd.
Curtain Net in several patterns, with tailored edge, cream shade. 36 inches wide. Only, yard 19c

SHOP AT COOK'S AND SAVE!

JOHN W. COOK
210 FRONT STREET BELLEVILLE

—McINTOSH BROS.—
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
MORE for your money

HOT WEATHER SPECIALS—CLEARANCE IN EVERY DEPARTMENT, MAKING MANY ATTRACTIVE MONEY-SAVING BARGAINS FOR THE WEEK-END — HERE ARE SOME OF THE FEATURES—MANY MORE ON DISPLAY AT THE STORE —

MIDSUMMER CLEARANCE PRICE SURPRISES

SEASONABLE ITEMS FOR MEN AND BOYS

Boys' All Wool
Bathing Suits
Sizes 26 to 34. Each
$1.00

Men's All Wool
Bathing Suits
Black all wool suits in the best makes. All sizes to 44.
$1.95, $1.50, $1.19

MEN'S PURE WOOL GREY FLANNEL TROUSERS $2.25

Men's Silk
Combinations
White and peach shade. Buttoned style and all sizes for men. Week-End Special, per suit 75c

Men's Rayon Feio
Shirts
Short sleeves, non-run for sport wear. Sizes 38, 40 and 42. Friday and Saturday. Each 59c

Boys' Rayon Feio
Shirts
Peach and white shades, short sleeves, easily washed. Sizes 28, 30 and 32. Week End Sale. Each 50c

Men's Fine Cotton Hose All Shades and Patterns pr. 15c

Reversible
Blankets
Pure wool reversible blankets in shades of rose and green, rose and gold, rose and blue, green and mauve. Size 60 x 80 inches. Satin bound. Each 5.50

Grey Wool
Blankets
Heavy quality pure wool blankets. Suitable for camping, etc. Size 60 x 80 inches. Whipped singly. Pair 4.50

Silkalo
Spreads
Fancy silk spreads in shades of rose, blue, ivory, orchid, gold and green. Size 80 x 100 inches. Dressed designs. Each 2.49

Cotton
Spreads
Fancy striped cotton spreads. All shades. Fine quality. Size 80 x 100 inches. Each 1.59

Dish Toweling
Heavy quality pure linen toweling, 20 inches wide. Coloured borders of blue, gold and green. Yard 19c

Roller Toweling
Pure linen toweling in white with coloured borders of rose, blue green and gold. 16 inches wide. Yard 15c

Prints
Large range of cotton prints. Light and dark patterns. 36 inches wide. Fast colour. Suitable for ladies' and children's wear. Yard 19c

Cotton
Sheets
Fine quality cotton sheets. Plain hemmed. Size 72 x 90 inches. Suitable for ordinary use. Each 1.19

Pillow
Cases
Cotton pillow cases. 42 inches wide. Plain hemmed. Fine quality. Each 29c

Dress
Linen
36 inch dress linen in shades of rose, blue, gold, mauve, green, ivory and white. Yard 25c

Pillow
Tubing
Fine quality circular pillow cotton. 42 inches wide. Yard 35c

Angel Skin Slips
Here is real value. In all sizes in shades of white, flesh and sand in adjustable straps. Sizes 32 to 44. Each 1.00

Flat Crepe 38" Wide
Pure silk flat crepe in all the new popular shades. 38 inches wide. Suitable for ladies' or children's wear. (Pure silk). Yard 89c

Preserving Needs

Crown Pints	doz. 1.05
Crown Quarts	doz. 1.15
Zinc Rings	doz. .23
Rubber Rings	3c doz. 2 doz. .15
Glass Sealer Tops	doz. .25

Picnic Needs

Paper Napkins, pkg. of 80	10c
Paper Cups, pkg. of 10	10c
Paper Plates, doz.	10c

Summertime Necessities

5 quart covered convex aluminum kettle	69c
Pint Thermos Bottles. Special	29c
Gallon Thermos Bottles with cork insulation	1.59
6 cup Coffee Percolators. Special	59c
White Granelle Combinettes. Special	1.29
Watering Cans in green Japanned ware. 10 qt. 1.00 14 qt.	1.19
13 qt. Aluminum Preserving Kettle with cover. Special	1.59
8 qt. Aluminum Preserving Kettle without cover. Special	85c

SUMMER PURSES

A line of smart purses in white, silk lined, zipper fastenings, coin purse and mirror. Specially priced 1.95

Dainty moire silk purses in shades of white, black, blue, brown, grey, beige. The essential smaller purse so useful for many occasions. Price 1.00

White purses in medium size, in pouch and undarm shape, with coin purse and mirror. Special 50c 79c

Crepe purses to match summer silks and dresses. Fitted with zipper fastening, coin purse and mirror, in attractive colors ..... 1.95 to 2.50

Sunburn Accessories

Italian Balm	29c 49c
Hind's Honey and Almond Cream	49c
Witch Hazel Cream	25c
Pure Olive Oil	25c 35c
Canadian Sea Pine Bath Salts, 2 lb. tin	79c
Radox Bath Salts. New large pkg.	59c

McINTOSH BROS.
257 Front St.—Belleville—Phone 802

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.

W. H. MORTON, Publisher

YOUTHFUL PRISONERS.

While there are oldtimers in penitentiaries, the vast majority of the inmates are boys of the late 'teens' and early twenties, the average age of 1100 in St. Vincent de Paul at Montreal being only 23 years. Over six hundred are only twenty years of age. Justice Wilson in Montreal, on Monday, commented upon this "terrible situation."

Here it must be remembered is a large settlement of boys who have scarcely reached adulthood and in a sense have scarcely known what it is to live. Yet they have sowed their wild oats and in their life's morning are the prisoners of the state. None of these young men know what life was back more than ten years or so—they are the products of an age which is rocked with social unrest. Unfortunately a large share of the burden falls upon the young, the undisciplined and those who through their own choice follow the course of crime and unlawful excitement.

Back of this condition is a loosening of the moral standards and conventions, the revolt of youth against the ancient laws which their elders defend and largely observe. It is an age of materialism when values are not so clear to many persons as they were. It is an age of idleness, which produces a social unheaval and often results in crime and discontent. In another day many of these young prisoners would have had jobs, which might have saved them.

He who can solve the question of the youth of the day can solve most of the questions which trouble this period of history and civilization. And the question has to be solved.

It must be remembered that a Christian civilization has ample laws to meet every emergency, but it fails to take account of the complexity of life and the weaknesses of mankind in regard to the life values and principles. Man is, of course, the noblest product of life but no other creature in all creation has the responsibility of man for his material and spiritual development. Some unfortunately, through their own weaknesses or lack of training or as a result of social and economic conditions are drifting into lives of crime and lawlessness. Among these are youths, though this cannot be taken as a claim that youth as a class is any the less responsive to the best that has ever been challenged the youth of the world.

But today is a youth's day where crime is concerned. The older criminal by very force of the tempo or speed of the modern world is almost forced to live as a lawabiding citizen but the youth have a real nerve and the desire for thrill, always a factor in criminality.

The challenge is to their elders to try to save them from the lure of the spider's web of crime and wrongdoing, and of mischief. It is also a day demanding the highest courage in youth to stand fast—not to throw away the anchor which has throughout civilization held humanity fast to the sound principles of family and social life.

Youth generally is to be commended upon its steadfastness and courage in the face of unprecedented conditions and it is a tribute to the young that the vast majority of them have kept themselves from the steep way to ruin.

SIMPLER LANGUAGE

Simplicity in the language used in the preparation of bills introduced into the British House of Commons is urged by Sir Francis Freemantle, M.P.

Some Canadian M.P.'s and some Ontario M.P.P.'s could raise their voices in the same strain in Canada and in Ontario legislative halls.

The language of the statutes and bills is tangled and complicated in style. If a newspaper used some such language or the people on the street talked it, or the writers of plays and novels tried such means of expressing thought the people would go mad. Fortunately for their sanity the people do not read the bills and the statutes, leaving that to lawyers who arise to defend them if they get into difficulty.

Of course the laws must be explicit and clear and exact but why not briefer and less complicated?

The ordinary bill introduced into a council or the bylaw brought into a city, village, or township council is, to say the least, wooden. Probably they are not meant to be read. And they are not.

Legal language has become, in a sense, crystallized, as may be seen by the ancient usage of words, which have new meanings in the present day. That the law preserves the language from irrational trends, is true, but why living language which is understandable by the millions in the streets and on the concessions is not written into the laws seems difficult to understand.

A crowd always thinks with its sympathy, never with its reason.—W. R. Alger.

Modesty and the dew love the shade. Each shines in the open day only to be exalted to heaven.—J. P. Senn.

SIDELIGHTS
GRAVE and GAY

WHAT SHALL WE SAY, NOW YOU ARE GONE?

(By John Edward Colburn)

Old friend, what shall we say, now you are gone?
That all is over—all the things we knew—
The things we shared—our Sai ice cone,
So full of savor tasted once with you?
Those trifles that made friendship?

Let us hope
That you have found a place, not very strange,
Where you may sit and wait for me—some slope
Of sun-warmed grass, with trees, where sight may range
Across wide valleys to the sunset hills.
Then we will rise together, with the whole
Of life before us, as it used to be.
In that new land, not much unlike the old,
And walk with the old strength to search, and see
What prospects that new country may unfold.

And maybe, in some hollow, we shall find
The very thing, the very trees we knew.
The same old place to travel in—and you.

x x x x

"BREWSTER'S MILLIONS" was a good story and an interesting play on the stage and on the silver screen but the story of a desperate attempt to get rid of a huge fortune which persisted in growing no matter what disposition the owner did with it. The man who made a play out of "Brewster's Millions" and made many thousands of dollars was Winchell Smith, a name little known to the Front Page, but a man who rolled up success on the stage and estate of $1,500,000. Other successful plays of Winchell Smith included "Polly of the Circus," "The Boomerang," "Turn to the Right," and "Lightnin'." Many millions have been lost by stage investors but few have come out of a busy stage career with more than a million, and died with it. Of course Anne Nichols with her inconsequential but funny "Abie's Irish Rose" made a few million dollars in five years with that delightful absurdity, and piling more than a million dollars a year, but that was what might be called a theatrical freak. Winchell Smith with three plays after another did a bit more than the average interest rolled up a fortune of a million and a half dollars. His will showed the kind of man he was, the kind of man whom God approves of, and who deserves to succeed. Thirty-five per cent of the income of a large trust fund has been set aside for the benefit of actors and dramatists. A nephew and a life-long friend are the principal beneficiaries. The latter receives $10,000 and some of Mr. Smith's personal property. The Connecticut Children's Aid Society, the Newsboys' Home for Crippled Children, Trinity College and the Hartford Hospital were also remembered in the will.

x x x

VACATION TIME IS HERE, when after the long winter and prolonged spring, the human machine cries out for relaxation amid different surroundings. Crowding the human machine beyond its power of inclination means a shorter and a sadder life, believe you me—and that's why so many tired business men's desks are cluttered with uniting literature these days.

x x x

GREAT BRITAIN pays ten million dollars in silver to the United States on war debts, but the silver remains in Bombay. Modern finance can wipe out a debt in New York by just waving a magic wand over a treasure cache somewhere in India. A case of where credit is cash, whether old Croesus could take the cash and let the credit go, or no—principally NO.

x x x x

Kiss the Keg

A kind-hearted English vicar one day observed an old woman laboriously pushing a pram up a steep hill. He volunteered his assistance, and when they reached the top of the hill said, in answer to her thanks:

"Oh it's nothing at all. I'm delighted to do it. But as a little reward, may I kiss the baby?"

"Baby? Lor' bless you, sir," she returned, "it aint no baby, its the old man's beer."—New York World-Telegram.

x x

Gallantry in a Nose Dive

"Few men have the courage to leave their wives," says a magazine writer.

None but the brave desert the fair.—Boston Transcript.

x x x x x

"Car, Madam? Certainly. What type?"

"Well, I'm subject to train sickness, so I'd like one I could drive with my back to the engine.'

SIGNS POINT TO RESTORATION OF DUAL MONARCHY

Photo of the late Emperor Charles II of Austria, with his wife, the Empress Zita, and Crown Prince Otto, taken the day Charles succeeded Franz Joseph to the throne, in 1916.

King Alexander of Yugoslavia

Archduke Otto.

Rumors from Europe indicate that a restoration of the Austro-Hungarian dual monarchy is being urged upon King Alexander of Yugoslavia as the only settlement of the Croatian question by France, Italy and Czechoslovakia. Czechoslovakia fears a union between Austria and Germany should such a pact would bolster up her own western borders. Prince Sixtus, of Bourbon de Parma, brother of ex-Empress Zita, is believed to have been carrying on negotiations in Belgrade with King Alexander, as confidential agent of France. Should this conference prove successful, adherents of the young nephew, Archduke Otto, claimant to the throne of Hungary, undoubtedly will attempt to place him upon the throne of the dual monarchy. After the world war Austria became a republic and Hungary a constitutional monarchy without a king, with Admiral Nicholas Horthy, its former naval chief, as regent. Map shows the countries most affected.

LOOKING BACKWARD
GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 22, 1913.

Mr. (Dr.) Dyde of Greenley, Colorado, accompanied by her two children, is visiting at her old home on West Bridge St. Mrs. Dyde is a daughter of the late Horace Yeomans of this city.

A man in a local picture theatre made himself comfortable one evening recently by taking off his boots and socks. They were found next morning under the seat when the occupied. He has not returned to claim his property.

Mrs. W. Beasley of Trenton and her sister, Mrs. George Thompson of Belleville, are visiting friends in Warkworth.

Dr. Barlow, geologist of Montreal, spent a few days at Bancroft recently making arrangements as a party of French and German geologists who are to arrive there in July to make a study of the mineral deposits in that section.

The steamer Aletha will make her first trip of the season to this city on Tuesday next when she will bring an excursion from Napanee.

30 YEARS AGO

JUNE 22, 1903.

If the Court of Revision keeps on it will make the assessment look like the time-honored thirty cents.

There was a fair turnout of the Fifteenth Regiment last night. The men were marched to the hospital lot and drilled by the commanding officer, Col. Hallwell. Many spectators were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Robb left today to spend some days at Barnstop.

Mr. Fred Stock of Hamilton is in the city visiting relatives.

Mr. John McIntosh is in Brantford attending the Grand Camp of the Sons of Scotland.

Miss Minaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Minaker formerly of this city, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Lazier.

Miss Dora McGuire, nurse, of Buffalo, N.Y., formerly of Belleville is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. John McGuire, Moira St.

40 YEARS AGO

JUNE 22, 1893.

A small blaze broke out in E. Fitzgerald's harness shop last night, but it was extinguished before much damage was done.

Mr. Walter T. Lingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lingham, Dundas Street, is home on a visit. He is accountant for the South Park Foundry and Machine Company, St. Paul Minn. Mr. Lingham is a graduate of the Ontario Business College.

Sheriff Hope, L. A. Appleby, Thos. Wills and Geo. E. Henderson, Q.C., met today and drafted the Grand and Petit Jurors for the fall assizes and December sessions.

Mr. J. Hanley, Jr., grocer of this city, is in Sarnia on business.

Some persons who were fishing from a jam of logs at the lower bridge last night narrowly escaped a ducking by the breaking of the jam.

If this hot weather continues the "rare" days of June will be tolerably well done.

Mr. R. H. Shanks of Winnipeg, Grand Secretary of the I.O.O.F. for Manitoba, was in the city today renewing acquaintances.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 22, 1883.

The Atalanta and Norah had it lively brush on the bay yesterday. The latter made a remarkably good showing and got the best of her rival.

The steam yacht built by Cuthbert is to be called Roamond. She will probably be launched next week.

There is considerable work to be done on the Islanthe if she is to be ready for the first of July.

The yacht Dauntless made her first trip this season yesterday afternoon.

A new lacrosse club has been organized here and has adopted the name "Silver Stars."

One of the advertising cars of the Barnum show arrived here last night. It is provided with a steam calliope.

On and after June 25th the steamer Quinte will leave Belleville for Deseronto and Picton at 2 p.m.

FORMER EDITOR DIES

Toronto, June 22 (CP)—Clarke G. Ashworth, vice-president of Campbell-Ewald Limited of Toronto died today in hospital. Graduate of the University of Toronto, he was editor of "Varsity" during his student years and later had wide newspaper experience both in Canada and in London. He was for a time special war correspondent in Morocco during the Raffian campaign.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

Saturday, June 24th
TO TORONTO
$2.30
Return
From BELLEVILLE

Equally low fares from intermediate points

Going June 24
Returning June 26

For further information consult nearest agent, or
J. W. Davison
Bridge St. E.
Phone 828

CANADIAN PACIFIC

j16, 20, 22

Inexpensively Cruel Says Man Seeking Divorce

Oakland, Calif. June 22—(AP)—Chester M. Biggs' wife, Mrs. Helen Constance Biggs, was inexpensively cruel, he complained in a divorce suit.

Biggs, a railroad freight agent, charged:

Mrs. Biggs refused to wear silks or satin.

In order to avoid nagging, he was forced to pretend clothes he purchased for her cost him $15 to $20 less than their actual price.

He urged her to open as many charge accounts she could and she refused.

ROBBERS NOW WORKING ALL TOURIST CAMPS

One Man Had Trousers And Sum of Money Taken

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 22—(CP)—When Dr. C. A. Sparrow awoke in a tourist camp cabin where he had spent the night on his visit here he found that the door had been jacked open and that his trousers were gone. A shirt, belt, and $18 in the pockets of his clothes were also among the missing. Police are searching for the stolen clothing.

STROUD'S
Week-End Specials

Silver Tea Service $7.95
Made by Rogers. 6 cup Teapot, Cream and Sugar. New design.

ELECTRIC IRON - $1.59
Made by the Brock Snyder Co. Heavily nickle plated. Guaranteed one year.

Pint Vacuum Bottles 39c
"Hy-Grade" keeps liquids hot or cold.

Two Burner Electric Plate. 2.95
18 inches long
Single Burner Electric Plate. 1.35
9 inches square

McClary's Wash Tub 98c
Heaviest tub made. Regular price 1.25.

GROCERY SPECIALS

Cerio, bottle 22c
Rubber Rings, doz. 5c
Crowns Quart Sealers delivered per doz. 1.19
NEW Rolled Oats 22c
2½ lbs. Cream 22c
Shredded Wheat ..2 pkgs. 23c
Canadian Milk, 3 tins 10c
Crother's Soda.
Biscuits ..... 2 lbs. 25c
Rolled Oats ..... 7 lbs. 25c
Chocolate Puffs, lb. 15c

Electric Toaster - $1.98
Genuine Turnover style, made by Brock Snyder Co.

Aluminum
Preserving Kettle $1.59
Complete with cover. Made by the Wearever Co. 13 qt. capacity.

BE CAREFUL OF POISON IVY

Considerable About City And in Immediate District

It has been the custom of this paper for some time to yearly repeat the warning concerning poison ivy, there is still considerable of it in the city, while on the outskirts it is abound in many roadside spots, and bushes forming field boundaries.

Many a holiday has been made wretched by contact with poison ivy, and to persons who cannot identify this noxious plant there is little comfort in the caution to keep away from it, or from people, clothing, tools or anything that has been touched by it.

Description

The leaves of the poison ivy are arranged in threes after the manner of those of the strawberry, but unlike the strawberry leaves they are smooth and firm, sometimes leathery, with the edges dented here and there, or, in other words, sparingly coarse-toothed. In these respects they are somewhat like the leaves of the Virginia creeper, which are, however, borne in fives. Early in the summer, inconspicuous clusters of small white flowers arise from the axils of the leaves, and are followed, on some plants, by round whitish fruits about the size of a pea. The fruits are dried at first, but later become firm and dry, in which condition they may be seen as late as the following winter.

Generally, the plant is of low bushy growth, but sometimes it is found trailing in the leaf mould. Occasionally it climbs fences, and at other times it reaches a considerable height on trees. On farmland it is confined to fence borders and places not reached by tillage.

Treatment

The treatment most widely recommended at the present time is to daub the affected parts with a 3 per cent. solution of potassium permanganate, or paint with iodine tincture. Once the blisters have appeared, all rubbing should be avoided and care should be taken to prevent infection by painting iodine around the edges of the sores, and by using ointments made in a 2 per cent. solution of aluminum acetate, alcoholic solution of sugar of lead (60 to 70 per cent. rubbing alcohol), or any other cooling substance (baking soda, boric acid solution.) In persistent cases the treatment may be varied by the use of ointments (zinc, etc.) These latter may be removed again by sponging with hot soapy water. Dry baking powder or boracic acid must not be put on oozing sores because they cause the sores to be sealed over with a hard crust, thus aggravating conditions, while frequent exposure to air brings temporary relief. Contrary to widespread opinion, recurrence of poisoning symptoms does not take place from year to year without fresh exposure to ivy.

RACING MOTORIST DIES FROM BLOOD POISONING

London, June 22 (AP)—Despite a desperate battle by doctors, Captain Sir Henry Birkin, a famous racing motorist, died in a London nursing home today from the effects of blood poisoning.

Sir Henry had been critically ill for three weeks, and three blood transfusions were tried.

He had been one of Great Britain's leading drivers since 1927. He was 36 years old.

Sir Henry Birkin was born July 16th, 1896, and was created a baronet in 1905. He served in the war from 1914 to 1918.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK - - By R. J. Scott

Copyright, 1933, by Central Press Association, Inc.

CROFTON NOTES OF NEIGHBORHOOD HAPPENINGS

Crofton— Miss Beatrice Baker spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox.

Mrs. S. B. Munro motored to Oshawa with relatives and spent the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke were in Picton on Thursday.

Mrs. Simon Caughey, Miss Lillian Gordon and Earle spent Sunday with Mrs. Delbert Snider.

Mrs. Harold Baker visited Mrs. Morley Williams at Bloomfield on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Covert were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Covert of Demorestville.

Mr. Leon Caughey accompanied Mr. Wesley Milligan to Philadelphia and visited Mr. Milligan's sister.

Miss Nora Fairman and mother, Mrs. E. Fairman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Munroe. Mrs. Fairman remained for a few days.

Mrs. Graydon Calnan accompanied her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Smythe home to Fort Hope and Mr. Calnan joined her on Friday and they will go on and visit his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calnan at Oshawa.

OPEN VERDICT RETURNED

Calgary, June 22—(CP)—An open verdict was returned by the coroner's inquest here investigating the death early June 13 of Inspector Joseph Carruthers, shot while investigating a robbery. The verdict declared Carruthers was fatally wounded by a bullet from a gun in the hands of a person unknown.

COUNTY NEWS

Monday, Wednesday, Friday

REPORT WORK OF CONFERENCE

Rawdon—The men are busy grading gravel and putting in their statute labour. This is better than paying it in the taxes as the grading is put on the road where most needed.

Mrs. Leonard Sharp spent Monday, June 12th, with her sister, Mrs. Frank Johnson in Frankford.

Y.P.S. was opened by the president with "Work for the Night is Coming" and prayer after minutes and business. Mrs. Cyrus Summers gave a splendid devotional talk on "Will the night always win" and she admonished all to stand up for the right as patiently and persistently as Jesus did and then all sang "God Send us Men."

The convener of Christian Citizenship, Mr. Clifford Boyhood took charge and thanked all who had helped his program to be a success. He opened with "Onward Christian Soldiers" and Mrs. James Sharp offered prayer. Mr. Burton Sharp read the 23rd. Psalm. Miss Francis McKeown rendered a pleasing piano solo. "Trip to Niagara."

The pastor outlined the topic and using as his subject, "Mis-strokes" said he said the bulk of this world's work is done by those who sometimes miss their strokes.

A duet, "How Wonderful that He Should Die for Me" was nicely given by Messrs David Bell and Bob Hedigr with Miss E. Thrasher as accompanist. Miss Elsea Mac-Mullen read a leaflet "Too Much Machinery," telling why there were thirty million unemployed today. After singing "I Need Thee" the meeting closed and "A Motor Scene" proved amusing. There were 46 in attendance. Miss Frances McKeown will be in charge next week when the Y.P.S. will officially close for the season.

Mr. Carl Hay of Cordova, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Donnan, West Huntingdon.

Several strawberry vendors have been calling at the homes and some housewives have purchased their berries.

Mr. R. B. Duffin of Stirling, has presented all the churches on the Rawdon circuit with a supply of fans which, no doubt, will prove very acceptable during the warm weather.

On Sunday afternoon Miss Mildred Sharp rendered a pleasing solo, "He Hideth My Soul." Mr. Geo. Weaver gave a splendid report of the recent conference held at Bowmanville and gave a vivid picture of the highlights of that meeting where wonderful addresses were given by talented speakers. Rev. Mr. Jobin also gave a brief resume of the week spent in his boyhood town and said the conference discussions centred around "The Oxford Group" and "Over emphasis on the deepening of our spiritual life" and he pictured to his hearers the action given on Sunday when five young men were accepted into the ministry.

Mr. A. W. Speirs and his niece, Miss Ann Speirs of New Westminster, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. Spring of Morganston, and Miss L. Cooper, travels of Deerford, spent Thursday, June 15th, with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery.

Mrs. Blake Sharpe is spending a few days this week with Mrs. E. Sharp at Wellman's and attended the W. I. Convention.

Mr. Henry Hagerman of Edmonton, Alberta, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cochrane.

Miss Josephine Brenton of Saskatoon, Sask., spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hubble. Miss Brenton's parents formerly lived at Mount Pleasant on the A. Dunkley farm. At the tea hour on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Hubble entertained in her honor Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey and Mrs. Gilbert Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery of Mount "Pleasant, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Montgomery of Frankford spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Hiram Johnson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson, Stockdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hay, Ruby and Clive of Belleville, are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. John Hay.

Miss Josephine Wills is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. George Stone at Salem.

Wellman's W.I. held their June meeting at the home of Miss Emma Rahmby with the president, Mrs. C. Dunham in the chair. Mrs. Carl Clancy gave a paper on "Canadian Industries," and Mrs. Lindsay Pollock gave a reading. The hostess served candy.

Carmel Y.P.S. closed for the summer months last week with a special programme and Mr. A. E. Dobbie-editor of the Stirling News Argus was the guest speaker. At the close the Ladies' Aid served a dainty lunch.

Rawdon Council had a busy meeting when Court of Revision was held and several appeals dealt with. Those who had their assessment lowered where David Heath, Ernest Maybee, Angus Farrell, Wilfred Sine, John McMullen and E. C. Tufts. A large number of accounts were ordered paid and plans made to fix culverts, etc.

Mrs. (Rev.) Bunt was presented with a lovely linen table cloth prior to her removal from the Springbrook charge by the members of the Ladies' Aid.

Miss Edith Hagerman spent a day recently in Campbellford.

Mrs. Lorne Brooks entertained her mother, Mrs. Jarvis for a few days last week.

Mr. George Snarr was called on the petit jury last week.

Mrs. Harry Heath is convalescing with her sister, Mrs. Will Patterson and her daughter, Miss E. Heath, Reg. N. in the Trenton district.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thompson and other friends spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runnalls.

A new son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Galloway on June 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. James Warren spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson.

Several large trucks conveyed the crusher used by the Bentley Construction Company to Fergus on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellison of Fort Stewart are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Nix.

Mr. Milton Green, of Trenton, spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sharpe.

DECORATION DAY HELD AT ALBURY

ALBURY—Mr. and Mrs. Percy White and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborn Adams called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Weese, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Weese and Bobby spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bonter.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snider visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allison, Friday evening.

Mr. M. Chute, London stayed at Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peck's Friday night.

The Decoration day was held at the cemetery on Wednesday. A smaller crowd attended than usual. The Institute Tower was made during the afternoon consisting of all red geraniums with a green and white border.

The ball game Monday night at Redneersville between Carrying Place and Redneersville ended, with a score of 13 to 8 in favor of the home team.

Climbers who ascended Mt. McKinley last year found the thermometer left 18 years before by the first party to ascend the peak, and noted that the indicator had reached its lowest possible mark, 96 degrees below zero.

Monkeys are kept in Siamese banks to bite coins to test their genuineness.

I. D. A. COMES TO BELLEVILLE

75% of Belleville's Drug Stores Joined the

INDEPENDENT DRUGGISTS ALLIANCE

Co-operating with some 200 other Ontario Druggists, the local stores listed below are organized to pass on the benefits of a tremendous buying power to people of this district.

You will continue to receive personal service from your fellow taxpayers but will now pay no higher prices than obtain in the largest cities.

LOCATE THE I.D.A. EMBLEM. PATRONIZE YOUR INDEPENDENT DRUGGIST.

The Personal Service Community Store.

Drug Values for Thurs. Fri. Sat. June 22-23-24

BAYERS ASPIRIN 22c 39c 98c

Bisurated Magnesia 69c

BILE BEANS for Biliousness 50c

BRITISH CONSOLS Cigarettes 10c 25c

B'WELL TONIC $1.25

CRESS CORN SALVE 50c

Colgates TOOTH PASTE 21c

Dichloricide 1 lb. 59c

All Prices Include

SUNBURN RELIEVERS

Grays Balm 39c 69c
Mecca Ointment 17c 33c
Frostilla Lotion 21c
Velvetta Balm 25c

I.D.A. Milk of Magnesia 16 ounces
50c size cut to 35c

$1.00

MUS-KEE-KEE
The Genuine Herb Medicine

ENGLISH HEALTH SALTS lb. 39c

SUNSET SOAP DYE 15c 2 for 25c

Wampoles GRAPE SALTS 50c $1

Mother's Friend $1.00

NUJOL 59c 89c

ODO-RO-NO 35c 59c

Drink O'Keefes DRY GINGER ALE

Wrigleys Chewing Gum Keeps you Fresh

Wampoles Magnolax 50c $1

The Excise Tax

Thompsons Shaving Cream The Smooth Rich Lather 50c size cut to 38c

MODESS Demonstration box of 13 towels 25c 2 for 49c

PETITES Sanitary Towels 19c 2 for 35c

MINERAL OIL Russian ½ gallon bottle $1.35

BRUSHLESS SHAVING CREAM

Moisten the face with water and apply cream then shave

50c size cut to 29c

50c size cut to 38c

COCOANUT OIL SHAMPOO for beautiful hair Contains 32 Double Shampoos 8 oz. bottle 60c size cut to 32c

50c size cut to 37c

PURE DRUGS

25c Boracic Acid Powder 19c
25c Aromatic Cascara 19c
25c Castor Oil 19c
25c Epsom Salts 19c
25c Pure Glycerin 19c
25c Compound Licorice Pdr. 19c
25c Essence Peppermint 19c
25c Soda Bicarbonate 19c

Hospital Cotton 1 lb. 29c

Vacuum Bottles 39c

STATIONERY
Note Pad 60 sheets 10c
Letter Pad 40 sheets 15c
Envelopes Package of 25 7c

Pepsodent TOOTH PASTE 36c

KLEENOR TOOTH PASTE 21c

Expert Developing and Printing

GILLETTE Blue Blades 50c $1.00 Green Package 35c 69c

N'AMEL TOOTH PASTE
CLEANSES & POLISHES WITHOUT SCRATCHING
8oz size cut to 32c

ENOS FRUIT SALT Large 79c

IPANA TOOTH PASTE 36c

PLANTS Magnesia TABLETS 25c

Forhans TOOTH PASTE 43c

J-D-A member

85c JAD SALTS 65c

SNAP CLEANER 15c 2 for 29c

Listerine TOOTH PASTE 25c

Listerine 4 oz. 25c 7 oz. 49c 14 oz. 98c

BELLEVILLE I. D. A. STORES

GEEN'S PHONE 131
DOYLE'S PHONE 326
DOLAN'S PHONE 138

Lattimer's PHONE 67
OSTROM'S PHONE 105
Schryver's PHONE 49

BUGS—BUGS—BUGS

Yes, all kinds of Bugs and plenty of them and plenty of ways to get rid of them too—The BEST way is the TWO-IN-ONE WAY.

Two-In-One Bug Killer

Called TWO-IN-ONE Because ——

1st—It positively Kills Bugs. (Reg.)
2nd—It positively Prevents Blight. ((No. 647)

Does both jobs at once at no extra cost. Buy the famous TWO-IN-ONE Bug Killer at

McKENZIE AND CO. FLOUR AND FEED STORE
36 McAnnany St., Market Square Phone 744

HALL'S HARDWARE STORE
282 Front St. Phone 178

It's Both QUANTITY and QUALITY That Count

Big SAVINGS on WEEK-END SPECIALS

A&P ESTABLISHED 1859 "WHERE ECONOMY RULES"

All A & P Stores close Wednesdays at 1 p.m. during summer months.

FRESH GRASS PASTEURIZED CREAMERY BUTTER
Silver-Brook lb. 21c Sunny-Field lb. 22c

From Ontario's Finest Dairy Lands
CHEESE
Mild New lb. 14c Tangy Old lb. 19c

CHOICE MEATS
GENUINE SOFT-MEATED SPRING LAMB

LEGS lb. 25c
LOINS lb. 23c
FRONTS ROLLED IF DESIRED lb. 17c

FRESH, BONELESS AND ROLLED—READY FOR THE OVEN
PORK With Dressing
Shoulders lb. 12c

FINEST PEANUT-FED—BACK
BACON lb. 18c
By the Piece lb. 20c
Sliced

A & P QUALITY BEEF
ROASTS
Prime Rib lb. 17c
Shoulder or Chuck lb. 9c

FRESH RESTIGOUCHE
SALMON BY THE PIECE lb. 23c
Steak lb. 25c

FRESH BOILED
LOBSTER Each 14c

SOWEGA
Watermelons

Purchase your week-end supply of these famous value-features from Your Grocer, at your nearest A & P Store. Prices will be right.

Make this your headquarters for "Daily Eat" Meat and Scratch Feeds, also Oyster Shell. All prices are right.

COFFEE SPECIALS
Eight o'Clock 31c
COFFEE—MILD AND MELLOW
RED CIRCLE lb. 25c
COFFEE—RICH AND FULL-BODIED
BOKAR lb. 37c
COFFEE—VIGOROUS AND WINEY
Packed Fresh in the Bean. The Grind to Suit Your Taste.

Make A & P your headquarters for the nationally advertised brand of coffees if, you prefer them.

CHASE & SANBORN
½-lb. Tin 23c 1-lb. Tin 41c

OUR OWN PERFECT STRIKE
SALMON
FANCY SOCKEYE No. 1 Tin
No. ½ Tin—15c 28c
BROWN LABEL—BLACK
SALADA TEA
¼-LB. PKG. 1-LB. PKG.
23c 45c

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

Mr. Ormonde Butler is in Toronto attending Criminal Court today.

Miss Catherine McLeod of Kenora, who has finished her year at the College of Education, Toronto, spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Davidson of Massanga before returning to her home in Kenora.

Mr. Robert Hill, of Deseronto, who has been a patient at the Belleville General Hospital for the past three weeks has returned home.

The sudden downpour of rain yesterday made impossible the holding of the Garden Tea planned by the Children of Mary of St. Michael's Church. Everything was in readiness for the event, the lawn at the Rectory having been beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and baskets of daisies. Garden roses were used on the tea table and sunshine table and just as the first visitors were arriving, the terrific rain brought the affair to a sudden close. Drawing was made for the lucky ticket on the dresserware set, Mrs. C. Nephan of 36 Morris Street, east, being the winner.

Mrs. Charles Champaign, Trent Road, has returned home after visiting her brother, Mr. Harry Poyner, and family at Dryden.

Mrs. W. Lidster, Corbyville, who has her tonsils removed at the Belleville General hospital yesterday, left for her home today.

Mr. J. F. Bean, Sr., who is seriously ill was removed to the Private de Paul Hospital at Brockville.

Weddings

BRICKMAN—HOLMES

The marriage was solemnized at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon of Noella Irene, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes and Mr. Roy Brickman, of Redmondville, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brickman, Rev. E. R. Jeffery, B.A., of Trenton, the officiating clergyman.

The drawing room where the ceremony took place was beautifully decorated for the occasion, while streamers of white fed from the corners of the room to an arch of lovely white garden flowers and ferns in the bay window. As the bride, charming in bridal white entered the room on the arm of her father, wedding music was played by Miss Ruth Blanchette, B.A. The bride's gown was of lace and net over taffeta with a taffeta sash and her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Butterfly Roses, and Maiden-hair fern.

The only attendants were two small flower girls, nieces of the bride. They were Audrey Holmes and Lenora Holmes of Windsor, and were dainty pictures in pale blue organdy frocks with blue hair bows. They preceded the bride scattering rose petals. During the ceremony Miss Magdalene Lloyd sang "I Love You Truly."

After the ceremony a reception and buffet luncheon was served at which one hundred were present. Mrs. Holmes, mother of the bride, was attired in lake blue georgette, while Mrs. Brickman, the groom's mother, wore a pale blue gown.

The bride and groom left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls. The bride travelling in a pretty ensemble of ashes of rose crepe with embroidery of white organdy, white hat and accessories. They will reside in Redmerville.

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleaning. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Send soiled and stained summer finery here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
123 Front St. Phone 723
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

HERE'S A BEAUTY RECIPE

MISS FAYE WALKER

When you're considering beautiful co-eds don't overlook Miss Faye Walker of Salt Lake City, chosen the prettiest girl at the Utah State Agricultural college at Logan. Miss Walker has just completed her freshman year at the institution.

The Beauty Box

You can walk when you're dying but loll luxuriously in a taxi. You can manage to peg along on a cash of beaus when your taste buds are yearning for sweetbreads and mushrooms. But you cannot drop out of the million parade of beauty seekers. That's flat.

If time had any respect for the human race, any decent feelings at all, it would be a bit kinder to faces and figures. All right so it isn't. Time is nothing more than the tick-tocking of the clock; it's no help to trick yourself like that. Let beauty morals weaken and the jig's up. No woman can afford to go to seed. Not alone because of appearance, but because of what neglect does to her soul. It sours it. She feels scrubby, gets snarky.

If she doesn't march ahead, she slips back. There's no such thing as standing still. It's a woman expert when she meets an old friend to hear her say O.P. say "Land's sake, Caroline, you don't look a day older"; she's got to work to earn the whoop-la joy that comes along with that greeting.

There are a lot of things she'll have to do, but they're all in the day's activities, and while she's doing them she will probably forget about the bills that will walk in on her the first of the month. There is a spiritual easement even in butttering one's face with cold cream.

The daily bath, with vigorous friction of brush and heavy towel, is not only a beauty rite, it's a mental stimulant. You're ready to tackle the job. The brisk walk; that too does things, makes blood course through veins, whatever contributes toward a feeling of freshness, vitality, ambition, energy is a beautifying agent. There's no charm in languishing in the pet shop's shopping on her toes, whose eyes send forth shafts of starlight whose skin is fresh, who is thoroughly alive that walks off with the beauty banners. Anticipation shrills ho.

If you feel that everything is utterly hopeless, run to the baby's bank and buy yourself a new hat. You can almost do it with pennies and nickels these days. Nothing like becoming helmet to make one realize that there's life in the old gal yet.

There's been a lot of mourning and lamenting these last four years. False Face has been knocking us around. Fortuno has been wearing mourning bands. A lot of constructive work must be done to blot out the worry lines, making the flapping pretty.

Clean finger nails, beautifully polished, a nice fresh laid complexion, the sassy coiffure—my! my! what won't they do to make the world look grand and elegant again!

Whatever you do, woman, don't let yourself down.

Nobody is going to urge you along the beauty way; that's your look-out. Nobody is going to drag you to the beauty works, get you un-seated, perfume your earlobes, or mail two chins into one. The campaign and the war against birthdays must go on and you are the little amazon who must do the fighting.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Advice to the Lovelorn

Dear Miss Fairfax:

What kind of girls are most popular with boys? Do they like gay chatterboxes, or the more serious types?

There are two sisters who live in our neighborhood, and they seem so restless. They go from place to place, but I never see them with any boys. As for me, I belong to the serious type and talk about books, plays and literature. I hate being pelted. I think it is cheap.

But I don't seem to make any more headway than the two restless who live near me, and who are forever on the go. What do you think?

Mary.

You have probably noticed, my dear Mary, that fishermen use different bait for different kinds of fish. The same rule holds with boy friends. Some men like serious girls, and some like chatterboxes. Select your bait accordingly.

All things considered, it is a better bet to talk on lighter subjects than books, drama and literature, unless the man you are talking to happens to be especially interested in these things. It might create the impression that you're a highbrow and men are supposed to be afraid of that sisterhood. Baseball and movies are safer topics with the average. And while you're right to wait for the right one, be careful not to create the impression of being prudish.

She Is Willing to Keep on with the Job

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I have known a young man for three years and he has called on me with him. He lives in a distant town and suddenly has ceased writing to me. The last time he came to visit me he seemed as devoted as ever, and planned the coming to see me again soon. I have heard from a reliable source that because he has to take care of his old mother and father, he feels he won't give me the things to which I'm accustomed. I have a good position and would be willing to keep on working.

I would like to do something to win him back. I know there isn't any other girl. Could you please give me some advice on how to win him again? I don't want to just shrug myself at his feet.

B. C.

It's always a pleasure to hear from a girl who is practical and wants to help along the man she loves. You wouldn't be throwing yourself at the man's feet if you wrote him a nice letter, and said that you had missed seeing him, and were still looking forward to the promised visit. When he comes you might tell him your ideas of girls keeping on with their work after marriage. I'm sure any plans which include helping his parents will have your generous cooperation.

Wonders Why She Isn't Popular

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I seem to be fairly popular among the people with whom I come in contact, although I am not a pretty girl. I am a very plain-looking girl, of the fair type. Boys are glad to do favors for me, but they don't seem to go any further with their interest. I am a good dancer but when I go to dances I get fewer dances than the girls who cannot dance as well as I.

Some time ago I met a young man who is several years older than I. For quite a while he used to come to see me, then all of a sudden he stopped. I am now several times and still meet him occasionally, but says that he is going with any girl and has not been doing anything in the way of entertainment since the last time we were out together, and that he would come over to see me soon.

This is not the first instance I have had of such an experience. Do you have any idea why I have such luck? Why is it that girls who are much plainer than I, girls who can't hold intelligent conversation with anyone, seem to have all the men they want?

Dolly.

You tell me you're plain, but there are no plain girls today unless they're too indifferent to make themselves attractive. Is your hair becomingly arranged? If in doubt ask someone who will tell you the truth. And, most essential of all, do you dress becomingly? Do the colors and styles you select bring out your good points? It's not necessary to dress expensively, but choose things that are becoming.

You talk about girls not being able to hold an intelligent conversation. Perhaps that's the trouble. Few men care for intelligent conversations. They like to be amused and flattered. Try a new tack with them, and see how that works. And good luck!

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Make Your Skin Lovely

New, wonderful MELLO-GLO face powder reproduces the tempting bloom of youth. Spreads smoothly, stays on longer, hides tiny lines and wrinkles, prevents large pores. Makes shiny noses, no drawn or "pasty" look. Women trust MELLO-GLO because new French process makes it the surest face powder known. Delightfully fragrant. Try MELLO-GLO today. 50c and $1.00.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS HOLD DEGREES JUNE 25

Frontenac Council, Kingston, Will be Host to Hundreds of This District

Final arrangements for the exemplification or degrees in the Knights of Columbus were dealt with at a meeting of Kingston Frontenac Council of the order, this week. The degrees are to be exemplified on Sunday, June 25. The Second Degree is to be held at 2.30 p.m. Daylight Saving Time, by a team from Brockville, under the direction of District Deputy D. F. Leeder and staff, and the major degree will be exemplified at 7.30 p.m. by Toronto Council under the direction of P. A. Costello. Belleville will be well represented with a large class of candidates, while Kingston, Brockville, Smith's Falls, Cornwall, Trenton, Peterboro, Cobourg and other municipalities will also send a number. This class is expected to be the largest one to receive degrees in years, in this section.

Millions of bees invaded a shed on the quay at Fremantle, Australia, where thirty six cases of honey one of which was leaking were stored. The fire brigade had to reset the invaders with poison gas.

TEMPTING RECIPES

POTATO SALAD

Chill before Serving!

Mix cold boiled sliced potatoes with mayonnaise dressing made with Keen's Mustard, to which a little spice has been added. Arrange lettuce leaves on platter, forming into peaves sized individual nests, placing in each a thick slice of tomato. Add portion of potato salad to each nest, garnishing with sprigs of hard-boiled eggs. Chill before serving.

The dressing for this salad is very important. Be sure to use Keen's Mustard in preparing it. Keen's will make it really digestible and flavourful—table treat you'll be proud to serve.

KEEN'S
D.S.F. Mustard
AIDS DIGESTION

Fashion Flashes

It isn't easy to do something different with a wrap of black velvet and white fox but there is much originality in a lovely wrap of the velvet, cut to the form and flaring at the knee where it is edged with bands of white fox, the fur being used also to edge the short sleeves.

Out of the past appear many fashions merely brought up to date. A new frock is a tunic model of black and white plaid taffeta with big puffed sleeves. There is a high puff collar and big bow of black velvet and small bows of velvet buttons trim the front of the frock. The tunic is long with a pleated flounce beneath.

Something new is a gauntlet bracelet in silver which extends half way to the elbow fastening under the arm with a ribbon tie to match the frock worn with it worn.

Slight stuff is a smart, full-length fitted coat of pink linen worn with a matching hat and a cravat and handkerchief of black satin printed with p.

Simply human but simple is a flowing negligee of white chiffon over a white form-fitting taffeta foundation. It is laced up the front with narrow blue satin ribbons that end in a big bow at the waist.

A useful trend is a frock that can be worn constantly through the season. Such a model is an evening frock of black and white printed satin, the small black floral pattern being widely spaced. The line is princess with the fullness at the back merging into a short train. The decolletage is out-lined with silver cloth and black organza ruffles.

Miriam Hopkins in "The Story of Temple Drake" now at the Belle Theatre

SPECIAL
White Hats
TURBAN AND BRIMS
$1.95
Woodley's
273 FRONT ST. PHONE 421

SENSATIONAL CLEARANCE SALE

Hundreds of Dresses at Give-away Prices

98c - $1.95 - $2.95 - $4.95

SUMMER DRESSES with all the chic of Paris—look cool and make you feel cool—We feel like cheering at being able to quote such ridiculously low prices —all lovely patterns in good materials and latest styles — look at them and love them—for quick sale priced away below par.

NEVER SUCH LOW PRICES BEFORE NEVER AGAIN

MILLINERY
SMART WHITE HATS
All Shapes and Styles
98c - 1.95
To Clear
ARTISTIC LADIES' WEAR
301 FRONT STREET BELLEVILLE

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Sharp Advance of Foreign Exchanges Against Dollar Did Not Raise Flutter — Walker's Common Hit New High of 20⅝—Trade Drags on Mine Board, Gold Stocks Hold Ground With Base Metals Showing Irregularity.

WALL STREET FINANCIAL

New York, June 22—(AP)—Another sharp advantage of foreign exchanges against the United States dollar received a rather cool reception in financial markets today as trading stocks and staples, for the most part, idled cautiously in an extremely narrow range.

Displaying a contrary disposition, speculative enthusiasts, who have previously whirled prices upward as dollar rates declined, watched the dollar slump without displaying more than a flutter of the customary inflation emotions. With the British pound up around $4.34, its highest since the gold standard was suspended, there was some fairly spirited advances in stocks in the first hour. The terror died quickly, however, and prices turned irregular. Trading volume dwindled until at times the ticker tape barely moved. Wheat, corn and cotton drifted indifferently.

Canadian bonds displayed a firmer trend, the dominion issue narrowly. The Dominion Government 1-in 5 of maturity 2-3 to 1-2 a point, Canadian Pacific shares were a trifle better at one time, but Montreal, Penn-pipe and Dome mines eased. International Nickel was unchanged. The Canadian dollar reached another new high for the year, expanding 15-16 of a cent to 90 7-8 cents.

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, June 22 (AP) — After several futile attempts to move higher today, the stock market quietly settled back into a narrow trading range which was maintained into the last hour. Dullness was the feature although improvement was shown by scattered issues including Southern Pacific which ran up five points. Bethlehem Steel and Dome Mines were also firm spots. American Tel. Deposit and North American were slightly easier. Transfers approximated 3,500,000 shares.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co., today:

Wheat—July 56; Oct. 59 3-4; Dec. 61.

Oats—July 35; Oct. 37 3-8; Dec. 39 1-2.

Barley—July 38 3-8; Oct. 40 3-8; Dec. 41 1-4.

Winnipeg, June 22.—(CP)—10:30 a.m. Prices—Wheat July 1-4 lower at 67 1-8; October 1-4; lower at 69 3-8; December 1-4 lower at 70 1-4.

Oats, July 3-8 lower at 29 1-8; October 1-4 higher at 32 3-8; December 1-4 higher at 33 5-8.

Flax— July 1 1-8 lower at 133 5-8; October 1-4 higher at 135 1-2.

Rye—July 1-2 higher at 84 1-2.

100% BELLEVILLE

THE IDEAL Stores

Thrifty housekeepers find the most for their dollars at this store.

PANSHINE, 3 for ..... .25 tell she ..... .59
GLOCOAT, no polishing, bot ..... .29
CALAX, 2 for 3
wash cloth free ..... .05
PURE LARD ..... lb. pkts. .09
SARDINES, "Millionaire" ..... 2 for .25

Try Ideal Coffee Iced

IDEAL COFFEE makes splendid Iced Coffee. And it is ground specially for each order, giving better flavor and strength. It is very economical because it makes more cups to the pound and it only costs, per lb. 33c

PAROWAX, lb. ..... .12
CERTO ..... .29

RUBBER RINGS, extra thick ..... 4 doz. .25

ZINC RINGS, extra, doz. ..... .24
LIME RICKEY, pints ..... .10
CARNATION MILK ..... .10
GINGER BEER, pints ..... .10
Bottles Extra — Bottles Extra

TRY THE IDEAL YOU WILL LIKE IT
220 FRONT ST.

Wallace Ford, Reis Ingrad, Sally Blane in "Night of Terror" coming to Capitol Theatre, Saturday.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, June 22—(CP)—The Toronto Stock Exchange staged a churning market today and the close was weak, stocks slumping sharply in the last few minutes following a sell-off in New York.

Trading throughout the day was the heaviest seen in the Walker issues and in the oils. Walker's Common climbed more than a point but slipped a little from the top to close at 21, and the preferred finished at 16, up 1-4.

Interlisted shares were firm but the strength most of the day but the late sell-off chalked up recession of 1-4 for C.P.R., 1-2 for Steel of Canada and 3-4 for Brazilian while International Nickel dropped 13 cents to $18.25 and Hollinger, which eased 3 to 127 1-2.

In the old McDal held a gain but the others weakened near the close. Peter Hollinger was 5-8, Imperial 1-8 and British American 1-4.

TORONTO MINES

TORONTO, June 22.—(CP)—The senior division of trading closed out their lethargy in the last 45 minutes of today's Standard Exchange Market and moved strongly upward, led by Dome which climbed to $3.50, but it fell back as quickly back to $4.34.

Base Metal and Silver shares also pushed ahead in the late trading on moderate volume.

The whole gold list perked up but all the gain was not held. McIntyre had a gain of 34. Teck Hughes and Wright Hargreaves 10 to 15 cents each and Pamour and Lake Shore recovered the morning losses.

The Base Metal leaders moved up sedown. Nickel dropping back 13 cents to $18.25, Falconbridge closed lower and Hudson Bay, Falconbridge, Base Metals Corporation and Penn Cobalt all closed.

Edorado returned to comparative quietness with the price falling around $3.65, off 5 for the day.

Produce Market

TORONTO, June 22.—(CP)—The following quotations on produce delivered at Toronto were supplied by the United Farmers Cooperative Co., today: eggs extra, 16c; eggs graded, 13c; eggs second dozen (cracked) 10c.

Churning Cream No. 1 lb (f.o.b.) 18c; Churning Cream No. 2 lb. (ort truck) 15c; Churning Cream No. 3 lb. 10c; butter No. 1 solids 19 1-2c; butter No. 2 solids 18c.

Beans, dealer's prices in carlots, f.o.b. at point of shipment $1.00.

Livestock

Toronto, June 22 (CP) Early trading on the Toronto Livestock Market was very slow this morning with not enough sales to go by 11 a.m. to establish. There were 150 cattle left over from yesterday, most of which were common stock, ers and plain butchers.

Receipts were: Cattle 30, calves 10, hogs 140, sheep and lambs 370.

Killing cattle sold steady with yesterday. Prices offered Stocker cattle were still unsold.

Calves were steady and good ones brought $4.00 to $5.50 per cwt.

Hogs were steady, with salesmen asking Wednesday's price of $5.35 to $5.40 F.O.B. for bacons, with packers bidding $5.25.

The lambs market was firm at $9.00 per cwt. for good ones and $5.00 to $5.50 for culls. Good light sheep sold from $2.00 to $2.50 per cwt.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, F. H. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES
Ashley, 84½	08
Amulet, 88	35
Barry Hollinger, bid 11.
Base Metals, 2.27.
Bagamac, bid 05.
Central Patricia, bid 26.
Dome, 35.50.
Eldorado, 3.65.
Falconbridge, 4.00.
Granada, 7.
Hollinger, 9.00.
Hudson's Bay, 9.35.
Howey, 21.
Kirkland Lake, 42.
Lake Shore, 14.00.
Macassa, 71.
McIntyre, 72.75.
Mining Corporation, bid 2.15.
McLeod River, 03¾.
Pamour, 1.24.
Norands, 31, 95.
International Nickel, bid 18.75.
R. C. Pioneer, bid 14.50.
Pend. Oreille, 1.31.
Sherritt, bid 1.16.
Sicoe, 1.54.
Stadacona, 94.
Sudbury Basin, 1.65.
Sylvanite, 1.37.
Teck Hughes, 6.40.
Vipond, bid 35.
Ventures, 1.40.
Wright Hargreaves, 6.00.
Aja, bid 1.12.
Big Missouri, 27.
Brakeme, 7.35.
Brownlee, 04½.
Can. Kirk., 09.
Castle Trethe, 54.
Coast Copper, bid 8.50.
Coniaurum, bid 55.
Dom. Explor., bid 07.
Fed. Kirk., bid 07½.
Goldale, bid 14.
Kirk. Townsite, bid 39.
Makeiti, 6.
Mons Mines, bid 1.14.
Manitoba Basin, 03.
Moffat Hall, 03.
McVittie, bid 04½.
McWatts, 46.
Premier, 1.30.
Reno, 2.35.
St. Anthony, bid 40.
St. Antonio, 1.10.
Sand Hill, 43½.
Waite Ackerman, bid 1.30.
TORONTO
B. A. Oil, 13½.
Imperial, 13.
McColl Frontenac, 12½.
International Petr., bid 18.
Superiest, bid 18½.
Distillers Seagrams, bid 8¾.
Walker's, 20⅝.
Walker's Pref., bid 15¾.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 5¼.
Canada Bud., 8.
Can. Breweries, 11.
Bell Telephone, 101¼.
C. P. R., 18¼.
Canada Cement, 6¼.
Canada Malt., bid 26½.
Cockshutt, 6¾.
Dominion Stores, bid 20½.
Ford "A", bid 12¾.
Jewellers, 129½.
Loblaw "A", 19¾.
Massey Harris, 6.
Shawinigan, 17¾.
Brazilian, 4¾.
NEW YORK
American Can, 89½.
Auburn, 59¾.
Am. For. Power, 16½.
Anaconda, 17¾.
N. Y. Central, 37¾.
Case, 84½.
Drug, 54½.
Gen. Auto Lite, 21¾.
Cons. Gas, 58.
General Motors, 27½.
Inter. Telephone, 16½.
Standard Oil of N. J., 38½.
Curtiss, 3½.
North American, 31¾.
Nat. Dairy Prod., 21½.
Montgomery Ward, 23¾.
Radio, 9¾.
Standard Brands, 19¾.
Stewart Warner, 7½.
American Tel. and Tr., 124½.
United Aircraft, 30¾.
Vanadium, 23½.
Westinghouse, 44.
U. S. Steel, 54¼.

EXCHANGE RATES

Exchange rates at 2 p.m. today were: Pound Sterling in Montreal 4.66 1-2; N. Y. Dollar in Montreal 1.03 1-16; Pound Sterling in New York 4.34 1-4; Canadian dollar in New York .90 1-2 3-4.

C. N. SULMAN LOSES DIAMOND FROM RING

Believed to Have Fallen Out of Ring in the Accident

Peterborough, Ont., June 22—(CP)—A diamond valued at $1,500 owned by C. Sulman, Toronto, was lost in a motor accident on the Port Hope highway, Sulman was one of a party of four coming from Belleville to a lawn bowling tournament here, when a rear tire blew out and the car was ditched. The four men were thrown out and the wreck Sulman lost the stone from his ring.

Try This for Seven Days For Eczema

Thousands of people who suffer from itching skin, Eczema, and unsightly eruptions, are glad to know that Moones Emerald Oil, the clean, powerful, penetrating antiseptic oil, will banish their trouble in seven days or less.

For years this has been using ointments and salves and finding little helped, in fact the itching, soreness, and pain they often choked the sufferer and did the blood no poisonous matter to escape.

Moones's Emerald Oil overcomes this and goes for the oil penetrates down through the pores and leaves no place for the germs and poisonous secretions. It is highly concentrated and only a few drops are required at an application. You can get it at any Rexall Store and Dolan The Druggist or any progressive druggist. If it doesn't end your trouble in seven days money back.

MIRIAM HOPKINS AS "TEMPLE DRAKE" IN UNUSUAL FILM PLAY

Miriam Hopkins brings to the screen her fifth great successive characterization in the outstanding performance of her career as the complex heroine of "The Story of Temple Drake," at the Capitol Sunday and Friday, matinee and evening, featuring Stuart Erwin, Jack Oakie, William Collier, Jr., Irving Pichel and Sir Guy Standing. Adapted by Oliver H. P. Garrett, Universal novel by William Faulkner, and directed by Stephen Roberts who was responsible, you will remember, for the emotionally successful "The Night of June 13th."

Temple Drake, as a character, offers limitless opportunities for the emotional actress, and Miss Hopkins has taken advantage of every opportunity to give an understanding, sympathetic performance. She extended exquisite interpretations in such outstanding pictures as "Trouble in Paradise," "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," "Twenty-Four Hours" and "Smiling Lieutenant," her work in "The Story of Temple Drake" far more deft, far more compelling, bringing the show world to the realization that she is among the few actresses of outstanding performers.

Gifts Tonight

More treasure will be uncovered as the Bells ring out ten fortunate patrons will take home with them ten valuable and useful gifts. Every adult patron has an equal chance and there is still time and opportunity to win one of the prizes as the coupons will be distributed up to 9 p.m. tonight when the presentation will take place. Last week the gifts have been displayed in the front window have been the centre of interest, particularly the beautiful walnut cedar chest which is the grand prize tonight.

FIRST NIGHT D IN FILMLAND

"Peg O' My Heart," with Marion Davies in the role of the Irish colleen, girl who fell heir to a fortune, thrilled a capacity audience at the Capitol Theatre on Wednesday evening. The drama of this name which two decades ago was the talk of the greatest of stage successes because of the winsomeness of the character of the heroine and the natural and wholesome life of the Irish people as shown against a background of wealth, comes again to life in the film with Marion Davies, one of the most famous of screen stars assuming the role.

Theatre Party

Some 200 of Christ Church ladies formed a theatre party at the Capitol Theatre yesterday to see "Peg O' My Heart," and enjoyed the attraction.

The ladies thoroughly enjoyed Miss Marion Davies in her re-incarnation of the famous role originally portrayed on the stage by Laurette Taylor.

This winsome story of a motherless Irish colleen and her efforts to be acclimated to genial surroundings pleased the ladies of Christ Church immensely, and a most enjoyable two hours were spent in the cool of the Capitol.

IN MEMORIAM

MASTERS—In loving memory of our dear son William A. Masters, who fell asleep June 18th, 1932.

I hope he was watching
That the hill was hard to climb
So he closed his weary eyelids
And whispered peace be thine
Away in the beautiful hills of God
By the valley of rest so fair
Some time some day we know not where
We will meet our loved one there.
Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Masters, Samuel at Picton and Earl at home. 122-1t.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mr. C. Ashley and Mr. and Mrs. J. Cracknell, deeply appreciate the many expressions of sympathy received in their recent sad hours of bereavement of wife and daughter, and sincerely thank their friends for kindness and the many beautiful floral tributes and also for loan of cars. 122-1t

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

Owing to a number of citizens using water on lawns on a certain day, it is necessary for an Inspector out to check this practice. The Waterworks is not used for any purpose are from 7.00 to 9.00 in the morning and 6.00 to 9.00 in the evening. Any person found violating these rules will have water turned off and only turned on again after the fine has been paid to the Collector.

This does not apply to consumers on meter.

By Order,
WATERWORKS DEPARTMENT.
121-6t.

The Bay of Quinte Agricultural Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
Head Office
Picton-Ontario
The Farmers' Friend
Insurance At Cost.
See our Agent Wednesdays Court House at the CRYSTAL HOTEL, SATURDAYS from 2 to 4 p.m.
CLAYTON W. BURR
Bloomfield, Ontario

Lakeshore Lodge at SANDBANKS
Picton, Ont.
"NATURE'S OWN VACTION LAND"
Will be open for guests from June 15th to Sept. 15th.
Accommodation in Hotel or Cottages.
Dancing for public every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday and 6th. Music by Lakeshore Arcadians.
Write for booklet to McDONALD and STANTON
121 6 15 22 29

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

(Change of Time Effective April 20th 1933.)

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No 118 12.40 A.M.
Daily except Sunday Express.
North Station No 18 12.25 A.M.
Mail and Express. Daily, except Monday.
North Station No 20 2.00 A.M.
Pool Main Daily.
South Station No 26 11.30 A.M.
Pool To Canada Daily.
North Station No. 448 6.50 P.M.
Pool Main Daily.
North Station No. 14 11.50 A.M.
The International Limited, Daily
North Station No. 8 8.38 P.M.
The Inter-City Limited, Pool Train, Daily.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No. 19 2.55 A.M.
Daily except Monday.
North Station No. 17 4.10 A.M.
Daily except Sunday.
South Station No 37 1.38 P.M.
Pool Train Daily.
North Station No. 5 2.20 P.M.
The Mail & Express Daily.
North Station No 9 6.00 P.M.
Pool, Except Sunday.
North Station No. 15 7.25 P.M.
The International Limited, Pool Train, Daily.

BELLEVILLE & PETERBORO

North Station No 11 6.00 A.M.
Daily Passenger Daily except Sunday
BELLEVILLE & PICTON
North Station No 252 8.00 A.M.
Local Passenger Mixt. Wed. Fri.
Leaves Picton for Belleville 12.30 P.M. same days.
BELLEVILLE & MADOC
North Station No 255 8.00 A.M.
Local Passenger Tues., Thurs., & Sat. Leaves Madoc for Belleville 12.00 noon same days.

FOR SALE

For sale, 113 Chatham Street, near Pine Street, attractive brick house, three bed rooms, bath room, separate toilet, living room, dining room, kitchen, garage. Everything in first class condition. Large verandahs, beautiful grounds. Inspection by appointment.

For sale, 71 Alexander Street, fine frame residence, 3 bed rooms, living room, dining room, kitchen, bath, furnace, fine garden. Very reasonable price.

Belleville Locators
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
Phone 39 House Phone 487

BIRTHS

LAWRENCE—In Belleville on June 18th, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Lawrence, 18 West Moira Street, a daughter, (Barbara Ellen). 122-1t.

DEATHS

LESLIE—In Thurlow Township on Wednesday June 21st, 1933, Thomas Alexander Leslie, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Leslie, in his 18th year.

The funeral will take place from his parents' residence, 4th Concession of Thurlow, on Friday, June 23rd, 1933, at 12.30 p.m. to Bethany United Church for service at 1 o'clock. Interment Glenwood Cemetery. 122-1t

CAVANAGH — In Belleville, on Thursday, June 22nd, 1933, Margaret Ellen Cavanagh, relict of James Cavanagh, in her 78th year.

The funeral will take place from her late residence, 62 Cannifton Road, on Saturday, June 24th, 1933 at 2.30 a.m. to St. Michael's Church for Mass at 9 o'clock. Interment St. James Cemetery. 122-1t

THOMPSON FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 64 or 487 Belleville
Nights and Sundays 1313

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
218-212 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
Phone 276
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 714-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Manager
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Tickell
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Lower Corner of Victoria Ave. and Church St.

MONUMENTS
A. C. Campbell
Monumental Sculptor
17 Bridge West, Belleville

FOR SALE

POLISHED OAK DINING SUITE. Good condition. 40 East Moira St. Phone 229. 122-3t.

DOUBLE WHITE IRON BED springs and mattress. In good condition. Phone 720J. 122-1t.

PROPERTY FOR SALE

14 ACRES IN VILLAGE OF STIRling, all in a square block, within 20 acres, with Henry Street passing through the centre. There are two barns and barn on each side, and four acres, with house and small barn, and a good garden on west side, including one-quarter acre of raspberries. Good well and door of house and watermain passes house. All land is still under cultivation except the fields, with close wire, 8 acres are seeded with alfalfa and timothy—second year and a bumper crop. Five minutes walk to Front Street and ten minutes walk from Public and High Schools and Churches, all kinds of machinery for sale from corn scuffler to grain binder; also 1931 Chev Coach; Bell piano, without a scratch; 1 cow, 1 horse; set of harness and all kinds of garden tools. Property may be purchased in part. For particulars and terms apply to German Sine, Stirling. 122 22 2t.

NEW TRAILERS APPLY 23 Johnston Street. 122-3t.

BOAT AND TRAILER. APPLY 261 Sidney St. 122-3t.

50 TO 60 ACRES OF STANDING hay. Phone 1451J. 121-2t.

DODGE TRUCK WOULD MAKE good truck, or will exchange for seven passenger Sedan. E. Ensign, Ivanhoe. 120-3t

1929 REO 5 FLYING CLOUD coupe. A1 condition. Must be sold to close estate. F. Huffman, Frankford. 120-3t.

SILENT GLOW DOUBLE OIL Burner outfit, slightly used for range. Operates perfectly. Privately owned. Real bargain. Apply Box "G" Ontario Intelligencer. 120-3t.

CONNOR ELECTRIC WASHING Machine. Used short time. Would consider trade on used car. Phone 236. 120-3t.

SOLID BRICK HOUSE, 8 MURney St. Modern conveniences. Garden. Garage. Wired for electric stove. Would rent on reasonable terms. Tenant. Apply on premises. 117-tf.

WANTED

GROCERY STORE, WELL LOCated in Belleville. Write Box "C" giving all particulars. 122-1t

AT ONCE—GARAGE FOR EIGHTeen man. See Mr. Walsh, room 10 Queen's Hotel. 122-1t.

WOMAN WANTS TO LOOK AFter babies, any age, in own home. 2 per week. Write Box "E" Ontario Intelligencer. 122-2t.

$700 SECOND MORTGAGE ON city property. East Hill. Write Box "P" Ontario Intelligencer. 121-2t.

TO-LET

3 ROOM FURNISHED, HEATED apartment. Also bed sitting room. 17 Victoria Ave. 122-1t.

LARGE AIRY, FURNISHED BEDroom. Very Central. All conveniences. Suitable for one or two men. Phone 743J. 122-3t.

1 TO 3 HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, also large front bed sitting room. Ground floor, $2 per week. 39 Pinnacle. 122-1t

SIX ROOM DWELLING, ALL conveniences. Garage. Garage, West Bridge Street. Possession at once. Rent reasonable. Percy Ashley. 121-3t.

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, LARGE front bedroom, ground floor, fire roomed house modernize rent. 13 North Front Street. 121-3t.

FURNISHED BED ROOM OPPOsite bethlehem Northport and Telegraph Light with refrigerator and hot water. Use of bathing. $12 per week. Apply W. R. Barber, R. R. 3, Belleville. 121-6t.

SIX ROOM HOUSE ON WEST Bridge St. All modern improvements. Apply 14 Isabel St. 119-tf.

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences. 108 Dundas St. or call 908J.

MODERN APARTMENT, STEAM heated, electric refrigerator and stove, hardwood floors. Apply to Ontario Intelligencer. 111-tf

4 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT for rent. Immediate possession. Apply Geo Deline, Front St., Phone 1179. 82-tf.

3 ROOM APARTMENT, HEATED or otherwise. Electric stove, electric refrigerator, hardwood floor. Garage. Apply G. H. Thompson, 104 Coleman Ave. Phone 889J. 225-tf.

2 LOWER APARTMENTS (Conveniences. Garden. Garage. Newly decorated. Apply 172 W. Main. 222-6w.

FOR EXCHANGE

SIX ROOM BRICK HOUSE, ALL conveniences. Corner North Trenton. Will exchange for house or property in or near Belleville. Phone 1293R1. 121-2t.

BELLEVILLE BOWLERS INJURED IN CRASH

Blowout of Tire Ditches Car—Only Slight Injuries

Robert Dewar and Charles Thomas of Belleville were rushed to Nicholls Hospital shortly after two o'clock Wednesday afternoon when a tire in which they were riding left the road and turned over three times in the ditch on Highway 28.

With two companions, C. A. Peck and Charles N. Sulman, also of Belleville, Dewar and Spencer were coming to Peterborough for the regional bowling tournament of the Peterborough and District Club. The accident occurred south of Fraserville, and is thought to have resulted from a blowout of the left rear tire. The hospital surgeons their injuries as slight. Provincial Traffic Officer A. E. Horwich investigated.

CARRY ONE WAY NOT OTHER

High Point, N.C., June 22 (CP)—Fire broke out in a drug store. R. D. Denny, a customer, seized the heavy cash register and carried it to safety. When the flames were extinguished, however, strain on the register, Denny found it impossible to carry the register back into the store.

Classified Ad. Rates PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 25c; Marriages And Engagement Notices, 1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, and Memorial Notices, 50c; Cards of thanks, $1.00; Notice over charge, 50c per count line. Lodge and meeting announcements, minimum charge 50c.

CLASSIFIED — (Per Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1½ per word per insertion, first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions 1c per word. Minimum charge 25c.

COMING EVENTS—Per per insertion 1½ words or less. Minimum charge 25c per week.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—Yearly Contract $6.00 per line. Non-contract 10c per line for consecutive insertions.

AUCTION SALES—Per line, including 10 count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for 75c. Consecutive insertions, 20 per week.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone orders accepted when it is convenient. PHONE 99.

Advertisements will be charged for at the first insertion if they are not be responsible for more than one insertion of any advertisement unless it is in writing.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, EAVESTROUGHING
General Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1078
21-1m.

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLicitor, Notary Public, etc. 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. mt-tf.

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Solicitors for Royal Bank. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott, Office: 219 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers. Office 28 Bridge Street East. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on first mortgage. W. B. Ponton, K.C., R. D. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Offices 28 Bridge Street E. R. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

R. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, PH.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiochart reveals all disorders of the nervous stage. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Office hours 9 to 12 and 2 to 5. Office 52 Bridge Street E. Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

MEDICAL

H. R. and Vera B. Pilcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Palmer-Lancaster Service
421½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S. DR. S. CHARLES ADAMS, M.D.C.M. Westinghouse X-Ray Equipment at Office.
Office Hours:
8 to 10 a.m. 1 to 3 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle Street, Belleville
Phone 771 06-6m.

OSTEOPATH

DR. C. E. JOHNSTON, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Forin St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1728. F. H. Wills, Branch Manager. n5-1y.

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer. Complete Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE 648 - P.O. BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1364 127 Front St.

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
157 Front St.
Phone 1364 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 130

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance. Fire, Automobile Accident, Plate Glass
278 Front Street Phone 1134W

Fans Storm Ring at End of Bout Demanding Unmasking of Defeated Masked Marvel

Wrestling Card, Best Ever Staged in City by Queensbury Club

SURPRISE FALL

Grapplers Take Plenty of Punishment in All Three Bouts

A deep-dyed villain was unmasked at the local Arena last evening, before a scarting crowd out for blood, finishing a perfect night of entertainment for twelve hundred more howling fans at the all-star wrestling bouts staged by promoter Joe Corcoran.

But, it was only after three or four hundred or the more wild-eyed men, and women, too, had stormed the ringside at the termination of the bout between the Masked Marvel and the villainous champ, Ironjaw Szabo, that the former's manager consented to have the features of his defeated man exposed.

Some three score fans from the floor of the Arena at the Masked Marvel just a few minutes before when it was announced that he had failed to doff the black hood after being thrown for two falls. Then all the ringside crowd took up the job of mand alarting. Referee Carroll, manager, referee and others in the ring were showered impartially with it. Then it spilled from the platform at the side of the ring. Some one warned a clear, a path for the referee to take possession of the crowd. Sensing the danger, the manager of the Marvel rushed to the referee that he was willing to have his man unmasked. A spontaneous cheer rising, assisted in pealing off the black hood, and disclosed the scowl that was the first time the naked features of the Masked Marvel—Al Getswitch.

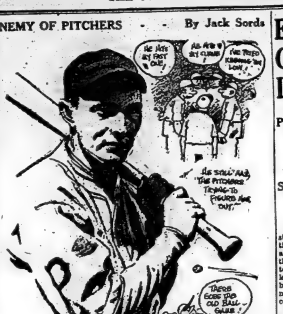
Fall in 15 Seconds

Matched in the final bout of the evening, the Masked Marvel came out in the first frame with a surprise and flashy assault against the Hungarian adonis, Sandor Szabo, to win the first fall in 15 seconds flat. Ignoring the preliminary handshaking at the start of the bout emblem the Marvel to grab the first with a back bodylam. In the second round of the bout, both men played for time. Seated in one corner of the ring was the Masked Marvel's manager, with a deck of cards. When a stragic move or hold was tried by the number two man on the Marvel by holding up one of the cards. As six of these were displayed at once it very pointed move on the part of the Marvel to delay matters a bit in the roughest manner. Szabo not to the outcome in this mode of wrestling, retaliated by laying on the Marvel's greggy to the ropes and bringing the fans to their feet in a frenzy of delight. Szabo won the second fall with a crotch hold after 14 minutes and 10 seconds. The remainder or the bout was featured by consistent slugging, so much so that it not observed by the majority of the fans was their neck muscles dished up red and raw. In an effort to please however, the wrestlers themselves in applying head and hammer locks and other punishing holds. The winner of the good work with the poker deck in the corner by the Masked Marvel's manager, only 19 minutes were needed by Szabo to take the second fall of the evening after knocking his opponent groggy with several hard slams. Szabo appeared to be the pink of condition, displayed a master knowledge of wrestling over the match and showed little inclination to make the bout a purely exhibition one. Both grapplers took and gave some heavy punishment. The Masked Marvel appeared out of condition and not in as good shape as on previous appearances here.

Referee McCoy in Draw

"Bibber" McCoy, in the semi-final bout of the evening showed few of the flying tackles for which he is credited during his bout with Stanley Pinto. Billed for a half hour limit, one fall bout, both men wrestled and struggled through the bout to a draw. Considerable enthusiasm when the going got rough was noted by both grapplers, who used all the well known ring tricks in their attempts to gain a fall. Pinto specializes in rough-house wrestling and was an even match for the Kamp "Bibber."

Mike Masurki just lasted 16 minutes with the up-and-coming Hans Schroeder on Tuesday, even if they "as did howl for the German's blood. In this fashion bout of the evening both men had ample opportunity to give and take plenty of rough work. Introduced by Maxvirki a number of flying tackles spelled Mike's defeat at the end of



ADDITIONAL SPORT, PAGE 14

THE BEACHES ARE CALLING

Come in and see the newest styles in Bathing Suits and Kimonos at the Bathing Suits.

CHAR. J. SYMONS
Phone 838 Phone 838

ENEMY OF PITCHERS By Jack Sords

Spying on Sports

BY

William Ritt

Central Press Canadian

EVERY DOG is supposed to have his day and this goes for ball teams too. Therefore, do not be too surprised if the Brooklyn Dodgers appear to be ready to enjoy their sojourn in the sun.

For a team that was slated to go places this season the Flatbush crew have been a long time in getting themselves. Their "day" is somewhat overdue.

However, Brooklyn fans are a forgiving lot and if the revamped Dodgers move into the first division, which they hope to do as soon as humanly possible, the date days of April and May will soon be forgotten.

x x x

THE ENTIRE Brooklyn club seems to have perked up since the deal with the New York Giants which brought Sam Leslie to battle the Dodgers first base assignments.

Leslie has won several games with his timely hitting. Brooklyn's improvement goes beyond that. The team has developed a peppy spirit. Everyone in the field the Dodgers are exhibiting a spirit highly pleasing to Manager Max Carey.

The outfielders have settled down and are playing and hitting in their best form so far this season. The passing of Babe Herman hasn't lessened the morale of his former fellow gardeners one whit, apparently.

MAX CAREY also finds a reason for rejoicing in the work of some of his pitchers. Van Mungo is not too good on pagser.

Ray Benge is the one consistent performer in the lot but Hollis Thurston and Van Mungo were greatly improved in appearances in their latest tests. If young Watson Beck and Watson Carroll are able to stage something of a comeback this season should go to a football hope.

Brooklyn will be satisfied with a first division berth. However, in a grand free-for-all such as has developed in the National race it is still too early to count the Dodgers out of it. Other clubs who they have been playing the most improved baseball of recent weeks.

sixteen minutes' fast action, when he was knocked groggy by the flying tackles of Chief Thunder and Alain.

During all the bouts Referee Tommy McClure of Toronto, handled affairs to perfection and Boxing Commissioner Ed Bowen were heard seldom and even the temperamental star artists themselves seemed willing to take his decisions. His coolness under fire was outstanding in the Marvel during the small riot at the ringside dig much to quieten the crowd.

Best Ever Staged

The bouts were staged under the promotorship of Joe Corcoran, and Corcoran's efforts were by far the best ever staged in Belleville and were thoroughly enjoyed. The preliminary bouts were by far the best bouts relating to a return match between Cameron and Bellville which drew a large crowd present. One regrettable feature was noticed however, that being the actions taken toward the Masked Marvel and his manager Spiller by the spectators after the bouts. Despite the actions of the participants in the bouts, after the bouts were in progress the fans were in no way justified in their boorish antics.

The results of the bouts were: Hans Schroeder (200) Berlin, Germany won from Mike Masurki, Manitoba College, (200) in 19 minutes.

"Bibber" McCoy (220) Holy Cross, drew with Stanley Pinto (213) of Chicago in 30 minutes.

Sandor Szabo, Hungary (208) won from Al Getswitch, the 220 pound Marvel (218). The Marvel winning the first fall and Szabo winning the second and third.

Referee—Tommy McClure, Toronto.

Timer—Bert Wells, Belleville.
Promoter—Joe Corcoran.

THE BIG SIX

By the Canadian Press

Four of the seven starters of the International League Big Six who were in action yesterday made gains in the batting averages as were registered by two Baltimore sluggers, but the Shiners dropped to fourth four hits in six tries, Solters boosted his mark to .333 on the 3-2 putting him 22 points behind the leading Bosox player who was Dick Clabaugh went into fourth place by collecting two hits in as many tries, gaining seven points for an average of .358.

The Six leaders:

	AB	R	H	P.C.
Boone, Toronto ...	47	68	18	383
Solters, Baltimore	183	43	69	.377
J. Thompson, Albany	182	22	51	.358
Clabaugh, Baltimore	173	39	67	.358
Arlett, Baltimore ...	222	39	79	.356
Manning, Buffalo ...	133	27	46	.346

LOCAL CLUB SCORES WIN

Defeat Trenton 31-23 in First Game in New League

The Belleville Golf Club's first B.N.P.T. League game at Belleville resulted in a win for the home club over Trenton, yesterday by a team score of 23 points to 13, and a 31 to 23 total score on the whole 18 players to participate. The heavy rain, which fell during the forenoon hours did not deter the players from the golf play to finish the match.

At the termination of the play a fine repast was set before the players, thanks to the ladies of the club. Speeches by President W. H. Reeves of the local club, Captain Hunter of the Trenton Club, Captain Newby of Belleville, President Emery of the Bay of Quinte Golf League and President Anderson of the Trenton Golf Club ended another splendid day in the annals of the local club.

The following are the individual scores:

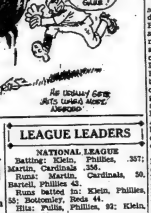
Belleville—H. Ridley 2 points; J. Legault 2; J. Marsh 2; C. Cunningings 1; R. Roberts 1; H. Newby 2; T. Holway 1; Calder 2; A. Cameron 1 1-2; W. H. Reeves 1-2; P. Doyle 2; R. Hemmer 2; W. Dafoe 1 1-2; H. Newby 1 1-2; C. Kinnear 1; J. Marshall 1; J. Rawlins 1; G. Ord 2; Total 31 points.

Trenton—R. Y. Wemyss 1; M. Anderson 1; T. H. Lusher 0; W. B. McLaren 2; R. A. Gow 2; H. Gow 1; Hunter 0; J. G. Squier 2; J. H. Tinney 0; H. Dafoe 1 1-2; W. Saylor 2 1-2; B. Holway 1; J. E. Renton 0; Dr. Reid 1 1-2; W. Dafoe 1 1-2; J. Dafoe 2; W. Leaber 2; W. Riddell 0; W. Nolan 3. Total 23 points.

HEN ADOPT INFLATION

Marchmont, N.Y., June 23 (CP)—Bertha, Rhode Island red hen, has adopting a new golf ball as her goal standard. H. Roderick Dillon, village tax collector and owner of Bertha found two eggs in her nest today in place of the usual one. Neither had a yolk.

Spanking Breeze Heeled Punts Making Races Well Contested



'After You' II' Loses Flag After Holding Same Since First Race

THREE UPSETS

"Volunteer" skippered by Harry Semmens defended his title and will finish line in the harbor late Wednesday afternoon, setting a record for sailing punts so far this season, with a time of one hour and 50 minutes. Jackie Calder sailing with the only other boat contending in "A" class, the "After You II", lagged a considerable distance behind. Racing in the second flag, the pennant held during the past two races by the "Volunteer" will be sailed handed over to Wednesday's winner. Cup points will be awarded to the 3rd position.

In "B" class Pinkie's "Mary Lou" was the only boat who was with a time of one hour and 21 minutes, "C" class winner was Mr. W. Peer per with time of one hour and 40 minutes, while "D" class winner was won by Ron Weaver sailing by Salter with time of one hour and 7 minutes.

Thirteen boats altogether were entered in the races which were the most successful yet held this season. Although the large class in particular only two contending boats the smaller classes saw a greater registration than ever. Fully three hundred people took the end of Victoria Park and the wharves and docks south of the city to see the boats battle it out. Starting from out the afternoon a stiff breeze blew, heeling the graceful craft far over, and threatening in many cases to capsize them. The weather reports were held by the racers, with close finishes being recorded at each turning buoy.

Three casualties were recorded during the afternoon. One of Murray's boat, caught in a gust of wind, heeled over at the end of the park, but no damage was caused. Smith's boat also upset in the inner harbor, but the crew managed to right the small boat and get it to shore. The "Comet" at the start of the race, owned by Chas. Hall, capsized early by a broken rudder.

With upwards of thirty boats of all sizes and power in the bay the course taken by the racers was well policed, and although capsizing of the punts seemed imminent at times the boats on the course were noted. During the afternoon Mr. Walter Pringle, clerk of the course aided by Mr. Percy Pitney, assistant clerk, guided the racers.

Official starter of the races was Mr. William Rogers well known yachtsman.

Ernie Holmes "Blew" Own Game Electing to Heave Ball Instead of Making Force Out Petes And Nats Tie Game Being Called on Account of Rain

7 RUN LEAD

Smith, Weir, Mills Heavy Strickers With Green in Fielding Role

Old man hard luck continued to stalk the trail of the Belleville National again on Wednesday when after being seven runs to the fore in the fourth innings they were forced to accept a 7-17 win the league leading Peterboro nines in an abbreviated C.O.B.L. game that was terminated in the eighth inning on account of rain.

With a barrage of hits that resounded to all corners of the baseball diamond the Nationals gave Ernie Holmes, their pitcher of the day, a seven run lead in the first two innings only to see it slowly dwindle away and later were forced to accept an even split with the Petes. Down three runs in the eighth the Petes stepped in and capitalized to the fullest measure on the misplays of the Nationals, knotted the tri-ball game when they scored three runs. After three runs should have been legitimately retired long before. All of the five errors committed by the Nationals were later converted into runs which eventually spelled the defeat of the locals.

Manager Mills elected Ernie Holmes, his side ace hurling ball pitcher, to heave the game from the Belleville standpoint. In the one play of omission that Holmes committed in the eighth during which he could have forced out the ex-Peterboro lad hurled good enough to win for a very senior ball game. Time after time Holmes fanned batsmen who were locked or looked rather bad but when the crucial moment came Holmes tossed to the ball and forgot the method of stepping on the plate for a force-out and should have stopped the Petes' final rally.

Scriver Blasted From Mound.

Again "Spook" Scriver, Kenny Mills's proteges from Hastings, tried his luck against the youthful Nationals and was again blasted from the mound in less than two innings by the local avalanmiths who scored seven runs on his deliveries. Frank Kitchen was rushed to fill the gap and the all the five-ball finger performer the duties of a relief pitcher when he let the locals down with a dull thud for the remainder of the game. Neither of them coming in for credit.

With their backs to the wall the Nationals started off in true all defeats of the past in the 1933 edition of the C.O.B.L. when they scored five runs in the first inning on Scarlett. Weir and Mills all took the right route to first on four ball passage. With the paths loaded to the limit, Roy Bonter, the local's fire-ball and after three were out the game was terminated amid a terrific electric storm.

PRINCE BEGS FORGIVENESS

Eyians-Les-Bains, France, June 22 (AP)—The former prince of the Asturias sent an emissary today to his father, former King Alfonso of Spain, begging forgiveness for his marriage yesterday to a Cuban girl, His Brice, meanwhile, was in his hotel during the first day of their honeymoon, with a slight fever the result of the excitement and fatigue of yesterday's ceremony at Lausanne, Switzerland.

Nearly Won

Belleville	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Scarlett, lf. -.-	3	1	0	1	0	0
Kerr, 2rd. -.-	4	0	0	2	1	2
Weir, ss. -.-	4	1	2	0	2	0
Mills, c. -.-	3	2	1	6	0	0
Smith, 1st. -.-	4	2	2	8	0	0
Ulrenk, rf. -.-	4	1	2	1	0	0
Green, ss. -.-	3	0	0	1	4	1
Holmes, p. -.-	4	0	0	0	1	1
Chambers, 2nd. -.-	4	0	1	0	4	0
	32	7	8	24	12	3

Peterboro	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Beavis, rf. -.-	5	2	1	3	0	0
Burton, lf. -.-	5	2	2	2	0	0
Hollingworth, 2nd. -.-	5	2	2	2	4	0
Foley, cf. -.-	5	0	1	0	0	0
Ash, 1st. -.-	4	1	1	9	0	0
Bath, 3rd. -.-	4	0	0	1	2	0
Batten, 3rd. -.-	5	0	2	1	3	0
Whately, c. -.-	4	0	1	7	1	0
Scriver, p. -.-	1	1	0	1	2	0
xKitchen, p. -.-	0	0	0	0	0	0
	40	7	12	24	12	0

xReplaced Scriver in 2nd.
Game called in 8th—rain.

Score by innings—
Peterboro.....	000 103 03—7
Belleville ...	700 004 00—7

Summary—Earned runs, Belleville 5, Peterboro 3. Two base hits, Ulrenk1, Chambers, Weir, Beavis. Three base hits, Smith, Mills. Home on balls, off Holmes 3; off Scriver 1; off Kitchen 1. Struck out, by Scriver 1; by Kitchen, 2. Left on bases, Belleville 4; Peterboro 11. Passed ball, Mills. Wild pitch, Ball. Belleville (2). Stolen bases, Beavis, Hollingworth, Foley. Sacrifice hits, game, 2 hours. Umpires, Hotrum, Peterboro, plate; Colling, Belleville, bases.

decided otherwise and the Petes scored their first run in the fourth following two wild throws following an error.

Three more runs were added in the sixth when three hits and an error did out. The eighth inning which incidentally was played in the worst wind-storm ever experienced in a local baseball game, saw some of the wildest baseball of the season. Kitchen singled, Beavis flew to centre, Burton was safe on Kerr's fumble, Kitchen pulling up at second. Hollingsworth cuffed a single, Beavis stopped to Holmes, ash strolled forcing in the sixth tally. Rose hit to Holmes who fielded the ball ten feet in front of the plate and instead of stepping on the home plate and flip the pitching duties of the day and although the buried good enough ball to win the average intermediate game. was afforded excellent support in the field, which eventually spelled defeat for the Belleville Second-seeded crew. Despite the loss the local Victorias are still enjoying the top rung of the local intermediate loop with three wins and but a single loss to their credit.

The Gibbardites opened the pastime with two runs in the initial frame on a walk, an error by Flagler and a hit by Smith. Peterboro came back against the short stop and another lusty hit by Beavis scored the pitcher counter in the third and counted two more in the fourth on three hits and the only straight error at short. The sixth run for the visitors was added in the fifth on two successive triples by Bentley and Andrews, the latter's blow sailing over the head of Lionel Baker after he had slapped the pellet to the centre field and later scored on an infield out.

Bentley, Andrews and Rinkley looked the best at bat for the winners, while the former hurled another of his characteristic games by sending back no less than nine local hitters to the bench via the strike out route. Pointer, incidentally was lings.

NAPANEE WINS FROM VICS 6-1

Local Intermediate Team Suffer First Loss in Loop Race

At the hands of the Napanee Gibbards the Belleville Victorias suffered their first defeat of the season in the Bay of Quinte League by the score of 6 to 1 in an abbreviated game played at Napanee on Wednesday afternoon. With the home team leading by the score of 6 to 1 in the game was suddenly terminated in the sixth innings by a violent downpour of rain.

To Tommy Pointer, ex-Belleville National hurler, goes the honor of the win, when the elongated left hander silenced the bats of the local hitters and let them down with five hits and one lone tally. Carl Casey, another ex-National hurler and team mate of Pointer, was the victim of Manager Fay Ketchum's decision to start the game with the hurled good enough ball to win the average intermediate game. was afforded excellent support in the field, which eventually spelled defeat for the Belleville Second-seeded crew. Despite the loss the local Victorias are still enjoying the top rung of the local intermediate loop with three wins and but a single loss to their credit.

The Gibbardites opened the pastime with two runs in the initial frame on a walk, an error by Flagler and a hit by Smith. Peterboro came back against the short stop and another lusty hit by Beavis scored the pitcher counter in the third and counted two more in the fourth on three hits and the only straight error at short. The sixth run for the visitors was added in the fifth on two successive triples by Bentley and Andrews, the latter's blow sailing over the head of Lionel Baker after he had slapped the pellet to the centre field and later scored on an infield out.

Bentley, Andrews and Rinkley looked the best at bat for the winners, while the former hurled another of his characteristic games by sending back no less than nine local hitters to the bench via the strike out route. Pointer, incidentally was lings.

NAPANEE

	ab.	r.	h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Card., ss.	3	0	0	0	1	0
Rinkley, 2b.	3	0	1	2	2	0
Gibbard, lf.	2	1	0	0	0	0
Bentley, cf.	3	1	1	2	0	0
Andrews, rf.	3	0	1	1	0	0
Lucas, 3b.	3	0	0	1	2	0
Cairns, c.	3	0	0	10	2	0
Wilson, 1b.	2	1	1	6	0	1
Pointer, p.	2	1	1	0	2	0
	27	6	7	18	8	2

FIRST LOSS

BELLEVILLE VICS

	ab.	r.	h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Haslett, rf. -.-	3	0	0	1	0	0
Ketchum, 2b. -.-	3	0	0	1	2	0
Green, c.f. -.-	3	0	0	0	0	0
Baker, 1b. -.-	3	0	0	7	0	0
Palmer, l.f. -.-	2	0	0	1	0	0
Flagler, ss. -.-	3	0	0	1	0	1
Smith, 3b. -.-	3	0	0	0	1	0
Scott, c. -.-	1	0	1	8	2	0
Casey, p. -.-	2	0	0	0	2	0
xMcGuire, t. -.-	1	0	1	1	0	0
xLaichford, c. -.-	1	0	0	0	0	0
xxWilkins, ss. -.-	1	0	0	0	0	0
xxxDeery, p. -.-	0	0	0	0	1	0
	22	1	3	18	8	4

xReplaced Scott in 8th.
xxReplaced Green in 8th.
xxxReplaced Flagler in 8th.
xxxReplaced Casey in 8th.

NAPANEE

	ab.	r.	h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Card., ss.	3	0	0	0	0	0
Rinkley, 2b.	3	0	0	2	1	0
Gibbard, lf.	2	1	0	0	0	0
Bentley, cf.	3	1	1	2	0	0
Andrews, rf.	3	0	1	1	0	0
Lucas, 3b.	3	0	0	1	2	0
Cairns, c.	3	0	0	10	2	0
Wilson, 1b.	2	1	1	6	0	1
Pointer, p.	2	1	1	0	2	0
	27	6	7	18	8	2

English Summer WASH TIES

The Smartest Looking Things in Men's Neckwear We've Seen In a Long, Long Time.

Possessing Great Tying Qualities and Coming In Every Pattern and Shade Imaginable

— 50c —

QUICK AND ROBERTSON

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

Have You Seen Our Smart Range of

KLINGTITE BATHING SUITS

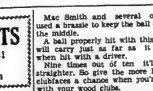
Come In and See the New

Klingtite ZIPPER SUIT

Season's Latest

2.95 3.95

Monarch All Wool Speed Cut Suits in Men's and Boys'



85c to 1.95

Shaw's Men's Wear

The Store of Fashion

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES!

By Alex J. Morrison

EASIER TO HIT BALL STRAIGHT WITH LOFTED CLUB — WHEN LOFTED OFF WITH YOUR WOOD CLUBS DRIVE WITH BRASSIE OR SPOON-.

Easier to hit ball straight with lofted club.

ALEX MORRISON says:

The North Shore course where the sectional event was played penalized the players severely for going off the fairway on their drives.

With many of the younger players it's quite the thing to hit a low flying and long rolling ball.

This type of shot seldom stays on the fairway when it does there is less of a loss the fairway and when it runs into of a stroke as well as distance.

Mac Smith and several others used a brassie to keep the ball down in the middle.

A ball properly hit with this club will carry just as far as it will when hit with a driver.

Now there's not ten in'll be straighter. So give the more lofted clubfaces a chance when you're off with your wood clubs.

Next: Don't Judge Shot Too Soon.

BRITISH AMATEUR WINNERS

1930—Mulrfield—Cyril Tolley.
1931—Hoylake—W. I. Hunter.
1932—Prestwick—E. W. Holderness.
1923—Sandwich—Roger Wethered.
1924—St. Andrews—E. W. Holderness.
1925—Westward Ho!—R. Harris.
1926—Muirfield—Jesse Sweetser.
1927—Hoylake—Dr. W. Tweddell.
1928—Prestwick—T. H. Perkins.
1929—Sandwich—Cyril Tolley.
1930—St. Andrews—Bobby Jones
1931—Westward Ho!—Eric Smith
1932—Muirfield—John de Forest
1933—Hoylake—

Jesse Sweetser was first American-born to win championship which started in 1885.

Mr. A. H. Panton, the new Secretary of the West Australian Parliament refuses to use the regulation wig. He says he is too proud of the shape of his head to bury it in horsehair.

COUNTY NEWS

COMMUNITY NEWS FROM VICTORIA

Victoria, June 21—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brickman and Roy called Sunday forenoon on Mr. Lettie Allison and spent the noon hour with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Weese.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Earl Fox in the loss of a dear young mother.

Mrs. Kenneth Green and little son spent a few days at Mr. John Green's, Stirling.

Mrs. Ray Fox spent a couple of days at the home of Mr. George McCurdy, Mrs. Fox has friends' sympathy in the loss of her sister, Mrs. McCurdy, also sympathy is extended to the other relatives.

Mrs. Lorne Brickman and Audra, Mrs. B. Redner, Mrs. Mack Gilles, Mrs. W. S. Fox and Mrs. Delaney attended the W.M.S. meeting at Rhubrooks on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brickman spent the tea hour Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brickman.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Redner spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fennell, Bloomfield.

Mr. Melvin Pulver is improving his residence by painting which looks splendid.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Weese spent Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. L. Allison.

CELEBRATE 47TH ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

Rawdon—Mr. and Mrs. George Barr and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Mayhew spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Dracup, Belleville.

Miss Edna Thrasher has been chosen from this district to coach a class of girls in connection with "The Girls' Household Science Judging Competition" to be held in Belleville on July 15th. Miss Webb of Springbrook and Miss Hazen Madden of Frankford, have also chosen.

Miss Almira Babcock and Mr. C. Wicks of Consecon; Mrs. Edward Lietzan and son Donald and Mr. Arthur Barker spent Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharp.

Miss Francis McKeown entertained Miss Edna Thrasher on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Honeywell of Chatsworth, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson. It was the occasion of Mr. Honeywell's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey of Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, Church, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle McAdam, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Melville, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison attended the funeral of the late Mr. Brooks in Havelock one day recently.

Mrs. James Mills spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Emma Simmons.

Mrs. Manson McConnell is ill at her home with Mrs. Margaret Anderson of Stirling, in attendance. Friends hope she speedily recovers.

Miss Ethel Sprott spent the week end of June 10th with her cousin, Miss Lela Johnson of Stirling.

Miss Vera McAdam was a guest of her friend, Miss Betty Hewitt on Monday evening.

Mrs. George Belnhas and Mrs. Clarence Belnhas of Stirling; Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey of Belleville; Mrs. Mary Bell of Centreville, attended Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey one day last week.

Miss Gesie Johnson of Wellman's, was a week end guest of Miss Mildred Sharp.

Mrs. Campney of Havelock, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary on Friday, June 16th. The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jeffs, Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Williams and Mrs. Frank Potts. Friends with Mr. and Mrs. Williams many more happy years or life together.

Miss Myrtle McKeown spent a few days last week under the painted roof.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stone of Salem, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. White on Sunday.

Mrs. Neil White of Calgary, Alta., and Dr. Hall called on friends at Mount Pleasant last week. Mrs. White and her brother are spending a few weeks with their parents in Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharp spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marshall, Plainfield, and visited with day at her mother, Mrs. Alexander day at her mother, Mrs. Alexander Blakley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Holmes spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowerman, Consecon.

Mr. Melvin Pulver is improving his residence by painting which looks splendid.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Weese spent Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. L. Allison.

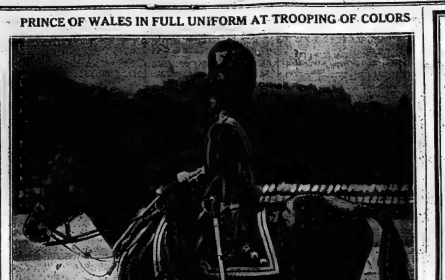
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowerman and Roy called Sunday forenoon on Mr. Lettie Allison and spent the noon hour with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Weese.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Earl Fox in the loss of a dear young mother.

Mrs. Kenneth Green and little son spent a few days at Mr. John Green's, Stirling.

Mrs. Ray Fox spent a couple of days at the home of Mr. George McCurdy, Mrs. Fox has friends' sympathy in the loss of her sister, Mrs. McCurdy, also sympathy is extended to the other relatives.

Mrs. Lorne Brickman and Audra, Mrs. B. Redner, Mrs. Mack Gilles, Mrs. W. S. Fox and Mrs. Delaney attended the W.M.S. meeting at Rhubrooks on Friday.



Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brickman spent the tea hour Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brickman.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Redner spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fennell, Bloomfield.

Mr. Melvin Pulver is improving his residence by painting which looks splendid.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Weese spent Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. L. Allison.

PRINCE OF WALES IN FULL UNIFORM AT TROOPING OF COLORS

An Interesting study of the Prince of Wales, in full uniform, as he attended the historic and colorful ceremony, performed before roy alty in London by the Horse Guards.

BRIDE HONORED BY SHOWERS

A social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen M. Rebbin on June 5 when a number of friends and neighbors gathered and presented their daughter, Julia a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower. The following address was read by Mrs. E. Hanna:

Dear Julia and Willis:

"What makes the home?
That place so fair,
Is it some picture costly rare,
Or work of some great weaver's art;
Brass, pottery, china—all a part?
Ah, no! 'tis love that to it brings
The joy that makes a home that sings.
The four walls held a sweet content
When after toil one's strength is spent.
Love forms the rock on which it stands.
This house of ours not made with hands."

We, your Salem and Bethany friends are indeed glad of this opportunity which has been afforded us by the fact that another home is about to be established, to offer you our congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life together.

Julia, this has been your home—your interests, associations and memories have always been with this neighborhood. We have only kind thoughts of your Sunday School and church relations. Especially in our W.M.S. at Salem you will be very greatly missed where as a member you have always shown a keen interest.

Willis, we congratulate you on your success of winning so winsome a bride and we pray that God's blessing will rest upon you both, and that from your home will radiate a beautiful and uplifting influence that will be felt not only in your immediate surroundings, but throughout the entire community. We trust that, secure in mutual love and confidence, with an absolute faith in God, you may be able to meet whatever life has for you, whether it be sunshine or sorrow.

We are glad that you are not going far away but that you will be able to visit us in our homes and at community activities where a warm welcome awaits you.

As a token of our esteem for you and as a remembrance from us on this occasion we ask you to accept these gifts. May they be treasured keepsakes of your wedding day and their beauty and usefulness find a place in your home to brighten home making.

"On fortune, oh happy day!
When a new household finds a place
Among the myriad homes of earth
Like a new star:
Where the light of love shines over all
Or love that says not mine and thine
But ours, for ours is thine and mine."

Signed on behalf of your many friends:

Mrs. George Sills.
Mrs. J. C. Poole.
Mrs. E. Hanna.
Mrs. P. Osland.
Anne G. Brown.
Bernice Hubbs.

The bride and groom expressed their thanks and a cordial invitation was given to all to visit them in their new home.

A short entertainment was given after which lunch was served by the ladies of the community.

Last Thursday evening was the scene of a pretty shower when the guests assembled to offer felicitations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brenton (nee Julia Rebbin) whose marriage took place at Shannonville Parsonage Wednesday, May 31st. After the guests had admired the gifts given to the bride and groom at a previous shower, the Rev. W. E. Merrick called the meeting to order. On behalf of the community he expressed pleasure in welcoming the bride to the community and church. Miss Doris Williams then read the following address:

Dear Willis and Julia:

Tonight we have come to your home to rejoice with you, on this the happiest occasion of your lives, when your fondest desires and dreams have been realized in the happy union of your lives together. It is our most earnest wish that your joy and happiness may grow richer with the years and in the passing of time as you walk the way of life together under the direction and protection of a gracious Providence may you have the joy of achieving your noblest ideals in Christian living and the satisfaction of reaching the goals of your ambitions in life.

To the bride we extend a most cordial welcome to our home community and church, and shall rejoice hereafter to claim you as one of our own in our common life. But words alone will not suffice to make perfect in your lives our deep interest in your welfare and happiness—so we ask you to accept these gifts as a tangible token of our esteem and best wishes for your happiness and success in your married career.

Signed on behalf of your many friends:

Doris Williams.
Margaret Smallborn.
Donald Brenton.
David White.

Mr. and Mrs. Brenton were then presented with a beautiful solid walnut chesterfield table and a readymade lunch. The bride and groom each responded in a most pleasing manner and welcomed their many friends to their new home.

Lunch was served by the ladies and a social hour concluded the happy evening.

UPPER CANADA BIBLE SOCIETY HAS MEETING

Queensboro—"The annual meeting of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held in St. Peter's Anglican Church, Friday evening, June 9th. W. Wadland of Oxford County, the representative of the society, who was introduced by Mr. Wadland stated that the society desires to keep the link of fellowship between the people and the work of the society intact, although little practical help may be given at the present time.

The following officers were elected: President, Mr. Fred Rollins; vice-president, Mrs. George Love; secretary-treasurer, Miss Annie Thompson.

Queensboro United Church was filled to capacity on Sunday morning when the members of L.O.L. No. 437, and of L.O.B.A. No. 465 belong in attending divine service. Several members from Madoc were present. A noted visitor among the members of L.O.L. No. 437 was Mrs. Hugh Barclay of Saskatchewan. The address was given by the Rev. J. F. Everson, pastor of the church. The members of L.O.L. No. 1133 attended divine service at Hazard's Corners on Sunday afternoon; besides the pastor's present from a distance were Mrs. Reid and her son, Rev. H. Reid of Dundas Street, Belleville; Mr. Brown of Rawdon, and Mr. Thomas Bumstead of Madoc.

Mrs. Hugh Barclay and her daughter, Miss Jean of Saskatchewan, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McMeechan.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Fitzpatrick of Foxboro, were the guests on Sunday of her mother, Mrs. Alexander Blakley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods have gone on a trip to visit friends in Manitoba.

Miss Mildred Broadworth has been engaged as teacher of the Bethel public school, west of Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McCoy were the guests on Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holmes spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Holmes.

Mr. Stephen Cox spent Friday on business in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Twiddy of Oswego, returned home on Monday after spending several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Reynolds of Foxboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William McMeechan.

Mrs. Esther Dyer, of Hillier, is the guest of relatives in this district.

Rev. J. F. and Mrs. Everson spent Monday in Belleville attending the funeral of the late Miss Ella Gardiner. Mr. Everson studied at the old Albert College in the days when Miss Gardiner was lady principal.

Mrs. Reed of Ivanhoe, is keeping house for Mrs. Robert Woods during her absence in the west.

A little son has come to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garies of Remington.

Mr. James McMeechan is visiting with friends in Sidney and at West Huntingdon.

Like a Shower

EXCEPT BETTER! Kellogg's Corn Flakes help you feel cooler all day through. These delicious flakes are so easy to digest they don't "heat you up."

For comfort that lasts, enjoy a bowl of Kellogg's instead of hot, heavy foods. Breakfast, lunch, the children's evening meal. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

Kellogg's for Koolness

Buy Quality

'SALADA' TEA

Mr. John McLaren has gone to Kingston to take charge of the section between Toronto and Montreal.

Mr. Sandford Peters will be on the Bonarlaw section until his return which will be several weeks hence.

OMINION Offer GLASSCO'S
PURE STRAWBERRY JAM
27 32 OZ. JAR
GLASSCO SCOTCH STYLE

Great big luscious strawberries, grown in the famous Niagara Fruit Belt, and picked in their flavor-full red-ripe maturity.

Preserved with only Pure Cane Sugar, with the added touch of Pectin to properly "SET" the finished product.

A delicious wholesome preserve going this week at this very special price.

These Special Values are effective June 19th to 24th, inclusive.

Good Quality
5 String
Brooms Each 21c

It's Piquant
Bottle
H.P. Sauce 23c

Clubhouse Stuffed
8-oz. Jar
OLIVES 19c

The Health Soap
Cakes
Lifebuoy 3 for 19c

DOMINO FITTED DATES 10-oz. pkg. 15c

FEATURING PROCTER & GAMBLE PRODUCTS

Gold Soap 10 Bars 32c

OXYDOL 2 Large pkgs. 35c

KIRK'S CASTILE SOAP 3 Cakes 25c

CHIPSO, large pkg. 21c

IVORY SOAP, Medium - 2 for 15c

CALAY SOAP 3 for 19c

Domino Wax BEANS, No. 2 Tin 2 for 25c
WHITE SWAN TISSUE 2 Rolls 25c
PRUNES, Med. Size 2 lbs. 23c
Wet Pack SHRIMPS, Tin 19c
New Pack 1/2's Tin LOBSTER 23c
Clark's Potted MEATS 3 Tins 25c
SHIRRIFF'S JELLY POWDERS Pkg. 5c
Appleford's Wax PAPER, 50-sheet Pkg. 10c
Nature's Best TOMATO JUICE No. 1 Tin 5c
Maxwell House BAKING POWDER 1-lb. Tin 34c
LOBSTER PASTE, Tin 9c

DOMINO BAKING POWDER 1 LB. TIN 17c

CHRISTIE'S Butter Wafers 2 Pkgs. 25c

HEINZ COOKED SPAGHETTI 2 Tins 23c

Victory Sweet Mixed PICKLES 42-oz. Jar 39c

QUALITY MEATS

Blade Roast lb. 11c
Rib Roast lb. 13c
Boneless Pot Roast lb. 9c
Rump Steak Roast lb. 15c
Rolled Veal Roast lb. 13c
Loin Pork Roast lb. 17c
Golden FISH SPECIAL SMOKED FILLETS lb. 10c

BEEF Bologna 2 for 25c
MAPLE LEAF Weiners lb. 16c
Macaroni & Cheese Loaf lb. 19c

DOMINION STORES
CANADA'S LARGEST RETAIL GROCERS

MEN'S CLUB VISIT ST. MARK'S AT BONARLAW

Bonarlaw—On Sunday evening last, a large number of the members of St. Pauls' Men's Club of Marmora, with their wives, attended St. Mark's Church, Bonarlaw. The Rector, Rev. Canon W. G. Swayne, was assisted service by Rev. A. B. Caldwell, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Marmora, and Mr. W. J. Coates, Diocesan Lay Reader, parish of Rawdon.

Canon Swayne welcomed the members of the club and their families to the service and taking as his text the stories of Dives, the rich man, and Lazarus, the beggar, he preached a very powerful sermon, pointing out that the sins of omission, as a rule, far outnumber the sins of commission and warning all against the terrible sin of selfishness.

He concluded by begging all to take advantage of the various opportunities for doing good, and made a strong appeal for co-operation in connection with the Restoration Fund Campaign.

During the offertory Mr. J. F. Baker sang a solo, "Crossing the Bar."

Mrs. Annie McGuire of Calgary; Miss Katherine Simmons of Secretarn Bridge, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Caverley of Toronto were visiting friends and relatives at Bonarlaw last week.

STATION L-O-Y-E

AT CRAIG CARROLL

He's so tickled about the show he's got a new idea of worse kind. Can you get away now?"

"I," Jack would be through in a moment, with the noon program. Then he was going down to the Grand Opera House to see if he could wish to talk for the scant half-hour he had to spare before his next time on the air.

"But Judy had learned things in her few days on the air. Learned that clients must not be told to "wait," that plans or engagements mean nothing at all when the client wants you. "Yes, Of course, Mr. Flavin. Just a moment, though. I've got to leave a note."

He grinned. "For Dick eh?"

"Why——"

"Don't worry, Miss Allison. Every-body knows. Can't keep secrets around a radio station, you know. Everybody knows! Known what for? That Dick Mason looks at you through the glass while you're wrestling a sheet from the gallery? That he has lunch with you each day in the cafe? That he's been known to lie waits to see you before going in to set the program each morning? Known what, Judy? Sweetheart, she'll put the pencil back in her hair. "Tell Mr. Allen I'll be right to go over and see the client," she said to a page boy, who, as most lowly messengers do nodded. Then she said "I'm ready Mr. Flavin."

She said little, as they rode cross town to the big building on Michigan avenue. The morning's mail talked, about programs, about people. Names that would have startled Judy Allison a week ago. Names that meant nothing at all to her, now. Names, as well as all Olympian, people with problems and worries like her own. Big Shertell, "yes" sometimes; then "No"; then, now but people you saw and listened to; hadn't heard. And the advertising man sensing her bewilderment, nodded a little remembering how she had flushed when he mentioned Dick. At last, he said with elaborate disinterest "Dick Mason's a son?"

"I think he's the best I've ever heard," Judy said quietly. There last announcer isn't he Miss Allison flashing again at the amused look on Flavin's face.

"Too bad he doesn't get out of the studio like," he said.

"Why——"

"Simple enough. He gets a salary. Works a half-hour each day. Sometimes more. All on one salary. But if he were a free-lance, he could sell himself directly to the same clients. Maybe for a lot more money. You see?"

"Yes. But doesn't that take money?"

"No. Takes being forced to do it, that's all."

"Oh." She was silent, thinking. If Dick were working at the studio if he had to go and see people——she lifted her head to de-cide. He might accompany his agreeable personality with a little charm. The power he needed if his worry was to end.

"Yes, Miss Allison. Thirty-ninth floor."

They shot upward breathlessly, the door snapped open they emerged into a lobby done in shades of black and silver with moderne desks of metal and glass, with deep-cushioned metal chairs.

"Mr. Jenks." Flavin told the girl at the desk. "Mr. Flavin and Miss Allison calling."

"Oh Miss Allison!" The girl stared unaffectedly. Then, "I heard you yesterday, Miss Allison. You were swell!"

"Thank you" Judy murmured, trying to be casual in the face of her sudden important.

This was the first time any one had on the outside had said, "I heard you." This was the first of all the people she heard for whom Judy Allison had not. A girl as old as herself, or older; a girl probably better-trained, cleverer than Judy Allison of Hiawatha; but because Judy was talking on the air she was somebody of importance to the girl. Funny!

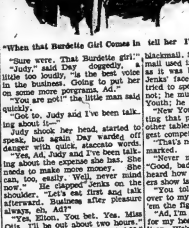
Like mother, writing from home. "I hear you every morning. Mrs. Thornburgh always comes over and Mrs. Delancey and twice now your father has stayed home from the store. Judy, there's a word for you know how he feels. He's got everybody in town listening to you. They say they always knew you'd sound fine on the radio. And your father thinks you're a picture. We haven't a new picture of you, you know. Your father is writing for a good deal about the mortgage. But he says it doesn't matter what he pays as long as our daughter is successful. We're so proud of you, Judy, knowing you're really got an important job and knowing you're helping so many people. Do you write those things yourself? I guess you do because it sounds just about by like you talking, every word you say. The way you laughed after a dancing. I declare I laughed for an hour. And I'm trying that exercise you gave, and I guess maybe I don't do it quite right, because it doesn't seem to help. Wish you'd write and tell me about it. With all the secrets so I'll lose some weight. Maybe that Paul Whiteman will get you and be told you about. I've been worrying about you being so busy. And Clifton-Nimbler station sasdas sass

"Hello," a small man said. "Miss Allison?"

Judy shook hands vigorously.

"I'm the man ho pays the bills. Nobody at home. Name's Albert Albert A. Jenks." He chuckled self-consciously. "Jenks, let's get some lunch. Miss Allison, you're free for lunch?"

Flavin nodded.



"Yes," Judy said.

"That's fine, I've been wanting to have a good long talk with you. And Mr. Flavin's coming along, too."

Elton Day appeared from the inner office. "Hi, Al!"

"You know Miss Allison? Oh, of course. You've met. That insistence on having her on the program, even against my better thoughts——"

"And wasn't I right?" Day interrupted hurriedly.

"When that Burdette Girl Comes in"

"Sure were. That Burdette girl," Judy," said Day doggedly, a little too loudly, "is the best thing on the business. Going to put her on some more programs, Al."

"You are got!" the little man said quickly.

Back to, Judy and I've been talking about it——"

Judy shook her head, started to speak, but again Day warded off danger with quick, staccato words.

"Yes, Al, Judy and I've been talking about the expense she has. She needs to make more money. I can, too, easily. Well, never mind now." He clapped Jenks on the shoulder. "Let's eat first and talk afterward. Business after pleasure always, Al?"

"Yes, Elton. You bet. Yes, Miss Allison. I'm out about two hours."

"You've an appointment at 1.30," Day reminded him.

"Let it wait. It's that Burdette girl—about some kind of idea she has been talking about. Don't know what it is. You know, Elton?"

"Not any more." Day said quickly. "Not for a long time. Fact, Al, I wouldn't even bother with it."

Lora Burdette If I were you, I wouldn't run it, myself. Of course." He smiled, indicating that Jenks should smile too. And Jenks obediently did. "I wouldn't run a competitor down," Day repeated, "but most of her ideas are just—well, she's got a lot of imagination, you know. And she's developed some kind of persecution complex. Goes around saying this man or that man cheated her, or faked an audition, or——Even said something like about you, Al."

"Me? Why——" The little man almost frowned in sudden anger.

"Yes," Day said smoothly. "Told me a lot of things about you. And I know well they weren't true."

"Never mind. Never mind," the little man said anxiously. "Miss Allison, that Burdette girl come to in tell her I've got no time to see her. Tell her anything you like, but she stay out of hereafftr this. Understand?"

"Yes, Mr. Jenks."

"And let's go, Miss Allison. Elton coming?"

"Of course." Day said. taking Judy's arm, squeezing her elbow ever so slightly, saying We have a secret, you and I. Saying, "Oh the fun I go that nearly?" Saying other things. Making Judy remember. Less, when she had almost forgotten, in the rush of the last few days, the person who could help Dick more than she could hurt Judy; an enemy who had planned to do both—and had——

Lunch went slowly. A tomato juice cocktail that she did not taste, for filled consomme which she hated, some sort of fish, a gorgeous salad which she nibbled at. coffee in a cup.

Then, suddenly Elton dropped from his pose to the real self Judy remembering so well. His eyes were sharp, his lips had tightened, there was nothing casual or detached about him now.

"Ad."

"Yes, Elton." Jenks put down his cigar, squared his narrow shoulders, turned his head. Prepared for battle, Judy knew. Prepared by Day's cold, level voice.

"Ad, you heard what I said a while ago about Judy. She's worth forty a week from you. That's all."

"That's a good salary for a girl, Elton."

Judy wanted to say "Yes," to shout suddenly, "I'm satisfied. I didn't want whatever it is Elton Day is trying to get. I won't take anything that gets for me. But there was no chance, for Elton had answered quickly, coldly. "That's fair enough for a stenographer, but announcers are a dime a dozen. In this man's town. But——" His hands spread eloquently. "You're getting more than that, you put on. Right?"

"Yell——" the man hedged.

"Never mind. I know." Day said. "I've checked up. You're a collector's letters ahead of last week. Don't you want to protect your interests?"

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

"Judy's voice brings in the letters." Elton Day said to Jenks, "and your business with her. Has never had in your life. But——" Day leaned forward, his chin thrust like a knive point at the little man. "You haven't got a contract with Judy. Why not, Ad? You could both walk off your show tomorrow and know that you've hooked Judy's voice and my copy as your stuff——"

Flavin, Elton," screamed, "Day! Jenks-stricken. Interested, "Day! Jenks-stricken. Interested, "Day! a minute! Listen." Jenks' face was white, shaking him, and he had silenced Jenks.

"This is no holdup," Day said, smiling a little. "Not exactly. But forty a week for Judy Allison is not enough. Or a raise to forty a week for me. Judy's going to be a big radio star. Judy trembled. She had heard of the are the business. It's not. I'm just the little boy who does the show. Jing. Paul Revere's horse."

"Ahhhhh!"

"No reason why we can't talk it over first, is there? We're not under contract, you know. And I've got to safeguard my interests. And Miss Allison's interests too. So, well, that's all. Suppose we talk it over. Right Jenks said, "Not yet. Look Elton.

"No use arguing about it," Elton said calmly. "You say if we work for New York we'll get more for you. But they're going to pay a lot more than you're getting now. And I told you, we've both got to have money. Much as we can get. Much as we can get. We'll just finish out the week for you, Ad, and you even need to say a word to you, and I don't want to leave you without a contract. I've got a script and the voice."

"Well, finish out the week, eh? And then go right on the air Monday for my competitors?"

"Not Monday, Ad. Tuesday. Can't get the rehearsals over in time for Monday. Miss Allison wants a little investigate the script more carefully, you see. About Tuesday, Ad. Maybe Wednesday. Think you can be ready by then, Judy?"

"No! Judy said loudly. "No! And you know I won't be ready. Why——"

"Yes, Miss Allison," Elton said. "I forgot. You wanted to go home for a week, didn't you? Can't blame you. But we'll be all right for a week from Monday. Ad, I said that's fair enough, I guess. With a fifty-two week contract, we can afford to take a week off, can't we?"

"Fifty-two weeks!" Jenks yelped. "Yes. With a renewal clause for another year. They're no pikers, over at New York. They know Miss Allison is good and they like her scripts and they're willing to spend. Ad, don't blame them. The test you've given the script and the voice shows what they'll do."

"Elton! Miss Allison!"

"Yes," Elton answered for both.

"I don't want you to work for those people. I want you to work on with the Beauty Builder show."

"But——" Elton said. Nothing more. Except that eloquent movement of his hands that said so much.

"So you just forget about that New York show. I'll own you, Judy. They're offered. And top it."

"Fifty-two weeks, Ad?" Elton asked.

"Sure. Why not? I like the show and Judy's pulling. Why not?"

"But you can't pay it. Too heavy for you, Ad. A big contract like New Youth could. But you——"

The little man trembled. "I can pay anything they can pay. Look up my credit rating if you don't believe me."

Softly, Elton murmured the question Judy had been thinking. Can you pay Miss Allison $100 a week? With a fifty-two week contract?

A hundred dollars a week! More money than her father ever made in his life. More money than Dick earned working all half a dozen shows a day. A hundred dollars a week! Judy caught her breath. The man would say "No." He couldn't say anything else. Pay $100 a week to a girl from Hiawatha who wasn't even an actress, who didn't know anything about the radio!

"Yes" I'll do better. I'll throw in a bonus. Two hundred dollars extra, I'll pay, if Miss Allison stays sheswith us. You hear me, Miss Allison?

"They're offering you more, eh? Trying to steal my show?"

would shout at Jenks, "Nothing he said to me. What he can do with me. I don't want more money. I'm satisfied!"

But how could she? The letter from her mother. "Your father is worrying about the mortgage. Send money home? On forty a week? Judy, you can't. Such a little more? It was Dick who said, "There's no sentiment in radio. Get what you can!" Wasn't that what everybody said about the business? Everybody but Judy.

"You get more for that New Youth crowd and I'm through with you for good. You hear that, Elton Day? You hear that, Miss Allison?" Jenks' face was purple. "Double, I'll bust me!" He pushed back his chair and stood up.

"Wait!" Elton Day commanded. "Sit down, Ad. No use going away like that. I'm better I'm telling you in advance, I didn't have to, I could go on the air without telling you. But we've done business together for a long time. I often play my cards on the table with you, this's all. And——quietly——and Miss Allison, I'll put the cards on the table too. Sit down won't you? If you don't I'll get up, I'll go ahead and that other show——"

"I won't. Ok—and you know it. You've got no right——"

"I won't be funny, Ad. We've got the best right in the world. We need money and those people offer us a good deal more than you're paying. So what can we do?"

"They're offering more, eh? Trying to steal my show?"

"Maybe, Ad. Never can tell. You

A hundred dollars a week you get, and $200 extra when the fifty-two contract. Is that enough?"

"That's a start only," Elton answered for her. "A hundred it is. And $200 for me."

"Teo——"

"Yes," Elton said, almost sadly. "Two hundred for me. I'm tired of drinking gin, Ad. I want to see if Scotch tastes the way it ought to taste. Can't do it on less than $200 a week. That's low for me. The New Youth people will pay. They're talking two-fifty right now. Might do better."

The little man waved his hands helplessly.

"All right, All right. You win. A hundred for Miss Allison. $200 for you. Starting Monday. And Miss Allison has to work on any other beauty program."

"Flavin's a witness," Elton said. "Isn't that right, Flavin?"

"Yes," the advertising man said, staring at Elton.

"Then we'll go over to your office right now and get the agreement signed and sealed." Elton said crisply. "Here, waiter. Buy a home in the country with the change," turning along, Judy. You're a rich woman, now!"

Nothing about Elton Day's manner or his low words as they left Jenks' office an hour later said, "Look what I've done for you." Nothing. Yet Miss Allison knew how he felt. She knew too that Elton Day was the only person in every man she had ever known. For knowing he would hint, he had deliberately set about putting her under an obligation she could not disown. He had got more money for himself at the same time. He had assured an income for a year to come for himself—and for Judy. And he had forced her to be the agent of signing the contract Jenks made out, into a partnership with him.

She could do nothing about it.

(To be Continued)

HIGH TEST SAFETY PACKAGE

GEM 100% LYE

GEM LYE

Opens Clogged Drains. Keeps Drains Open. AT ALL GROCERS

STOPS ACHES and PAINS

No matter whether it is a little ache or a big pain, no matter whether it comes from headache, neuralgia, the monthly periods of women or from a cold, ZUTOO TABLETS will relieve it in 30 minutes and leave you feeling good. Recommended FOR SALE and used by thousands as EXTRA WORK the standard remedy for PER BOX

ZUTOO

HEMORRHOIDS OR "PILES" are promptly and thoroughly relieved by the use of Dr. CHASE'S OINTMENT

DOMINION DAY FARES

BETWEEN ALL POINTS IN CANADA

FARE AND ONE QUARTER FOR ROUND TRIP

TWO TO THREE DAY TRIP—Good going 12 noon Friday June 30th till 12 noon Sunday July 2nd. Return limit to leave destination not later than midnight Monday July 3rd (Standard Time).

SINGLE FARE FOR ROUND TRIP

ONE DAY TRIP—Good going on any train after 1 a.m. Standard Time on July 1st. Return limit to reach original starting point any train up to midnight (Standard Time) July 1st.

Usual One Day (Sunday) Fare also in effect July 2nd

Examples of Round Trip Fares from BELLEVILLE to

	2-3 Day Fare	1 Day Fare		2-3 Day Fare	1 Day Fare
Buffalo	$ 5.55	$2.00	Sudbury	$12.35	$4.45
Hamilton	6.65	2.00	(via Lindsay)	CN $13.20	$4.90
London	9.90	3.00	Ottawa	5.15	6.00
Montreal	8.50	3.00	Quebec	10.60	4.00
Sudbury			Toronto	4.95	2.55
(via Torbole)	16.00	6.00	Windsor	14.45	6.00

Proportionately low fares between all other points in Canada and to certain destinations in the United States.

For fares and further information apply to Railway Ticket Agents. 190

Canadian Pacific • Canadian National

LOBLAW'S

Again Demonstrate

A Good Family TEA SPECIAL

TRUMPET BRAND BLACK TEA LOBLAW GROCETERIAS TORONTO

SPECIALS on SALE for Week of June 22nd - 28th

This Week We Are Featuring E. B. EDDY Co's., Product

"Onli-Won" Towel Cabinet each — 93c

"Onli-Won" Refills each 19c

Serviettes — Assorted (60 to a Pkg.) 14c

Note: White Swan Toilet Tissue On "SPECIAL"—See below—

a good black T a blended to meet a definite demand— at a low price.

25c 1-lb. Pkg.

LOBLAW GROCETERIAS CANADA'S GREATEST FOOD STORES

"Best for all Baking" 7-lb. Paper Bag 26c

Purity Flour

STORE HOURS: A.M. to P.M.

WEDNESDAY: 8 A.M. to 12 A.M.

SATURDAY: 8 A.M. to 11 P.M.

Wilson's Ass't Drinks 2 30 oz. Bottles 25c

Plus 5c Deposit on Bottle

Fancy Smoked, Boneless PORK ROLLS lb. 17c

At 9c, 2½ lb. Ideal for frying, boiling, or baking

Ingersoll CREAM CHEESE Med. Size Pkg. 12c

MAGIC BAKING POWDER 1 lb. Tin 34c

ROBIN HOOD Rapid-Cooking PORRIDGE OATS Large Pkg. 21c

H. P. SAUCE The "One and Only" Bottle 24c

SPECIAL CHOICE QUALITY TOMATOES 2½ size tin 8c

SPECIAL QUAKER CORN FLAKES 2 pkgs. 15c

SPECIAL LIBBY'S Pork & Beans 2 16oz. Tins 9c

SPECIAL SURPRISE A Pure Hard Soap 3 Bars 11c

SPECIAL ST. WILLIAM'S JAM Raspberry Strawberry 32-oz. Jar 26c

SPECIAL WHITE SWAN Toilet Tissue Recess or Regular Roll 9c

A COFFEE that Drips Well Drips Well Percolates Well and will guarantee a superfine beverage at an economical price

1/2-lb. Vacuum-packed Tin 22c

Molasses 1½ size tin 9c "Sweet Adeline" Brand

Oxade - Orangeade Lemonade Raspberryade 19c Package of Four

HORNE'S - Lemon Orange & Raspberry Punch 1 3-oz. Bottle 24c

C & B Orange, Lemon Cup 11-oz. Bottle 28c

Khovah Orangeade and Lemonade 14c Small Tin

PICNICS are now the Order of the Day, so don't bother Baking

CAKE

Loblaw's have done it for You.

Cherry Cake - lb. 27c

Rich Fruit & Nut lb. 24c

Valencia - lb. 17c

Madeira Sponge lb. 17c

All guaranteed Pure and Baked Well

COUNTY NEWS

CELEBRATE 13TH ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

Wooler—Miss Marion Nelson spent the week-end at Eldorado.

Mrs. Lydia Nelson and son, Charlie, motored to Hamilton for Thursday and visited Niagara Falls.

Leila Arthur tried her theory of examinations in music at Albert College, Belleville, on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. S. L. Terrill spent Friday in Frankford with Mrs. S. B. Herrington.

Evelyn Crewe is home from Normal School, Peterboro.

Harry Orvis is home from Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herrington of Richmond Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frankford, spent Saturday afternoon and evening at Floral Hill Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Fullard, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hubble and Mrs. Mills of Frankford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl and Mrs. Bali Terrill on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMaster of Belleville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Sharpe of Belleville, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Sharpe and Mrs. Ab. Sharpe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith and Mrs. W. Reed were called early on Sunday morning to go to Hamilton to their brother, Norman Thompson, who is very ill.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Mitchell—a daughter.

Herman Anderson has been confined to his bed for weeks with rheumatism and is still very weak.

Donald McNeil was taken very ill while at his sister's home, Mrs. J. C. Herrington, but he is improved now and much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dafoe of Belleville, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Terrill.

Rev. A. Pouliot and son Theodore motored to Montreal on Monday.

Nesbit Haggerty spent Monday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Dunn spent a few days in Toronto.

The Women's Institute met this month at the home of Mrs. Caleb Cole. The president, Mrs. Orvis, in the chair, report of the District Meeting was given, new business discussed, lunch served and the meeting adjourned to meet next month at Mrs. J. J. McColl.

Miss D. Thompson of Belleville, called on Miss A. Bell on Friday evening.

Delbert Carman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bakely and Lillian of Eldorado, called on Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Terrill on Friday evening.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. N. Haggarty celebrated their 13th wedding anniversary at their home. Mr. Plumpton celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary at their home when a few of their friends gathered to enjoy an evening of cards and presented the host and hostess with a wooden gift. Prizes were given, cookies and toothpicks of wood. A sumptuous lunch was served and the evening was enjoyed, leaving good wishes to the happy couples.

Rev. A. Pouliot conducted a Masonic service on Sunday afternoon in the United Church and a vocal solo "My Task" was given by Mr. C. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley of Wicklow, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Terrill.

The Eastern Section of Cobourg Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society met on Thursday at Smithfield, morning and afternoon sessions. A large attendance was present and received a cordial welcome from Smithfield Auxiliary, and also a profusion of colored peonies were an inspiration. The vice-president, Mrs. Evans of Norham, presided.

The speakers were, Mrs. Sanderford of Wicklow, who spoke on Mission Band Work; Mrs. Catley, of Plainfield, gave an address on "The Barry of Port Hope, on Girls' Work; Mrs. J. W. Platt, of Norham, also on Temperance talk, and Mrs. Hamilton of Toronto, secretary for Social Work in Canada, gave the afternoon address. Questionnaire. Mrs. S. L. Terrill, Wicklow, led in prayer followed by prayer by Mrs. (Rev.) Barrett of Brighton on behalf of Miss Hinton, Reg. N., a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Hinton, Castleton, Ont., who has made a sacrifice to enter the missionary field of China as a missionary. A piano solo was given by Mrs. Hedley Ireland of Cement Auxiliary. There were many encouraging features in the reports relating "our most inspiring meeting of the year."

After the report of the Courtesy Committee the meeting closed by the Sharon Auxiliary.

Mrs. George Anderson is still poorly after her fall.

L. H. Jones and Miller McCauley motored to Fuller on Sunday evening to bring Bill Fish back with them.

When Your Daughter Comes to Womanhood

Give Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Most girls in their teens need a tonic and regulator. Give your daughter Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the next few months. Teach her how to guard her health at this critical time. When she is a happy, healthy wife and mother she will thank you.

SKIFF FALLS FROM CAR, FISHING TRIP POSTPONED

Miller—Mr. and Mrs. John Adams and two daughters, of Belleville, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer on Sunday.

Mr. Archie Campbell and daughter, Miss Jessie, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Saunders who have been visiting the Misses Young at the homestead, returned to their home at Worcester, Mass. on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Alexander spent Sunday with their son, Ray, at Bowerman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maines visited Mr. and Mrs. George Fox at Burnt on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Saunders and the Misses Young called on Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell on Sunday.

Mrs. Steele of Belleville, is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, of Wellington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. McLeod.

Mrs. Charlie Grant called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Janet Grant attended the Saunders—Burd wedding at Wellington on Saturday.

Miss Minerva Watchorn spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. M. Taylor in Trenton.

Mr. Charles Wesse's, son-in-law and friends came from Toronto Saturday to enjoy fishing in Lake Ontario. Unfortunately their power skiff fell from their car and was so badly damaged that the fishing party had to call off.

Mr. Ted Pratt had his grandparents from Sandy Lake for a few days in in this country on Saturday evening. They are visiting their grandson at Mr. Malcolm Neal's, Pleasant Bay.

The ice cream social in the town hall on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League Society of the United Church was enjoyed by a number of the young people. The farmers in this locality are very busy with their hay. They report a very good crop.

COMMUNITY NEWS OF 8TH TYENDINAGA

Tth. Tyendinaga—Mrs. Catherine Vinton and Mrs. Mabel Merrifield, Hallowy, spent the dinner hour on Wednesday with Mrs. John R. Emerson.

Miss Mary Gannon and Mr. Marcus Gannon spent Sunday, June 11, at Mr. Jim Gannon's, Corbyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emerson spent Thursday afternoon at Mr. R. Skelley's.

Miss Mary Gannon spent the last hour on Tuesday with Mrs. John R. Emerson.

Mr. William Gannon has returned home after spending a few days in Belleville.

Mr. Hamilton Wilson, California, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Mr. Murney Wilson.

Mrs. Murney Wilson, Miss Rose and Mr. Hamilton Wilson spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Newton Wilson, Roslin.

Miss James Shannon and Eileen spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mrs. Jean Kerryheart.

W.M.S. MEMBERS ATTEND MEETING AT ELMBROOK

Centre—Deep regret was felt in the passing of the sudden death of Mrs. George McCurdy of West Huntingdon on Friday. She had spent the day along with Mr. McCurdy at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Tower, Mrs. Sullivan and family and Mrs. Wallace Simmons. "It Pays to Serve" a splendid paper reading was given by Mrs. Frank Sullivan, Mrs. Hicks, "Help Somebody Today." Mrs. Sullivan

You will find this Old Dutch Rubber Cleaning Sponge convenient and practical. Use the coupon below.

No CLEANING TAX

...that's why Old Dutch Cleanser has always been the housewives' choice. Old Dutch doesn't place a tax on their energy because it cleans quicker and easier. No tax on surfaces because it doesn't scratch, it keeps lovely things lovely.

No tax on their pocketbooks for two reasons —first, costs less to use because it goes further —second, it's the only cleanser they need in their homes; therefore, they do not have to buy several styles and kinds of cleaners, and this is a convenience to them as well as a saving.

Use Old Dutch Cleanser—avoid cleaning tax on your cleaning tasks.

This is the Old Dutch Rubber Cleaning Sponge
Convenient and practical. A little Old Dutch Cleanser, a little water, and the sponge is ready for use. Rubber backed. Can be used over and over again. Send the coupon below and a sponge will be sent you free on Old Dutch Cleanser label for each sponge.
Canada Sponge Works, 354 Mountain Arms, Toronto, Ont.

Doesn't Scratch
MADE IN CANADA

Name
Address
City Province
12

NEWSY NOTES FROM CARMEL

Carmel—Mr. and Mrs. R. Cummings of Toronto, visited at the home of Mr. W. Lidster's, on Saturday.

Mrs. A. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ross and children, Mrs. A. Sculey, Miss Helen Sculey and Mr. J. Joyce took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerow.

Mrs. A. Bygrove spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Hannah Bellville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ashley were visitors at Mr. Milton Ross' on Monday.

Mr. W. Reid visited Mr. M. Ross on Monday.

Mrs. A. Pitman is not so well again.

Mrs. J. Denny, Toronto, called on Mrs. Wallace Simmons on Tuesday afternoon.

Carmel W.M.S.

The June meeting of Carmel W. M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Hicks on Wednesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Patterson, opened the meeting with the Hymn 284; Rev. W. Merrick offered prayer. Mrs. Patterson gave the devotional leaflet, and 14 members answering the Roll Call. The minutes were read and adopted. Several members gave with the Watch Tower. Mrs. Sullivan then took charge. Hymn 270 was sung, and a duet followed by Miss Mary Hicks and Mrs. Wallace Simmons. "It Pays to Serve." A splendid paper reading was given by Mrs. Frank Sullivan. Mrs. Hicks, "Help Somebody Today." Mrs. Sullivan explained a chapter in the Study Book. The meeting closed all repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Hostesses for the afternoon, the hostess served refreshments at which a very jolly half hour spent.

Mrs. W. Simmons moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Reid and Mary for the use of his home and Rev. W. Merrick acknowledged it with a few well chosen words.

INTERESTING NEWS OF SHANNONVILLE

Shannonville—Miss Daisy Barber and Mrs. Edwards of Deseronto, had dinner on Monday with Mr. Sam Barber.

Mrs. Cecil McCarthy and son Billie, are spending a few weeks in Wellington, at present with her husband at Hillier.

Mrs. Eddie of Castile, N.Y., is a guest of Mrs. George Taylor and Harry for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thrasher of Belleville and Miss Mildred Tims of Napanee, spent the tea hour on Wednesday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jubb.

A large crowd attended the open meeting of the W.M.S. held in the United Church on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Blow spent Thursday in Kingston guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Whiters.

Friends are glad to know little Jean Kerr, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in Belleville hospital is recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunkley, Mrs. Percy Akey of Point Anne were visitors with the Watch on Mrs. Dunkley on Wednesday.

Rev. Mr. Clark baptized the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Houston on Friday afternoon at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston.

Rain is badly needed in this district.

LOST HER DOUBLE CHIN

And Her Prominent Hips

34 LBS. OF FAT GONE

This woman writes:—"I have a luxury appetite and weighed at 158 lbs." She is one of the thousands of women who have Kruschen Salts to thank for the loss of a load of unhealthy fat. To-day, she provides living proof that the reducing effect of Kruschen, no matter how consistent at first, cannot proceed to a degree harmful to the body's well-being. Read her letter:—

"I am 50 years old, 5 ft. 3½ in. in height, and was 160 lbs. when I started taking a level teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in hot water every day. I have grown in weight—some weeks 2 lbs., others just ½ lb., until I got down to 158 lbs. I have never felt better in my life than I do now, and feel so much lighter and feel years younger. There's always somebody saying to me that I have lost flesh in the cheeks. My measurements are below:—

Before.	After.
Bust .... 43 ins.	Bust .... 38 ins.
Hips .... 44 ins.	Hips .... 38½ ins.
Waist.... 38 ins.	Waist .... 32 ins.

"Also I had a double chin before taking Kruschen—that's not now. I have never dieted except once during the time I was taking Kruschen, and I tried eating brown bread, boiled eggs, no potatoes or fat meat for a week or two. I got myself down to 151 lbs., but as I have a healthy appetite and like to eat everything that's going, I stopped dieting and always stay at 154 lbs. You're better than all the fat reducing drugs put together. The difficult part of life without even so much as a headache."—(Mrs.) W. A.

Taken every morning Kruschen effects a perfectly natural clearance of all digested food, refuse matter and excessive watery waste matter. Under this wastage is regularly expelled. Nature will eventually store it up out of the way in the form of ugly fat. Try one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—in 5 weeks get on the scales, and note how many pounds of fat have vanished. Kruschen will give any fat person a pleasing surprise.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 40c. and 75c. per bottle

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart and Jackie spent the week end at Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Rushnell Waterlown are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Harold Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ingleton of Stirling had Sunday evening supper at Mr. J. W. Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodgen and Betty Mae, J. P. Yorke called on Mr. James Hall, Latta, on Sunday and had tea at Mr. Fred York's, Gilead.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Winters of Consecon called on Mr. and Mrs. Clark Shaw and Mrs. Jones of Campbellford and Mrs. Beer of Winnipeg spent Sunday with Mrs. A. Shaw.

Mrs. D. D. Elliott of Ivanhoe and Mr. James Elliott were Tuesday evening guests at Mr. R. A. Morton's.

A number of local sports motored to Brighton on Tuesday evening and enjoyed a friendly game of quoits.

SIDNEY FRIENDS HONOR MISS HOLMES

4TH SIDNEY—A most enjoyable time was spent on Monday evening June 12th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes when about fifty neighbors and friends gathered in honor of their daughter Luella, bride-to-be with a miscellaneous shower. The following address was read by Mrs. H. Jeffery.

Dear Luella,

We have heard with regret that this community will be losing you very soon, and we could not allow you to go without expressing in some way our appreciation for all the assistance you have given so willingly to every organization connected with our church.

Whether it be Ladies' Aid, W.M.S. Y.P. Society, Sunday School or Choir you were always to be depended on and we are going to find it very hard to replace you.

We have gathered here tonight to ask you to accept these gifts, not for their worth, but rather for the hearty good wishes for your future happiness. Remember you are each one.

And although we shall be divided by the Bay of Quinte may we still continue to enjoy the friendship so long associated with you.

Just a tiny thread in the weave of life

But a thread of prest gold

That will shine and shine through all the days

When the patterns old

When the patterns of life is faded

The fabric in decay

And wasted years

Will grow to its closing day.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Dorothy Sidney.

On the same evening the members of the League and Sunday School presented Miss Luella with a beautiful silver flower vase. Miss Mildred Phillips read the following address while little Francis Sexsmith presented the gift.

Dear Luella:

We your fellow members of Stone Church Sunday School and League have learned that before long you will be leaving your community.

We are sorry to see you go, you have been most faithful in Sunday School as organist, teacher and pupil, in our League you have filled your office of Missionary Vice-President in a consecrated and capable manner. In all your church connections you have been most faithful and helpful. We shall miss you greatly, but for you we are most happy that the wonderful Lord is having your own home is opening now to you.

We trust you will grace that home with the charm of beautiful Christian womanhood.

We hope you will soon feel at home in your church in the new community. They are fortunate to have your coming among them.

Before we leave we love to ask you to accept this gift.

Signed on behalf of the Stone Church, S. School and League.

Refreshments were served Miss Luella thanked the people for their kindness shown her, after which the jolly good fellows was sung. After which the ladies provided a very dainty lunch.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. A. Reid entertained Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Sexsmith and children to tea on Thursday evening.

Strawberry picking is the order of the day in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Langabeer and daughter Edith and Mr. Wm. Pound were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hicks on Wednesday.

Mrs. B. Langabeer and daughter Thelma and Miss Bush were callers on Mrs. Hicks.

Miss Eileen Harry is spending a few days at her home in Stirling.

Mr. Bert Ketcheson and nephew spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannah.

Mrs. E. Ketcheson of Belleville spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hannah.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Holmes attended the Graham—Ketcheson tea at Stirling on Sunday.

Mrs. M. Embury spent a few days with her son and Mrs. E. B. Sexsmith.

MANY FANS AT CANNIFTON VS. FOXBORO GAME

Foxboro, June 22—A large number attended the ball game at Canniffon on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. E. Spencer and Mrs. W. Hodgen visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Phillips of Belleville on Thursday last.

A few ladies attended the open meeting in connection with the W. M.S. at the home of Mrs. Embury.

Rain is very badly needed for the crops in this district.

Mrs. J. G. Sills spent Monday at Mr. Roy Sills.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Daniels, Bessie Dafoe and Evelyn Gough spent a few days in Stirling and attended the school on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dyer and family of Toronto spent over Sunday with Mrs. J. W. Embury.

Charles and Donald remaining for a couple of weeks with their grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamieson spent Sunday in Kingston.

Miss Wm. Cook spent a day last week with Mrs. J. Gowsell, Jr.

YOUTH... by the bowlful

Vitality Different

PROTEINS, carbohydrates, minerals, vitamins are the vital elements that keep you feeling alive, on your toes, YOUNG.

Nature offers them to you—in rich measure, in perfect balance—in one cereal grain, WHOLE WHEAT!

And Shredded Wheat brings them to you, every one—ready-to-eat—crisp-baked for your easy digestion. For Shredded Wheat is whole wheat —nothing added, nothing taken away!

These are some of the reasons why Shredded Wheat is so VITALLY DIFFERENT! Why it can bless you with energy, radiance, youthful charm.

YOUTH by the bowlful! Find out for yourself. Thousands have. Just make this simple and tempting dessert test. Every day for at least ten days treat yourself to Shredded Wheat ... with milk or cream, with fresh or cooked fruit.

"Most food for least money."

THE CANADIAN SHREDDED WHEAT CO., LTD. Niagara Falls, Canada

SHREDDED WHEAT

MADE IN CANADA • BY CANADIANS • OF CANADIAN WHEAT

A bee can lift and carry 25.5 man's limit of weight is about equal times its own weight, whereas a to himself.

THE RED & WHITE STORES

Our Carton to Customer Sale, combined with Red & White Free Delivery, last week was so popular extra features have been added for this week-end.

Extraordinary Value!

BLACK TEA 3 lbs. 99c

A quality that is sold in many stores at 40c to 45c per lb.—a real bargain in strength. On sale Friday and Saturday.

Delicious Educator Cheese Thins Baked Fresh Daily 14c

LUX Flakes 9c

Morning Glory CREAMERY 2 lbs. 41c
BUTTER
CREAMERY BUTTER ...lb. 25c
Crowe and Rhatt's TOMATO CATSUP 15c
Hi-o- Bottle
Gold Medal MAMMOTH PEAS 15c
Honey Dew 2 tins 25c
SHREDDED WHEAT 2 pkgs.

EXTRA SPECIAL
Apricot JAM Large 48 oz. Jars 29c

Fluffo Shortening 2 lbs. 21c
O. F. Table Salt 2 lb. bag 5c
Red & White Pastry Flour 6 lb. sack 19c
Certo Use Certo When Preserving Your Strawberries 25c
Red & White Tea or Coffee Free Glass 25c

LILY BRAND
Chicken Haddie can 14c

For health and vitality drink OVALTINE Med. can 75c

EXTRA SPECIAL
Wonderful Soap 5 bars 16c
PURE LAUNDRY SOAP

Sal. Soda Arm & Hammer 3 packages 25c

Snap Hand Cleaner Cleans Everything—Tin 16c

Metal Wash Boards Special Value 35c

Blue & White Molasses Size 1½ Tin 10c

EXTRA SPECIAL
Choc. M. B. Biscuits 2 lbs. 29c

PROTECT YOUR SKIN with the GOLD CREAM SOAP

Many Flowers 4 cakes 25c

Fresh TURKISH DELIGHT CANDY lb. 19c

Red & White High Quality FLOOR WAX lb. tin 29c

Flusho For the Bathroom 21c

QUALITY ALWAYS HIGHER THAN PRICE

COUNTY NEWS

DR. CALDER OF FRANKFORD MOVES TO LONDON.

Frankford—Mr. and Mrs. D. Vandervoort, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Elliott spent Sunday in Wellington.

Mrs. G. Spencer and Mrs. F. Matthews called on Mrs. H. Madill on Monday afternoon.

About forty members of the local L.O.L. and L.O.B.A. lodges attended divine service with Stirling lodges at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, on Sunday morning, the sermon an inspiring address was given by the minister, Rev. J. A. Koffend.

The local Orange and L.O.B.A. members will attend service on Sunday next at the United Church here. They are planning to attend the celebration on July 12th, at Brighton.

Dr. J. R. Vining, who has been practising in London, Ont., took over the medical practice of Dr. Calder on Monday when he moved with Mrs. Vining into the office and residence lately occupied by Dr. Calder. Frankford people will welcome the new citizens. Dr. Calder on relinquishing his practice has moved to London where he will practise in partnership with a doctor there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moran, Stockdale Road, are happy to announce the arrival of a fine baby boy to the home.

Mrs. Wilmot Scott is building a cottage on Oak Lake on the Clinton Barragar property, and the foundations are being built on the polar resort style.

Frankford Masonic Lodge attended their annual divine service for the year in the United Church, Wooler, where they were given a fine Masonic sermon by the Rev. Mr. Poulter, who chose as his subject, "Building a Superstructure" and referred fittingly to the fine opportunity for the builders in the world today for the close of the service day. At the close of the service the members paraded to the Wesleyan town hall where the Worshipful Master, George Pollard, called on some of the visiting brethren for a few words. R. W. Bro. Roy Herrington, a former Frankford boy, referred feelingly to his recently bedecision to sell his property and ceased father in Frankford. An invitation was extended to this lodge to attend divine service with Belleville lodge on Sunday next.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herrington, who have been visiting in Frankford, returned on Monday to their home in Richmond Hill.

The local softball games continue to interest a large number of fans who gather on the High School grounds on Monday and Friday nights. In a fast game of ball on Friday the Sprague team defeated the High School 20-12. On Monday the Cardinals were again victorious when they defeated the Artonos when they defeated the Artonos when they defeated the Artonos

Delicacies for That Summer Bridge Party

While a woman may be generous enough to let her guests win at bridge, she always wants to hold a winning hand when it comes to the refreshments. Refreshments for bridge should be light, but very appetizing. People do not really want to eat—they just want to nibble while they discuss the game. Canapes or sandwiches should be dainty; salads should be served in small large portions and small cakes should be very small indeed.

Following are given some appetizing recipes which are easy to make and easy to eat. Drop the Pineapple Coconut Macaroons on to the buttered cookie sheet in little mounds about the size of half an English walnut shell. The Unbaked Brownies ate most tempting if they are cut in tiny inch squares. These two small cakes are very good for serving on the same plate as their appearance is different and they differ from each other in flavor as well. At the same time each is "fancy" enough to be served alone in a menu such as either of the following:

Cream Cheese Salad
Melba Toast
Pineapple Coconut Macaroons
Cocoa Balls
or Canapes
or
Bread and Butter Rolls
Unbaked Brownies
Frosted Rose Buns

So far as beverages go the hostess will know what her friends prefer.

Coconut Pineapple Macaroons

1-2 cups sweetened condensed milk
2 cups shredded coconut
1 cup crushed, drained pineapple
Few grains salt

Mix sweetened condensed milk, shredded coconut, crushed drained pineapple and salt. Drop by small spoonfuls on a well-buttered pan, about one inch apart. Bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) until a delicate brown. Makes 2 1-2 dozen.

Unbaked Brownies

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 1-3 cups (1 can) Sweetened Condensed Milk
2 cups (1-3 pound) vanilla wafer crumbs
1 cup finely chopped walnut meats

Melt chocolate in double boiler. Add Sweetened Condensed Milk, stirring over boiling water five minutes until mixture thickens. Add vanilla wafer crumbs and 1 cup finely-chopped nut meats. Butter shallow pan and sprinkle with 1-2 cup nut meats. Place chocolate mixture in pan and spread evenly with knife dipped in hot water. Sprinkle top with remaining 1-4 cup chopped nuts. Place in refrigerator several hours, or overnight. To serve, cut in inch squares. Makes 16.

Note: Graham crackers may be used in place of vanilla wafers.

Cheese Salad

2 packages (8 ounces) Cream Cheese
2 tablespoons cream or top milk
1 teaspoon each minced parsley and chives.
Salt
Paprika
Lettuce
Radishes
French Dressing

Blend together the cream cheese and cream or top milk to make a smooth paste. Add minced parsley, chives and seasoning. Form into small rolls, and allow to stand in refrigerator until firm. Serve on a bed of lettuce or watercress. Garnish with radishes and sprinkle with French dressing. Cheese may be formed into one roll, chilled and sliced, allowing a slice for each portion. If olives are not obtainable substitute stuffed prunes. Allow six to eight bridge portions.

Piquant Canapes

1-2 pound package "Chateau"
8 stuffed olives, chopped
12 rounds white or whole wheat bread
1-4 cup anchovy paste (optional)
Pimento strips (optional)

Allow "Chateau" to stand at room temperature until softened. Force through a sieve. Blend finely chopped olives and "Chateau." Cut slice of bread 1-3 inch thick. Shape into rounds with a biscuit cutter or fancy shapes using bridge cutters. Spread thinly with butter and anchovy paste (optional) Heap "Chateau" mixture in small pyramids onto prepared bread. May be garnished with strips of pimento. Makes one dozen canapes.

Note: Bread may be toasted or sauted.

Quick Fondant

1 cup confectioners' sugar
1-4 cup sweetened condensed milk

Sift confectioners' sugar. Blend gradually into sweetened condensed milk. Add flavoring, continue mixing until smooth and creamy. Tint with vegetable coloring if desired.

Fruited Bonbons

Prepare quick fondant, omitting vanilla. Add 1 teaspoon grated orange and lemon rind, 1-4 teaspoon maraschino cherries.

Cocoa Balls

Prepare Quick Fondant. Add three teaspoons cocoa.

Fondant may be used plain between halved nut meats or as a stuffing for dates. Or form into small balls and roll in chopped nuts, shredded coconut, grated chocolate, chopped candied fruits, or flavor variously and form into round flat creams.

Bread and Butter Rolls

1-2 pound package "Chateau"
1-4 cup butter
1 small loaf fresh bread.

Allow "Chateau" to stand at room temperature until softened. Cream with butter. Remove the crust from a small loaf of fresh bread and cut bread into thin slices. Wrap tightly in a dampened cloth to moisten bread slightly. Let stand for an hour in a cool place. Spread each slice with creamed "Chateau" and butter mixture and roll up. Fasten each roll with a toothpick. Cover with a damp cloth and let stand in a cold place until the butter has hardened so that the bread will not unroll when toothpick is removed, before serving.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

REVISION OF DUTY SOUGHT

United Kingdom Asks Canada to Review Duties

London, June 21—Taking further advantage of the terms of the Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement signed at Ottawa, the United Kingdom today asked Canada to review the Canadian duties on a long list of articles with a view to revision. The Canadian tariff board is already preparing to review the duties on cotton and textile goods imported from Britain.

The trade pact signed at the Imperia Conference gave each country the right to seek revision in the scale or duties levied by the other on its goods.

In accordance with this provision article 19 of the United Kingdom government today requested the Canadian government to ask the Canadian Tariff Board to review the duties charged by Canada on boots, shoes, slippers, tin and lead alloys, yarns and other articles.

MRS. MARTIN MITTS OF SIDNEY PASSES

IVANHOE—The weatherman favored with a real good shower on Friday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Chambers of Corbyville spent Sunday at Mr. H. Wallace's.

One of the oldest residents of this section, Mrs. Martin Mitts passed away at her home on Sunday at the age of eighty-five.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Blackburn of Ortilla accompanied by Mrs. H. McKinnon, Campbellford and Mrs. Campbell of Whitinofi spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Wood.

Miss Myrtle Reid who is teaching at Centenary was at her home here over the week end.

BRIDE AND GROOM RECEIVES MANY GIFTS AT SHOWER

Rylstone, June 22—About 150 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fry gathered at the home of the bride's parents on Friday night when a kitchen shower was held in their honor. The splendid array of silverware, china, linens and other gifts, etc. testified to the popularity of the young couple in the community. Among the presents was a patch quilt donated to Mrs. Fry by the Rylstone Women's Institute of which she is a member.

The Rylstone Sunday School garden party has been indefinitely postponed.

Miss Myrtle McKeown of Mount Pleasant is visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Allan.

Miss Vivian Melkiejohn of Tweed spent the week end under the parental roof.

Misses Jean and Vera Stewart and Ray, were Sunday visitors of their aunt, Mrs. Lily Anderson.

Visitors at the home of Mr. H. Spencer on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Spencer, Helen, Frank and Don of Mount Pleasant, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murphy, Delbert and Audrey of Springbrook and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Conley and children of Stirling.

Mr. Clarence Mallory of The Ontario Prohibition Union had charge of the service at Rylestone church on Sunday morning.

Grant Melkiejohn is home from Toronto having completed his course at the Normal School.

Miss E. Brennan has been hired to teach at the 8th line school for another year.

Earl Mumby is ill.

EATON GROCETERIA
"Where It Pays to Shop"

CLIMAX WEEK

Climax Week ... of Outstanding Values

JUNE SALES

We take pride in drawing your attention to the wonderful specials contained in this advertisement—read them over carefully—you will recognize the savings instantly. Make up your shopping list now and visit our Store early, as the prices are so low the quantities, although large, will not last long.

SPECIALS ON SALE JUNE 23rd TO 26th

SPECIAL— BULK SALTED JUMBO PEANUTS lb. 13c

... delicious, healthful SUMMER DESSERTS

Healthful for the children—light, cool and satisfying! Different in the many different ways of serving—buy the three-pound crisp tin and save it on hand always. Easy and quick to make.

SPECIAL—LONDON CORN STARCH 3 Pkg. 25c

..... AND SO ECONOMICAL!

EXTRA SPECIAL—PEARL WHITE NAPTHA SOAP 10 Bars 27c

We only have we secured sufficient to take care of the tremendous demand this extremely low price is bound to create. A famous Soap at a real saving.

EXTRA SPECIAL—HEINZ TOMATO KETCHUP Large Bottles 2 29c

Stock up at this low selling.

SPECIAL—SUNDALE CHOICE BARTLETT PEARS No. 2 Squat Tin 10c

What could be finer, alone as a delightful summer dessert, or as the main ingredient for a flavorful salad. Note the unusually low price.

This Week Only! CAKE SALE

Why bake during the hot weather?—let the master baker supply you with fresh, delicious Cake of wholesome high quality. Try a pound or two.

GILCHRIST'S FRUIT CAKE Per lb. 15c

SPECIAL—GRIMSBY SWEET MIXED PICKLES Large Jar 35c

What a wonderful opportunity to add a special pleasure to your meals. Variety, appetizing, tasty, delicious Pickles—at this low price during the warm weather treat.

SPECIAL—CLOVER LEAF FANCY PINK SALMON Tall Tins 2 19c

Finest quality for the picnic sandwiches or for salads.

..... Look what 5c will Buy FREE RUNNING TABLE SALT 2-lb. Carton 5c

PLAIN or IODIZED

SPECIAL—HOUSEHOLD BLEND TEA Our most popular seller at a special price! 1-lb. Pkt. 33c

SPECIAL—AUSTRALIAN EXL BRAND PEACHES Halves or Sliced No. 2 Tall Tin 16c

SPECIAL—AYLMER BRAND PORK AND BEANS 5 16 oz. Tins 24c

SPECIAL—CADOMA TOILET SOAP Perfumed, in three varieties. 3 Cakes in Pkt. 5c

SPECIAL—GLENWOOD CHOICE ASPARAGUS CUTTINGS 2 12-oz. Tins 23c

SPECIAL—CONNORS HERRINGS 14-oz. Tin 10c IN TOMATO SAUCE

SPECIAL—LARGE CLEAN MEATY PRUNES 2 lbs. 25c

SPECIAL— McCORMICK'S POLAR ICE WAFERS lb. 21c

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY
LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP Per Cake 5c
Limit 5 Cakes to a Customer with Your Grocery Order. Come Early!
A SAVING OF 15c ON THE 5 CAKE OFFER

FLUSHO TOILET FLUSH Tin 21c
HOUSEHOLD WASHING SODA Pkg. 5c

EATON'S DELICIOUS ORANGEADE and LEMONADE CRYSTALS ..doz. Bottle 24c

VISIT OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT FOR SUMMER MEAL SUGGESTIONS

Stamped For Your Protection GOVERNMENT GRADED BLUE BRAND BEEF

From Government-inspected abattoirs and graded — you can now be sure of good Beef at a reasonable price.

STEAKS or ROASTS
ROUND lb. 18c SIRLOIN lb. 20c
PORTERHOUSE lb. 23c

FRESH SPRING Government Inspected LAMB
Loins lb. 22c Legs lb. 25c Fronts lb. 17c

PEAMEALED COTTAGE ROLLS lb. 10c

Eatonia BREAKFAST Rind On BACON lb. 22c
RINDLESS - 26c

SMOKED WEINERS OR VISKING BOLOGNA 2 lbs. 25c

GARDEN FRESH FOR YOUR HEALTH'S SAKE
FRUITS and VEGETABLES

EXTRA SPECIAL—
SUNKIST VALENCIA ORANGES Nice and Juicy Per Dozen 23c

IMPORTED TOMATOES lb. 17c

HOME GROWN HEAD Lettuce 2 for 11c

Bananas doz. 29c

EATON GROCETERIA
"Where It Pays to Shop"

CLIMAX WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Doupe and children and Mr. D. McKeown were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Pinch.

Mrs. John S. McKeown spent the home of Mrs. Lorne Barnum brides. Mrs. Roy Fry. The only solo "Building a Home," by Miss the week end with her father Mr Wednesday afternoon. The most Hicks of the program being, a Evelyn Barnum. The new presi- served and the meeting came to a John McKeown in Campbellford. of the afternoon was spent in quilt- reading "The Old Roller Towel," dent, Mrs. Granville Melkiejohn close with the singing of the Na- The next meeting was held at the a quilt for one of our Institute by Mrs. Lorne Barnum and a vocal chair of the meeting. After tional Anthem.

The quilt was finished and

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT

By Special Correspondent

G. LaBrash Ideal Host When "Marvelubes" Visit at Trenton

"Imperials" of Trenton However Defeated by Visitors 5-1.

TRENTON—June 22. —(Special) —Yesterday was a big day for George LaBrash and his "Imperial" softballers. They were hosts to the "Marvelubes" of Toronto, under "Rex" Stinson, with "Andy" Blair of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Toronto boys from the Imperial Oil travelled in a Grey Coach bus and were met west of Trenton by Mr. LaBrash. "Abby" the clown accompanied the Toronto fans and at the western limits of the town "Abby" rode George's Pony "Rex" down through the main street ahead of the bus. After the rain, the two teams had a battle royal with the Marvelubes coming out on the long end of a 5-1 score.

After the game the visitors from Toronto journeyed to Melody Inn, as guests of Mr. LaBrash, where they enjoyed a most sumptuous banquet and then danced till midnight. Andy Blair made the big hit with the girls when they found out he was a member of the Maple Leaf Hockey Club. Fred Harrison, chief auditor of the Imperial Oil Co., W. "Rex" Stinson, W. Kendall and T. Norris, supervisors, accompanied the ball club to Trenton. The music was furnished by the "Commanders" of Belleville, with Frank Smith of Trenton, leading the gathering with his crooning and yodelling.

Play Return Game

The return match will be played in Toronto, July 2nd at the annual Imperial Oil picnic at Hanlan's point.

The game was the most exciting seen in Trenton this season. Entertained for the Imperials striking out twelve of the Marvelubes, who were champions of the Mercantile League last year. The visitors only connected for two hits but four errors for the locals and Blair's home run at a point when it spoiled the Imperials' chance of winning. The visitors' double play in the fifth with the bases loaded was a heart-breaker. Fox drove a hard one to Evans at short, who threw to Horton at second, to Sloan at first. Pickard a left-hander pitched for the Toronto lads. He struck out but three batters with his team giving wonderful support. Blair batted for Pickard in the ninth, when he showed how to hit. His drive to deep centre field gave him the only homer of the game. Sloan pitched the last inning while Blair played on the first sack.

Line up:—

Marvelubes—Emerson cf; Gallagher lf; Evans ss; Horton 2nd; Sloan 1st and p; Perriman rf; Springer 3rd; McGowan c; Pickard p; Blair 1st.

Imperials—Anderson ss; J. Miller, rf; Jordon 1st; Sizenburg c; Vlaic cf; Walton lf; H. Miller 2nd; S. Hibb 3rd; Fox p.

Umpires—Plate, Lewis; Bases, Andy Blair to the eighth.

Hits—Marvelubes 2; Imperials 2; Errors, Marvelubes 4; Imperials 4; Strike-outs by Fox 12; Pickard 3; Walk-off by Fox 2; Pickard 3.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Robinson of Detroit, returned to that city today after spending the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. Orrill.

Mr. H. Hennessey of Toronto, is convalescing at the home of her son, Mr. J. Hennessey, King street.

Mr. Ed Lynch of Toronto, is visiting his sister, Mrs. M. Kehoe, Spring street.

PROOF RUSSIANS KILLED FISHERMEN?

Tokyo, June 22 (AP)—The Foreign Office announced today the Japanese destroyer Tachikaze had obtained a copy of an official Soviet report "proving that Russian coastguards had killed 3 Japanese fishermen" in Russian waters near Kanchata Peninsula June 14.

Following a recent windstorm in Louisiana it was reported that a red rooster was carried 30 miles and deposited safely on a farm in another parish.

AUTO AND COW IN COLLISION

Sedan is Thrown Into South Ditch, Cow is Injured

Trenton, June 22 (Special)— A Toronto motorist driving a new Plymouth sedan went on No. 2 highway, ran into a cow owned by C. B. Meyers, doing considerable damage to the front end of the sedan and throwing the car into the south ditch. The driver of the car claimed he did not see the cow as it ran out of the lane to cross the highway.

Gordon Miller and Jack Boyle of Belleville, driving a transport near the scene pulled the car from the ditch after which it was taken to Belleville for repairs.

A Belleville veterinary was called to attend the injured cow.

Auxiliary Picnic

The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of King St. United Church journeyed to Old Orchard Beach at the lake, south of Smithfield where they gathered at the Beach cottage yesterday afternoon. About thirty members made the trip. The picnic activities were curtailed by the severe electrical storm which was particularly bad in that section.

Mrs. (Rev.) Jones was presented with a beautiful Kenwood blanket by the ladies of the auxiliary prior to her leaving in the near few weeks. Miss Edna Pinkie ,who is leaving Trenton for Port Credit where she has accepted a position, was presented with a book by her fellow members.

Seats At Airport

Fight fans will have an opportunity of seeing Ken Robinson, Onario welterweight champion, battle Jimmy Leonard, former Onario 155 pound champion at the airport on June 26. This information was given out yesterday by Flying Officer L. E. Wray, sports director at the airport.

These cards are sponsored by the unemployed project No. 38 with the permission of Wing Commander G. S. Brookbank, D.F.C. Remember the date—June 29 at the airport. Billy Adams, former 160 lb. champion of Onario is the trainer and matchmaker.

Howard Cole who knocked out Cable of the R.C.A.F. last month will battle Signaller Peacey of Camp Borden.

Seeky Miles of Belleville will come out again against Noel Lodge of Oshawa.

Geo. Rorsbeck is matched with Signaller Patrick of the R. C. A. at Camp Borden.

Other bouts will be: John Shumski of Regina and Geo. Bertrand of Belleville at 173 lbs.; Ray Crawford, Belleville with "Chuck" Peale of Trenton at 135 pounds; Little Leo Marsala of Pt. Anne will box up with Bill Smith of Oshawa at 120 lbs.; Bill Crawford of Belleville meets Bill Blackford of Oshawa at 135 lbs.; "Battling" Duffy of Trenton a welterweight of Oshawa will meet "Bob" Shroder at 140 lbs. Vic Simpson of Oshawa meets Jack Williams of Toronto will meet at 145 lbs.

There will be given to the press before the end of the week according to P. O. L. E. Wray.

Stayed in the Saddle Until Parade Finished

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., June 22 —(AP)— The parade must go on even if an Ambulance is waiting for the marshal at the end of the route.

Major Gordon Lee of Battle Creek suffered a broken leg when his horse stumbled during the parade of the Michigan Department, United Spanish war veterans at the annual encampment here yesterday.

Brady forced the horse to rise, waved away offers of aid and remained in the saddle until the parade officially ended. Then an ambulance took him to a hospital.

Phone 2000

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Phone 2000

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m

More Savings for You in this List of Friday Bargains and June Opportunities—Shop at 9!

Misses' Pretty Printed Pique Frocks!

Frocks that are as gay as summer itself—in a riot of pretty color combinations, arranged as PLAIDS—QUAINT FLOWER PATTERNS—BIAS STRIPES—AND CHECKED EFFECTS IN A VARIETY OF SIZES. Styles are particularly suited to this weather, some with short sleeves, others sleeveless, with a smart little cape effects over each shoulder—others display bows, button trims, belted effects or pleats. Necklines, too, are varied and interesting. We feel this is the most outstanding "buy" we have made in frocks for some time. Be sure and see the window display for a representative showing of these frocks. You'll agree the value is amazing—and will want two or even more for yourself. Sizes from 14 to 20. June Opportunity, each 1.98

—second floor

Women's Smart Straw Hats

Regularly 1.95 each

These are all new this season and are mostly all darker shades. A variety of headlines to select from, as well as a smart assortment of sizes, all cleverly trimmed in new and novel ways. Regularly these sell for 1.95 each. Clearing, Friday, each 1.00

—second floor

Cool, Mesh Panties of Rayon, Pair 39c

Of fine quality rayon, in the new mesh weave for summer wear. Dainty and yet serviceable—they come in a fine range of pastels in all sizes. Friday Bargain, pair

—second floor

Dainty Lace-Trimmed Crepe Gowns 1.29

Tailored and dainty lace trimmed styles in this big selling, Friday! Fashioned with smart lines from fine crepe de chine or a sensational weight and texture. You'll want more than one of them, they are such excellent value. A choice buy at least two more than you had intended for at this price of pretty pastels—in sizes small, medium and large. Bargain, Friday, each .....

—second floor

Women's Smart Linen Colored Mesh Sandals — Pair 1.44

Comfortable and cool for summer wear—detracting not in the least from their smart appearance. A sale of women's smart mesh sandals with leather soles, and a neat cuban heel. In linen or beige shade—sizes from 3 to 7. Special Friday, pair .....

—men's store rear

Here's a Feature of Note for You!

Week-End Sale of 4-hour Enamel

A high grade enamel purchased from a reliable maker who wished to keep his factory busy, and which is offered to early shoppers Friday at a big return for their money. A high grade enamel for the kitchen and verandah furniture. Paint up now—while the price is so low—lay in a supply, the savings warrant it. But whatever you do, buy Friday! Choose your colors:

89c quart

White
Light Cream
Ivory
Lettuce Green
Jade Green
Emerald Green
Pearl Grey
Slate Grey
Cambridge Blue
Dark Blue
Tangerine Orange
Canary Yellow
Mohawk Red
Golden Brown
Medium Buff
Rose Pink
Ground Color
Light Oak and Dark Oak

Boys' Wool White Pullovers 75c

In popular v neck style, in white trimmed with a neat black stripe. Lovely weight and quality for summer wear—and outstanding value at this price. In fancy knit stitch; sizes for boys taking 26 to 34. June Opportunity, each ....

Men's Fine Lisle Hose 3 prs. 50c

In new patterns and color combinations, men's fine lisle hose for summer wear. Excellent sensonable weight, durably reinforced at most vital points. You'll want several pairs at such a low price as this. Sizes from 10 to 11½. Special at ..

Boys' Camper Shoes 1.29

Here's good value in boys' comfortable style camper shoes, Friday! Strongly made with soft leather uppers and durable rubber soles and heels. Light, sturdy and comfortable — just the thing for camp or holiday wear. Sizes from 11 to 13 and 1 to 5. Bargain, pair .....

Cotton Sheets 79c each

Snow white bleach, these fine cotton sheets at only 79c each! Made from sturdy quality Wabasso Cotton that washes and launders beautifully. You'll enjoy the extra everyday service during the warm months of summer, for camp or home use. Strongly finished with plain hemmed ends. Three quarter, cottodouble bed sizes. Special, each .....

—main floor rear

Art Needlework Clearing at Half Price and Less 14c to 3.95

This big assortment includes such fine pieces as crib spreads, pot holders, laundry bags, pillow cases, cushion tops, rompers, runners, towels, linen sets and carriage covers. In a wide variety of designs and styles — regularly priced from 29c to 8.50 each. Clearing Friday at HALF PRICE AND LESS! Each .....

—main floor right

Bargain Group of Silverplated Ware

This fine group comprises pieces that are excellent and very suitable for gifts for June brides. Of good grade plated ware—in many attractive designs—some plain, others with pierced effects. Also the pieces you'll includes, check your needs or wants —then shop early Friday Morning! Candle sticks, cream and sugars, trays, pie dishes, cake plates and many other fine pieces each or set 1.59

—main floor centre

Handsome 4 Piece Walnut and Gum Wood Dining Room Suite

A very handsome suite of 4 pieces, comprised of buffet, china cabinet, solid walnut extension table, with folding leaf and six dinette to match, leather upholstered. In a very striking type of design, combination of walnut and gum woods used in its fine construction. Regularly this would sell for 125.00. Friday Bargain, suite 98.00

Folding Lawn Seat 1.25

Strongly made from well seasoned hardwood, with natural varnish finished seat, with green color back and legs. Folding styles with a slat seat. Special, each .....

36 Inch Rayon Madras 45c

For draperies for the living room, dining room or for the bedroom, nothing quite so smart as the popular lovely fine rayon madras. In a set of tones, in designs in gold, rose or black. 36 inches wide. Bargain, yard .....

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

On the surface it looks as though the Belleville Nationals have either installed Lady Luck or are in bad graces.

Just imagine—the local bagged 7 jeley runs in the first two innings and then lived to see them melt away. Wonder what Freddie Geroge, Jack Williams or Jack Oulette would have to say on the subject. Lend that like?

The local businessmen were entirely to blame in the eighth inning when they stopped to the plate in the world wind storm that ever visited this community and tried to face Russ Kitchen's fire ball. All the batters had to do was to stand in Umpire Hotrum regarding the poor visibility and the game would have terminated. Instead they tried to poor through the dust and dart to hit the ball. The game was the best umpired in the C.O.B.L. Bob Hotrum was the only one called the balls and strikes O.K. As a matter of fact, that is largely one of the errors or commission committed by the Nationals in the game was a "Speak" Scriver's cousins are the Belleville Nationals. He can enjoy plenty of success against the Pontes, though. The game will not affect the standing of the league but the win would have helped the locals. The Nationals by no means fain degree. They go to Kingston on Friday with the return game billed for the local diamond next Wednesday.

The Victorias ran into a snag yesterday when Napanee handed them their first defeat of the season. To Tommy Poister goes the lion's share of the victory as the ex-National hurler whiffed nine local batters in a six inning game. Poister was bound to win a game sooner or later and it just so happened that the Vics were his victims. Carl Casey, who was drafted from the Nationals to subdue the Gibbardites, and hurled a pretty fair sort of ball in defeat, rather poor support in the field. The Vics still lead the league, however.

Wall Griffis' "Mechanics" trimmed the fast C.P.R. softball team in Trenton last night by the score of 11 to 11.

Judging from the enthusiasm shown last night's wrestling show was a "wow." First of all we'll have to admit we missed the opening bout of the evening, won by Schroeder, but the other two were an more than enough to satisfy. To see such men as Bibber McCoy, Stanley Pinto, Sander Sabbo and Al Getzewich in a local ring was enough excitement for the week-end but the best was yet to come. This had to be about the best specimen of humanity ever seen, in our opinion.

On the other hand Getzewich is no pushover and proved it when he took Sabbo, officials and even John Fan by surprise, winning the first fall in about one second. It is safe to say that the Masked Marvel accomplished the quickest fall ever recorded in the annals of Canadian wrestling, tossing Sabbo in a little less than nothing flat for the first fall. Then the ex-Hungarian went to work to show the world just what he could do and he wasn't in the business. As in the larger circles Sabbo was the favorite with the crowd and he showed an ordinary amateur appeals in the fans.

The actions of some of crowd following the main bout was most regrettable. There was absolutely no reason why a demonstration should be staged. Getzewich and his manager are two of the finest boys one could have the privilege of meeting. The manager of the latter does have to have his share of fun occasionally and his new 'card trick' is about the best. The Marvel's manager keeps a pack of cards in his hand and display a certain card to the audience, he wants his wrestler to see. Professor Corcoran informed the press that Getzewich is matched to wrestle Jim Browning for the world's heavyweight title in Ottawa on Friday night. Sabbo has met Browning on Saturday night and Pinto, for it looks as though Belleville had a real top-notch show last night. The referees also came back again in a fortnight to mingle with Ewerts wrestlers. Tommy McClure, the referee, is well known throughout Ontario, and is a good boomer of ant-Dan tactics.

PROBABILITIES
Lower Lake Region—Fair and Cool today and most of Saturday; followed by showers in southern counties; moderate northeast winds today, shifting to southeast on Saturday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO : FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1933

TWELVE PAGES

RENOVATE MASSEY HALL
Toronto, June 23—(CP)—Massey Hall, Toronto's historic music hall is to be renovated. Plans are being drawn to bring the old building up to date. Funds will be provided by the Massey Foundation.

FARMHOUSE FIRE-TRAP FOR THREE CHILDREN

Trapped in Home After Oil Stove Explodes Three Children Burned to Death

Family Nearly Wiped Out in Tragedy Near Tilbury

HAD TO TURN BACK

Sheets of Flames Spread Quickly to Every Part of House

Tilbury, Ont., June 23.—(CP)—Trapped in their flaming frame home today when an oil stove exploded, three children of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fox were burned to death. Fox dashed into the burning home to rescue two-year-old Charles Roy, but afraid the young-ster might follow him back into the flames was unable to rescue Leonard, three; Glen, five weeks old and Reta, five.

Charles Roy was sleeping alone while the three victims were together. Fox had placed water on the oil stove to heat, when suddenly the explosion occurred. Sheets of flame spread through the room, igniting curtains and wall paper and creeping into all parts of the house. Fox rushed into the bedroom and grabbed Charles Roy to safety, and then started back. The youngster, unknowing attempted to follow his father, and Fox had to turn back to save the child.

The house, a 1½ storey frame structure, situated about six miles from Tilbury, was completely gutted in a few minutes.

Mother Is Burned

Mrs. Fox was burned about the arms, legs and face, while her husband has severe burns on the hands, face and neck. Both are suffering from shock.

Mr. Fox was unable to explain why the stove exploded as he operated it as he had always done. He wanted to heat some water to treat the ear of one child and one of the children complained.

The family came to this district about five years ago from Thorndale.

Fox conducting an apiary, but his bees, boxes and other equipment, along with an automobile, were burned.

MODEL VIRGINIA WET LAW UPON ONTARIO'S

Senator Wants Beer Included in Measure

Newcastle, Va., June 23—(AP)—Senator George W. Layman, author of the state dry law which bears his name, was on record today as favoring a Canadian plan of liquor control for Virginia to become effective "when repeal of the 18th amendment shall have become effective through ratification by two-thirds of the states."

His plan, he said, would be modeled after the Canadian system and would include beer in its provisions.

FUNNIES IN THE NEWS

San Francisco, June 22 (CP)—Because Miss Lorraine Mayes, dancer, was wearing a new golfing outfit, she was unable to get a kerchief on a bench at one of the theatres before sitting down.

She forgot her diamond engagement ring and tied to each corner of the handkerchief, and went away and left it there. That's why she offered a $30 reward for return of the handkerchief, providing the ring comes back with it.

Steubenville, O., June 22 (CP)—Death a perfect bridge hand, all spades. Mrs. Frank Feist didn't faint or scream. She very calmly bid a grand slam, recorded her opponents' challenge, and marked up a 1,600 score on the board.

Springfield, Mo., June 23 (CP)—Cave men are with us again. The heat's responsible.

To rescue some of the effects of temperatures in the high nineties, hundreds of residents of the Springfield vicinity have gone to the mountain caves for picnics.

Oklahoma City, June 22 (CP)—Evergreen Poor pleaded guilty to operating a beer parlor near the State Capitol and said "all other business had been strictly cash.

"They'll believe me," said he for credit." he said. "They have to have their names on the books."

News Flashes

Kingston, Ont., June 23 (CP) — Arthur N. Lyster, former manager of the Kingston branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was today (pond not guilty of theft and fraud by a jury at County Court. The jury deliberated for an hour and 10 minutes before returning the verdict.

This Starling Earns Niche in Hall of Fame

London, Ont., June 23 (CP) — The Starling, despised corn-digging, cherry-stealing bird, now finds an honored niche in the overcrowded hall of famke. James A. Ferdrson, Dryden, was motoring from his home to points east. He stopped for a game of golf.

Let witnesses take up the story: "He teed up at the seventh hole and drove mightily for No. 8. The ball sped through the air. It was wide of the mark when a starling that had been resting up corn in a nearby field decided it was time to go home for a rest, and collided with the ball. The ball dropped to the ground, stunned. The ball, deflected from its course, rolled on to the green and into the cup."

BEARS LATEST CROP TO BE DEALT WITH

Mother Bears with Large Families Feed on Berry Patches

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 23—(CP)—Pigs it was caterpillars—both it's bears. That's the latest crop pest that Algoma farmers have to contend with.

Reports from all parts of the district are drifting in of mother bears with large families pinching on berry patches and farm stock and anything else edible that they can get their paws on.

Although the animals do not interfere with humans they have proved destructive of produce and property; but farmers are reluctant to kill them. They have become so tame that they may be approached and prodded in the back before they will move, and so they haven't the heart to shoot at them.

FRANCE FACES TEST OF GOLD

Bank of France Says Franc Protected by Golden Hoard

Paris, June 23—(AP)—The real test of France's ability to stay on the gold standard will be about to begin, financiers said today.

Opinions is divided as to whether the franc can hold out with the United States, Britain and Switzerland experts, regardless of their public declarations, are said by responsible commentators to be fearful that France will be forced off gold if the dollar goes to francs further.

The Bank of France still maintains that only the government's failure completely to balance the budget and to economize is a point among the people, can shake the franc. The bank expresses confidence that the enormous hoard of gold is ample protection.

SENATOR PARADIS BURIED

Ottawa, June 23—(CP)—With all the rites of the Roman Catholic Church and the tributes of hundreds of friends including many leading figures in Canadian public life, the remains of the late Senator Philippi J. Paradis were laid to rest today. The funeral service was held in the Basilica.

ROOSEVELT IS PREFERRED TO CHAMBERLAIN

Laborite M.P. And Tory Join in Attack on Chancellor

COMMONS STIRRED

Price Level Problem Starts Memorable Debate

London, June 23 (AP)—Josiah C. Wedgewood, a Labor member, stirred the House of Commons today by telling Neville Chamberlain "the people of Britain would rather trust Franklin Roosevelt as Chancellor of the Exchequer than Neville Chamberlain."

Cries of "Not Not No!" from the Government benches answered the Labor member's statement.

Later Robert Boothby, a Conservative, joined in the criticism of Mr. Chamberlain.

"When Mr. Roosevelt said he was going to open fires in the world he turned he would do it," Mr. Boothby said. "But when the Chancellor said he hoped to raise prices nobody would believe he would do so by his policy."

Budget Involved

The attack on Mr. Chamberlain occurred during the final stages of the Budget debate. Mr. Boothby declared that unless Britain took definite action to raise commodity prices the present Budget could not be balanced.

He urged that the Chancellor advocate "fruitless ends in farming, forests and wastes and cut the government's expenses £100,000,000 annually."

Declaring that Britain should adopt a policy of controlled inflation, Mr. Boothby said:

"In this respect Mr. Roosevelt has seen the light, though he has shocked the City" (London's financial centre). The British government doubtless would be shocked by Mr. Roosevelt's Public Works Bill but I hope it will be continuously shocked by Mr. Roosevelt in the coming months because if a policy of controlled inflation succeeds in the United States it will spread and prove to be the salvation of Britain."

CONSPIRACY CASE ENLARGED WEEK

Toronto, June 23 (CP)— Thomas M. Break, former Manager of a branch of the Bank of Montreal here and Robert K. Hamilton were remanded a week when they appeared in court today. The two are charged with conspiring to defraud the Bank of a sum alleged to be nearly $100,000. Break was released on bail of $10,000 and Hamilton on $13,000. Both headed by counsel when they first appeared.

M. J. Butler, Former Deputy Minister of Railways, Passes

Native of Deseronto And Brother of E. J. Butler K.C. of This City

Sidney, N.S., June 23 (CP)—Matthew Joseph Butler, former Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, is dead today. Death was caused last night by complications following an attack of bronchitis. He was 76 years of age.

A native of Deseronto, Ont., he was educated at De La Salle Collegiate Institute, Toronto, and was successively assistant engineer for the Kingston and Pembroke Railway, chief engineer of the Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec Railway; superintendent of the Canadian Mining Pulp Enterprise and assistant engineer of the National Transcontinental Railway.

In 1903, he became Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, a position which he forsook in 1907 to become chairman of the board of management of the Canadian Government Railways. He assumed the general managership of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company in 1910 and held the position until 1913.

He retired a year later to take charge of the Longmeuil plant of the Armstrong-Whitworth Corporation. He retired from active work in 1918.

He was a past president of the Society of Canadian Civil Engineers. He held office also in United States and British Engineering Societies. In 1900 he was a member of the Royal Commission on Municipal Assessment and Taxation, and in 1907, a member of the Royal Commission of Forestry.

Well Known Here.

The late Mr. Butler was a brother of E. J. Butler, K.C., of this city, and had often times visited here. He was the eldest son of the late Tobias and Elizabeth Butler of Deseronto, and in that town received his earlier education. A number of years ago the degree of LL.D. was conferred on him by the University of Chicago, and at the close of the Great War he was made a Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, in recognition of the services he had rendered his Empire in connection with the production of steel and war materials. During the war Mr. Butler made six or more trips to Great Britain and France for consultation with leaders there.

Surviving immediately are two daughters, Mrs. (Dr.) J. J. Lynch of Sidney, N.S., with whom the deceased had made his home the past few months, and Mrs. Rex Dare of Paris, Ont., and a brother, Rev. S. Featherstonhaugh of Calgary, Alta., and two sisters, Mrs. E. J. Butler and George A., a civil engineer in South Africa.

The remains will arrive in Napanee Sunday afternoon and be conveyed to St. Vincent de Paul Church at Deseronto, for service there the same afternoon, burial thereafter to be made in the Deseronto Cemetery.

JUMPS THRU TRAIN WINDOW TO ESCAPE

WINDSOR, Ont., June 23.—(CP)—Police of this district have been asked by United States authorities to watch for Adelard Bonneau, Atlas Benard, native of Montreal, who escaped from Detroit House of State Troopers while being taken to Jackson Prison. Bonneau was convicted of murder and jumped through a train window while the train was travelling at high speed.

SPOOKS JUST SWEETHEARTS

People of D'Almaville Thought Them Ghosts

Ste Jeanne D'Arc D'Almaville, Que., June 23 — (CP)—The mystery of Ste. Jeanne's haunted house has been solved. Strange sounds in an empty flat attributed to ghosts by inhabitants of the village near by village have turned out to be nothing more than the results of mild escapades by a young man and his sweetheart.

The sounds came from an empty apartment in a block of flats. Wakened by footfalls and the murmur of voices near midnight, tenants of the other apartments shivered in their beds. When the story of ghosts spread through the village the older people tried to remember some crime that might have caused the disembodied spirits to return to the premises.

At last the notion of the haunted house became so widespread the police decided to take a hand. They found that the building had been unoccupied for some time until about six weeks ago and had provided a quiet spot for two lovers to spend their evenings together. Even after the tenants moved in the two stole quietly up the stairs nearly every night and chatted in the moonlight.

A few days ago, men of the village began a series of all-night visits to the building. The two lovers were kept away by all the comings and goings, the weird night sounds ceased, in the meantime the police collected more important subject for realities than ghosts, smilingly proclaimed their solution. The sweethearts are not to be disturbed by the police, provided they find another rendezvous.

SITUATION IS IMPROVED

British Prime Minister Sees Continued Progress

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
A P Staff Correspondent

London, June 23—(AP)—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald after conferring today with delegates to the World Economic Conference, was quoted as saying that the preliminary disturbing situation which recently developed has continued progress seemed assured.

The first meeting eight committees were struggling with gravel problems, but expressed hope in effort to draw up a permanent monetary standard.

Serious Consideration

High British quarters made no effort to conceal their serious concern over the continued gyrations of the American dollar, but with U.S. claiming inability to stabilize the currency, Britain has also expressed sympathy with the position of that country.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull and James M. Cox held a prolonged discussion during the morning. Mr. Cox

(Continued on page seven)

WHEAT PACT CONCLUDED BY MONDAY NEXT

Four Importing Nations Near Temporary Agreement

DEFINITE STEPS

Stabilization of Imports And Limitation of Acreage

(By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

London, June 23 (CP Cable) —Dr. Thomas A. Le Breton, chairman of the World Wheat Conference and the World Economic Commission of this afternoon that it was expected to provisionally conclude the wheat negotiations between Canada, Australia, the United States and the Argentine by Monday.

The announcement by the Argentine's chairman of the wheat conference was welcomed by World Conference delegates as promising definite steps by the four great exporting countries of the world toward agreement on limiting acreage and stabilizing exports with the object of raising the price.

France proposed a quota truce at the World-Economic Conference today which would enable countries to discuss wheat sessions against importations to keep them indefinitely.

SWINDLERS GET $30,000

Old Game of "Found" Wallet Worked on Minnesotan

Toronto, June 23—(CP)—Toronto was recently the scene of operations of an international swindle gang, through which a resident of Rochester, Minnesota, lost $30,000.

The man was taken from the rotunda of the Royal Conservatory of Music by a well-dressed Rochester railway man through a racket which has been worked in different parts of the world, on numerous occasions.

The case is under investigation by the Ontario Provincial Police at the direction of the Attorney General's Department to whom the Rochester swindle victim appealed.

According to information received by authorities the Rochester man first met the swindle gang in lower City, in the form of game of finding a wallet containing a large sum of money in a hotel dining room. The finder was approached after returning of the "found" purse to the "owner" who was a member of the gang.

Falling with Pail of Fresh Lime, Boy Feels Way to Canal to Wash Eyes

Frankford, June 22 (Special) — Wilfrid Perron, aged 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Perron of the Murray Canal, was the victim of a peculiar accident at his home late on Monday afternoon when he fell while carrying a pail of fresh lime over a road, and the lime, thrown from the pail as it struck the ground, was dashed into his face. Painfully burned, the boy was left blinded but he climbed down the sloping canal bank and, by attempted to wash his eyes. His sister, Lillian, seeing him called her parents and he was taken to the office of Dr. Parsonage of Trenton. At present he is resting quietly at home, and though both eyes are still swollen shut it is not thought that serious damage to his sight will result as the lime was in a weak form.

100,000 Railwaymen to Ask Ottawa to Intervene in Wage Cut Disputes

Second Cut For Maintenance of Way Men Starts Action

UNION OPPOSES

Shopmen's Case in Hands of Executive Committee

MONTREAL, June 23.—(CP)—Some 100,000 members comprising the combined railroad unions will ask the Dominion Government to intervene in the present wage disputes, it was learned today.

With the final polsters served on the maintenance of way men, whose membership includes all types of sections workers to the amount of about 35,000 of every type of rail workers in Canada under the new proposed cut of 10 per cent. The new 10 per cent salary reduction is the second within a year and a half, and with the first cut in production to 20 per cent, when it goes into effect the middle of July.

With conciliation the union chiefs reported in conference with the Minister of Labor at Ottawa today of Union leaders in Montreal said that they would get no where but be ineffected, but will seek government intervention along the same lines as those in force in the United States.

The clerical workers of the Canadian National Railways today told R. J. Hills, assistant to the vice-president of the company, that their cut proposal would be submitted to their Union membership. The shopmen reported that the whole question rests in the hands of their executive committee. A meeting of the latter group will be held next week, Hills, secretary of the Group said today.

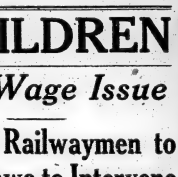
FARMHAND IS IDENTIFIED

Farmer Says He is Man He Last Saw With McLaren

Cobourg, Ont., June 23 (CP)—Charged with the murder of Fred McLaren, 70-year-old farmer, who, police state, was beaten to death on the night of May 12 with a Finnish farmhand, appeared in police court today. A charge of vagrancy was preferred against the prisoner and brought to Cobourg following a search of Toronto.

T. R. Byers, Cavan, who discovered the body of McLaren on his farm, was, first witness called. McLaren lived in a small house on his farm. He was last seen the Sad Saturday morning of January 28th, with a man known as Jack. It was to see Jake again, he testified, until he identified him as the line-up at Peterborough police station. He identified Laurila as "Jake" in the dock.

Dr. W. T. Turner, Millbrook, who was called to the scene of the crime, found the body and found McLaren dead from a blow on the head, Dr. O. Nash, Millbrook, who performed a postmortem, said death was due to concussion, indicating right or nine blows.



Provincial Constable W. J. Carey produced a large stick of wood and a small bucket, bearing bloodstains and hair. These were found at the scene of the fatality, he said, Only a few days after the murder the bed, and on the bed clothing."

It was not until 1768 that botanists discovered that some plants have male and eject portions of them as food.

AS FINAL INSPECTION AND INSTRUCTIONS WERE GIVEN BALBOA ARMADA

Gen. Italo Balbo (arrow) giving the 100 man in the crews of the 25 seroplanes of the armada bound for Chicago their final inspection and instructions at the airport at Lake Orbetello, Italy. Some of the flying boats in the expedition are seen in the background.

PRINCE IS 39

LONDON, June 23 —(AP)— The Prince of Wales varied the routine of his busy life today in celebration of his 39th birthday.

He spent the morning at his Fort Belvedere Home, and motored to York House to read hundreds of greetings from all parts of the world.

Then he visited Buckingham Palace to receive the congratulations of their majesties.

For this afternoon he planned a round of golf, with his esperry on the Eltham Kent links before proceeding to Greenwich to witness a naval pageant.

Last evening the Prince witnessed a moving picture of his own life, the exhibition of which is expected to raise at least $200,000 for charity. The prologue is delivered by , the Poet Laureate and concerns unemployment.

WEATHER

TORONTO, June 23.—(CP)— Synopsis — Pressure is high over Ontario, Quebec and the Northwest Territory, and relatively low over the Maritime Provinces, Manitoba and the greater portion of the United States.

Northern Ontario — Moderate winds; fair and cool today and Saturday.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valley—Moderate winds; fair and cool today and Saturday.

Kenora and Rainy River—Moderate to fresh easterly winds; partly cloudy, with much the same temperature; probably followed by showers.

Manitoba.—Fresh eastern winds; mostly cloudy, with much the same temperature; probably showers, chiefly in eastern and northern districts.

Alberta — Partly cloudy, with much the same temperature; probably showers over northern portion.

Coming Events

FEW COULD FORGET THE STIRRING speech of Judge Rutherford last Sunday, when he boldly denounced the evil way of escape from the dilemma that affects the world at this time. No less a thrill will be yours when you hear him on another Watch Tower national program next Sunday. His topic will be "Effect of Holy Year on Peace and Prosperity." Station WGR, Buffalo, 10 p.m. Eastern Standard time, 9 p.m. Central time, 8 p.m. Mountain time, 7 p.m. Sunday, June Twenty-fifth. 122-1t

MARBLE CLIFF PAVILION AT Crowe Lake dancing every Friday night to Dutch Turney's Commodores. 122-1t

BAY OF QUINTE COUNTRY Club dancing every Saturday night. Dancing at 9. Dutch Turney's Commodores playing. 123-2t.

EUCHRE EVERY FRIDAY EVENING at 8 o'clock, Army and Navy Veterans' Hall. Refreshments. Admission 25c.

STREET DANCE MARKET Square, Saturday, June 24, '33, under auspices of Trinity Rover Drivers Band. Monster Community Dance. Belleville and District invited to join. Jiney dancing. 50c per dance. Dancing until midnight. 122-2t

Suspect Kills Dry Agent, Fires in His Face at Moment of Arrest

Chatsworth, Ga., June 23 (CP) — Three officers of Central Iowa today combined in a vigorous search for a liquor runner suspect who killed one Federal prohibition agent and wounded another. The slayer escaped in his car.

The dead man was Harry Elliott, of Des Moines, who was shot full in the face with a shotgun as he attempted to arrest the suspect. Frank Hendrix, Chief Prohibition Agent of Spencer, special employe of the Federal Liquor Bureau. He was shot in the head, neck, and shoulders. Hospital attendants say he will recover.

City and District News

MR. FRED NEWMAN ON WAY TO ENGLAND

Mr. Fred Newman, ex-mayor of Picton, leaves that town today to sail for England, where he will represent the Ontario Chambers of Commerce at the Congress of the Federated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of the British Empire. Mr. Newman will be the only representative from Ontario attending the Congress.

WORK OF SCHOOL NOW ON DISPLAY

An exhibit of the work done during the year by the girls and boys in the Auxiliary Class at Queen Alexandra School is on display in the north window of the stationery store of Mr. Siller, who very willingly gave the use of his window until Monday or Tuesday. The articles are all hand made, the teacher being Mr. Milton Fowler. Interested citizens, members of the Board of Education as well as parents and friends of the children are invited to inspect the work.

IRON RAILINGS ARE INSTALLED

New iron railings at the side of the stage in the city hall auditorium have been completed this week to complete the work of renovating the hall. The railings have been painted brown to harmonize with the rest of the decorations, and were completely installed by employees of the waterworks department.

CYCLE MEET TO BE HELD IN KINGSTON

Several members of the local Quinte Motorcycle Club will journey to Kingston on Sunday, June 25, where they will take part in the reliability run being held by the Kingston Motorcycle Club for entrants from throughout the central district. A number of special trophies have been arranged by the Kingston club for the winners of the various competitions.

LIFE GUARD SHOULD BE APPOINTED

A local citizen, apprehensive over the fact, that many of the very small children of the city are to be found bathing off the end of Victoria Park in the deep water with the rest of the larger boys and girls, suggests that some good swimmer be retained as a life guard at stated hours each day. He points out, that already this season there have been two narrow escapes for the juveniles, in that locality. Last year the same trouble was experienced in keeping the smaller children in their own pool.

THEFT FROM CAR IS REPORTED

Mr. J. H. Rennie, Delora, reported to the police station last evening of the theft of numerous valuable articles from his parked car. The car had been parked at the upper end of Front St. and numerous articles recently purchased by Miss Kathlene Lill, Marmora, who accompanied Mr. Rennie to Belleville had been left in the car, while further shopping was being completed. The articles missing included ladies lingerie, one pair of white kid shoes, some crepe material and one pair of silk hose. The value of the stolen articles was set at $15.00. The local police are investigating.

TIRED FEET NEED RELIEF
Foot Soap
For Burning, Tired, Perspiring Feet
Foot Powder
Deodorizing and Soothing
BOTH
35c
McKeown's
Drug Store

35c FULL COURSE MEALS AT BELMONT
RESTAURANT
Special Dinners Saturday, Sunday
Save money, worry and dishwashing
DINE OUT
Special Rates for Parties

TO CLEAR
One Only
BANNER QUEBEC STYLE
RANGE
Oval fire box, polished top with reservoir and enamel high closet.
49.50
BANNER ANNEX
HEATER
18.75
Above Prices Are Cash
Terms Prices Slightly Higher
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

Preferred For DIAMONDS
SINCE 1300
Terms If Desired
Diamond Engagement Rings $18 to $180 up
Diamond Wedding Rings $15 to $50 up
ANGUS McFEE
QUALITY JEWELRY SINCE 1300
For three generations past, thousands of Bellevillians have chosen McFee's for their diamond purchases—convinced of the distinguished quality and fine value always evident in the gems selected here. Present day buyers are assured a continuance of this 70 year old policy.

You'll Get A NEW DEAL
ON ONE OF OUR RECONDITIONED And REFINISHED
USED CARS
EVERYONE CARRIES A GUARANTEE
DODGE 6 SEDAN
DODGE 4 SEDAN
ESSEX 25 COACH
ESSEX 25 COACH
ESSEX 25 COACH
CHEV. 29 SEDAN
CHEV. 31 SPEC. COUPE
PONTIAC 27 COACH
PONTIAC 32 COUPE
FORD ½ ton PICK UP
OLDS. 28 SEDAN
PONTIAC 29 Roadster
On Display at Our Garage
Get Our Reduced Prices
Your Present Car Accepted as Part Payment. Terms for the Balance.
J. B. BOYCE
350 FRONT ST. PHONE 704

Unlax at PATSY'S SANDWICH SHOP
Save Time and Money and Keep an Even Temperature in the Hot Weather
OPEN 'TILL 2 A.M.
Let's Go Down To Patsy's
NEW QUEEN'S GRILL ROOM
Dainty, Delicious Fried Cooked Right, Served Right, at Right Prices.
OPEN DAILY 7 A.M. to 9 P.M.
BRING YOUR FRIENDS

DOMINION DAY EXCURSION
COBOURG to ROCHESTER N. Y.
Saturday, July 1st.
Only $1.25 Return CHILDREN ONLY 65c
STEAMER SCHEDULE STANDARD TIME
GOING: Leave Cobourg ..... 3.00 a.m. Leave Rochester ..... 5.45 p.m. Arrive Rochester ..... 1.45 p.m. Arrive Cobourg ..... 11.30 p.m.
RETURNING
EXCELLENT ORCHESTRA FOR DANCING ON BOARD
Low prices for meals on steamer—breakfast 40c, lunch and dinner 75c each. Also Lemon Counter Service
Ample free motor parking space at steamer dock at Cobourg
PURCHASE TICKETS FROM LOCAL CANADIAN NATIONAL AGENT OR AT STEAMER
ONTARIO CAR FERRY COMPANY
COBOURG-ROCHESTER STEAMSHIP ROUTE
T-30

Last Chance For PINEAPPLES
Regular 20 Cents
Now 2 for 25c
Special Prices by Dozen or Case
FRIDAY and SATURDAY Only
S. Domenico
Cor. Front Street and Victoria Ave.
'Phone 520

BLEECKER'S DRUG STORE FOR BARGAINS
SEE OUR WINDOWS
'PHONE 11 — WE DELIVER

DIFFICULT BLAZE HANDLED BY BRIGADE

A different blaze, which was said by firemen to have started from a gasoline blow-torch being used to burn off old paint, caused damage estimated at $100 to the home of Mr. Robt. Miller, 149 College Street, late Friday morning. The fire which started on the ceiling of the verandah followed the course of the electric wiring up between the partitions, causing a sizable blaze for the brigade to fight. Some smoke damage to interior furnishings was also reported.

MARSH CATCHES FIRE FROM DUMP

Clouds of smoke rolled from the marsh near the garbage dump on the bay bridge road Friday morning as the tall reeds in the marsh, evidently ignited by sparks from the nearby burning dump discontinued to burn fiercely. Property owners of the district watched the fire with some misgivings as the wind shifted later in the morning, blowing the burning embers landward.

CANADA GEESE SEEN IN BAY

Two wild Canada geese, appearing weary from their long flight north at such a late time of the year, were reported seen in the Bay of Quinte last east of the bay bridge early last evening. The birds spent some time resting in the water during the early evening. A number of wild ducks have also been observed during the past day or so in the vicinity of Zwick's Island.

TOURISTS ESCORTED BACK TO BORDER

Smithville, Ont., June 23 (CP)—As the result of recent visits to the districts of Royal Canadian Mounted Police at least two United States citizens have been given a mounted escort escort to the border and police escort to the grounds that they reported on the grounds that they were using their motor cars for commercial purposes in Ontario while they had come into the country on tourists' permits.

WARMER WEATHER IS PROMISED

Cool east winds on Friday broke the heat wave, which has held the district in its grip for the past several days, and sent temperatures to lower marks than have been recorded, several points lower than the preceding day, and considerably lower than the three days previous. Fair to moderately warm weather is promised for Saturday.

PREPARES PLANS FOR ROOF REPAIR

City engineer Chas. A. Mott was preparing specifications today for the work of repairing the roof of the city hall. After specifications have been completed and submitted to the city council, they will be submitted to the various local contractors, who may tender on the work

CAMPAIGN OF ROAD SAFETY

Department of Highways Launches Aggressive Campaign

Again the Minister of Highways, the Hon. Leopold Macaulay, through the Motor Vehicles Branch, is inaugurating an aggressive, widespread publicity campaign in an effort to clean the tide of disaster on the streets and highways of the province.

Despite an educational program which the Highways Department have carried out over a period of years, deaths and injuries caused by motor vehicle traffic are alarmingly, unnecessarily high.

The Highways Department this year is utilizing daily and weekly newspapers, the trade press, school teachers, the radio — every available means to influence confidence. This publication bespeaks the thoughtful co-operation of every motorist and every pedestrian in the interest of safety.

SEEKS DOCKING FACILITIES HERE

S.S. Pilerin Make Belleville Regular Port of Call

Preliminary arrangements were being made today by Mr. C. H. Clarke, representing the Hamilton Steamship Lines, for the purpose of finding docking facilities at Belleville and Picton for a new, large boat which will make both points a port of call on its weekly trips between Montreal and Hamilton. Some time was spent by Mr. Clarke interviewing members of the local Harbor Commission, and others interested in making this city a weekly excursion centre. Besides the passenger boat which will be carried by the boat, cargoes of freight to and from this city and intermediate points will be carried. The boat which will be used by the company is a modern steel steamer, the S. S. Pilerin, and will be self contained for the five day cruises between Hamilton and Montreal during which time a stop-over will be made at numerous points along the St. Lawrence including Belleville and Picton

OBITUARY

MRS. FREDERICK KELLAR

This city lost another of its old residents, when Mrs. Eliza Kellar, widow of Frederick Kellar, passed away at the residence of her son, Christopher, University Ave., Thurlow, this (Friday) morning. The deceased was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Palmatier, and was born in Tyendinaga, 89 years ago. She came to Belleville as a girl, and had resided here ever since. Mrs. Kellar was a member of the United Church and was most favorably known in the community where she had so long made her home.

The near relatives remaining, to whom sympathy is extended are the son, Christopher, with whom the deceased had resided, and four daughters, Mrs. Susan Bu pit of this city; Mrs. John Duval of Thurlow, and Mrs. John J. Gould and Mrs. Allan Stapley, of Toronto.

OPTIMISM OVER OUTCOME

Winnipeg, June 23 (CP)—Optimism over the outcome of the World Economic Conference was expressed here today by Col. W. G. A. Drew, chairman of the Ontario Securities Commission. Col. Drew, who is also honorary president of the Toronto Flying Club, is flying across Canada with Great Bear Lake as his objective.

Sturdy tulips have been grown in London in complete darkness. The bulbs are subjected daily to infrared rays.

S.R. BURROWS WINS SWEEP

Many From Country Club Take Part in Play

"Sandy" Burrows was returned winner of the captain's prize in the second round of the 36 hole play at the Bay of Quinte Country club on Wednesday afternoon.

The play was largely attended that mitigated some by the storm that broke late in the afternoon play. One of the largest fields of the season entered.

The individual scores at the Country club returned were:

Name	Scores To.
Burrows, S. R.	70—80—150
Illsley, E. V.	71—72—143
McKeown, J. S.	73—73—146
Graham, R. J. E.	74—72—147
Ryan, J. B.	77—71—148
Haley, R.	75—75—151
Stobie, G. H.	80—74—154
Doyle, V.	80—76—156
Shortt, J.	84—77—161
Stafford, R. G.	85—76—161
Cleland, D. R.	88—78—166
Smith, P. N.	91—85—176
Donnan, B. C.	94—86—180
Cronk, Dr.	72 No return
Morgan, Dr.	76 "
Whyte, W. R.	76 "
Wray, J.	76 "
Graham, R. B.	76 "
Faulkner, A.	76 "
Doyle, Ted	76 "
Parker, W.	76 "
Heyworth, A. F.	76 "
Belair, W.	82 "
Parker, W. A.	82 "
Parker, E. M.	86 "
Murray, Dr.	86 "
Cook, W. (Jr.)	86 "
Stokes, H. R.	76 "
Chant, Dr.	86 "
Martin, R. H.	86 "
Weir, O. A. C.	82 "
Schryver, A.	82 "
Redden, H.	108 "

G. S. DAWKINS IS WINNER

Treasure Hunt at Belle Still Continues in Popularity

Popularity is the word for the treasure hunts that are being carried on every Thursday night at the Belle Theatre under the management of George Farmer. Another large crowd was present last night, the prizes for the evening being awarded mostly to local residents although one of them went out of town to Trenton. "Sid" Dawkins was the winner of the hope chest while the other prizes, given by the management were much appreciated by the recipients. Next week a without sectional book case will be the main prize with nine others to be won by holding the lucky ticket. The winners were:

Mrs. G. Dawkin, 6 Catherine street—Hope chest.

Mrs. Joe Imlah, Alexander street—Blanket.

Miss B. Tobe, 25 Coleman street—Kitchen clock.

Miss M. Walmsley, 11 Isabella street—Table dish.

Mrs. O. Hainsworth, Stone street—Bedroom box.

H. T. Hubbell, 277 Albert street—Silver comport.

Mrs. Burden, Trenton—Casserole.

Mrs. J. Buchanan, 22 Albert street—Bread knife.

Miss C. Mulligan, Isabella street—Glass vase.

Mrs. A. Ehler, 8 Victoria avenue —Silver pie dish.

CONTEMPLATE AN ADDITION

American Hardware Estimates Cost of Construction $50,000

Contemplated construction of a large addition to the American Hardware Corporation Company's plant on Coleman street of this city, assumed more definite shape today with the announcement of officials of the parent plant, in New Britain, Conn., U.S.A. that plans have now been completed for the head office for the estimated $50,000 addition which will be made here. Although it is believed that the work will be let by competitive tender, plans are also being made for the construction without tender if the company so decides. The plans which are now being drawn call for a two storey addition to the Coleman street plant, 200 feet by 60 feet, of the brick construction and with a tar and gravel roof.

Questioned regarding the probable date of commencement of the work, Mr. W. S. Trask, manager of the local plant, could volunteer no definite information. "It is quite certain that the work will be carried out, but no date has as so far been given by the head office," he stated.

SCIATICA

Sciatica is a form of rheumatism which affects the hip and back of the leg. The large nerves which supplies the muscles of the hip and leg with nervous energy is called the sciatic nerve. This nerves leaves the spinal column between the lower lumbar vertebrae.

In a case of sciatica this vertebrae has slipped bringing pressure upon this large nerve. The nerve due to the pressure will atrophy and the nerve impulses will be greatly diminished. This condition is very painful and unless the cause is corrected the patient is liable to lose the use of that limb. Chiropractors remove scales by removing the pressure from the impinged nerve.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
Licensed Drugless Practitioners
BELLEVILLE, Ont.
421½ Bridge St. E. Phone 1274

CLOTHING ON RIVERBANK

Kitchener, Ont., June 23.—(CP)—Discovery of a man's clothing on the banks of the Grand River near Breslau today indicated to police some unknown vagrant may have been drowned. There are no marks of identification on the clothing.

CREDIT POOL FAVORED

LONDON, June 23.—(CP Cable)—The Irish Free State today proposed to the World Economic Conference the formation of an international credit pool, which is carrying a step further the British and American proposals for cheap money and plentiful credit.

Another Big Bargain Show Tomorrow
The Weirdest Mystery Ever Filmed!
NIGHT OF TERROR
With
BELA "Dracula" LUGOSI
"ROYAL PRINCESS" DINNERWARE
FREE Monday & Tuesday
COOLED CAPITOL!
2.45 :- 7.15
Last Com. Show 8.40
2ND. FEATURE
The World Gone Mad
A tremendous drama of financial intrigue
Starring
MARY BRIAN
NEIL HAMILTON
PAT O'BRIEN
EVELYN BRENT ALSO DEVIL HORSE
CANADIAN NEWS
CHILDREN!
Be At The Matinee To-morrow at 2.45
To secure your qualifications to win the
FREE BOYS' CAMP
See Another Column!

TO-NIGHT!
'Peg o' My Heart"
—And—
CHOICE OF WEDGWOOD "RICHELIEU" DINNERWARE FOR EACH LADY!
COOLED
CAPITOL

JOAN CRAWFORD GARY COOPER
The kind of JOAN you love—Again she has found a perfect role in "Today We Live" as exquisite Joan Crawford, as you desire her, and Ardent Gary Cooper, together in a brilliant entertainment with
Robert Young
Fanchtot Tone
Lou'se Closser Hale
Belle THEATRE
Tomorrow
—PLUS—
Noble Sissle and His Orchestra
Betty Boop Melody Cartoon
Daily At 2.30 7.00 9.10
TODAY WE LIVE
LAST DAY MIRIAN HOPKINS in THE STORY OF TRUE DRAKE with Jack LaRue

ROOSEVELT PUTS FAITH IN DOMESTIC ACTION

United States Staking Its Drive for Recovery Almost Entirely on Domestic Program

Stripped of Diplomatic Sugar Coating Little Expected of Parley

WILL CO-OPERATE

London Move First Step in Program For Internal Development

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
(Copyright, 1933, by United Press)

Washington, June 23—Stripped of the diplomatic sugar coating the fact is that the Roosevelt administration expects little out of the World Economic Conference and is staking its drive for recovery almost entirely on a domestic program.

Its most sanguine expectation in regard to the London Conference is that the various nations can be persuaded to embark on parallel internal programs which would:

1. Curtail surpluses.

2. Bring expenses within revenues.

3. Develop re-employment.

This is the viewpoint which Assistant Secretary of State Raymond Moley is expected to defend when he arrives in London.

Bernard M. Baruch, unofficial advisor of the administration, an intimate of Moley and one of the powers behind the scenes here, has just completed a memorandum dealing with the economic recovery situation and its relation to the World Economic Conference which is being despatched to Moley for his use at London.

This international development is supported by Roosevelt.

He is going to Europe about July 15, but it is understood he will not go to the conference. His trip was represented as being a regular vacation trip to Campobello. If some here believe it probable that conditions in the international or domestic situation, he would find opportunity to make a statement or statesmen while abroad.

The action of Senator Couzens at a London reception in proposing a synchronized program of internal development along parallel lines in various countries is the first specific move toward carrying out the American idea.

Stabilization Statement

It is this domestic policy which explains the stabilization statement issued by the American delegation in London yesterday. In that statement, the American mission, after having pondered on its own in a series of cosmic episodes, spoke the mind of the Roosevelt administration in straight out authoritative language. The key to the American policy lies in one sentence in that statement:

"The reason why it (temporary stabilization) is considered unlikely to be reached by American Government feels that its efforts to improve on the already important contribution it can make, and that another time would interfere with there efforts and possibly cause a violent price reaction would have the conference more than the lack of self-interest in agreement for temporary stabilization."

This means just one thing—that President Roosevelt believes the surest road to recovery lies not via London but through domestic re-employment, increased buying power and a price level increased by the industrial control activities, the warm adjustment effort, reduction of government expenditures, and a vast public works program which will be covered as to interest and amortization by increased revenue.

Some persons here feel that it might be just as well if the conference were suspended temporarily. But the President believes the time to put on an internal recovery drive. For personal in the administration, after watching the London conference in action have more faith that anything can be done regarding tariffs and stabilization till time to be effective in the immediate effort to end the emergency situation, however pessimistic they might be in time for the long range welfare of all countries.

VERIGIN NOT LIKELY TO ESTABLISH RESIDENCE

Remains in Background While Completing Five Years Domicile

Winnipeg, June 23—(CP)—Temporal and spiritual lord of 16,000 Doukhobors in Canada, Peter Verigin probably will never establish domicile in Canada and become a Canadian citizen, usually authoritative sources close to the leader said here today. The source of his disability is to be found in a peculiar interpretation with certain of the sons of freedom sect of the Christian community of universal brotherhood.

Following his release by Mr. Justice H. A. Robson here from custody of the department of immigration, which tried a second time to deport him as an alien, Verigin's complete disappearance has mystified even his followers but it is believed he is remaining in the background but shall have completed five years residence in Canada.

Investigate Chief's Action

BRIG.-GEN. D. C. DRAPER

One of the principals in the Royal Commission at Toronto into the alleged misconduct of Chief Constable Herbert Dorland, sentenced to five years in penitentiary for carrying offensive weapons. In chief of Toronto police force, Brig.-Gen. D. C. Draper.

JUDGE DEPLORES EXPOSURE MADE

Finds Much That Was "Not Cricket" in Taylor Suit Evidence

Toronto, June 22. — Criticising much of the evidence that had been given in the Angy Taylor-Maple Leaf Gardens action, Mr. Justice McEwy brought the nine-day hearing to a close Thursday with the charge that a lot of things had come out of the case that were "not cricket."

A hush spread over the courtroom when His Lordship, speaking quietly but with emphasis, delivered his brief but pungent address at the close of the nine-day hearing. Conie Smythe, the man regarded as being more responsible than any other for the building up of the Maple Leaf hockey team, sat with downcast head, his eyes riveted on the table in front of him, as Mr. Justice McEwy scored the facts that had emerged from the flood of evidence.

"I am going to take some time to consider this case," His Lordship said as counsel for Taylor sat down after making his final plea. "This is a case of more than usual importance outside of the fact that a large sum of money is involved as well as people's reputations because of the many things that have emerged from it.

"I could not help but think of the oft-repeated remark of a celebrated Englishman that the battle of Waterloo was won on the field of amateur sport," His Lordship continued. "Many other battles have been won on the strength of character built up on the amateur field of sport. It is a very valuable asset to a country to have its sport conducted in a high-minded fashion. This has been in my mind often during this trial."

His Lordship paused. The noise of a passing street car was the only sound to break the heavy silence that had spread over the crowded courtroom.

"We have heard a lot of things that are not cricket," Mr. Justice McEvoy continued.

MYSTERY OF MAN SOLVED

Decomposed Body of Strathroy Man Found in Barn by Tramps

Strathroy, Ont., June 3— (CP)— The year-old mystery surrounding the disappearance of Dwyth Carr, 24-year-old baker of this town, was abruptly solved last night with the finding of a badly decomposed body in a barn on the 10th concession of Caradoo Township, which was shortly afterwards identified as that of the missing man. The discovery was made by two transients who had gone into the barn about 10 o'clock to sleep.

Identification was made possible through a receipt for dues paid by Carr to the local Orange Lodge, while the clothing the man wore was also identified by two brothers of the missing man. Carr, single, disappeared on June 8, 1932, and since that time not a single trace of him had been found. Coroner Dr. Burdon, of this town, said that death had been due to heart trouble from which the young man suffered at the time of his disappearance.

Orange Grand Lodge Endorses Policy Laid Out

ROOSEVELT IS LAUDED BY HON. MEIGHEN

Addresses Hydro Municipal Electrical Association at Windsor

500 PRESENT

Praises Industrial Control Act And Other Measures Passed

Windsor, June 23—More than 500 delegates to the joint convention of the Ontario Municipal Electrical Association and the Association of Municipal Electrical Utilities registered Thursday and then adjourned to local golf courses after hearing Senator Arthur Meighen, member of the Hydro Radial Commission, deliver a stirring address on ideas advanced by the Conservative Continental Federation and other organizations advocating abolition of the capitalistic system.

In addition to Mr. Meighen, C. Alfred Maguire and Hon. J. L. Cooke, Chairman of the Commission; F. A. Gaby, Chief Engineer; T. S. Luck, K.C.; S. K. Cheney of the Electrical Department; R. O. Jeffers, Chief Accountant; Messrs. and Wills McLachlan, chairman of the Commission, and others were introduced as an indictment of the policies of that organization.

Mr. Meighen lauded President Roosevelt in the course he is displaying in dealing with a serious situation in the United States. He admitted Roosevelt was making changes in the present system, but they must not be accomplished at the expense of basic principles. He avoided fighting issues by saying he did not think it would be proper for him at the present time to deal with especially controversial or especially political discussion."

"The President of the United States has taken power or control over industry never before known," he said. "His Industrial Control Act provides for the interests of the workers as well as the interests of capital. It may be made to provide for the wages of labor. If the rules he sets are adopted by the board he has appointed they will become the law of industry, and those who violate it will be penalized. It is a revolutionary step, a bold and daring step, and one which must be respected by those who recognize the changes in conditions.

Alone Lines Followed by U.S.

"Unemployment is not a permanent situation. All we can say to those who are unemployed is be patient. We can say to them that they must take their unemployment as a temporary misfortune. We have to find relief, and we are trying to find it somewhat along the lines of action taken by the President of the United States. We are trying to find it along lines where that country has scored its success. It is not that the government is properly within its rights in that; it is a matter of system, its school system, are vastly better than before no one can deny, but where it failed is that its farms, its stores and its factories can not be operated at an intelligent enthusiast say that it has met with success."

"What is advanced today is that we must get away from what is called capitalism; we must get into a sphere and live upon a principle where the individual will work and toil and think no longer for himself, but that his contribution will go into some common pot out of which all will share alike; that the penalty of indolence will fall no longer upon him who is guilty of it, but will be distributed among the industrious the forward people of our race, and will share the rewards and all will share the penalties.

No Perfection

"We cannot reach in this world, in any case, perfection, whether of law or justice; the most we can do is to approximate and adjust our rules and our laws to meet the changing circumstances of the days in which we live.

"When in our taxation system," said Mr. Meighen, "we place a heavier percentage on those who have larger incomes, that is an instance of mandating the swift runner for the long race. When in our social laws we compel support for those who have failed, through misfortune or fault, to earn their relative living, by these laws we handicap the forward, energetic one for the benefit of him who may be behind.

"Private enterprise must be controlled and regulated; perhaps it must be reformed; but with all the force that words can give to truth I tell you it cannot be destroyed," Mr. Meighen concluded.

LEAVES BOAT IS DROWNED

Canoe Upset And Boy in Excitement Tries to Make Shore

North Bay, Ont., June 23—(CP)—Grappling operations were resumed at daybreak today in the hope of finding the body of Paul Trudel, 14, student at Scollard Hall, who was lost his life yesterday when a canoe overturned here.

Trudel accompanied by Rev. Father Brunck of the school and a student named Iobbs, were about to go in swimming. All three were in bathing suits and all could handle themselves in water. Suddenly their canoe tipped.

The priest called to the boys to stay close to the canoe until help arrived. But Trudel apparently became excited and began to swim to shore. He sank, came up twice and again went down. A boat from shore rescued Father Brunck and Iobbs.

LINDBERGH REPORTED TO HAVE SOLD HOME

In Future Will Be Used as a School for Girls

New York, June 23 (CP)—The New York American says Col. Charles A. Lindbergh is reported to have disposed of his country home in the Sourland country of Hopewell, N.J. The property is said to have been decided to a school for girls.

It was from this big house on a lonely hilltop that little Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., was stolen by kidnappers within sight of the mansion the child's body was found weeks later.

From time to time there have been reports that the Lindberghs would dispose of the house, which is so intimately linked with one of the most tragic and mysterious crimes in history.

BRITISH AMATEUR

Hoylake, England, June 23—(CP) Cable)—Results of the quarter-final matches in the British Amateur Golf Championship today and the draw for this afternoon's semi-finals were as follows:

Hon. Michael Scott of Sandwick defeated M. Schunck of Sandiway 2 and 1.

George T. Dunlap, New York, defeated E. H. Hardman, Ilkirsdale, 5 and 4.

Cyril Tolley, Eastbourne, defeated H. L. Holden, Bowdon, 2 up.

T. A. Bourn, Sunningdale, defeated Douglas Grant, Sandwich 1 up. Semi-finals:

Scott v. Dunlap.

Tolley v. Bourn.

Who's to Pay Cost of Riot Trials? Frontenac County Council Won't

Kingston, Ont., June 23—(CP)— If the county of Frontenac is paying any share of the fee for Col. Hackey's legal services as crown prosecutor in the trial of convicts charged with rioting here, the County Council will be told that they are disbarred with immediately. Decision to take this step was arrived upon unanimously by the council in session here today.

In order to ascertain whether or not the county is paying any part of the fees, the council sent a telegram to Attorney General W. H. Price. Council claims that on the ground that convicts are undefended by counsel and the County Judge could bring out all evidence produced by the Crown, the services of a prosecutor are unnecessary.

BRITISH WARSHIP PAYS VISIT TO CANADA

A thoroughly modern, full-size treaty cruiser, His Majesty's Ship Norfolk, cruised into Montreal harbor this afternoon (June 20) and berthed herself without the aid of tugs. Aboard was Vice-Admiral the Hon. R. A. R. Plunkett-Ernle-Erle-Drax, C.B., D.S.O., commander of the America and West Indies squadron. The ship will remain in port for ten days. Much interest was shown in her berthing operation, hundreds of Montrealers lining Laurier pier against which the ship came to her moorings unassisted. Probably the largest ship ever to enter the harbor, Norfolk is certainly the most powerful. Tugs stood by, but no hawsers were run out to them. While still 200 yards off shore the Norfolk let down a boat with a shore crew aboard, eight pairs of oars took the men in white uniforms to the Montreal City wharf. They were ready and waiting for the first lines as Norfolk drew alongside to pull herself in with her own winches.

WIRELESS MAY HAVE BEEN WORD ABOUT JIMMY MATTERN

Signals S.O.S. And Aeroplane Heard Faintly by Two Operators

Seattle, Wash., June 23—(CP)— Powerful wireless stations of the North Pacific coast have been alert for an explanation of a mysterious call in which the signals for "SOS" and "aeroplane" were heard yesterday afternoon.

With Jimmy Mattern, missing round-the-world flire sought off the Siberian coast, the almost unintelligible message, sent in Russian, lent hope that it might bring word about him. It was heard here by Ed Stevens, amateur operator, and by naval wireless operator at Brewerton, who was off duty.

Stevens said it apparently was sent from some Russian ship. He distinguished the call letters RMAZ, but with whom he said, the sender was trying to communicate, Station RMAZ is at Vladivostok.

The naval operator, however, who heard the message in his home set, is sounded as though it came from RMAZ or RMAP, another Siberian station far further north up the coast.

Both agreed the signals were so faint and the static so bad they could not identify the Russian language. The both distinguished the words "aeroplane" and "SOS."

Mattern is now missing the ninth day since he took off from Khabarovsk, Siberia, a week ago last Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time), for Nome, Alaska, 2,500 miles away.

Orangemen Score Use of French Language on Air Outside Quebec Province

Bilingualism Protested on Publication And Currency

MEET IN HALIFAX

Return to Maritimes After Lapse of Thirty Years

REGINA, June 23.—(CP)—After a lapse of 30 years, the Grand Orange Lodge of British America will hold its next annual meeting in Halifax, N.S., with J. Starr Thi, of Saint John, N.B., presiding. The last grand lodge session held in the Maritime City was in 1903.

The 1934 Conference City was chosen by ballot last night and was followed by the election of Mr. Thi as Grand Master, and S. Adrian of Regina, as Deputy Grand Master. L. H. Reid, of Toronto, was elected Secretary and R. Hardy-Small, Toronto, Grand Treasurer. Rev. A. E. Smart of Portsmouth, Ont., was re-elected Grand Chaplain.

Other officers are: W. J. Patterson, Hamilton, Grand Lecturer; H. C. Shipman, Ottawa, Grand Marshal; S. A. Moffat, East York Ont., Ont., Deputy Grand Secretary; Roy M. Lavery, Palgrave, Ont. Deputy Grand Treasurer. The auditors are James Mayor, Toronto, and H. Hammond, Regina.

The election of officers brought the 1933 session to a close. One of the last items of business was the adoption of the report of the Grand Committee urging the passing of resolutions, taken during the past year. In the report, the Canadian Radio Commission is scored for the use of French language in its broadcasting outside the province of Quebec. Members of the Association are urged to protest to Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister of Canada, and all members of parliament against this policy of the Radio Commission.

Bilingualism was also protested in government publications and on currency. The Grand Council protested against a resolution, submitted at the last session of parliament, which would have permitted the use of French language on currency. The thanks of the Association were extended to F. W. Turnbull, M.P., of Regina for his efforts in the Commons protesting the resolution.

Today, the 600 members of the Grand Lodge association who attended the annual meeting of the Black Chapter of British America and the Grand Lodge sessions were homeward bound by train and automobile; to every province in the Dominion. The final session of the Loyal Orange Benevolent Association, the Women's Branch, will be held today.

HON. MRS. SMITH LEFT ONLY $330

Vancouver, June 23—Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, former British Columbia cabinet minister, the first woman in the British Empire to hold such a position and much of whose work is written into social legislation, left an estate with a gross estate of only $630, it is revealed by an application in Supreme Court today. The net is $330. Mrs. Smith died on May 3.

A Chinese jade carving exhibited in the 1933 session of the Royal Academy of Arts in London, only 16 inches high carved out of a single piece of jade and representing 16 years of continuous work.

The production of potatoes in Canada in 1933 amounted to 29,410,000 cwt. the Canadian Yield recorded since 1918.

On March 31, 1933, there were in Canada 1,880,000 head of cattle as compared with 21,835,000 cwt. at the same date last year.

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT

By Special Correspondent

WOOLER HALF GAME OFF TOP

Defeat Montrose Dairy 11-5 in Well Played Game

Trenton, June 23 (Special)—The Wooler Leafs climbed to within a half game of the league leading Riverside Dairy when they defeated the Montrose Dairy softballers by 11-5 last night. With the exception of the first inning it was a good game. Thompson started in the box for the dairymen, but was relieved after he had walked three batters in the first stanza, by Brett, who continued till the fourth when Westfall took over the pitching duties. The Leafs scored eight runs in the opening frame. Whitney, the Wooler first baseman drove out the only homer in the second. The dairymen staged a belated rally in the last inning when Brett walked batters. The Woolerites made a nice double when Waldron hit to Redcliffe at short, who threw to Whitney to Rutan, catching the runner between, at second. Bell's fielding for the dairymen saved many long hits from going damage. The line up Montrose Dairy—Wells, ss; Bowden, 3rd; Dawson, 2nd; Waldron, lf; Heaney, lst; Kennedy, c; Larmon, cf; Bell, rf; Thompson, Brett, Westpall, p; Fernis, rf.

Wooler—C. C. Rutan, 3rd; Reid, lf; O. F. Rutan, c; Redcliffe, ss; C. A. Ruttan, 2nd; Whitney, 1st; Delacey, rf; O. C. Rutan, Pulman, cf; Free, p.

Score by innings:

Montrose ... ...010 000 3— 4
Wooler. ... ...311 010 x—11

Summary—Wooler 10; Montrose 9. Errors, Wooler 4; Montrose. 2. Struck out—by Brett, 1; by Westfall 2; by Free 3. Walks—off Thompson 3; off Brett 3; off Westfall 3; off Free 2. Home run, Whitney. Umpires, plate, E. Bowler; bases, Lewis.

Shoes Used as a School for Vacation Wear

COOL AND COMFORTABLE

Nothing quite so popular for Summer wear as Sandals ! . . and why not? They're just the thing for beach or garden. Be completely smart with Summer Prints or grey Linens. Made of the Linen or mercerized fabrics in White and Natural shades or with sweet colored inserts to match a frock. Leather or crepe rubber soles, low or Cuban heels. ! ! made to fit and give comfort ! ! ; Agnew-Surpass is justly proud of these unusual values.

3 FEATURE GROUPS

$1.49 $1.79 $1.98

COMPLETE SIZES

Do Your Feet Bother You?

SEE DR. SCHOLL'S

Personal Representative from London at our store

FRIDAY, JUNE 30

AGNEW-SURPASS SHOE STORES LIMITED

252 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

Robert Young, Fauchtai Toar and Joan Crawford in "Today We Live" at the Belle Theatre Saturday

In Sumatra, the Batak dentist does his work in the open market with the patients lying flat on his back; filed teeth are though to be a thing of beauty and with a saw, mallet, some files and a chisel, the dentist does the job for a few cents per tooth.

It has been estimated that there were between 50 and 75 million head of buffalo in the world in primitive times.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.

F. B. MORTON, Publisher

SIDELIGHTS
GRAVE and GAY

CONTROLS

Some fear is expressed that the great army of speculators who were caught in the crash of 1929 and newcomers are showing manifestation of the same spirit which was one of the causes of the 1929 debacle. The Star-Phoenix of Saskatoon, says it is foolish to say that boom extravagance cannot happen again along with a crash and claims that it sees the evidences at the present moment in flourishing prices on the stock markets, and adds: "If the recovery from the depression is to be accompanied by an uncontrolled wave of reckless speculation, it will not last long, for speculation unsettles business, plays hob with prices, makes production and development subordinate to the making of money by exchanging pieces of paper and diverts money and attention and constructive thought away from the channels of legitimate productive business. The controls must be prepared."

It would seem that like as much as many would to see a boom, such is not to be witnessed for some time, because much constructive work remains to be done first. An immense amount of labor is to go into the work of rehabilitation of millions of men into the active ranks of the unemployed. The Star-Phoenix is undoubtedly correct in its view that the market cannot run things alone. And it is not for the economic and financial situation, doubtless, has its innate controls which will prevent a headlong rush into speculation.

BURIAL IN HOMELAND

Calixa Lavallee, who gave to Canada the music of "O Canada," as a setting for the words written by Routhier is to be laid to rest in Canada. Lavallee left Canada in secure recognition of his musical gifts, but his native land is to be his sepulchre.

National anthems have a peculiarity which is lacking in most other compositions, they always partake of a composite character, or they are of the type of folk songs. Many of the national anthems in the past. But Franee saw her national anthem born in the days of the French Revolution, and there is no denying the fact that the French spirit of equality and brotherhood which "La Marseillaise" celebrates is still a characteristic of the Gallic people. Old Russia had one of the most glorious of national songs, while monarchical Austria's anthem was a prayer for "Francis the Emperor."

National songs require not only a composer of words but also a composer of music. For both the lasting and the widely expressed national sentiment is the achievement of only great songs. All national anthems must be sung.

Here is another thought connected with this story of Lavallee. One of Canada's best poets, if not the greatest of them, Bliss Carman, lived many years an expatriate, he died in the United States but to be buried in Canada. This country has not yet the breadth of culture to encourage and keep such men as these, so that they may without financial worry carry on their art callings in Canada.

STORMS

Madoc and Centre Hastings will be beginning to think that there is some especial attraction of the district for electrical storms for within a few days two disastrous disturbances in nature have swept the village and the surrounding county.

Wednesday's storm left a trail of unprecedented havoc as a result of a terrific blow accompanied by a lashing hail which stripped the trees of buds and foliage.

Study of electrical storms offers a very fine field of effort for science to discover why (if it is true) the course of these disturbances is closely related to the area in which they occur.

THE CATS AND ROBINS

The season has already arrived when Pussy Cat should be restrained in her night wanderings, not so much for the cat's sake but for the sake of the fledgling robins which are on the lawns and have not yet gained sufficient control of their wings and of the principles of aviation as to be able to fly to safety.

With the number of cats at-large it is a wonder that any pair of robins manage to rear their offspring until they are able to fly. Cats to attack the nests and cats prowling about in the grass—is it not strange if any robins of tender age survive the cat racket?

The casualties among the young birds must be immense. Locked-up cats could not do the damage they now do.

Money is a bottomless sea, in which honor, conscience and truth may be drowned.—Koslay.

The man with but one idea in his head, is sure to exaggerate that to top-heaviness and thus he loses his equilibrium.—Hill.

I never knew a man who could not bear the misfortunes of another perfectly like a Christian.—Pope.

Who hath not known ill-fortune, never knew himself, or his own virtue.—Mallet.

A PRAYER

Teach me, Father, how to go
Softly as the grasses grow;
Hush my soul to meet the shock
Of the wild world as a rock;
But my spirit, propt with power,
Make as simple as a flower.
Let the dry heart fill its cup,
Like a poppy looking up;
Like a poppy looking down,
When the heart is filled with dew
And its life begins anew.

Teach me, Father, how to be Kind and patient as a tree.
Joyfully the crickets croon
Under shady oak at noon;
Beetle, on his mission bent,
Tarries in that cooling tent.
Let me, also, cheer a spot,
Hidden from the hottest gol—
Place where passing souls can rest
On the way and be their best.

—Edwin Markham.

x x x x

NORTHERN ONTARIO has produced much gold, and will produce much more. It also has absorbed much gold in one way or another, gold of investors seeking sudden fortune by the purchase of mining shares. Tales are told in the north of pianos being toted in over bush trails to mining camps, also of hardwood floors laid with all kinds of geegaws being laboriously dragged in over indifferent trails in order to give some mine manager more than the ordinary comforts he ever had at home. Of course, these are the exceptions to the rule, but when headquarters get across the use to which gold has been sometimes. The most profitable and most efficient of all overseas investments centred in the Hudson Bay Company operations. That Company of gentlemen adventurers who were given a kingdom by the King and converted it into a treasure-house. Here was efficiency plus, every Hudson Bay factor or clerk felt bound by the tradition of the company to account carefully for every penny he and to conduct the business just as economically as if it was just barely paying expenses. The record of the Hudson Bay Company in efficiency, loyalty of employees and economical administration, free from all taint of graft or dishonesty, has never been equalled in the history of the world. And nowhere else was there greater opportunity for dishonesty, laziness and disloyalty.—And it was a loyalty even unto death, if need be of the employee, and supreme indifference of the death of a possible competitor. To try and compete against the Imperial Hudson Bay Company was to indeed to court death, if not sudden then prolonged in the torture of "La Long Traverse."

x x x x

1300 WOODCHUCKS died because they were a nuisance and caused damage to crops, and because the members of the Women's Institute of Eldorado, a short distance from Belleville, thought out a scheme to remove the woodchucks in the shortest possible time. A bounty of 10 cent for every woodchuck tail brought in was offered the children of the district, and the result was a grand total of one thousand three hundred woodchucks. An other bounty of one cent per pair was offered for crows' legs, and five hundred crows joined the lost cause. Looks like there has been some good hunting by the juveniles of Eldorado district and a general bad time for woodchucks and crows.

x x x x

LIGHTNING, THUNDER AND HAIL have featured terrific storms which visited various parts of Ontario recently, but Belleville just gets the rain with the spectacular and damaging thunder left out. The city seems to enjoy special protection from the Storm King for which due acknowledgment should be made of our sincere gratitude. In the meantime touch wood.

x x x x

They were "sitting-out" at a dance, and for two minutes he had sat gazing at her without uttering a word.

"Obviously," she thought, "he wants to kiss me, but is too shy. I'll give him a lead."

So she murmured: "I believe I can read your thoughts."

"Then why don't you use your powder puff," he said. "I think nothing makes a woman look more unattractive than a shiny nose."

x x x x

I rang up Lady H.—— and asked her if she would mind telling me how she would be dressed at the Centenary Ball. "Not at all," she replied cheerfully. —Gossip Note.

Of course, it is not a fashion that would suit everybody.

x x x x

"Under the economic system now existing no country can prosper in isolation."—Prince of Wales.

FORGETTING IS SCIENTIFIC IMPOSSIBILITY

Subconscious Mind Has Record of Every Experience

(By Louis E. Bisch, M.D., Ph. D. Famous Authority on Health and Psychology).

(Copyright 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Scientifically speaking, there is no such thing as forgetting. Although we may not consciously be able to recall an idea or experience, it is recorded in the subconscious mind just the same.

Whether this be true of all thoughts is perhaps, open to question. It is believed that in all cases where an emotion, desire or instinct is joined with an idea, that idea may actually be wiped out of the mind, so to speak, as time goes on. Hence, however, but few ideas are without some sort of emotional content the exception to the rule of forgetting is merely to prove its validity.

Conscious mind and unconscious mind are, of course, figurative terms, the former being the real most layer of the unconscious, the part of the mind which comes into direct contact with the world outside.

One may also look upon the conscious mind as a kind of "clearing house." Ideas, after a brief hesitation, all mental experiences pass on their way to be stored up in the unconscious. And when we sleep, the conscious mind practically ceases to exist. Proof that the unconscious is still working is to be found in the fact that we dream.

Most thoughts are submerged into the unconscious, to make room for further conscious thinking. Sometimes, however, we deliberately try to push an idea out of the way. This is known as conscious "repression." It is by means of repression that we protect ourselves from worrisome thinking or from ideas that in any way are disagreeable or unpleasant.

When the brain is examined under the microscope it is seen to be composed of an outer layer, a half inch in thickness, and an inch in thickness, which looks grey while the rest the inside is white. Color is due to the cells of the nerves, which are closely packed in the outer layer of the brain are concerned with special functions in. Some of the cells are in the front part of the brain are the centres for reasoning; on the left side of the brain are visual memory is taken care of by brain cells in the back of the head etc.

Since we never really forget. It helps us to fill our unconscious mind with constructive ideas which may be drawn upon in the future, especially when we are depressed. It is also a great asset in times of stress and strain to be able to recall experiences which turned out well. In other words, concentrate always upon those and upsetting occurrences and don't overstress unfortunate ones.

For, although we do not forget anything, it is much easier to recall to consciousness ideas that originally we made important in conscious thinking. Learn to remember

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

Eggs are extremely nutritious but they do not contain sugars and starches. One egg contains amounts to over 73 per cent. Of protein there is 13.4 per cent and of fat 10.5 per cent. The fuel value is rated by cooking white egg yolk has a fuel value almost 3 times that of the white of the egg. One or two eggs might well be eaten daily.

The achievement of producing welded steel pipe is one of the important developments in welding research.

NINE YEARS OF INDIGESTION AGONY ENDED in 2 short months

"For the past 9 years I have been practically incapacitated with the suffering from indigestion. I underwent a serious operation which was not successful and that failed to relieve me in patient at various hospitals four times. Two months ago I decided to give your powder a trial. I obtained instant relief and am able to eat and enjoy food."

Madame Brand Stomach Powder is made to the famous formula of a noted London, England, Stomach Specialist. English hospitals use this formula with marked success for bad stomachs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Acidity, Flatulence and Heartburn.

This powder has never been in Canada before. At your druggist's. Be sure to get the genuine Madame Brand Stomach Powder with the signature, "Ale. C. Blackett," on each sold loose. Only in plainly marked, hand) size bottles. Or, powder or tablets. Sole Canadian distributors, Rigo Agencies, Toronto.

PLEA MADE IN CANADIAN SENA TE TO HONOR CAPT. BERNIER

Recently honored by a special blessing by the pope, Captain Joseph Elzear Bernier, noted Arctic explorer, had a plea made in his behalf in the Canadian Senate in recognition of his services. The proposal was promptly endorsed by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, government leader, who said that Canada owed Captain Bernier far more than he had been paid. No other man had anything like his experiences in the Arctic and he had always been actuated by strong patriotic motives. Senator Raoul Dandurand, Liberal leader, thought the matter might be suggested and conferred on Captain Bernier which would indicate the greatness of his explorations in the Arctic. Captain Bernier, shown above at top right, is well over 80 and retired. His home is at Levis, Que. At top left is shown "late" C.G.S. Arctic archive ed to date for Baffin Bay. At lower left is shown Captain Bernier going up in barrel in the boatswain's chair to direct course of ship through the ice. Lower right shows the famous captain from a photograph made aboard the deck of the Arctic on her last voyage before she was discommissioned.

LOOKING BACKWARD
GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO
June 23, 1913

Mayor Wallis threw the first ball at the opening of the baseball season. The first game was between teams representing Ward 1 and Ontario and the Steel Company. The result was victory for the team of the Steel Company with a score of 10 to 6. The following players composed the teams: Steel Company—Mc-Whalen, Gillespie, Bryant, McClure, Symons, Scott; Philip, Ketcher, H. Whalen and F. Grover. Ontarios—Connolly, Mills, Grover, Smith, E. Geyer, Nurse, Hogan, Newton, Doran. Mr. Robert Golding acted as umpire in an impartial manner.

Chief of Police John Newton left today to attend the annual meeting of the Chief Constables' Association at Halifax, N.S.

Mr E Guss Porter, M.P., and Mayor F. W. Wallis will go to Ottawa tomorrow to interview the Railway Commission in matters pertaining to the welfare of the city.

Mr. Thos. Ritchie will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' sojourn at Salmon Lake.

30 YEARS AGO
JUNE 23, 1903

Mr. S. Howard of Buffalo, N. Y., is in the city and is the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Haight.

The various rural companies of the 49th Regiment arrived in the city this morning and left this afternoon for the annual camp at Barriefield, near Kingston. The regiment was full strength and was accompanied by a band.

The strawberry shortcake season is growing short—would that it lasted longer.

Mayor Graham, ex-Mayor J W Johnson and Col. Ponton, the delegates appointed by the Belleville Board of Trade to attend the Congress of Chambers of Commerce of the Empire which is to be held at Montreal in August, will submit some important resolutions at the meeting.

Mrs. Hon. R B Robbin of Winnipeg, Mrs. Masters George and Charlie Robbin and Miss Gertrude Mowat left yesterday per steamer Alexandria for Montreal.

40 YEARS AGO
JUNE 23, 1893

Fall grain never looked better than at present.

Mr. James Ray, brewer, is supplying the Kingston military camp with ale.

Lee Chu, who conducted a laundry here, is now in China. He will leave shortly for Canada and will establish a silk factory in Belleville.

The city clerk received today a handsomely bound copy of the consolidated bylaws of the city of London which was presented by Deputy Clerk C. A. Kingston, formerly of Belleville.

Miss Minnie Lodge, T.O.O.F., decorated the graves of their deceased brethren this afternoon. About seventy-five lodgemen went up on the boat and during the day it is estimated that three hundred citizens visited the cemetery.

Canton Belleville No. 8 has entered for the prize drill at Oswego.

The Madoc A.O.U.W. will run an excursion to Belleville and the Carrying Place next week.

50 YEARS AGO
JUNE 23, 1883.

Mr. H. M. Buchanan has been awarded the first diploma given at Albert College for ornamental penmanship.

The members of the police force have donned their new summer uniforms.

Mr. Thos. Ritchie has left for the Old Country on business.

A resident of this city is engaged in working on a bicycle which is intended for the use of ladies solely. If he succeeds in perfecting the machine he will have it patented.

Bishop Carman will preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Madoc on Sunday next.

Philip Robbin an old and highly respected resident of Ameliasburg is seriously ill.

Mr. W. J. Bolger will close his book and shoe store in Manor Monday and will move the stock to Belleville.

The condition of Mr. Baltis Rose, who is seriously ill, remains about the same.

LOWEST GRADIENT OVER THE ROCKIES

Montreal, June 23—The lowest gradient over the Rocky Mountains is through the Yellowhead Pass, where on the westward journey, a maximum gradient of less than 40 feet to the 100 ft. has to be surmounted by trains of the Canadian National Railways. The height of land in the Pass is but 2,717 feet above sea level, notwithstanding that the line passes close to the base of Mount Robson, 12,972 feet in height, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies.

Some of the smaller stars are so compressed says Sir James Jeans, British astronomer, that a ton of their matter could be put in a pint bowl.

WEST EXPECTS A HEAVY RAIN
Believe Good Soaking Will Prevent Hatching of Grasshoppers

Winnipeg, June 23 (CP)—The sky was overcast on the prairies today by Western Canada farmers believe the clouds have a silver lining. Before nightfall there may be heavy rains to replenish sub-soil moisture sucked up by last week's heat wave. The weather man's forecast promised showers in many localities throughout the western provinces, with fresh winds and not much change in temperature. The weather has been only moderately warm during the early part of the week, and heavy rains fell in most parts of Alberta yesterday. If the prediction visits Saskatchewan and Manitoba today, the farmer may be doubly thankful—rain prevents grasshoppers hatching. Grain growers have been waging a weary battle against the pests ever since last week's sunshine brought them out in hordes.

Ghosts Just Ordinary Folk Declare Police

Ste. Jeanne d'Arc d'Almaville, Que., June 23—Even the troublesome ghosts of this village are a mystery no longer, although their identity, although their skepticism is not shared by some of the villagers. After an inquiry lasting two days police officers are satisfied the strange noises, heard in a supposedly vacant flat were caused by certain living people who had an interest in keeping their activities secret.

Pending further investigation, however, the police refuse to disclose more about the results of their investigations. Unusual things have been taking place, they admit, but them nothing to do with ghosts have nothing to do with them.

Residents of the village became alarmed at the noises coming from the flat. It sounded as if a man next door was beating his wife, and the man seemed to strike the wooden floor with something that sounded like a stick and was heard. The flat is on the second floor of a two storey wooden house and was supposed to be vacant for a long time.

Within the past two months three tenants have moved into the flat, only to leave it because, said it was they who heard the weird sounds.

It is possible that persons who were the cause resorted to the empty flat only at night and did not desire the presence of the new tenants. With the spread of the ghost story, however, they would change their habits and this may account for the fact that in two months they have moved 23,000 square feet of floor-ing.

Portugal has marked six tuna fish and released them in the hope of getting information as to the migratory habits of the tuna.

Thieves broke into an empty warehouse at Adelaide. There was no loot, but in their haste they moved 23,000 square feet of floor-ing.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK
By R. J. Scott

GRAB BAG

What are the indefinite articles used in the English language?

Who wrote "When We were Very Young?"

What liquid is used on the back of plate glass to make mirrors?

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day have natures that are motherly, domestic soft, kind and true.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. "A" and "an".

2. Alan Alexander Milne.

3. Mercury.

Correctly Speaking—

Use the comma to set off words, phrase, or clauses which have a parenthetic function, but for which parentheses marks or double dashes are not suitable.

Words of Wisdom

Every man has by the law of nature a right to such a waste portion of the earth as is necessary for his subsistence.—More.—Utopia".

HOLD PLANKS UNTIL SAVED

Leap From Burning Launch Seven Miles Out in Lake Ontario

Toronto, June 23—Two men leaped desperately into icy lake waters on Wednesday evening when the 36-foot runabout Iamoch, Doris II, burst into flames while under way off the Eastern Gap.

They were less than an hour they clung helplessly to wooden planks, chilled to the point of numbness by their awful ordeal, until the welcome roar of the speedy lifesavers' launches heralded their rescue by the water to their ears.

Stepping ashore on the lake at a steady 40-mile-an-hour rate, Second Officer Dewey Robinson and Seaman Jack Hooper reached their side and pulled them aboard.

The boat, ablaze from end to end was beyond hope. Late last evening after the fire had dropped the Doris II. sank beneath the choppy surface of the lake.

The two rescued were William Griffiths, of 2431 Queen Street west, owner of the boat, and a companion, Al. Smith of Parkdale.

After being given tea, and an hour in bed at the Main lifesaving station, they felt normal and were taken home in a taxicab.

"THE WORLD GONE MAD" AND "A NIGHT OF TERROR" AT CAPITOL THEATRE

Tonight "Pop O' My Heart" closes its three-day run at the Capitol Theatre and tonight is also Selection Gift Night at the Wedgwood "Richelieu" Dinnerware set, when ladies can choose their gift.

Saturday another bargain show will be offering at the Capitol Theatre, with "Night of Terror," "The World Gone Mad," "The Devil Horse" and News will be shown.

The much chilled spines of cinema fans will be subjected to more cold waves, it is predicted, with the showing of "Night of Terror," which opens at the Capitol Theatre Saturday.

Willard Mack, famous stage impresario, in framing the original plot for the picture left nothing to be desired in the way of thrills and excitement. There are several gruesome murders, a maniac at large, a gruesome face whose dreaded appearance means certain death, a sinister Hindu servant, and a man buried alive, all of whom are involved in a drama that is said to set a new peak of cinema shocks.

Bela Lugosi, whose name is synonymous with his famous characterization of the internationally known "Dracula," a role he created on the stage and screen, appears as the Hindu servant, a part that he says he has dreamed of all the men-permits him to exhibit all the mental acting and mysterious qualities at his command.

Sally Blane furnishes not only her blonde loveliness but a delightful romance with Wallace Ford who is cast as a breezy young reporter.

An excellent supporting cast includes Tully Marshall, famous veteran of the screen; Gertude Michael, who prominently cast in Chevalier's "A Sedtime Story," and Bryant Washburn, well-known leading man of Hollywood's silent era, who makes a successful return to the screen in this mystery drama.

The World Gone Mad

Waving money in front of the public has exactly the same effect as waving a red flag in front of a bull—both the public and the bull go mad. Mad with the self same madness—a frenzied helter-skelter running around, with no definite objective, simply a mad desire to get at the cause of their insanity.

Not many months back the big bankers and presidents of investment trusts set out to prove to the great American public that with very little effort each man, woman and child could escape the blight of poverty for the rest of their lives. The beast of putting two cars in every garage and six or seven chickens in every pot was so alluringly set by these financial wizards that it was hard to resist the temptation of every dollar into ten and ten in a hundred. As a consequence the whole world went mad . . . money mad.

In "The World Gone Mad" coming tomorrow to the Capitol Theatre the story of corrupt stock manipulations that fooled the public and eventually threw the world into chaos, is cleverly analyzed. The whys and wherefores of pyramiding stocks, watering bonds and bilking the public in general is the basic theme of this new film, which has for its featured players Pat O'Brien, Evelyn Brent, Neil Hamilton, Mary Brian and Phillis Calhern. It was directed by Christy Cabanne and produced by Phil Goldstone.

Children's Chance

Parents are asked by Manager Holmes to send their children along to the matinee Saturday to secure the stub of the admission ticket thereby qualifying for the grand prize of a free right-of-way to the Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp. Complete particulars of the contest will be found on page two of this paper.

Monday and Tuesday will be "Royal Princess" Dinnerware Gift Days when the second piece of this beautiful set will be given away.

Charles Dickens' first book was "Sketches by Boz" and was published before his marriage in 1836; a few days before that event announcement was made of the publication on the first part of the Pickwick Papers.

MAN PICKS ON WRONG ONE TO FLIRT WITH

Chicago, June 23—(CP)— The accomplice against Guy Thomas, 38, was that he attempted to flirt with the wife of a detective sleuth.

Presumably he didn't know she was Mrs. Hay Hayes, formerly of the police force.

She slapped him, she testified in Police Judge Fred Lindheimer's court, when he continued to annoy her after she applied a knockout punch to his jaw.

To add to Thomas' troubles the court fined him $100 and sent him to jail upon failure to pay.

PREPARED TO RUSH PRESIDENT TO ENGLAND

Possibility of Roosevelt Being at the Economic Conference

New York, June 23 (AP)—The cruiser Indianapolis was prepared to rush President Roosevelt to London aboard the new cruiser Indianapolis if Prof. Raymond Moley, now en route to the World Economic Conference, sends a radio call for the President.

The new cruiser, which has a speed of 35 miles an hour, is in harbor at Provincetown. The Daily News said its officers and men were discussing "the prospect or picking the President up at Eastport, Me., on June 30, after he winds up his sailing vacation to Campo Bello, N.B., and taking him on board in the record-breaking time of four days."

FREE Y.M.C.A. BOYS CAMP PRIZE OF CAPITOL CONTEST

Manager Holmes is anxious to seek out some deserving boy of the city of Belleville, who by his own merits can win the free right-of-way to the forthcoming Y.M.C.A. Boy's Camp to be held at Metro from JJuly 5th to 19th.

All that is necessary to be eligible to secure this worthwhile prize is to write an essay of not more than 100 words on "Why I Like the Capitol Theatre."

To judge from the exhuberance of the some thousand children who visit the Capitol Theatre every week-end this should not prove a very hard task!

RULES OF CONTEST

1. Entrants to be between the ages of 10 and 15.

2. Entrants can be either boy or girl.

3. Should a girl be the winner she may have choice of naming a boy for the free camp or receiving the cash equivalent.

4. Each essay must have the stub matinee this coming Saturday attached. Make sure the stub is obtained from the ticket taker this Saturday. These stubs are obtainable on Saturday afternoon only.

5. All essays must be received by Mr. Holmes at the Capitol Theatre not later than Saturday, July 1st, June 29, 1933.

6. The prominent Belleville Citizens will act as adjudicators.

7. No member of the Capitol Theatre staff's families are allowed to enter.

8. Neatness, correct spelling, grammar and originality will be taken into consideration.

9. Print your name age and address on the top left hand corner of your essay.

10. The judges decision must be accepted as final and binding.

11. The result of the contest will be announced at the matinee at the Capitol Theatre, Saturday, July 1st.

12. Children! Get Busy!

EAST HASTINGS W. I. CONVENES

Plainfield—The district meeting of the institute was held in the church with a good attendance on Wednesday. Dinner was served in the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCreey and Garth and Mrs. F. Creeper and Margery spent a couple of days last week visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Maude Hubel spent the week end with her mother Mrs. M. Hubel. Mrs. H. McFarlane is visiting her niece Mrs. S. Parks.

Mrs. W. Denny is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. Moynes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hall and Phyllis spent Sunday with relatives in Belleville.

Mrs. M. Thompson visited Mrs. Jas. Mitchell on Sunday.

Mr. T. Brown and daughter from the west have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Parks.

Miss Ruth Parks is home from Whitby Ladies College.

Mrs. J. O. Latta is visiting her son Mr. N. Latta Dartford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodfellow and children visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Goodfellow on Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Lloyd spent the two hour on Tuesday evening with Miss A. Hamilton.

Mrs. Parks has returned home after spending the past week with her sister Mrs. B. Lodbond.

Misses Laura and Velma Arkills spent the week end with their sister Mrs. H. Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Tripp visited Mrs. E. J. Fargey and Miss Gillespie one day last week.

Mr. M. Hubel and Miss Maude visited Mr. and Mrs. D. Hubel on Sunday.

ROSLIN SKATING CLUB HOUSE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Roslin, June 23—There was a large attendance at the rink on Monday evening.

A very interesting game of softball was played on the local diamond on Monday evening between the married and single men, the score was 17-16 in favor of the latter. Monday night's game will be the last game in which the boys will be allowed to play.

Mr. Russell Hall, of Lake, acted as umpire.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitla and daughter Miss Whitla are visiting Dr. Whitla and family.

Mr. Hall Thompson who has been a patient in the Belleville hospital for the past few weeks returned to his home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw spent a few days during the past week in Toronto attending the L.O.L.O.B.A. celebrations held on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and family of Tweed visited Mr. and Mrs. Ross Thompson and family on Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. McFarland of Tweed is visiting relatives here and at Plainfield for a few days.

Mrs. Joyce and Mrs. Aylsworth attended the Conservative garden party which was held at Marsh's on the fourth of Thurber on Tuesday evening.

The damage was reported from the severe storm which passed over the district late Wednesday afternoon.

Roslin, June 23—The annual meeting of the Roslin Farmers' Women's Institute was held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday afternoon June 21st.

The meeting was opened at 11 a.m. with the President, Mrs. J. Carlaw presiding. All joined in singing "O Canada" followed by the Lord's prayer in Unison and the Institute Ode was sung.

The Roll Call showed representatives from each of the branches in the district. The Secretary gave the report of the last annual meeting and the financial report for the year. The President spoke briefly thanking the ladies who assisted her with her work for the year. She also thanked those who try to work for some worthy object. The report of the work that has been accomplished through the efforts of the Queens W.I. in connection with the cemetery in Shannonville.

The Secretaries of the various branches gave their reports.

The following officers were elected for the coming year. President, Mrs. J. A. Gaudon; 1st. Vice President, Mrs. Gilbey (Melrose); 2nd. Vice President, Mrs. W. Harrison (Latta); Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. W. D. Thompson. The convention was brought to a close by singing, "The Maple Leaf Forever," a delicious dinner in the hall at which forty ladies were present.

The afternoon session was opened with singing "God Save the King."

Mrs. Holmes Beatty gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Gilbey responded. A duet by two ladies from Tweedsmuir Branch.

Miss Dora A. Patterson, Provincial Superintendent of Women's Institutes, addressed the ladies on the fair, giving a great deal of helpful information. She spoke and asked the branches to make use of the new paper "The Home and Country" a copy of which has already been sent to the Institutes. At the conclusion of her address a vote was given by a lady of thanks.

Miss Kitchen of Walbridge, accepted as a member and also spoke briefly.

The next speaker was the Agricultural representative, Mr. Joseph Wilson of Stirling. Mr. Wilson gave a report of the work carried on by his department which included school fairs, and which held in Ontario last year. Eleven in this county.

The government grants have been changed for the better for school fairs, and each school section will be responsible for their section.

Junior farmers organizations. Testing cows for T.B., ticks and information on sheep and swine.

Information on when and how to dehorn cattle.

Testing samples of milk in order to show up poor cows.

Mr. Wilson also spoke on other matters of interest to the rural part of the communities of his address which was very interesting and helpful.

Rev. F. J. Stuart gave two solos, Mrs. William Beatty, Latta, was appointed to represent the district on Provincial Council.

Miss Annie Hamilton and Mrs. Ida Beatty were appointed auditors for the coming year.

A vote of thanks was then gave a collection of talk in her usual pleasing manner, concluding as her subject "Let Your Light so Shine," before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

Mrs. Beatty spoke of the coaching classes and said she was so glad that the department was able to continue these for the girls even though expenditure had been cut in other departments.

Miss Jones spoke briefly on the subject of Ninth Control and offered to go to any branch and give them a talk on this subject if they desired it.

Mrs. Sandercock of Quinte, gave a delightful reading.

Mr. Putman explained the work of the Federated Board and also mentioned a number of new bulletins which are available for free distribution.

Mrs. Garbutt thanked the Plainfield branch for their kind hospitality.

Miss Wilson on behalf of Roslin branch extended an invitation to the district to hold their next meeting at Roslin. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

SEVERE ELECTRIC STORM AT TWEED

Tweed, June 23—Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Leche left on Monday on a motor trip to Saint John, N.B. Dr. Leche will attend a medical convention while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Foster of Kingston are visiting relatives in Thurlow.

With a view to improving the softball diamond at Memorial Park the east has been removed from the field. The playrts themselves, with the aid of a grader and the approval of the Parks Board did the work and hope to have the best softball field in the district.

Wilson (Bud) Sills, young son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sills, was taken to Belleville hospital on Saturday where he was operated on. His condition is critical.

Dr. Fred Alexander of Arden is spending a few days in town with relatives.

The household effects of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin were moved to Petrolea by motor transport on Wednesday.

Miss M. Hammett, B.A., left on Friday for a visit to Vancouver.

A severe electrical storm visited Tweed and district on Wednesday about 4:30 p.m. The heaviest downpour of rain, almost tropical in its intensity, that has been experienced in some time, fell. The storm was accompanied by hail, the pellets of ice being of sufficient size to damage the crops to some extent and to crack some panes of glass. No damage from lightning has been reported. The storm sewers were taxed to their utmost to carry away the torrents of water that rushed down the streets.

The Sunday school room of Tweed United Church has been redecorated. The walls have been sponged in two colors, producing a very pleasing effect. The work was done by Mr. Carmen Kleinsteuber. On Wednesday the women of the congregation met and house-cleaned the entire basement of the church.

Mr. Alfred L. Connor of Madoc is in charge of the service station owned by Rev. Merritt Price of Actinolite and located at the junction of highways 7 and 37.

A number from Tweed including Mrs. A. C. Blakely, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Mrs. M. Morton, Mr. Ed. Way, Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis attended the funeral of the late Elisha Maynes at Thomasburg on Wednesday.

POINT ANNE PERSONAL NOTES

Point Anne, June 23—Miss Mildred Campbell spent the week-end in Toronto visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Dundoo, Waterloo, spent the week-end visiting the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bonter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Chase, son Wain and daughter Marion and Mr. J. French of Conseeon spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacDonald.

Mrs. W. Dundoo, Springfield, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. R. Hawks and daughter of Gananoque, Ont., spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Cunningham, and Miss Morden of Belleville spent Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson and Mrs. A. Wilson and son Dean of Belleville spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hull of Windsor Ont., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Derry of Belleville, spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Del McConnell.

Mrs. C. McEwan and Mrs. Abbott spent Tuesday at Desoronto the guests of Mr. C. Storr.

Miss Barbara MacDonald is confined to her home with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. MacDonald and daughter Miss Keitha spent a week-end in Trenton guest of Mr. and Mrs. Reid.

NEWS AGENTS LOSE ACTION

Sun Life Assurance Company Awarded 3000 Pounds

London, June 23—(CP Cable) — A special jury in King's Bench division today found in favor of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada and awarded the company damages of £1,000 in its action against W. H. Smith and Sons, well-known news agents. The case was based on distribution of a periodical containing material found illegal.

The finding was of widespread importance as adding to the English libel laws the fact that a distributor who does not constantly scrutinize the publications distributed, is nevertheless liable if any such matter is found libellous.

The Sun Life took action against the firm, one of the largest news agencies in the world, because it distributed an issue of "City Magnet-week", a London financial publication, which contained an article attacking the Sun Life, along with a poster referring to the article. The Assurance Company has already been awarded judgment against the publishers.

Cattleman Finds Bull is One to be Afraid of Midland, Texas, June 23 (CP) — Charles A. McClintic, Midland cattleman, pointed out his corral to visitors and remarked: "Some of my cowpunchers are afraid of that bull in there." A few minutes later an ambulance was called to take McClintic to a hospital. He had ventured into the corral on a horse. The horse was gored and McClintic was bruised and cut.

Moonless month is the name popularly given to a month in which no full moon occurs.

Here's today's answer to the stocking problem

*New improved LUX cuts down runs 75%...

This easy modern method keeps stockings new-looking, snug-fitting . . . reduces runs by 75%, according to actual tests. Prove it yourself! Lux your stockings after each wearing . . . see how Lux preserves their colour and fit . . . cuts down stocking bills!

Lux your stockings after every wearing! It takes just two minutes . . . the new, faster Lux diamonds dissolve so quickly, even in lukewarm water. You'll find your stockings looking new, fitting snug, after dozens of washings! You'll cut down those ruinous stocking bills, too!

Ankle skirts protected grandma . . . but you must meet this problem created by the silk stockings era!

Silk stockings are fascinating only when they're flawless, snug-fitting. The question is: How to keep legs smart, attractive, without ruinous stocking bills?

Science says: preserve their elasticity, and silk stockings will wear longer. Runs start—stockings get baggy, when the live, supple quality of the silk thread is destroyed.

The trouble all starts in the washbowl! Because using ordinary coarse flakes containing harsh alkalis, or rubbing with cake-soaps, destroys the precious elasticity . . . makes disastrous runs inevitable!

Here's the solution: Use only LUX. Lux is made specially to preserve stocking e-l-a-s-t-i-c-i-t-y. Actual tests have proved that washing stockings every night in Lux suds reduces runs by 75%!

To make the rich abundant suds you like—just ask for the new big economical package. It now contains 20 per cent more Lux!

Now 8 times finer . . . but still the same safe, gentle LUX

Ask for the new big ECONOMICAL package

Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto. Soapmakers by Appointment to their Excellencies the Governor-General and the Countess of Bessborough

It all started in the washbowl—

RUNS..RUNS..RUNS

See thought she would "economize" . . . use just any soap for her stockings. Now look at them—and almost cried!

Ordinary flakes containing harmful alkali or cake-soap rubbing destroy the s-e-e-t-h that makes stockings fit and wear. The lifeless silk thread sags—causing unsightly wrinkles. And the first little strain starts a run!

Don't let wrong washing ruin your stockings. Use only Lux. For Lux saves stocking elasticity, prevents needless runs.

LUX stockings regularly . . . it costs so little now!

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

Mrs. P. Flagler and Mrs. J. Fitzgerald, Jr., have returned from Cleveland, Ohio, when they attended the Ladies' Auxiliary Convention. They also visited at Toledo and Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Robinson, Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in the city, yesterday by motor. Rev. J. P. Wilson who has been spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Robinson, returned with them.

Mrs. William Oliphant, Holloway Street, and daughter Mrs. Hugh Ferguson of Montreal, have returned home after spending the past week at Pontiac, Mich.

Mrs. J. Sangster and Mr. Andrew Sangster are sailing for Europe on the Canadian Australia from Montreal, today.

Miss Betty Burgess of Pontiac, Mich., is spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Oliphant, Holloway street.

Brigadier-General W. W. P. Eliott, Commandant of the Royal Military College, Kingston, with Mrs. Eliott were the guests of Mr. and Vallière Elkins, is sailing for England from Montreal on the Australia, on Friday morning.

Mr. Richard Post of the O.S.D. who underwent an operation at the Belleville General Hospital, yesterday, is progressing favourably.

Mrs. Houston, Mrs. Holgate and Mrs. Flynn were the delegates sent at the Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club, yesterday afternoon. The remainder of the winning rink were Mrs. Warnsdott, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Bertram and Mrs. Mallette (skip).

Miss Mary LeSage, Tweed, left on Monday for Montreal, from whence she will sail to England. Miss LeSage will spend the next two months touring the continent.

At a delightful banquet meeting of the Women's Institute, the officers for the ensuing year were installed, a delicious supper was served and greatly enjoyed by the guests. Mrs. Welsh, outgoing as Grand Installing Officer assisted by Mrs. Wm. Parry as Grand Guide. The following officers were installed:— Past Regent—Mrs. W. J. Collin; Senior Regent—Mrs. Holland; Junior Regent—Mrs. Wil. Liam McGinnis; Chaplain—Mrs. Gill; Recorder—Mrs. E. Brown; Treasurer—Mrs. C. Lloyd; Financial Miss Alice Gill; Guides—Miss Frances Scott, Mrs. Chapman; Sentinel—Mrs. St. Louis, Argue — Mrs. J. Connell.

A large number from St. John's Mission mourned the Rev. Mr. Hurley last evening and thoroughly enjoyed the various items on musical and given in behalf of the choir and Boy Scouts. One surely had to decide that the island can produce delicious berries for flavour and quality. The ladies excel in the cream and cake making. The fish pond did a thriving business and was most carefully managed by Miss Vanderwater assisted by Miss Doris Wallbridge. The home made candy was soon sold out and Miss Marion Hall made a capable conveyer of

WOMEN GIVE STAUNCH AID TO CHURCHES

Thousands of Dollars Raised by U. S. Organizations

The staunch support of women's organizations to church activities and church finances was clearly shown by the reports of the fifty associations represented at the first convention of women's associations and Ladies' Aid Societies of this Presbytery of the United Church, which met at Tabernacle United Church yesterday.

Thousands of dollars had been raised for church purposes by the three thousand women who comprise the membership. In the questionnaire reports each branch gave its total membership, annual raises and how expended.

Quilting bazaars, teas, chicken suppers, ices, parties were all among the means of raising sums of money which were used for the church expenses. Some branches paid interest on building mortgages, all assisted in the purchase, upkeep, repair and decoration to churches, and when there was a balance it was turned over to the Board of Management. In fact, the Ladies' Aid was the principal support of the congregation, and without its assistance the church would have had to close.

Musical Numbers

These reports were submitted during the morning and afternoon sessions. Musical entertainment included community singing by Miss Audra Brickman, Rednersville with Miss Leona Riggs as accompanist. Mrs. J. S. McMullen contributed a vocal solo, "Sunshine and Rain" Sparling a duet and Miss Leona Riggs a vocal solo.

One of the most interesting numbers of the morning program was an address by Mrs. G. D. Mullin of Rednersville, "Our Society from the Viewpoint of the Minister's Wife" in which she gave in a frank and humorous manner praise and criticism of Ladies' Aid Societies. That such organizations had done wonderful work in church was an accepted fact. In most charges the Ladies' Aid was really the backbone of the church and the Board of Management was a little inclined to depend too much on the efforts of the women.

Mrs. Mullin then proceeded to suggest a number of ways in which the Ladies' Aid might be improved and her plea was for more attention to the conditions of country parsonages, to which the majority of Ladies' Aid workers were most indifferent. A parsonage committee of the Ladies' Aid was advocated and in buying articles for the parsonage, Mrs. Mullin counselled them not to spend their money on articles too cheap, for "parsonage furnishings must last a long, long time."

"I think it would be a good idea if two ladies spent a few days at the parsonage and experienced for themselves some of the interesting lessons of a country parsonage", said Mrs. Mullin.

A reception committee to welcome a new minister and his wife to a new charge gives the newcomers a pleasant sense of friendship.

"Too many women say 'I wonder if will like the new minister's wife'. They never say 'I wonder if she will like us'", overlooking the fact that the minister's wife comes into a totally strange neighborhood, breaking up pleasant associations in another neighborhood, and did you ever stop to think that when you say of your former minister 'I'm glad he's gone' that you might be the kind of person whose neighbours wish you'd move?"

The main thing, concluded the speaker, is "Co-operation between Ladies' Aid members, between the Ladies' Aid, the Church Board and the Minister."

Greetings from Lennox and Addington convention which has met for nine years to the new convention were also expressed by Mrs. J. N. Osborne, Convention President.

her department. The boys seemed to be well trained in Scout duties and helped everywhere. The program which followed was a very delightful one indeed. The Misses Jennie Redner, Florence Baird and Bernice Arbuckle from Bellville, assisted with songs and readings. All recognized the unity in that communion service and prayer and thanks were extended by Rev. Gerald Graham to the parents and friends from other appointments who by their presence contributed in making the boys' first efforts a success.

Mrs. Earl Perry of Wilton, gave in an interesting manner a review of ten years of Lennox and Addington convention activities. The first convention was held in the Wilton United Church Oct. 16, 1923, with Rev. S. F. Dixon as organizer. At present there are 34 societies with a membership of 1,025 raising approximately $19,000 yearly.

Interesting questions are discussed at each meeting, each society with a problem bring a written notice of it and hand it in to the secretary. Presidents remain in office for two years, the first vice president then taking the Presidency. Memorial services are held for deceased members.

Mrs. Perry had many suggestions gained from the experience at conventions from her county.

In discussing the problems of church and home the speaker stressed the need of women banding themselves together against vice.

"The task is great," she said, "but not too great for those who are prepared to serve. Every one of you in this your first convention, I hope you will go back to your societies with a real vision."

Mrs. Ford the Women's Association of the Tabernacle Church were hostesses at luncheon. There were fifty present and a delicious menu was served in the church parlors. The tables were prettily decorated with garden flowers.

Mrs. Ford Anderson was chairman for the afternoon and after community singing and devotional period by Mrs. Jas. Ames, Mrs. James Radford and Mrs. Kelley reports of the societies were continued.

Mrs. E. Ward of Picton gave a helpful paper on "Music at the Monthly Meeting" which was greatly appreciated by the delegates.

Rev. Sidford E. Dixon, organizer of the convention, was then called and after bringing greetings from the convention among all church societies. One society might appeal another society might be individual members of the congregation but there should be no competition as between church societies. He expressed that hope that the year would be one of advancement and that the next convention would show great progress had been made.

Rev. Mr. Fletcher announced the winner of the silken prize in St. Andrew's, Marmora, with 844 miles, a woman of Elzar Quest's points, and the gift of Mrs. Dixon, was presented by Rev. Mr. Dixon, Bancroft, whose delegates came sixty-seven miles to attend convention, received a prize from the convention, as did Wellington.

Camillion will be place of meeting next year. The proposed constitution was unanimously adopted and courtesy resolutions were passed.

The following officers were elected:

Honorary President—Rev. I. B. Naylor, Tabernacle Church, Belleville; President— Mrs. J. A. Lott; Frankford, R. R. No. 1 or Mrs. H. Elliot, Thomasburg.

The splendid convention closed on the spiritual note as Mrs. Chas Bishop in a review of the Oxford Group Movement in Belleville told the great force that had come into the lives of many citizens. In this movement, she said, was to lift one's life to the higher level, to surrender one's heart to Him, who was the inspiration, the assurance, the warrant and the seal of all men's efforts in church activities.

The Group Movement had stirred many cities, had stirred Belleville when a Toronto group had come here a few months ago. Contact with three visitors and the subsequent confession of sin quickly had a great influence in many lives.

Their message was not new, theirs was not a new religion. It was a call to a deeper spiritual life and stressed a quality of life. Mrs. Bishop recounted the life stories told by four Toronto members at the end of the great change that had come to them.

The Oxford Group Movement required of its members three things, honesty, purity, unselfishness, and absolute love; it asked that restitution be made as far as possible; that members share the new impulse that came into their lives and that they adopt two way prayer.

"That you may have abundant life, surrender your heart completely to Him."

A brief prayer then closed one of the most successful conventions held in Belleville and delegates whose homes were one hundred miles apart chatted with their fellow delegates before leaving for home, greatly inspired by the convention session.

MELVILLE

THE SONG THE MOWER SINGS

Up from the meadow, where butter-cups blend
Their gold with the pink of the clover sweet,
Where from dew dawn to day's dusky end,
The voice of birds make music sweet.

Is borne a sound on the summer breeze,
A sound with the summer day in tune,
Above the rustle of restless trees
'Tis the mower's song in the month of June.

Oh! sweet is the song that the mower sings,
Of meadows bright through the mist of years,
And memories dear to the heart it brings
Of childhood days and its hopes and fears.

But sweetest its song of the harvest time,
When the Father redeems His promise true,
And the soul grows calm in a faith sublime
And trusts in God's changeless love anew.

—Helen B. Anderson.

A SUMMER DAY

A whispering wind the meadow grasses stirred,
A fleeting fragrance wafted on the air,
The leafy branches 'gainst the blue dome showing,
Oh! what can match with a summer day compare?

A drowsy note from nests all snugly hidden,
The quail's weird call across the meadow land—
All nature seems to bow in benediction
With love's sweet symbols seen on every hand.

—Helen B. Anderson

The rain that fell on Wednesday was much appreciated by farmers in this locality.

Mrs. Ernest Carlson, Reg. N. of Belleville Hospital, is spending a few days with Mrs. (Rev.) R. A. McRae at the parsonage.

Miss Catherine MacKinnon of Lucknow, Ontario, who has taught Melville school for the past two years, has resigned, and has accepted the school of S. S. No. 6, Hallowell. Miss MacKinnon's many friends wish her continued success in her chosen profession.

Miss Elsie McConnell, Waupoos, has returned home after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Grant Valeau.

Mrs. Morley Wood and children, Hillier, are spending a few days with Mrs. Fred Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown of Toronto and their guest, Mrs. (Rev.) Smith of Montreal, spent the week-end at their cottage, Consecon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lancelot Daven of Colpoys, spent Wednesday at the Daven cottage, South Lakeside, and were ten hour guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Daven, Wellington.

Mr. Gerald Ferguson, secretary-treasurer of Melville public has received over one hundred written applications from teachers to respond to advertisements in a Toronto paper. A number of teachers have also applied personally.

Mr. Walter Durling, Toronto, is spending a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Clifford McPaul and Mr. McPaul.

Mrs. Lydia Carr, Picton, is the guest of her sister and brothers at the Kinnear homestead.

Mrs Lena Webb accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Sykes, Consecon, and Mr. Ross Burris of Hillier on a motor trip to Lake of Bays Muskoka.

Mr. Merritt Adams and Mr. Fulford have been disposing of strawberries this week-end. The dry weather has been very harmful to the crop.

The many friends here of Mr. Herbert Zufelt will regret to hear of serious illness in a Toronto hospital and hope to see his speedy recovery.

The members of Melville W.M.S. were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. A. Root on Thursday afternoon.

Those attending the W.M.S. sectional meeting at Elmbrook last Friday included Mrs. Albert Daven, Mrs. Ch. Cruickshank, Miss Lida Weeks, Mrs. W. H. Anderson and Mrs. Gilpin Cruickshank.

LOSES LIFE IN RESCUE

Three Rivers, Que., June 23—(CP)—Claude Leamy, 18, lost his life in an attempt to aid Rodrigue Bellerose in saving two young girls from drowning. Trudeau with difficulty was able to keep the girls, Ursula Charbonneau and Marthe Hamel afloat until a rescuer arrived in a boat.

Mary Kocsis of Lorain, Ohio, swallowed a pin in 1930, An X-ray examination failed to reveal it. It has now emerged from her big toe Crests and mottoes are technically battle aymbols and war cries.

Your New Skin

White, Fresh, Smooth

Wipe away those Blackheads & Ugly Skin Scales

Try This Specialist's Recipe

Latest discoveries now make it easy for any woman to quickly purify, soften and whiten her skin—no matter how coarse, rough and discolored it may be. This new Crème Tokalon, White Colour (non-greasy) is tonic, astringent and whitening. It penetrates instantly. Thus, irritated surfaces are soothed and skin pores are tightened. Blackheads are dissolved and drawn away. Wrinkles of fatigue vanish. The drear skin is freshened. An oily skin no longer shines or looks greasy.

When used regularly every morning, this new Crème Tokalon (White Colour) is guaranteed to give amazing new skin freshness and beauty, such as can be obtained in no other way.

Tokalon for sale at Drug and Dept. Stores. NEW REDUCED PRICES—Rose Skinfood 50c, White Skinfood 50c, Vanishing Cream 50c, Face Powder 50c.

FREE: By arrangement with the manufacturers, we have hundreds of this marvelous new skin beauty treatment, including the new Tokalon Skinfood creams (one for the evening, white for the day) and Face Powder, also trial packets of Tokalon "Bleuet de France" Skin Tonic, Cleansing Cream and Astringent Powder (one application of each). Address: Agent for Eastern Canada: H. K. Mindell & Co. (Dept. K-1127), Hamilton, Ont.

TROPHIES ARE NOW ON DISPLAY

The trophies which will be awarded to the winners of the Y.M.C.A. Across the Bay Swim have arrived in the city and will be on display in the window of the McFee Jewelry Store along with the R. J. E. Graham shield which bears the names of the winners of last year's races.

The cup for the senior winner, who by the way has to swim across the bay and back, is being donated by the Rotary Club. The junior prize is donated by the Kinsmen Club, the Ladies by the Y's Men's Club and the juvenile by the City Council and the Youngest Swimmer, cup by Stephen Lester Limited and the Y.M.C.A. This year's trophies are products of William Rogers Silverware Co. and carry suitable engraving with a reservation for the name of the winner of the event for which the trophy is given.

As in the case of previous races, the trophies become the outright property of the winners.

MRS. F. McCABE GUEST OF HONOR

Salem, June 22—Several ladies of the Salem W.M.S. attended the Belleville W.M.S. meeting at Shannonville on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hagerman took ten with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hanna on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Sherman Bellerville were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carsley Hagerman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Roblin attended the shower at the home of Mr. Albert Johnson, Lake, given in honor of their daughter, Mrs. F. McCabe (nee Emma Rose) who was married on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sills, San Diego, California, were recent visitors to their summer home at Head Lake after spending several days with the former's brother, Mr. Jas. Sills and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanna attended the funeral of the latter's cousin, Mrs. McCurdy, Wes Huntingdon, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reid and family also Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keene, Roslin, were tea hour guests on Sunday at Mr. Dan Hagerman's.

A fine baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parnell on Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Hagerman and Bernice spent Sunday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sherman, Melrose.

"MUSIC" SUBJECT OF ADDRESS TO MISSION CIRCLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Hero of Maiden Mission Circle of Tabernacle Church was held Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Fred Massey Street. The President presided, opening the meeting with hymn 313, "The Church's One Foundation" followed by prayer and the Lord's Prayer in unison.

After the usual business and secretarial reports a discussion on plans for an outdoor July-August meeting followed until it was decided to hold a gingham tea the second week in July and dispense with the usual July meeting.

The Watch Tower conducted by Marjorie Hatchett included hymn 342 "Angels, Guard us and Korea and was followed with hymn "Yield not to Temptation."

Dorothea Newson had charge of the devotional period her subject being "Music". The Scripture Lesson, Psalm 98, was read by Marjorie Hatchett. Miss Newson dealt with her subject in a short paper in which she spoke of the wonderful use of music in our worship.

Mrs. Dougherty gave a concise report of the Presbyterial held in Trenton earlier in the season. A solo "Watch While I Sleep" sung by Mrs. Jean Cornell in her usual pleasing manner was heartily appreciated. A new member was enrolled and the meeting proper closed with the singing of hymn "Blessed Be The Tie" followed by the Benediction.

A contest on musical terms was conducted and dainty refreshments served by Miss Newson's committee during the social half hour.

Another EAGLE BRAND Prize Winner!

"YOUR Eagle Brand milk is a wonderful food for babies", writes Mrs. F. J. Hellyer, 96 Cedar St., Brockville, Ontario. "I have 7 children and have brought six of them up on your milk. The seventh is 2 months old, and we have just started him on Eagle Brand, and I am sure from my past experience that he will do well. "I am sending you a photograph of one of our little girls, who is now aged 4 years. When she was 8 months old she won first prize at the Brockville Fair for the healthiest baby in her class, and I attribute her health today to Eagle Brand and confidently recommend it to any mother."

If you are unable to nurse your own baby, follow the advice of hundreds of thousands of mothers and try Eagle Brand. The coupon below will bring you full informative literature.

Eagle Brand CONDENSED Milk

The Borden Co. Limited,
Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont.
Please send me new edition of "Baby's Welfare," containing feeding schedule, pictures and histories of Eagle Brand's cons.

Name .....

Address .....

Town .....

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleaning. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Well soiled and stained summer finery here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
182 Front St. Phone 72
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go.
Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth its cost.
Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.

J. O. R. McCURDY

PHONE 518 314 FRONT ST.

For Baby's Bath

More than that of any other member of the family, baby's tender, delicate skin needs the greatest care and attention. The soft soothing oils in Baby's Own Soap make it specially suitable for babies, and its clinging fragrance reminds one of the roses of France which help to inspire it.

"The best for you and Baby too" 10-33

Mid-Summer Furniture Sale OPENS SATURDAY JUNE 24th

WE HAVE ASSEMBLED THE GREATEST BEDDING VALUES IN YEARS
THE LARGEST SHIPMENT OF BEDDING EVER COME TO BELLEVILLE IN YEARS

THE PRICES SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

FELT MATTRESSES All Standard Sizes Price $3.35

White Layer Felt Mattresses $6.75

In all standard sizes. Regular $10.50—Sale Price .....

COUCHES THAT OPEN INTO A BED

Drop side couches with sagless cable springs, well filled mattress, upholstered in attractive cretonne.

Regular Price $12.75 Sale Price $8.75

Large Davenport Bed Sagless Cable Spring

An ideal lounge by day, and bed by night. Upholstered in cretonne.

Regular $15.50 Sale Price $10.50

A Limited Number of One Pattern at $9.50

OUR LARGE ASSORTED STOCK OF CHESTERFIELD SUITES IS INCLUDED IN THIS SALE

Three Piece Chesterfield Suites from $39.50 up
WE SELL MARSHALL VENTILATED MATTRESSES. LOWEST AVAILABLE PRICES

Spring Filled Mattresses Reg. $14.75 Sale Price $11.75

Thos. C. THOMPSON 288 Front St.

FURNITURE AND FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Night and Sunday 1313
Phones—Day 62

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
BACKACHE RHEUMATISM
1087 THE PROPRIETORS

Neil Hamilton and Mary Brian in "The World Gone Mad", at the Capitol Tomorrow (Saturday).

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Atmosphere of Indecision Prevades Market And Prices Mill Around in Narrow Range—Walker's Comment Features Toronto Stock With New High of 27—In Gold Section Dome Heavily Traded But Eases Off in Late Trading—Markets Generally Quiet

WALL STREET FINANCIAL

New York, June 23 (AP)—An atmosphere of indecision pervaded the financial district today, and after there was the better part of valor for the moment. Stocks rallied moderately in the first hour or two, but early sheer of hopefulness gave way to spathy that resulted in most of the leaders dropping their initial advances. The ticker tape was lifeless at times. Wheat and corn were weak, but cotton held firmly steady. Bonds were irregular. Call money was unchanged, ing ¾ of a cent an ounce at 34⅛ cents.

Canadian stocks and bonds were fairly steady but quiet. Gains of a fraction generally to 4⅛s were up ½ of a point and the 5s advanced ¾. Shares of Dome Mines, McIntyre Porcupine, International Nickel and Canadian Pacific were unchanged to slightly lower. The Canadian dollar held at its previous rate of 90⅜ cents.

TORONTO STOCKS

TORONTO, June 23.—(CP)—Walker's Common went over its 1933 top today on the Toronto Stock Exchange under unusually strong demand for the shares of the issue. The issue closed at 27 1-4 for a net gain of 8 1-4 points.

Brewers and distillers, up five cents and Canadian Industrial Alcohol 3 shared in the advance in the issue gaining 1 1-2 at 5. Canadian Malting and Dominion Distillers were slightly heavier. Strong buying developed near the close in Distillers Seagram which shot up to 10. close.

Intertilled issues were firmer after an indifferent showing through the day. Breadners was unchanged; Nickel gained 50 cents with a Hollinger 40 cents and Canadian Pacific was up about a point.

Oils were quiet with small losses of less than a point shown by Imperial, Anglo-Canadian, Imperial Petroleum, McColl Frontenac and others.

NEW YORK CLOSE

New York, June 23 (AP)—Stocks firmed in late dealings today after swinging about uncertainly over most of the session. Gains of fractions to more than 2 points were recorded among the leaders. Chrysler and Case rose about 2 points each. Other issues that rallied included American Can, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, National Dairy, U. S. Steel, Du Pont, New York Central, American Telephone, Allied Chemical and Packard. Transfers approximated 3,000,000 shares.

TORONTO MINES

TORONTO, June 23.—(CP)—Prices generally irregular in inactive session today on the Standard exchange. Lake Shores, Wrights and Base Metals yielded ground as the market followed the uncertain trend in New York. Losses were small practically throughout.

In the Senior Gold Group McIntyre and Dome were exceptions to the rule, the former advancing 2 to $84.90. McIntyre showed a 2 cent gain at $2.

Pioneer slumped 1.75 for the largest loss in the group, while Lake Shore, Teck Hughes, Wright Hargreaves and Sylvanite moved minor recessions. Hollinger was about unchanged. Lake Shore made a small gain.

Base Metals showed the best trend of the day with Nickel Copper Bay and Base Metal Corporation holding small gains at the close.

EXCHANGE RATES

Exchange rates at 3 p. m. today were: Funds, 1-32 of 1% buyer. 4.86 1-2; U. S. dollar in Montreal 1-10 1-4; pound sterling in New York 4.22 1-2; Canadian dollar in New York 90 1-2.

PETERBORO PLANT GIVEN CONTRACT

C.G.E. Will Work Full Capacity for Two Months

Peterborough, Ont., June 23.—(CP)—An order from the Beauharnois Power Company for five large generators has been given Canadian General Electric Company's plant here it will result in a substantial increase in plant activity and payrolls over a period of about two months, it was announced here today.

Delivery of the first generator is deferred until 1934 and the completion of the order, either 1934 or 1935. Other generators are to be used in order to meet the contract requirements for power purchased especially to the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Company.

GANANOQUE MAN MISSING

Gananoque, Ont., June 23 (CP)—John Bernard, chairman of the Gananoque unemployed and chairman of the mass conference of unemployed at Toronto Monday and Tuesday, is missing. He was last seen in Gananoque on Tuesday, Wednesday, leaving to join other delegates from here who were returning home. He did not appear and Toronto police have been notified.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Kellond and Co. today:

WHEAT

July 00; October 70¾; December 73¾.

RYE

July 56¾; October 58¼; December 59⅞.

BARLEY

July 38¾; October 41; December 41¼.

CHEESE PRICES

Toronto, June 23 (CP)—The Toronto Wholesale Cheese Market was steady today with dealers buying large, colored, parchined and government graded stock.

Wholesalers offered cheese to retailers at the following prices:

New—large 13¼c; twins 13½c; triplets 13¾c. Old—large 16c; twins 16½c; triplets 16¾c. Medium large 16½c; twins 15½c; triplets 15c.

POULTRY PRICES

Toronto, June 23 (CP)—The following weekly wool survey was supplied by the United Farmers' Co-operative, Ltd.:

Alive "A" grades, f.o.b. cars:

Spring broilers, 1¾ to 2½ lbs. 11c; Chickens 2½ lbs. up, 10c; 3½ to 4 lbs. 16c; 3 to 3½ lbs. 14c; 2½ to 3 lbs. 12c.

Hens, over 5 lbs., 10c; 4 to 5 lbs., 9c; 3½ to 4 lbs., 8c; 3 to 3½ lbs. 6c.

Old roosters, over 3 lbs. 5c.

The market is very quiet today.

Without Doubt
—it's a fact!

The Dainty Lunches at
MOORES
Are Just Too Delicious For Words
Shoppers, Business Men, Business Women
Enjoy Moores Light Lunches

Moores Ice Cream is Different

Meet Me at Moores Fountain

HOME-MADE CANDY
WEEK-END SPECIALS

Turkish Delight	19c
Lady Carmels	19c
Nut Chews	19c
Peanut Fudge	19c
Chocolate Fudge	19c
Salted Peanut Brittle	19c
Cream Caramels	25c
Hand Rolled Butter Toffee	25c
Chocolates	29c

MOORES
Next to Royal Bank
Front St., 2 Doors North of Campbell Street

CANDY—ICE CREAM AND TEA ROOM

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, H. G. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.56 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley, 1.10—
Amulet, 96.
Arno, 084.
Barry Hollinger, bid 11¼.
Base Metals, bid 2.32.
Central Patricia, bid 96.
Dome, 84.50.
Eldorado, 3.80.
Falconbridge, bid 8.90.
Granada, bid 1.35.
Hollinger, bid 14.00.
Hudson's Bay, bid 9.75.
Harry, 8.
Kirkland Lake, bid 88.
Lake Shore, bid 40.50.
Mason, 4.
McIntyre, bid 81.50.
Mining Corp., bid 2.10.
McLeod River, 03⅜.
Wrightaing, bid 2.60.
Moranda, bid 21.00.
International Nickel, 19.90.
S. C. Pioneer, bid 12.75.
Sherritt, 1.18.
Sisco, 1.26.
Stadacona, 09.
Sudbury Basin, 1.80.
Sylvanite, 1.89.
Teck Hughes, 6.80.
Vipond, 14.
Ventures, 1.15.
Wright Hargreaves, bid 3.85.
Alta. 1.00.
Big Missouri, bid 36.
Bobjo, 1854.
Brabazon, 10.
Bowman, bid 04¼.
Can. Nic., bid 04¼.
Castle Trethe, 02.
Central Manitoba, 13½.
Coast Copper, 04.
Coniagarus, 13.
Dome Exploration, 87.
Golden, bid 13½.
Kirk Tuscarora, 29.
Lake Shore, 40.
Malobic, 08½.
Manitoba Base, bid 04¼.
Moffat Hall, bid 03¼.
Mosher Mines, bid 09½.
McWillis, 4.
Marlbank, 86.
Premier, 1.40.
Reno, 2.45.
St. Anthony, bid 41.
St. Antonio, bid 1.06.
Wayside, 2.
Wells Ackarman, bid 3.85.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil, bid 19¼.
Imperial Oil, 12¾.
McColl Frontenac, 12.
International Pete, bid 18¼.
Superfoot, bid 12¾.
Distill. Seagrams, 10.
Walker's, 27¼.
Brewers, bid 16¾.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 6.
Canada Malting, bid 41¼.
Bell Telephone, 100.
C. P. R., 18.
Canada Cement, 6.
Canada, Malt., bid 27¼.
Cockshutts, 5.
Dominion Stores, bid 30¼.
Fed. Ut., 21½.
Steellers, 128½.
Lobiaw's, 17½.
Montreal Power, bid 36.
Massey Harris, 6¼.
Power Corporation, 13.
Shawinigan, 17¼.
Canada Vinegars, bid 21¼.
Brazilian, 15¾.

NEW YORK

American Can, 91¾.
Auburn, 61¼.
Am. Pow. Power, 16½.
Anaconda, 18¼.
A. T. Central, 34¾.
Case, 85¼.
Drug, 72.
Elec. Auto Lite, 23.
Cons. Oil, 6¾.
General Motors, 28¾.
Inter. Telephone, 17¾.
Standard Oil of N.J., 38.
Chrysler, 54.
North American, 30¾.
Nat. Dairy Prod., 21.
Montgomery Ward, 23.
Radio, 8.
Standard Brands, 19¾.
Steel Foundry, 24.
American T. and T., 132.
United Aircraft, 21.
Vanadium, 24¾.
Westinghouse, 44½.
U. S. Steel, 56¼.

Livestock

Toronto, June 23 (CP)—Trading on the Toronto Livestock market was fairly active during the week, with only 100 stockers left over at the close. All classes of livestock were lighter in weight for the week, exception of hogs. Price changes were mostly lighter except lambs which dropped 50c on Monday, remained firm and held steady during the remainder of the week. Packers sharpen the top bacon hog price 10c per cwt. higher; lambs 50c higher compared to last week's closing level.

Produce Market

Toronto, June 23 (CP)—The following quotations on produce delivered at Toronto were supplied by the United Farmers' Co-operative Co. today:

Eggs, extras, doz. 15c; eggs, firsts, doz. 13c; eggs, seconds (cracked), doz. 10c; churning cream, No. 1 lb. (f.o.b.) 18c; churning cream, No. 2, 2 lb. 15c; butter, No. 1, solids 19½c; butter, No. 2, 19c.

Potatoes, per bag, 65c; new imported potatoes per barrel, $6.40.

GRAIN PRICES

Winnipeg, June 23.—(CP)—10:30 prices: Wheat: July 1-2 lower at 56 3-4; Oct. 3-8 lower at 60 1-4; Dec. 5-8 lower at 70 3-4.

Oats: July unchanged at 25; Oct. unchanged at 28 1-4; Dec. 1-4 lower at 28 1-4.

Flax: July 1-8 lower at 133 3-4.

Rye: July 5-8 lower at 54 3-4.

POLICE COURT

John Goodman, Cannifton, was found guilty of keeping hard cider for sale when he appeared on Friday morning's police court held before Magistrate Ketcal. He was sentenced to serve two months in jail from the date of his arrest on June 1st.

The case arose following search of Goodman's premises by the Provincial Police on that date. The quantity of cider was at that time confiscated and upon analysis it tested 17 per cent. of alcoholic strength. The accused stated that he had treated the cider with certain chemicals to keep it from fermenting. When asked by the magistrate regarding being represented by counsel, Goodman stated that he could not afford it. Mr. J. D. O'Flynn, who was present in the court volunteered to act on his behalf.

Harry Maitle, Belleville, pleaded guilty to a charge of purchasing illicit home brew. He was fined $10 and costs or in default of payment ten days. The accused was also fined to start from the time of arrest and Maitle walked out of the court room a free man.

Sam Pardella, of this city, was found guilty of a charge of non-support. It was pointed out during court proceedings that the various court orders had been issued to enable Pardella to turn to pay his wife and family $5.00 a week. He claimed he was employed sufficient money to pay that amount. He was sentenced to three months in the common jail after being found guilty. Pardella was also warned that he would be called upon to support his wife and family upon the termination of his sentence.

James Allen, Cannifton Road, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm to Edward Thurston, also on a similar charge, Allen's wife, Antionette was found guilty of common assault. No evidence had been submitted. The case was enlarged for sentence by Mr. F. Chalmers, Crown counsel for the accused, stated that the Allens were about to move from the city in which they were now living.

The case involving the illicit sale by Et. Titterson, Belleville, against the accused. For some time past the two families have been at difference and only last week were bound over to keep the peace. The trouble started over the Allen chickens coming on the Titterson lawn properly. Allen admitted striking Titterson while his wife denied hitting him with a stick. Titterson stated he received a black eye in the fracas. The magistrate upon hearing that the Allens were about to move from the city enlarged the case for one week.

Frank McEachern, of this city, appearing charged with "not having an individual liquor permit, did have liquor in his possession." McEachern was not asked to plead, the case being enlarged for a week. The arrest followed a raid by the city and Provincial police on his residence last evening.

The proceedings were largely attended and public interest in the selling or purchasing home brew beer appears if Mr. Ketcal's Thursday, was enlarged for one week.

VICTIMS OF ACCIDENT ARE ALL IMPROVING

Three Nursing Injuries As Result of Road Mishap

Mr. Robt. J. B. Dewar, who was injured when his automobile was stricken after the car had left the road near Peterborough on Wednesday, was doing nicely at Peterborough Hospital last evening and it was expected that he would be able to make the trip back to Belleville this afternoon, his son, Mr. John Dewar stated Saturday. Mr. Dewar brought thrown from the automobile did not suffer any fracture but sustained a slight concussion, which necessitated his removal to the hospital in Peterborough after the accident.

His three companions on the journey to Kingston and who are now at home, Mr. Charles J. Symons, residing in the 4th line of Sidney, and Mr. Charles N. Sulman, who lives also in the 4th line, Sidney, and Peck, the fourth member of the touring party, were suffering from nothing about his duties as usual.

Mr. Symons suffered a severe cut over the left eye, and a severe cut across the left hand. He is nursing bruises on his left side, but it is thought he may have to rest for several days. Mr. Sulman, who also was struck in the side was resting comfortably at his home and is expected to be about in a day or two. He has had no news whether the automobile will be lost from his ring has been found.

RUSSIAN TRADE IS UNDER REVIEW

London, June 23 (AP)—Maxim Litvinoff, Russian commissar for Foreign Affairs, has agreed to see Sir John Simon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, at the Foreign Office on Monday, it was understood today.

The assumption was that Anglo-

FOR SALE

For sale, 118 Chatham Street, near Pine Street, attractive brick house, three bed rooms, bath room, separate toilet, living room, dining room, kitchen, garage. Everything in first class condition. Large verandahs, beautiful grounds. Inspection by appointment.

For sale, 71 Alexander Street, pine frame residence, 3 bed rooms, living room, dining room, kitchen, bath, furnace, fine garden. Very reasonable price.

Belleville Locators
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
'Phone 99 House 'Phone 437

EMERGENT MEETING

The Masonic Fraternity will celebrate the anniversary of Saint John. The Master is attending Divine Worship in the Bayside Methodist Church on Sunday morning, June 25th, meeting at the Temple at 10.15 o'clock a.m. All visitors cordially invited to attend. Masonic clothing.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

Owing to a number of citizens failing to pay their water rates, it is necessary to put an inspector out to check this practice. The rates are due and payable at the office for purpose are from 7.00 to 9.00 in the morning and 5.30 to 8.00 in the evening. Any person found violating these rules the water will be turned off and only turned on again after the fine has been paid at the office.

This does not apply to consumers by Order.

WATERWORKS DEPARTMENT, 121-41.

KINGSTON CREAMERIES LIMITED

BY-LAW NO. 10

WHEREAS the head office of the Kingston Creameries Limited is at the City of Belleville in the County of Hastings and Province of Ontario.

AND WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient that the same should be changed to the City of Kingston in the County of Frontenac in the Province of Ontario.

THEREFORE the Directors of the Company for a general meeting thereof to be held at the office of the said company held on the 30th day of August, 1933 and duly confirmed by the shareholders at a meeting duly convened for the said purpose held on the 30th day of August, 1933.

"H. McNevin."
President.

"C. McNevin."
Assist. Secretary Treasurer.

I certify that the foregoing is a true copy of by-law number 10 of Kingston Creameries Limited passed at the meeting of the directors of the said Company held on the 30th day of August, 1933 and duly confirmed by the shareholders at a meeting duly convened for the said purpose held on the 30th day of August, 1933.

"H. McNevin."
Secretary Treasurer.
116 22.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS

(Change of Time Effective April 30th, 1933.)

TRAINS GOING EAST

North Station No 118	12.40 A.M. Mail and Express Monday only.
North Station No 16	2.00 A.M. Mail and Express Daily, except Monday.
North Station No 14	11.39 A.M. The Maple Leaf. Daily.
Ocean Limited No. 2	12.38 P.M. Pool Train to Ottawa. Daily.
North Station No 12	4.42 P.M. Daily except Sunday.
North Station No 18	11.30 A.M. The International Limited. Daily
North Station No 20	6.10 A.M. The Inter-City Limited. Pool Train. Daily.

TRAINS GOING WEST

North Station No. 19	2.55 A.M. Mail and Express Daily.
North Station No 15	6.10 A.M. The Inter-City Limited. Daily. Good to Toronto.
Ocean Limited No. 27	1.28 P.M. Pool Train Daily.
North Station No. 5	2.30 P.M. The Maple Leaf Daily.
North Station No 17	8.00 P.M. Daily except Sunday.
North Station No 11	7.23 P.M. The International Limited. Pool Train. Daily.

BELLEVILLE & PETERBORO

North Station No 11	6.00 A.M. Local Passenger. Daily except Sunday.

BELLEVILLE & PICTON

North Station No 352	4.00 P.M. Local Passenger. Mon., Wed., Fri.
Leaves Picton for Belleville	12.30 P.M. daily except Sunday.

BELLEVILLE & MADOC

North Station No 354	8.00 A.M. Local Passenger Tues., Thurs., & Sat. Leaves Madoc for Belleville 12.00 noon same days.

Russian trade, particularly the effects resulting from the embargo on Russian imports by Britain which followed the recent conversion of British engineers in Moscow, would be explored by the two high officials.

JEWEL BURGLARS AT KITCHENER

Kitchener, Ont., June 23 (CP)—

IN MEMORIAM

MINNS—In loving memory of Raymond Silwood, who passed away June 23rd, 1926.

Time brings back sad memories of a loved one gone to rest,
He will always be remembered By the one who loved him best.
—Wife and Son.
122-1t

DEATHS

KELLAR—In Belleville on Friday, June 23rd, 1933, Elsie Palmatier, widow of Frederick Kellar, aged 69 years.

The funeral will take place from the residence of her son, Christopher Palmatier, University Avenue, Thurlow, on Monday, June 26th, 1933, to the Centre Street United Church for service at 2 p.m. Interment Cannifton cemetery. 122-1t.

TICKELL & BROWNE

Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Fiskeen
Funeral Directors
Sudbury Toronto
At the Quiet Corner of Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON FUNERAL SERVICE

Thos. C. Thompson

FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 62 — 288 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 1113

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
218-218 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2065
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. HELM
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

MONUMENTS
A. C. Campbell
Granite Craftsman
21 Bridge West Phone 1

Auto Loans
OARS REFINANCED
NEW LOWER RATES
S. J. Fisher & Son
20 BRIDGE ST.
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto, Ottawa, Elo.
Phone 1

FOR SALE

POLISHED OAK DINING SUITE. Good condition, 40 East Moira St. Phone 229. 122-1t.

NEW TRAILERS. APPLY 38 Johnston Street. 122-3t.

USED AND TRAILERS. APPLY 261 Sidney St. 122-3t.

SOLID BRICK HOUSE, 8 MODERN. Modern conveniences. Garden. Garage. Wired for electric stove. Would lease to permanent tenant. Apply on premises. 117-tf.

BUSINESS LINERS

BERRY BOXES

Fruit Baskets. Insecticides. We carry a full line at moderate prices. Bishop's Seed Store. 122-3t.

BABY CHICK FEEDS

in handy small packages and large quantities at Bishop's Seed Store. 122 3t.

PIANO TUNING

J. R. Moran, of Toronto, is in the City. Mr. Moran is one of the best Piano Tuners and Action Regulators. Actions done over, worn parts replaced; has had 25 years experience; highly recommended by all leading manufacturers. Orders left at Jennings & Sherrys. 122-1t.

Police today are searching for the "ceiling burglars" who some time during the night looted the Belchers' Jewelry Store here of diamonds rings and watches. The loss will run into several thousand dollars. Chief of Police Hodgson, conducting the investigation, declared the theft was perpetrated by the same gang which looted a Hamilton store last month.

Classified Ad. Rates
PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Strictly 20c; Minimum charge 60c. Engagements, Weddings, Births and Funeral Notices, 25c; In Memoriam, 25c; Memorial Poetry, minimum charge, $1.00 for 20 words and 1c per word over limit; Lodge and Society Announcements, minimum charge, $1.00.

CLASSIFIED RATES—Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, Rent, Etc., 1c per word for first two insertions, subsequent insertions, ½c per word. Minimum charge 25 cents for 25 words.

CONTRACT RATES—On application for 25 words or under, over 25 words, 1c per word.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS—$1.00 per line per month. CARD OF THANKS—(Yearly Contracts) 50c per insertion.

OFFICIAL MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT ADVERTISING—(Yearly Contracts) 10c per line per insertion. Other contracts, 15c per line per insertion. 10 point (agate) type measures 14 lines to the inch; 7 for first insertion; 10 per cent. discount for cash in advance.

DISPLAY—Classified Display, minimum 2 inches, 50c per inch per insertion, 25 per cent. discount for 13 consecutive insertions, 25 per cent.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating about five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ad.—when it is inconvenient to call at the office. The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an incorrect telephone order.

Ads. may be left at our office addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

1200 GOOD USED RED BRICK. 9's x 4½ x 3. Must be cheap for cash. Cheap. Phone 2170. 122-1t

FOR JULY 1ST, GOOD CODE cleaner. Apply with references to Box 48, Napanee.

ALERT MAN OR LADY COULD HANdle a limited quantity, at reasonable profit, of Fuller Products in Bishop & Son, Belleville, Ont. 122-3t

MAN OR WOMAN TO HANDLE a line of fast moving, low priced household products. Splendid territory and best commissions. Drug Sales Co., London, Ontario. 122-3t

WOMAN WANTS TO DO WASHing or bakes, to own home. $3 per week. Write Box "S" Ontario Intelligencer. 122-3t

WANTED—HOGS AND CALVES shipped from Lonsdale Station Tuesday. Phone collect before twelve o'clock. Phone Scott Bros. Belleville. C. Russell, Napanee. Phone 612. 115-tf-42

TO-LET

SEVERAL TWO OR THREE room apartments, heat supplied, available. Apply at Artistic Ladies' Wear.

SIX MONTHLY, MY SEVEN room house. All newly decorated and papered. Hot and cold. Laundry, side drive and large new garage. 28 Brock St.

FURNISHED PINE ROOM COTtage at Jones Creek. Including use of boat, canoe or motor. Phone 2220W. 122-3t

FOUR SUITE ON THIRD floor of Standard Bank Building. Very convenient for small family. Apply to the Manager, Canadian Bank of Commerce. 116 20 3t.

LARGE AIRY, FURNISHED BEDroom. Very desirable conveniences. Suit one or two business men. Phone 1342. 122-3t

SIX ROOM DWELLING. ALL conveniences except furnace. Garage. Apply 130 Church St. Location at once. Rent twenty. Chamberlain Block. 122-tf.

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, LARGE front bed sitting room, ground floor, fire control heat. Immediate rent. 12 North Front Street.

FURNISHED SIX ROOM COTtage between Northport and Point Anne. Supplied with refrigerator and boat. Good bass fishing. Apply Mrs. Robert Graham, Box 1, Bancroft. 121-41

SIX ROOM HOUSE ON WEST Bridge St. All modern improvements. Apply 14 Isabel Street. 121-tf

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences. 12 Alison St. 122-3t. m26-tf.

MODERN APARTMENT, HEATED, electric refrigerator and stove, hardwood floors. Apply to Caretaker on premises. Immediate 3 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT. Every convenience. Immediate possession. Apply Geo Deline, Printer St. Phone 179.

3 ROOM APARTMENT HEATED or otherwise. Electric stove, electric refrigerator. Newly wood floor. Garage. Apply G. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. W. Phone 2459W a25-tf.

3 LOWER APARTMENTS. Conveniences. Garden. Garage. Newly decorated. Apply 172 W. Moira. a22-6w

LOST

THURSDAY NIGHT GREEN TWO piece bathing suit with stones, somewhere between Belle Theatre and West Moira Street. Finder please Phone 1139W. Keepsake. 122-1t.

FOUND

FUR NECKPIECE. OWNER MAY have same by proving property and paying for this advertisement. Mrs. Walmsley, 13 Everett Street. 122-1t

GARRICK IN SECOND ROUND

Toronto, June 23 (CP)—Winning his first round match with ease, Don Garrick of Scarboro, qualified round medalist, advanced into the second round of the Ontario amateur golf championship with a six and five victory over Stan Thompson of Mississauga.

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, RAVESTROUSHING
General Repairing
F. WHITE
PHONE 1379
23-tfn.

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74.

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public. Solicitor for Royal Bank Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: 219 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners. Offices: 19 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgage. W. Pitcher Ponton, K.C., R. J. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late R. J. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building. Corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 38 Bridge Street E. E. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Crown Attorney's Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, PH.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiscope reveals all diseases in the human body. Spinal curvatures corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or 1900. Office hours: Belleville, Picton, Tuesdays and Fridays.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Palm-Drugless Therapy
42½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1774 Belleville, Ont.

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S. DR. R. CHARLES ADAMS, M.D.C.M. Westinghouse X-Ray Equipment at office.
Office Hours:
1 to 2 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle Street, Belleville
Phone 371
ad-tfn.

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1685
A. L. BRYANT, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Forin St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1735. F. M. Wills, Branch Manager. nb-1y.

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Surveys, Reports and Specifications, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE 1735. BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1344 157 Front St.

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
157 Front St.
Phone 1344 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance
SANDY BURROWS
and
HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
221 Front St. Phone 129

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass
178 Front Street Phone 1134W

BETWEEN INNINGS

AUTHOR CROWNINGS pals contend that the Washington twirler has the finest bit of fadeaway in the major leagues on his potent right arm. He has some "of the finest pitching—some times—in it, too.

x x x

RALPH BOYLE the new Brooklyn outfielder, is the cause of a new name for the Ebbets Field outfield. The fans have dubbed that "a sweep of grass "Boyle's Thirty Acres."

x x x

IRVING HADLEY, known to the baseball world as Bump, is the hardest rolling twirler in the American league. You thought it was Lefty Grove. Hadley has pitched close to 150 innings so far this season.

x x x

BURLEIGH GRIMES particiapated in his first double play of first base to shortstop to pitcher for the first time recently. And he has been pitching baseballs 20 years.

x x x

CHUCK KLEIN has shortened his swing to meet what he terms the "new deader" ball. But when he hitters don't suffer so much with this new sphere," he insists. "But it sure is tough on the sluggers."

x x x

BERT DELMAR, 20-year-old graduate of Stanford university, will be given a chance by the Brooklyn Dodgers. He plays short. Bert is a left-hander at the plate and throws with his right.

x x x

HAROLD (PIE) TRAYNOR, the elegant Pittsburgh third baseman, it is at last revealed, got his first name because, as a mere youth, he already had a stout and healthy appetite for pie which was hardly less than terrific.

x x x

NEW YORK fans certainly must get a big kick out of baseball. The Giants lead the National league in administering goose eggs and the Yankees have not suffered a shutout for so long a time that the oldest fans can remember one.

x x x

CHICAGO fans cannot see why anyone should count them out of the National league race as yet. They were six and one-half games out of first place on Aug. 1 last year—and then went on to win the pennant.

x x x

FRANK FRISCH, it might be remarked, is one of the players the St. Louis Cardinals are up there. The old "Fordham Flash" has been playing in his best form lately and that's very, very good.

x x x

HARRY SEIBOLD, released recently by the Atlantic N.Y. International league team, was one of the players who were married if the army during the World war. Harry was with the Athletics then.

x x x

THE YANKEE STADIUM and the Polo Grounds, home parks of the Yanks and Giants, are now connected by the Macomb's Dam section of the new Eighth avenue subway in New York. It will open July 1.

LOCAL LEAGUE STANDINGS

C.O.B.L. Senior

	W.	L.	T.
Peterboro.....	3	0	0
Kingston	2	0	0
Belleville	1	1	0
Games, Wednesday, Kingston at Belleville.

Bay of Quinte League, Intermediate

	Won	Lost
Belleville Vics.	1	0
Picton	1	1
Napanee	0	1
Brighton	0	1

Hastings County, Junior

	Won	Lost
Crystalaes	4	0
Wellington	2	2
B.A.A.A.	2	2
Moose Jaw	0	4

Games tonight— B.A.A.A. at the Mosses; Monday, Vics at Crystalaes; Wednesday, Junior Moose at Wellington.

Men's Senior, Softball

	Won	Lost
Delaney's	4	1
South End	3	2
College Hill	3	2
Grills'	2	2
McNabbs'	0	6

THE BIG SIX

(By The Canadian Press)

Norman Kies, Newark catcher, came into the International League big six yesterday when he accumulated enough times at bat to make the charmed circle as a revision of Buzz Arlett's batting average resulted in the Baltimore outfielder dropping to seventh place. Thirsh dropping to seventh place. Thirsh an error. Arlett was given no times at bat less than his official number of trips to the plate and in the revised averages, his mark fell to .337.

The batting leaders:

	AB.	R.	H.	PCT.
Boone, Toronto..	226	45	90	398
Sollers, Balt..	187	44	74	396
Thompson, Albany	164	22	53	368
Clabaugh, Balt..	172	29	62	360
Dunning, Buffalo	154	27	55	357
Kies, Newark ..	123	16	42	341

SENATORS NOW IN TIE WITH THE YANKEES

Both Teams Have Won 37 Games And Lost 23

PALE HOSE FIFTH

Cards Drop a Game in Standing by Losing to Phillies

(By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer)

The might behind Washington Senators' bats plus the difficulties New York Yankees have encountered on their current road trip finally today had pulled Washington up to even terms with the world champions in the struggle for first place in the American league.

The Senators continued their terrific clouting to defeat Chicago White Sox for the second time yesterday 11-4, and the Yanks dropped a last minute decision to the last place St. Louis Browns 5-4. This combination of results cut the last game off New York's margin and left the teams tied for the lead with 37 victories and 23 defeats.

New York again encountered pitching troubles when the last place Browns hammered Walter Brown and then bunched a pair of blows off Danny Macfayden with a costly error to score the winning run in the ninth.

Chicago's defeat dropped the pale hose into fifth place, a point behind the Athletics, and maintained out in runs in the fifth inning and defeated the third-place Cards 11-6.

Pitcher Boston Red Sox manwhile moved past Detroit into sixth by scoring a 6-5 victory over the Tigers. Roy Johnson's single with two on base produced the winning runs.

National League

The pressure on New York Giants, league leaders, increased today as a result of the defeat of Cincinnati Reds 4-0 behind the five-hit pitching of Van Mungo. Brooklyn Dodgers moved into third place by virtue of Philly right hander, gave 14 hits but pitched shutout ball until Frank Hitch hit a homer in the ninth.

Ray Benge pitched Brooklyn Dodgers into fifth place in the elder circuit, holding Pittsburgh Pirates to four hits in the six hit, fifth straight victory 9-0. The Dodgers not only batted three Pirate hurlers for 11 hits but they stole six bases. Ed Brandt did almost as good a job in winning them over as he sent Boston Braves into a sixth-place tie with Cincinnati with a 3-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs. He gave only seven well scattered safeties.

VICTORIA IS LOOP LEADER

Defeat Consecon 10-3 in Smartly Played Game

Mountain View, June 23 (Special) —Merrily marching ahead toward the Ameliasburg Softball championship, Victoria A.A. team from this community, defeated the Consecon nine by the score of 10 to 3 here last evening.

Behind the superb hurling of Herbie Pointer the Victoria sextamiths resounded hits to all corners of the lot to garner a flock of runs that literally swept the visitors before them. Pointer, with the exception of the final inning, when the Consecon lads staged a last minute rally, experienced little trouble in baffling the batters from the upper rung of the county. Hayes opposed Pointer on the hilltop.

Clarke, Consecon's classy centre fielder, supplied the fielding sensation of the day when he made a beautiful running catch, finally snagging the ball while running in. H.-B. Both teams gave their pitchers excellent support with the Vics turning in an errorless account of their activities.

The game was witnessed by a big crowd from various parts of the county as the league leadership hinged on the result. The Victoria club now enjoy the first rung on the league ladder alone. The line up:

Consecon—Clarke, James, Phillips, Hayes, McConkey, Cook, McConkey, Barrett, VanLaven and Hinks.

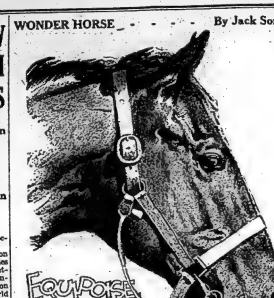
Victoria—Pointer, Cretney, Pointer, D. Cretney, H. Pointer, Cretney, Barber, Thompson. White and Smith.

Score by innings:

Consecon ...	0	0	0	1	0	2	0	3	3—10
Victoria. ...	0	1	4	0	2	1	2	0	x—10

Umpires—W. Cretney and Mattis.

THE BEACHES ARE CALLING



Come in and see the newest styles in Janizen and Kling-ette Bathing suits.

CHAS. J. SYMONS

286 Front St. Phone 83b

WONDER HORSE

By Jack Sords

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

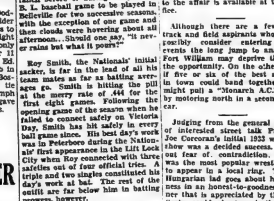
"Frenzy" Mills' youthful Nationals with Old Lady Hard Luck trailing them, are scheduled to meet the Belleville nine in Kingston this evening. In all probability Big Jack Matthews of the O.S.B. will get the pitching assignment for the locals. Of course "Tommy" Jamieson, with the rabbit's paw in his pocket, will again get the Posy nod for pitching honors. Jamieson had the jinx on the local club for some years back but in one of those fine days "the pitcher is going to the well once too often".

It just seems that the weatherman will not give the Nationals a break. As we remember it rain has fallen before or during every B. B. L. baseball game to be played in Belleville for two successive seasons. With the exception of one game and then clouds were hovering about the afternoon...Should one say, "it never rains but what it pours"?

Roy Smith, the Nationals' initial backer, is far in the lead of all his team mates as far as batting averages go. Smith is hitting the ball at the merry rate of .444 for the first eight games. Following the opening game of the season when he failed to connect safely on Victoria Day, Smith has hit safely in every ball game since. His best day's work was played in the Belleville ball park was in Peterboro during the National's first appearance in the Kitt Lock City when Roy connected with three safeties out of four official trips. A triple and two singles constituted his day's work at bat. The rest of the team are far below him in batting prowess, however.

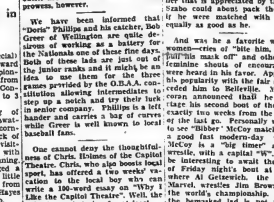
We have been informed that "Porky" Phillips and his caterer, Bob Greer of Wellington are quite desirous of working on a bakery for the Nationals, one of these fine days. Both of these lads are just out of the junior ranks and it might be an idea to use them for the three games provided by the O.B.A.A. constitution allowing intermediates to step up a notch and try their luck in senior company. Phillips is a left hander and carries a bag of curves while Greer is well known to local baseball fans.

One cannot deny the thoughtfulness of Chris. Holmes of the Capitol Theatre. Chris, who also boosts local sport, has offered a two weeks' vacation to the lucky boy who can write a 100-word essay on "Why I like the Capitol Theatre". Well, the prize is worth trying for at least.



Not only did the local Victorias fuse the services of their catcher Harvey Scott, but also dropped their first ball game of the season. Scott sustained an injured arm when Freddie Bentley collided with him at the plate during Wednesday's game at Napanee...At first it was thought that Scottie's arm had been fractured but after an X-ray was taken it disclosed that the shoulder was but badly bruised. Scott will be an absentee for a few days, however.

Entry blanks for the 44th. Annual Canadian open track and field championships, under the supervision of A.A. U. of C. were forwarded recently from Fort William, where the meeting is to be held on July 29th 5-7, 1933. These blanks are available to any athlete desiring them. All entries must be in the hands of the secretary of the meet not later than July 29th. All information relating to the affair is available at this office.



Although there are a few local track and field aspirants who might possibly consider entering these events the long jump to and from Fort William may deprive them of the opportunity. On the other hand if five or six of the best athletes in town could band together they might pull a "Monarch A.C." stunt by motoring north in a second hand car.

Judging from the general amount of interested street talk Promoter Joe Corcoran's initial 1933 wrestling show was a decided success. Which was one of consideration. Sander was the most popular wrestler ever to appear in a local ring. The ex-Hungarian had pegs about his business in an honest-to-goodness manner that is appreciated by the fans. Szabo could about pack the arena if he were matched with a man equally as good as he.

And was he a favorite with the women—cries of "Bie him, Sandor, Bie him" made the air—and other feminine shouts of encouragement were heard in his favor. Apparently his popularity with the fair sex preceded him to Belleville. Mr. Corcoran announced that he would stage his second bout of the season exactly two weeks from the events of the last go. Personally we'd like to see "Bloody" McCoy matched with a good fast wrestler. Although McCoy is a "big timer" and can wrestle, with a capital "W". It will be interesting to await the results of Friday night's bout at Ottawa where Al Getsewich, the Masked Marvel, wrestles Jim Browning for the world's championship. Maybe the bemasked lad is not the best grappler in the world but he will not be completely outclassed by the present champ. Unless all signs temporarily fail Al is a far better exponent of the art than he ever was given credit for in his man's town.

THE SPOILS—Mrs. Harvey Firestone presents cup to son, Ray of the victorious Princeton polo four at Rye, N. Y.

LEFTY'S SWING—Lefty O'Doul, traded to the Giants by the Dodgers shows his batting swing to Polo Grounds fans.

SEASON'S FIRST SHUTOUT FOR THE REDWINGS

Play 69 Games Before Succumbing to Slant of Curley Ogden

LEAFS WIN

Now Within a Game of Second Place by Victory

(By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer)

Curley Ogden, veteran right hander of Montreal Royals, has become the first International League pitcher this season to hand the Rochester Redwings a shutout.

The Redwings played 69 games without a shutout, but they collected only two hits today in the second inning, off Ogden yesterday and went down 5-0. It was Rochester's fourth successive defeat and Ez. Chapman's first reverse after five victories in a row. Chapman allowed only eight hits but home runs by Ivy Shiver and Orvan Pickering accounted for four runs. Shiver hit his 11th two run on in the first inning and Pickering connected with his 10th in the fourth. Despite their defeat, the Redwings maintained their one-game hold on first place as Newark dropped an 8-5 decision to the Jersey City Skeeters.

Toronto moved up to within a game of second place Newark by defeating Buffalo 7-1. Ora Leafs clinched the game with a five-run splurge in the fourth inning off Joe Bloomer. Luke Hamlin allowed 8 hits and never was in serious trouble.

Julius Solters' third home run in as many games and his 13th of the season, helped Baltimore Orioles down Reading Keystones 6-1. Harry Smythe was the real hero of the game, however. He limited the Keystones to five scattered hits and batted in three runs with a single and double.

The Newark-Jersey City battle also ended at night, was marked by the first start of Bob Hasty, former pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics, in a relief role. Hasty pitched well for eighth inning but Jersey Skeeters had to come to his rescue in the ninth when the Bears scored two runs. Bud Clancy drove in four Jersey City runs with a pair of singles.

LEAGUE LEADERS

(By the Associated Press)

National League

Batting—Klein, Phillies, .361; Martin, Cardinals, .349.

Runs—Cardinals, 53; Barnhart, Phillies, 43.

Runs Batted In—Klein, Phillies, 58; Bottomley, Reds, 44.

Hits—Phillis, Phillies, 94; Klein, Phillies, 91.

Doubles—Klein, Phillies, 21; Medwick, Cardinals, 18.

Triples—Martin, Cardinals, 8; P. Waner, and Suhr, Pirates, 6.

Home Runs—Klein, Phillies, 13; Berger, Braves, 12.

Stolen Bases—Martin, Cardinals, 9; Frisch, Cardinals; Davis, Giants and Cuyler, Cubs, 8.

Pitching—Hallahan, Cardinals, 9-2; Carleton, Cardinals, and Cantwell, Braves, 5-1.

American League

Batting—Simmons, White Sox, .387; Chapman, Yankees, .353.

Runs—Foxx, Athletics, 52; Foxx, Athletics, 52.

Runs Batted In—Gehrig, Yankees, 57; Simmons, White Sox, 52.

Hits—Manush, Senators, 95; Simmons, White Sox, 92.

Doubles—Combs, Yankees, 10; Manush, Senators, 10.

Home Runs—Gehrig, Yankees, 17; Ruth, Yankees and Foxx, Athletics 15.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers, 14; Chapman, Yankees, 10.

Pitching—Hildebrand, Indians; A. Crowder, Senators, and Marberry, Tigers, 10-4.

MIDGET KI-Y SCHEDULE

June 23rd—
Maple Leafs vs. S.E.A.C.
Q.V.S. Cubs vs. Midgets
St. Michaels vs. Y. Bruins
Maroons vs. Pirates

June 27th—
S.E.A.C. vs. Q.V.S. Cubs.
Midgets vs. Maple Leafs
Y Bruins vs. Maroons
Pirates vs. St. Michaels

June 30th—
Maple Leafs vs. Q.V.S. Cubs
S.E.A.C. vs. Y Bruins
St. Michaels vs. Maroons
Midgets vs. Pirates

July 4th—
Y Bruins vs. Maple Leafs
Pirates vs. Q.V.S. Cubs
Maroons vs. S.E.A.C.
Midgets vs. St. Michaels

July 7th—
Y Bruins vs. Pirates
Q.V.S. Cubs vs. Maroons
Midgets vs. S.E.A.C.
Maple Leafs vs. St. Michaels

July 11th—
Pirates vs. Maple Leafs
Q.V.S. Cubs vs. Y Bruins
Maroons vs. Midgets
S.E.A.C. vs. St. Michaels

July 14th—
Maple Leafs vs. Maroons
S.E.A.C. vs. Pirates
Y Bruins vs. Midgets
St. Michaels vs. Q.V.S. Cubs

BEARCATS NOW ON TOP RUNG

Defeat College Hill Cubs While South End Win From McNabbs

The Delaney Bearcats hopped into first place in the local Mens Softball Loop, when they defeated the College Hill Cubs the over-whelming score of 14 to 6 at the Cricket Field, while the South End A.C. were trimming the McNabb nine by the score of 17 to 7 at the College Hill ball park. Last night, for the South End club places them in second position, just a half game behind the Bearcats, who have lost but one single game in the current Men's Senior Softball schedule.

Harry Bridger on the hillock for the Bearcats was in rare form and stopped the Cubs for the better part of the game. He retired in favor of Sonny Green of Point Anne fame, in the last innings. Miller hurled for the Cubs.

Big Mac Rigby of the Cubs was the stathsmith of the night, when he clouted two of Mac Ruth's favourite home runs with F. Murray connecting for the circuit as did Hanna of the Cubs. Robinson also collected a single while Menn of the Delaney crew had three singles to his credit.

The lineups:

Delaneys — St. Denis, Gaulin, Menn, M. Ruth, Hanna, Hanna, C. Tuttle, H. Bawden, Ridley and Tuttle.

College Hill—Lapenette, F. Murray, Rigby, Covert, Miller, J. Murray, Robinson, McDonald and Gray.

Batting by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
College Hill	002 020 1—6	7	4
Delaneys B.C. ..	631 140 x—14	12	3

Umpires—Clapper and Rollins.

S.E.A.C. Wins

Andy Knoots red cap clad S.E.A.C. team experienced little difficulty in disposing of the McNabb nine by the score of 17 to 7 at the Albert College Field in the second game of the evening.

The "South Enders" garnered ten hits off the delivery of Ruth with the issue after McNabb crew had held them in tow to that time. Ruth, Hanna and Hanna were the best hitters for the winners while Dickson, Wood and Ruth, Jr. wielded the heavy bats for the McNabbs. Hanna was the winning ball for the winners, while Stringham labored on the mound for the losers.

The lineups:

S.E.A.C.—Martin, Murphy, Day, Morgan, Stringer, Barrigar, Wardsworth, Boyle and Knoots.

S.E.A.C.—Barrage, Burley, Henn, Kizer, Hanna, Stringer, Faux, Dorvell and Beare.

Score by innings:

South End A.C. ...	1	0	0	1	4	1	1	0	1—17
McNabbs	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	7—

CANZONERI TO RISK HIS TITLE

Battles Hard Hitting Barney Ross in Chicago

By PAUL MISKELSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago, June 23—(AP)—Tony Canzoneri, one of the finest hurricane fighters the ring has had in ever known, risks his world's lightweight championship for the fifth time in history when he meets Barney his most spectacular challenger.

Tonight at Comiskey park.

Climaxing a surprising four-year comeback career, which found him defeating such trial horses of the ring as Billy Petrolle and Tod Morgan, Ross will climb into the hard hitting champion, a champion that has held the title for rounds or less at the Chicago stadium before a crowd of 40,000 and a radio audience.

Chicago boxing fans, who have never seen Canzoneri fight a pour battle since his first appearance here, are looking for a hard hitting his reputation as a money fighter, insisted that Ross was all set to be favorite. The fight was the talk of Chicago's fight fans.

Tonight's battle matched a real two-fisted punches in the champion's aggressive manner with his 133, and slightly better than an inch advantage in reach. He is 23, Canzoneri is 25.

Yesterdays Stars

(By Associated Press)

Ray Benge, Dodgers—Blanked Pirates with four hits.

Roy Johnson, Red Sox— Tripled in tenth to drive in runs that beat Athletics, 5-4.

Spud Davis, Phillies—Hit two doubles and single, drove in three runs against Cardinals.

Eric McNair, Athletics—Knocked in three runs against Indians with two doubles and single.

Carl Hubbell, Giants—Held Reds to five hits.

Bruce Campbell, Browns—Singled with bases loaded in ninth to beat Yankees.

Ed. Brandt, Braves—Scored one run and batted in one to help win game against Cubs.

Lon Warneke, Cardinals— Touched Chicago pitchers for four hits.

JUVENILE KI-Y GAMES PLAYED

Three games were played in the juvenile section of the Ki-Y League last evening when the Orioles won their first game when they defeated the St. Michael's kids 8 to 6 in a close tilt played at St. Michael's school grounds.

Down at Queen Alexandra School grounds the Die Hards eked out a 24 to 23 win over the Rangers in a game that proved to be a slugfest throughout.

The third game which was played at Queen Victoria School grounds was terminated in the sixth inning on account of darkness with the game reverting back to the 5th. The Monarchs emerged victors in the second league game by the score of 23 to 3.

The various scores by innings:

At Q.A.S.—

Die Hards	1	2	0	3	2	3	2	5	0—24
Rangers	4	1	0	6	1	6	5	0	—23

Umpires—J. Marshall and A. McCreary.

At Q.V.S.—

Monarchs	1	3	4	0	1	5	—23
Lucky Strikes	0	0	3	0	0	3	—3

Umpires—Don Ridley and F. Fisher.

At St. Michael's—

Orioles	2	1	0	0	2	3	—8
St. Mikes	2	0	2	0	0	0	2—6

Umpires—K. Parkes and Harry Poste.

The grave of the first Briton to be buried in Australia has been discovered at Botany Bay. He was a Scottish seaman in Captain Cook's ship Endeavour.

An airplane consignment of 20,000 lady-birds was sent from California to Venice to cope with an insect which is devastating the orange and grapefruit groves.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES!

By Alex J. Morrison

DON'T JUDGE THE SHOT UNTIL YOU GET TO YOUR BALL

ALEX MORRISON says:

Many times you've selected the wrong club or misjudged the length of a shot already you tried to size up the distance long before you reached your ball.

Until you come to a position where you can stand right over your ball and sight the line to the hole as well as gauge the yardage, you should not worry about these items.

Furthermore, early anticipation of a shot already is a waste of time and worry of its outcome.

For your peace of mind as well as better judgment don't even take the club you expect to use until within a few feet of your ball.

All good players go this for the reason, I've just explained.

Next: Weight Shifting.

QUICK AND ROBERTSON

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

You'll Like These

Exceptionally Good Looking and Well Dressed Men Everywhere are Choosing Them for Their Rich Colourings and Exclusive Designs.

BASEBALL'S STAR BACHELOR TO WED

Lou and Miss Pertichel.

Dan Cupid has at last snared baseball's most famous bachelor—Lou Gehrig, star first baseman of the New York Yankees. Lou is engaged to wed Miss Eleanor Twitchell of Chicago after conclusion of the 1933 season or, maybe, just after the world series.

RIGHT OF WAY ASSESSMENT

Old G.T.R. Right of Way Assessment at $50 Acre

Cannifton.

Council met according to adjournment; all members being present.

Minutes of April meeting were read and on motion of P. Walker and G. MacDonald were adopted.

On motion of Messrs and R. Robson, Council went into Court of Revision, when the following appeals were dealt with.

Mr. Keith for Canadian National Railway stated that the Round House and other buildings were depreciating in value and were not taxed as formerly and asked a substantial reduction thereon. He urged that the right of way be assessed at the same rate as farm lands in the same locality; also that the right of way of the old Canadian Northern be assessed at $10.00 per acre as it was not in use now.

Moved by E. Denyes and G. MacDonald that the right of way of the old G.T.R. be lowered to $50.00 per acre making a reduction of $43.50 and rest of assessment remain as heretofore.—Carried.

Geo. Lucas appealed on grounds of excessive assessment on house.

Moved by G. MacDonald and R. Robson that $100.00 be taken off house and $50.00 added to land; a reduction of $50.00.—Carried.

Mr. B. Hamilton asked for a reduction on the Islands in river near Plainfield. Moved by E. Denyes and G. MacDonald that assessment be lowered $25.00.—Carried.

Mr. R. Peacock asked for a reduction on account of Mr. Lucas sold by R. Robson and G. MacDonald that no action be taken.

Moved by P. Walker and G. MacDonald that Court adjourn and resume for general business.

Frank Weese asked that his application to the Land Settlement Board be accepted.

Moved by G. MacDonald and P. Walker that application be recommended.—Carried.

W. Clarke S. A. O. presented his report and account. Moved by R. Robson and G. MacDonald that report be received and account paid. Amount $2.40.

Moved by E. Denyes and R. Robson that collector's statement be paid:

Hydro account for collection, $38.61; A. E. Wilson and Co., Township Insurance $158.20; Indigent Hospital account from December 31st 1931 to October 7th 1932, $486.75; Account of Mr. Hammond for salary was received. On motion of P. Walker and E. Denyes no action was taken. Bruce Martin account to 1 registered who killed a dog voucher No. 19 $402.96;

Moved by E. Denyes and P. Walker that the clerk write a letter of appreciation of their help in the interest of Unemployment Relief to the Canada Cement Co., and Mr. Harold Lamont.

Regarding pay of law costs re Corbyville Hall, Drain as asked by the deputation at April meeting, it was decided that request be not granted.

When Long Beach, California, found itself without school buildings, following the recent earthquake it solved the education problem for junior high school by having the teachers lecture over the radio.

It is estimated that there are nearly 125,000 kinds of flowering plants.

AMERICAN WRITER WORRIED AT PRINCE'S BACHELORHOOD

Tries Hard at Matchmaking with Richest Girl as Heir to Throne Reaches 39th Birthday

Edward Windsor, Prince of Wales, 39 years old on June 23, has many people worried because of his continued bachelorhood. No European mate has been found him from either royalty or commoner. An American writer in London is the latest to try his hand at matchmaking, and suggests Dorothy Duke (inset lower right) of New York, richest girl in the world. The Prince is one of the most democratic princes England has ever known. He is shown at left in old clothes, and at top right, mixing with his subjects. Two of his U. S. dancing partners are also shown, Miss Elsie Janis, Mrs. Earl Whitehall; in square at right, Miss Eleanor Nichols of Newport, R. I. Miss Duke is shown in circle.

W. Y. FERROLL, an American writer in London, England pens the following story about the Prince of Wales where he should be amusing to Canadian readers.

Many attempts have been made to "marry off" Britain's popular Prince, but Mr. Ferroll's attempt to match the heir of the throne with the richest girl in the United States outdoes all other efforts.

By W. Y. FERROLL

London, June 22—Britons worried over the failure of the Prince of Wales to provide a direct heir to the throne, are again discussing the mystery surrounding the unwillingness of the Prince to wed, for June 23 is his 39th birthday.

Since no European princess has been found for Edward Windsor, it is being suggested that the Prince take one of the aristocratic heiresses of the United States or of one of the dominions, as his wife. It is reckoned that union of the heir to the throne with one of the beauties of blue blood of Canada would have the invaluable effect of welding two of the white British possessions to the throne at a time when tariff restrictions, nationalistic ambitions and political factors are creating a cleavage. A marriage of the Prince and one of the United States dollar princesses is regarded as having equal advantages.

Conditions were so intolerable "we could stand them no longer," he said. "Dora, our cook in the apartment, to cover up the maladministration, put the onus on us and caused us to do many things we otherwise would not have been done? After the war, when cigarette papers, recreation, and the silliest rule of all—sex—were abolished day after day, month after month, and year after year have been in our cells, forbidden to speak a word.

"Gentlemen, I tell you it is humanly impossible. The departments knew we were innocent, but to bring us to trial for what they forced us into, when many men are being persecuted for what 300 people have alleged against us."

Convict McCrea after reviewing the evidence, expressed his thanks to the jury for their patient consideration of his case.

"If you think I did right, find me not guilty," he said. "May I also thank the Crown for his very fair consideration."

Accused Able Man

Col. McKay, in addressing the jury, said that the evidence showed that he is a man of real ability. "The jury knows that a man of his ability" eh said, should be making a much better showing than stopped through his own fault from piety. Because the accused wears the garb of the penitentiary does not make one iota of difference to you.

Col. McKay pointed out that not only did the Crown witnesses, but also those called by the accused have testified to the conditions which led the torch when the locks were being burned off.

The Crown Prosecutor spoke very briefly saying that it would be superfluous to detain the audience.

Judge Madden in his charge, complimented the jury upon the careful manner in which he conducted his case. He broke down the facts and has done remarkably well," said His Honor. The Crown's case, he said, has been presented in a very fair and impartial manner.

ACCUSED MAN CHARGES JURY

Clever Defence By Convict McCrea in Riot Case

Kingston, Ont., June 22 (CP)—Convict William McCrea was today found guilty of rioting in connection with the Kingston penitentiary disturbances of last October.

Kingston, Ont., June 22 (CP)—"The Crown will probably tell you that to acquit me would be to put your wives and children in jeopardy," said convict William McCrea, charged with rioting in Kingston penitentiary last October, in addressing "the jury here to-day. He emphasized he was a "convict man," and speaking of Col. Kellock McKay's special Crown prosecutor, he said: "He will probably tell you of the expense put to because of the smashing of the locks, but will he tell you the government paid him $3,200 to come here and collect evidence?"

"Now McCrea," interrupted Judge J. E. Madden, "I don't want to hamper you, but I must ask you not to deal with outside matters."

McCrea, conducting his own defense, considered none of the Crown witnesses had told a straight story. "They all have told you about the speeches in the shop dome. Burt's speech has now become as famous as ex-President Wilson's war speech in which he spoke of making the world safe for democracy." If there were some 300 convicts in a tumultuous and very noisy mood do you think you would intentionally call order and give a speech everyone heard?"

Conditions Intolerable

Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hubble.

Mr. and Mrs. Beady and Marjorie were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield, Stella.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reid visited friends recently in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace visited in Peterborough on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubble of Detroit, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Hubble and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hubble.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen attended the Women's Institute convention at Wellman's on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melville and children and Mr. Percy Melville spent Sunday in Marmora and Mr. Melville assisted Melville's band when they furnished music.

On Tuesday evening Bonanlaw and Mountain Grove baseball team played another scheduled game in the Rawdon League. The line-up was:

Bonanlaw—M. Heath c; R. Black p; H. Heath 1b; J. McGrath 2b; Mc-McCoy cf; A. O. Reid 1st b; J. Reid 2nd b; H. Reid 3rd b; T. Neal rf.

Mount Pleasant—Q. Holmes; 1st b; Douglas c; Tom Bowler ss; A. Kellar p; R. Higgs 3rd b; N. Holmes lf; Ernest Reid cf; D. Jeffs 2nd b; H. Hagerman lf.

Umpires—Fred Sharpe, W. R. Bone.

Scorekeepers—Edna Campbell and J. F. Baker.

A large number of fans were in attendance and the visitors went to bat at 7.15 p.m. In the first round Bonanlaw failed to score while Mount Pleasant boys picked up their sticks they resolved to make a showing and they did so as they scored three runs making the score 1-0 in favor of Mount Pleasant.

In the first of the fifth the visitors scored two runs, one of which before they lost three men. Mount Pleasant then walked from the field and Bonanlaw got the only home run of the evening was staged by Bonanlaw when Jack Reid and R. Higgs arrived safe at the plate. Bonanlaw scored two more runs and were followed by Hagerman, C. Holmes and Coggins each making a score. Mount Pleasant second when Kellar went out. This was the most interesting of many innings when an older, more experienced and perhaps better trained team than Bonanlaw defeated them by five runs making the score 12-5.

In the first of the sixth Neil and Peters each scored a run and Heath, Black and Brooks lost out.

Bonanlaw went out and Higgs arrived home. K. Holmes made a single but Douglas made a good catch in the field and he was out. Hagerman also went out and Jeffs made home. Hagerman got to second and C. Holmes struck out. The score 15-5 in favor of Mount Pleasant.

Beginning the last frame McGrath and McCoy went out, Reid to first and Neil struck out Peters as the Mount Pleasant score was double zero. Visitors the second part of this frame was not played, and not to modest opinion that the cinders will be flickering in the face of the Marquette star when these two meet at Soldier's Field in Chicago on July 1. And why not, when if young Jesse doesn't get "star-dium-dicus" mixed in his first definition for stage-struck on the athletic field.

"BUCKEYE is a star", says Owens, "but I think I'll show him a few things in cinder racing. know I can beat him if I don't get scared at the crowd.

"He runs with a tenseness and if he doesn't loosen up a bit, I think my style will beat him.

The Owens' style, the same he used in whipping everything on two legs in Cleveland and in Ohio as well, seems to be one to conquer the nation's best, is laxness. He runs loosely and freely, similar after a fashion, to a runaway horse who has been in harness too long. Tall and lithe, and with a wide smile that is as winning as his stride, Jesse is the only athlete in a family of eight children. They all came to Cleveland from Alabama 11 years ago, when Jesse was a lad of eight.

Until he became a student in the Fairmount Junior High School, Owens never thought much of athletics, and sprinting was far from his mind and aims.

"THERE'S a STORY that Owens first came to the attention of a track coach while playing one day at school. Coach Charley Riley noticed the youth and saw in him the makings of a track star.

From that day on, Owens was in training. In his first race he clipped off the century in 10.4 seconds, a time that if duplicated by many of the classified college stars to make. Since then he has been tearing off a level .9 of a second his time with regularity. In the Ohio scholastic meet, he won the 100 in 9.6.

"The training program of this potential world-famous star isn't an intricate one. As a matter of fact, he trains only a couple of times a week, and then usually he does nothing but try to speed up his starts and perfect his finishes. He doesn't indulge in long runs to develop "wind."

"An athlete shouldn't train too much, or he will be tired in the tests", Owens advises. He believes a certain amount of an athlete's ability must be "born in him", with the proper diet, regular rest and moderate living doing the rest.

LAD IS BADLY BITTEN BY DOG

RAWDON—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Couch of Toronto and Mrs. Rowe, Whitby spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Couch.

Mr. Roy Walker attended the I.O.O.F. Grand Lodge at the Royal York, Toronto, last week.

Friends will be sorry to hear that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Donnon was bitten by a dog necessitating several stitches.

Mrs. R. Townsend of Halloway spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Heath visited Mr. and Mrs. Olive Stapley on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Drewery entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. B. McGill and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gainsforth of Woolen on Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest White spent Tuesday June 30th with her sister Mrs. Reagle in being the occasion of Mrs. Reagle's Birthday.

Mrs. John Holmes and Mrs. Frank Smith spent Friday with Mrs. Farah McKeown.

Mr. Albert Dunkley is recuperating from her recent illness.

Mrs. Charles Lott of Oshawa is holidaying with Rawdon friends this week.

Mrs. F. Sutherland entertained Bethel C.G.I.T. groups and their girls made plans for their summer camp, at the close the hostess served lunch.

Miss Heley Walker, nurse in training at Belleville hospital is a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker.

Reeve George E. Thompson and Deputy Reeve Phillip Carr of Ameliasburgh attended County Council.

Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Hubble attended the Rebekah Assembly at the Royal York, Toronto, last week.

Mr. Hollis Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Sunday wit htheir sister at South Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Beady and Marjorie were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield, Stella.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reid visited friends recently in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace visited in Peterborough on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubble of Detroit, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Hubble and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hubble.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen attended the Women's Institute convention at Wellman's on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melville and children and Mr. Percy Melville spent Sunday in Marmora and Mr. Melville assisted Melville's band when they furnished music.

On Tuesday evening Bonanlaw and Mountain Grove baseball team played another scheduled game in the Rawdon League. The line-up was:

Bonanlaw—M. Heath c; R. Black p; H. Heath 1b; J. McGrath 2b; Mc-McCoy cf; A. O. Reid 1st b; J. Reid 2nd b; H. Reid 3rd b; T. Neal rf.

Mount Pleasant—Q. Holmes; 1st b; Douglas c; Tom Bowler ss; A. Kellar p; R. Higgs 3rd b; K. Holmes lf; Ernest Reid cf; D. Jeffs 2nd b; H. Hagerman lf.

Umpires—Fred Sharpe, W. R. Bone.

Scorekeepers—Edna Campbell and J. F. Baker.

A large number of fans were in attendance and the visitors went to bat at 7.15 p.m. In the first round Bonanlaw failed to score while Mount Pleasant boys picked up their sticks they resolved to make a showing and they did so as they scored three runs making the score 1-0 in favor of Mount Pleasant.

In the first of the fifth the visitors scored two runs, one of which before they lost three men. Mount Pleasant then walked from the field and Bonanlaw got the only home run of the evening was staged by Bonanlaw when Jack Reid and R. Higgs arrived safe at the plate. Bonanlaw scored two more runs and were followed by Hagerman, C. Holmes and Coggins each making a score. Mount Pleasant second when Kellar went out. This was the most interesting of many innings when an older, more experienced and perhaps better trained than Bonanlaw defeated them by five runs making the score 12-5.

In the first of the sixth Neil and Peters each scored a run and Heath, Black and Brooks lost out.

Bonanlaw went out and Higgs arrived home. K. Holmes made a single but Douglas made a good catch in the field and he was out. Hagerman also went out and Jeffs made home. Hagerman got to second and C. Holmes struck out. The score 15-5 in favor of Mount Pleasant.

Beginning the last frame McGrath and McCoy went out, Reid to first and Neil struck out Peters as the Mount Pleasant score was double zero. Visitors the second part of this frame was not played,

People with the nasty irritating "tickle" cough of should read this:—"I had a dry cough that bothered me day and night. I used RAZ-MAH and got rid of the trouble completely." Mr. Jacob Maas, Neustadt Ont. Concentrated relief from 31 every-day cough troubles. No harmful drugs. 50c and $1 everywhere.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Don't cough, choke, gasp!

RAZ-MAH

Two great new Ford Cars

A "FOUR" AND AN "EIGHT" TO MEET THE NEEDS OF EVERY MOTORIST

NEW FORD V-8 — NEW FORD 4

A long, low, roomy car with full 112-inch wheelbase and remarkable riding comfort. The only low-price car with the smoothness and flexibility of a V-type eight-cylinder engine. 75 horsepower. 80 miles an hour. Aluminum cylinder head. Many features usually found only in cars selling at $1500 to $2000. Beautiful body lines. Unusual economy. Many owners report 22 to 25 miles per gallon. Low oil consumption.

Same distinctive, modern lines and same long 112-inch wheelbase as the Ford V-8. 50-horsepower engine is completely cushioned in rubber. New front engine mounting. No metal to metal contact between motor and chassis. 70 miles an hour. Owners report better than 25 miles per gallon. Remarkable riding comfort. Prices lower than any other standard size car in Canada. You save when you buy. You save as you ride.

$650 UP (F. O. B. East Windsor, Ontario. Bumpers, spare tire and taxes extra)

$590 UP (F. O. B. East Windsor, Ontario. Bumpers, spare tire and taxes extra)

You get more and you pay less when you buy the Ford V-8 or the Ford "4." Ride in the cars and see for yourself.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

Cheap Rail Rates Dominion Day

TORONTO, June 21.—Canada's principal summer holiday, Dominion Day, July 1st, falls on Saturday this year and for the convenience of those Canadians who wish to visit friends and relatives or to enjoy their outing at points away from their homes, the Canadian railways have arranged low fares providing for either the one-day or longer holiday trips. Announcement to this effect was made by C. P. Riddell, Chairman of the Canadian Passenger Association. Return tickets will be sold, except between stations in Canada at one and one quarter times the regular one-way fare, good going from noon on Friday, June 30th to noon on Sunday, July 2nd and for return good on trains leaving not later than midnight, standard time, July 3rd. In addition there will be special one-day fares, the return tickets being sold at regular one-way first class fares. These tickets will be good going on any train after 1 a.m., standard time, on July 1st with the return portion good starting point up to midnight of the same day. Special holiday tickets will be good between any points within Canada, regardless of the period limit of the respective tickets.

Little Benny's Note Book

Me and Puds Simkins and Sid Hunt was standing around in the lam post talking about diffrent subjects such as whether you can skate faster on one skate than what you can on a pair of skates, a guy accidently happens to be a little longer than the length of your with, and Puds said, O boy look those here and look what he's got on.

Meeting Shorty Judge with a pencil in his hand I says, Yellow pencil, me saying O, Shorty, what's that you're going to write with it, and Sid saying, O is that you, Shorty, I thawt I saw a fat lady cue parrade coming up the street, and Puds saying, Yes and with a paper stuck under your chin, where did you get that Shorty, at a fire sale, and Puds and Sid saying, No, my ant gave it to me when I was sick, so I got it to-day and Sid Sunday, And she gave something to you, Puds, I says, O, what elss did she give you and Puds underthem, and Sid laughed and said, and Puds said, I bet I know, she also gave you a pair of white shoes with black tops and white shoelaces and Sid said, I bet you're bole, and Puds said, she put in a tattoo outfit to tattoo himself all over.

Well you're all wrong she gaimmes a half a dollar and here it is right here, Shorty said.

And he showed it to us, being a new shiny one, and I said, O, Shorty, are you going to spend it? Sid said, and Puds said, Sure Shorty, a necktie's meant to be seen and the farther away you can see it the less doubt there is about it, and I said, Sure Shorty, gosh the trubble with us is we're probely jellous.

Shorty not spending any of the half a dollar anyways, but us two lows still having the consolation of knowing he's still out in it and we're not.

CHRISTIAN ST. NEWS OF WEEK

Christian Street—Mrs. Still Osborne and children of Dunce's corners visited with Mrs. Look and family recently.

Mrs. Mark Werden called on Mrs. James Noxon on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs P. W. Roelin and Clara also Mrs. Harold Cress spent Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Wm. Clarke of Foxboro. Col. C. Bell of Toronto, Family of Orinda were also guests there.

Miss Georgia Bovay spent Tuesday night at Prinis with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Delong and attended graduation at the United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moxam of Belleville spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. David Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bovay of Prinisville spent Sunday with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Werden.

Rain is very badly needed in these parts.

REDOUBLE SEARCH FOR MISSING AVIATORS

Lieut. Joaquin Collar, might have been forced south of their course by storms and continued their westward through Tabasco State over the Sierra Mountains.

Such a case they might possibly be far from Villa Hermosa, capital of Tabasco. Look now is being sent soon and focal point of the search hereabouts. Was said at the Presidential office.

OFF COLOUR? HOW IS YOUR LIVER?

Wake up your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

Your liver's a very small organ, but it sure totally can get you down when it doesn't work right. Don't suffer dizziness, headaches, sour stomach and constipation because of liquid bile into your bowels. You don't completely succeed such a condition by taking salts, oil, mineral water, laxative candy or chewing gum. Your druggist has probably never sold more laxative than he has since he learned your bowels need bile to help digest your food.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are the best known bile stimulant. They're purely vegetable, act gently but surely. Ask for them by name. Insist on substitutes. 25c at all druggists.

Appetites have EARS!

It's a treat to hear Rice Krispies snap and crackle in the milk or cream. Children are fascinated and eat without coaxing.

Rice Krispies are nourishing. Easy to digest. Fine for the evening meal as well as breakfast. Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

Listen!—

get hungry

Of Jesse Owens, Schoolboy Track Star Taking It Easy--That's Success Secret

By M. O. CHENOWETH
Central Press Writer

CLEVELAND, O., June 22.—O! Man River Owens just keeps rollin' along!

Rollin', that is to say, rollin along these cinder tracks of the country and flood practically every track records, and dampen the ambitions of many athletes who are older, more experienced and perhaps better trained than he.

"Flying Ebony" they call this 18-year-old negro flash around East Tech high school, Cleveland, whose colors he has carried to fame on his long and sturdy legs. And fly he has in these past few years to win a trunk full of medals, trophies and cups for himself and school.

Jesse Owens cemented a name for himself in the world's track championships recently when he marked up three new records at the national intercholastic track and field championships at Chicago, all in the same day.

ONE OF THESE marks was in the 100-yard dash and in cracking this record he tied the world's best time of 9.4 seconds. He then ran the 220 in 20.7 seconds, and decorated the track for a moment on the field to win, and establish a new record in the broad jump at 24 feet 3 3-4 inches.

It goes without saying that East Tech won the national title. Owens self, scored 30 of his team's 54 1-2 tallies.

As a result of this performance, Owens, who once was a cotton-picker in Alabama, has been matched with Ralph Metcalfe, of Marquette university, star sprinter, to race for the title of "fastest human."

Westminster Hotel
TORONTO

Centrally situated, close to shopping district and theatres. Fireproof. Two rooms open till midnight. Single room with bath, $2.25; Double room with bath, $3.50 and up. Breakfast 25c to 70c. Luncheon 50c. Dinner 60c.

Write for illustrated folder

Mr. Jarvis St., Toronto
Phone ADelaide 9861

Buy Quality
SALADA TEA
STATION L-O-V-E BY CRAIG CARROLL

"We're worth more," he'd laugh at me and sit you. I tell you it's true, Judy. Every word of it!"

"Yes," she said dully, "I suppose so."

"But you don't really think so. You think you're under obligations to me and you don't want to be."

"Do you blame me?"

"Of course I don't! You've got a right to think anything you like, Judy. There's plenty wrong with me, I know that. But this time I'm on the level. Honestly."

"Yes."

"Won't you say something else?" He was actually pleading. Elton Day, the approachable, was prodding with a Judy Allison of Hiawatha to understand things that he—whose joke was worth—could not put into any but halting, broken phrases.

"There's nothing else to say. Except, 'Thank you.'"

"And you don't mean that."

"But of course I do. The money is going to help my family a lot. And having a job for a year—it's more than I ever counted on. So, of course, I must thank you."

"Must!" he said eloquently, bitterly. "That's just it. Must! Not because you want to. Not because you've changed a bit in the way you think about me. Just because it's the thing you ought to do."

She was silent. Elton, moving restlessly, stared at himself in the long mirror back of the counter, a ratsplintered his perfect tie, smoothed his immaculate lapels. Now the moment Jerry Jack of dejunair, almost of longing to be liked, was gone.

"Judy! You're a millionaire! You are set for life! Here, woman! Shake hands! Dance a Highland fling! Do something, anybody! Judy forced a smile.

"It is like isn't it?" she said.

"Nice Elsie mocked her. "Nice? Yeh, and the Grand canyon's a nice little thing, too! Nice? Hey — Mike! Get me Iona Jenks on the afternoon off. Got things to do. Got business. Got to go to Atlantic for the week-end. You hear me? Here Judy, is my hat on straight? Is it? It isn't! It wouldn't be. Well come on, woman! Come on! We've got to celebrate! Get! A hundred a week!"

It was like that for a half hour, with Elsie talking, laughing, almost shouting; with Judy answering in monosyllables, only once in a while. Until in the cool depths of the big motion-picture house, Elsie turned suddenly, whispering. "You're not tickled a bit! What's wrong with you, anyhow, Judy?"

"Nothing. Oh, nothing."

"Don't lie to me. What's it all about?"

Hesitantly, then more rapidly Judy poured out the story. How she watched Elton force Jenks into giving her the contract, how she let him make Jenks think she was a party to it, how she said nothing when she should have spoken.

"Huh!" said Elsie suddenly, as she might now that a movie is no place for me and thou. Come on. Let's go buy a hat."

"But...."

"Buying a hat," said Elsie sagely, "is the best way in the world for a girl to get over feeling sorry. I'll prove it."

And in the hat store on State street, Judy realized that Elsie was right. Buying for a new, elegant hat—knowing there would be a $100 check waiting for her Saturday, knowing there would be a check just like it waiting every Saturday from now on for a year, for fifty-two long weeks—that was the thing to do. It was a good thing, that security in a job is a thing to be grateful for, that pride and makes you see new values. And soon she was agreeing with Elsie that what Elton Day had done was not cricket. Hardly fair, that perhaps his specious excuse was right.

"He looked different," Judy said. "When he was trying to explain it was a feeling that he was trying to or somebody else. Trying not to be the way he'd been before. I almost felt sorry for him. Honestly, I did."

"Huh! Elsie jeered. "Feel sorry for him? Didn't he try to cheat you out of that job?"

"Yes, but then he cheated to get it for me."

"What?"

Yes, Elsie. I'm all mixed up. I'm worried. Elsie. That girl—that Burdette girl. Could do anything to get even with me because I got the job because—Judy flushed, but went on— because Elton Day has been so interested in me."

Elsie stared. "You go too fast. You are 'way ahead of me. Better tell all, Judy."

So Judy did.

About the audition, and what was done to make sure that she got the job. Along, Iona, and her friends that were more suggested than said. About the sudden almost, incredible change in Elton Day. About the luncheon with Jenks, and the way he had made Jenks sign a contract he had no intention of signing.

Elsie said, softly, "Poor kid!"

"That's not it. I've no right to cry about anything, Elsie. I'm getting money, and I've a good job, and as far as my mother and father are concerned I'm a success. I can't tell them about any of this. They wouldn't understand, anyhow. But it's Dick who worries me."

"Why?"

"That girl Lona was trying to see Jenks today. To tell him something. Suppose Lona should prove the audition was wrong? Or Dick itself was blame, too. Elton. And I've a contract. They'll have to keep me on the program now, no matter what happens. But if Dick loses his job

"He won't," Elsie said confidently. "Not Dick Mason. He's the best announcer they've got."

"I won't help — a bit if they think he cheated to get a job for me."

"Then you'd better tell him all about it. So he can cover up."

"I can't tell him, Elsie. I can't tell him at all."

"Why not?"

"Don't you see? He did want me to get the job. He did help me all he could. And now if I let him see that I was a party to it, Elsie. Day's that really did it—and I did look like a fool, Elsie. Final; I've kept it to myself all this time—don't you see how he'd feel?"

"Yes, you're right. Never pay to tell a man anything, anyhow." "That's it, Elsie. I've been tricked before in my life. But every time Dick says anything that I'd see knew he's really proud about helping me I feel like a liar for not telling him what really happened.

"You shouldn't. He did help. Maybe you'd have got the job anyhow."

"That's no answer. Maybe, would have. Maybe I wouldn't. But either way, I know and you know and Elton Day knows how I really got it. And suppose that Burdette girl finds out?"

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

Judy continued to tell Elsie of her suspicions of Lona. "I've told you what I've heard," Judy said. "Lona has ruined things for half a dozen girls before me. She's mean. Elsie. Mean as she can be. And danger-ous. That's what Bond girl told me. Said Lona had ways of finding, out things and using them against people. Not for money, sometimes. And she's been trying to see Jenks to tell him something. And they're sure to find out, over at the studio, about this new contract."

"Don't tell 'em," Elsie said immediately.

"Of course I won't. But Platin, the advertising man, will, find you do not know how fast everybody gets to know everything around a station."

"They can't do anything about it can they?"

"Not to me."

"But Dick—"

"He's the one who's in danger, Elsie. And he's got all those people he's got to take care of. Just got to. If he loses his job."

Elsie shrugged. "Never cross a bridge till you think you're going to get your feet wet she observed. "And here's a bridge."

Silent, they crossed the Wabash bridge, walked north, past the grim, angular brick buildings. Silent, they came at last to the house, and on the porch sat Dick and Billy Benton the gold-toothed radio operator.

Dick jumped up, came running down the steps. "Judy! I thought you'd never get him. What happened today? Was the client all right? Did he have some kick to make?"

Eyes averted, Judy handed him the contract. There was a moment of silence. Then she heard Dick Mason whoop with joy, heard him chanting, "Judy's a success! She's got a contract! A hundred dollars a week! Gee!"

Suddenly he seized her hands. "Judy, I told you they liked you. I told you, Judy!"

"Yes," Judy said quietly. "you were right, Dick. And it's all due to you, Dick. You did everything for me."

He laughed. "Didn't do a thing. You did it yourself. Elsie meet Billy. Best radio operator in town. Billy, meet Elsie. Nicest girl here. Except Judy. Judy, Billy's going to stay on to talk to Judy. Go eat dinner, or anything. Go on!"

Billy stayed, with all his gold teeth. And Elsie grinned. Judy felt a pang of pity for Elsie, so unbeautiful, so aware of her lack of beauty. Then she saw that Elsie's arm, leading her toward the porch. Elsie looked happy. Almost pretty. Billy wasn't handsome, and he wasn't tall, and his clothes hung a bit oddly about him. But he was Elsie's cavalier.

Judy turned to face Dick. And to feel, as he laughed, as he talked, excitedly proud of her success, that she must tell him the truth. And very soon, before it was late.

But as the days passed, Elsie went to a movie with Billy Benton, and appeared at midnight—flushed, happy, proud. Elsie went to lunch with him Saturday and learned all Benton's plans and how to tune out the static. Elsie had Billy over for lunch Sunday, and he put on a new serial on the radio in her room and talked about the invention he was going to patent some day, and then surprised it would be nice to go to the Zoo.

So Judy was alone late in the afternoon when the telephone rang. It might be Dick. But it was not. It was Elton Day.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers from Indigestion CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, and food stomach, etc., are caused since times in ten by chronic acid stomach. Do you know why?

Burning hydrochloric acid dissolves in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining. Then pain, gas and acidity or sour stomach occurs. Don't dose an acid stomach with soda or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead, neutralize or overcome your acid stomach after meals with a little Bisurated Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but you will soon feel like a new person. Bisurated Magnesia is a pleasant, safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to take. It is a tasteless and is not an aspirative.

"Are you alone?"

"Why—yes."

"I want to see you, Judy. I'll be up in just a few minutes. I've got to see you. Good-by."

The receiver clicked. Judy, puzzled, suddenly, afraid, returned to the living room. It seemed she had been there for hours, flicking through magazines she did not want to read, listening for the doorbell, when suddenly it rang loudly and, in a moment, the landlady said, "Gentleman to see you, Judy."

It was Elton Day. He seemed breathless, for a moment he could not talk. Then he managed, "Judy things are happening."

"What things? Tell me! Tell me, Elton!"

"Not until I've told you something else, Judy. I'm in love with you. You know it. I'm saying it badly; but I love you. For the first time in my life I'm being absolutely honest. I'm not worth a thing, and you know it. I've been thoroughly against me, and you'll find out the ones I don't know. But I love you."

Judy stepped away from him, starring. Something had changed Elton Day. There was no sneer at the corners of his mouth, there was no arrogance in his voice. He might have been on his knees, on the worn carpet, in this shabby room. He might have been pleading for life.

Perhaps he was. Perhaps Elton Day, looking at the years ahead of him, afraid of the loneliness he had fought so hard to achieve, for he said again, in a voice that broke sharply, roughly, "I love you Judy Allison. Will you say something? Anything! Talk to me, Judy. Tell me—tell me whatever you want to—but talk, Judy!"

His hands touched her shoulders, for only a second.

Then she said, rather steadily, "You haven't any right to say that; things."

"No right? No right to say you're the one person in the world I've ever known was beautiful and right. No right to say I love you? I've every right in the world. And it's true. Listen to me, Judy Allison, I was too to marry me. I want us to go far away from everything I know, everything that's happened to both of us, that none of it touch us again. Can you hear me? I'm asking you to marry me. Judy. I want you to be with me always, Judy!"

Judy held hard to the back of a chair with trembling, fingers. His voice roared in her ears. Something shouted in her heart. Not like anything she had ever known. Not like the warm, safe warmth of Dick, that she felt when Dick Mason said, "I love you Judy." No, like that. Something that frightened her, that was not safe. She covered her hands across her mouth, in a frail gesture that meant, "No. Please don't say anything more. No."

He brushed her hands away, held them tightly, looked at her. His eyes begged. "Judy. Tell me! You don't hate me any more. You know you don't, Tell me, Judy!"

"I don't hate you," she said. It was true. Whatever hate there had been was gone. You cannot hate a man who is helpless, whose arrogance is gone who growels because he loves you. "I don't hate you," she repeated quietly.

"Then it's a right to say it again. I love you, Judy Allison! And you're going to love me!"

She laughed. It was a very small laugh, it was not; what she had meant, it was like striking Elton Day in the face.

"No," she said. "I'm not. I couldn't love you if I wanted to. And I don't want to."

"Judy Allison! You're in love with him! Look at me! Let me see your eyes, Judy!"

She faced him, standing quite still, looking into his eyes. The moment's strange feeling was gone. He was a man named Elton Day, and nothing more. Then she said, "Yes, I am in love with him."

His eyes widened. Something changed them. Then, amazingly, he began to laugh. He threw back his head and laughed, a long, mirthless, ugly laughter she heard him saying, "It's funny! It's the funniest thing that ever happened! It No! It's not funny!" She was not laughing any more. His face was white, his eyes slaked. "Judy! You don't know what's happened. It's not funny. It's ghastly."

He sat by on the table where he tossed it. Now he picked up the phone, turning it over and handling fingers. It dropped. He stopped, picked it up again. "Judy!"

"Judy!" "I didn't mean to say what I've just said. I mean I'll do something. But I can't tell you now. Good-by, Judy! Good-by!"

He was gone. The slammed Then in a moment, there was the noise of a car starting, roaring.

Now for the first time, Judy moved. She went to the window. She saw Elton Day's car moving down the street. She realized there were tears in her eyes, because he was gone. She did not care. She was sure she did not care at all. But because she was human, and because she was a girl who had been taught to be sorry for people who do not know their own way out.

If Elton Day was pitiful, it was his own fault; if, building a wall of isolation, he had to be alone with everything he might have wanted, he had done it willingly, knowingly; if lonely, he was pitiful in his loneliness, still he needed no sympathy. Still he stood on his own feet, got what he wanted; and for that more than anything else, Judy despised him.

He said, "I love you." Perhaps he meant it. Perhaps it was the only word when he said "love". He had written so much, so much that he had lost touch with life. Life. And a word and love was a word. That was what had brought the change in eyes.

Yet he had meant what he said. Somehow, she could not doubt him. Somehow, Elton Day had known. Somehow, he had to tell the truth. And, having told the truth, he had laughed. At himself. But at something else.

All at once Judy was terrified. Nothing ordinary could have worked that breath-taking change so suddenly. Something else knew nothing about had happened. Something she must know about at once. Something affecting Dick Mason. She did not know why she was so sure of this, but she was. Dick was in danger. Dick—

She ran to the telephone, jangled the receiver wildly, told the operator, "Long distance. I want Spring 1701. Hurry Hurry!" She bit her lip, trembled, restlessly, waiting, waiting for an intermi-nable time. Until a distant voice said, "Station WAOA."

"Let me speak to Mr. Mason, please."

"Who is calling?"

"Miss Allison. It's about the Beauty Builders program."

"Oh, Miss Allison? There was a message for you in the voice. "Just a moment."

A long wait again. Then the voice said, "Sorry, Mr. Mason is not here. Mr. Mason left the station today."

"What? What?"

"Mr. Mason is no longer connected with station WAOA."

The 'phone clicked.

To be Continued

Clark & Miles
Week-End Specials

Fillet of Veal	lb.	17c	Shoulder Pork Chops 2 lbs.	25c
Rump Roast Veal	lb.	14c	Fresh Pickled Pork	lb.	15c
Loin Roast Veal	lb.	14c	Fresh Pork Sausage 2 lbs.	25c
Rolled Roast Veal	lb.	14c	Choice Sirloin Steak or Roast	lb.	19c
Shoulder Veal Chops 2 lbs.	25c	Tender Blade Roast	lb.	10c
Loin Veal Chops	lb.	15c	Fresh Lard (home rendered)	lb.	10c
Stewing Veal	4 lbs.	25c	Fine Old Cheese	lb.	23c
Spare Ribs (fresh or pickled)	2 lbs.	25c

Spring Lamb at Lower Prices

180 Front St. Free C.O.D. Delivery Phone 10

WALKER'S
Great Week End Display and Selling of SUMMER DRESSES

Recent Advantageous Purchases Enable Us to Quote Extraordinary Prices on the Loveliest of SUMMER DRESSES

Note the Prices! Come and See the Dresses

$3.95
Best quality Celanese Crepe Dresses in pastel shades. Plain tailored and prettily trimmed styles. Mostly short sleeves. Sizes 14 to 38.

$4.95
Wide wale Silk Pique Dresses in sizes 14 to 20. Lovely pastel shades, mostly in plain tailored styles. Dainty and serviceable.

$5.95
Sample Dresses in washable silk crepes. A splendid variety to choose from. Sizes 14 to 20. Plain shades and with contrasting trim.

$7.95
Sample Washable Silk Crepe two piece suits, dresses of which are very daintily embroidered. Sizes 14 to 20 in the lot.

Simplicity Dresses
$10.00
The greatest value in dresses and suits we have ever shown. Styles that are exclusive with this store. A wide variety to choose from in all sizes.

Children's Dresses
$1.00
75 Sample Dresses in broadcloth and very fine quality prints. Dresses worth up to 2.00. Fancy and plain styles. Sizes 4 to 14 years.

Millinery Specials
$1.49
Of pique, medium size brim hats, of extra good quality. Regular 1.98.

Angelskin Slips
$1.49
Repeat selling of snow white angelskin slips, shadow panel, adjustable shoulder straps. Small, medium and large sizes.

$1.98
Crepe and Silk Pique Hats in turban, medium brim and wide brim styles. Regular 2.50 value.

Silk-to-the-Top Silk Stockings
79c pr.
Picot tops, finest pure silk chiffon weight. All the now wanted shades. Great value.

WALKER STORES, LIMITED

"You're a right to think anything you like."

He was the Elton Day she was used to seeing, smooth, slender, his chin red at the point of the angle, his ears emblem and untouched.

"Well, it's so Judy," he said casually. "No use standing here. Shall I drive you home? I'll get to send a telegram."

"Of course. Well, I'll see you tomorrow, then. And don't lose your contract. Good-bye, Miss Allison."

He lashed a taxicab with an elegant gesture, he stepped inside, disappeared.

Now Judy realized that she had never, news that would make her mother and father happy, make them send for the neighbours, make them telephone to cousins and aunts to say, "Judy's doing wonderfully in Chicago, on the radio. She just got a new contract and—" Listless, lly. She sought a telegram office. Slowly, she wrote, "Just got new contract. A hundred a week for a year. Will be sending most home every week. Please buy a new dress with this, mother. Love. I'm very happy." She wired $20 out of the $100 check and given her as a bonus, for signing her contract.

Then she went to Elsie's office to tell Elsie what had happened.

She found Elsie perturbed, almost unpleasant at first.

"Properly, you were going to call me up."

"I couldn't Elsie, I was busy."

"Oh, Dick?"

"No, I—Look Elsie."

She pecdured the contract. And Elsie, businesslike, knowing not through it hurriedly, read it a second time, then whistled, long and low.

WILSON'S FLY PADS
REALLY KILL
One pad kills flies all day and every day for 2 or 3 weeks. 3 pads in each packet. No spraying, no stickiness, no bad odour. Ask your Druggist, Grocery or General Store.
15 CENTS PER PACKET
WHY PAY MORE?
THE WILSON FLY PAD CO., Hamilton, Ont.

DON'T GROPE IN DARK CORNERS

KEEP A BURGESS FLASHLIGHT IN YOUR HOME

A Full Supply Of Burgess Flashlights, Burgess Radio Batteries Always On Hand At

John Lewis Company

295 Front St. Phone 2289

THE GIVEAWAY

By Jack Hanley

It was a second enough layout when Detective Sergeant Riley arrived: the squalid tenement that housed tragedy. There she lay, on the rumpled bed, mangled and lifeless—her body young and slim, clothed in the cheap, torn nightdress.

"How'd it happen, McCoy?" to the officer on guard.

"I was walkin' me beat," said McCoy stolidly, "when this hunky comes running up to me. He hollers something about his wife bein' hurt bad. I don't get it all, but I go back with him. As we come in the door he says: 'I tink she dead.' She was dead all right. One look'll tell you that.

"He jabbered some wild story about two guys runnin' out of the building as he comes near—figures they did it." McCoy snorted contemptuously. "So I put the cuffs on him and turned in the call."

Riley turned to the far corner of the dingy room where a hulking figure sat motionless, his hands tightly crossed. He looked up sullenly.

"I so kill her."

"Who did, then?" snapped Riley. He shrugged his shoulders. "Couple guys run from house when I come down street. Come upstairs—find dik." He nodded toward the bed.

"Then what?"

"Go out—find cop." He held out his manacled hands. "What for dis? I no kill her."

"Of course not," said Riley. "Probably suicide." McCoy chuckled.

A glance around the room showed a dresser with a tarnished mirror and no one corner a shelf with a flimsy curtain hanging from it to the floor.

Riley pulled aside the curtain revealing a few sleazy dresses on hangers; on the floor a row of clubby-looked pumps. In the far corner, on its side, lay a cage. He picked it up and found inside a dazed canary. As he set it down again he felt something damp and sticky on his fingers. One side of the cage was deeply dented and it was here the wires were twisted. He fitted a stained hatchet lying on the floor nearby told the story. On the corner of the shelf above was a hook, half wrenched from the wood.

Riley picked up the cage again by the ring at the top.

"All right, McCoy, take him away." More cops outside cleared a path as Riley followed with the cage.

At headquarters Riley expressed his opinion that it would be an open-and-shut case. A short grilling and a confession fould settle it. But it didn't.

The prisoner was Pete Zornik, a common laborer, out of work. The wife—American-born— had been pretty and pretty; neighbors raised eloquent shoulders speaking of Mrs. Zornik. There had been nothing unusual in the woman's screams, but such a woman's screams, but such noises were not unusual in the tenement house and nobody had bothered to investigate.

Zornik related questioning stolidly. After hours of words and fists he still stubbornly reiterated:

"I no kill her."

There was no evidence to back up his story of the two men and apparently no motive. Yet, from the [illegible] suspicion centered on the house it could not be proven that Zornik had some home before the murder.

Riley was disgruntled.

"It's a cinch this here bohunk did it, chief," he said, "but he's got his story and he's sticking to it. We might be able to dig up enough facts to get a conviction, and we might not. There's one guy left I'd like to try."

Zornik was taken back to the scene of the crime. The room was just as it had been left—a huddled lump under the grimy sheet on the bed, the parrot cage hanging from the hook in the corner. Zornik was seated in the far corner of the room under guard. His heavy features betrayed no hint of emotion at the sight of the grisly scene.

Riley scowled at him.

"Now I'm going to show you how you killed your wife," he said coldly, one hand behind him.

"You were having a fight— you thought she had a sweetie—Zornik's lips tightened the slightest imperceptibly—"and you were mad with jealousy—you took this hatchet and shooting it under his nose, —and threatened to kill her." Riley's voice was rising to a shout as he brandished the weapon. The parrot began a raucous screaming, adding to the bedlam.

"You threatened her—then when she laughed in your face you struck her— the detective was shouting as he strode over to the bed and struck fiercely at the huddle beneath the sheet. "Crazy mad—you struck her with the hatchet again and again" with the hatchet again and grimly silent— "Then when you saw her lying there dead, you threw the hatchet away"—suiting the action to the word Riley threw it to one side. It grazed the cage of the parrot. The bird stopped its squawking for a breathless instant; then its queer, metallic voice uttered three words:

"Don't—Pete—Pete—don't" and again, in a screech: "Do-not, Pete, don't!"

At the first sound Zornik's face contorted wildly as cold sweat broke out on his forehead. He uttered a strangled cry of horror, buried his head in his hands.

"It's on me—I tell."

Riley jerked his head at an officer with a notebook.

"Come on, spill it! Why did you kill her?"

Zornik was sobbing brokenly.

"She keep saying she leave me because I can find no job; she get she get someone to buy her dresses— shoes. I ask her to stop—she laugh. This time I go crazy—she laugh—she say 'What you care? You get no money—I get it. I—till her —like you say—"

Riley jumped and wiped his red face. He motioned the prisoner out. Then, as he followed, McCoy, on guard, spoke.

"Lucky break for you, Sarge. Better pin your badge on the bird."

Riley turned, eyebrows raised.

"On your way out, I'm handing the case he carried. "Maybe you think it was easy training that polly to speak her lines—at the cue!"

"WEEK" IS PLANNED

Toronto, June 23.—CP.—Plans to make the week beginning Oct. 1 "Fellowship and Friendship" week were laid today at a meeting of Ontario Government and Toronto officials. The meeting was called by Hon. W. H. Martin, Ontario Minister of Welfare, to launch a "crusade of more understanding". It is hoped the movement will spread through the Dominion.

End Pain, Swelling & Bleeding of PILES (HÆMORRHOIDS)

With Zam-Buk Herbal Ointment.

Zam-Buk Medicinal Soap 25c. cake.

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

JUNE 23 ME AND MRS.- A BUSY MAN FILLS AN ORDER

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

RIFT IN U. S. DELEGATION STIRS LONDON PARLEY

SENATOR PITTMAN — SECRETARY HULL — SENATOR COUZENS

A dramatic rift within the ranks of the U.S. delegation at the London economic conference has clearly hindered the harmony of the world parley. Secretary of State Cordell Hull, head of the delegation, is striving to analyze the tension created when Senator James Couzens of Michigan, only Republican member, heatedly demanded more unity and cohesion among the American representatives. The Senator made it plain he is disgusted with such tactics as those where American experts proposed a 10 per cent horizontal tariff slash and Senator Key Pittman disowned it as official. Meanwhile Raymond Moley, head of Roosevelt's "brain trust", is speeding toward London with orders from the president.

WILL VISIT NEWFOUNDLAND

Montreal, June 23 (CP)—Italy's air armada of 24 seaplanes will visit Newfoundland on its return flight from the World's Fair at Chicago, it was announced here by Major E. Del Pente of the Royal Italian Air Force, commander of the temporary base already established at Montreal, call for an eastward trans-Atlantic hop from School Harbor, Newfoundland to Valentia, Ireland.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Toronto, June 23.—(CP)—A coroner's jury early today returned a verdict of accidental death in connection with the fall of firemanin the year.

Robert Calhoun from a broken ladder while fighting a fire at the church of Our Lady of Lourdes. The accident occurred during the height of a storm that swept southern Ontario June 7.

Accident statistics show that July is by far the most dangerous day

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES (Eastern Standard Time)

FRIDAY

4.00—Arlene Jackson—WEAF
4.15—John Kirbye—WABC
4.30—The Singing Lady—WJZ
4.30—Fireside Prog.—CKAC
4.45—Little Orphan Annie—WJR
5.00—Irving Rose Orch.—WJZ
5.15—King Kill Kare—WJZ
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Black and Blue—WGR
5.45—Jazz Plain Bill—WABC
5.45—Neo Stoma—CKAC
6.00—Mildred Bailey—WABC
6.00—Amos 'n' Andy—CFCT
6.15—Male Quartet—WJZ
6.30—Soloist Orch.—WEAF
6.30—Jack Roby—Orch—WJR
6.45—Scobe Carter—WABC
6.45—Flying Fingers—CKCL
7.00—Marshall—CFCA
7.00—Nino Martini—WABC
7.00—Goodrich Prog.—CFCT
7.15—Bell Ringers—CFCA
8.00—Burton Till—CFRB
8.00—Vocalist-Orch.—WJZ
8.00—Irvin S. Cobb—WABC
8.15—Street Singer—WABC
8.15—Band Broadcast—CKCL
8.30—Gang Busters—WJZ
8.30—Musical Variety—WEAF
9.00—Jack Benny—WEAF
9.00—Rudy Vallee—WABC
9.30—The Country Club—WEAF
9.30—Edwin C. Hill—WABC
10.00—Rosehaldi's Orch—CFCT
10.00—The Singers—WJZ
11.00—Landing Conference—WJZ
10.30—Musical Prog—CFRB
10.30—Ballads Bone—WJZ
11.00—Geo. Hall's Orch—WABC
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.30—E. Sterr's Orch.—WEAF

SATURDAY

7.00—Eggs and Bacon—CFCT
7.30—Morning Glee Club—CFCT
7.45—Harding Sisters—WEAF
8.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.00—Otto Fasel—CFCT
8.15—Vass Family—WEAF
8.30—The Merrymakers—CFRB
8.30—Tom Powell—CFCT
8.45—Reis and Dunn—WABC
9.00—Breen and de Rose—WEAF
9.00—Tenth—WGR
9.15—Silver Lining Hour—WJR
9.15—Popular Prog.—CKCO
9.15—Morning Parade—WEAF
9.30—Jack Turner, Songs—WJZ
9.45—Gertrude Peebles—WGR
10.00—Memory Lane—CKCL
10.15—Nichols Prog.—CFCA
10.30—Concert Minatures—CFRB
10.30—Lovers Lane—WEAF
10.45—Spanish Idyls—WJZ
10.45—Sis Shoe Frog—CFCA
11.00—Teeterville Centre—CKCL
11.00—John Martin, Tenor—WEAF
11.15—Trio Charman—WJZ
11.30—Symopators—WJZ
12.00—Vic and Sade—CFCT
12.00—Geo. Hall's Orch.—WABC
12.15—Orchestral Parade—CKCO
12.30—Madison Ensemble—CFRB
12.30—Matinee Musicale—WJZ
1.00—Dancing Echoes—WABC
1.15—Three Peppers—WABC
1.30—Gypsy Caravan—CFCT
1.30—Ray Heatherton—WEAF
1.30—Harmonies—WJZ
2.00—Radio Troubadors—WJZ
2.00—Musical Varieties—CFRB
2.45—Around Bandstand—CKCL
3.45—Paulist Choir—WABC
3.00—Musical Matinee—WJZ
3.00—Morin Sisters—WJZ
3.15—Ethna Odell—WJZ
3.30—Chautauqua Series—WJZ
3.30—Concert Favorites—CFCT
4.00—Little People Hour—CKAO
4.00—The Ambassadors—CFRB
4.30—Mck and Lorelia—WEAF
4.30—Niel Sisters—WJZ
4.45—Trio Guitar—WABC
5.00—Indian Maid—CKCL
5.00—Musical Gems—CFCA
5.15—Jack Miller—WABC
5.30—Wade Rinker—WJZ
6.00—Evening Revue—CKCL
6.00—Copland's Varieties—CKOO
6.00—Gypsy Nina—WABC
6.30—Irish Minstrels—WJZ
6.15—Violinski—WJZ
6.30—Three X Sisters—WEAF
6.30—Concert Prog.—CFCA
6.30—Jack Robi—WJR
6.45—Flying Fingers—CKCL
7.00—Studio Prog.—CKCL
7.00—Mexican Tenor—WEAF
7.15—The Magic Voice—WABO
7.30—King's Jesters—WJZ
7.30—Vibrataone—CKCL
8.00—Light Opera Gems—WJZ
8.00—Commission Prog.—CFCA
8.15—U. S. Marine Band—CFRB
8.30—Studio Prog.—CKCO
8.45—Studio Prog.—CKCL
9.00—Vocal Artists—CFCA
9.00—Soloists and Orch.—WJZ
9.15—Royal Cadets—CFRB
9.15—Gertrude Nissen—WABC
10.00—Phrase Maker—WEAF
10.00—Vocal Trio—WJZ
11.00—John Regay—WJZ
10.30—Harold Stern's Orch.—WEAF
11.00—Chateau Lake—WJZ
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
12.00—Silent Hour—CFCA
12.00—Roseland Orch.—WABC

TRANSFERRED TO KINGSTON

Tweed, June 23.—Constable Olass, of the R.C.M.P., who has been stationed in Tweed for the past several weeks has been transferred to Kingston. Constable Ray Sticks will remain here for some time.

Men's clothing industry is the second largest in New York; women's garment industry ranks first.

JOAN CRAWFORD AND GARY COOPER IN "TODAY WE LIVE"

The combined appearance of Joan Crawford and Gary Cooper in a story written by the brilliant American writer, William Fleming, and directed by Howard Hawks, are the factors which give "Today We Live," opening at the Belle, tomorrow (Saturday), the reputation of being the most anticipated motion picture of the current cinema season.

Cooper as Aviator

Miss Crawford, who won superlatives from critics and public alike for her outstanding work in "Possessed" and "Letty Lynton," is cast as a member of a British ambulance unit in the present picture, which is described as the experiences of a woman and three men during the World War.

Cooper, in the principal male lead as an American aviator, follows up his effective performance in "A Farewell to Arms," and the other member of the male triangle are played by Robert Young, recently seen in "Men Must Fight," and Franchot Tone, the New York Theatre Guild star, who scored in Pathe's "Today."

The activities of the British navy, particularly their dangerous "shoot-or gastrovers," plays a prominent part in the action of "Today We Live," with further exciting episodes centered on the aerial spectacles of bombing squadrons, according to the Fleming story, however, although the war serves as a background for the plot, the conflict is never allowed to submerge the focal point of drama in the strong personalities, who are entangled in a struggle for life and love behind the lines.

Comedy interludes are brought into the story through the antics of Roscoe Kearns as the "life of the billet," whose humorous philosophies serve to relieve the tension of the aviators who expect each day to be their last. The picture is likewise given lighter touches in the personality of Louise Closser Hale in the role of a faithful family servant who always shedding tears over war troubles long enough to register her well known humorous lines. Rollo Lloyd and Hilda Vaughn complete the supporting cast.

Noble Sissle and his famous Radio orchestra in "Swanee River Days," and a Merry Melody cartoon, precede the feature which consumes close to two hours in the telling.

Hopkins in New Film

Miriam Hopkins makes her first appearance since "Trouble in Paradise" in the title role of "The Story of Temple Drake," a paramount picture by William Faulkner, the film which closes its engagement at the Belle tonight includes Jack Ladue, William Gargan and Sir Guy Standing. The Belle News, a very funny Mack Sennett comedy, and Abe Lyman and his Radio Band will also be exhibited.

FALLS FRACTURING COLLAR BONE

Madoc Jct.—The men have been busy the past week doing road work.

A number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. H. Clark on Wednesday afternoon and quilted a quilt for Mr. S. Rose.

Rev. C. A. Sales made several calls in the community on Thursday afternoon.

The Plymouth Brethren members held a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoy on Thursday evening.

Little Marjorie West had her limb badly cut, requiring several stitches to close the wound.

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. J. McCurdy West, Huntingdon on Sunday afternoon. The bereaved family have the sympathy of friends here.

Miss Dorothy McMullen is spending her vacation at her home here having just completed her year at Peterboro Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Pilchard and Rosella also Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pilchard of Foxboro spent Sunday as Yarker the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Hamilton of Halloway were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Eagleton.

While visiting at her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. Danford, Mrs. Harry Clarke had the misfortune to fall and fracture her collar bone. She was taken to Bellevile on the car X-Ray, and the break was found to be broken in two places. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The White Lake and Evergreen teams played quite an exciting game of baseball on Monday evening, Evergreen winning by a high score.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. E. Danford and Miss Marjorie Danford of Belleville visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sagely on Sunday.

Messrs. O. Siapely and C. Pilchett attended quarterly sacred meeting at Moira United Church Monday night.

While on his way down the 'set tion to work with a motorcycle Mr. Carl Reid had his leg badly crushed by the jigger. The ambulance was called and he was taken to Belleville Hospital.

Mr. Harold Stapely spent Sunday in Bancroft.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Casement, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stapely, and Mr. Miss Ruby Eagleton's Sterling on Tuesday evening and enjoyed a feed of strawberries and ice cream.

Washable evening slippers are the latest possibility, through the re-discovery of a new waterproof cloth in gold, silver and copper fabrics.

Special in Axminster Floor Rugs
Two sizes only, in these good looking hit and miss pattern axminsters—excellent for living rooms, dining rooms and bedrooms. The sizes are 27 x 54 inches and 4'7" x 7'6". Prices, each ..... 1.95 and 6.75

Kiddies' Fine Lisle Socks
Knit from fine lisle yarns, with a fancy turn-down cuff, 8oth half length and ankle length style — sizes from 5 to 8 in the lot. A choice of pretty shades for wearing with summer outfits, ... 19c
Pair

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 8 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 8 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Saturday a Big Day at the C.D.S. — Big Savings in this List of

JUNE OPPORTUNITIES

Campers Attention!
Folding Camp Cots
Made of well seasoned wood with metal joints and heavy canvas material, bed part. Good size. Special, ... 3.25 each
—main floor rear

Folding
Deck Chairs
These are made with foot rest and canopy top — manufactured from natural colored hardwood, with varnish finish. Awning duck material in orange and green combination makes the seat and back of this chair. 2.98
Each
—main floor rear

Polarine Motor Oil
Summer Grade
S.A.E. 40
Heavy
2 Gals. 1.59

S.A.E. 50
Extra Heavy
2 Gals. 1.69

Special! Pretty Voile Frocks
Styles here to take care of both misses and women — and the variety is certainly large and varied. The material a fine cotton voile, printed in some of the daintiest patterns and colorings we have yet displayed. Interesting necklines, belted effects, cap sleeves, button trimmings and other notes tend to make them just that much smarter. Sizes from 14 to 44. The value extraordinary as only 1.98
—ordinary

Pretty Cotton Pique Frocks
The tailored frock that has such a sophisticated air is featured in this fine group at 1.00, and they are most unusual value, too. Of fine cotton pique in strong weave, and good weight, in a wide range of pastels. Styles as mentioned before are for the most part tailored, some with pleats, with belts, or very severe with hardly a bit of trimming. Sizes for women taking sizes from 34 to 44. Each 1.00
—ordinary

New Celanese Frocks for Misses' and Women in Fashionable White
Cool looking as well as being very smartly styled. Developed from a sleek white celanese, in a big variety of styles and trimming notes to suit misses and women taking sizes from 14 to 44. Newly arrived and in all white, some with touches of color for that extra note of smartness. At 2.95 they should sell quickly — we urge early morning shopping. Saturday, each 2.95
—second floor

New Shipment White
Crepe Hats
For Saturday
Large brims, narrow brims and medium brims, all are included in this fine array, and all are new for Saturday, affording splendid choice, both in style and price. FASHIONABLE WHITE of course, of soft, crepe in stitched effect, both on crown and brim. Styles are tailored in air or with perky little ornaments that display their feminine side. Be sure and see them Saturday. Prices from ..... 2.50 to 2.95
—second floor

Japanese
Straw Mats
In acmic designs, size 36 x 42 inches, strongly woven grass mats, suitable for the porch, sun parlor or verandah. 55c
Each
—main floor rear

Compact! Efficient! Low Priced!
Gasoline Camp Stove
A compact stove for motor trips, for boats or camps. Folds up into metal carrying case, size about 11½ x 10 x 3½ inches. Two burner styles, easily operated and safe to use. Tank has built in pump and safety valve. Special, ... 6.95 at —basement

Irish Linen
Tea Towels
Size 18 x 32 inches, sturdy Irish linen tea towels, woven with wide striped borders of blue, red, yellow or green. 19c
Each
—main floor rear

Large English
Striped Towels
Splendid for everyday use, strong well woven English towels, in striped patterns on mauval grounds. With fringed ends. Size 20 x 40 inches. 59c
Special, pair
—main floor rear

Cool and Comfortable
Small Girls'
Muslin Pantie Frocks
Those cunning little styles that look so well on tots 2 to 6 years. A host of styles, made from cool, crisp muslin, each with a pair of panties to match. A wide color choice. The price 98c only
—second floor

Special in Women's
All Silk Crepe Slips
Dainty lace trimmed affairs these, developed from a fine white crepe-in fitted styles. Sizes small, medium and large. 1.29
Each
—second floor

Kayser's Fine
Glove Silk Panties
A beautiful grade of glove silk manufactures these panties for women — the renowned Kayser label, fashioned in good fitting style, smartly plain in their tailored effect. In small, medium and large sizes. In white or pink. 1.00
Pair
—second floor

A smart Kid Sandal in White for Women
Cool and comfortable on the foot, designed to look well, too. Of soft white kid, with a neat spike heel. A width 2.98 only. Sizes from 3 to 8. Pair
—men's store rear

Comfortable Canvas House Slippers
Of black canvas, with leather soles and rubber bits on heels. An extremely comfortable house slipper that would be excellent for camp or cottage wear. Comfortable low heel styles—sizes from 3 to 7 in the group. Saturday, ... 1.00
Pair
—men's store rear

Men's Sturdy Work Boots with Triple Sole
Plenty of long wear and service from these boots men — for they have a triple sole and horseshoe shaped heel plate on heel for further service wear. Strongly stitched, in brown leather. Sizes from 6 to 11. Special, ... 2.49 pair
—men's store rear

Men's Brown Duck Work Boots
Light weight canvas work boots that offer splendid service for summer weather. Comfortable, because they have uppers of canvas, serviceable because they have heavy rubber sole and rubber heel. Sizes 6 to 10. ..... 1.50
Pair
—men's store rear

Buy Eatonia Silk Hosiery
For Summer Wear
A New Stock of Favored Shades—And the Best Regular Value in Town. Silk hosiery for street wear, for sportswear, for evening wear—we have correct shades for all occasions, and in the same fine quality that have made Eatonias the best regular value in town. Of real thread silk, in chiffon or service weight, nicely finished to lend grace to ankles, with a panel heel. Then toe, they are reinforced at points where reinforcements should be—at toe, heel and along sole side. Note the shade choice below — a size range from 8½ to 10½ to select from.
Colors:
Dawn Grey, Chukker, Taupemist, Beaunan, Pogmist, and Black and White.
—main floor left
1.00

For That Sunburn Try
Rubinstein Sunburn Oil 1.65
Rubinstein Sun and Wind-proof Cream 1.10
Rubinstein Weatherproof Foundation Cream 1.10
Eaton's Lemola Cream 75c
Eaton's Cream of Almonds and Witch Hazel 1.3b 85c
Eaton's Glycerine and Rose Water 45c
Eaton's Cucumber Jelly 75c
Ingram's Milkweed Cream 45c
Ambrosia Dry Skin Cream 1.10
Seventeen Astringent 1.65
Cleansing Cream 1.10

Candies
Eatonia Chocolate Bars ..... 2 for 19c
Chocolate Gingers, lb. 35c
Pecan Rolls, lb. 50c
Iced Jellies, lb. 30c
Silverwood's Ice Cream (Dubie Redder) 5c
Bricks, pint 25c
Ice Cold Drinks 5c
Grab Bags 5c

Special! New Arrivals in White Bags
A big range of new styles and shapes, specially purchased for Saturday selling — pouch and underarm both included in this fine assortment and they are in WHITE which is high fashion for summer. Of washable material, with clever ideas in lining, fittings and in fastenings. You'll be wise if you are here at 9 sharp for this big value. The price is only, each 1.00
—main floor centre

Special! 72" x 86" Unbleached Sheets each 59c

Men! Enjoy a Cool, Refreshing Dip in One of Our All Wool
Bathing Suits
On these hot days you'll find a dip in the lake or bay will aid greatly in keeping you cool—drop in Saturday and buy one of these fine all wool bathing suits and enjoy this great outdoor sport and exercise. In black or green. Sizes 36 to 44. ..... 1.39
Each
—men's store

Boys' All Wool
Bathing Suits
Every boy will want one of these dandy all wool bathing suits, the price is so low! Made to snugly cling to the body, not in the least cumbersome, or a handicap to your swimming. In black or colored stripe patterns. Sizes 26 to 34. ..... 1.15
Each
—men's store

New Shipment! Embroidered Organdy
Bought at away below the usual price and marked close for quick clearance Saturday Morning! Dainty organdy, with embroidered dots, both small and large, in a choice of colors. A fine, crisp weave making up into those attractive looking frocks for hot summer days. 39 inches wide. A limited yardage in each different color, so be sure that you shop early! Special value, yard 59c
—main floor rear

Men's and Young Men's Summer Weight 2 Pant Suits
Truly remarkable value at such a low price as this! Men's and young men's summer weight worsted suits, in a fine range of patterns and colors—and in styles suitable for both. Don't wear that heavy suit when such value as this exists—and they'll give splendid service and wear, for EACH SUIT HAS TWO PAIRS OF TROUSERS. In light and dark shades—with a complete size range in the group from 36 to 44. Saturday Special, ... 15.00 suit

New Patterns and Colors in Men's Broadcloth Pyjamas
A cool, light weight broadcloth pyjama for men, in smart mannish stripe patterns that launder well. Kite front style, allowing plenty of freedom at the neck, and full cut throughout other parts of body. Sizes run from 36 to 44. Suit 1.39

Fine Quality Silk Web Suspenders
A smart dew line of men's and young men's all silk web suspenders. These are in new narrow width—and are smart with summer outfits. Ordinarily a quality that sells for 1.00 and 1.50. A wide range of shades. Pair 75c

Special in Men's Worsted Trousers
Sturdy worsted trousers for men, in a special selling Saturday—strongly finished and well cut to fit smartly, in a host of neat stripe patterns—light and dark shades. Finished with belt loops, cuffs and five pockets. Sizes 30 to 44. Pair 1.69
—men's store

SATURDAY!!
SPECIAL SELLING
OF LUGGAGE
A June Opportunity Feature!
Travel with smart luggage this summer, prices are much lower than last season and quite within reach of everyone. Saturday we feature two special lines of Wardro Boxes that carry enough for a whole vacation, or may be used for short week-end trips, they are so compact and light weight. You'll find them excellent value at this price of 5.00. Note features of both.

$5.00 EA

A
The "Pakaway"
This case has many fine features — a separate compartment for shoes, dress hangers, which accommodate 6 to 8 frocks, large roomy pockets, with waves reinforced in black or brown grained imitation leather.

B
The "Universal"
A smart looking case, that women will be proud to use. Grained imitation leather covering, with art silk lining. Shoe compartments and spacious pockets. In brown or black.
—main floor centre

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Lower Lake region: Moderate, easterly to southerly winds; fair and warm; showers in southwest counties tonight, Sunday. Moderate southeast to south winds; partly cloudy with some showers or thunderstorms.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BANKER IS ACQUITTED
Kingston, June 24.—Arthur N. Lyster, former manager of the Kingston branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was on Friday acquitted of charges of theft and fraud by a jury.

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1933

TEN PAGES

STABILIZATION ISSUE IS STILL PARAMOUNT

Germany Joins Group to Demand Stabilization as First Economic Step

Plan to Expand World Trade to Meet Difficulty

WHEAT ACREAGE

Australian Attitude Still Remains in Doubt

(By The Canadian Press)
London, June 24—Indications the World Economic Conference is progressing to the point where consideration of the question of stabilization of exchanges at this time, were seen today. The group led by France which are insisting upon currency stabilization as a pre-requisite to other steps in the program, Germany joining it.

Meanwhile the Cabinet in Paris unanimously approved the French memorandum which the premier stated set forth before the conference some by Finance Minister Georges Bonnet. Foreign exchanges for the time remained stable, both the Canadian dollar and the British pound being unchanged in early dealings in New York.

The drafting committee of the world conference emerged with the framework of a convention which would link the gold standard and the principal world commodities. It set forth that any such agreements should have widest support not only in gold-using countries but also in consuming countries by commodity producing countries in the scheme for the restoration of production.

Mystery surrounded the nature of the communications to the Cabinet who declined to discuss the matter with newspapermen.

Australia is the only nation lacking among the major producers, including Canada, United States, Argentina and Russia, which already have given the stamp of general approval in the plan.

Despite the delay in achieving complete agreement, the American delegation today indicated they believe Australia would come in.

An Achievement

If she does, it will be an occasion for a celebration as the wheat representatives feel the adoption of this programme will be one of the most important achievements of the World Economic Conference.

There still would remain some smaller wheat producers to be drawn into the scheme, but it is felt they will follow the lead of the big five—Canada, United States, Argentina, Australia and Russia.

The week-end found a decidedly more optimistic atmosphere surrounding the conference than existed a few days ago when the stabilization battle was at its height, and some public statements, including France, apparently were prepared to walk out of the parley if the United States should not stabilize immediately.

Constructive Work Next Week

With that question at least temporarily solved through a Franco-American rapprochement, the Conference was looking forward to constructive work next week.

The sub-committee of the Economic commission, which has been drafting a scheme for the co-ordination of production and marketing, finished its work, and today issued a draft which embodies the broad principles of what they consider a workable plan.

It laid down the necessity of raising wholesale prices of primary products to a reasonable level, and the desirability of adopting plans for production and marketing of certain products.

The sub-committee suggests that any agreements to give effect to the plans should conform generally to the following conditions:

"1. The commodity must be one of world importance in which there is such excess of production or stocks as to call for organized control action.

"2. Any agreement should be comprehensive and not so narrowly drawn as to exclude related or substitute products if their inclusion is necessary or desirable to insure the success of the plan.

"3. It should be comprehensive as regards the producers. It should command a general measure of assent among exporting countries and within them, and give a substantial majority of the producers themselves. It should provide for the co-operation of non-exporting countries whose production is considerable.

Turtle Named After Premier in Third Place

Number Bay, Ont., June 24 (CP)—Sprinting over the 100-yard course in the record time of 19 minute 39 seconds, John Butt, speedy turtle in these parts, defeated Muckface by four lengths in the weekly derby here to bring his record to three. Premier-old Tom Reeves, the purse of $5 cash. E. B. Bennett, named after Canada's prime minister, finished third with Lucky Penny. The fifteen having escaped while their jockeys were writing examinations.

NEED HAVE NO FEAR OF BEAR ON ISLAND

Boys of City Have Hours of Fun With Him

Bears on Zwick's Island? Sure there is. Or to be more specific, there is a bear on Zwick's Island. However, trembling citizenry need have no fear. They has been an sudden invasion of the island by some tooth gnashing growling species of animal. Far from it. The bear is a tame one, one of the necessary equipments of a travelling herbal specialist who has been using the island as a base for visiting the city. The specialist is in his market square shows in the smaller communities around this city. The specialist has been camping on the island for the past few days and the bear has been camping with him. Local youth, bored by inaction, have been visiting the island to wrestle and play with the bear in his off hours.

WEATHER

Toronto, June 24 (CP)—Synopsis—Pressure is high in Ontario, Quebec, and the Atlantic Coast States, also over the Mackenzie River Valley and low off the Labrador coast and over the western portion of the United States. Local thunderstorms temperatures have been moderate throughout the province and showers or thunderstorms have occurred in Northern Alberta, Northwestern Ontario and Southern Quebec.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valley—Light to moderate winds; fair and warm. Sunday—moderate southeast to southwest winds; mostly fair; probably local showers or thunderstorms.

Lake Superior — Fresh easterly winds; mostly cloudy and cool, with local showers.

Kenora and Rainy River—Moderate to fresh northeast winds; mostly cloudy and cool, with scattered showers.

Manitoba — Moderate easterly winds; partly cloudy; not much change in temperature.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Partly cloudy; not much change in temperature; probably local showers.

TELEGRAM IS CLAIMED HOAX BY HUSBAND

Husband of Evangelist Asks Company to Trace Sender

REPORT DENIED

Hutton Severs Connection With Temple—Evangelist Seeks Divorce

LOS ANGELES, June 24—(AP)—A mysterious cablegram reporting the birth of a nine pound son to the Canadian-born Evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton in a Paris Hospital was received last night by her husband, David L. Hut...

(Continued from page one)

FRONTIERS OF TRADE CHANGE

Most of Schemes are However Likely to Fall by Wayside

(By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
London, June 24 (C.P. Cable)—Behind the scenes the World Economic Conference delegates are planning new economic frontiers for Europe. Fresh groups are forming, groups are expanding.

The little entente — Roumania, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia — are talking of a customs federation to embrace both Hungary and Poland. The Scandinavian countries are meeting and planning with talk of Belgium joining them.

Germany is now supporting the European gold bloc lag by France, Switzerland and Italy and underlined abolishing import quotas and restrictions. The world trade currency agreements are stabilized. And denials of misunderstanding have still flood around of an attempt to restore the Austro-Hungarian monarchy.

Most of the schemes are likely to end in infinite clouds of cigar smoke. But the growing group activity for early stabilization, particularly the United States will not concede, threatens new difficulties when the conference is brought face to face with concrete plans.

ARCHBISHOP ORDAINS FIVE YOUNG MEN

Three Receive Deacons and Two Anglican Priests

Ottawa, June 24 (CP)—Archbishop Gauthier, of Montreal, Ordained Deacons Marville, Ont., were ordained to the Diaconate in Archbishop Roper was assisted by Rev. Robert Taylor, Saint Jean d' Ottawa, father of one of the young men ordained.

JIG SAW PUZZLE CRAZE IS NOT OVER

Travellers Claim There Will Be Big Sale in Fall

Did the Jig saw puzzle die a lingering death last October, according to Toronto travellers who make this city their regular "stops". Two large firms in that city have recently installed new and better machinery to keep pace with the rush of orders they expect before the fall season ends.

"Jig saw puzzles will be back stronger than ever this fall" declare the factory representatives from the larger concerns, among them Reg Moncrief, manager of the Provincial Paper Company here this city. To prove their assertions they point to orders already being filled for the factory dealers in this and other districts.

CONTRACT ADDS 30,000 JOBS

Springfield, Ill., June 23.—Ending the State's cement price war, Governor Horner announced that a contract had been made with the Marquette Cement Company at Chicago by for the purchase of 2,000,000 barrels of cement at $1.45 a barrel, 200 men.

Woman Rescued After 30 Hours on Wrecked Fuselage

ITALIAN AEROPLANES SET FOR HOP

At top are some of the 24 giant Italian amphibian planes poised at Lake Orbetello, Italy, for the mass flight across the Atlantic to the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago. Below are the members of the Italian air force who will man the fleet of planes. Inset, their leader, General Italo Balbo.

Montreal Youth Found Lying Across Tracks Partly Strangled

Attempt to Commit Suicide Frustrated by Local Youths

CHARGE LAID

With a wire twisted firmly about his neck allegedly to strangle himself and lying prostrate outside the C.P.R. tracks just south of the Belleville General Hospital, a youth letting his name as Harry Williams of Montreal was discovered by two local youths today at 5 o'clock Friday evening. The two astonished lads immediately rushed to the hospital and procured the services of Dr. H. Leavens, the house physician, who released the young man and later took him to that institution, where he was revived.

Williams was found lying with his body stretched near the Canadian National track, where the evening express was due to pass eastward in a few moments. He had firmly attached a wire about his neck in an unsuccessful attempt to strangle himself. The young man was found in a semi-conscious condition and suffering somewhat from the effects of the attempted strangulation. He was later arrested by Sergeant Harman, of the local police department, and lodged in the police cells on a nominal charge of vagrancy.

Had Trouble at Home

Williams informed the police, after he had been revived at the hospital, that his home was in Montreal where he had previously lived with his family at 3529 D'Arcy St. He claimed to have disagreed with his father recently and left home. Later Williams, according to the police, that he had been working for some time past for a farmer named Simpson east of Belleville. It was upon the suggestion of the physician, who attended him and saw to his recovery that he was lodged in the police cells for his own security.

Where Williams came from or how the wire was twisted around his neck could not be ascertained as he refused to inform the police regarding his actions.

This morning the charge of vagrancy was supplemented by a charge of attempted suicide on which count he was remanded by Magistrate Mikel for one week without plea.

1,500 COMMUNISTS SLAIN

Canton, China, June 24 (AP)—Canton government military authorities said today 1,000 Communists were killed in southern Kiangsi province in a three-day battle with Kwangtung Province troops, who lost 500.

SCOTT WINNER GOLF TITLE

Hon. Michael Scott Defeats T. A. Bourne Four And Three

Hoylake, England, June 24 (CP Cable)—Hon. Michael Scott of Scotland, won the British Amateur Golf Title today by defeating T. A. Bourne of Sunningdale, four and three in the 36-hole final.

LATER TRIALS WITHOUT JURY

Remaining Prisoners to be Tried by Judge

Kingston, Ont., June 24 (CP)—Trial of convict Tim Buck, former leader of the Communist party in Canada, on a charge of participating in the prisoners' demonstration in Kingston penitentiary last October, came to a temporary lull today when his case with all others was adjourned till Monday morning.

Sixteen convicts who have been arraigned prior to today have been heard before a judge and jury. After the trial of Tim Buck is finished the remaining prisoners will be tried by Judge G. E. Deroche and Judge J. E. Madden without a jury.

Decision to adopt this form of proceeding was arrived at during a meeting of W. P. Nickle, K.C., W. M. Nickle, K.C., and J. M. Thompson, K.C., with the convicts last night. It is expected that in doing away with the jury the trials will be concluded sooner and the department saved considerable expense.

Convict Adrian Vanderyast changed his election this morning and will be tried by judge without jury. The hearing originally slated for Monday will been held over till Monday. The petit jury chosen last night has since been dismissed.

BOAT HITS ROCK

Shanghai, June 24—The French passenger liner Aramis struck a rock in Mangrove Bay, but was pulled off and anchored in a disabled condition.

CAMOUFLAGED ABITIBI DEAL SAYS PEEBLES

Bedlam Breaks Out in Closing Hours of Convention

CHAIRMAN REPLIES

Maguire Demands Retraction But Hon. J. R. Coke Answers

Windsor, June 24—"Camouflaged" during Mayor John Peebles of Hamilton at Hon. J. R. Cooke, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission, and disorder broke into the closing hours of the Ontario Electric Municipal Association convention here late Friday afternoon. Mr. Peebles directed the charge at Mr. Cooke's explanation and defence of the Abitibi purchase.

He objected it into a reply which the Hydro chairman was making to a question put to him by the Hamilton mayor at the close of his address. Mr. Peebles charged that the commission had paid far more than the market value of the O.J.C. bonds.

"I know Mr. Cooke will have the last word," said Mr. Peebles, "but he is adept at that sort of thing. We have listened to a lot of camouflage."

Hail in Uproar

The convention burst into an uproar. From all sections of the hall delegates jumped to their feet in protest, and others leaped into the fray in defence of Mr. Peebles. The Hydro chairman was hailed with cries of "withdraw" and demands of "sit down" came from every corner at Mr. Peebles.

Mr. Peebles' partisans burst into louder clamour when J. Alfred Maguire, president of the association, and Mr. Cooke's fellow commissioner, left his chair to the platform demanding that Mr. Peebles withdraw his charge. He told the mayor of Hamilton that his language would not be permitted in the convention building failing, as he does in the Legislature, while awaiting a pause in an outpouring of attack from the Opposition, the white-haired Hydro chairman stood patiently hats way down the centre aisle or the hall, beckoning with upraised hand for Mr. Maguire to sit down and let him answer Mayor Peebles.

Mr. Cooke was allowed to accuse me of advocating confiscation and repudiation, cried Mr. Peebles, as Mr. Maguire during a brief lull in the chorus of boos and cheers began his protest from the floor of the convention.

"I said nothing of the kind," retorted President Maguire. "You misunderstood me."

Finally the bedlam ceased and Mr. Cooke answered Mayor Peebles' charge that Hydro had paid too much for the Abitibi bonds. He said the commission had the right to get and sought to buy up the bonds at the best price it could get. Then according to Mr. Peebles' quotations the price would have been much higher. Prior to which the Hamilton mayor objected, but to $100, declared Mr. Cooke.

It was the Hamilton delegate's statement that Hydro had paid $45 and had dropped still lower on July 1, when the corporation's taxable value was reduced interest, that started the battle which for a time threatened to wreck the

(Continued on Page Three)

GIVEN FULL POWER

Berlin, June 24.—(AP) — Bernhard Rust, Prussian Commissioner for Science, Education and Culture, today appointed Dr. Jaeger to serve as State Commissioner for Universities and Churches in Prussia with full powers "to take necessary measures." Dr. Jaeger, formerly Nazi Party Judge at Wiesbaden, has been chief of the Church Division of the Rust Ministry.

No "Southpaws" Among Prehistorics, Skull Remains Show Ambidexterity

Chicago, June 24 (CP)—If the baseball magnates of 24,000 years ago had played baseball, he probably would have pitched equally well with either hand.

Dr. C. U. Ariens Kappers, of Amsterdam, Holland, told the American Association for the Advancement of Science today, evidence indicates there were no "southpaws" in those dawn days of, mankind.

The tactic is part of giant cerebral merry-go-round that takes 240,000 years to complete, Dr. Kappers declared. Dr. Joy of Mt. Wilson Observatory, reported to the association.

Dr. Kapper's statement that primitive man had not yet developed dominant use of either right or left by performing the simple tasks of his day's routine was part of his contention that the brain of man has closely influenced growth of the brain.

Skeletal remains of the Neanderthal man, he said, indicated that the contour of the skull prevented development of the brain convolutions which determined whether one was right-handed.

The theory was upheld by the fact that weapons of these early ancestors of men were adapted for use with either hand, he said.

Terrifying Experience Related by Sole Survivor Following Plane Crash

Woman Watches Three Companions Drown One by One

LANDS IN FOG

Marooned on Tiny Raft For Period of 30 Hours

Kewaunee, Wis., June 24 (CP)—The story of the losing struggle put up by three men to save their lives out on Lake Michigan miles from land following an aeroplane accident was related here by the sole survivor, Mrs. Charles Rennie, Jr., rescued after being marooned on a tiny raft 30 hours.

The victims whom she said she saw slip from the raft one by one as the cold water of the lake numbed their bodies were: Charles Rennie, Jr., of Traverse City, Mich., her husband, James Gillette, 28, Traverse City, pilot and owner of the plane which she said was attempting to set down on the lake during blinding fog.

Peter Kellar, 24, Frankfort, Mich., mechanic. Mrs. Rennie, hoisted on of three children, was picked up last night by an Ann Harbor car 15 miles out of Frankfort and was brought here, where a physician said she did not believe she had suffered any serious injury other terrifying experience. She was badly sunburned. She remained on the dock and was aboard, when it began its return voyage to Frankfort early today.

The accident occurred Thursday morning shortly after the three set out from Traverse City on a flight to Milwaukee and had encountered a heavy fog settling down over the lake from Frankfort.

Plane Rips Apart

When it became so thick "we couldn't tell when it started and when the water began" she said Gillette decided to set the plane, which was equipped with pontoons, down on the water.

"He glided down" she said, "but he never got down as he supposed. We hit the water with terrific force. The plane seemed to rip apart."

Then began the struggle for self preservation—a struggle that ended in death for all but Mrs. Rennie.

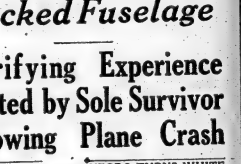
She said the plane kept afloat a few minutes as the men attempted to make a raft, finally rigging one up not more than four feet square with a rope in it to which they could cling.

Then one by one she said she had been in the water holding on to the raft, the men on the plane started to sink the men hauled her on to the middle of the raft and then one slipped themselves.

"The first to go was Gillette," she said, "he just sank, not anything just slipped away." Finally only she and her husband, Vice President of the Rennie Oil Company of Traverse City, were left. She couldn't remember how much time elapsed before he too, disappeared.

FRENCH CABINET FOR GOLD BASIS

Paris, June 24 (AP)—The cabinet today unanimously approved the French stand at the world economic conference for the gold standard and for regulation of world production.



The action was taken at a three-hour session after a report on the London parley had been made by Finance Minister Georges Bonnet.

Moderate safety measures on the London parley had been made by Finance Minister Georges Bonnet.

(Continued on Page Three)

conference.

NEGRO TURNS WHITE

JEAN-JOSEPH DAUPHIN

This is Jean-Joseph Vaneou Dauphin, Haiti negro, who is reported to have turned white under the ministrations of a voodoo doctor, Dauphin, who is 57, is shown at Ellis Island, New York, where the board of inquiry has ruled he cannot be admitted to the United States because he is illiterate.

News Flashes

Vienna, June 24 (AP)—The Austrian government announced the defiance of the Nazi party today by arresting Alfred Feuerstein, leader of the party in Carinthia province, where, it was alleged, he planned to create a border into Italy.

Tokyo, June 24 (AP)—A Tokyo wireless station today renewed requests to stations and ships near Kamchatka to search for the radio station of Jimmie Mattern, missing on a Siberia-Alaska flight.

St. John's, Nfld., June 24 (CP)—The government of the United Kingdom has placed at the disposal of Newfoundland a sum sufficient to enable the island Dominion to meet in full interest due on the public debt on June 30, it is announced here.

Newfoundland has to pay about $2,500,000 in bond interest on that date.

Coming Events

SACRED BAND PROGRAM WILL be given in the park just below Front street on Sunday, June 25th at 3 p.m. by the Belleville Salvation Army Band. 24-1t.

HEAR THE JOHNSTONE HIGHland Pipe Band at West Huntingdon this week. Solo and Trio. This band now open for engagements. Phone 1509r. 24-1t

BRIDGE STREET UNITED Church annual picnic that tomorrow June 25th, will be the last Sunday of the pastorate of Rev. C. R. H. Bell. All members, adherents and friends of Rev. Dr. Bell are hereby reminded of this and it is hoped that all will be able to attend. 24-1t

DANCING TONIGHT AT KERR'S Club House, 6-piece orchestra.—Admission. 24-1t

CORNHUSKERS AT STIRLING. George Wade and his Cornhuskers will be at Stirling on the evening of the 4th of July, sponsored by Pete the Mountain Boy. Dancing from 9 to 1 o'clock. Come and enjoy an evening at Agricultural Park. 24-1t

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL. MRS. Roy Wannamaker's home, Redmerville, June 28, afternoon and evening. Music and dancing. 24-1t

Auspices Hendersville United Church.

REBEKAH PICNIC AT MRS. Jordan's summer cottage, Rossmore, June 28. All visiting Rebekahs invited. Meet at I.O.O.F. Hall, 2 p.m. Further inquire Phone 878F. Come and bring your basket. 24-1t

BAY OF QUINTE COUNTRY Club dancing every Saturday night. Dancing at 8.30. Dutch Turney's Commodores playing. 23-2t.

City and District News

CALF IS BABY BEEF AT BIRTH

The Shorthorn breeders up in Montcalm have in past seasons reported some record sized calves, but they are pretty well agreed that the championship for this season, and perhaps for all time, goes to a calf of this breed owned by Wm. Treadwell. It recently weighed up at 138 lbs., being just nine days old. And out of fairness to the calf, (and its appetite), we also chronicle the fact it slowed away a 18 lb. supper immediately after being weighed. Mr. Treadwell admits it will soon be able to hoist, like the baby buffalo (in "Aint Gonna Rain No Mo.") Ah's biggah when ah's little gan you is when you's big!

PRODUCE SIGNS ARE PROPOSED

Mr. W. E. Sobuster, well known advocate of wider markets for Ontario products, has written to the Hon. Col. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, now in London, England, advising him that he is taking up with Mayor "the the question of the advisability of putting up at all stop streets in the city seasonal signs such as "Buy More Ontario Fruit and Produce".

SHOWERS FORECAST OVER WEEKEND

Although picnic parties, who journey forth from the city over the week end are liable to have their little excursions spoiled, chert-ful news was given farmers of the district by the weathermen today, who forecasts showers on Saturday night or Sunday. Most of the heat wave for the time being is over was given out the announcement, that cool winds due to arrive from the north shortly would dissipate the overhead atmosphere, leading to cooler weather.

LARGE DREDGE TIES UP AT THE DOCK

Towed by a puffing tug, the large dredge, the "Ella M," owned by the Canadian Dredging Company, on route down the bay to Kingston from Toronto where she has been employed for some time on the harbor work, stopped overnight at the government wharf in this city and continued her trip to the east early this morning.

RAIN IS NEEDED IN THE DISTRICT

Rain and more rain—twenty-four hours of it at least, is badly needed by the whole district, according to the farmers who were interviewed on the Saturday market. Whether Prince Edward County needs it to a greater extent than the lower sections of Hastings County is a question. Residents of both sections recounted stories of enforced drought of week. Crops in the fields are buring up, and the land is becoming hard and sun-baked. Prince Edward County was visited by a short shower last Tuesday but not of sufficient duration to make an impression on the dry ground.

COOLED
CAPITOL
A BIG SHOW TO-DAY!

A Tale of Terror in a House of Mystery!

Your hair will stand on end!

Your blood will run cold!

NIGHT OF TERROR

AND ON THE SAME BILL!

BELA "Dracula" LUGOSI

Neil HAMILTON
Pat O'BRIEN
Mary BRIAN
Evelyn BRENT

DEVIL HORSE (11)
CANADIAN NEWS
2.45 :-: 7.15
LAST. COM. SHOW @ 8.40

"ROYAL PRINCESS" DINNERWARE
Monday and Tuesday

Picnic Supplies

Paper Plates, Cups, Thermos Bottles, Films

McKeown's Drug Store

Unlax at PATSY'S SANDWICH SHOP

Save Time and Money and Keep an Even Temperature in the Hot Weather
OPEN 'TILL 2 A.M.

Let's Go Down To Patsy's

NEW QUEEN'S GRILL ROOM
Dainty, Delicious Food Cooked Right, Served Right, at Right Prices
OPEN DAILY
7 A.M. to 9 P.M.
BRING YOUR FRIENDS

Special
SUNDAY DINNER
At The
LONDON LUNCH
50c
Soup, Celery Hearts, Olives, Half Broilers or Roast Spring Chicken
Fresh Strawberry Pie
Tea — Coffee — Milk

CONCRETE WORK NOW COMPLETED

Concrete work which included sidewalk patching through the city was completed this week, and the crew, who have been employed for some week now by the town left off. Other work now being carried on by the department of public works is limiting a fairly large list of men busy.

OBITUARY

LATE T. ALEXANDER LESLIE

A very large number of friends and neighbours gathered Friday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Leslie in the 6th Concession of Thurlow to attend the funeral of their son the late Alexander Leslie. Service conducted by the Rev. W. H. Clarke was held there at 12.30 noon and at Bethany United Church at one o'clock with Mr. Clarke in charge and the Rev. W. R. Merrick of Shannonville assisting. The Rev. Mr. Clarke officiated also at the graveside in Glenwood Cemetery, Picton.

The many floral tributes from friends evidenced the kindly affection in which the deceased boy had been held during his lifetime and also the sincere sympathy felt for those bereaved in his early passing.

The bearers were six boys and young men of the neighborhood, H. Sherman, A. Robinson M. Robinson, G. Milligan, C. Ling and J. Haight.

HARRY JAMES STAPLEY

Stirling, June 24 (Special)—Harry James Stapley, 54, well known in this district, expired suddenly Friday night, at his home, two miles west of Stirling, when he was stricken with an acute heart attack. Dr. H. H. Alger of Stirling was called but the physician stated the man had died instantly. The deceased was assisting with the milking and after depositing two pails of milk which he carried from the cooler to the milk stand, dropped to the ground. The late Mr. Stapley was born in the Oak Hills, being the son of Mr. and the late Mrs. James Stapley. Thirty years ago he married Miss Annie Lyon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Galvin, also of the Oak Hills, who survives. For some years the deceased has farmed in the district and was well known and highly respected in the community. Left to mourn his loss are his widow, father, three sons, Lorne of Hoard's, Clayton and Chesley at home, two daughters, Mrs. Marie Dreacup and Dorothy also at home, one grandchild, Ameera Draycup, four brothers, William of Madoc Junction, Murney of Oak Hills, Fred of Manion, Alta., and Robert of Peterboro, also five sisters, Mrs. Ernest Wilson of Hallowy, Mrs. Miles Wilson of Oak Hills, Mrs. William Cook of Foxboro, Mrs. John Cook of Madoc Junction and Mrs. Christopher Jarvis of Marmora.

POLICE ARREST WOMAN AFTER DEATH OF MAN

Victim Died From Fractured Skull After Altercation.

Selkirk, Man., June 24 (CP)—Mrs. Anton Yakimovich, of Gomor, was arrested by provincial police today in connection with the death of Steve Sielmack, 45-year-old farm neighbor. Medical evidence was brought in at a coroner's inquest to show the latter died from a fractured skull.

Sielmack was fatally injured following an argument with Mrs. Yakimovich. The altercation arose over the return of Mrs. Katie Yakimovich, a daughter of Sielmack, to her husband. Mrs. Yakimovich followed, demanding the return of articles allegedly taken by Sielmack's daughter.

SPEED TRAP SIGNS PLACED ON HIGHWAYS

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 24 (CP)—Motorists are warned to be aware of township speed officers and to watch for "speed traps" are being placed along the provincial highways in this district today by the Kiwanis Club and Board of Trade.

Several convictions in local police court on speeding charges have been made recently and Kiwanis Club and Board of Trade state they are determined that visitors to the district here shall be appraised for these activities."

TWEED BOARD REDUCES FEE FOR EXAMINATIONS

Rebekahs Present Mrs. M. Wallace With Gift

Tweed—At a special meeting of Tweed High School Board, held on Tuesday evening, the examination fee for each pupil in the Middle and Upper School Departmental Examinations was reduced from $1.50. to $1.00. This was done because in some cases the payment of the higher fee would have been a hardship. In one instance, where three pupils were from a family are writing the cost of the examinations would be over double that of $25.

Mrs. John Stokes has returned home from a visit of several months with her daughter in Scotland.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. S. Gordon entertained the members of the Tweed Bridge Club at their home on Saturday afternoon. Following several games of tennis on Mr. Gordon's splendid clay courts tea was served. The entertainment committee with Mrs. T. E. Moffat as convener, had charge of the event.

Mrs. M. Wallace was the recipient of a silk umbrella presented to her by Tweed Rebekah Lodge, No. 236, at the conclusion of her term as District Deputy President.

Tweed baseball team journeyed to Havelock on Wednesday afternoon to play their scheduled game with that town. The game, however, will be played at a future date as the terrific storm prevented the engagement being carring out as scheduled. Possibly it was just as well for the Tweed boys because the Havelock players "have blood in their eyes" after shorbing a 16-8 defeat at Tweed in their previous encounter.

Miss Mildred O'Keefe of St. Catharines, visited friends in town this week.

Mrs. M. MacDonald and daughter Miss Ila MacDonald, are visiting friends in Faleonbridge.

Mr. Ben Brown and daughter, Mrs. Mack, of Killarney, Manitoba, are spending a few days with relatives.

Miss Edith Graham, Reg. N. who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Finley, for some months has returned to New York.

BOYS AND GIRLS
UP TO 15!
AN ADDED CHANCE TO QUALIFY FOR THE FREE
Right-of-Way To The
Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp
Is Given by Attending The CAPITOL
TO-NIGHT
To Secure Your STUBS!

You'll Get A
NEW DEAL ON ONE OF OUR RECONDITIONED
And REFINISHED
USED CARS
EVERYONE CARRIES A GUARANTEE

DODGE 6 SEDAN
DODGE 4 SEDAN
ESSEX 28 COACH
ESSEX 28 COACH
ESSEX 29 COACH
CHEV. 29 SEDAN

CHEV. 31 SPEC. COUPE
PONTIAC 27 COACH
PONTIAC 32 COUPE
FORD ½ ton PICK UP
OLDS. 26 SEDAN
PONTIAC 29 Roadster

On Display at Our Garage

Get Our Reduced Prices

Your Present Car Accepted as Part Payment. Terms for the Balance.

J. B. BOYCE
350 FRONT ST.
PHONE 704

17 YEARS SPENT IN SINGLE PASTORATE

St. Thomas, Ont., June 24 (CP)—Rev. A. N. Gould, who concludes seven years pastorate at Grace United Church tomorrow, has spent all the 17 years since his ordination here, in that time he officiated at 250 weddings, 432 funerals and 431 baptisms. He takes charge at Parker Street United Church, Sarnia, July 2 and Rev. E. O. Raymer, Sarnia, will come here.

18 RINKS IN TOURNEY AT STIRLING CLUB

Deseronto Rink Wins First Prize in Bowling Play-offs

Stirling, June 24—The Bowling Club of Tweed held their annual Men's Tournament on Wednesday afternoon in Tweed with some eighteen rinks from Kingston, Belleville, Brighton, Havelock, Madoc, Deseronto, Stirling and Tweed participating in the play. Deseronto defeated Stirling in the last end of the play-off game to win the first prize which entitled the former to the Gordon Steel Works trophy along with individual prizes of blankets. The Stirling rink carried of the second prize, the Tweed Bowling Club trophy as well as individual prizes of walnut smoking stands. This rink composed of Dr. E. A. Carleton, J. S. Morton, W. Wright and W. J. Whitty skip, is to be congratulated on its splendid success in once again bringing home to Stirling honors in the realm of bowling. Due to a severe storm which descended on the play was delayed only to be resumed at after the lapse of an hour.

The name of Miss Grace Vanderwater appears on the list of recent graduates of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Miss Vanderwater who is well known in Stirling where she taught in Public School for some time is to be congratulated on her success.

Miss Margaret Anderson R.N. is attending Mrs. Manson McConnell of Mount Pleasant who is ill at home.

Mrs. Raymond Montgomery and son Jimmie are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery.

Miss Sarah Delaney returned home this week after spending the winter in Detroit. She was accompanied by her sisters Mrs. M. Marshall and Mrs. M. Eagleton who will remain for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Maiton are holidaying in Toronto this week.

Mr. Felix McGee and James Shea of Toronto spent the week visiting on Friday to spend the week end there.

The many friends of Miss Marjorie Clements will be sorry to hear she underwent an operation in the Belleville Hospital on Tuesday. Latest report is that she is doing well with Miss Gladys Coulter R.N. of Toronto in attendance.

Mrs. H. L. Martin of Winnipeg, is vacationing with her sister Miss Ethel Anderson at the latter's cottage on Oak Lake.

Miss Katherine M. Bray daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bray of West Huntingdon graduated from the Nurses-Training school of the Buffalo General Hospital at the recent Graduation Exercises held this month. Miss Bray is a Stirling high school graduate, is well known in Stirling and her many friends wish her every success in her chosen profession.

Miss D. Descent and Mrs. Annie Bailey were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bailey of Belleville.

In the Random League on Thursday night, Mount Pleasant defeated Glen Ross by a 10-8 score while Bethel defeated Hards 22-3.

The ministers and their wives of Stirling and vicinity spent an enjoyable time at Oak Lake on Monday afternoon when all gathered together for a picnic and a day of sport and fun. Those present included Rev. and Mrs. Kelland, Rev. and Mrs. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Lovibond, all of Stirling; Rev. and

GENE TUNNEY AND PROMINENT U.S. MINING MEN PAY VISIT TO NORTHERN GOLD MINES

Another visit from U. S. financiers to Canada's gold mines in northern Ontario was made this week, this time via aeroplane. Gene Tunney, retired undefeated heavyweight champion of the world, was one of the party of 11, some of whom are shown at the top. Col. W. A. Bishop, Canada's war ace, was also member of the party which included a number of prominent mining men. In the group shown at the top are, LEFT to RIGHT—Col. W. A. McKeon, New York financier; Col. W. A. Bishop; B. P. Smith, New York financier; Gene Tunney; David Sloan, Vancouver, manager, director of the Pioneer mine; F. S. Arguimbau, New York financier; Eddie Dowling, comedian and singer, New York and Paris; and Bernard F. Gimbel, of the New York department store bearing his name. In the lower picture at LEFT is a close-up of Tunney, twice conqueror of Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight boxing title, now wealthy business man and politician. At LEFT is shown, LEFT to RIGHT—P. Hickett, president of McIntyre Mines, from whose home in Port Credit, Ontario, the party left; Ed. Flynn, prominent New York politician and writing of President Roosevelt, and Hon Charles McCrae, Ontario Minister of Mines. The party is touring the Timmins, Ontario, mines near Timmins.

King And Queen Drive With Sons to Races

This charmingly intimate picture of the King and Queen of England together with their sons, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Gloucester, was snapped as the royal party was en route to Ascot to attend the famous races, which are such an important part of the fashionable "season." Crippled children from the Heatherwood Hospital are waving a salute to the sovereigns as they pass in the royal coach.

Mrs. Hill and Rev. and Mrs. Beacroft Rollin; Rev. and Mrs. Berrington, Thomasburg; Rev. and Mrs. Trumpour, Rev. and Mrs. Rivers of Madoc; Rev. Canon and Mrs. Swayne, Bonarlaw; Rev. and Mrs. Mellow, Ivanhoe, and Rev. and Mrs. Bunt.

Miss Dorothy Hayward of Toronto, is visiting Miss Ruth Eggleston this week.

Dominion Day will be observed in Stirling on Monday, July 3, when all places of business will remain closed. The banks will as usual observe the holiday on Saturday, July 1st.

WOMAN AND CADDY STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Bell Struck Foursome on Links in Kentucky

Williamsburg, Ky., June 24—(AP)—A woman golfer and a caddy were killed and three other persons injured when lightning struck into a foursome at the country club here yesterday.

The dead were Mrs. Corn Shouse, 46 of Columbia, Ga., and the caddy, Eugene Byrd, 15. T. E. Stahm and Robert H. Acito of Williamsburg and Mrs. Frank Hopper of Cleveland, O., Mrs. Shouse's daughter, were injured.

RAILWAYMEN ARE ELATED

Montreal, June 24 (CP)—Officers of the Montreal district of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees hailed the announcement that W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor had arranged a conference next week at Ottawa between representatives of railway labor and the Canadian railway managements as good news.

"When our case is properly laid before the public, I do not see how the new wage cut can be put in force," an official of the Brotherhood stated. "Railway employees have already borne more than their share of loss in income, not only through a previous wage cut but also through part time work and demotions."

Asked what chances there were of a compromise being arranged, the official of the Brotherhood replied: "I do not think there will be any compromise. I do not see how there can be one."

"The fact that railway business is picking up," he added, "must be taken into consideration. I think it is a most inopportune time to effect reductions of pay."

GOOSEBERRIES MARKETED

Farmers Report Need of Rain is Very Great

A hot sun boosted attendance on the part of both buyers and sellers on the local market today, but failed to increase prices of commodities much over those asked one week ago.

New potatoes made their bow to the public among the early asparagus arrivals, selling at 15 cents the berry box. Few of them were in evidence, coming for the most part from Prince Edward County. Strawberries, so much in demand at this time of the year, sold on the early market per 10 cents the box, straight. With the appearances of several trucks loaded with the berry later in the day, late comers purchased them at three boxes for a quarter. Gooseberries, the first of the season, sold at 30 cents per quart, while fresh green peas, were retailed at 25 and 40 cents per quart. Green onions, large and firm appearing, sold at 5 cents per bunch; head lettuce at 5 and 10 cents per head; rhubarb, 5 cents per bunch with the warning from those who were selling it that with the lateness of the season, chances for procuring it would soon be over. New beets, brought a price of 5 cents per bunch, or three for a quarter, while fresh looking radishes sold at 3 cents per bunch or six bunches for 25c.

Dairy butter showed little change in price over the week before, selling at the usual price of 25 cents per pound, or a few cents under 25 cents. Eggs, too, showed little variation in price with 20 cents being asked earlier in the morning. Chickens brought a price of from 20 to 25 cents each, but larger pairs being offered at 75 cents a pair. Fresh meat cuts did not appear to be as heavily crowded as in past weeks, owing to the warm spell of the day and the bright sunshine being felt outside.

Flowers of all sorts brightened one corner of the outside market and brought a variety of prices for both the cut and potted blooms. Rose shrubs, roots for transplanting and seedlings, were the chief offerings.

On one side of the market a lonesome looking collie pup left at four others left unsold, had a price tag of two dollars on him. Nearby a crate of little baby ducks kept up a tiny quacking—15 cents apiece were being asked for them. Further along baby chicks were advertised at 10 cents each. Pekin ducks Prince Edward had a price of $3.00 marked on the crate.

A Persian kitten was offered for sale.

MOVED TO COBOURG

Simcoe, Ont., June 24—(CP)—Inspector and Mrs. A. R. Bryant, in charge of the Salvation Army Corps here for the past two years, left Saturday for Cobourg, where they will be succeeded next week by Captain and Mrs. Johnson, who come from Niagara Falls.

The Stars You Love in a Truly Grand Picture!

John Crawford Gary Cooper

★TODAY★
WE LIVE
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture
with
ROBERT YOUNG
FANCHTOT TONE
Louise Closser Hale
Noble Sissle and His Famed Radio Band — Merry Melody Cartoon.

BELLE
Today & Mon.
2.30 — 7.00 — 9.10

STARTS TUESDAY
Return of the Season's Smash Musical Hit
"42ND. STREET"
16 Stars — 50 Featured Players — 270 Gorgeous Girls

First Actual Pictures Taken of the World Economic Conference Now Being Held in London

BEHIND SCENES OF LONDON ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

Notable figures in the World Economic Conference in London glimpsed in scenes from the great drama enacted at the delegates' get under way. Left, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada arriving at 10 Downing Street, the residence of Premier MacDonald, with Hon. O. Howard Ferguson, Canada's High Commissioner in London; top right: Guido Jung (arrow), Italian delegation leader, acknowledges Fascist salutes from compatriots in London; in the head of the delegation from Arabia enters the conference hall in native costume; Litvinoff (in circle), Russian Foreign Minister and chief delegate, is admitted to the conference on a basis of equality.

WHAT ARE THEY WHISPERING?

Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain and American Secretary of State Cordell Hull get their heads together at a dinner for the conference delegates at Grosvenor House, London.

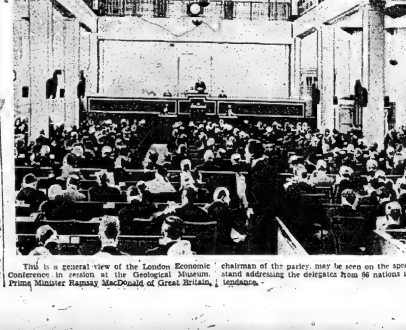
MOLEY ON WAY TO TELL LONDON WHAT

Prof. Raymond Moley, Assistant Secretary of State for the United States, and supposed head of President Roosevelt's "brain trust", is shown besieged by reporters as he sailed from New York to London after a prolonged conference with Roosevelt aboard the latter's fishing yacht. A dramatic conference with Roosevelt aboard the latter's fishing yacht. It is expected Moley will receive instructions to patch up the quarrel which has split the United States delegates to the World Economic Conference.

AS RAMSAY MACDONALD ADDRESSES LONDON CONFERENCE

Here is the first interior scene of the World Economic Conference in session in a remodeled museum building in London. Premier Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain is addressing the delegates of almost every nation on earth. Inset is a close-up of the British statesman as he made his historic speech.

Crowds At Conclave



Huge crowds wait to see the delegates leave outside the Geological museum.

BAR IS CONCLAVE'S BUSIEST SPOT

The bar in the Geological Museum in London, where world economic conference is being held, was enlarged before the conclave, but is being kept busy "when jolly good fellows get together" in conference interludes. Delegates from Chile and Bolivia are seen having "just one more".

PLENARY HALL WHERE OPEN SESSIONS ARE HELD

This is a general view of the London Economic Conference in session at the Geological Museum, Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain, chairman of the parley, may be seen on the speaker's stand addressing the delegates from 66 nations at London.

ITALY'S PEACEMAKER

GUIDO JUNG

Italy's delegate to the London Economic Conference, Guido Jung, who has been instrumental in keeping the conflicting elements of the parley from completely disrupting the conference, is shown addressing the delegates in the Geological Museum.

TELEGRAM IS CLAIMED HOAX

(Continued from page one)

ton, Jr. who branded the message as "ridiculous" as he ordered a telegraph company to trace the sender.

The cablegram dated June 23 and addressed to Hutton at his wife's church, Angelus Temple, read:

"Darling Boy, Nine Pound Son. Doing splendidly. Understand Press inquisitive but keeping quiet."

The message was signed "adoringly wife."

Temple officials including Miss Harriet Jordan, manager, and friends of the noted Evangelist said they consider the cable a hoax.

"Somebody with a motive sent that", they said.

"My wife would have let me know about this long ago," Hutton said, "and besides I know that motherhood is impossible for here. That isn't a word of truth in it. It's ridiculous and I have ordered the telegraph company to trace the sender."

Through With Temple.

The cablegram arrived nearly 24 hours after Hutton announced through his new manager, Harry C. Branzon, he had severed all connections with the temple and intended entering a film career.

"He has not definitely ceased all activity at the temple," Brandon said. "If he wants to sing or appear on the temple platform he'll do it. Hutton wants to make his own living with as little connection with his wife as possible. His individuality as a husband was becoming submerged by the temple and unfavorable publicity."

A few hours after Hutton announced severing connections with the temple, Willeld Andrews, temple attorney, refused to affirm or deny a report Mrs. Hutton, a native of Woodstock, Ont., intends to establish a legal residence in Paris by July 8 and sue Hutton for divorce.

He indicated that on July 8 Mrs. Hutton would have a "highly important announcement concerning the future of Angelus Temple and other matters" but he declined to augment his statement.

Mrs. Hutton has been touring Europe the last four months.

Numerous reports that Mrs. Hutton had been ill in a Paris hospital have reached here during the last week, but all have been denied.

CUT SWITCH SAYS WITNESS

Tim Buck, Conducts Own Case on Charge of Rioting

Kingston, Ont., June 23.—(CP)—Fiery, slight Tim Buck, one-time leader of the Communist party of Canada and now serving a five-year term in Kingston Penitentiary, occupied the limelight today as almultaneous trials of convicts charged with participation in the prison riots of last October proceeded.

Tim, his natural pallor accentuated by his prison environment, walked into the courtroom with an armful of law books while Penitentiary officials, municipal, provincial and Royal Canadian Mounted Police strolled in, out and around the Court House. At the same time convicts Alexander Manson and Alexander Petsel were on trial in a different courtroom.

Buck admittedly clever and a crowd-stirring orator, is conducting his own defense, coached by W. P. Nickle, K.C., former Attorney General of Ontario, and the latter's son, W. M. Nickle, K.C.

The former Communist chief pleaded not guilty to the charge of rioting and changed his plea so he might be tried without a jury.

William Whiteland, instructor, told the court how Buck had pulled a switch to stop motors in the machine shop and said he had heard Buck talking to convicts and saying "we must have unity—one for all and all for one."

WESTERN FARMERS WANT 24 HR. RAIN

Believe It Will be Means to Kill Grasshoppers

Winnipeg June 24.—(CP)—Farmers of Western Canada today looked to a 24-hour rainfall during the week-end as their best hope for relief from the scourge of millions of grasshoppers ravaging prairie agricultural fields. The pests have reached the winger stage and hard work with poison bait now fails to bring adequate results.

But prospects for heavy rains in the west were bright today. Cloudy skies and cool temperatures banked up the weatherman's forecast of rain before night and some districts had already received enough moisture to help crops burnt by last week's heat wave.

COW IS PRAISED

Chicago, June 24 (CP)—If the cow could understand some of the things said about her at a Century of Progress she would be pleased.

"Foster mother of the human race" were among the tributes voiced when the World's Fair Industry Hall was dedicated.

Flowers, long believed to be the last product of plant evolution were abundant even before the time of dinosaurs.

CAMOUFLAGED ABITIBI DEAL

(Continued from page one)

time threatened to send the convention into adjournment on an ugly note.

Went up Again

"When it became known that the province was considering purchasing the corporation," stated Mr. Peebles, "the market value of the bonds went up again. So the province actually paid much more than the real value of the bonds when it bought them at $90."

Mr. Cooke replied: "The natural inference would be that the province could have bought all the bonds at $45 or even at $21."

"I didn't say anything about them selling at $21," protested Mr. Peebles. "I said they had been at $45 and had gone lower."

"No," countered the Hydro chairman, "but they did at the time sell for $21. But how many of them sold for that, or at $45. I will admit they sold for $21. But if the commission had gone into the open market and bought these bonds it would have had to buy them at $100. It decreased the principal by two million dollars and decreased earning power of the bonds by 7 million dollars. There is no other way I know if that the province could have secured money at such a favorable price at three and a half per cent."

Mayor Peebles was unconvinced. He declared: "It is my opinion that the commission offered much more than the bonds were worth in the market."

"We had to give some recognition to persons who had pinned their faith on the credit of Ontario," Mr. Cooke answered. "When you seek to have the province break faith — swell confiscation and repudiation are words too ugly for a man in public life to use. I prefer to use negotiations."

This started the warfare. Mayor Peebles, his face flushed with rage, was out of his chair in a flash.

"I resent that insinuation," he roared. "No private corporation would pay more than the market value. I know that I am more than one or two philanthropists here who would not pay more than the market value. I know Mr. Cooke will have the last word. He is adept at that sort of thing. We have listened to a lot of camouflage."

Mr. Cooke, after the tumult had subsided, corroborated the earlier claim of Mr. Maguire that he had not intended to attribute to Mayor Peebles personal advocacy of confiscation and repudiation.

Prior to Clash

Prior to the clash with Mr. Peebles, Mr. Cooke had declared that protection of public ownership was the motive behind the Ontario Government and the Hydro Commission in securing control of the Abitibi Canyon power.

Mr. Cooke explained how a contract had been made with Abitibi promoters for the purchase of 100,000 horsepower of electricity at $15 per horsepower, or which $6,000 was to be ready for delivery October 1, 1932, with annual increases until the entire allotment was in use. The commission had sales in sight for some 67,000 horsepower at $30 per horsepower.

Then the Ontario Power Corporation got into financial difficulties, failed to meet obligations and could not complete the development or make delivery of current.

To secure the water power for the Crown and protect public interest, the Ontario Government agreed to guarantee bonds which Hydro would give in exchange for O.P.S.C. bonds at a price of $90 for O.P.S.C. Mr. Cooke then stated that not a dollar was paid for stock holdings in the Abitibi project, and only $18,000,000 in Hydro bonds had been issued for the $20,000,000 outstanding O.P.S.C. bonds, that the interest rate was cut from 5½ per cent. to 3½ per cent. and that Canadian funds in Canadian instead of New York funds made a saving of $470,000 a year in interest without exchange.

Length Debated

Some questions were raised as to the length of time which the association was giving to its business agenda, and there was strong support or argument that more than a one-afternoon session should be set. Secretary T. J. Hannigan pointed out that suggestions had been made previously to have more than two sessions a year, and that at some of the sessions there be only business and no entertainment features. This was not favorably acted upon, he declared, and that accounted for the shorter session.

President A. Maguire declared that the executive would send out a questionnaire looking to a change in plans. He stressed the fact that this was the most largely attended meeting in the history of the organization, and showed increasing interest.

During the morning the Association of Municipal Engineers heard papers on the water heater campaign and transformer operations. Members of the O.M.E.A. were also present, and there was a joint luncheon at which John H. Field, K.C., of Windsor, was the principal speaker. He styled socialism as an unattainable dream, the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation plan as absurd, and communism as despotism.

The real factor in bringing about the economic collapse, he said, was the lack of gambling and greed featuring the boom days which naturally followed the World War.

APPLE MAGGOT SPRAY CALENDAR

The first spray for the apple maggot should begin in Essex, Kent, Middlesex, Elgin, Huron, Northumberland and the Niagara district on June 24th; in all other counties to the west of Hastings except Victoria, Simcoe and Grey on June 29th; and in Victoria, Simcoe, Grey and all counties each of Hastings on July 3.

Spray all the trees in the orchard and any other apple or hawthorn trees within 300 yards of the orchard.

Both sides of the trees may be sprayed on the same day or as much of each row as possible sprayed with the wind and the remainder as soon as the wind changes, or as soon as there is no wind.

Spray heavily just as in the calyx spray.

TUNNEY IN GOLD FIELD

Port Credit, Ont., June 24.—(CP)—Gene Tunney former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, today took off from here with a party of prominent New York financial, commercial, political and entertainment figures to inspect gold mines in the Timmins area.

Materials is Use.

If the orchard has not received the regular spray calendar sprays use 2 lbs. of arsenate of lead to 40 gallons of water.

If the orchard has received the regular spray calendar sprays use either 2 lbs. of arsenate of lead in 40 gallons of Bordeaux Mixture of the strength of 1 lb. bluestone and 2 lbs. hydrated lime to 40 gallons of water, or 2 lbs. of arsenate of lead to 40 gallons of water alone.

Note:—Owners of neglected orchards within 300 yards of an orchard whose owner has applied for certification are reminded that July 1st is the time limit for cutting down their apple and hawthorn trees if they have not made provision for spraying them for the apple maggot.

L. Caesar, Prov. Entomologist.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holiday excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.

F. B. MORTON, Publisher

PROTECTING CITIZENS

The government is doing its best to protect citizens from the unscrupulous canvassers who talk them off their feet only to their sorrow. While everything is being done to protect them against financial bandits, no law can be made which will entirely protect them. Some common sense should be found in the making up of persons with money.

And yet it is true that hard-headed and hard-fisted persons as well as the more generous class are "roped in" by clever salesmen and mulcted of their resources. This is one of the most common facts of life.

Under a new regulation in Ontario no agent shall call at any house for the purpose of trading in any security with the public or any member of the public and any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence. It is further explained that the above house shall not include an office used for business purposes and the expression "public" shall not include personal friends, business associates or customers known to the person making the offer has been in the habit of doing regular business in the purchase or sale of shares. Bonds of governments are also exempt from this measure naturally. The aim is to keep the person in the home from the unknown woman.

All salesmen who visited homes selling shares were not of doubtful character, but enough of them were of the shady variety has warranted that this step has been taken. Shares which could have been bought on the stock markets or on curb markets for much less money than known stock has also changed hands at large prices.

Dishonest salesmen would have found honesty in the house only if intending investors had consulted their bankers or some well known financial authorities. They would have disappeared in short orders.

GHOSTS SHOULD BE IMPRESSIVE

Was there ever a ghost story that did not flatten out upon investigation, outside of literary ghost stories?

Therefore, ghost stories are not so often reported as they used to be, whether or not because the people are becoming so sceptical as not to give a thought to such manifestations, the story of ghosts is always one that thrills and haunts the mind, even if ghosts occupy themselves with the silliest contortions.

Ghosts ought to be dignified if they do exist, but most so-called ghosts do the most ridiculous things. One would suppose the doubting population more than they do if they were able to bring what appears to be indisputable messages from the underworld, but there perhaps men could not read their messages for the living are not attuned to the spirit world.

Is there on record the notice of a true ghost story on record, thoroughly verified by facts? Most people will say "No," some with reservations but the ghost story continues to haunt man because of a mysterious something in the past history of the human race. While men and women all believe with the creed that there are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of in philosophy, while they believe that the world of nature and of being contains untold riches of truth which may some day be largely man's through the ultimate may never be revealed this side of the veil, such manifestations as those of spooks are not worthy of association with the great supernatural world just outside the world of sense.

Ghost stories are tame, ridiculous things as compared with the poetic ghosts of Hamlet and Macbeth and of the great Greek tragedies where the ghosts are supposed to bring revelation of moral disorders, their purpose being moral. Ghosts are tame and unworthy as compared with the majestic facts of life which are brought out in science. One psychological fact of the subconscious mind is worth a million of unproven appearances of moving lights, rattling chains or creaking sounds on stairways.

But why ghost stories have a verdant appeal to mankind is another thing. This love of the occult has been a human characteristic through the ages and an inheritance from unscientific days when events in nature were ascribed to supernatural agency whereas today they are accepted on the basis of science. It is the explanation which, differs. The appeal of the hidden leads to hallucination, and to rash belief in whatever is presented in an unusual way, and leaves the way open for extravagant stories of ghosts which unfortunately for mankind are not run down to clear the mind of these disturbing superstitions.

He who would make a name for himself should try to find a ghost that will not turn into a natural man upon investigation.

Misfortune does not always wait on vice: nor is success the constant guest of virtue.—Havard.

A soul exasperated by itself, falls out with everything, with its friend and itself. —Addison.

SIDELIGHTS — GRAVE and GAY

OF YOU

Although I sing of hill and plain
Or changeful ways I journey through,
However varied is my strain,
My song is still of you!

For you are part of dusk and dawn,
A part of sunshine and of star,
And down each clipped and flower-strewn lawn
Where beauty strays, you are.

I find you in the tranquil wood,
And every phase of shore and sea
Is but a new and lovely mood,
Revealing you to me!

My songs may be of many things
That touch my fancy's passing whim;
Of padded feet and painted wings
In forest pathways dim.

Or of the dauntless ships that go
To lands exotic, fair and new;
But through my measures you will flow,
My song is still of you!

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

DID YOU KNOW that goat's milk is sold in Belleville as a commercial proposition? A citizen keeps a flock of goats and has a steady demand for the milk. Each week-end he delivers the does the hens help to keep him, having several hundred grand layers. Good egg—eh? What?—as P. G. Wodehouse would say.

x x x x

VISITOR TO THE WORLD'S FAIR at Chicago states that the exhibition is wonderful one. Great space is given to the health exhibits and physicians are in attendance to show all the most recent advances in therapeutics. Dr. Dafoe, of Belleville, is given great credit for his discoveries which have added many happy years of health to the lifetime of people apparently doomed to misery and early death. Medical science has certainly made great strides in the past decade, and the doctors themselves have attained wider and broader vision, even to the extent of recognizing at last the great value of advertising, (privately, to you doctor) as evidenced by this educational and interesting display at Chicago, where the human body is displayed in more than fifty different languages, with charts, including the Scandinavian.

x x x x

FRESH FISH IS FISH when it's alive,—no argument about that. Testy customer in Chicago restaurant wanted lobster and wanted it alive. Waiter brought it, it is alive and asked the customer to smell it, putting the lobster close to his nose. The lobster saw the opportunity of revenge and then the fight began, lobster winning first round on a half nelson, waiter the second round two up and one to go, and the customer winning last round—around the block for a policeman. Now the lobster—we mean the customer—wants $100,000 because he was damaged by embarrassment, incurred doctor's bills and his sense of smell is impaired.. But look all the fun he had.

x x x x

BELLEVILLE MEN'S CHORUS, organized last winter, is an institution of which the citizens may well be proud. Their first recital has been given in this city by the Chorus, and that for the Crippled Children Fund of the Rotary Club, but several engagements have been accepted outside the city, generally in aid of some philanthropic purpose. The Belleville Men's Chorus was not organized for the purpose of making public appearances and incidentally making money, it was formed by lovers of vocal music who wished to get more out of their musical talent than they had heretofore, to get together in a musical way and make a closer study of the very best in music. The chorus has been able to do a great deal of good in raising money for benevolent purposes in the various public appearances made, and one instance deserves recording where the organization rendered its entire repertoire for an audience of one, not for gain, but just out of the goodness of their hearts. In an outside engagement after a largely attended concert the singers returned to the hotel about midnight, and were asked as a special favor if they would sing a selection or two for the benefit of the hotelkeeper's father, who had been confined to his room for months. The singers were only too glad to accede to the request, and the old gentleman was carried down and made comfortable in the hotel parlor. One selection was sung, then another and another, until the entire repertoire had been sung through to the unbounded delight of the audience of one and the gratitude of the members of the family. Although the wee sma' hours had been reached before the concert finished, and the road was long and weary to the home of the singers, to be travelled that morn, they got so much good out of the good their music had done and the satisfaction of the audience of one that the glow of well-done banished all thoughts of weariness.

WOMAN IN ROME FLIGHT CREW

Russell Boardman, who flew from New York to Turkey, to establish a world's record for distance, is pilotting for a New York to Rome hop, in the plane shown here, on which he'll have Miss Rosetti Valenti, of New York, as passenger. Boardman is shown receiving his license for the flight from (right) Sanford Willetta, government inspector; and Miss Valenti is seen indicating the course of the hop.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 24, 1913

Barnum and Bailey's big show is in the city today and thousands of visitors are here to see the elephants. The monster parade this morning more than came up to expectations.

Labor Day, September 1st, and the following day have been decided upon by the Belleville Agricultural Society as the days during which the fall fair will be held in this city. The Royal Canadian Dragoons, one of the crack military organizations of the Dominion, will be here for the musical ride.

Mr. Ambrose Johnson of Rochester, N.Y., is home on a visit to his mother, Mrs. J. Johnson. Charlotte street.

x x x x

FRESH FISH IS FISH when it's alive,—no argument about that. Testy customer in Chicago restaurant wanted lobster and wanted it alive. Waiter brought it, it is alive and asked the customer to smell it, putting the lobster close to his nose. The lobster saw the opportunity of revenge and then the fight began, lobster winning first round on a half nelson, waiter the second round two up and one to go, and the customer winning last round—around the block for a policeman. Now the lobster—we mean the customer—wants $100,000 because he was damaged by embarrassment, incurred doctor's bills and his sense of smell is impaired.. But look all the fun he had.

x x x x

Dr. R. M. Boyd, who lately received the degree of M.D., C.M., at McGill University, Montreal, has returned to Belleville.

Rev. E. A. Tonkin will preach his farewell sermon at Wallbridge Church on Sunday.

Mr. Levi Massey of Wallbridge has been visiting relatives at Norham.

A strawberry festival and sale will be held by the ladies of Christ Church on the evening of June 26 in Mr. William Lott's grove near the residence of Mr. Emmanuel Hayne. Rev. Mr. Heeney and Mrs. Heeney will be present.

Mr. M. P. Hudson is in Madoc on business.

40 YEARS AGO

JUNE 24, 1893

The James St. Charles Omnibus Company's employees are working nights.

A gang of gipsies, having in tow a number of tough looking horses, was in town today.

Bill Winston is in a variety of colors, 20 cents each, at Jack Harry's up-town furnishing store. (Advt.)

A grey mare owned by Mr. T. C. Lanier and harnessed to a closed stone was tied by its owner this morning to a post near the Canadian Hotel. The horse became frightened at an engine and breaking the bridle ran up Front street and was caught near the city hall before much damage was done.

Remember the A.O.F. moonlight excursion to Deseronto per steamer Hero on the evening of July 8. Boat leaves at 7.30. Tickets 25c. (Advt.)

Mr. Frank Foster will leave for the "White City" tomorrow.

His Lordship the Bishop of the Diocese of Ontario has appointed Rev. Mr. Leech, B.A., temporary curate at St. Thomas' Church in this city.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 24, 1883

Mr. James S. Barber left today for Montreal.

The river is higher now than at any time since spring.

Soon will the hum of the mower be heard in the land.

The Sunday evening service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will be held at 6.30 o'clock instead of 7 o'clock during the warm weather.

Some miscreant entered recently the basement of St. Andrew's Church and forced open the door of a small cupboard in the library and abstracted therefrom the mission collection boxes and breaking the locks off these took what money they contained. This is the third time an act of this kind has been perpetrated in the church and the race of the miscreants has been found.

The following appointment appears in the Canada Gazette: 15th Battalion Argyll Light Infantry of Canada, Belleville, to be second lieutenant, provisionally. John Hall Wallbridge, gentleman. vice Francis Marskell, resigned.

BOY, ATTEMPTING TO DROWN DOG, DROWNS

Montreal, June 24 (CP)—Struggling with a stray dog he was attempting to drown, Raymond Lambert, 11, was overbalanced by the dog at the edge of a pier and was drowned when he fell into the St. Lawrence River. The dog swam ashore. Police were searching for Lambert's body today.

SCIATICA?

(Stabbing Pain in Hip & Thigh)

"Six years ago I was laid up with terrible Sciatica. Nothing did me any good until I took T-R-C's. From the first dose I felt relief. By the time I had taken 1½ one-dollar boxes the pain did not come back." F. Power, Chatham, N.B. Equally good for Neuritis, Lumbago, Myralgia, Rheumatism. No harmful drugs. 50c and $1 everywhere. 238

You owe it to yourself to try

T-R-C's TEMPLETON'S RHEUMATIC CAPSULES

Little Benny's Note Book

Pop was smoking to himself in his private chair, and ma said, Well, it's done at last, Willyum, to put the final finishing touch on your vast, this morning.

Meaning the blue one she has been nitting for him over a long time, and pop said, Once again patience has been rewarded, I knew I'd get that sweater if I only waited long enough and gritted my teeth and went quietly crazy with nizziness. Many times my frends have said to me, What are you trying to do about it? and I invariably answered, Nothing. Like Gandy by Ansered, Nothing. Like Gandy in India, my watchword has been watchful waiting, and my policy of patient submission has reaped its reward, the meek shall inherit the erth, and behold.

Well, such a speech, ma said, and pop said, Of course winter has long since departed and even the nites have lost their chill, but I have fallered so many pleasant hours pulling my woolen vest on and off in front of the register, so that I shall have perfected the art by the time cold weather comes again.

Anyway, the Bazaar Committee of the Ladies of Clearsprings want to thank you, ma said.

Are we still on the same subject? pop said, and ma said, Of corse, naturally. All the ladies are supposed to contribute, and they made themselves to be sold at the big church supper, and while I explained that all I had to offer was my services as a waiter, that they were sure you would be willing to sacrifice it for the good cause, so what could I do, Willyum? ma said.

You could of asked me, for Pete sake, pop said, and ma said, But you're always so busy, Willyum, you?

Well yes, in a way, ma said. But I sippose I could ask for it back again, although that wouldn't put me in very favorable lite, Willyum, because you are the one that really gave it away. Generosity is very grateful to you, she said, and pop said, Yes, I guess I am very much, that is to say I mean you're welcome.

And he got in back of the sporting page and blew smoke over.

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT

By Special Correspondent

TEN DAYS FOR THREE MEN

Plead Guilty to Consuming Liquor in Public Place

Trenton, June 24 (Special) Three men from the "Foreign Legion" will spend the next 10 days in the Belleville jail after pleading guilty to consuming liquor in a public place. The three accused appeared yesterday before Justices of the Peace T. Jarrett and C. Lott, and were fined ten and costs which they could not pay.

College Grads Third

The College Street Grads moved into third place from fourth after they won from the R.C.A.F. by a 16 to 8 score. The Grads had two big innings when they scored 8 runs in each of the third and fourth. Fee started for the Grads but was relieved by a new hurler "Nelson" Gray in the fifth after they were sure you would be willing to sacrifice it for the good cause, so what could I do, Willyum? ma said.

You could of asked me, for Pete sake, pop said, and ma said, But you're always so busy, Willyum, you?

Well yes, in a way, ma said. But I sippose I could ask for it back again, although that wouldn't put me in very favorable lite, Willyum, because you are the one that really gave it away. Generosity is very grateful to you, she said, and pop said, Yes, I guess I am very much, that is to say I mean you're welcome.

And he got in back of the sporting page and blew smoke over.

WIFE AND BOY DEAD IS HOME'S GREETING

Police Believe Murder and Suicide Committed

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 24.—A gruesome discovery was made this evening when Frederick Kellam returned home to find his wife and child dead, with their throats cut. Apparently Jas. Annie Palin, aged 40, had cut the throat of her little boy, Steven Charles Kellam, 4, then faced the mirror and slashed her own throat. Coroner E. S. Kellam, who was called, stated his belief that both had been dead about early forenoon. He will open an inquest at the Morse Mortgue today.

Mr. Palin had been out of work for a considerable time and had returned to work this week. His wife had been nervous, he told the police tonight, but appeared quite cheerful as he left for work this morning, coming out on to the veranda to wave good-bye to him.

300 SAIL FOR EUROPE

Montreal, June 24 (CP)—Over 300 passengers from Toronto, Hamilton, and other Ontario points sailed this afternoon aboard the liner Calgaric. Included in the party which came from the eastern departments of Brighton's social life being Principal and Mrs. Bellamy, Society, Director of the Agricultural Society, associate professor of Trinity St. Andrew's Sunday School and an active member of the Bowling Club besides giving unstinted assistance to numerous other activities.

The largest ice cap in Europe is Vatnajokull in southern Iceland, with an area of 3,400 square miles.

BRIGHTON PRINCIPAL TENDERS RESIGNATION

Attendance Increased 50 Percent During Tenure of Office

Mr. S. S. Breckon, principal of Brighton High School, during the past three years tendered his resignation to the School Board last week. Mr. Breckon took over the principalship three years ago last January and during that time considerable progress was made in all departments of the school life. Agricultural Science was introduced into the curriculum, and acting on his advice, the Board introduced Boys' Short Courses. Also that time attendance at the school increased fifty per cent and Honour reports have been made in reference to the Departmental Examinations. Mr. Breckon was active in many departments of Brighton's social life being President of the Agricultural Society, Director of the Agricultural Society, associate professor of Trinity St. Andrew's Sunday School and an active member of the Bowling Club besides giving unstinted assistance to numerous other activities.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK - - By R. J. Scott

6-28 Copyright, 1933, by Central Press Association, Inc.

GRAB BAG

From what country did the United States buy the Virgin Islands in 1917?

Who wrote "Don Quixote"?

What Roman emperor first persecuted the Christians?

Correctly Speaking

"Had better", "had best", and "had rather" are entirely grammatical and fully approved by good usage. "Would better", "would best" and "would rather", are not preferred.

Words of Wisdom

Sin let loose quicken punishment at hand.—Cowper.

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day are fond of dress and finery, and have excellent taste in this direction.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. Denmark.
2. Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra.
3. Nero.

FIRE FIGHTERS HAPPY IN PROSPECT FOR RAIN

Two Weeks Drought Is Causing Much Damage.

Prospect of rain today brought cheer to hundreds of fire fighters combatting flames in Algoma and Thunder Bay forests.

Reports were trickling into North Bay said rangers taken in by thunderstorms were fighting a stubborn blaze forty miles west of Latchford. Further serious fires were reported in the Algoma areas of Sand Lake and Pechaw. In Thunder Bay district 600 men continued a week-old encounter with flames spreading northward from Lindenmeir Siah.

Two weeks drought rendered task of fire fighters doubly difficult as no rain had been reported in any of the three areas for at least a fortnight.

Overcast skies over northwestern Ontario last night gave hope prisoner now within the walls is 24 years. Gagnon has been a prison guard for 43 years.

Japan's foreign trade in the first quarter of this year was much greater than in the corresponding period of 1932.

BAD WEATHER HOLDING ITALY ARMADA AT BASE

Route May Be Changed So As To Take Off Sunday

Orbetello, Italy, June 24 (AP)—Impatient that bad weather over the Alps has held up the departure of his seaplane armada for days, Air Minister Italo Balbo today considered the feasibility of changing the first objective in the flight to Cartwright, Nfld., Shediac, N.B., Montreal and Chicago so as to take off no later than Sunday.

The Italian aviators had completed final preparations for leaving at dawn today, but once more unfavorable conditions in the Alpine region prevented the take off for Amsterdam.

CONSIDER CASE

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 24.—(CP)—Seekin' a U.S. Civil War Pension, Charles W. Gilkers, 101 year old made his way here from his home in Atlus. His case will be considered by State officials.

Phone For Quick Service

NEW BUSINESS ERA Opens

Save Time and Temper Phone Your Order

AUTO PAINTING SIMONIZING
High Class Work At Reasonable Prices
Campbell's
Auto Paint Shop
325 Coleman Street
Phone 777W

Talking About RESULTS
The surest and quickest way of getting in touch with buyers, renters or traders is through the
ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER WANT-ADS
PHONE 99

WITH GOOD NEWS coming across the ocean from the great world's conference where representatives of all the leading nations are earnestly trying to improve conditions, so that everybody will be able to live better and be happier—good news at home, business improving all along the line—it is easy to see that a new era has begun.

Good crops are in prospect, and better prices are assured. The farmer who produces the food which keeps the people alive and upon whose prosperity all prosperity depends sees a silver lining in the cloud which has made things a bit difficult and if the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow don't just eventualize right now, it is certain that the up-swing is with us.

Buying is briskly up all the time and the merchants are pleased with better business and excellent prospects. Buyers are shrewdly sizing up the low prices of everything just now and are convinced that prices of goods will soon be climbing —nothing can stop them—so are busily ahead and saving money. That's real thrift, and just what makes some folks rich.

REARRANGE YOUR BUDGET FOR THE NEXT SIX MONTHS—AND DO YOUR BUYING NOW.

Quick Electrical Service
All kinds of electrical work, repairs, alterations, etc., taken care of quickly by competent mechanics.
Quick, Courteous and Satisfactory
N. Hardwick
75 Burton St.

Closed Cars Heated
Day and Night Service
FARE 25c
TAXI
R. W. CLARE
52 BALDWIN ST.
Phone 196 Belleville

DUTTON'S
High-Class Goodyear Welt Shoe Rebuilding System
243 STATION STREET
Phone 537 Belleville

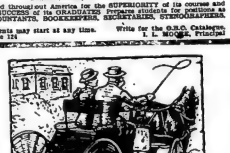
No Farther Away Than Your Phone
B. W. BROWN
Shoe Repairing
Neatly and Promptly Done
4 Bridge St. 18 Campbell St.
Phone 779 Phone 1317W
BELLEVILLE
Work Called For and Delivered

WATCH REPAIRING AND ENGRAVING
By
A. E. Wonnacott
Is well and Satisfactorily done at Reasonable Charges
222 FRONT STREET
Next to Lohn's
Phone 1539

Bee Keepers Supplies
Everything Required by the Bee Keeper at Moderate Prices
BISHOP'S SEED STORE
178 Front St. Phone 383

PURITY BREAD
BUNS, PIES AND CAKES Are Delicious—Try Them
G. E. Thompson
Proprietor
PURITY BAKERY
Phone 1976

DON'T KILL YOUR WIFE
Let Us Do This Dirty Work
Housecleaning Time. Let us take off the storm windows and clean all the windows.
CLARE
Phone 196



Irwin's Body & Fender Repairs
44 Metro St. E., Belleville
PHONE 2134
Prompt Service

WALMUIR DAIRY
Milk, Cream and Buttermilk Pasteurized for Safety
There's a Walmuir Wagon on your street in time for breakfast every day.
Phones 1596 and 2304

REID'S
MILK AND CREAM
FAMOUS FOR QUALITY and PURITY
Visitors Welcome at Dairy
17 PARKER ST.
PHONE 2240

BREAKFAST IS READY!
COME TO BREAKFAST — is the summons issued by you with anticipation of pleasure or are you a 'no breakfast' person—which differs as regarding the morning meal and so do also authorities on diet; some say light breakfast is the proper thing, others claim that a substantial breakfast is required by the average person and still others stoutly affirm that one is better without taking breakfast—so there you are. However, everyone to their liking and, no doubt, each individual should know his own stomach best. Coffee properly prepared serves as an incentive to make 'no breakfast' persons think almost that they took breakfast and to the breakfast eaters it serves as an incentive to make them hasten in their dressing so that they may enjoy sooner the coffee and of course the dry or buttered toast which naturally goes with it. And speaking of toast — there are hundreds of homes in Belleville and the neighboring district where every morning the toast is made of Purity bread which is baked at the Purity Bakery on Sinclair street and of which Mr. G. E. Thompson is the proprietor. Purity bread is certainly delicious—Phone 1976 and a driver will call.

ONTARIO BUSINESS COLLEGE, Limited
BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, CANADA
Famed throughout America for the SUPERIORITY of its courses and the SUCCESS of its GRADUATES Prepares students for positions as ACCOUNTANTS, BOOKKEEPERS, SECRETARIES, STENOGRAPHERS, ETC.
Students may start at any time. Write for the O.B.C. Catalogue
Phone 124 C. L. MOON, Principal

HORSE AND BUGGY DAYS seem to be coming back again, for it is an undoubted fact that more horse-propelled vehicles are to be seen on the roads, and the horse is worth more today per pound than he was a few years ago in the height of the motoring boom. Of course, horses can never come back into their full glory in the days the motor car is so handy, so speedy and can cover so much ground in such a short time, that it would slow things down too much to go back to stage coach days. However, the horse is very useful yet, and the day of the blacksmith shop is not ended, even if the country is punctuated with garages and filling stations. One of the oldest and most popular blacksmith shops in Hastings County is situated at Belleville at the rear of 149 Front Street, operated by Harry Brown, a competent artisan, whose work speaks for itself and is doing business as usual at the old stand. Whenever you want to revive memories of youth and the old blacksmith shop where we used to hang around as kids to see the village blacksmith shoe the horses and make him like it, just drop into Harry Brown's, he'll give you a welcome and a hearty

"GOOD DAY, GOOD BYE, AND COME AGAIN"

"DO NOT LOSE SIGHT OF THE FUTURE IN THE PRESENT"—this is indeed good advice and it comes from one of the finest orations which are said to have been told by a Greek slave named Aesop many centuries ago. For instance the proper use of time in preparing to fill a certain vocation in life—the learning to do some line of work well — is too often neglected. Many persons looking back over their lives wish that they had listened to this advice and prepared themselves to do one line of work well. They would have had knowledge then of a trade or of a profession instead of a little knowledge of this, that and something else. Some wise and successful man in retrospect is saying "I shall prepare myself and perhaps my chance will come". So it is in the business life of today those who are prepared to do well such work as is performed by secretaries, bookkeepers, secretaries and stenographers get the best positions in business institutions — they have knowledge and "knowledge is power". No better institution can be found in which to learn the ways of business than the Ontario Business College, Belleville. By all means "do not lose sight of the future in the present" — prepare yourself.

PERFECTLY COOKED AND SERVED MEALS
Come in Sometime Soon
SCOPIS
Restaurant
208 Front Street
Phone 2183

STEELCOTE
RUBBER ENAMEL
The Paint From The Rubber Tree
USE STEELCOTE for Autos, Furniture, Bathrooms, Kitchenettes, Toilet Seats, Refrigerators, Woodwork, etc.
Cross the Bridge and Save Money
Arthur A. Sills
285 Coleman Street
Phone 1584

MODERN PLUMBING AND HEATING
BY SKILLED MECHANICS — PROMPT SERVICE AND COURTESY
Murray Black
42 Gordon Street
Phone 1335

ALBERT E. MILES
The General Electric Shop
G. E. Radios
G. E. Refrigerators
Connor Washers and Ironers
Expert Radio Service
229 Front St. Phone 1810

HAVE YOUR COLOUR TONES FRAMED IN OUR Swing Frames
LOWEST PRICES EXCELLENT QUALITY AT Scantlebury's

FLAGS
TRUCK COVERS
TENTS & AWNINGS
Agent For J. J. Turner and Sons
T. G. WELLS
12 Campbell St. Phone 1217J

If It's Tire Trouble
Phone 1370
GEORGE DELINE
Firestone Tires

Blacksmithing
Wood Working
Oxy-Acetylene Welding
Car axles straightened, springs repaired and ornamental iron work. Satisfaction guaranteed
Harry Brown
(Successor to Harry Hay)
Rear 149 Front Street
Phone 1718

F. LaPalm
Local and Long Distance Hauling
Closed Furniture Vans
Open Trucks
All Goods Insured During Transit
Office—168 Pinnacle Street
Phone 1600
House Phone 1606

Belleville Auto Wreckers
C. B. SHERRY, Prop.
Used Auto Parts
And Oxy-Acetylene Welding Machine Shop Work
Special Prices on Tires, Tubes, Brake Lining, Car Springs
All Cars Accepted for Auctioning
187 Pinnacle St. Phone 1680

Mystery Shrouds Palatial Embassy of Russia in U.S.

Only a Janitor in $1,000,000 Residence—Present Representative Not Allowed Inside

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Canadian Writer

Washington, June 24. — If and when Soviet Russia is recognized by the United States government, its diplomatic representative in Washington will not have to look for official headquarters.

He will inherit them.

That is to say, the Soviet folk will inherit them from the old czarist regime, or, more strictly, from the Kerensky administration, which intervened between imperial rule and the acquisition of power by Nicolai Lenin.

The Muscovite embassy was the finest in war-time Washington and, overhauled and put in repair, would again be the finest, with the possible exception of England's new one, completed not more than a year or two ago. Outwardly it shows no serious signs of deterioration now, but how much its magnificent fittings and furniture have suffered in the 16 years it has stood tenantless is problematic; it has been sealed like a tomb since Boris Bakhmeteff, the last ambassador from Petrograd, left it in late 1917.

Two Bakhmeteffs, unrelated to one another, have represented Russia in Washington.

Boris Bakhmeteff, the second, brought a delightful old Russian of the name of Sergei Ughet, who probably knows more of the embassy's history than any other individual, for it has remained a white elephant on his hands throughout the entire decade and a half since Lenin followed Kerensky, and Boris Bakhmeteff found himself the plenipotentiary of a defunct power.

Boris' tenure was short. On retiring, he surrendered all official property in his possession to Ughet.

Communist authority continued unrecognized by Washington, there was no one for him to turn it over to. It was impossible for him to live in the enormous house. He had nothing like the means to maintain it. Accordingly, he installed a caretaker and took up his own residence in New York, where he still lives.

In due course a commercial representative of the Soviets arrived, in Boris Skvirsky, who for several years has conducted what is known as the Soviet Union Information Bureau.

Boris Skvirsky made no legal claim to the big embassy building.

It is Ughet's problem to this day.

Skvirsky keeps an eye on the embassy and expects to take it over for the Soviets, in the event of their recognition, but cannot do so until then.

How Ughet has managed to keep it in the hands even of a caretaker is something of a puzzle. He is a man of small means and, from all accounts, has found it difficult to maintain himself.

The status of the property is peculiar. In normal times, if a flaw title to it could be given, it unquestionably would be worth above $1,000,000, but technically it belongs to, owned by, the imperial Russian government (a non-existent government, of course), and therefore is not leasable.

Skvirsky never has seen the inside of the building. Few folks have. The caretaker lives the life of a prisoner in a small lodge on the premises. Knocks at the lodge door either are unanswered or, if they do bring a response, only a peep-hole in the door is opened, speakeasy fashion, an eye looks out, the peep-hole closes and chains are heard rattling. And the caretaker entrenches himself more securely than ever. Why such precautions are taken Skvirsky himself cannot guess. The Soviets have no thought of trying to take forcible possession, he says.

Magnificent embassy of the former Russian Empire in Washington, D.C., which has remained since it was vacated by the Kerensky regime's envoy, will be turned over to Soviet government when recognition is finally granted. The building, shown at top, is the finest owned by any foreign power in Washington. The headquarters of the Boris Skvirsky (inset), chief of the Soviet bureau in Washington, is pictured below.

The California pigmy owl is only about seven inches in its entire length.

Figures show that more farmers in London buy only part of a house to live in.

Pressing with a hot iron loosen stamps and gummed labels which are stuck together.

Two out of every three families

HOT WEATHER COMING . . .

PLACE ORDERS NOW FOR — PURE ICE —
Made From Filtered Water—No Germs
"Eat it Like Candy"
GRAHAM SANITARY ICE
Phone 374

ARE DELEGATES TO DISTRICT MEETING WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Roslin, June 24—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey and family attended the Brickman-Holmes wedding at Wooler on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Luella Holmes is a niece of Mrs. Bailey.

The following members of Roslin Women's Institute attended the District annual meeting at Plainfield on Wednesday:

Mrs. W. Hall, Mrs. H. Sills, Mrs. W. Gillespie Mrs. M. Pargey, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Mel. Ketcheson, Mrs. H. Chisholm, Miss L. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe and Mrs. Bezzer also Mrs. Glen Ish spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Carr.

The Roslin school was re-opened this week after being closed for a week owing to the illness of the teacher and a number of the scholars.

Those attending the women's Association convention at the Tabernacle church, Belleville, on Thursday were Mrs. H. Palmer, Miss Blanche Reid, Miss Aletha Howes.

A number from her attended the Presbyterian garden party at Fuller on Wednesday evening.

Rev. T. C. and Mrs. Bezzer and Mr. Wm. Johnson spent Thursday in Hallowell and the dinner hour with Mr. and Mrs. John Lowery.

TRAIL RANGERS HAVE MEETING

Eldorado, June 24. — The weekly meeting of the Trail Rangers was held in the auditorium of E. A. Hardy's barn. After the opening ceremonies Rev. J. Trumpour gave as his address the fourth code of the Trail Rangers. During the business period plans to attend the camp at Oak Lake were discussed. The usual procedure closed the meeting.

European experiments indicate that eggs and meat can be kept fresh in steam for months by gas treatment, which suspends animation so to speak.

STRAWBERRY CROP IS SAVED BY RECENT RAIN

Strawberry Growers Are Overjoyed at Prospect of Heavy Crop

Carrying Place, June 24. — Few rains have been welcomed more than the one which arrived Wed. Great the one which arrived Wed. Great distress which has been felt throughout the country will now be relieved, at least temporarily. Strawberry prospects in this district are now rejoyed at the prospect of a heavy crop. The farmers in Gardenville strawberry growing has become a thriving industry, and many acres of new plants were set this year. So now, with every hope that the crop may be fully encouraged and heavy, the timely arrival of the rain is a matter of satisfaction.

Mr. Harry McGee and friend of Toronto are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Taverner.

Mr. harlie Westfall, after having spent some weeks in Belleville hospital, is at home again and is enjoying good health of the past year or more. After having suffered with severe heart attacks for most of the year, he was finally taken to the hospital where an operation was suggested. The suggested condition made that impossible, however, and several weeks ago he returned, delighted his friends by recovering to such an extent that he was able to return home. Now he is able to take short walks around the neighborhood and is improving daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hanna and children were visitors in the neighborhood on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. George Hardy's recently overhauled power cruiser now lies moored at the canal by the first bridge. The boat, after a thorough remodelling, has recently fitted with a new engine of greater capacity and considerable speed.

Mrs. S. Pierson and Mrs. S. Zimmerman have both returned to their summer homes here.

Mr. John Quackinbush has considerably brightened the appearance of his home recently by re-siding it and painting it. Mr. A. A. Wannamaker has had his home repainted as well and the fresh colors have greatly improved the local scenery.

Residents of the community were greatly shocked to hear of the accident which resulted in the death of a Trenton young man when an Albore Lumber Co. truck upset near the home of Mr. H. Ellis on its way to Twelve Oclock Point on Sunday. Numerous picnickers made the Point a rendezvous on Sunday.

MELROSE CHURCH BOARD MEETS

Melrose, June 24—A meeting of the local church board was held in the United church on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Crothers and Miss Ethel Crothers Peterboro. were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bennett are entertaining company from Vancouver.

Mr. A. McKinney entertained Rev. W. H. Clarke and Mrs. Clarke at the noon hour on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Grey, Peterboro have returned home after spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. P. Davis.

The ball game on Saturday night between Shannonville and Melrose teams resulted with a score of 11 to 9 in favor of Shannonville.

The heavy shower of rain on Wednesday afternoon was greatly needed and welcomed by everyone.

Efforts to break the 10-mile altitude balloon record set up by Prof. Auguste Piccard will be made at Chicago this summer.

Mysterious Easter Island, a Polynesian colony 2,000 miles off Chile, is visited once a year by a steamship.

It has been estimated that there were between 50 and 75 million head of buffalo in the world in primitive times.

ACTION ORDERED AGAINST COMBINE

Premier of Quebec Announces Four Coal Firms to be Charged

Quebec, June 24.—(CP)—Four coal companies operating in the province of Quebec face prosecution on charges of being members of a combine against the interests of the public, Premier L. A. Taschereau announced in capacity of Attorney-General of Quebec, announced he had issued instructions for the action but did not name the companies involved.

The public announcement is the result of the investigation of the business of anthracite coal made last winter by F. A. McGregor, registrar under the Combines Investigation Act, on the instruction of Hon. W. A. Gordon, Federal Minister of Labor. It puts an end to the controversy between Mr. Gordon and Mr. Taschereau as to the relative responsibilities of the Federal and Provincial Governments in the matter.

"Hon. Mr. Gordon has persistently refused to give us his opinion as to whether there is guilt," said Mr. Taschereau, "but we have the record of the probe, together with our conclusions and after carefully studying the matter we are instructing lawyers to take proceedings against the four companies mentioned in Mr. McGregor's report, as having been in illegal combine."

OLD BOYS OF DESERONTO MEET

Held in the Exhibition Park in Toronto, the annual picnic of the Deseronto Old Boys' Association of Toronto, arranged for Saturday afternoon, June 24th, is expected to be attend by two hundred or more former residents of Deseronto, and their friends.

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

Mr. Harold Williamson is home from Upper Canada College to spend his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Andrew Williamson, Charles Street.

Miss Margaret Gaffney of Deloro is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Margaret Smith, nurse in training at the General Hospital, Hamilton, is spending a few holidays at the home of her father, Mr. Harry Smith, 66 Church street.

The weekly tea at the Belleville Golf Club will be in charge of Mrs. A. E. Ketcheson and Mrs. W. Reeves this afternoon.

Major and Mrs. Woolcott, who have been in charge of Salvation Army activities here for the past year have received word of their transfer to Peterborough. Adjutant and Mrs. Martin of Saint John, N.B. will arrive here next week to take place there in charge. Farewell services are being held tomorrow for Major and Mrs. Woolcott at the Salvation Army Citadel.

Thirty-nine infants were registered yesterday at the Victorian Order of Nurses Well Baby Conference in the City Hall as well as a number of babies of pre-school age. Strict watch over health and development of babies during the summer months was advised by the nurse in charge Miss Pulley and the mothers were urged to bring their children regularly to conference to keep a check on their weight.

Miss Mary Drummond and Miss Isobel Hinds entertained Jolly Set Street Church in the Bay of Quinte Debating League were in Cobourg this week-end, to the semi-finals and were successful over their opponents, Miss Lorne Curtis and Mr. Arthur Cowan of Oshawa. The final debate will take place in Cobourg in October when the Belleville debaters will meet a team from Davan at the Provincial Conference Young People's Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moynes, Trent Road, who yesterday celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding were honored at an informal party by members of the Birthday Club of Holloway Street United Church. Mrs. Moynes presented at the spacious home of the guests of honour a pretty lace cover and their coming was a delightful surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Moynes. An interesting social evening was enjoyed with games and contests and a delicious lunch served. Mr. and Mrs. Moynes were presented with a handsome silver cream and sugar on a silver tray on behalf of the club and each individual silver gifts for which they thanked their friends in a gracious manner. The party closed with everyone singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

The charming home of Mrs. George Graham, Trent Road, was a perfect setting for the summer tea of the Church Help Society of St. John St. United Church yesterday afternoon. On the shore of the Bay of Quinte it was a welcome refuge from the heat of the city and its pretty garden was a fascinating place in which to linger. Tea was served indoors and during the hours were used in profusion for decoration. Mrs. George Graham was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. W. Elmore and Mrs. R. J. E. Graham invited the ladies to the dining room.

The tea table with its lovely lace cloth and its centrepiece of rich red roses was presided over by Mrs. Wm. McGie, Mrs. George Ferguson and Miss Elizabeth Corbeil. The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Leo Riggs.

Miss Reta Stevens, Burnham St., was hostess at a delightful miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Grace Horie, bride-to-be.

Word was received by friends in the city of the death this morning of Mrs. Charlie Morris, who passed away at her home, 1602 Wayne Ave., South Bend, Indiana. Mrs. Morris was a former resident of Belleville.

SIDNEY B. Y. P. U.

The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn. Miss D. Claire took charge of the prayer. Miss Lulla Wannamaker read the Scripture lesson found in Matt. 7, first 12 verses.

Hymn 122 was sung.

Mr. Ralph Smith gave a reading on "Keeping Young." Mr. George Reeves gave a very interesting topic on "Christian Young People". Misses E. Claire and Bessie Sleecker sang a duet "The Lord is My Shepherd".

A Hymn was sung and Mr. O. Stevens closed with prayer. A sword drill and a verse contest were put on by Miss D. Claire, Group No. 1, winning the both. Owing to rainy weather there were only a few members present.

S. S. NO. 18, THURLOW

To Sr. IV.—Cecil Wannamaker, 63.25 (P).

To Jr. IV.—Grace Dickey 83.54 (H.); Willett Casey 72.51 (H); Jean Morgan 71.75 (H); Dorothy Morgan 70 (P); Dorothy Elliott 63.18 (P).

To Sr. Jr.—Gertrude Lester 74 (P); Pearl Wannamaker 65.81 (P.); Donald Cleave 58.00 (P).

Sr. III.—Ross Marshall 78.30 (H); Shirley Robson 77.60 (H); Edna Morgan 75.90 (H); Audrey Robson 72.90 (P.); Lorne Fleming 58.90; Clifford Wannamaker 47.50.

Jr. III.—Earl Wannamaker 76.25 (H); George Dickey 79 (P); Norman Dickey 69.12 (P); Fred Cleave 65.37 (P).

Sr. Prim.—Kenneth Cleave 82.5 (H); Everett Morgan 66.25 (P).

Jr. Primer.—Harold Fleming, Harold Cleave.

—Edna M. Ketcheson, teacher.

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleaning. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Send soiled and stained summer finery here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
182 Front St. Phone 729
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go.
Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth its cost.
Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.
J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 518 224 FRONT ST.

SOME OF HUTTON TROUSSEAU THAT ENRICHED FRENCH

These pieces of the trousseau purchased by Barbara Hutton, 5-and-10-cent store heiress, for her wedding to Alexis Mdivanis, Russian, represent a part of the fortune paid to Parisian designers for exclusive creations, which included $180.00 for silk stockings, and a $6,000 ermine cloak. LEFT TO RIGHT: Frock of white organdie with black embroidery; evening frock of purple tulle with capelet of organdie of the same color; the wedding gown of ivory satin, with a lace veil caught up with a crown of diamonds; two-piece frock of black chantunel embroidered in white.

Children Don't Walk in Circles Says a Mother

St. Catharines, Ont., June 24 (CP)—Appearing before a meeting of the school trustees, a woman resident of St. Catharines said that she objected to her children having to go to Courtland instead of Victoria school. One of the trustees tried to show her that Courtland was nearer to their home; but she insisted that it wasn't. The trustee drew a circle and showed her, with the aid of a map that the school she objected to was the nearest. "Yes, she admitted; but my children don't walk in circles. They use the sidewalks."

ORDINATION SERVICES BY ARCHBISHOP ROPER

Three Ordained in Deaconate and Two to Priesthood

Ottawa, June 24—(CP)—Archbishop J. C. Roper, Metropolitan of Ontario, officiated at the ordination service today of five young men, three to the Deaconate and two to the priesthood of Anglican Church.

Ninley MacWayne, Vankleek Hill, Ont., and Harold Church, Montreal, were ordained to the priesthood. Arthur Turley, Ottawa, William H. Crummey, Pickering, Ont., and R. E. Osborne, Prescott, Ont., were ordained to the Deaconate.

Archbishop Roper was assisted by Rev. Robert Turley, Rural Dean of Ottawa, father of one of the young men ordained.

WEDDING WILL BE BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Greenwich Estate in England to be Scene

Greenwich, Conn., June 24 (CP)—Amid the splendor of wealth and the beauty of one of Greenwich's renowned estate-gardens, Cornelia Ann Vanderhoef will become the bride this afternoon of Frederick H. Booth.

Rev. Oliver Huckle, Congregational Pastor, will read the ceremony uniting the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederick Booth of Ottawa, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bailey Vanderhoef, one of the oldest families of this fashionable suburb.

Society leaders of many cities, some of them from the bridegroom's native Ottawa, are to witness the ceremony in the garden of the Vanderhoef estate. Whiting Wood.

It will be one of the events of Greenwich's current season.

Attending the bride will be her sister, Betsy, maid of honor, while her niece, Catharine Young, will act as flower girl. John R. Booth, the bridegroom's twin brother, is here from the Canadian Capital to be best man.

Gay Garden Party Honors Miss Stefansson

Ardwold, lovely estate of Lady Eaton in Toronto, was scene of a delightful garden party given by Lady Eaton in honor of Miss Birny Stefansson, of Winnipeg, who is engaged to marry John David Eaton, second son of Lady Eaton. Hundreds of socially prominent Torontonians were in attendance at the gay party. Miss Stefansson, seen at right, above, wore a beautiful frock of cool, crisp brocaded Anglaise. Lady Eaton, hostess, is shown at left.

West Hastings Women's Institutes Have Successful Convention

The West Hastings District annual was held at Rosebush's pavilion June 13rd under the auspices of the River Valley branch, and was a decided success.

Over 100 attended. The meeting was opened with the newly elected President in the chair, it opened by singing "O Canada" followed by the Lord's prayer. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. In the President's address she referred to our past president, Mrs. Shaw's services during her six months, presidency on her 2nd year. And the result being a motion that the secretary send her a letter of appreciation.

The reports of the following headings were given by the different district ladies.

Health, Mrs. C. Ketcheson, Trenton, Agriculture and Immigration, Mrs. E. Morrow, Stirling, Canadian Industries, Mrs. B. Pinkie, Halloway, Relief, Mrs. C. Holmes, Belleville, Education, Mrs. Sager, Stirling, Historical Research, Mrs. B. Bush, Frankford, Home Economics, Mrs. Percy Westover, Frankford. A demonstration also was given by Mrs. F. Westover.

A very humorous reading was given by Mrs. B. Bonisteel, Trenton. A very interesting description was given by Miss Eula Holmes Belleville of her two weeks course at Guelph. Miss Holmes having won the scholarship given by the district to the girl in the district judging competition held at Belleville. She very clearly explained the two weeks' course.

Rev. Mr. Rowland on behalf of the River Valley branch gave a very hearty welcome to the visiting branches, Frankford, Trenton, Mrs. Holmes in replying to this address thanked Mrs. Rowland in very very hearty welcoming.

Mrs. Ketcheson gave two very excellent solos accompanied by Mr. Charles Allen. These were delightfully enjoyed.

Mrs. Mills gave a very nice piano solo which was well enjoyed. A duet was very pleasingly given by Mrs. Rowland and Mrs. Arthur Pryse.

Mrs. Haggerty of Cherry Valley the Provincial Federated Representative of the Belleville area gave her report on "Federal Aid" explained the ways and means of federation.

The meetings of the Ontario board held in Toronto, Mrs. Haggerty gave the financial report of the year ending 1932-3.

A piano solo was well given by Mr. C. Allen, Mrs. Dodds and Mrs. Pye very ably conducted the meeting for a short while and elected the following officers nearly all by acclamation. President, Miss Rina Ketcheson, Belleville, 1st Vice President, Mrs. C. Holmes, Belleville, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. C. Kennedy, Trenton, 3rd Vice President, Mrs. R. Meiklejohn, Stirling, Secretary Treasurer, Mary E. Vanwicklen, Stirling, Fed. Representative Mrs. C. Holmes, Belleville, Auditors, Mrs. C. Chard and Mrs. N. Woodcock, Chair Ladies, of Standing Committees Legislation, Mrs. Bert Bush, Frankford, Immigration and Agriculture, Mrs. C. Ketcheson, Trenton, Canadian Industries, Mrs. G. Pye, Belleville, Health, Mrs. R. Meiklejohn, Stirling, Historical Research, Mrs. E. Morrow, Stirling, Community Activities, Mrs. Mills, Halloway, Relief, Margaret Ketcheson, Belleville, Education, Mrs. Sager, Stirling.

The following ladies from the branches and districts gave short talks. Mrs. Dodds, District President, Cherry Valley, Prince Edward, Mrs. Poe, ex-District President, Redneresville, Mrs. Weese, Secretary Redneresville Convention area, Redneresville, Mrs. J. Bailey, District President, North Hastings, Eldorado, Mrs. Wickle, District Secretary, North Hastings, Madoc, Mrs. Richardson, Secretary Madoc, Mrs. Nicholson of Wallbridge, one of West Hastings oldest district members, Mr. Wilson, Agriculture Representative, gave a short talk on his work. He wished for the hearty support of the Women's Institutes in his work soliciting for our assistance in school fair work, etc.

Mrs. Haggerty, Provincial Director, the last speaker. She gave a good talk on "Canada the World's Wonder" and could all take home enthusiastic interest. Her address is interesting and helpful talk.

A demonstration on making wool rugs by hooking was given by Mrs. G. Nicholson and Mrs. C. Ketcheson of the Wallbridge branch.

A vote of thanks was given to all speakers, officers and all who helped to make this one of our best conventions.

The next annual convention will be held at White's church under the auspices of the Bay of Quinte branch. Prayer and the roll call were served by the River Valley ladies assisted by Mrs. Mills.

Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

LIBRARY CORNER

Dr. W. A. Cameron, minister of Yorkminster Church, Toronto tells how he has studied Christ and confidant to those who have come to him. He took "The Art Clinic of a Cleric". "The best remedy for trouble", says Dr. Cameron, "is to give it an outlet", and with this in view he has fostered sympathetically the confidences of difficulties, religious, psychological and personal. He has also confided to him and has been asked to give his professional advice. In his book he discusses these problems under the headings: Fear, failure, worry, passion and power, temptation, suffering, pessimism. The illustrations for his remarks with well-chosen lines of verse are of a helpful type. The concluding chapters offer helpful suggestions for escaping the pain and failure of the future.

"High Adventure", a narrative of air fighting in France, describes the experiences of the author, James Norman Hall, as member of the Franco-American Corps during the Great War. His story begins when Hall and his friends enlisted in France in 1916. "Drew had never been farther from the ground than the Woolworth Building. I had only taken a trip in a captive balloon". With little knowledge of mechanics, the two Americans take their first flying experiences as novices and later as pursuit pilots, attached to escadrille Lafayette. The barracks life, the humorously and vividly. An intimate feature of the book is that it was published while the author was still in the German prison camp and the volume concludes with a letter he received from Germany enquiring about the ultimate fate of the manuscript, and whether it was published or not.

The re-issue of Johnny Weismuller's book "Swimming the American Crawl", tells of his remarkable feats as a swimming champion in the amateur field. He describes how he acquired successful stroke, gives details of his training and offers many fine points of racing technique. Numerous illustrations, some from movie shots show details of the stroke. The book should prove a valuable aid to swimming enthusiasts.

K. G.

Fashion Flashes

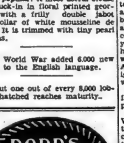
(By Alice Aiden
(Copyright, 1933 King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Peek-a-boo bonnets beneath a wide brim this Summer. Fashionable shops report a tremendous interest in big hats—and the smaller the natural yoyo and has a creased crown and the wider the brim, the better. The crown is banded with bright blue webbing ribbon with a trimming of field flower buds.

You will want a soft frock for smart afternoon wear, and nothing is better than the new crepes. A fine frock has the bodice, capelet sleeves and part of the skirt cut crosswise, tiny tucks edged with saw tooth borders. The big bow under the chin is similarly treated.

Happy in the Rain means wearing the right togs. A lovely rain coat should be provided with crepe with wide revers, belt and band trimming of water-proofed velvet. Red and white carnations form a smart touch.

The whole town will be wearing printed sheer and silk ensembles this year. A typical all-day costume is a frock and jacket of brown and white all-over print with crisp brown and white mousseline de soie collar, cuffs and big bow.



Rest your eyes by wearing a broad-brimmed hat on sunny days.

Sports togs, made of brown tropic pullan, the shallow round crown banded with brown eire satin ribbon with bunches of buttercups posed at side.

There is one good thing as too many blouses, since the separate skirt decided to stay with us, is keeping so popular. A most useful blouse is a tuck-in in floral printed georgette with a frilly double jabot and collar of white mousseline de soie. It is trimmed with tiny pearl buttons.

The World War added 6,000 new words to the English language.

About one out of every 8,000 jobseekers hatched reaches maturity.

Is your appetite finicky?

Here is the tonic that doctors in 52 countries prescribe

Do you sit at the table and toy with your food? Do you desire only very sour or very sweet foods? Are you "picky" at meal-time, rejecting the nourishing foods that your body needs?

If so, you probably have a "nervous stomach," the direct result of a ragged, run-down or impoverished nervous system, which often results in malnutrition and anaemia. Restore your lost appetite with Fellows' Syrup. It will improve your digestion, increase energy and vitality, and will make eating a pleasure. Calcium, iron, phosphorous, quinine, sodium, potassium and manganese—the very elements your system needs—are scientifically compounded in this world-famous tonic. At your dealer's! Two sizes.

FELLOWS'
World Famous SYRUP.
COMPOUND OF HYPOPHOSPHITES

Church Services Sunday

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Rev. J. A. Seymour, M.A., B.T.D., Minister
Services 11 A.M. and 7 P.M. Sunday
Sunday School at 10 A.M.
Mr. Clifford Templar—Deputy Organist

CHURCH OF ENGLAND
Second Sunday After Trinity

CHURCH OF ST. THOMAS	CHRIST CHURCH
Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne, Vicar	Rev. G. G. Wright, L. Th., Rector
8 a.m. Holy Communion; 10 a.m. Sunday School; 11 a.m. Matins and Litany; 7 p.m. Evensong.	8 a.m. Holy Communion; 9.45 a.m. Sunday School; 11 a.m. Matins. 7 p.m. Evensong.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

BRIDGE STREET	TABERNACLE CHURCH
Minister: R. H. Bell	Rev. C. McCutcheon, B.A., B.D. Minister
Music: Mr. A. E. Hagar, A.R.C.O.	Sunday School—10 a.m.
DIVINE SERVICE	11 a.m.—Sunday School and Baker.
11 and 7	7 p.m.—Dr. George Wright, Organist and Choir Leader
Your Father's House	Mr. Arthur Hoff
JOHN STREET

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA
Minister: Robert Hall, B.A., B.D.
Music: Leo B. Riggs

10 a.m.—Sunday School
11 a.m.—The Minister
7 p.m.—The Minister.

VICTORIA AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH
A. Hilliard Jones, Minister
11 a.m. and 7 p.m.—Worship and Sermon.
10 a.m.—Bible School.
Thursday 8 p.m.—Prayer Meeting.

Laura D. LaVoie
L.T.C.M., A.R.C.O.
Organist and Choir Leader

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
Branch of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass.
Oddfellows Temple, Fifth Front St.
SUNDAY, JUNE 25. Subject: "CHRISTIAN SCIENCE"
Sunday Service 11 a.m.
Testimonial Meeting 2nd. Wednesday of each month 8 p.m.

A CURE FOR INATTENTION

(By Constance Cameron)

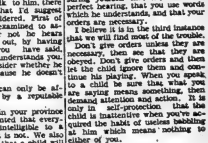
IF YOUR child is habitually inattentive when you talk to him there are three causes that I'd suggest be seriously considered. First of all, have his ears examined to ascertain whether or not he hears you. Second, find out, by having him repeat what you have said, whether or not he understands you. And last of all, consider whether he is not hearing because he doesn't want to hear you.

The first cause can only be affirmed or denied by a reputable physician.

The second lies in your province. We take it for granted that everything we say is intelligible to a child. Very often it is not. We also take it for granted that a child will grasp our meaning perfectly the first time we tell him a thing. This is fallacy, for a child must hear a command or direction over and over before its full import is clear to him, or before he will remember it longer than the time when we are saying it to him.

Too Many Orders

The third is quite possibly the fault of a mother or other guardian of the child who gives too many orders and those, usually unnecessary or contradictory. If you interrupt a child's play with useless suggestions, unnecessary errands, and meant commands that aren't followed up with an insistence of obedience, he is going to put on an armour against what is to him nothing of yours. He is just not going to hear you!



The problem of overcoming inattentiveness, then resolves itself into assuring yourself that the child has perfect hearing, that you use words which he understands, and that your orders are necessary.

I believe it is in the third instance that we will find most of the trouble.

Don't give orders unless they are necessary. Then see that they are obeyed. Don't give orders and then let the child ignore them and continue his playing. When you speak, see to it that he does. Don't say you are saying meaning something, then contradict and undermine it by your own lack of self-protection that the child is inattentive when you've acquired the habit of useless babbling at him which means nothing to either of you.

Proverbs are potted wisdom.—Buxton.

There never was a good war or a bad peace.—Franklin.

ALLIANCE TABERNACLE
West Moira St.

10 a.m.—Sunday School
11 a.m.—Morning Worship
7 p.m.—Evangelistic Service

"HEAVEN'S FASHIONS?"
How Most W. Dress To Go To Heaven?
Hear This Address by Pastor J. R. Armstrong
Sunday Evening At The Regular Baptist Church
(Masonic Bldg.—397 Front St.)
Bible School and Morning Worship 10 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, F. H. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 11.30 a.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley, bid 1.00.
Amulet, 34.
Area, 04.
Barry Hollinger, bid 1.95.
Base Metals, bid 2.30.
Central Patricia, bid 36.
Dome, 20.00.
Eldorado, 3.00.
Falconbridge, bid 3.90.
Granada, 1.30.
Hollinger, 9.30.
Hudson's Bay, bid 9.00.
Howey, .01.
Kirkland Lake, bid 40½.
Lake Shore, bid 41.50.
Macassa, 70.
McIntyre, 33.75.
Mining Corporation, bid 3.05.
McLeod River, 03½.
Pickering, 2.85.
Noranda, bid 32.00.
International Nickel, 18.10.
R. C. Pioneer, bid 13.25.
Sherritt, bid 1.17.
Sisco, bid 1.00.
Stadacona, 94.
Sudbury Basin, 1.70.
Sylvanite, 1.20.
Teck Hughes, bid 6.30.
Vipond, 31.
Ventures, bid 1.11.
Wright Hargreaves, 6.05.
Aax, 1.10.
Big Missouri, .34.
Bobjo, bid 22.
Brabant, bid 6.86.
Brownlee, 04½.
Can. Kirk., 08½.
Castle Trethewey, bid 50.
Central Manitoba, 13.
Coast Copper, bid 2.00.
Canisamum, bid 08.
Dom. Explorer, bid 07½.
Goldale, 16.
Kirk. Township, 39.
Malartic, bid 17.
Malrobic, 05¼.
Mandamin, bid 05.
Moffatt Hall, 03.
Mine Mines, bid 09½.
McWillie, bid 60.
McWatts, bid 96.
Premier, bid 2.94.
Reno, bid 2.38.
St. Anthony, bid 43.
St. Antonio, bid 1.06.
Wando, 14.
Walte Ackerman, bid 1.35.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil, 13.
Imperial Oil, 12¾.
McColl Frontenac, 11¾.
International Pete., 19.
Superfest, bid 1.01.
Distill. Seagrams, 14.
Walker's, 24.
Walker's Pref., 112.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol, 7¾.
Canada Bud., 84.
Can. Breweries, 8¾.
Hell Telephone, 100.
C.P.R., 16½.
Canada Cement, 64.
Canada Malt, 38.
Cockshutt, 8½.
Ford "A", 13¾.
Steelers, 13¾.
Loblaw "A", 23¾.
Massey Harris, 6½.
Page Hersey, 19.
Brazilian, 15¾.

NEW YORK

American Can., 91.
Auburn, 63¾.
Am. Pow. Power, 15¾.
Anaconda, 15¾.
N. Y. Central, 39¾.
Case, 58¼.
Drug, 33½.
Elec. Auto Lite, 23¼.
Gen. Gas, 57.
General Motors, 29.
Inter. Telephone, 17½.
Standard Oil N. J., 38.
Chrysler, 34¼.
North American, 31¾.
Montgomery Ward, 23.
Radio, 9¼.
Standard Brands, 19¼.
American T. and T., 127.
United Aircraft, 28¼.
Vanadium, 34¾.
Westinghouse, 44¾.
U. S. Steel, 57½.

Produce Market

Toronto, June 24 (CP)—The following quotations on produce delivered at Toronto were supplied by the Toronto Farmers' Co-operative Co., today:

Eggs—Extras, 16c doz.; firsts, 13c; seconds (cracked) 10c doz.

Churning cream—No. 1 (F.O.B.) 18c lb.; No. 1 (cott.) 17c; No. 2 (cott.) 15c lb.; No. 3 (c.o.b.) 12c lb.

Butter—No. 1 (solids) 19½c lb.; No. 2 (solids) 18c lb.

Potatoes, per bag, 85c to $1.00; new imported potatoes per barrel, $7.50.

Grain Market

Quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished to A. J. Ketcheson and Co. at 11.45 a.m. D.S.T. today:

Wheat—July 60; Oct. 71 3-8; Dec. 72 3-4.

Rye—July 36 1-8; Oct. 38 5-8; Dec. 40 3-4.

Barley—July 39 1-4; Oct. 41 1-4; Dec. 41 3-4.

CHEESE PRICES

Toronto, June 24 (CP)—The Toronto wholesale cheese market was fairly steady today with dealers buying large, colored cheese, and government grades at 11¼ cents.

Wholesalers offered cheese to retailers at the following prices:

New large 12c, twins 12½c, triplets 13½c; old, large 15½c, twins 15¾c, triplets 16c; medium, large 14½c, twins 14¾c, triplets 15c.

Washington, June 24—(AP)—The "United States Board of Trade today in a formal statement requested President Roosevelt to resume the "full diplomatic relations with the Soviet Government" of Russia.

Daring Ottawa Diver to Plunge From Quebec Bridge

Here's "Bob" LaRocque, of Ottawa, claimant high diving champion of Canada who is training in Ottawa for this summer's competitions. LaRocque has been doing high jumps from bridges, cliffs, etc., for the past five years. Some time ago in a dive of over 175 feet from the top of the Interprovincial Bridge at Ottawa, LaRocque suffered injuries when he struck the water but fortunately he managed to reach shore. Since he has repeated the stunt several times with success. LaRocque made several high jumps in different cities. He has his eye trained on the Quebec Bridge (shown at top) and hopes to do a high dive from there of about 150 feet above water at high tide.

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Mild Rally in Last Half Hour Lifted Some Leaders in New York with Small Gains — Merger Reports Sent Walkers and Seagrams to New Highs — Walkers Touched 32 and Closed at 30 — Moderate Buying in Senior Golds Seen.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, June 24 (CP)—Distillery issues, beguiling by merger reports, provided the Toronto Stock Exchange with the day's bright market in weeks. These stocks dominating the list and all showing sensational rally. About 40,000 shares of Walker's common changed hands and up the price advanced to 30 up 3 while Distillers Seagram's made a gain of almost 20,000 shares and its price was carried to 16¾ but failed to hold there. Walker's pfd. got up to 113½.

Substantial gains were scored by the other liquor stocks. Industrial Alcohol advanced 1¼ to 7¼ and Brewers and Distillers 45 cents to $2.00.

Other sections of the board were neglected and the close was down slightly. C.P.R., Bradalbs and Ford or Canada weakened ¼ to ¾, Steelers held a small gain and International Nickel dropped about 25 cents to $19.

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, June 24 (CP)—Moderate buying in the senior golds featured and some of the base metals was apparent in the Standard Mining Market in the closing session of the week and prices were lifted a small amount with the close generally firm and steady. Trading lacked the feverish tempo that marked previous Saturday sessions in recent weeks.

All the senior golds and International Nickel and Noranda added small gains, supported by a good rally in Wall Street but Nickel lost ground before the close and Noranda finished down a point on the day at $31.75. In the other base metals Hudson Bay held a 25-cent gain

CHEESE

At the Belleville Cheese Board, Saturday morning, 2,000 white and 146 colored cheese were offered for sale, and all save 116 white were sold at 10 13-16 cents, 1-16 off from the price Saturday week.

The corresponding Saturday, a year ago, the offering was 2,276 boxes and the price 5 3-16 cents.

The following factories were represented:

Shannonville	.....	W.
Bronk	.....	75
Harold	.....	80
Silver Springs	.....	37
Union	.....	70
Wooler	.....	40
Hellowav	.....	41
Sidney	.....	65
Wooler	.....	75
Sidney T. H.	.....	85
Frankford	.....	92
W. Huntingdon	.....	44
Melrose	.....	15
Zion	.....	76
Foxboro	.....	60
East Hastings	.....	57
Thurlow	.....	38
Mountain	.....	68
Weller's Bay	.....	114
Moira Valley	.....	56
Roslin	.....	35
Kingston	.....	50
Mountain View	.....	110
Evergreen	.....	99
Prankford	.....	110
Rogers	.....	79
Moira	.....	41
Stirling	.....	59
Victoria	.....	60
Roblin	.....	57
Glen	.....	60
Beulah	.....	61
Plum Grove	.....	50
Albert	.....	94

EXCHANGE RATES

Exchange rates at the close today were:

Pound sterling in Montreal 4.67¼, U.S. in Montreal 99 1-16.
Pound sterling in New York 4.52¼
Canadian dollar in New York .90¼.
Paris Bourse closed.

CROPS ARE SUFFERING FROM LACK OF RAIN

Western Ontario Hard Hit by Recent Drought

Stoney Creek Ont., June 24—(CP)—Serious all crops are suffering from lack of rain. The strawberry crop is the most injured by the drought, and will soon be a thing of the past. Raspberries are showing the effects of the excessive hot weather also. The promise of a splendid hay crop is not going to materialize because of the want of moisture. Early cherries are being gobbled up by the robins and starlings which the most fear-someappearing scarecrows fail to scare.

ONTARIO WEST NEEDS RAIN

Unless Rain Falls Shortly Heavy Damage Will Be Done

Toronto, June 24 (CP)—Ontario's farmers today looked anxiously skyward and sought for the dark clouds on the horizon for unless rain falls shortly thousands of dollars worth of fruit and grains will be ruined, parched for lack of moisture.

The strawberry crop has been particularly affected, and within two weeks will be finished, the farmers state.

At Chatham, the wheat crop is cut 50 per cent to early season estimates while white bean and corn acreages will also be greatly reduced. Wheat is headed out and commencing to mature with the heads only partially filled out. Sugar beets are badly in need of rain. The hay crop is excellent.

Kitchener reported the strawberry crop below average and rain needed to help the oat yield. Late berries are dropping off in the Galt area, while raspberries need moisture badly, with the blossoms dropping off. Rain is needing the effect of the drought and all grain on lighter land is showing will. Root crops are at a standstill.

Strawberry prices were dropping to four cents a box at Brantford with the crop cut 50 per cent. Hay has been cut short. Fall grains and roots promise to be very light unless rain comes soon. Very clay lands are baked hard while the sandy areas are showing signs of growth that should be green is badly withered.

The Niagara Peninsula is suffering heavily. Strawberries and raspberries have matured, May is matured, pastures drying up and the milk flow decreasing. Other crops are not affected.

Damage is very heavy in the Bridgeburg district where young plants have literally been burned. Tobacco crops as well as those of early vegetables have suffered extensively.

Stoney Creek reports all crops suffering from lack of rain. Even hay in that district will be below expectations. Early cherries are being eaten by robins and starlings.

ALLEGED KIDNAPPERS SOON TO KNOW FATE

Trial at Cape Cod Rapidly Drawing to a Close.

Barnstable, Mass., June 24 (AP)—The destinies of Kenneth and Gyrth Ellicott, alleged kidnappers of Dorothy Arnet (Peggy) McMath, probably will have been decided by a Cape Cod jury before today is done.

The defense of Kenneth rested yesterday after only 15 minutes. Gyrth's mother, took the stand and told the jury and judge that her son was advanced 60 to 45 cents a bale. Bar silver raced ¼ cent an ounce to 34¾ cents. Bonds were a trifle irregular.

Canadian mining stocks were in fair demand, with McIntyre Porcupine and Dome Mines getting up around a point each. Canadian Pacific was easier and International Nickel somewhat easier. Dominion government bonds were unchanged to fractionally higher. The Canadian dollar was steady at 90¼ cents.

RUPTURE

Why suffer with rupture when our advanced method without elastic or underarm gives positive guaranteed relief and comfort. Very light, cool, and inexpensive. Write to Smith Manufacturing Co., Preston, Ont.

Dept. 66

Established 1892.

McKEOWN'S
ONLY DRUG STORE
OPEN SUNDAY

BUSY

IS NO NAME FOR IT—WE HAVE BEEN

RUSHED

OFF OUR FEET WITH ORDERS. NOTHING TOO THAT ADDITIONAL MACHINERY HAS BEEN ORDERED.

THANKS

We are very grateful to Belleville citizens for the kind reception accorded us. A little patience—in the meantime we will do our best.

ODORLESS

CLEANERS AND DYERS
316 Front St. Phone 54

EMERGENT MEETING

The Masonic Fraternity will celebrate the anniversary of Saint John The Baptist by attending Divine Worship at the Tabernacle United Church on Sunday morning, June the 25th, meeting at the Temple 10.15 o'clock a.m. All visiting cordially invited to attend. Masonic clothing.

J23-2in.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

Owing to a number of citizens using water on lawns out of hours it is necessary to call the inspector out to check this practice. The hours for the use of hose for any purpose is from 7.00 to 9.00 in the morning and 5.00 to 9.00 in the evening. Any person found violating these rules the water will be turned off and only turned on again after the fine has been paid at the office.

This does not apply to consumers on meter.

By Order,
WATERWORKS DEPARTMENT.
J21-4t.

CITY OF BELLEVILLE

CITY HALL ROOF REPAIRS

Sealed Tenders addressed to Aldrich, Marshall, Chairman of Property and City Property, will be received at the City Engineer's Office until 5 p.m. June 26th, 1933 for the repairing and resurfacing the roof of the City Hall Building and Old Hall Tower.

Form of Tender may be obtained at the office of the City Engineer.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Chas. A. Mott,
City Engineer.
J24 2T.

NOTICE

Members of Benjamin L.O. Lodge 274 are requested to meet at the Orange Hall, Belleville on Sunday, June 25th at 10.15 a.m. to attend Divine Worship at Emmanuel Church at 11 a.m. Visitors cordially invited.

D. Aselstine, W.M.

J24 2T.

One of the strongest forces toward the unity and peace of China is the growing enlightenment of her women.

Belleville Burial Company

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor

27 CAMPBELL STREET
BELLEVILLE
Mausoleum
Crypts for Sale

PHONE 774 W Day and Night

List Your Property For Sale or To-Let With

Belleville Locators

GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.

'Phone 99 House 'Phone 687

DEATHS

KELLAR—In Belleville on Friday, June 23rd, 1933, Ella Palmatier, widow of Frederick Kellar, aged 80 years.

The funeral will take place from the residence of her son, Christopher Kellar, University Avenue, Thurlow, on Monday, June 26th, 1933, to Ida Centre Street United Church for service at 3 p.m. Interment Carnahan cemetery. J24-1t.

STAPLEY—On Friday, June 23rd, Harry James Stapley, of Consecon Two, Ravdon, aged 54 years. Funeral on Monday, his late residence on Monday, June 26th, at Carmel United Church at 2 p.m. for funeral services at 2 p.m. Interment Clarke's Cemetery, Consecon Hills. J24-1t.

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Finkston
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of
Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON
FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 62 — 228 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 1313

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
218-223 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE SERVICE
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

MONUMENTS

A. C. Campbell
Memorial Craftsman
61 Bay Street Belleville

Auto Loans
CARS REFINANCED
NEW LOWER RATES
S. J. Fisher & Son
30 BRIDGE ST.
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance
Co. Ltd.
Toronto, Ottawa, Etc.

FOR SALE

FARM FOR SALE

114 ACRES, PART LOT 27, 2ND. CONCESSION, SIDNEY, 2½ miles from Belleville. Good buildings, equipped with modern conveniences. Land all under cultivation. Drained with 40 thousand tiles. Address: John M. McMullen, R. R. 2, Belleville. J24-1t

OAS STOVE WITH SIDDLY GREY (and white enamel; refrigerator, both new, coal ranges, kitchen table, bedroom suite, chesterfield, bed papers. 211 Coleman. J24-1t

DINING ROOM SUITE FOR SALE—Good condition, 40 East Moira St. Phone 2226. J22-3t.

FOR SALE—TRAILERS. APPLY 38 Johnston Street. J22-1t.

BOAT AND TRAILER. APPLY 211 Bridge St. J22-3t

SOLID BRICK HOUSE, 8 MURPHY St., modern conveniences. Garden. Garage. Wired for electric stove. Would lease to permanent tenant. Apply on premises. J17-1t.

FOR SALE OR RENT

COTTAGES, MOIRA LAKE, BAPtiste Trout Lake. Apply Frank Baalim, Madoc. J3-1t

BUSINESS LINERS

CLIMAX

Bills Potato Bugs, Cabbage and Cucumber Bugs and other insects. Use Climax. 50c. packages at Bishop's Seed Store. J24 2T.

SEEDS FOR LATE SOWING

Turnip, Millet, Seed Corn, Rape, etc. Bishop's Seed Store. J24 2T.

PIANO TUNING

J. R. Moreen, of Toronto, is in the City. Mr. Moreen is one of the best Piano Tuners and Action Regulators in Canada. Pianos worn parts replaced; has had 25 years experience. Can be recommended by all leading manufacturers. Orders left at Jennings & Sherrys. J23-4t. Hff.

DOLORES GILLEN

Petite Dolores Gillen comes to you from Chicago every Sunday as Alice Dudley. A graduate of the University of Illinois, Dolores has been heard in many radio dramatic shows for the past year.

Classified Ad. Rates PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, Marriages, Deaths, In Memoriams, Motor Deaths, Cards of Thanks, Funeral notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Marriages, Engagements, Obituary charges, $1.00 for 10 lines over that the per count line. Ladies' Receiving Announcements, minimum charge 75c.

CLASSIFIED RATES—Per insertion for 25 words or less, 25c; each additional 25 words or less, 10c. Three insertions in per word, minimum 50c.

COMING EVENTS—No per insertion for 25 words or under, over that amount 2c per word.

CARDS OF THANKS, IN MEMORIAM, Resolutions, Lodge Notices, $1.00 per month per inch.

BUSINESS CARDS, $6.00 per month.

EXPERT NOTICES (including those concerning Lost Articles), 25c per agate line (14 lines to the inch). Minimum charge 50c for consecutive insertions.

AUCTION SALE Notices, per agate line according to count as to Condition, Terms, Etc., $1.00 per insertion. Three consecutive insertions.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

The minimum charge for any notice is 25c.

Telephone your Want Ad; when it is more convenient. PHONE 99.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Want Ad or 12 ½ words.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to the Box Letter Care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

EXPERIENCED TEACHER, PROtestant, for school section No. 7, Rawdon. State qualifications and salary. J. O. Green, Harold R.R. 1. J24-2t.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WOMEN WANTED TO SEW FOR us at home. Sewing machine necessary. No canvassing. Experience unnecessary. Apply Dept. 101, Toronto 8.

MALE HELP WANTED

HOW TO GET A GOVERNMENT Job. Free Booklet. The M.C.G. Ltd., Toronto 5. J24-1t.

FOR JULY 1ST, GOOD COOK general. Apply with references to Box 43, Napanee. J24-3t.

ALSIKE CLOVER, DOULD HANdle a limited quantity at reasonable cash price, for export. C. E. Bishop & Son, Belleville, Ont. J23-3t

MAN OR WOMAN TO HANDLE a line of fast moving, low priced household essentials, protected territory and best commissions. Drug Sales Co., London, Ontario. J23-2t

PERSONAL

PRIVATE HOME KINDERGARtens pay. We start you. The Canadian Kindergarten Institute, Toronto (10).

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S.
Certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology
Fellow American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology
Member American Medical Association
Member Canadian Medical Association
Member Ontario Medical Association
Member Hastings County Medical Association
Member Belleville Medical Association
Member Canadian Ophthalmological Society
Member Ontario Ophthalmological Society
Member Canadian Otolaryngological Society
Member Ontario Otolaryngological Society
Member Canadian Association of Ophthalmology
Member Ontario Association of Ophthalmology
Member Canadian Association of Otolaryngology
Member Ontario Association of Otolaryngology
Member Canadian Association of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology Member Ontario Association of Ophthalmology and

Nats Outhit Ponies but Inability to Hit in Pinches and Errors Blew Game 13-7

Shuffled Lineup Fails to Lift Jinx Held by Jamieson

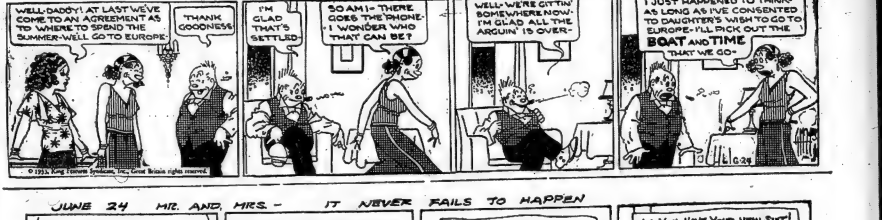
HEAVY HITTING

"Peeney" Mills Hits Long-est Drive Yet Seen on Kingston Field

Costly errors and free tickets to first base cost the Belleville National a ball game in Kingston on Friday evening when they bowed to the Ponies by the score of 13 to 7, in one of the queerest ball games ever played in the C.O.B.L. Despite the fact that 15 hits locals outhit the Ponies and had twice as many men left stranded on the paths they failed to capitalize on the chances that were theirs and tossed away a ball game in the first two frames with misplays only to fall in their batting possibilities later in the fray.

With a feeling that a shakeup would add strength to the club, Manager Mills started Earl (Sonny) Green behind the mitt with big Jim Matthews on the slab. Harry Morgan was at second with Chambers in the short field and Carrington back at his old position on third. Free ticking by Matthews and four costly errors by Harry Morgan, at second, paved the way for five runs being scored by the Ponies in the first two innings on two rather scratchy hits. Not one single earned run was chalked up by the league champion Ponies in the first three innings, altho' they got six runs.

Matthews was replaced by Utzouli in the third inning, Manager Mills going from the bench into right field to replace the ex-Renfrew hurler. Matthews pitched fair enough ball while working, although issuing ball while working, although issuing ball while working, although issuing



By Russ Westover.

TILLIE THE TOILER

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

JUNE 24 MR. AND MRS. - IT NEVER FAILS TO HAPPEN

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Esteban now remembered the little sack which he had taken from Krakl. "It feels like ammunition and may be valuable," he said, untying the things that held it closed. He let some of the contents spill upon the hut's floor. As the sparkling stones rolled scintillating before their eyes, the girl gasped. "Diamonds!" exclaimed the Spaniard. "Where could he have gotten them?"

Flora Hawkes' eyes narrowed. Awakened was the always present greed that, Semitard knew, was especially powerful, was her hatred for the Spaniard. Could she but have known it, those gleaming gems had crystallized at last in the woman's mind a definite determination to slay Esteban while he slept. Before this she had been afraid of being left alone in the jungle. Now the desire to possess this great wealth overcame her terror.

Tarzan, ranging the jungle, picked up the trail of the fleeing slaves of the Arabs and the various bands of west coast natives. All told him the same story. None had met with Lavini since the night of the battle and the fire. So occupied was the ape-man with his search for Lavini, however, he had not noticed that a sack of diamonds was missing. Suddenly he recalled the gems and his pace with the three white men and missed the sack.

STATION L-O-V-E

By Craig Carroll

He was laughing, with an ugly note of anger, of disgust, in his voice.

"Oh, I'm sure you didn't know, Judy. Well—I just called to say that I've always known a woman couldn't afford to help anybody around a radio studio. I'll forget how enough to give you and Elton Day a chance."

"Dick! Dick! I don't know what you're talking about! Dick! What's wrong? You sound so—so different. You—tell me—tell me what's wrong. I don't understand."

He was laughing. A boy's sick, broken laughter. The laughter of a boy, who, trusting deeply, has found his trust meant nothing.

"I'll not be seeing you again," he said then. "But I'm sure you won't mind that. So good-by."

His hung up.

Judy stared at the telephone in her hands. Then, slowly, she put the phone back on the table.

The landlady stood in the doorway. "Who was it, Judy?"

"It was Dick Mason."

"Oh," the landlady dimpled. "Nice boy, Dick. I hope you won't mind my saying it, Judy. But I couldn't help noticing the way how much you and Dick have been together, and I'm awfully glad, Judy. You're just made for each other. You ought to be happy—and, Why, Judy! Judy, you're crying!"

Judy did not even hear her. She climbed the stairs, slowly, blindly. She found the door to her room, and she entered.

She was there, silent, staring out of the window through, dry and heart-sick eyes, when Elsie came home a long time later, to tell her she rest of the story of what had happened to Dick Mason.

Elsie entered quietly, and for some time she said nothing, only whistled softly, only moved about nearer, then sat down and waited. Until at last Judy asked, "Well, Elsie?"

"You heard about Dick?"

"Yes, I heard."

"He called you?"

"Yes."

"What did he say?"

"That he wouldn't be seeing me any more. And that he should have known better than to have suspected. That's all."

"Didn't he explain at all, Judy?"

"No."

"Then you don't know what happened?"

"I know it was something about the station. And Elton Day had been here, just before, talking about something, without saying what it was. But that's all, Elsie."

"Dick low, his pitch."

"What!" Judy started up, moved restlessly. Blood rushed to her face, which assumed complacent, as Elsie, unabashed, as though her words had caused nothing at all, "Elsie! Elsie! You don't—It's wrong! There's a mistake! Dick couldn't take his job. He's the best announcer they've got."

"He lost his job," Elsie repeated. "Lost it this morning. Elton Day called down to the station for, Billy's down there now to find out about Dick. I gotta feelin' that it's all about. Billy's going to come back over, as he can, or—Judy! Judy! You didn't have anything to do with this?"

"I—" Judy gasped. "Elsie, You think I was to blame for—for did Dick do something, or did something, or—"

Elsie said nothing.

Suddenly Judy fell a new terror. Whatever she was supposed to have done, she knew she was not to blame. She told first Dick, now Elsie, seemed to take it for granted she deliberately had set out to ruin him. To ruin Dick! It was so preposterous, it was so unfair, that suddenly she let go, and, between hysterical laughter, it had been coming for a long while, she told Elsie, sobbingly, the first words Elton Day said.

Now she sat there, with Elsie sitting on the foot of her bed, a handkerchief held to her mouth, tears streaming down her face. Yet she laughed, a laugh as bitter, as empty, as the laughter of a woman Day's. Until Elsie, frightened, now, caught her by the shoulders, shook her violently, "Judy! Stop it! Judy! Stop it!" But she laughed. Then all of a sudden her laughter stopped.

She sat there, staring.

Elsie began the story, speaking in laconic, telegraphic terms.

"What you told me about that mix-up in the studio got around and around until finally the story got to Dick's boss. Dick didn't even know what was up at first when they asked him to see him. Because they asked if he helped you in the audition, and he said, 'Yes, of course. And what if I did?' He didn't even bother till somebody told him, after it was all over and he was allowed to go, that he'd said it because he raked an audition for you, got the operator to help. The operator—"

Judy started up.

"That operator knew better. Elton Day put him in that control room. And she wouldn't—wouldn't know anything about him."

Elsie said nothing. That's what Billy went down there for. You remember—Billy was in the control room, checking up the channels, he calls them, when you first go into a broadcast."

"Yes."

"Well, the way Billy got it from one of the other men at the station, Elton Day and Dick helped Dick fix the channels that way."

The operator who was on the air can serve he didn't change a thing. Says he understood everything was all set and ready to go and just went ahead. Says he noticed something funny, but it wasn't his business to change what the man in charge of the show had done. So the man in charge of the show was Dick. And that's right, Elsie wasn't on the show; he was with the boss. You mean I've made Dick lose his job, and maybe I've made Billy lose his job, too? You mean that, Elsie?"

"Yes," Elsie said curtly. "That's it."

"But—" Judy walked to the door stopped, walked back, turned, walked to the window, looked out. Then with a tremendous effort she made herself speak, think. "Elsie, I know. I know what really happened. I'm going down and tell them. Tell the men who handled it all. Dick. I'm going to tell them what Elton Day did. It was his fault and he told me so."

Elsie shook her head.

"Wouldn't do a bit of good, Judy," she advised.

"Of course it would. They'd have to believe me! They'd have to, Elsie!"

"Maybe so. But they wouldn't."

"They wouldn't!"

"Uh-huh. Look. There's a first audition, and somebody says there's something phony about it. And along comes a second audition, and once again it's phony. And both times it's you that gets the break, not anybody else. Nobody else ever had a chance, Judy."

"But they said my voice was the best. They said—"

"Who said? Elton Day and Dick Mason, that's who. And everybody down there knows they're both crazy about you. And what kind of testimony is that going to be?"

Judy's face burned, her lips were dry.

"Elsie, you're making it sound as if—as if I wanted them to get me a job, no matter how. As if I wanted Elton Day to cheat for me. As if I didn't tell Dick because I was mixed up in it from the start."

"Don't you see?" Elsie asked now her voice a little kinder. "Don't you see, Judy? That's just what it's going to look like to everybody else down there. Why, there are a half dozen men who wanted Dick's job. Half a dozen people wanted to see him let out. Everybody knew he was set for a bigger chance.

"You mean Dick was going to get something better?"

"That's what Billy says. Dick told him in confidence that his boss was talking about putting him in charge of four accounts only. And giving him a part of the announcer's pay on all four. Maybe about three times as much as he's been getting. Maybe more."

"And I made him lose that!"

Judy remembered Dick, his words, his talking, his face drawn, when her about the people he must support, telling her how desperately he had to get enough money so he could be free of his boarders.

Dick worried about a taxicab bill, worried about it—and at any panel like the drug store, because it meant that much less for his people and little enough for himself. Dick, who without things, longing for a chance to get on his feet.

"Elsie! I've ruined Dick! I'd rather have done anything in the world than hurt him! I—"

"You love him, Judy?"

"I don't know, Elsie. No. I don't know. I tell you I'm not sure. That I was big, being in love. That—that I don't know! But—"

"But you do know!" Elsie grinned wisely. "You're in love with Dick and you've been in love with him since the first time you saw him. No use trying to fool me, Judy."

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

"How can Dick think I said anything about him?" Judy demanded of Elsie.

The word's out that it was A girl talking that tipped it off. A girl who didn't really go to anybody but Dick. Dick knows that I'm not, and there, as if she didn't mean to," Elsie said.

"Lena Burdette!"

"Sure. But who's going to prove it?"

"But Lena said she'd get even. She said she'd get even with Dick. Everybody knows about her, Elsie. She's always fooling around with somebody. She wanted that job herself."

"Sure. But what's Judy going to do?"

"Why—" Judy was conscious of a great helplessness. Telling the truth had always been the answer, but now the truth was no answer. You can't tell the truth to people who won't listen.

"You should have told Dick in the first place," Elsie said, as if to a child. "You should have let him know."

"I know...I know. But I was so proud, because he got the job for me. I didn't want to hurt him. Oh, I'm not going to think it was a trick that did it. I don't think that, or on feeling proud."

"And so he got hurt worse than ever."

There was no answer. Dick Mason, depending on Judy Allen, depending on love with her, eager to help, felt now that she had tricked and there's no for forever operators. Or for crooked announcers.

"That's not so!" Judy said sharply. "Dick's not like that."

"Oh, he isn't, he? But everybody says he is. And that's the same thing."

"It isn't. Because I'm to blame, even if I don't know what was happening until afterward. And I'm going down right now and tell the people in charge exactly what happened."

"Oh ahead," Billy said. "And see what it gets you."

"Judy! Elsie called. But Judy did not answer. She was already out of the house.

A taxicab. She told the driver where to go, she said, "Hurry! Hurry! She sat back in the cab, closed her eyes, pondering what. And the taxicab jounced, stalled, waited interminably for red lights to change.

(To be Continued)

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES

(Eastern Standard Time)

SATURDAY

1.45—Harmonica—WEAF
2.00—Radio Troubadors—WJZ
2.00—Vocalists—CFRB
2.45—Around Bandstand—CKCL
2.45—Paulist Choir—WABC
3.00—Musical Matinee—WEAF
3.00—Morin Sisters—WJZ
3.00—Eddie Odell—WJZ
3.30—Chautauqua Strites—WJZ
3.30—Concert Favorites—CRCT
4.00—Little People Hour—CKAC
4.00—The Amateurs—CFRB
4.30—Jack and Loretta—WEAF
4.30—Nat Shilkret—WJZ
4.45—The Dukes—WABC
5.00—Indian Maid—CKCL
5.00—Musical Prog.—CFCA
5.15—Jack Miller—WABC
5.30—Week Ender—WEAF
6.00—Evening Revue—CKCL
6.00—Copland Varieties—CKCO
6.15—Organ Nut—WJZ
6.30—Irish Minstrels—WJZ
6.45—Vic Arden—WJZ
6.35—Three X Sisters—WEAF
6.30—Chimes Progress—WJZ
6.30—Jack Robr—WJR
6.30—Flying Fingers—CKCL
7.00—Studio Prog—CKCL
7.00—Mexican Tenor—WEAF
7.00—The Maple Voice—WABC
7.30—King's Jesters—WJZ
7.30—Vibraharps—CKCL
8.00—Light Opera Gems—WJZ
8.45—Pirodilers—CFRB
8.15—U. S. Marine Band—CFRB
8.30—Studio Prog—CKCO
8.45—Studio Prog—CFCA
9.00—Vocal Artists—CFCA
9.00—Studio Prog—CKCL
9.15—Royal Cadets—CFRB
9.15—Concert Hour—WABC
10.00—Frances Langford—WEAF
10.00—Vocal Trio—WJZ
10.15—John Fogarty—WJZ
10.30—Harlan Orch.—WEAF
10.30—Variety Musicale—WJZ
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.30—Lowe's Orch—WJZ
12.00—Roseland Orch.—WABC

SUNDAY

8.00—The Balladers—WEAF
8.00—Junior Bugle—WABC
8.30—Allan Roberts—WHEN
8.45—J. Alden Edkins—WEAF
8.45—Cyril Wentzell—WJZ
8.00—Southern Skitches—WEAF
9.15—Studio Prog—WJZ
9.30—Variety Show—WABC
9.45—Musical Interlude—CKOC
9.45—Musical Interlude—CKCL
10.00—Morning Musicale—WJZ
10.15—Capitol Family—WEAF
10.30—Choir Music—CFRB
11.15—Radio City Concert—WJZ
11.30—Dino Grand Piano—CFCA
11.30—Edward Nell Jr.—WEAF
11.30—Radio Guild—WHEN
12.00—Sonata Recital—WEAF
12.30—Radio Forum—WJZ
12.30—Complinsky Trio—WEAF
1.00—Jet McGregor Songs—WABC
1.00—Summer Idyl—WJZ
1.15—Radio Forum—WJZ
1.30—The Pilgrims—WEAF
1.45—Do-Re-Mi—WABC
2.00—Opera Concert—WJZ
2.00—Symphonic Hour—CFRB
2.00—Symphonic Hour—CFCA
2.00—Soloists-Orch—WJZ
2.30—Hour of Worship—WEAF
2.45—Mother's Album—WJZ
3.00—Piddlers Three—WEAF
3.00—Cathedral Hour—CFRB
3.15—Symphonette—WJZ
3.30—Sonyar Serenade—WJZ
3.35—Temple of Song—WEAF
3.45—Accordianai—CKCL
4.00—Voice of Religion—WJZ
4.00—Masters' Melodies—WJZ
4.15—Vers Vers—CFRB
4.30—Findlay Hour—CFCA
4.30—Pages of Romance—CRCT
4.30—Sacred Selections—WABC
4.30—Crumit-Sanderson—WABC
4.45—Trio Romantique—WEAF
5.00—Chevrio—CRCT
5.00—Radio Guild—WJZ
5.00—Dr. Allen Knight—WEAF
5.00—Breen and de Rose—WEAF
5.00—Southern Singers—WJZ
5.15—Clara Lu and Em—WJZ
5.15—Three Wheels—WEAF
5.30—The Merrymakers—WABC
5.30—Sunday Drama—WEAF
10.00—Singing Strings—WJZ
10.00—U. S. Navy Band—CRCT
10.30—Studio Trio—WJR
10.30—Soloist and Orch.—WJZ
10.45—Rhythm Kings—WEAF
10.45—Varied Prog.—CFCA
10.45—Al. Howard, Tenor—WJR
11.00—J. Marvin, Tenor—WEAF
11.00—Queen's Hour Orch—CFRB
11.15—Catherine Field—CRCT
11.30—The Merrie Men—WJZ
11.30—Violin Ensemble—WEAF
11.45—Ruth Lyons—WJZ
12.00—Ben Bailey Orch—CRCT
12.15—Concert Ensemble—WEAF
12.30—Parson Jones—WABC
12.30—Sketches-Music—WEAF
1.00—Round Towners—WJZ
1.30—Minstrel Show—CKOC
1.30—The Captivators—WABC
1.45—Shilling Sisters—CRCT
2.15—Iris Marshall—WJZ
2.30—Sketches-Music—WABC
2.45—Jack Turner—WJZ
3.00—Billy White, Tenor—CFRB
3.00—Singing Lady—WJZ
3.30—Nay Heatherton—WEAF
3.45—Instrumentalists—CKAC
4.00—Banjoists—CRCT
4.00—Pruning and Sam—CRCT
4.15—Arlene Jackson—WEAF
4.30—The Singing Lady—WJZ
4.30—Symphony Four—CRCT
4.45—Orphan Annie—WJZ
5.00—Soloist-Orch—WEAF
5.00—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
5.15—Dinner Musicale—CKCL
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Three X Sisters—WJZ
5.30—Jimmy Whitcomb—CKCL
5.45—Literary Digest—CRCT
5.45—Langford-Gaylord—WEAF
6.00—Song to Andy—CRCT
6.00—Mildred Bailey—CFRB
6.00—The Lullaby Lady—WEAF
6.15—Everett Marshall—WJZ
6.30—Goldbergs—WHEN
6.30—Barber's Trio—CKCL
6.30—Countess Albani—WEAF
6.30—The Goldbergs—WHEN
6.45—In Shadowland—WJR
6.45—The Dow Ord—CFCA
7.00—Varied Program—WJZ
7.00—Marbori Concert—CFCA
7.00—Singing Sam—WJR
7.15—Melody Lads—WJR
7.30—Lum and Abner—CRCT
7.30—Joyce Trio—CRCT
7.30—London Conference—WEAF
7.30—Kate Smith—WABC
7.45—Lee and Gordon—WEAF
7.45—Romeo Jobin—CKAC
8.00—Tenor and Orch—WEAF
8.00—Radio Pupil Inv.—WJR
8.00—Greater Minstrels—WJZ
8.00—Male Quartet—WABC
8.15—The Street Singer—WABC
8.30—Firestone Nights—WJR
8.15—Songs of Scotland—CFRB
8.30—Soloist-Orch—CRCT
8.30—Family Moments—WJZ
8.45—Tito Guizar—WABC
9.00—Varied Prog—CRCT
9.00—Commission Prog—CFCA
9.00—Soloist-Orch—WEAF
9.15—Melodic Trio—CKOC
9.30—Dennis C. Hill—CFRB
9.30—The Hour Glass—WJZ
9.45—Barlow's Orch—CFRB
10.00—Symphony Orch—WABC
10.00—Romanelli's Orch—CRCT
10.15—The Earle Trio—CFRB
10.30—Violinist—WJZ
10.45—Jack Fenman—WJR
11.00—Nelson's Orch—WABC
11.00—Solist-Orch—WEAF
11.30—Sexton's Orch.—WJZ

MONDAY

7.00—Martha and Hal—WJZ
7.30—Glee Club—CRCT
8.00—Harold's Harmonies—CKCL
8.30—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.15—Goldis and Dustis—WABC
8.15—Florian Zabach—WEAF
8.30—Cheerio—CRCT
9.00—Breen and de Rose—WJZ
9.45—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
10.00—Breen and de Rose—WEAF
10.00—Southern Singers—WJZ
10.15—Clara Lu and Em—WJZ
10.30—Three Wheels—WEAF
10.30—The Merrymakers—WABC
10.45—Sunday Drama—WEAF
10.00—Singing Strings—WJZ
10.00—U. S. Navy Band—CRCT
10.30—Studio Trio—WJR
10.30—Soloist and Orch—WJZ
10.45—Rhythm Kings—WEAF
10.45—Varied Prog.—CFCA
10.45—Al. Howard, Tenor—WJR
11.00—J. Marvin, Tenor—WEAF
11.00—Queen's Hour Orch—CFRB
11.15—Catherine Field—CRCT
11.30—The Merrie Men—WJZ
11.30—Violin Ensemble—WEAF
11.45—Ruth Lyons—WJZ
12.00—Ben Bailey Orch—CRCT
12.15—Concert Ensemble—WEAF
12.30—Parson Jones—WABC
12.30—Sketches-Music—WEAF
1.00—Round Towners—WJZ
1.30—Minstrel Show—CKOC
1.30—The Captivators—WABC
1.45—Shilling Sisters—CRCT
2.15—Iris Marshall—WJZ
2.30—Sketches-Music—WABC
2.45—Jack Turner—WJZ
3.00—Billy White, Tenor—CFRB
3.00—Singing Lady—WJZ
3.30—Nay Heatherton—WEAF
3.45—Instrumentalists—CKAC
4.00—Banjoists—CRCT
4.00—Pruning and Sam—CRCT
4.15—Arlene Jackson—WEAF
4.30—The Singing Lady—WJZ
4.30—Symphony Four—CRCT
4.45—Orphan Annie—WJZ
5.00—Soloist-Orch—WEAF
5.00—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
5.15—Dinner Musicale—CKCL

Spying on Sports

BY

William Ritt

Central Press Canadian

For a decade or so brown skinned boxers take the play away from Caucasian cloisters. Often it is the turn of ebon football aces. But they, too, do only by replacing by sepia cyclones of the track and field.

The cyclones are in the limelight now—and are they leaving their Nordic rivals flat footed!

There doesn't seem to be any reason for the wholesale rise of colored athletes to the front rank of any sport and then their just as sudden disappearance. It just happens, that's all.

However, when the colored boys are good at any game they are red hot. And they are now good at which means red hot—at the business of galloping up and down cinder paths.

x x x

THE LATEST dark-skinned sprinter to flash into sport page fame appears destined to become the fastest runner in track-history. He is Jesse Owens, the Cleveland, O. East Tech high ace.

Owens is remarkable among colored runners because he is so young and yet has run the 100 yards in world record time, 9.4 seconds. What will a season or two of college tutelage and collegiate competition do for him? It's your guess.

Eddie Tolan, the double Olympic champion, was the first of great colored runners of the current cycle. Then along came Ralfe Metcalfe, the Marquette monsoon, who was just as much behind the Olympian Midnight Express in several tests still another fine colored track athlete is Willis Ward, also of Michigan.

x x x

HOWEVER, a generation ago, when Afro-Americans were kings of the heavyweight ring, there were no Tolans, Metcalfes or Wards.

Jack Johnson, a Texas stevedore, was then the world's heavyweight champion. And the outstanding challenger was not a white man but another dusky-hued scrapper—Sam Langford.

Following the fall of Johnson the colored race all but vanished from the front rank of heavyweights. In recent years only one negro has attained the rank of heavyweight claimant—Harry Wills. George Godfrey was also fairly prominent for several years.

Today, there is no colored scrapper worthy of mention in the top 10—or the first 20 heavyweights, for that matter.

x x x

MOST PECULIAR is the disappearance of the colored All-American football stars. After the fall of the Carlisle Indians there arose a number of great negro grid players, dusky giants who managed their way to undying pigskin glory.

Their names are illustrious today—Pollard of Brown, Rentzel of Rutgers, Slater of Iowa. There were others but the list will do. It would be hard to keep the Bonus Boner, Bonehead Newman Paul (now a noted singer) and the gigantic Duke of fowl of anyone's all-time all-star team.

However, for almost a decade no colored player has made any All-American team of any consequence. The dusky gridders, like the dusky heavyweights are pretty much through, temporarily, at least, as the sepia cyclones. They are tops on the track, today!

x x x

WIN OR LOSE—Jack Sharkey won't be content to be a champion next year.

That statement will come true unless the one-time garrulous gob changes his mind. For he has said no himself that he will quit if he won't change his mind.

Should Sharkey, by Primo Carnera, a bout with Max Baer in September—certainly virtually insanity—is next on the books. And win or lose against Baer, after that there will be no real reason for Jack to do bot hang up his fighting togs and quit for all that—very much.

And if he does as king Jack may come in for a surprise. He may find himself more popular in retirement than ever he was as a fighter. That's the way with the fight world.

x x x

THROUGHOUT his career Sharkey's greatest desire—next to be coming the heavyweight champion—was to be popular. And he failed, even in his adopted home town, Boston.

Jack got off to a bad start. He talked a good fight. He won a reputation as a loud mouth. The fact that often he fought an even better fight than he had boasted he would failed to correct the impression that he was a braggart.

Added to this was Jack's peculiar penchant for fantastic behavior in the ring, a series of tactical blunders which on one occasion cost him a chance at the title and on another cost him the crown itself. These things lost Sharkey many adherents who had remained true to his standard because of his ring ability.

HOWEVER, back of all of Sharkey's youthful braggadocio and foolishness was the real man, a sane, decent liver, a cracking good scrapper and a shrewd business man.

Time corrects all things, especially impressions. Time, with Sharkey only a memory reawakened around the ringside on future big nights, will certainly see the slugging sailor become the object of admiration as his record is compared with that of current fighting men.

Fight fans will remember his brilliance against Dempsey, his conquest of Wills and Loughran, Carnera, Walker and Mike McTigue. They will remember that Jack fought 'em all—at least all who would get into the same ring with him. And they won't remember so sadly his mistakes.

NEWARK BEARS GAIN A TIE

Redwings of Rochester Slip Badly in Last Week

(By Herbert M. Baxter Associated Press Staff Writer)

Back in winning form again, Newark Bears have pushed their way back into a tie for the International League lead with the slipping Rochester Red Wings.

Myril Hoag's 400-foot home run clout with two on in the eighth enabled the Bears to trip Jersey City yesterday 7-5, while Rochester was gropping an 9-8 decision in 11 innings to Montreal Royals. As a result, the Bears and Red Wings are locked in a tie with 43 victories and 29 defeats.

Rochester and Montreal locked in a slugging duel which the Red-Wings seemed to have won in the first half of the 11th when Red Florence connected for a home run. But in the last half, Jimmy Ripple broke up the game with a home run with Lou Finney on base.

Buffalo maintained its grip on fifth position by beating Toronto 10-4. Two hits, including a homer by Jack Smith, seven passes and three leaf errors, accounted for the Bison's total. George Milstead started for Buffalo but hurt his back in the second innings and was relieved by Phil Calhoun.

Albany won the first game of a double header from Baltimore 3-2 behind Fred Fussell's three-hit pitching but the Orioles came back to take the second game 8-3 and move to within two points of first place Toronto. Baltimore made only five hits in the second game but bunched most of them for three runs in the sixth.

LEAGUE LEADERS

(By the Associated Press)

National League

Batting—Klein, Phillies, .362; Davis, Phillies, .350.

Runs—Martin, Cardinals, 54; Bartell, Phillies, 44.

Runs Batted In—Klein, Phillies, 56; Bottomley, Reds, 44.

Hits—Fullis, Phillies, 86; Klein, Phillies, 94.

Doubles—Klein, Phillies, 21; Medwick, Cardinals, 20.

Triples—Martin, Cardinals, 8, F. Wares, Reds, 7.

Home Runs—Klein, Phillies, 13; Berger, Braves, 11.

Stolen Bases—Frisch and Martin, Cardinals, 9.

Pitching—Callahan, Cardinals, 9-2; Carleton, Cardinals, and Cantwell, Braves, 5-2.

American League

Batting—Simmons, White Sox, 365; Manush, Senators, .354.

Runs—Foxx, Athletics, 61; Foxx, Athletics, and Manush, Senators, 52.

Runs Batted In—Gehrig, Yankees 63; Simmons, White Sox, 57.

Hits—Manush, Senators, 99; Simmons, White Sox, 92.

Doubles—Averill, Indians, 22; Gehrig, Yankees; Sewell, Senators; Burns, Browns, and Averill, Indians, 20.

Triples—Combs, Yankees, 10; Manush, Senators, 9.

Home Runs—Gehrig, Yankees, 17; Ruth, Yankees, 15.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers, 14; Chapman, Yankees, 10.

Pitching—Hildebrand, Indians; Al. Crowder, Senators, and Marberry, Tigers, 10-4.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES!

By

Alex J. Morrison

29

Watch weight shifting on uphill and downhill shots.

ALEX MORRISON says:

The way you shift your weight, as much as anything else determines where your clubhead will strike the ground.

If in playing a shot where the ground slopes uphill, you find trouble in getting up to the ball lay it to your faulty weight shifting.

More times than not you shift your weight down the hill and then fail to shift it forward again.

The same thing happens when playing downhill. You can let your weight slide forward easily enough, but you invariably neglect to shift it up the hill during your backswing.

Next: Putter's Place.

Metcalfe-Owens Speed Duel Highlight of Track Season

Ralph Metcalfe.

Jesse Owens

By HAROLD K. GEORGE

Central Press Sport Writer

CHICAGO, June 24—There have been many "battles of the century" in the last decade but for human speed, there is in prospect for Chicago on the night of June 30 or July 1 a real battle of the Century of Progress.

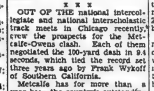
The two sepia cyclones involved are Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette's famous sprinter who recently succeeded to the "title" of the world's fastest human, and Jesse Owens, Cleveland high school star.

This pair of colored speedsters is certain to attract a large portion of the gate for the National A. A. U. track and field championships meet at Soldier Field on Chicago's lake front and being in Chicago where there is a large negro population, the A. A. U. is expected to have on of its best financial successes.

x x x

OUT OF THE national intercollegiate and national intercholastic track meets in Chicago recently, came the prospects for the Metcalfe-Owens clash. Each of them negotiated the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds, which tied the record set three years ago by Frank Wykoff of Southern California.

Metcalfe has for more than a year been the country's outstanding sprinter, but to have a high school youth tie world record time was a challenge to Metcalfe's dignified station as the "fastest human". In fact, it isn't hard to find track authorities who are of the belief that Owens is improving so rapidly that on July 1 he will take his first step toward world sprint supremacy.



Endowed with all the speed that carried other members of the colored race—Metcalfe, Eddie Tolan, Ed Gordon and De Hart Hubbard—to the top, Owens virtually won the national prep track title single-handed for East Tech high of Cleveland.

x x x

ASIDE FROM his 9.4 in the century finals, Owens won the 220-yard dash in 20.7, which broke the prep record of 21.2 set by Metcalfe four years ago; won the running broad jump with a leap of 24 feet 9 3-8 inches, also a prep record, and topped it off by hitching East Tech from fifth place to second in the half-mile relay.

Jesse entered 38 points for Cleveland East Tech, three more than the second school won. His achievements—two without parallel in the 29 years of prep meets established by A. A. Stagg.

Metcalfe's entry for the A.A.U. meet July 1 has been filed by Marquette and Cleveland Athleticquits the colors he will wear this summer. Owens may also try to win the broad jump championship as his leap in the national prep meet was nearly half a foot better than the winning jump in the intercollegiate competition and in a Cleveland meet was only a fraction short of 25 feet COLLAPSED—George Miller, stroke oar of a junior eight, is seen out during a regatta on the Schuylkill River.

SAILOR WINS—Flying Sailor pushes into the lead to win the third race at Aqueduct, L. I., race track.

FIRES OUT OF CONTROL

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 24 —(CP)—Efforts of fire rangers here to check two bush fires started by lightning and discovered blazing vigorously, had not succeeded in getting them under control today.

Fire fighting apparatus was rushed to the scene of the conflagrations yesterday but both are some distance from plane landings.

Ancient Hindoos thought the earth was a hemisphere held up by elephants which, in turn, were supported by a turtle.

Phone 3000 THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED Phone 3000

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Truly June Opportunities These

MONDAY SPECIALS!

Read Each One! Shop Early for Big Returns!

Set of Table Mats — Reg. 19c

Made of straw, 6 to each set, in graduated sizes. The very thing for putting under hot dishes to save the finish on your table. Regularly 19c set. Monday Special set 10c

—main floor centre

Rubber Stair Treads with Nosing

Of good grade rubber, size about 8 x 17 inches—in tan shade. These are made in one piece with nosing that comes well over the edge of the step. Monday Special, each 19c

—main floor rear

Half Price Clearance of Remnants

In Silks, Cottons, Linens

Many useful lengths for kiddies' frocks, for aprons, for waists, or for trimmings. Every one reduced to half price for quick clearance. Come early for best selection. Each ..... 9c to 2.97

Clearing Lot of Children's Shoes

Smart patent straps, comfortable sandals in beige and brown leathers, or the sturdy calf oxford with Panco sole and insole of leather, all in the group, with sizes from 8 to 10½, but not a complete size range in each particular line. Monday Special, pair 93c

—men's store rear

Clearance of Ice Refrigerators

1 Only Wood Refrigerators — 50 lb. capacity. Reg. 12.85 for 9.98 —basement

1 Only Wood Refrigerator — 100 lb. capacity. Reg. 23.50 for 18.95 —basement

1 Grey Enamel Metal Refrigerator — 75 lb. capacity. Reg. 16.50 for 11.95 —basement

1 Only White Enamel Metal Refrigerator — 75 lb. capacity. Reg. 25.00 for 19.50 —basement

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES Limited

"TODAY WE LIVE" BRINGS TWO STARS TO BELLE THEATRE

The greatly anticipated co-starring vehicle for Joan Crawford and Gary Cooper, "Today We Live," opens today at the Belle Theatre as one of the major productions to come from the Metro Goldwyn Mayer studios. Miss Crawford whose work in "Letty Lynton" and "Grand Hotel" definitely placed her as the outstanding emotional player on the screen today, and Cooper, who recently contributed a memorable performance in "A Farewell to Arms," have never appeared together on the screen before.

An Auspicious Event

Their first co-starring appearance is an auspicious event in cinema history, for it takes place in a filmization of a story by the brilliant American writer, William Fleming. In "Today We Live," Fleming has written a story about the dramatic experiences of an English society girl who offers her services to England during the World War in an ambulance unit, and falls in love with an American flyer. The production was directed by Howard Hawks, whose former successful screen vehicles are familiar to most celluloid scene fans, and the supporting cast includes Robert Young, the New York stage juvenile; Paschott Tone, Roscoe Kearns, Louise Closser Hale, Rollo Lloyd and Hilda Vaughn.

Metro Goldwyn Mayer is said to have placed all the facilities at its disposal to Director Hawks in the filming of this picture, which is reported to be one of the outstanding talkie productions of the year.

Famed Radio Band

Noble Sissle and his famed Radio Band in a number of melody and harmony offerings, and a clever Merry Melody Cartoon will be presented on the same program with the above feature, making this requires most of two hours to present.

"Stud. Street" Returns

Manager Forhan of the Belle announces that "42nd. Street," the season's smash musical hit will return to the Belle Tuesday, for an engagement of two days, matinee daily.

Few productions have lived up to its expectations of comprehensive greatness as has this drama of the show world, with its all star cast of fourteen, its powerful dramatic theme, its elaborate spectacles with two hundred gorgeously costumed girls, and its novel dances the ensembles, its colorfulness, its gaiety, its wit and its heart interest. The success of this picture indicates a new public demand for more and better dance productions on the screen providing they form a sort of dramatic entertainment.

CAPITOL OFFERS VARIED PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK-END

Gary Cooper and Joan Crawford in "Today We Live," now at the Belle.

"NIGHT OF TERROR"

Those numerous screen fans who delight in experiencing cold shivers up and down their spinals will find abundant excitement in "Night of Terror," a mystery mystery drama that opened at the Capitol Theatre today.

A murderous maniac at large, gruesome faces at the windows, bloodcurdling screams, police detectives' bungles, a household terrorized by a series of unsolved killings and a man buried alive are some of the highlights of this exciting picture, which comes from an original story by that famous stage impresario, Willard Mack.

Bela Lugosi, he of the haunting eyes, appears as a menacing household servant and again demonstrates his ability to play sinister roles. Always threatening, Oriental and fiendish, Lugosi appears to be the perfect choice for entertaining this type.

In addition to the star, who created the renowned role of Dracula, there is an excellently chosen supporting cast. Wallace Ford, breezy and dynamic, is seen as a free moving police reporter and infects the role with his effervescent personality. At the same time he provides some pleasant romantic moments with attractive Sally Blane. Tully Marshall gives, of course, his inimitably excellent performance. Among the others it is interesting to note the return of Bryant Washburn, famous star of the silent screen.

"WORLD GONE MAD"

Even the old timers, who can remember way back when the dread riots and lack of cash in 1900 and 1907 were considered bad, agree that the present day conditions have those of the past licked to a frazzle. "The World Gone Mad," now at the capitol, is the inside story of those not-so-good days, when the world went money-mad and the people pounded every cent they could lay hands on, on the stock market and bank.

The public as usual go; the dizzy end of the deal because they didn't realize that they were destined, for the most part, with a couple of crooks, who were also money mad and went in for corrupt stock manipulations. Big business took an awful sicking but it was a mere love tap compared with that the public suffered.

Pat O'Brien, Evelyn Brent, Mary Brian, Louis Calhern and J. Carrol Naish head the impressive cast of swindlers and those who failed to swindle. Phil Goldstone produced "The World Gone Mad," which was directed by Christy Cabanne.

Episode eleven of "The Devil Dogs of the Air" completes the programme which will be shown until Tuesday with the last complete performance commencing at 8.40.

DINNERWARE

The second article of the new "Royal Princess" Dinnerware set will be given away on Monday and Tuesday.

BOYS' CAMP

A free right-of-way, value $10 to the Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp to be held at Moira Lake from July 6 to 19 is going to be won by the writer of the best essay on "Why I Like the Capitol Theatre."

The contest is open to boys and girls between 13 and 15. Should a girl be the winner she is entitled to choose between gaining a boy for the camp or receiving the ten dollars in cash.

All essays must be received at the Capitol Theatre by Thursday noon, June 29.

Today is the last chance to receive qualifying stubs of admission tickets which must be pinned to the essay.

It was not until 1768 that botanists discovered that some plant trap insects and digest portions of them as food.

Neil Hamilton, Mary Brian and John St. Polis in "The World Gone Mad" now at the Capitol.

PROBABILITIES
Lower Lake Region—Moderate winds; partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday; probably a few local thunderstorms; not quite so warm over eastern districts on Tuesday.

The Ontario Intelligencer

CAN'T WEAR BELLS
Tahoe City, Calif., June 26 (CP)—Horses in this vicinity must wear wearing spells. The town council heeded protests that the bells awakened summer visitors.

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1933

TEN PAGES

HUGH CRAWFORD, MARMORA, BURNED IN CAR

Dragged from Burning Car; Hugh Crawford of Marmora Dies of Injuries

Hugh Crawford, Well Known in District is Victim

CAR PARKED

Blazing Machine And Victim Seen From Near-by Farm House

Hugh Crawford, 46, garageman of Marmora, and well known in that district, succumbed in the Belleville Hospital shortly after two o'clock on Sunday from burns received when his car took fire four miles east of Bonarlaw on the 14th. concession of Rawdon shortly after four o'clock on Sunday morning. He was brought to the hospital by Provincial Officer Percy Gray of Marmora and County Constable Cullen and attended by Dr. H. H. Stoble in the institution, but the burns were so severe all hope of saving his life was despaired of shortly after his admittance. His clothes were completely burned off the body and the flesh searing in many places.

An inquest was ordered and met at the Tickell and Browne Funeral Home at nine-thirty Monday to view the body and after preliminary evidence adjourned. In the meantime the Provincial Police will complete their investigation into the fatality. From information secured it was learned that the deceased was an inveterate smoker and that he had apparently parked his car and shortly after had fallen asleep with a lighted cigarette in his hand and the flames spread so rapidly it was impossible for the late Mr. Crawford to extricate himself from the burning automobile. The car was completely destroyed.

Mrs. Elsie Spry, in front of whose home the car was parked, was awakened early in the morning by the dog sag looking out of the window saw the blaze and believed it at first to be a bonfire. Awaking Mr. Spry, he rushed outside to find the car in a mass of flames. Noticing the form of a man in the car, Mr. Spry tried to pull the door open and him from his perilous position. The fact of the man were stuck through the window of the left back door while his head was lying on the right. Only partially the body was pulled from the car and Mrs. Spry notified the police in Marmora who hurried to the scene. On arrival at the scene by Officers Gray and Cullen, Mr. Crawford was unconscious.

Continued on Page Four

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE

Grimsby, Ont., June 26 (CP)—Mike Mastellar of Mountain Road, today received loss of $3,500 by fire which completely destroyed his nine-room frame barn last night.

The Grimsby fire department was unable to prevent destruction of the building as no access to water was nearby. Mastellar said he carried $1,200 insurance.

FUNNIES IN THE NEWS

CHICAGO, June 28 —(CP)—Two men and a girl, James McLaughlin and Ruth Ford.

Then along came a stranger. He and McLaughlin argued—but not for long. The stranger produced a gun and shot away McLaughlin's big toe.

The girl smashed off with the stranger. McLaughlin went to a hospital.

Chicago, June 26 (CP)—An artist, who declined to give his name traded a "still life" to Anne Burrows, attorney, for legal services in divorce case. The "swap" was made at an outdoor art fair. Other goods went for denial work and board and room.

New York, June 26 (CP)—Johnny Anderson has a craving for dill pickles — which explains why a suspected stranger was in such a pickle. Johnny, with a nickle, headed for a store where dill pickles can be had. At the door appeared in and saw a hold-up in progress. He snuffed it and began ran. So did the holdup men. One was captured.

Hamilton, June 26 (CP)—If the police here don't find the person who stole Ivan Schwyzer's wedding suit and ring within two weeks and recover the goods, Ivan is going to be in a very embarrassing situation.

The suit and ring were stolen from his home yesterday while he was away. County police think they have a good clue and hope to have Ivan all fitted out on his wedding day.

TO HEAD C.N.R.?

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen

Rumors from Ottawa state that Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen is to be appointed chairman of the board of trustees for the Canadian National Railways. Mr. Meighen is at present a member of the Government without portfolio, and Government leader in the Senate. If report is confirmed, it will mean that Senator Meighen will retire from Hydro board of Ontario from the Senate and from private business. Salary for the Chairmanship is to be not less than $25,000 or more than $40,000 a year for a five year term.

MAY RENEW SOVIET TRADE

London, June 26 (AP) — The Foreign Ministers of Great Britain and Soviet Russia today started negotiations looking toward the resumption of trade between the two nations, which was broken off as the result of the discovery of growing out of the trial in Moscow last April of a group of British engineers charged with espionage and sabotage.

The negotiations took place at the British Foreign Office, where Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Commissar for Foreign Affairs, called on Sir John Simon.

Mr. Litvinoff emerged several hours later. "We made clear to our another the position of our respective governments and the present obstacles to exercise of Anglo-Soviet trading negotiations," he said.

Colonel J. D. Colville, Minister of Transport, was in the British Government, also was present.

After the Russian Commissar had left the Foreign Office his statement to the press was repeated as a Foreign Office announcement which, it was revealed, was agreed upon by both parties. The announcement said:

"An exchange of views took place this morning at the Foreign Office between Mr. Litvinoff and the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in which they made clear to one another the position of their respective governments on the practical obstacles to the renewal of Anglo-Soviet trade negotiations. Colonel Colville also was present. It was arranged to have another meeting within the next few days for the continuation of these conversations.

DOLLAR WHEAT!

Fort Worth, Tex, June 26—(AP)—Dollar wheat appeared on the Fort Worth Grain Exchange today for the first time in three years. Two cars sold for Texas Gulf port and common basis delivery at $1.00 1-2 a bushel.

British Labor Leaders Speak 190 Columns Each in Hansard

LONDON, June 26.—(CP Cable) —And now ponder these figures:

The most talkative members of the House of Commons in the present session are George Lansbury, the Labor leader, and Sir Stafford Cripps, independent. Measured by the yard of their verbiage in Hansard shows 190 columns each.

Neville Chamberlain, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, talked nearly as much —180 columns. Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald shows only 40 columns. David Lloyd George 46. Among the Peers, Lord Hailsham, the Minister for War, had most to say—60 columns.

And the most talkative woman has only 32 columns. She is Miss Ellen Wilkinson, Independent member for the combined English Universities.

ARSON CHARGE LAID AGAINST LOCAL MAN

D. Wrightmeyer Arrested After Allegedly Firing House in Thurlow

UNDER SUSPICION

Police Lie in Ambush and Fire Chief Patrols Scene Before Fire

David Wrightmeyer of this city, was arrested shortly after midnight Saturday by Provincial and local police while he was eating a meal in a local cafe and today appeared in police court charged with arson and at the request of the crown was remanded in custody for one week. He was just asked to plead to the charge. A complete investigation will be carried on by the Provincial Police before he appears again in court.

The actual man appeared in the Belleville police court on Monday morning charged that he did unlawfully set fire to a dwelling house in the township of Thurlow owned by John Donovan, Thurlow. At the request of the Crown he was remanded until Saturday, June 30th in custody, when it is expected that the trial will proceed. At this session he was not asked to plead and was represented at the session by his brother Magistrate Mikel, by C. A. Payne, K.C.

The charge followed a fire which took place in the house owned by John Donovan on the Hamilton Road, a short distance from the city

Continued on Page Three

Dynamiting of Car Suspected

Leaving their car by the roadside when they left for the bush to pick berries, Mrs. Jack Hall, accompanied by Mrs. Olive Wilks, both of Arden, after hearing a terrific explosion returned to find their automobile in pieces, believed to be the result of a dynamite explosion. Provincial Constable Tomlinson of Sharbot Lake has charge of the case and is being assisted today on the investigation by Provincial Constable Alden Kelly of the headquarters staff.

The car is owned by Ross Barr, mail carrier out of Arden and for whom Mrs. Hall is the housekeeper. Barr being a widower. Late last week Mr. Barr returned home after carrying his mail route and the two women the car to go berry-picking with with the above results.

BRITAIN'S GOLFERS LEAD IN CUP SERIES

Southport, England, June 26.—(CP and AP Cables)—Great Britain's golfers today maintained their scintillating brilliantly at times, today's play ended with the score tied at 1-2 after completion of the four singles matches in the Ryder Cup series with the United States. Only two spectacular rallies saved the British team from a disastrous rout. The fourth invading combination by Alfred Perry, 46 year old boy, the visiting team from almost certain annihilation. Perry pulled the last match out of the fire on the home side by defeating Alf Padgham, and Al Perry, one up for 36 holes. The match will be four down in the morning round.

CATCHES GIRL FROM PIER

Toronto, June 26 (CP)—With two youths holding his legs, Fred Norham was lowered from a pier yesterday and caught the seven-year-old Jean Bishop, who had gone down twice in the water as she went beyond her depth, while chasing a rubber ball. Norham said the little child called out to her parents, who were in a nearby schooner unaware of what had happened.

Wheat Prices Are Swept to New High Levels at 'Peg

BENNETT, MacDONALD, CHAMBERLAIN HOLD CONFERENCE

Anxious statesmen discuss affairs of a troubled world—(left to right) Premier Bennett of Canada, Neville Chamberlain, British Chancellor of the Exchequer listening to Prime Minister MacDonald and discuss one of the many problems brought up in the World Economic Conference in London.

ADJUST WAR INDEBTEDNESS

Senator Couzens Favors to Act at Once

(DeWitt Mackenzie) (Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON June 26.—(AP)—Senator James Couzens of Michigan, surprised the World Economic Conference today by declaring in a speech that the world's debt structure must be adjusted.

He emphasized the necessity of organizing creditors throughout the world and of establishing some form of permanent body to act in an advisory capacity between organized creditors and organized debtors.

The Canadian-born Senator did so, mention war debts but referred to indebtedness in general. He warned that "this is in no sense to be construed as an invitation to debtors able to pay to scale down their obligations."

BANKS CLOSED TO GET FORD?

Detroit Banker Denies Claims Plot to Tie up Deposits

Detroit, June 26 (AP)—Herbert R. Wilkin, Detroit banker, today told the one-man grand jury investigating the closing of two National banks, was in my opinion, to get Henry Ford.

Wilkin, former executive vice president of the Guardian Detroit Union Group, Inc., holding company for a number of banks, declared he was of the opinion that "Wall Street believed it had a chance by tying up Ford's deposits in the banks, to so deplete his working capital that he must deal with them or go broke." Ford, he said, had more than $85,000,000 on deposit in Detroit banks at that time.

Just before he made the statement regarding Ford, Wilkin had startled the open grand jury session by declaring more than $4,000,000 had been cleared through the Detroit clearing house between the time of the actual declaration of the state banking holiday, Tuesday, Feb. 14, and the following Thursday.

SAFE DOOR FALLS OFF SHOWS $1,000

Caretaker Taps Blasted Door Left Ajar

St. Thomas, Ont., June 26—(CP) —An attempt was made today to blast the door from a safe in the Imperial Oil Company's office here, but the would-be robber or robbers fled lootless, apparently alarmed by the detonation.

The caretaker of the building tapped the door with a hammer. It fell off revealing a safe inside. Nitro-glycerine was used for the fifth time in about 10 years.

Employment Increase is Double Usual Seasonal Rise

Ottawa, June 26 (CP)—There is an important expansion in industrial employment since June, 1930, according to a statement issued by Hon H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce today. Mr. Stevens returned over the week-end from Western Canada.

"The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports," said Mr. Stevens, "that the payrolls of 8,103 firms throughout Canada increased from 715,068 on May 1 to 743,572 at the beginning of this month, or by 28,504 persons. This gain of four per cent was approximately twice as large as that reported on the same date in either 1932 or 1931 and, unlike the increase last year, has the added significance of including more smaller centres due to unemployment relief undertakings. The increase was greater than the usual seasonal gain recorded in the last twelve years.

"Pronounced increases were reported in manufacturing, the additions to staff exceeding those noted on the same date in other years of the record except 1922 and 1928. The favorable movement extended to nearly all classes of factory employment. In the non-manufacturing division all the major industrial groups except communications also showed improvement. Stream-driving operations resulted in heightened employment in logging this group and trade as well as mining and services showing improvements which compared favorably with the movements on the corresponding date of 1932.

"The expansion in construction involved not only a substantial number of workers, but was not so great as a year ago, when it was of a considerable extent due to employment relief work on the highways. This was a factor of lesser importance in June." Commenting Mr. Stevens said: "There is a higher proportion of the increase took place in building construction.

"The trend of employment was upward in the larger cities, Montreal, Toronto, Quebec, Ottawa, Hamilton, Winnipeg and Vancouver all showed considerable gains.

APPEAL OVER $50,687 WON

Mother Given Verdict Against Son's Estate

Toronto, June 26 (CP)—Mr. Justice Eric Armour today allowed an appeal of Mrs. Isabella Brown against disallowance of her claim for $50,687 against the estate of her son, Tom Brown, one-time Stratford boy who died in Mexico City two years ago after his disappearance from Stratford.

Mrs. Brown fyled her claim as a creditor against her son's estate with the Official Receiver in bankruptcy after a receiving order had been issued declaring the estate bankrupt.

Presented Mrs. Brown's appeal against disallowance of the claim before Mr. Justice Armour in bankruptcy court at Osgoode Hall, K. W. Wilson, K.C., said assets of Brown's estate had amounted to about $100,000 and debts against it to more than $40,000.

He understood, he said, that the estate would pay creditors between 25 and 30 cents on the dollar.

Mrs. Brown, he said, held claim to property which came to her as the result of bequests from her father to her husband, the late John Brown, who died in 1931, and to property which was her own before her husband's death.

Mrs. Brown acted as manager of the property.

Mr. Wilson said Mrs. Brown had been induced to transfer to her son 96 shares of British Northern and Trust Corporation of Ontario stock, without receiving any consideration. Her claim for this item was estimated at $17,686. Another item was a claim for $3,000 said to have been paid to the estate of John Brown in satisfaction of a loan and deposited by Tom Brown to his own credit in a Toronto bank.

Mr. Mason said these funds were misappropriated by the claimant's

Continued on Page Two

CANADA AND EXPORT TRADE

Dr. Riddell at League of Nations Voices Views

Geneva, June 26—(CP Cable)—Canada, ranking fifth among the exporting nations of the world, is naturally deeply interested in every international effort to get the world back on the road to recovery, stressed Dr. W. A. Riddell, Canadian delegate to the league, addressing the International Labor Conference today.

The Canadian delegation at the World Economic Conference, Dr. Riddell pointed out, felt that at least all the great commercial countries must reach some form of de facto stabilization of exchange rates. He also expressed the hope that the London Conference would be able to do something to establish confidence over the production of wheat and bring about an increase in stocks. Regarding the question of short-term working hours Dr. Riddell said that Canada had agreed during the past six months about reduction of working hours in order to relieve unemployment.

Freight Rate on Coal Stands at $1.70 Toronto Rate is 20 Cents Ton Lower

No change is possible in the freight rates on coal from Montreal to Belleville, says W. E. Schuster, 140 George Street, chief of the representatives of the C.P.R. and C.N.R. in this city for Montreal.

Such rates as prevail in shipments from...Montreal to Toronto cannot be reversed from Prescott to Toronto from Montreal is $1.50 per ton, because of coal, while the rate to Belleville from Montreal is $1.70.

The letter from the assistant freight managers of the two railways says: "The Canadian Railways have every effort to meet, as nearly as possible, water-competitive situations existing at Toronto and Belleville.

"While it is true that Belleville is a lakeport, nevertheless the situation there is not comparable with that existing at Toronto. We regret, under the circumstances that we cannot see our way clear to make any reduction in the current scale of rate from Montreal of $1.70 per ton."

July Sells at 76 Cents in Gain of Almost 6 Cents December Touches 793-4

Momentum of Speculative Buying at Chicago Carried to 'Peg

3 FUTURES UP

October Futures Bring 78½ Cents at Winnipeg

Winnipeg, June 26 (CP)—Swept upward by the momentum of speculative buying from Chicago, wheat quickly built up to new high records for the season in all three futures on the Winnipeg grain exchange today.

July reached its highest point in the life of the present option when it soared to 76 cents, a gain of 5¾ cents; October and December each were clipped with three cents within as many minutes. Speculative buying comported most of the transactions with buying from many other sources soon joining the rush. At times wheat was hard to buy with holders reluctant to part with their holdings.

As futures prices soared upwards they touched levels they had not seen in more than 2 1-2 years. Not since Dec. 1, 1930 have wheat prices in Winnipeg touched the 76-cent-a-bushel mark.

7 Cent Advance in Chicago

Chicago, June 26 (AP)—A spectacular seven-cent advance today carried wheat prices to extraordinary dizzying heights on the dollar-a-bushel line. The May (1934) delivery sold at 98½ cents a bushel a few minutes before the close with the December up to 94½. Crop reports from from districts suffering from heat and drought sent prices skyward from the start. All grains reached new peak prices for the season in one of the widest buying movements seen in a long time.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS SECOND IS VERY ILL

Suffers From Attack of Pneumonia at New York

New York, June 26 (CP)—Suffering from an attack of pneumonia, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., former husband of Joan Crawford, was said to be in a serious condition today at a Doctor's residence to which he was admitted over the week-end.

WATER CONSUMPTION IS CLOSELY WATCHED

Department Hopes to Curtail Illegal Use of Water

Water consumption in the city has dropped appreciably during the past week, or so, due, officials believe to the fact that vigilant inspection of all outside taps has been made during the past week by city employees of the department lately, and also to the publicity that has appeared in the press warning against the practice of watering the lawns except at the early hours. Periodic inspection of homes by employees of the department has been ordered during the past six months about reduction of water waste in order to relieve unemployment.

News Flashes

Orietelio, Italy, June 26—(AP)—Italian warships over the Egyptian sea and the Alps still kept a fleet of 33 Italian warplanes on the ground today, although everything was ready for their flight by stages to Cartwright, Man., Shediac, N.B., Montreal and Chicago.

Port Arthur, Ont., June 26 (CP) —The Canadian Pacific and Paper Company will operate the Thunder Bay mill here, until wood on hand sufficient for nine or ten months, is exhausted, officials announced today. The city was required to make certain concessions regarding power contracts.

Toronto, June 26 — (CP)—Harold McBrien, war veteran, father of nine children and pensioner with 46 years service behind him, was sentenced today to serve three years in penitentiary for theft of mail. He had stolen less than $10.

WEATHER

Toronto, June 26 (CP)—Synopsis: Pressure is high over Hudson Bay and off the Atlantic Coast, while a trough of low extends from Hudson Straits southwestward across Quebec and Northern Lake region, and a moderate disturbance occurs in the Western Provinces.

Northern Ontario—Partly cloudy and becoming somewhat cooler; a few scattered showers. Tuesday — Mostly fair and comparatively cool.

Lake Erie—Moderate winds; Lawrence Valley—Moderate winds; mostly fair and cool.

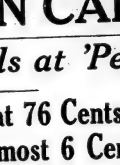
Georgian Bay—Moderate winds; thunderstorms tonight and Tuesday; becoming somewhat cooler on Tuesday.

Lake Superior — Moderate winds; fair and cool — and moderately warm.

Northern and Rainy River—Mostly fair and warm; probably followed by local showers or thunderstorms.

Manitoba — Partly cloudy and warm, with local thunderstorms.

Saskatchewan — Unsettled and warm, with local thunderstorms; probably followed by fair.



Alberta—Partly cloudy and comparatively cool, with scattered showers.

Coming Events

LAWN SOCIAL—ROBLIN UNITED Church, Wednesday, June 28, 7:00 Girls' Softball — Roblin vs Plainfield; 8:30 Programme— Mrs. Stobie, Miss Vermilyea, Herb. Belleor, Dr. McQuade, Plainfield Orchestra. Lunch. Admission 25c and 15c. 26-16

CARD PARTY AT ST GEORGE'S Sunday School, Station Street, on Tuesday, June 27th, 8 o'clock. Good prizes. Refreshments. Admission 25c. 26-16

Reporter Jimmy

James J. Walker

They used to call me the playboy mayor of New York, but now I am a sweating novice reporter," says James J. Walker, reporting the doings of the world economic conference in London for American papers.

City and District News

EUCALYPTUS TREES IN FULL BLOOM

The eucalyptus trees about the city are again at the height of their flowery loveliness. To appreciate the beauty of their bloom, one must see a single flower and note its delicate mottling. The trees are making a lovely showing in Victoria Park, William street, on the grounds of the Belleville General Hospital, and on the lawn of the Roman Catholic Church presbytery.

LINN REUNION HELD IN RAWDON

The Linn family, descendants of the late Robert Linn, a U.E.L. settler in Seymour township, gathered at Church's Bridge, Rawdon, to the number of 63 Saturday last, to celebrate a reunion. The day was ideal for such an event, and a happy time was spent by all in renewing family acquaintanceship.

INFRINGING COST RESIDENT $10

A resident of Bloomfield was convicted of infringing on the rights of the Belleville-Picton Bus Lines in the Picton police court on Saturday last. A fine of $10.00 and costs was imposed. The charge arose out of the alleged picking up of passengers at Bloomfield and transporting them to Belleville. The charge was laid under the Public Vehicle Act. Any person complaining relating to this practice have been received by the authorities.

RAIN CONFINED TO THE CITY

Welcome and needed rain fell in scattered showers in this section of the city early Monday morning, but confined itself for the greater part to the city proper. Hardly any of the heavy downfall was received outside the city and even on outlying streets only a few sprinkles fell. At the city power house, on the north boundary of the city, reported Mr. J. Henderson, foreman of public works, only a few drops fell. Not a drop or rain fell at the official measuring station at the city pump house, reported employees.

ONE MONTH ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Nicholas O'Coyne, Tweed, who was arrested by the R.C.M.P. last week on a charge of having illicit liquor, was sentenced to serve one year in the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph, being found guilty of the charge before Magistrate Chamberlain in the police Saturday last. The charge was the fourth offered by O'Coyne under the Excise Act, which provides no fine but imprisonment. The case was investigated and prosecuted by the R.C.M.P.

ACTIVITY AT DOCK REACHES HIGH PEAK

Activity at the government dock reached a high point Saturday for cargo loadings. Hundreds of cheese were being slowed on the Glen Allan during the afternoon, together with a quantity of canned goods. At noon the large oil tanker "Imperial" steamed into the dock and prepared to discharge its cargo of gasoline for the Imperial Oil Company.

YACHT LAID UP FOR REPAIRS

The palatial yacht "Frawal," one of the costliest and best equipped boats to enter the local harbor in some time, is still warped at Boulter's wharf this week while Mr. Ralph Boulter well known local mechanic effects some repairs on one of the two huge gas engines. A few days' wait is necessary for parts which will be sent from Toronto. Estimated to have cost Oglevie's in the neighborhood of one hundred thousand dollars, the luxurious boat is equipped with every modern convenience. The boat is owned by Mr. J. Hughes, steel man of Rochester, N.Y.

BAND CONCERT IS APPRECIATED

With an attentive and highly appreciative audience of scores from the city, the local Salvation Army Band played a lengthy series of sacred numbers during their concert held on Victoria Park Sunday afternoon. The concert, pleasingly arranged and rendered was a popular success, and earned well merited applause by the large number on hand. It is hoped to repeat the same program at an early date.

MERCHANTS SEEK TOURIST TRADE

Local merchants, alive to the possibilities of tourist trade during the hot summer months this year have made an especial effort lately to have attractive windows on display at all times for the visitors. One of the recent methods inaugurated by the storekeepers is that of keeping the front door windows lighted until late in the evening. Tourist trade, report several merchants, has reached considerable proportions lately.

OBSERVE HOLIDAY ON MONDAY JULY 3

Elsewhere in this issue of the Daily Ontario Intelligencer appears a proclamation from Mayor George O. Tice, requesting observance of Dominion Day on Monday, July 3 instead of Saturday, July 1. The observance of the holiday on Monday is in line with the decision of the municipalities to observe the holiday on the same date.

WILL DRIVE OILER TO THIS CITY

Alderman Wm. Donahue, chairman of public works; Alderman F. Povey, Mr. Chas. A. Mott, city engineer, and K. Bunnett, driver of the machine left early today for Brantford to inspect the newly acquired city oiler prior to acceptance. If the work done on the machine is satisfactory it is expected that the oiler will be returned to the city some time this week.

CROWD ENJOYS STREET DANCE

Hundreds gathered at the Market Square Saturday evening on the occasion of the outside dance which was conducted by a local orchestra. Although the crowd was a large one little confusion was noted, and good order was kept throughout. Square dances made up the greater part of the program.

GENERAL RAIN HAS FALLEN

Skies Overcast And More Abundant Moisture Expected

By The Canadian Press

Rain in several sections of the province today brought renewed hope to hundreds of Ontario farmers, but in other districts the welcome county precipitation was reported light or lacking.

Kitchener despatches said a heavy downpour moistened parched fields and gardens in that area and the strawberry crop, dried up by recent drought, promised a bumper harvest. Brantford reported light showers fell throughout the Niagara district but were insufficient to help crops.

Skies were overcast in the Galt district but only a few drops fell. Strawberries advanced in price as the crop showed signs of failing. Farmers there need two more days of drought would ruin some crops.

Rain fell intermittently in Windsor but was needed badly and the downpour was insufficient to relieve the record-breaker earlier would be ruined if it did not arrive in two days. Other crops appeared doing well, but in need of some moisture. Rain fell in the Sault Ste. Marie area at the end of last week apparently to have saved crops in that region.

The Dominion Meteorological service forecast scattered showers or thunderstorms over a wide area tonight or tomorrow.

300 VARIETIES OF ROSES IN GARDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Domenico Possessors of Beautiful Layout

June, the month of roses, has fully lived up to its name and claim the greatest share of the public's continuous hot weather, however, has brought the blooms to full perfection quickly, and they are not lasted as long as hag cooler weather prevailed. All lovers of flowers and lilies and climbers are now filling their gardens and before the city will be ahoom with their beauty.

In the grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitt, 5 Dundas Street, east, is as fine and varied a showing of roses as any amateur gardener has in the city. The rose bed is a gently dropping piece of ground and much planning and care has been expended in their laying and make-up. Mr. and Mrs. Domenico started their gardens last year and this season have over 200 rose bushes in bloom. It is a beautiful setting throughout and the owners are most pleased with the successful outcome of their endeavors. Mr. and Mrs. Domenico can name each of the varieties showing and discuss knowingly on their beauty, tendencies and habits.

Don't Drop Butts Or Lighted Matches On Dry Grasses

"You should warn drivers and other occupants of automobiles to use great care not to drop out of car windows on the sidesroads and on the highways cigarette or cigar butts," said a citizen today to a reporter. "June grass along the highways is beginning to thatch has not been cut will, if ignited from a butt or lighted match, produce the blaze like wild fire and perhaps cause untold damage."

The grass everywhere on account of the scarcity of rain is the tinder and a blaze once started in it may be very difficult to control.

GOOD NEWS ONLY MINISTER WANTS

Georgetown, Ont., June 26 (CP) — "Newspapers should not publish news of the world's ills but should only make mention of good news," Rev. Dr. A. L. Howard, declared here yesterday.

He claimed that newspapers prone to sensationalism and that the views and opinions of editors were slanted for the news. "I would criticize favorably the modern newspaper for its publication of good news; but just as strongly condemn it for featuring accounts of the world's ills."

DOMINION DAY WEEK-END BARGAIN TRIP TO CLEVELAND, OHIO

Via London—Port Stanley and "C and R" Steamer "CITY OF BUFFALO"

Going—June 30 (Standard Time) Lv. Belleville 5.15 a.m. Ar. Cleveland 7.30 p.m.

Returning—July 2 Lv. Cleveland 8.30 a.m. July 3 via same route

Tickets and information from Agents. Passport meeting immigration requirements of U.S.A.

Reduced Hotel Rates in Cleveland. See posters for details Reservations—Basshall—Cleveland City.

New York "Yankees" vs Cleveland "Indians" at Cleveland ball Park.

Tickets good in coaches only. No baggage checked.

$7.60 RETURN Canadian Funds

Ticket not limited by capacity of steamer—purchase early to avoid disappointment.

BELLEVILLE OFF.—CITY TICKET OFF. 211 Front St., also at Depot

CANADIAN NATIONAL T-82

MAIN STREET

Ramblings . . .

SEEN ON THE MAIN DRAG—

Saturday evening.

A local lady who evidently stands for very little nonsense made slow progress through the crowded aisles on Front Street, Saturday evening. In one hand she carried a basket; paper bags, parcels and a few other little packages occupied the effort of the other arm. Just as she passed the closed door of one downtown store a cigarette butt came whizzing through the air and leaving behind it a miniature trail of sparks, fell with a squarely on top of a number of other small parcels in the basket she carried. She stopped! Took a look at the ground but reposing squarely on top of the recent purchases she had made. Then she set the basket down leaning edger and entered the build, and oblivious to the crowd which surged around her, retraced the few steps back to the cigarette butt, in store and calmly fired the butt back through the door in the general direction of the careless smoker. Then she went on.

OH, YEAH!—

A local chap some time ago took up the study of sign language. He confesses the reason for it that he got a kick out of watching the apparently animated conversations of those who used the silent but expressive dumb language. Not so long ago, however, he found himself falling behind in his effort to follow the talks he saw carried on. Many of the conversationalists he observed did not stick to the well known signs he had learned. One sign in particular stumped him. It was a sort of sweeping down gesture that apparently ended all conversations. Finally he met an instructor at the local Ontario School for the Deaf. He explained the situation to him. Oh, yes, the teacher said, even in the sign language fashions alone was going its bit to change it. The sweeping down gesture with the right hand was one such a new word after all. It only meant "Oh, Yeah!"

RUGGED JOURNALISM—

The days of rugged journalism are not over. Down in Nova Scotia, the Kentville Post, in its issue of last week there were four goats among the five single items in the column. "Not counting the editor of the Eastern Chronicle", and the latter retaliated by remarking there were 3,346 swine . . . and should that not read 3,350, including the editor of the Evening News.

NEW INVENTION—

At last to a patient world comes the invention of bottle, and now it doesn't narrow down to the size of a lead pencil through which the crimson sauce oozes in reluctant drops or has to be forced in sudden and alarm gobs by blows on the container's bottom. The neck is wide and the mouth large, and your may pour your ketchup out like cream from a pitcher. This invention is the result of some 20,000 years of restaurant diners' time every day. It is estimated the consumption of ketchup 700 per cent and, according the output of ketchup makers and bottle factories. The farmers switching to tomatoes from unprofitable grain and wheat will flourish mightily, prosperity will come around the corner. The inventor of the bottle will be elected premier, and his wife will edit a magazine called "Ketchup, Just Ketchup"— Sudbury Star.

Sunday had been noticed. Just two degrees less heat at noon on Monday had been marked over the high for Sunday, with a high of 84 above. Low for Monday was set at 65.

SUNDAY CROWD AT BEACHES

Muggy Weather Sends Thousands to Resort

Blanketted by a muggy heat haze which hung in a brassy sun almost relentlessly, the city sweltered Sunday on one of the hottest days of the year. During the early afternoon a steadily climbing mercury had reached a high point of 90 according to official registration, with 68—lowest point of the day being marked early in the morning at 50 above.

Hundreds of perspiring citizens sought the solace of the cooling waters of the Bay of Quinte, the upper Moira River and other bathing spots. Car owners donned rad-iators of their machines toward leafy lanes in the district. Scores of the city thronged Presqu'Ile Point. The Outlet, Sandbanks and other spots famous in Belleville-ville was as dead as a deserted village.

In spite of the heat, however and the large number of swimmers who took to the water at various points, no near drownings were reported, and best precautions that can be known were kept at a minimum. Sun-burned backs and arms, appeared were the chief casualities.

On Monday, after a sleepless, oppressive night, little let up in the heat wave which held the city over

FIRE THREAT AT ROSSMORE

Villagers Wage War on Grass Blaze With Boards, Rugs

Residents of Rossmore village turning out en masse late Monday afternoon fought a grass and bush fire which had become ignited on the C.N.R. property and which was fanned by the wind, threatened to spread to the cluster of summer cottages on the north of the village. Dampened bags, shovels, flat boards and other emergency aids were pressed into use by the villagers to beat out the flames as more of grass which had become fired. Confined to the inner ring, the fire slowly burned itself out while the emergency squad of fire fighters stood guard. Several automobiles with open bonfire on the flats were blamed for the start of the blaze.

BETZEL SUSPENDED

Chicago, June 26 — (AP)—Bunny Betzel, manager of the Louisville club of the American Association, was indefinitely suspended today by President Hickey for his actions during the Louisville-Indianapolis game yesterday in which spectators tossed cushions at Umpire Eddie McLaughlin.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. JAMES CAVANAGH

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Cavanagh was held Saturday morning last from her late residence at 43 Hamilton Road to St. Michael's Church, where Mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Father Baker. Father Baker also officiated at the committal in St. James' Cemetery. Many old friends and neighbors were in attendance to accord their last tribute of respect to the memory of one who they held highly during her lifetime. The many beautiful floral tributes also evinced this feeling, and the sympathy felt for those left to mourn a loyal one's passing.

The bearers were Messrs. W. Adamson, J. Coughlin, W. Smith, H. Sheridan, J. Fitzgerald and P. Milne.

Floral Offerings.

Wreaths—Leckie and office staffs of Canadian Industrial Alcohol Co., Ltd.; Hiram Walker and Sons Limited; Walkerville, office staff; Hiram Walker and Sons Limited, Walkerville; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hume, Belleville.

Pillow—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vigneau, Walkerville.

Basket—Miss Eva Brothers and Ray Dugal, Walkerville.

Sheaf—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cook, Walkerville; Mrs. Hume and family, Belleville; Mrs. Vigneau, Walkerville; Mrs. V. Robinson and Sidney.

Sprays—Canadian Industrial Alcohol Co. Ltd.; Mr. and Mrs. Walkerville; Mr. and Mrs. Willie boys; Mrs. F. L. Patterson and Clair; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hall and Mrs. and Mrs. Bob Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ferguson, Montreal; Mrs. Ida Mitchell, Sidney.

Spiritual Offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adamson, Howard and Helen Mae Adamson, Mrs. Bella Sullivan, and Mrs. Frank O'Connor, Miss Margaret E. Cavanagh, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyle, The Altar Society, Miss E. Roach, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. M. Brady and family, Peterboro (2), Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cavanagh, Toronto, Mr. Donald and Miss Stella Brady, Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brady, Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schrieder, The Benevolent Society of St. Michael's Church, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, Ind., Miss Ethel Deacon, Mrs. Miss Minnie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. Doran and Mary, Mr. P. W. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Patterson and Clair, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. McCabe, Montreal, Mr. Frank Flannery, Toronto, Miss Mary Cavanagh, the Mc-Cabe children, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Cavanagh, Miss Anita Cavanagh, Carrie and Terry Dolan.

LATE MRS. DAVID LOUGH

(Contributed)

On Wednesday morning, June 7th, there passed away at her home of the late David Lough, Mrs. Lough was a daughter of the late Elias Morton and was born in Thomasburg, 88 years ago. She was married in 1869 to Madoc when a small child and had lived all of her married life here. She was of a retiring and patient disposition, but a kind friend and neighbor and community in her own quiet way. She was a member of the Methodist Church and a member of Eldorado and Union Lodge, No. 211, A.F. and A.M. since 1889 and was always the best wife and mother.

The funeral was held from the home of her daughter on Friday afternoon, June 16th, to the Methodist Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Lynch, Rev. G. Trumpour, assisted by Rev. G. W. Rivers of Madoc. The large floral tributes from the beautiful flowers testified to the esteem with which Mrs. Lough had endeared all her life. The W.M.S. attended in a body.

Those left to mourn her loss are her daughter, Mrs. Albert Dopp, Tweed, and one son, Mr. Wm. Lough, Comerford, Madoc. Her husband predeceased her a year and a half ago and her son, John Frederick Lough, ten years ago.

The sincere sympathy of a large circle of relatives, friends and neighbors goes out to those bereaved in their great sorrow.

FRANK V. SPAFFORD

Stricken about 4 o'clock Sunday morning at his late residence, 156 West Moira Street, Frank Vanderyoort Spafford, passed away at 10 o'clock the same day. Saturday, Mr. Spafford was about his place of employment apparently in his usual excellent health. The deceased was the son of Mr. F. A. Spafford of Sidney township, and the late Mrs. Spafford, and was born in Sidney 56 years ago. He farmed in the second concession of that township till some nine years ago, when he removed to Belleville and became agent of the McColl-Frontenac Oil Co. Ltd., at their bulk storage station on South Pinnacle Street. He held that position six or seven years and then transferred to the Canada Oil Co. at the Bellville Battery Service, 19 McAnsney Street, where he had been employed the past two years. The late Mr. Spafford was a most faithful and trusted employee, he was sincerely liked by those with whom he worked and was most popular with the general public. He has the highest respect of all who knew him and will be grieved sadly by a host of friends in the city.

Mr. Spafford was a member of the Tabernacle United Church, Masonic Lodge, No. 127, and Belleville Lodge, No. 81, I.O.O.F., and Quinte Rebekah Lodge, No. 153. The sincerest sympathy of his former friends and neighbors in Sidney also goes to those left to mourn his loss.

Immediately surviving are the widow and one son, Roy C., at home; his aged father, Mr. F. A. Spafford of Sidney, now 82 years old; one brother, Stanley or Sidney; and two sisters, Mrs. H. Preble of Picton, and Mrs. Roy Pinkle of Sidney.

MRS. E. TRUDEAU

Tweed (Special)—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elsom Trudeau was held at St. Edmund's Church, Tweed, on Monday, June 19th. With Requiem High Mass being celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Cullinane; Rev. Fr. Mc-O'Riordon of Tweed and Fr. Meagher of Madoc, assisted. Mr. H. Barrett of Belleville and Mr. Edgar Boland, principal of Stone School, sang during the Mass. The late Mrs. Trudeau was born in Madoc, the daughter of Simon St. Charles, who passed away a number of years ago. Following her graduation from Ottawa Normal School as gold medalist, she was engaged as teacher of the primary room of Madoc Public School. This position she filled for a number of years. In 1914 she married Mr. E. Trudeau of Tweed, and she lived until her death at Hotel Dieu, Kingston. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Miss Sadie Trudeau, at home, and Mrs. W. LeBarge of Toronto; one brother, Mr. Overy, and Mr. W. Cox of Lindsay; two sisters, Mrs. Sherrill and Mrs. Vincent Cox, Oshawa; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Barry and Mr. Chas. St. Charles, Madoc; Miss M. St. Charles, Belleville, and Miss Helena St. Charles, Toronto, are relatives of deceased. Interment was made in St. Edmund's cemetery, Stoch.

LATE MR. J. BUTLER, C.M.G.

Mr. Butler was a member of the Joseph Butler, C.M.G., L.L.D., former Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, arrived in Deseronto Sunday afternoon from Montreal and were interred in Deseronto cemetery. The Rt. Rev. J. P. Nicholl, D.D., Bishop of Ontario, and Rev. E. M. Leacy of Deseronto, officiated at the final rites at the graveside. The funeral mass having been held at Sydney, N.S. Dr. J. C. Lynch, a son-in-law of the deceased, accompanied the remains from Sydney and Mr. Alex. Butler, a brother, of Montreal, journeyed with them from

OCCUPANTS INJURED AS CAR CRASHES INTO POLE

Fire Chief Lynch Assisted in Rescue Work

En route to Montreal where they had been visiting their son, Mr. T. Hamilton, his wife and 3 daughters ranging in age from 5 to 12 years of Detroit, Michigan, were taken to Kingston General Hospital suffering injuries after their light sedan left No. 2 Highway, just west of Cataraqui and almost completely demolished itself against a nearby telephone pole. All occupants of the car were suffered severe injuries, none of which will be fatal, it is stated.

Fire Chief Wm. Lynch of this city, who happened to motor on the scene the first to render first aid to the stricken family, and assisted in taking them from the wrecked car. He then drove two of the family to the Kingston hospital, followed by another car owner with two others of the party. The fifth child daughter was believed to have been the most severely hurt, suffering from a broken leg. Mr. Hamilton received several bad facial injuries, while the rest of the family were suffering chiefly from shock. The car, which was towed to Kingston was described as a complete wreck.

15 FISH HATCHERIES TO CLOSE FOR ECONOMY

No Word Received Respecting the Belleville Hatchery

Under an order made by the Hon. George Challies, Minister of Game and Fisheries, fifteen fish hatcheries in the province will be closed for three and one-half months. It is believed that the hatchery here will be affected by the order which will mean a big saving to the province. The stock from the hatcheries has all been delivered and game fish distributed for the season. No word has yet been received at the local hatchery but it is believed officials regarding the order, but it is believed that the local hatchery be included among those to close. Just routine work is being carried on at the local hatchery at present.

Picnic Supplies

Paper Plates, Cups, Thermos Bottles, Flasks

McKeown's Drug Store

Backache

Backache is but a symptom that you are suffering from nerve impingements. This symptom makes life miserable for thousands of people. It is more prevalent among women and is often an indication of either and far more serious disease. Relief can be had through chiropractic adjustments and the condition responsible for backaches can be permanently corrected.

Our office is equipped to give the pathenemometer service and we use Dr. Spier's painless methods of making corrections.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
Licensed Drugless Practitioners
BELLEVILLE, Ont.
4216 Bridge St. E. Phone 1774

TO-NIGHT! TO-NIGHT!
2 FEATURES
Night Or Terror
THE WORLD GONE MAD
with
BELA LUGOSI
And Devil Horse
Canadian News
DINNERWARE GIFT (ROYAL PRINCESS) TO-NIGHT AND TUESDAY
LAST COMPLETE SHOW AT 8.30
STARTS WED. LETTING IN THE SUNSHINE
COOLED
CAPITOL
PAUL HAMILTON
PAT O'BRIEN
MARY BRIAN

Demonstration! Showing Why
Every house needs
Westinghouse
YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to meet Westinghouse representatives ALL THIS WEEK at Doyle's Drug Store. Westinghouse refrigeration will be demonstrated in a manner unique and interesting showing how the electric refrigeration machinery operates, cut-out cabinets, cut-out units show the marvellous operation of this refrigerator. This is a most interesting demonstration to everybody whether interested in buying electric refrigeration or not—ALL are invited.
ALL THIS WEEK
DOYLE'S DRUG STORE

Warner Bros' Musical Sensation
Two Great Shows Packed Into One Spectacular Entertainment!
2nd STREET
A complete musical comedy presented scene for scene with the heart gripping story goes on!
3 Others 3
WARNER BAXTER, GEORGE BRENT, RUBY KEELER
in story of the 2nd STREET
STARTS TOMORROW
THEATRE
Daily at 2.30 — 7.00 — 8.10
Ends Tonight | Joan Crawford | Gary Cooper | In Person | Today We Live | 7.00 Twice 8.10

BEST GIFT IS GOD SAYS REV DR. E.N. BAKER

Speaks to Masons at Anniversary of St. John The Baptist

LARGE TURNOUT

Tabernacle Choir Assists in Making Church Parade Success

The anniversary of St. John the Baptist was celebrated by the three Masonic lodges of this city with members of sister lodges in the district in attendance when they attended Divine Service on Sunday morning at the Tabernacle United Church, Rev. Dr. E. N. Baker, chaplain of Eureka Lodge, delivering the address. It was one of the largest turnouts of the brethren in some years, there being more than 175 in the parade, which marched from the Temple to the church and back. Chief Charles Cochrane was master of ceremonies. There were many Grand Lodge Officers noted in the parade.

A hearty welcome was extended the brethren by the speaker of the day on behalf of the Board of the Tabernacle Church, while the choir under the direction of Mrs. M. F. Duff contributed a delightful program. The choir sang an anthem, "Open the Gates of the Temple," while a quartette composed of Misses Spalding, Evans, Mooney and Colclough rendered "Beautiful Land" and Mrs. Iva Horton Brown rendered more pleasingly a solo "Consider the Lilies." Hymns well known were sung and the whole service was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Pays Tribute

Prefacing his remarks on the text Rev. Dr. E. N. Baker made fitting reference to the recent death of Richard D. Ponton, a former Worshipful Master of Eureka Lodge. In speaking of the deceased, Dr. Baker stated he was not singling out an individual member nor because he rose to high distinction in his chosen profession nor of "doing his bit" overseas, nor because he rose to the highest office in the gift of his mother lodge, but because he was one of nature's gentlemen and was loved by all because he loved them all.

Speaking on the subject "The Best Gifts," Rev. Dr. Baker chose as his text, 1st Corinthians 12: 31, "But covet earnestly the best gifts, and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way." He said would think that wealth, high position and life of action were the best things in life," said the speaker, "but the best gifts that make for better manhood are Truth, Wisdom and Love of God. Wealth is fine if obtained by frugality, honesty and industry," continuing Dr. Baker, "but wealth generally taps the roof of many kinds of evil. Wealth can be honestly obtained and honestly used, but there is always a danger in this high powered world in which we live of it being obtained in a dishonest way and used for dishonest purposes. It is also fine to reach a high place in the community and in the councils of the nations but the thing to be desired is fitness, culture and scholarship and then one can stand in preparation for the high calling. God has a plan of action and it is up to us all to find that plan and work accordingly."

Continuing Dr. Baker stated "that life at times was made sordid and for a setback now and but we should leave the world better than we found it and one way to accomplish this ideal is to live close to God and trust in His guardianship. These thing are all right in their place," said the speaker, "but the best things are those that make for manhood which includes personality and the Divine plan of life. Truth is most essential in the plan and we should at all times speak it, look it and live it. The easiest way is to be true to one's self and the road will then not be hard. Wisdom is another essential quality but wisdom is not knowledge for the tongue ceases, but wisdom abides. The body, mind and soul must be in harmony with God. The one great thing next to God and something one wonders whether God is as close to this generation as he was to our fathers and mothers. You cannot inherit the reality of God, but you can work for that heritage and it will be the best gift ever received." He exhorted the Masons to be stepping stones to bring about more fully the reality of God.

The War added 6,000 new words to the English language.

Well-cured ham is usually best when it is one year old.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASE
BACKACHE
BLADDER TROUBLES
RHEUMATISM
DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
3087 THE PROPRIETORS

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT

By Special Correspondent

Trenton Legion Honors Memory of Former Comrades in War

Program Carried Out at Park And Also at Cemeteries

Trenton, June 26 (Special) — The annual decoration day program by the Trenton branch of the Legion No. 16 was the most successful in many years with the largest crowd yet to assemble for this occasion in Trenton. On Sunday morning the decorations and graves committee, consisting of Comrades E. E. Wiggins, D. T. Fraser, J. Orchard, Geo. Labrash, Dr. C. E. Reddick, R. McRibbon and R. M. Heath, secretary, decorated the graves in the various cemeteries.

Mount Pregreem Cemetery—Capt. R. J. Ireland, buried in France, Capt. W. H. Turney, M.D., Pte. G. Gillette, Pte. E. Reddick, Pte. H. Saunders, Pte. P. Dadwell, Pte. B. Leach, Pte. J. Russell (buried in France), Pte. A. Paton (buried in France), Pte. A. Bissell (buried in France), Pte. B. Vantassel.

Catholic Cemetery—Pte. J. T. Carroll (buried in France), Pte. E. R. Auger (served as E. Diddier), Pte. W. Langevin.

St. George's Cemetery—Capt. N. Mills, M.D. (buried in France), Lieut. F. T. P. Cond, Lieut. Hugh Parnoombe, Pte. H. A. Snider (buried in France), Pte. Chas. Windle, Pte. James Risk, Gen. T. J. Neulon. Carrying Place Cemetery—Col. E. Kidd, Pte. D. Robertson.

In the afternoon the veterans gathered in the market square where they marched later to College Street School grounds where the parade was formed under R. M. S. Airey, D.C.M., who was in charge. On the school grounds the procession was followed a detachment from the Royal Canadian Air Force under command of Flight Lieut. G. Mercer Edward Regiment under Capt. T. Wood Jarvis, the Trenton band, Mayor Graham and members of the town council, veterans, members of the different auxiliary societies of the town, Girl Guides and the Boy Scouts with the oldest veteran, Mr. Roy, aged 87, of the Penian Raids, riding in a car at the end of the parade. All gathered about the memorial in the park where Trenton paid homage to her heroes that gave their lives in the Great War and many who have thinned the ranks in the years gone by.

Program Followed.

The program presented was as follows:

Opening hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past"; prayer by Rev. A. E. Jones of King Street United Church; Scripture reading by Rev. A. E. Smith of St. John's Anglican Church; hymn "Fight the Good Fight"; address by Adj. F. Hempstead of the local Salvation Army; "Last Post" was sounded with Cpl. Burr of the R.C.A.F. followed by two minutes' silence before Reveille was sounded. The closing hymn was "Abide With Me". Later wreaths were placed on the memorial by the Legion, Town of Trenton, R.C.A.F., L.O. of N., O.E.S., L.O.B.A., I.O.O.F., Rebekahs, L.O.L. A.F. and A.M., Girl Guides, Daughters of the Empire and many others by citizens who lost their loved ones in the world war. Adj. Hempstead said the benediction and the Trenton Band played "God Save the King" to close the most impressive service held for our heroes.

Year Fatality.

A near fatality was averted yesterday about noon when Rupert 'Happy' Carswell became exhausted as he was swimming across the slip between the government dock and the old storrer dock. Gladden Terry, who was swimming nearby, heard Carswell calling and rushed to aid him to safety on the other side. Carswell was quite exhausted but after a rest he was able to walk. Speaking to him later he said he would have gone around the story with his children and keep 'out of deep water after this.

Makes Tour of Ship.

Mr. Don Hooey of Trenton was a visitor on H.M.S. Norfolk at Montreal on Thursday afternoon and Mr. Hooey stated that it is a most interesting trip to take. The Norfolk is a 10,000 ton battle cruiser, 750 feet long. The crew consisted of 680 men. This cruiser is the flagship of the West Indies squadron. It carries high guns and anti-aircraft guns. On either side are torpedo tubes with a seaplane on the upper part of the ship, that is fitted with a catapult. After the seaplane's manoeuvres it lands beside the ship where a derrick hoists it to its place. The unique features on the cruiser that impressed Mr. Hooey were its bakeshop where 700 loaves of bread per day are produced and the police court aboard. The magistrate is appointed by the Admiral. A jail is also provided for members of the crew that are unfortunate enough to be found guilty of the many rules. H.M.S. Norfolk was built in 1933. Electric signs from the captain's quarters direct to the wheelman in the hold and from the cruiser into the ship on her course. Mr. Hooey was most fortunate in his visit on Thursday as the general public were not allowed for a few days later.

Laughs Through Life

Jack Oakie

Jack Oakie obtained his start in the dramatic world accidentally. Back in 1919 he was placed in the chorus of the Junior League's revue by a show in New York City. Then he laughed his way into musical comedy, vaudeville and finally the movies. Jack's latest picture is above.

Imperials Defeat Madoc.

George LaBrash, with his Imperial softballers journeyed to Madoc on Friday evening where they administered a 17-7 trimming to the Dufferin Edward Regiment under Capt. T. Wood Jarvis. The Imperials established a real game for the Imperials while Ashley handled the pitching duties for the northern lads Johnson and Whytock of Madoc pounded out a circuit clout apiece.

Madoc—Watson, Johnson, Whytock, Jack, Ross, Kincaid, West, Wallbridge and Ashley.

Imperials—Anderson, Jordan, M. Kennedy, Waldron, P. Kennedy, H. Miller, Mann, Miller, Sager.

Score by innings:

Imperials	5	0	0	1	4	0	0	0	17
Madoc	1	0	0	0	1	0	0	5	7

Umpire—J. Lewis.

The remaining games of the second half of the Trenton Softball League are as follows:

June 26—Riverside v. For. Legion.
" 27—Woolen v. C.P.R.
" 28—R.C.A.F. v. Montrose Dairy.
" 30—For. Legion v. Col. Grads.
July 3—Woolen v. Riverside Grads.
" 4—Foreign Legion v. R.C.A.F.
" 5—C.P.R. v. College Grads.
" 7—Riverside D. v. Montrose D.
" 10—R.C.A.F. v. Woolen.
" 11—C.P.R. v. Foreign Legion.
" 13—Col. Grads v. Montrose D.
" 14—R.C.A.F. v. Riverside Lady.
" 17—Montrose D. v. For. Legion.
" 18—C.P.R. v. R.C.A.F.
" 20—Riverside D. v. Col. Grads.
" 21—Woolen v. Foreign Legion.
" 24—C.P.R. v. Montrose Dairy.
" 25—College Grads v. Woolen.

ONTARIO WEST GIVEN RELIEF

Drizzling Rain Will Help Parched Lands in District

LONDON, June 26.—(CP)—Relief in the form of a drizzling rain began to farmers throughout wide areas in Western Ontario today, moistening the crops which made a scorching sun of the last three weeks.

The rain, however, came too late to benefit such crops as strawberries, totally ruined in many districts where fear of failure of raspberry plantings also is held. Growth of nearly all crops has been retarded, particularly throughout the Niagara fruit belt.

In some places the situation had become so desperate parishioners of Wallaceburg appealed to their pastor to offer up prayers for rain.

Farmers said it would require a real drenching to save their crops but the light rains today had alleviated the situation to some extent even if only to moisten the parched growth.

PLACED IN SPECIAL TENT

Chicago, June 26 (CP)—A set of triplets, all boys, born Saturday to Mrs. Evelyn Marshall, were placed under a special tent at a Century of Progress in which they will receive air with 44 per cent. more oxygen than normal. A physician said he feared they would not live under ordinary circumstances.

CHECKING UP ON BIRD

Oconto, Wis., June 26 (CP)—Guy Engbardt says the whippoorwill he has been checking up on is a mathematical bird, he says, makes the 221 calls at the rate of 60 per minute and always stops at the end of the hour.

ARSON CHARGE LAID AGAINST LOCAL MAN

Continued From Page One

limits, shortly before the midnight hour. Investigation by the police and Fire Chief William Lynch revealed that a paper being placed between the partitions of the dining room and the downstairs bedroom while another had been under the fire had burned some of the woodwork. It is understood the police and the Fire Chief had this man under suspicion for some time and that the house in question would be fired at a time when wind and weather were favorable and for that reason had the house under surveillance for some nights previous to Saturday.

Police in Ambush

On Saturday night Inspector Lougheed and Provincial Constables Stringer, Kelly and Campbell were posted about the house, while in the building Fire Chief Lynch with his car equipped with chemicals and other fire fighting apparatus accompanied by Frank Orr of the fire brigade was stationed on Wright Street in front of the house. Lieutenant-Colonel Mayor Ponton held the marksmen against Saturday night, and shortly after the affair shortly before midnight. Engaging a taxi, the man, it is alleged by the police, drove to the house, which he was going to use as a summer residence, dashing in while the driver of the taxi was turning around and lit a fire under the kindling placed under the partition between the dining room and the downstairs bedroom.

So quick was the action that the Provincial Police, who were in ambush, did not have time to effect the arrest. The call then went into No. 1 fire hall for apparatus while the Chief and Mr. Orr were successful in keeping the fire under control until their arrival and the damage was only $100 to the house with small damage to the furniture. Immediately a hunt was instituted for the suspected man and Provincial Constable Kelly, on arrival in the city, notified Chief Carpenter to sight engaged Constable Arnott to join in the search. The man was finally located in the cab he was driving and arrested. He was taken to the police station and incarcerated.

Insurance of $500 was placed on the contents of the house on May 27 last, it is understood, and the estimated amount of furniture in the house at the time or the fire is given at $50. Complete investigation of this fire may bring to light interesting information respecting other recent fires in the city.

21 INJURED IN CAR CRASH

Truck Loaded With Picnickers Collides with Toronto Car

TORONTO, June 26—Twenty-one persons were injured in a crash Sunday afternoon when a large motor truck loaded with Cayuga Point, was turned over on its side following a collision with an automobile at the crossing of High Park Avenue and Bloor Street.

Thrown on Street

The truckload of men, women and children was proceeding west on Arcile Street when the occupants were sitting on boxes, while the children stood clinging inside to the guard rail on the sides of the truck. When the truck was thrown over to its side, women and children screamed as they went tumbling from the truck to the pavement. Lunch baskets were strewn about the street.

The force of the impact of the car and truck coming together caused terrific noise, which brought residents scurrying from their homes to the street.

Some of those only slightly hurt were able to walk unaide to their feet, while others, suffering painful hurts, had to be carried to their homes.

Rescue parties quickly formed, and calls were sent for ambulances to convey the injured to hospital. Passing motorists also volunteered to use their cars to drive persons hurt to hospital.

Four Hurt Seriously

Of the twenty-one persons injured nineteen of them were rushed in police and private ambulances to the Western Hospital. Only four were found seriously enough injured to be admitted to the ward. For over two hours doctors and nurses in the hospital emergency ward were busy attending the injured in order that they might return to their homes.

The following four were detained in the hospital:

Idelia Zastinky, aged 15, of 153 Franklin Avenue, suffering from serious head injuries. An x-ray was taken last night to find out if her skull had been fractured.

Nick Sidly, 45, living at 378 Royce Avenue, left shoulder dislocated and left arm fractured.

George Andrenick, 28, of 413 Perth Avenue, broken left collar bone and facial injuries.

Alec Kunik, 10 years old, of 27 Edwin Avenue, cuts on lower part of the neck and a broken jaw.

About half a million sparrows are estimated to be covering around London.

France spent nearly $4,000,000 in development of aviation last year.

India Shows Willingness to Co-Operate in Silver Scheme Proposed by U.S.

Rehabilitation of Silver Will Help Parley to Successful End

LARGEST HOLDER

Has on Hand at Present Over 400 Million Ounces of Silver

London, June 26 (AP)—India indicated to the world economic conference today her willingness to co-operate in the rehabilitation of silver, as projected in the resolution of Senator Key Pittman.

This was authoritatively disclosed after a meeting of the conference silver committee, at which Sir George Shuster, Secretary of the Treasury for India, was present.

Delegates interested in the rehabilitation of silver said this was the most important event which could have happened to forex the program to a successful conclusion.

India is the world's largest holder of silver, having on hand some 400 million ounces.

Her adherence to the Pittman plan, therefore, is considered absolutely vital for its success.

Experts say that if the nations holding silver agree to control the flow of the metal to the market then it will be easy to fix and maintain a price.

Stabilization of the silver price is essential to the plan by which one-fifth of each nation's currency coverage would be in silver. If the price can be fixed and maintained then there is greater likelihood of the Pittman resolution being adopted by the major nations attending the conference.

While the silver programme has progressed so favorably there still is a hitch in the development of the plan for restriction of wheat production.

DECLINING YEARS ARE SPENT AS LUMBER BARGE

Once Was Cutter, One Time, Terror of Poaching Fishermen

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 26. Once a vigilant, one-time terror of poaching fishermen as a cutter of the Department of Lands and Fisheries, is spending her declining years as a lumber barge.

The 16-17-knot "Pride of Lake Erie", sold to private interests in 1929 when she began to toil on her, wheezes in and out of a lumber company's dock here with her hold full of boards and railroad ties.

One of the strongest forces toward the unity and peace of China is the growing enlightenment of her women.

Arrangements Made, Woman is Not Dead

Believe However, Man Died of Exhaustion

Puckaswa, Ont., June 26—(CP)—Provincial Police from Port Arthur District today were investigating the death at an undetermined date of Charles Fairchild. Otter Creek trapper whose decomposed body was found beside a bracked canoe seven miles west of here early this week.

Fairchild, about 60 years ago, appeared to have died of exhaustion after dragging his craft up on shore.

THOSE REFUSING CUT OFF

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 28 — It was an even division today when 108 single unemployed men were offered work at a road camp. Fifty-four accepted. Fifty-four will be cut off relief. They refused.

FIRST NIGHT IN FILMLAND

Week End Performances at Capitol Include Richard Dix and Margaret Dramas

With the aid of those motives and incidents which make the mystery play thrill beyond measure, Wilard Mack's "Night of Terrora," as screened, played at the Capitol Theatre on Saturday afternoon and evening to large houses. Thrills and excitement of all kinds, murders, chase of a maniac, the haunting appearance of the spectral face of terror which spells death and disaster, a mysterious servant from the jungle land of India, the burial of a human being alive, are some of the features of this powerful melodramatic study.

Bela Lugosi assumes the part of the Hindu in that peculiar manner which is part or the art of Lugosi as a creator of character. But there is also romance woven into series of sensational scenes, and Sally Blane and Wallace Ford are the interesting pair in the story.

What makes such pictures appeal despite the shocks they bring? Of course there is the safety which sitting in a theatre seat assures even while the hand of mock-believe seems so real. Most people could not if they tried ever be terrified to the point that would not enjoy it if they could, and the screen provides all those thrills for those who would rather look on than take part in, such a series of events.

"The World Gone Mad," a second feature film is an interesting commentary upon the speculative and gambling situation which is one of the underlying causes for the buying of shares on the stock market. Pat O'Brien, Neil Hamilton, Evelyn Brent, Mary Brian and Louis Calhern sustain this moving picture.

BUY NOW and MAKE WORK!

EVERY DOLLAR you spend---yes, even for luxuries---means work for someone.

And work means wages---and wages spent means more work!

BUY NOW and MAKE WORK---because it's in your own interest. Values for many years may never be as great as at present.

Buy the things you want NOW if you have the money---regardless of whether or not they are luxuries.

It makes work!

If you want a new home
---build it NOW!

It makes work!

Don't hold back because of the foolish idea that it is not seemly to buy what you want.

By holding back and deferring buying you are fostering that very condition which you so much deplore.

If you have money to buy the things you want---

BUY NOW and MAKE WORK

Sponsored by The Canadian Daily Newspapers Association.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER
THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.
W. H. MORTON, Publisher

THE PRINCE AT 39

His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales is now in his fortieth year. On Friday he celebrated the thirty-ninth anniversary of his birth. Greetings from all parts of the Empire and from without the Empire came to the heir to the throne.

No man in the world today is a more interesting figure than the Prince, who will, if spared, some day occupy the British seat of Empire in a world which is fast changing both in which Britain still clings to the monarchy as the best form of democratic government. For this Prince is not only regal but he is democratic. For this double aspect which fits him so admirably for the post he occupies and that other post he is to occupy, he is indebted to his parents, the King and the Queen, for he has a record of his family, to his own great talents, and to the age in which he finds himself. The present is an apt time for this young man who is approaching middle age with a wealth of experience gleaned from the years before the war and through the stress period of the past fifteen years. No man who ever sat in the light of the throne of any nation has found a day so fitting him in doing exactly as he chose, through the excited position he occupies.

The open-hearted Prince, who has been the most admired of the young men of the world for over two decades, possesses gifts of mind and heart which place him in a unique position. In these days, his influence is doing much to bring about amelioration of conditions. He is trained for the most practical office in the world, an office which is neither minister, head of a government, no president, can fully appreciate because the basis on which he rests is somewhat different—he is born to office. No one but a prince understands the full importance of that fact. This unique position before the wave has realized in full as the considerate rule which they have given their people, indicates.

The Prince, as does Majesty King George, preserves that interest in affairs which is expected of the office, both giving sacrificingly of their time and energies, and that is in line with the best traditions of the ruler who stands just outside and above the turmoil of political strife.

It is not for us, in this republic and a sorree this royal and democratic prince, wishing for him many returns and every happiness in the years to come. Young men of position of wealth, may find in him an example of high thinking, of interest in public affairs, of living for a purpose, and the young man may see in his examples of service their ideal of tireless endeavour, for even a Prince requires long and arduous study to fit himself for the role he plays.

THE CAR IN THE GARAGE

The un-plated car in the garage in any part of the province is causing some discussion. There it stands and has stood since last fall or since the new licences became effective early this year. It may be rusting and gathering dust but it is not earning taxes at the rate of six cents a gallon for the Ontario Department of Highways and the owner is not getting the thrills he used to have.

That there are quite a number of these cars, even in Belleville, is well enough known. Some persons find that they cannot afford to drive all the year and are going to spend what money they can spare in the latter part of the present year. That there are fewer motorcars on the roads is evident to any automobile owner or driver.

The times may have taught a number of people a lesson in economy or it may be that the early demand for the licences forced numbers to keep their cars within doors and once they keep them within doors while others are similarly by, the owners probably develop a sense of restraint and feel that they can go still longer without driving.

How to coax the cars out, if people can afford to drive without spending too much money upon the pleasure at the expense of the family requirements, is a question. Many feel that lower licences and a new date of issue of licences would make it possible for many to use their cars and bring in revenue which would compensate for the loss in licence fees.

Anyhow the owner who voluntarily puts away his automobile is giving himself a lesson in restraint for everybody knows the owner of a machine likes nothing better than to enjoy the exhilaration of driving.

But if it is possible to get more of these idle cars out on the roads, it would mean taxes for the government and more and more business for the service stations, gas filling stations, automobile manufacturers and others.

It is an alarming state to be past feeling, especially as to religious truth and duty.—C. Simmons.

It is a shameful and unseemly thing to think one thing and speak another, but how odious to write one thing and think another.—Seneca.

There is a deity within us who breathes that divine fire by which we are animated. —Ovid.

SIDELIGHTS
GRAVE and GAY

GRATIS

Money isn't needed to enjoy a flowering tree;
The beauty of a landscape for every man is free.
And who beholds a garden though merely passing by,
Has a right to share its splendor, which its owner can't deny.

A man may tramp the woodlands as if they were his own.
About the joys of nature no gruesome walls are thrown;
And if he's fond of dreaming where fretful cares are lost,
A river bank awaits him at very little cost.

Some money's necessary—of that there is no doubt—
A man must pay for foodstuffs to keep his body stout,
But last joys are gratis; who turns his steps to free
The glory of the sunrise will not be charged a fee.

Good books there are for reading, good friends there are for play,
Earth offers countless pleasures for which we need not pay.
With very little money, despite the pain and strife,
A man can grow in wisdom and lead a happy life.

—Edgar A. Guest.

x x x x

LOVE SEEMS TO BE MAKING a strong comeback—if it ever has been away. We hear more love songs these days, and nights, than we ever did before. Popular songs and the radio have a great deal to do with this for very few songs turned out nowadays for popular consumption lack the love theme, and in some it is laid on very thick. In the talkies, too, we get a great deal of love in the public nursery with clinches, and hotchs in the kissing line which would have horrified grandfather and grandmother if their purlaz eyes could have witnessed such goings on right in front of them. A speaker at the Belleville Rotary Club devoted twenty minutes to proving that love was "The Keynote of Life," and the very next evening my neighbor in the next column to this, Dr. Basil S. Bisch, authority on health and psychology, devoted his daily column to "How to Tell if Love Life is Adequate," Dr. Bisch frowns when human love should be something big and broad and deep and all absorbing like the love that Elizabeth Barrett Browning emotionally

"I love thee with the breath,
Smiles, tears of all my life!—and if God choose
I shall but love thee better after death."

The love that looks beyond the grave is a real love which knows not Reno and into which no other could ever hope to enter on the same plane. Dr. Bisch even intimates that a real soul-satisfying love banishes many bodily ills, and it is easy to believe that perfect love inspires contentment, contentment has no place for worry, and without worry the human machinery can function normally. Seems as if with all the things we learn in this brief life's journey, all the mistakes we make, that there should be a second chance, a second life in which we could put into practise all the best things in life which have been learned through experience down the years that we have travelled from the cradle toward the grave—perhaps there is. We can be sure, however, that whatever the Great Architect of the Universe has in store for us will be good.

x x x x

CHARLES E. MITCHELL, New York banker, charged with income tax evasion, was found "not guilty" by a jury after 24 hours' deliberation. Mitchell admitted before a President Roosevelt investigating committee that he had turned over large blocks of stock to his wife at low price and bought them back at a high price, thus constituting a paper loss of large dimensions which materially affected his income tax return. Apparently the jury had income tax troubles of their own.

x x x x

A PRIVATE CRUISE as a holiday after his strenuous labors at the White House since inauguration on March 4 last is being taken by President Roosevelt. The President is skipper of a sea-going yacht which is cruising off the Atlantic coast, making for Maine and eventually New Brunswick where the President will be metomorphosized into plain Frank Roosevelt with a fishpole in his hand. Will Rogers says the cruise is so private that the president is only followed by one battle ship, three Coast Guard cutters, three shiploads of newspapermen and two of camera men.

x x x x

FOLK OUT MADOG WAY say it wasn't a hail storm, it was a bombardment of golden chunks of ice, for the Golden Gate of the storm had tops riddled with the pelting hail, or ice chunks, or whatever you

WHAT HOPE OF MOVIE STAR'S LIFE FOR YOU

Dr. Bisch Deals With Craving to Excel on Screen

BY LOUIS E. BISCH, M.D. Ph.D., Famous Authority on Health and Psychology

The reason for writing this article is because the number of persons who harbor a craving to act in the movies is astounding.

The fame and notoriety that goes with being a star on the screen motivates some; others think of the fast pay checks that would enable them to "make a splurge," what psychology calls "exhibitionism"—the urge to show oneself off—likewise makes an appeal to many. Then, of course, there is the impulse to act, to pretend you are somebody else, plus the pleasure of being admired which goes with almost all traits that we possess since childhood.

It is usually women who aspire to become movie stars mostly because men, feel that in male sex is immune to the temptation, however, but when they do feel that way they are apt to hide the fact from their friends.

One reason why the feminine gender is so keen on a motion picture career is because it is apt to think that the essentials for success are pretty face, alluring figure, plenty of sex appeal and, perhaps friendship with some producer or movie magnate who can manoeuvre the proper introductions. Actually, that is not the case, go to be sure, the luck to photograph well.

Producers of motion picture movie aspirants at least, the matter is not as simple. Nowadays, it takes more the "talkies" had a lot to do with this—face, form, alluring figure, plenty of sex appeal and, perhaps friendship with some producer or movie magnate who can manoeuvre the proper introductions. Actually, that is not the case, go to be sure, the luck to photograph well.

Producers of motion picture movie aspirants at least, the matter is not as simple. Nowadays, it takes more than

STATION L-O-V-E

BY CRAIG CARROLL

The car stopped in front of the building and Judy, blindly lugging bills from her pocket book, gave the driver a dollar that made him start, gulp.

She slid to the superior young woman at the desk, "I want to see the manager."

"What manager?"

"Whoever's in charge of the assignment."

"He's not in. Come for the day."

"Then I want to see whoever's work you specialize in."

"He's gone, too. It's Sunday, you know."

"Then I've got to go to his home to see him. What's his address? We don't give out home addresses."

"But—"

"Sorry. Can't help you about that. You're sure you don't want to see somebody else?"

"Who?"

"Mr. Mason, maybe?" The girl smiled shyly.

"Mr. Mason? Here here? Why—"

"Yes. Over there in the announcers' room. He's just getting ready to leave. Wait. I'll have a page call for him. Walter, ask Mr. Mason to come in for a moment. Miss —what is the name, please?"

"Allison. Judy Allison. And tell him it's important! Very important! Please!"

"Yes'm."

The boy disappeared and Judy waited. The minutes dragged.

The boy reappeared. "Sorry, miss. He said he's got to catch a train. Got no time to talk. Told me to give you this."

He extended a folded bit of paper. Judy, scribbling on the page boy and amused attendant, Judy read what Dick Mason had written. Which was like his style, curt.

"There's nothing for you or me to say. I don't blame you. After all it's your job to get ahead as fast and as far as you can. Nobody else matters. So let's say, 'so long' and 'good-by'."

Judy let the paper fall from her trembling fingers. Then slowly she picked it up and carefully folded it, put it in her handbag. It was the first note Dick Mason had ever written to her. She was very sure that it was also the last.

"When They Won't Listen, It Doesn't Do Any Good to Talk."

She found Elsie waiting, alone.

"Billy's gone," said Elsie. "Dick called up, and Billy said he'd meet him somewhere. Wouldn't tell me where they're going. Out of town, I guess. Something about a fishing lead, maybe. I know Billy said Dick had an offer down there, and he thought he could get on, too. Not as good as here maybe, but he's got so he can't do Billy's got money saved up and he said he'd shake Dick up some, but gosh, what I heard I guess Dick wouldn't take it. Only they're both gone."

Gone. Gone where? Gone forever. Of course. Judy knew Elsie Allison. The man you love—and you know it now—the man you love is gone. Believing you lied to him, believing you were so small, so petty, so unfeeling that you could sacrifice him for the sake of a job that meant nothing a week. Believing you let him be the scapegoat for what was done to you by another man by his enemy, by Elton Day. Believing you let him go because you cared more about his enemy than about him, in spite of what you'd said to Elton and with your eyes, in spite of what he had told you, believing every thing but the truth.

"Elsie, was it right?"

"Who was right?"

"Dick. Did I tell him the truth? He had a right to know. He trusted me, and I knew what Elton had did. And still I let him go without Dick about it. Didn't have courage enough to tell him. Kept lying to myself. Putting it off. Just because —oh, I don't know why. I don't know why at all. But, Dick was right."

"Of course he was."

Somehow, Judy wanted Elsie had not said that. It all right to abuse yourself, to load blame and reproach on your own shoulders; it's not so pleasant when you have only one friend left, and that friend starts agreeing with you in your abasement. Then Judy knew that Elsie, who hated herself for the thought, she deserved even more Elsie or Billy Townsend thought or said. Not because she'd meant to do any harm, but, being what she was, responsibility, her lack of cleverness and directness had caused only trouble.

"Elsie, isn't there any way to reach Dick?"

"No. Had I know of. Except—"

"Except what?" Judy demanded anxiously.

"Well, I told Billy the absolute truth. He didn't believe me, at first but I made him believe me before I got through. I'm no woman to be talked down, Judy. I made him believe, even if he didn't want to. And he promised he'd try to tell Dick just what you and I said.

"Only I don't know if Dick will believe him. Dick's in love with you. First time he's ever been in love in his life. He's just a kid about you. And, when a kid thinks he's been lied to the first time he's ever been in love, well, it takes him a long time to get over it. Sometimes he never does get over it. I've heard of more than one man according his whole life being alone just because somebody lied to him once, or hurt his feelings, or made him feel he'd been cheated. It happens like that, Judy."

It happens like that. When you would sooner die than hurt somebody, you hurt that person terribly without even knowing what you are doing.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

"Maybe, said Elsie to Judy, 'you can get Elton Day to clear him of faking your audition.. He won't right now, that's sure. But maybe later. He's not the kind to get noble and give anybody a break. Not when he tells you he's in love with you himself."

"I know that," Judy shook her head.

"Then you'd better just go along. And when Billy says what he can to Dick he's going to write to me and tell me the answer. Anyhow, he'll write at once as to how he and Dick are, and maybe then—"

"I can't do it, Elsie. I can't."

"You can't huh? What else is there to do?"

"I don't know—"

"Then, you'll get it the way I'm telling you. Because if you go down to the studio and tell Elton Day that you'll make it sound worse than ever. If you even act as if you know anything about it—"

"But everybody else knows. They won't want me around. I couldn't if they didn't want Dick."

"Don't be silly. You've got a contract. You're not working for the station, you're working for an advertiser. So is Dick. That's why you couldn't do him any harm even if you tried. Because the station couldn't hire him, anyhow. But you've got a contract, he's got had a job, you see?"

"Couldn't I go to Mr. Jenks? To

"She Might Go Back to Jenks, Tell Him the Truth."

the man who's paying for the Beauty Builders show?"

"What could you say? Anything you tell him somebody'd get fired. That's what Billy says, anyhow Because a crooked audition had supposed to happen. Hardly ever does. First one Billy ever heard about. And no station is going to admit that a thing like that could happen. That's how Billy says it, anyhow. So what can you do?"

The answer was nothing.

"Even if you a letter to Dick. Not even any chance to explain. Nothing."

So, knowing this answer, Judy went about the place that day, that evening, and, pretending not eating, watching the door, listening for a call that did not come, knew she knew it would not come. And slept miserably, dreaming about Dick and could not remember when she was awake. Dreaming about him and sympathetically. Hearing Elsie's crisp knock on the door.

"Judy, let in," said hilliously.

Elsie's face appeared around the side of the door.

"Ready?"

"I guess so."

"You guess so. Don't you know? Don't you mean so?"

"Oh—Well, let's be on our way." They emerged into a crisp night that was beautiful, the kind of morning Chicago has copyrighted, when the lake breeze blows along the high buildings in the loop, when the whole city seems to be sparkling in the sun. A morning Dick would like, Judy knew, and have talked about in his boy's peep voice. Dick would not see it this morning. Dick would not hear Dick's voice today, or tonight. Or ever? Or ever?

"Let's go," said Elsie and they went, Elsie suggested, stopping at the corner.

"I'm not hungry."

"Maybe you're not. That's that got to do with it, anyhow? Come on."

She followed them without much caring where she went.

"George, how's the toast!" Elsie demanded.

"Good."

"You're a fibber. Bring us some. And how are the eggs?"

"Just today from the country."

"You're still a fibber. Bring us some eggs."

Food sat untouched on the table then while Elsie and Judy pretended to eat and pretended not to interest them at all. A story about a Chicago, like everybody else, trying from somewhere to somewhere else, Judy remembered Dick doing done to somebody for doing something to somebody, something silly. A story about something Judy had never heard about.

"Nothing else?" Elsie asked finally.

"Nothing."

"Well, let's be on our merry way." And Elsie hummed the familiar march for a moment, and suddenly stopped.

"Listen, Judy. You're feeling sorry, little. So'm I. Billy—Maybe he's not so much, but he said I had swell eyes. And he said he had an idea I could cook. And I can. And he's Billy. Pretty good, too. And I don't know when he'll be back. Maybe never."

Behind the casual words, the words that tried to be funny and weren't at all, Judy sensed something she had been too selfish to realize. That Elsie, too, might be in love. That Elsie—she asked about it pointblank as they entered a taxicab.

"Elsie, you like Billy a lot, don't you?"

"He's all right."

"That's not what I mean. You like him."

"I dunno."

"You do!"

"And what if I do? What's the good?"

"It's nice. He'd be a fine husband, Elsie."

"A husband? Hah! I'm laughing! I'm dying I'm laughing so hard. A life than Judy Allison knew, while husband? For me. Ahhh!" Elsie she could not solve this simple problem for herself.

"Elton I want Mason, the man I had before."

Day blocked the way ahead.

"Elton!"

"Yes, Mr. Jenks. Oh good morning, Judy."

"Good morning," she forced herself to say.

"Lovely morning, too. One of our very best. Specially delivered for Miss Judy Allison, C.O.D. Two cents, sir."

She did not answer. Again Jenks laughed.

"Yes."

"That new announcer they had on today—he's no good."

"No one of the best men around here, Mr. Jenks.

"Maybe. For anybody else. But not for you. I don't think you'll want to do-da business on my show. That's where the whole idea is. I was just about talk. That's why I liked that they'd fired him. Where you going, Judy?"

"Why—" Day began. Then he stopped.

"Dick's gone," Judy supplied.

"Gone? Gone where? When's he coming back?"

"He's not coming back."

"Not coming—"

Suddenly Judy realized that something she had not counted on was happening. Something that might defeat Elton Day as nothing else could. She stopped.

"Mr. Day can tell you," she said primly. "And I'm afraid I'll have to be going."

"Oh, Wait, Miss Allison," Jenks said. "I want to get this straightened out right now. Your voice is too good to be spoiled by an announcer like that, Elton, I want Mason, the man I had before."

"Sorry." Elton said smoothly, but out of the hands. Mason worked for the station. Not for me. Mason was part of the package cost you pay. And the station decided to get rid of Mason."

"Elton!"

Elton was silent.

"Drinking, maybe?"

"Mr. Jenks," Judy said quickly. "Oh. Then what? Maybe he did quit before my time?"

"He was always on time."

"Then I don't see why the station likes him or not. He ought to be here right now. I want him here. I want him here."

Nobody said anything. Jenks, chewing ingratiatingly on his cigar, growled in his throat, stamped his feet a little, like a small animal about to jump over a fence. Then he said sharply, "I'm going to find out about this. Right now. Day. I'll see you later."

"Miss Allison, you're fine. Just keep it up the way you were today and you'll be wonderful. Good-by."

He bustled away. Almost. Day then him. But not quite. He grinned instead and moved closed to Judy.

"Too bad," he said.

"What's too bad?"

"Too bad he had to notice about Dick Mason."

"Why?"

"Because if he'd missed it for a couple of days he'd have forgotten there was an announcer. Then we'd have been all-right."

(To be Continued)

THUGS KIDNAP EX-CHAMPION

Crime Wave Rampant in Chicago With Several Killings

Chicago, June 26—(UP)—The kidnapping of a former boxing champion and arrest of a former state senator highlighted Chicago's underworld crime wave in the Chicago area. An unusual combination of an uproarious Sabbath included the shooting to death of a woman by a man who was accompanied by a chief; the killing of two persons after an argument between guests of two wedding parties, the slaying of a night watchman by burglars and the arrest of two boys charged with setting fire to and another boy with a water pistol.

But the former champion who was robbed was Young Corbett of California, who on last May 20 lost the lightweight title to Sgt. Jimmy McLarnin.

Corbett and his wife started back to California in their automobile after spending a week in Chicago. A Century of Progress Exposition. At the edge of the city, four bandits held them up and robbed them.

"I'm Corbett," the fighter tried to explain to them.

"Stop kiddin'," answered one of the bandits. "You look more for a roumbakuli. Corbett's dead."

The bandits robbed Corbett and his wife of $1,000 in cash and two diamond rings worth $500, then released them. Corbett reported to police before continuing his trip to California.

Mrs. Mary Morrison was shot to death while sitting on the front porch this morning. The shots, four of which struck her, were fired from an automobile in which a man and a blonde child were riding. Mrs. Morrison died almost three times. Police could find no motive for the slaying.

Many Accidents Over The Week End

Six dead and about 30 injured was the toll taken by week-end accidents and drownings throughout Ontario over last week end, with a number of others expected to recover.

The dead:

Hugh Crawford, 40, Marmora, fatally burned when car ignited from cigarette lighter.

John Kelly, nine, drowned near Flinders' wharf, caught in an undercurrent.

Alfred Raney 50, killed by train near the Interprovincial Bridge between Ottawa and Hull.

Charles Gilbert, 40, of Toronto, distant relative of Hon. Charles McCrea, Ontario Minister of Mines, drowned near Cogama while prospecting.

Joseph Simon, 14, drowned near Sturgeon Falls, when he fell overboard when his canoe overturned.

A score of picnickers were injured, Wednesday night, in a truck on which they were riding collided with a motor car near Guelph. Four required hospital attention and others, though they all suffered injuries, were not seriously hurt.

TWO DROWNED IN GATINEAU

Manitwaki, Que., June 26.—(CP)—Two drownings were reported in the fast water of the Gatineau River, between Manitwaki and Low, Quebec, 20 of Kensington, Que., were drowned, Tuesday afternoon, when the man, Maxime Beaudoin, 20 swam to shore.

BEAUTIFUL GREY TROUT

PORT ARTHUR, June 26—(CP)—Phil Verreit, of Port Arthur is a good fisherman today. He caught a grey trout 33 inches long, weighing 18 pounds, in Lake Superior, Lion Lake, north of here. It took three-quarters of an hour to land it.

ONTARIO
DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS
"MOTOR VEHICLES BRANCH"

AN OPEN LETTER to the 13,060 motorists who killed or injured 8,733 men, women and children on the highways of Ontario last year

If you are one of those who know the rules of safe driving and obey them, thank you; this message is not for you.

If you are a driver who has helped to swell the total of deaths and injuries to the disgraceful figure shown above, take full note!

Because of your selfishness, your wilful neglect or thoughtlessness, or perhaps because you think you know better than anyone else how to drive a car and insist upon making your own rules, the lives of 502 citizens of Ontario were snuffed out in twelve months time. During the same period 8,231 were injured, scarred; some of these will never walk again. Among your victims were 853 children playing in the street.

Do you think this kind of driving is worth while? If you think you are entitled to a license to drive? If some of these victims had been your child, your brother, sister, father, mother, or even a friend, would you accept the excuse that the offender's brakes failed, that the pavement was slippery, that he failed to give a proper signal, or just took some kind of a chance or another? Could you find any excuse for him?

Driving a car brings more pleasure and convenience to more people than perhaps any other modern utility. The highways department knows this. No Province has been more thoughtful and generous in seeking to add to this pleasure and convenience. But you, the unsafe driver, are nullifying the effect of all that has been done. You are making every street and highway unsafe for both pedestrians and other drivers. You are a menace to the aged, the infirm and to little children.

To educate you in the rules, to appeal to your sense of fair play, to show you how your recklessness imperils your own life and property, has been the department's constant task. It has gone to great lengths, as well as that of others, this department has gone to great lengths, as well as that of others, this department has gone to great lengths, as well as that of others, this department

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

Mrs. J. B. Ryan spent the week-end in Toronto, a guest at the King Edward Hotel.

Mr. Bill Sherry of Brockville, spent the week end with friends in this city.

Miss Marie Huffman spent the week-end visiting friends in Toronto.

Mrs. N. D. Leitch, Drumheller, Alberta, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Ridley, has returned home.

Miss Mary Lee, who has been attending Peterborough Normal School is home for the holidays.

Miss Helen Gorman of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. (Capt.) P. M. Hefferman, Chatham street.

Mrs. H. L. Bryson, Bridge Street East, is spending a week at Presqu'ile Hotel, Presqu'ile.

Mr. Harvard McMullen of Sunderland, Ont., was a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMullen, on Sunday.

Mrs. Roy McGee of Stirling, underwent an operation at Belleville General Hospital, this morning, and her condition is favourable.

Mr. Grier Roberts, who has just completed a business trip through Quebec and the Maritimes is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. Roberts, George Street.

Mr. James Cummins of Chicago, an old Belleville boy is holidaying in the city.

Miss Beatrice Sagles of Trenton, was a guest, Sunday, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. McMullen.

Miss Marjorie Shaurin of Toronto, was a week-end visitor with friends in Belleville.

Mr. H. E. Fairfield, a member of the executive of the Ontario Municipal Police Association, and Mrs. Fairfield, have returned from Windsor, where Mr. Fairfield attended the Convention last week.

Mr. Art Linn of Toronto, was a welcomed guest in the city, Saturday last. Mr. Linn enlisted with the 155th Battalion here and served in France with the 21st Battalion, Eastern Ontario Regiment.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Denton, Mrs. L. Bonisteel, Mrs. J. Reynolds and Mr. S. O. Lott motored to Ottawa, Yesterday owing to the very sudden death of the late Mrs. Mason Thorpe.

Mrs. Percy Coutts and children of Toronto, are the guests of her sister, Miss Aletha Parry, R. 5, Trenton and is now the guest of her mother, Mrs. George Mabee, Wellman's Corners.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Harvey Hogle to honour Miss Ruth Hogle, a bride-elect on Tuesday, Mrs. Hogle was presented with a beautiful Kenwood blanket and although taken by surprise thanked her friends in a

"I WON 1st PRIZE
Last Fall for Jam made with Certo" records another expert jam and jelly maker

"—In Certo-made jams the colour of every kind of berry stays brighter; taste is better than you can get with long-boiling."
Miss Alice Stapley,
A Belleville, Ont., jam and jelly champion.

"Also," adds Miss Stapley, "I find that when making tarts, Certo-made jam or jelly neither melts nor runs to juice with the heat of the oven as other jams do, making the tart shells sticky and unsightly."

Important, convincing testimony—this—as to the merits of Certo in all jam and jelly making. Prove the value of Certo for yourself. You'll be delighted with results if you follow carefully the recipes found in the booklet under the label on every Certo bottle.

Let us solve your jam or jelly making problems. Should you desire any information whatsoever, write to the Consumer Service Department, General Foods, Ltd., Cobourg, Ontario.

CERTO
—Is fruit pectin.
—The natural jellying substance extracted from fruit.
—Tells the juice that would have boiled away by the old (long-boil) method.
—Makes 50% more jam or jelly at less cost per jar.
—Saves ½ the time. Saves the fruit flavour.
—Permits the use of any fruit—fresh, canned or dried—or fruit juice.

CERTO
MADE IN CANADA
52-33

gracious manner for their kindness. A dainty lunch was served, the guests dispersing at midnight, offering Mrs. Hogle best wishes for the coming year.

Mrs. Graham of Brockville, spent the week end in the city with her son, Rev. Gerald Graham. Mr. Graham conducted evensong in St. Thomas' Church yesterday.

Mr. Tim Sullivan of this city receive the sad news this week end of the death in Toronto of his cousin Mrs. William Beulonge. The late Mrs. Beulonge was formerly Miss Mary Sullivan, a native of Belleville.

Rev. G. G. Wright, rector of Christ Church, Mrs. Wright and family will leave on Wednesday to spend the month of July at their summer home on an island at Newboro Lake, which is part of the Rideau chain of lakes.

Mr. Dave Ketcheson, Peterboro, district agent of the Negih Amerikea Life Assurance Co., was in the city for the week end visiting his sister, Miss Nettie Ketcheson, Albert street. Mrs. Ketcheson, accompanied her husband on his visit.

Ideal June weather made the garden party at the summer home of Mrs. W. McCreary, Roxmore, a splendid success on Saturday afternoon when the Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church entertained. The guests were received by Mrs. McCreary, Mrs. J. A. Seymour and Mrs. Gillen. Tea was poured by Mrs. Parry and Mrs. McLean while those who assisted in the serving were: Mrs. McKeown, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Argue, Miss Jessie May, Mrs. Goudy and Mrs. Johnson. The ice cream and strawberry booth was in charge of Mrs. Nayler, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Sharpe.

Miss Dorothy Horie was a tea hostess, Saturday afternoon at her residence, 152 Charles street, for her sister, Miss Grace Horie, who is to marry Mr. Robert Wilson of Stratford, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, of Toronto. The hostess received in a yellow embroidered crepe gown and the bride-elect wore a French gown of pale blue silk, embroidered in blue and pink. The tea table was covered with a lace banquet cloth, centred with a bowl of pink roses and pink candles. Mrs. W. B. Huchinson, Montreal, Que., and Mrs. W. J. Seymour poured tea. Mrs. T. C. Hudson, Toronto, cut the loaf and those assisting were Mrs. Bern. and Rachel Mrs. Fay Masters, Miss Reta Stevens, Miss Lelia Robinson, Miss Daisy Young and Miss Mabel Gillespie.

Weddings

FREE—RAY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ray, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Saturday, June 24th, when their eldest daughter, Helen Zada, became the bride of Mr. Elwood Free, son of Mrs. Free and the late R. H. Free, of Meaford, Ontario. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Plant at high noon, and an interesting coincidence was the fact that the day was also the silver wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. The marriage took place under a beautiful arch of pink and white, against a background of ferns, daisies and fragrant wild roses. The bride who was given in marriage by her father was attired in a lovely gown of white organdy and wore a wreath of pink blossoms. Her bouquet was of deep pink Premier roses and baby's breath.

Miss Margaret E. Ludlow was bridesmaid and wore a charming frock of pale blue organdy. She carried pink carnations.

Mr. Philip C. Ray, brother of the bride was groomsman.

The wedding march was played by Miss Margaret J. Mitchell and during the signing of the register Miss Mitchell sang "Because" very sweetly.

After the ceremony a dainty buffet lunch was served, the bride's table being decorated with pink and white roses.

Amid good wishes and showers of confetti the happy couple left for a short honeymoon, travelling east. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

To be able to laugh at oneself gives some right to laugh at others.

Wholesale commodity prices in Belgium are higher than last year.

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleaning. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Soiled and stained summer finery here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
152 Front St. Phone 729
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go.
Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth it's cost.
Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.

J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 518 324 FRONT ST.

Buya a Cradle

Bing Crosby, radio crooner, and his pretty wife, Dixie Lee, above stage and screen actress, have purchased a cradle for their home in Hollywood. They're expecting a visit from the stork.

ATTEND FIRST L. A. CONVENTION

Massassaga— Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Flower, "nee Miss Kathleen Bell" whose marriage took place on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Osborne called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Elson, Carrdenville on Sunday.

Quite a few attended Ladies' Aid Convention in Belleville on Thursday.

Haying and picking strawberries is the order of the day.

The rain on Wednesday did wonders to the garden and field crop. They, early peas, and pasture seemed to be the hardest hit by the dry weather.

Mr. Clarence Thompson has started a new meat route. All wish him success.

The results of the break-up of the Ottoman Empire are among many remarkable results of the recent political consequences of the war.

Correct Manners

Candles at the Table

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:
1. A friend and I have been discussing candles on a luncheon table. She claims they are decorative only, at luncheon. To me it seems absurd to have them on the table at all in that case. I understand the law on the table the more attractive it is.

2. High candlesticks are necessary for a dinner table, are they not?

2. Also, when are tapers and candles used?

hio etaoin ldetcrin etaoin

Thank You.

1. Candles should not be used on luncheon tables unless they are needed....that is, unless the dining-room is so dark in the daytime that light is necessary on the luncheon-table, or unless the dining-room is darkened. If the dining-room is "blessed by light of day" we should capitalize this light, and not add artificial light on our luncheon table.

The tendency nowadays, as you say, is distinctly toward simplicity, toward having very few decorations on our tables, only those that are needed. The luncheon table with a lovely centerpiece and with a compott placed on each side of this centerpiece is sufficiently decorated as to "central decoration."

2. In a strict sense the height of our candlesticks indicates the degree of formality of the dinner. That is, the "strictly formal" dining table is lighted with candles in tall candlesticks or candelabra. Informal tables may use either candlesticks or candelabra, or short candlesticks.

The medium height candelabra is very popular today, holders that carry either two or three candles. They add great charm to the table-decoration, and at the moment seem to be more appealing to hostess than the individual candlesticks. They come in silver, sterling and plate in glass, in interesting pottery, and in metals like brass and copper.

3. While typically a taper is a small wax candle, the term is used today for any kind of candle that "tapers" from the thick part that fits into the candlestick to the point where the candle is lighted. Some people prefer the tapering candle and some prefer the straight candle. Personally I think that the straight candle is much more lovely and effective. But it is entirely a matter of choice.

Drinking Coffee

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:
1. My friend insists that it is correct to test the heat of coffee by using a spoon, but I think it looks very awkward.

Will you please tell me which is correct?

2. Also, is this letter-paper correct for personal correspondence?

1. Your friend is right. The coffee is stirred once or twice with the spoon, and then the heat is tested by taking a sip with the spoon.

2. Yes, your letter paper is proper for social correspondence.

Wedding Plans

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:
I am a young widow and I am going to be married next month. Here is the question:

Is it proper to have my stepfather to attend at my wedding? Many people say that it is not correct and some say that it is. That is it is, so I am coming to you. It is going to be a church wedding at four o'clock in the afternoon.

T.

If you wish to have your stepfather present you in marriage, it is quite the proper thing for you to do. This is entirely a question of your own choice, your own discretion. I judge from your letter that you and your stepfather are congenial, and that you would like to have him give you in marriage. If there are no family complications, by all means do it.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

SUNBURN?
End pain instantly as Beech Hospitals do

In his 28 years of service, John McMaster, Toronto, has had 83 life-guards—"but nothing equal to Noxzema for relieving sunburn instantly and quickly."

Other big beaches say the very same. They, too, have adopted Noxzema as official sunburn remedy after testing it on their worst cases. If you are sunburned and want surprised, get Noxzema—end pain instantly. Greasiness—won't ooze, clog pores or blacken. At all drug and department stores. Get a jar today.

A CANADIAN-MADE PRODUCT
NOXZEMA
10,000,000 JARS USED LAST YEAR

FOR A CLEAR COMPLEXION

● Internal cleanliness and a healthy system are the foundations of a clear complexion!

YEAST FLAKES helps clear up skin troubles and sallow complexions, because it is a natural laxative that helps rid the body of poisons, and because it supplies the system with vitamins necessary to health!

Its regular use will help you feel well and look well. Rich in vitamins, because it is pure brewers' yeast, dried and flaked—the richest form of yeast. At grocers' and druggists'.

NB YEAST FLAKES
SPECIAL PURE CULTURE
DRIED AND FLAKED
CONCENTRATED BREWERS' YEAST
THE NATIONAL BREWERIES LIMITED, MONTREAL
Sales Agents: Harold F. Ritchie & Co. Ltd., 10-12 McCaul St., Toronto

Beauty .... By Helen Jameson

For a woman this world is a much better place than it was in the past. Fifty years ago, paint and powder were social offences. It was believed that if Mary Jane was cursed with a growth of freckers on her chin, there it should remain though her heart might break.

Thirty years ago women started out with enthusiasm to cure their beauty ills. There were hairdressing "parlors", no beauty shops. It was fashionable to "daub" before the dresser will assure you—that when you see the older girls caught facial treatments they were veils, fearing a neighbor might spot them, be aware of their frivolous ambitions.

A look of waiter has run under the beauty bridge since then. Now a policy of prevention is in order. Don't get wrinkles, then you won't have to fight them. Take care of your hair and you won't be obliged to resort to the kind that comes off and is hidden in the dresser drawer. It may be deplorable that very young girls use rouge and lipstick, but the fact that they are faithful to cleansing creams and keep their face or in the coming years.

The war against beauty ills has been victorious. Coming generations will be born with better looks. Hooray for that.

Beauty writers have harped on the subject of keeping up to standard health and, miraculously enough, suggestions have made it.

What is the formula for luxurious beauty? Time's etchings? Time's figure changes? It's a long one, but be patient. We'll outline a schedule which should be kept in every woman's mind. It's well worth while to stick to it, not only because it brings beauty in conform or another, but because it creates vitality, courage, a sense of well being.

Remember this; there's no such thing as an appearance of radiance unless you feel that way. A whole compact of rouge on a wear, depressed countenance won't pep it up a bit. One must feel beautiful.

Get plenty of sleep. Have some sort of play period every day.

Drink in fresh air, out of doors, for one hour, more if you have time to spare. Get some form of exercise. Take a bath every day, and find refreshment in the long soaking. Drink six glasses of water.

Don't drive yourself. If you have a cook go to bed. Don't keep late hours. In due course of time, that habit will make you pay plenty.

Sidestep depressing acquaintances, don't have them around. The person who kills your good spirits is no friend. Practice mental hygiene. If you feel blue, talk yourself out of it; it can be done.

Keep in mind that mere things don't make for happiness—those luxuries that cost money. Happiness is being contented with what you have. Work. Idle individuals are always tired, without ambition. Develop any talent that you may have got as a birthday gift. Live life splendidly. And beauty ills won't be able to catch up with you.

(Copyright, 1933, Kure Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Would Your Love Stand This Very Trying Test?

(By Beatrice Fairfax)
Famous Authority on Problems of Love and Marriage
(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

What do you think of an "understanding" like this? Would your love be strong enough to stand such a test? Or would your pride get the better of your affection, and would you refuse to submit to the arrangement as Katie is confidently?

Katie writes me a long letter—too long to print—and says it's a matter with which somebody and wonders if any of my readers have had a similar experience.

When she was 22—and, I'm sure, very pretty, judging from what I see in her—she was thrown with the Young Boss on his family line. He had been his father's secretary for two years when ill health sent the old gentleman to the south of France.

It seems the Young Boss was rather handsome, very considerate, and Katie, who was used to the family's kitten, helped him considerably. Then he discovered how really charming she was, and they became engaged.

When the Old Boss returned Katie naturally expected something to be said about the engagement; but two years went by and nothing had been said yet. The old gentleman's manner has never changed from that of employer to a valued employee. He's very in utterly sick of all this mystery. When I go out with him we meet all sorts of interesting people. I arrive first, then he comes along in his car. He always selects some place where we're not likely to meet any one we know.

"With the exception of his father, I've never met any of his family. It's like me the time hasn't come yet for him to speak of our engagement. Sometimes I wonder if it will ever come. He is not interested in any other girl at present, and when we are together he is devoted.

"Is this young man has any valid reasons for all this mystery concerning his engagement to a creditable girl he should at least give them to her. Two years is a long time, as I said, to be measured, and Katie has been very patient.

Apparently she is the only girl in his life at present. Was there someone else before he met her; someone he doesn't want to offend? He isn't free to offend! There seems to be some suspicion to that effect dawning in the girl's mind. Katie is an age of information, and Mrs. Grundy, with her creaking, starched petticoats, has gone to join her Puritanical foremothers. But something called deference is still due in the attitude of a man toward his fiancee, and having her upon him at a suburban station, because he doesn't wish to be seen with her, is not showing very great merit.

It seems to me the time has come for a complete understanding, and that any girl would be within her rights in asking for it. I think the Young Boss should put his cards on the table. What do you think about it?

ALBERT BURDONT in "Letting in the Sunshine" Coming to Capitol Theatre Wednesday.

SERVE DINNER TO DELEGATES AT W. I. MEETING

PLAINFIELD—Rev. E. Caffey, Mrs. Caffey and daughter Joan, spent the dinner hour on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton.

The District Convention of the W. Institute, was held in Plainfield on Wednesday. The ladies set tables in the Hall and a lovely dinner was prepared and enjoyed. There was a good attendance. Mr. Putman, Mr. Wilson and Miss Jones were speakers for the afternoon session.

The first Ladies' Aid Convention was held in Belleville and Rev. E. Caffey and Mrs. Caffey, Mrs. J. W. Hamilton and Mrs. M. Thompson attended it Tuesday.

Several iron hens attended the funeral of Mr. Tom Leslie's son.

HANGED FOR MURDER

Bellefonte, Pa., June 26 (CP) — Convicted of slaying his 18 year old stepson because the lad wanted to go to town one Saturday, John Kurbutz, 48, a former of Lower Bairdson, Pa., near Easton paid with his life in the electric chair today.

Maori warriors tatoo their faces to mask any expression of fear.

Between programs radio artists seek the coveted cost of tan on the roof of the broadcasting studio skyscraper. Hi Here I we find pretty Gypsy Nina, well-known songstress, taking an hour off for a sun bath.

GreenMeal

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

New York Market Steady And Slightly Higher —Senior Gold Issues Irregular at First Closed Unchanged to Slightly Higher—Walkers Reaches New All Time High of 36½ in Heavy Trading.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL

New York, June 26 (AP)— Rising grain prices furnished a new impetus for the stock market today and various commodity and industrial groups pushed forward for advances of 1 to 4 points or more. The late trade was strong. Case and National Distillers rose 6 and 7 points respectively while issues up more than 2 included American Telephone, Dupont, Columbia Carbon, United States Industrial Alcohol, American Can, Allied Chemical and American Tobacco B. United States Steel and Standard Oil of New Jersey firmed more than a point each. Transfers approximated 4,600,000 shares.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, June 26 (CP)—A group movement which has not been signalled here since the 1929 boom days carried distillery issues to new help on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Talk of consolidation of the distilleries and growing hopes of a good United States market for liquor caused the exceptional activity.

Walkers, active leader in the morning was bid on overnight orders to a new all-time high of 36½ and Distillers Seagram took over the leadership of the afternoon to cross the $20 mark on the comparatively wide 141% of sales on Saturday.

The distrilled group, while less active than usual, showed consistent strength, following New York in that respect, 4 in the group Can. Pacific Consolidated Smelting Ford of Canada "A" and International Nickel, scored gains.

Massey Harris and Cockshutt Plow ran up to new highs in line with strong wheat prices.

Regardless of whether or not a consolidation of distilling interests is accomplished, traders looked to the United States liquor situation as a bullish factor. A highly profitable market there appeared in the offing for stocks of matured spirits held by Canadian companies who would be in on the ground floor with the departure of prohibition. It would be some time, it was felt, before American companies would have their products ready.

While distilling stocks completely overshadowed the market, strength predominated in the entire group. Massey-Harris headed the steel and allied section in activity with a small gain and Cockshutt Plow followed suit, chiefly in line with higher grain prices. Interlisted issues were steady to a shade stronger.

TORONTO MINES

TORONTO, June 26.—(CP)—Senior Gold issues, irregular throughout the session, firmed near the close today on the Standard Mining Exchange, closing unchanged to slightly higher. Lake Shore, Hollinger and Wright Hargreaves led the advance which was in line with a better movement on Wall Street. Kirkland held a small gain, while McIntyre Porcupine was heavy.

Bobjo surrendered much of its gain on a last hour wave of profit-taking which brought the price down to 23 from a top of 23. It still showed a gain of 1-3 on the day. Silver issues were not prominent. Mining Corporation and others in the group being about unchanged.

Nickel led the Base Metals in slightly higher demand. Trends followed suit with a 20 cent advance.

Howey, after touching $1 lost its gain to close off two cents. Preside showed a minor loss.

Volume of trading was light compared with the closing days of last week and prices generally were shaded. Much of the interest was concentrated on a few of the cheaper golds, with the senior golds moving more quietly than usually. Bobjo and Federal Kirkland were exceptionally active. Firmness in Base Metals and silver in the world's failed to excite traders who appeared to be awaiting developments.

WALL ST. CLOSE

New York, June 26—(AP)—Rising grain prices furnished a new impetus for the stock market today and various commodity and industrial groups pushed forward for advances of 1 to 4 points or more. The late tone was strong. Case and National distillers rose 6 and 7 points respectively while issues of more than 2 included American Telephone, Dupont, Columbia Carbon, United States Industrial Alcohol, American Can, Allied Chemical and American Tobacco B. United States Steel and Standard Oil of New Jersey firmed more than a point each. Transfers approximated 4,600,000 shares.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, P. H. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley, hid 1.00.
Amulet, 34.
Arno, 03¼.
Barry Hollinger, bid 11¼.
Base Metals, bid 2.20.
Central Patricia, 31.
Dome, bid 23.50.
Eldorado, 2.58.
Falconbridge, 3.80.
Granada, 1.35.
Hollinger, 21.00.
Hudson's Bay, 9.00.
Howey, 76.
Kirkland Lake, 42.
Lake Shore, 41.50.
Macassa, bid 69.
McIntyre, bid 23.20.
Mining Corporation, bid 2.00.
McLeod River, bid 03¾.
Obaska, bid 2.65.
Noranda, 32.65.
Northern Ontario Pacific, 19.50.
N. C. Pioneer, 14.00.
Sherritt, 1.22.
Sisco, 1.34.
Stadacona, 04¼.
Sudbury Basin, bid 1.70.
Sylvanite, 1.30.
Wright Hargr., 2.40.
Vipond, bid 50.
Ventures, 1.11.
West Dome Con., 8.35.
Ajax, 1.14.
Big Missouri, bid 23.
Bobjo, 23¼.
Bralorne, 7.00.
Brownlee, 05.
Can. Kirk., bid 04½.
Castle Trethe., bid 51.
Central Manitoba, bid 12.
Coast Copper, bid 5.75.
Conlaurum, bid 62.
Dom. Explor., 07.
Goldale, 14½.
Kirk Townsite, bid 38.
Mahatic, bid 17.
Malrobic, 05.
Mandrill, Exch., 05¼.
Moffat Hall, bid 02½.
Mtge Mines, 08¼.
McVittie, 63.
McWatts, bid 88.
Premier, 1.22.
Reno, 2.43.
St. Anthony, bid 42.
S. Antonio, 1.06.
Waverly, bid 46.
Waite Ackerman, 1.30.
Breth. Treth., 21.
Wm. Kirk., 03½.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil, 21¼.
Imperial Oil, 13.
International Petr., 19¼.
Supertest, 19½.
Distill. Seagrams, 19¼.
Walkers, B, 36.
Walker's Pref., 16½.
Canadian Indust. Alcohol, B.
Canada Bud., 9¼.
Can. Breweries, 16.
Bell Telephone, 100½.
C.P.R., 18¼.
Canada Cement, 6¾.
Canada Malt., 28.
Goodwin's, 15½.
Dominion Stores, 22.
Ford "A", 13.
Smeltrs., 130.
Loblaw "A", 14.
Massey Harris, 8.
Page Hersey, 63.
Canada Wire, 22.
Brazilian, 15¾.

NEW YORK

American Can., 92¼.
Auburn, 65.
Am. Pow. Power, 16¾.
Anaconda, 16¾.
N. Y. Central, 40.
Case, 90.
Drug, Inc., 29.
Elec. Auto Lite, 23¼.
Gen. Cable, 12.
General Motors, 29½.
Inter. Telephone, 17¾.
Chrysler, 35½.
North American, 32½.
Montgomery Ward, 34½.
Radio, 10.
Standard Brands, 19.
Stewart Warner, 7¾.
American T. and T., 129½.
United Aircraft, 34¾.
Vanadium, 28.
Westinghouse, 47¼.
U. S. Steel, 58¾.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

Wheat— July 74 1-2; Oct. 77 1-8; Dec. 78 1-2.
Rye—July 62; Oct. 63 1-4; Dec. 67.
Barley—July 42 1-4; Oct. 44 3-4; Dec. 46 1-8.

MONEY BOX

Exchange rates at 3 p.m. (E.D.T.) today were:
Pound sterling in Montreal 4.67¼.
U. S. dollar in Montreal 1.10 11-16
Pound sterling in N.Y. 4.23.
Canadian dollar in N.Y. 90¾.

Proclamation
PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Owing to the fact that July 1st, observed as a Public Holiday throughout the Dominion, falls on Saturday, and, as the Merchants of the City have decided to close their places of business on Monday, July 3rd, I would respectfully request that all citizens observe Monday, July 3rd, as a Public Holiday, instead of Saturday, July 1st.

GEO. O. TICE, MAYOR

135, 26, 30

List Your Property For Sale or To-Let
With
Belleville Locators
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
'Phone 99 — House 'Phone 687

EASTERN ONTARIO CHEESE BOARDS

Perth, Ont., June 26—At the regular cheese board meeting Saturday there were 501 white and 226 colored cheese boarded, total 1,027. 201 white sold to Beckett. 10 5-16 and 226 colored sold to Beckett at 10 3-8 cents.

Belleville, Ont., June 26—At Saturday's regular cheese board meeting there were 164 colored cheese and 2,000 white cheese boarded. All sold at 10 13-16 cents.

Napanee, Ont., June 26—At the regular cheese board meeting Saturday afternoon there were 1,000 colored and 600 white, the offerings sold for ten and seven-eighths cents, usual buyers present.

Picton, Ont., June 26—Saturday's afternoon at the regular cheese board meeting there were 567 white cheese boarded. Sold at 10 7-8 cents. Buyers, Murphy, Cook and Ayers.

Cornwall, Ont., June 26—At Saturday's regular Cheese Board meeting there were 1,263 colored and 326 white cheese boarded, all sold at 10 1-2 cents.

CHEESE PRICES

TORONTO, June 26.—(CP)—The Toronto wholesale Cheese Market was steady today with dealers buying large, colored, parafined and government grade at 11 1-2c.

Wholesalers offered cheese to retailers at the following price:—new— large 12; twins 12 1-4c; Triplets 11 3-4c; Old—large 11 1-2; Twins 11 3-4c; Triplets 12c; Medium —Large 11 1-2; Twins 11 3-4c; Triplets 12c.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mr. Thos. H. Leslie and family desire to wish to thank most sincerely many friends and neighbours for kindness and sympathy shown in their recent sad bereavement, and to the members of Bethany choir, whose services were highly appreciated.

24-1i

TEAR GAS IS USED ON MOB

Quebec City Hall Scene of Disorders at Noon Monday

Quebec, June 26 (CP)—A mob of 60 men was milled about in the city council chamber at the city hall today, shouting for work or food for their families, grew so menacing when ordered out of the building following an interview by their spokesman with Mayor H. E. Lavigueur that assistant director of police A. S. Bigaouette, ordered a tear gas bomb tossed into their midst. The bomb proved effective and the crowd dispersed to a safe distance.

One man giving his name as E. Morin, exhorting his companions to join in a march to raid the wholesale firm of J. B. Renaud and Company, was taken into custody. He will be arraigned in recorder's court tomorrow on a charge of incendiary language having invited persons to commit an illegal act.

Mayor Lavigueur's explanation to the crowd that all possible despatch was being exercised in giving relief to needy families, was met with derisive jeers and cries of "we want food for our starving families."

The Mayor told the men that the city's public relief works program to the extent of $600,000 had been approved by the provincial government and had been forwarded to Ottawa for approval of labor, urging expedition as expected an early reply the Mayor said.

A detachment of municipal and motorcycle police cleared the area around the city hall, while another squad of officers were sent to protect the Renaud premises.

BAR SILVER

New York, June 26 (AP)—Bar silver steady, ¼ higher at 35¼.

APPEAL OVER $50,687 WON

Continued From Page One

son.

He detailed numerous other items of Miss Jackson's claim and said he had been advised by counsel that she had a number of bonds at the time of her husband's death which had disappeared subsequently without being credited to her account.

He said he would produce evidence to show bonds belonging to the elder Brown were in his son's hands at the time of his death and were not disclosed to the will when it was probated.

A. C. Makins, K.C., Stratford, appeared for the estate.

WINNIPEG EDMONTON JASPER ROCKY MOUNTAINS PACIFIC COAST CALASKA

BY THE CONTINENTAL
LIMITED

Leaves TORONTO Daily at 11.40 p.m. (E.S.T.)

The scenic route to Vancouver and Victoria is the route of the Continental Limited, famous transcontinental flyer. Glorious Canadian beauty unfolds smoothly before your eyes—Northern Ontario—the rolling Prairies—the Majestic Rockies. Enjoy the comfort of de-luxe travel equipment. Convenient connections for California and Alaska.

Belleville to Jasper $86.55 Round Trip. Reduced rates at Jasper Park Lodge for advance prepaid reservations.

JASPER GOLF WEEK, SEPT. 3rd to 9th. 7-29

CANADIAN NATIONAL

Baby Keeler, George Brent and Bebe Daniels in "42ND STREET", re turning to the Belle tomorrow.

FUNERAL NOTICE

Members of Mizpah and Belleville Lodges, I.O.O.F., are requested to meet at their Lodge Rooms, Tuesday, June 27th., at 1:45 p.m. for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late Bro. Percy V. Spafford.

H. R. Flagler, N.G.
F. C. Fairman, Recording Secretary.

136-1i

DEATHS

SPAFFORD—On Sunday, June 25, 1933, Frank Vandervoort Spafford in his 56th year.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, 196 West Moira Street., on Tuesday, June 27th, 1933, Services at the home at 2.30 p.m. Interment Belleville Cemetery.

136-1i

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
218-220 Front St.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2065
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 716—Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkston
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 67 — 228 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 1313

MONUMENTS
A. E. Campbell
Successor to
Campbell & Deacon
41 Bridge Street East, Belleville

Wills in Toronto why not live in your home? Call
CARLETON PARK HOTEL
1, 2 and 3-room apartments, with bath, silver, china, linen, etc., supplied. Dining room service. Daily and weekly rates on request.
121 CARLTON ST., WATERLEY 7135

116-m-17.

If There's Anything You Want Sold, We'll Move It!
QUICKLY and CAREFULLY
CALL 1140
J. H. HANNA
Experts in Local Moving
13 BALDWIN

Classified Ad. Rates
PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, 1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Memorian Poetry, minimum charge, $1.00 for 10 lines over that 10c per count line; Lodge and Society announcements, minimum charge, $1.00.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1c per word, minimum for first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions 1c per word, minimum 20 words

COMING EVENTS—15c per insertion for 25 words or less; over that 1c per word per insertion.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS, $1 a month

BUSINESS CARDS—(Yearly Contract) $25 per month.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT NOTICES (including those concerning Land Sales) — 10c per line for first insertion, 5c per line for second insertion, 3c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALE—$2 per insertion, up to count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for 75c; consecutive insertions, 3c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ads when it is more convenient for you to do so. The Intelligencer is responsible for but one incorrect insertion of an Advertisement, and then only for as much space as it fills in error.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

Wanted

Financial backing to stake and develop a gold find in the Little Long Lac—Beardmore Area.

Address:
J. H. JOHNSTON
Box 1, Postal Station "A"
Port Arthur, Ont.

WANTED

GIRL EXPERIENCED IN PRESSING silk dresses. Apply Model Cleaners and Dyers, 316 Front street.

EXPERIENCED HOUSEMAID where cook is kept. Apply Mrs. J. A. Faulkner, 101 Bridge E., Bay. 'Phone 1895. 126-3t

NOW HEAT MUST BE IN GOOD condition. Reasonable price. State where and when can be seen. Box B, Ontario Intelligencer. 126-1t

TO BUY OR RENT, INVALID wheel chair. Apply W. J. Hall, 208 George street, 'phone 3684. 126-1t

POSITION BY WOMAN 130 EXperienced in all kinds of house-keeping and care of children. Apply Box 72, Ontario Intelligencer. 126-3t

EXPERIENCED SINGLE MAN TO work on farm, prefer one that can drive a car. W. Ashby, Wooler. 126-1t

EXPERIENCED TEACHER, PROfessional, for school section No. 3 Thurlow. Duties commencing and salary. J. O. Green, Harold R.R.1. 124-2t.

FOR JULY 21ST, GOOD COOK general. Apply with references to Box 49, Napanee. 122-3t

ALSKIE CLOVER, GOOD HAY, for a limited quantity, at reasonable cash price, for export. C. E. Bishop & Son, Deseronto, Ont. 123-3t.

MAN OR WOMAN TO HANDLE a line of fast moving, low priced household essentials, protected territory now open. Commissions. Drug Sales Co., London, Ontario. 123-3t

TO-LET

CHEAP RENTAL FIVE ROOM House with newly decorated, Hardwood floors. Centrally located Phone 788W. 126-1t

APARTMENT, HOT WATER heated. Hardwood floors. Private place 4 or 5 rooms. 3-piece bath. Apply 213 George street. 126-1t

FURNISHED COTTAGE BY WEEK or month of July, 3 miles from city. Reasonable rent. 123-3t

FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED room for rent. Phone 1697-J. 126-2t

22 EARL ST., 6 ROOMS AND bath. Garage. Possession July 1st. Apply 30 Howard St. 124-3t

SUMMER COTTAGE ALONG BAY Shore, 4½ miles from Belleville. Apply evenings to Mrs. Stanley Wellanks, Redmerville.. 124-2t.

SEVERAL TWO OR THREE room apartments. Rent reasonable. Apply at Artistic Ladies' Wear. 123-tf.

FURNISHED FIVE ROOM COTtage at Jones Cove for including boat. Rent for season or month. 122-2t. Phone 2220W.

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences 12 Albion St. or call 3061. m26-1t.

MODERN APARTMENT, STEAM heated, electric refrigerator and stove, hardwood floors. Apply to Ontario Intelligencer. m11-tf

4 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT. Every convenience. Immediate possession. Apply Geo Deline, Front St., Phone 1879. 125-tf.

1 ROOM AVAILABLY HEATED or otherwise. Electric stove, electric refrigerator, hardwood floor Garage. Apply D. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. W. Phone 889W a25-1t.

2 LOWER APARTMENTS, CONsolidated, Dundas Garage, newly decorated. Apply 172 W. Moira. a22-6w.

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, EAVESTROUGHING
General Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1572 j2-1m.

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLicitor, Notary Public, etc. 13 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-tf.

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public. Solicitors for Royal Trust Co. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott, Offices: 218 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PORTON, PORTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners. Offices: 39 Bridge Street East, Belleville. Bank of Montreal Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. D. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham, Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, Front Street and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 10 Bridge Street E. E. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

R. D. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, PH.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiostat reveals all disease in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Drugless methods. 332 Front St., Belleville. Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S. DR. R. CHARLES ADAMS, M.Sc.
Westinghouse X-Ray Equipment at office
Office Hours:
9 to 10 a.m. 1 to 3 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle St., Belleville
Phone 271 o6-6m.

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1955
A. L. BOWERS, D.O
OSTEOPATH
11 Ferris St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. P. H. Wills, Branch Manager. n5-1y.

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE 5—R. 3. O. BOX 60 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1364 177 Front St.

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
177 Front St.
Phone 1364 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
211 Front St. Phone 126

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
276 Front Street Phone 1154W

Livestock

Toronto, June 26—(CP)—Active trading on the Toronto livestock market was slow today, with most enough cattle included to establish prices. Prices on lambs opened 50c per cwt lower than last week's closing level, while other prices remained about steady. Cattle trade was slow calves firm; hogs unsettled; lambs easier; hogs slow.

Receipts were: Cattle and calves 480; hogs 1240; sheep and lambs 2420.

The cattle feeling was easier with slender and great rolls declining the bulk of the supply.

Veal calves opened at $6.50 to $6.00 for choice with common downward to $3.00. A few grass calves brought $2.50 per cwt.

No hog sales were made up to 11.00 a.m. with packers bidding $5.40 F.O.B. for bacons.

Lambs opened 50c per cwt lower selling at $8.50 for choice and at $8.00 to $3.50 per cwt for culls. Sheep were slow with very few early sales.

OUTLOOK UPON WHEAT BETTER

London, June 26—(CP AP Cable) —Further discussions between Australian delegates and those of other large wheat-exporting countries were described tonight as markedly brightening the prospects for agreement on control of wheat production. This came after the outlook had seemed very dark. Australian adherence to a plan for production restrictions, urged by Canada and the United States, was regarded as hopeless several months ago.

Yesterday, however, Australia seemed impossible for a time until Stanley Bruce of Australia and Henry Morgenthau of the United States held a new parley. As a result it was felt a formula to which Australia can adhere would be evolved.

Frederick E. Murphy of Minneapolis, representing the Americans, said he was sure Australia will assist us, failure to agree would result in unbridled competition and I am confidant of ultimate success."

BACKYARD CHASE LEADS TO PRISON

Hamilton, Ont., June 26 (CP) — Vivian King, no fixed address, was sentenced to nine months determinate and two years indeterminate in Criminal Recorder today when deputy magistrate James McKay found him guilty of house-breaking.

King was arrested by Constable William Friday after a spirited chase over fences and through Ontario avenue and back yards. He was seen entering an unfurnished house of Kenneth Boverbank, a neighbor.

FACTORL TO CLOSE TO PREVENT STRIKE

Hamilton, Ont., June 26 (CP)— Faced with a strike of more than 500 employees protesting reduction of a new system in their plant, Armstrong Mills, Ltd., today announced they would close their factory for an indefinite period.

The employees, an announcement said, would be paid off tomorrow. Meanwhile stock-taking will proceed.

Spying on Sports

BY

William Ritt

Central Press Canadian

PAST PERFORMANCES and present appearances are the team of horses which does the fight prognosticator in his decision. It's swell when past performance and present appearance are the same, for then the ring prophet then finds his job an easy one.

However, when past performances and present appearances point in opposite directions—pity the prognosticator! He has a great chance to look foolish and often does.

All of which has us down to the third paragraph and the gist of this sermon—which is that past performance and present appearances do not click when one considers the possibilities of the Jack Sharkey-Primo Carnera heavyweight championship bout.

It's all Sharkey on past performance. But, Primo has the edge in present appearances.

x x x

TO JUDGE the chances of victory for each man the first Sharkey-Carnera fight should not be taken into consideration. Jack won fairly easily over Carnera a couple of years ago. But things have happened to both men since.

In 1931 Sharkey was a desperate, angry man fighting for a chance to revenge himself. He felt that he had gotten the short end of it when Max Schmeling was awarded the title on a foul in their first meeting. Sharkey, therefore, had a goal ahead of him when he met Primo, and to reach it he had to smack the giant out of his path.

Primo, in the Sharkey fight, had been fed a lot of easy marks, meeting good ones only on rare occasions. He was still an awkward, unlearned gladiator.

Since then Sharkey has satisfied his thirst for vengeance and established his claim to championship. Carnera, in the interim, has met and learned a good deal about boxing and has improved as he went along.

x x x

BOTH MEN have looked good in training. Primo, especially, has shown amazing speed and endurance in his practice bouts. And he has learned a lot about boxing. At one time he was below his normal fighting weight. Sharkey has been slapping it out with sparring partners who have been about his own size and speed in ability. He has also uncovered a right-hand punch that he hasn't shown before.

Some of those who have watched the champion train from the time he reached camp think Jack has slowed up somewhat. Sharkey has always been amiable during his sojourn in camp and in the past has sharkey in the pink of perfect fight condition was usually a short-tempered, grouchy Sharkey.

To Prima the night of June 29 is the crisis of his life. He must win this one or else—

x x x

SHARKEY WANTS very much to win his fight with Carnera—if for no other reason than that it would be a grand climax to his career to be the one who tumbled the Italian giant who rose from the status of a foreign freak to the biggest hypocrite menace" in the business.

Sharkey wants to win—but that win isn't as vital a necessity as were his victories over Schmeling, Walker and Carnera, his last three tiffs.

So—don't be too surprised if pugilism's one-time circus freak, the clumsy colossus from the bogs of "Satchel Pete" and "Man Mountain" Primo Carnera, in person, becomes the new heavyweight champion of the world.

Yesterdays Stars

Carl Reynolds, Browns, batted in six runs in double victory over Red Sox.

Hal Schumacher and Fred Fitzsimmons, Giants, held Cincinnati to 13 hits in two games.

Ossie Bluege, Senators, rapped Cleveland pitching for five hits.

Bill Jurges, Cubs, hit home run, double and two singles in first game against Braves.

Charlie Fischer, Tigers, and Russell Van Atta, Yankees, pitched brilliantly to enable teams to divide double header.

Jimmy Jordan, Dodgers, rapped two hits in each game against Pirates.

Jimmy Dykes, White Sox, and Jimmy Foxx, Athletics, homer drove in winning run in opener, latter won second game with 16th homer.

SEVEN DAYS WITHOUT COURT

WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 26.—(CP)—Dust is settling on the dockets at the Police Court here. Today for the seventh consecutive time the docket is blank.

ADDITIONAL SPORT, PAGE 10

THE BEACHES ARE CALLING
Come in and see the newest styles in Jantzen and Kling-Ite Bathing Suits.
CHAS. J. SYMONS
106 Front St. Phone 53

Ernie Holmes Holds Old Team Mates in Check Winning Re-Play of Tie Game with Petes

Score 6-2 And Nats Look Better on The Day's Play

JINX BROKEN

"Peeney" Mills Directs Team From Players' Bench

After two previous unsuccessful sojourns on the mound against his ex-team mates Ernie Holmes realized his ambition when he turned back the Peterboro seniors on Saturday afternoon in Peterboro and the Belleville Nationals broke into the winning column in the O.B.L. after shelling Russ Kitchen from the box and winning by the score of 6 to 2 in a re-play game following last Wednesday's 7 to 7 tie in Belleville.

With a fast breaking drop and a curve ball that worked perfectly, Holmes literally mowed down Knotty Lee's batsmen before him like chaff before the wind. Manager Mills again shifted his team about to experiment with the result that the locals clicked in perfect style and looked far superior on the day's play. "Sonny" Green was again elected to catch the slants of Holmes and well did the Point Anne lad fill the shoes of Manager Mills, who retired from active service to direct activities from the bench. Alex Weir was moved into the shortstop berth recelled himself at the keystone sack. The only other addition of importance was the appearance of Ed. Matthews in right field. Besides playing perfect ball in the outer garden, Matthews connected for a single that counted two runs and later added to his prestige by laying down a perfect bunt to advance a runner. Ed Nattrass played a fine game behind opponents as well as outplayed them.

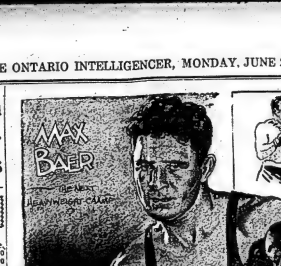
The game gave Nats a re-play of last Wednesday's, was the locals' turn this time to have assumed the vantage of having the ninth innings batting last, but it was unnecessary as the locals once again assumed the lead in the sixth took complete command then passed on to win in a walk. With one exception and that mistake did not eventually enter into the ultimate result, the Nationals played air-tight ball and after rallies or unfortunate endeavors in the past lived to dominate over the league leaders on their own home diamond.

Kitchen Chilled From Mound.

Coach Knotty Lee elected Russ Kitchen, the league's leading hurler, to stop the onslaught of Manager Mills. For the first half of the game Kitchen looked like but after the locals set up their barrage of attack it took but two innings to end Mr. Kitchen's sojourn on the mound and he retired in favor of "Spook" Scriver, despite the fact that Coach Lee had his entire roster on hand and used plenty of extra players to try and evade defeat Holmes was master of the day. Tommy Holyman, after serving a one-game suspension, returned to his position as third base coach on Saturday. Fully 1,200 Peterboro fans saw the Petes defeated on their home diamond in one of the best games played thus far in the O.B.L. season.

On Foley's long triple into centre field in the opening fram, the Petes notched the first counter. Two were out and Burton who had got a life on Chamber's error, was on second when Foley slammed out his long drive. Weir fed over to Scariett for the third out.

moved to second on Chamber's infield hit which Kitchen fumbled. Matthews batted. Barriage's relief went to third and Batten forced out Uzonski, in attempting to get Chamber's stealing third Whatley threw wild and Chambers scored. However, Barriage was caught off third by Kitchen to retire the side.



Placed in Hole.

Again in the fifth, Kitchen's wildness placed him in difficulties but Holmes fielded kept the Nats from the scoring column.

They were not to be denied in the sixth when Chambers walked to start it and went to second on Matthews' sacrifice Barriage raised a foul fly to the catcher Chambers made third to score on Holmes' single through second. Scariett hit for three bases into centre field scoring Holmes. Green singles and Scariett crossed the platter. Green went out going to second.

Again in the seventh the Nats made their fifth count. Weir walked and went to second on Smith's roller to Kitchen. Uzonski singled into centre, but on a perfect peg by Foley, Weir was out trying to score at the plate. Chambers singled to score Uzonski. Matthews singled scoring Chamber. Then Scriver replaced Kitchen and Barriage rolled to Ash to end the scoring of the day.

The Kingston Ponies are scheduled to play in Belleville on Wednesday afternoon.

That's Better

BELLEVILLE

	a.b.	r.	h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Scariett, lf.	2	1	1	3	0	0
Green, c.	4	0	1	6	0	0
Weir, 2b.	4	0	1	2	3	0
Smith, 1b.	4	0	1	9	0	0
Uzonski, cf.	4	0	1	1	0	0
Chamberr, ss.	2	2	1	1	1	0
Matthews, rf.	3	1	1	3	1	0
Barriage, 3b.	4	0	0	4	0	0
Holmes, p.	3	0	0	0	4	0
	29	6	9	27	12	1

PETERBORO

	a.b.	r.	h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Beavis, rf.	4	0	2	0	0	0
Burton, 1f.	3	0	0	2	0	0
Hollingsworth, 3b.	3	0	0	2	2	0
Foley, cf.	4	1	2	1	0	0
Ash, 1b.	4	0	1	8	0	0
Rose, 2b.	3	0	1	3	1	0
Batten, 3b.	4	0	1	1	3	0
Kitchen, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Scriver, p.	3	0	1	0	2	0
xxMacdonald	1	0	0	0	0	0
	32	2	7	24	10	4

xReplaced Kitchen in 7th.
xxBatted for Scriver in 9th.

Score by innings:
Belleville ..... 0 1 0 3 2 0 0 — 6 9 1
Peterboro .. 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 — 2 7 4

Summary

Stolen bases—Burton, Beavis, Foley, Matthews, Barriage, Chambers, Scariett, Green; two base hit, Whatley; three base hits, Scariett, Foley; sacrifice hits, Matthews, Chambers; bases on balls, Kitchen 4, Scriver 2, Holmes 3; struck out by Kitchen 1, Holmes 4, Scriver 4; wild pitch, Holmes 1; left on bases, Belleville 10, Peterboro 8; hit by pitcher, Kitchen (Green). Holmes (Beavis); earned runs, Belleville 6, Peterboro 2; hits off Kitchen, 8 in 6 2-3 innings; Scriver 0; runs off Kitchen 6 in 6 2-3 innings; Scriver 2; winning pitcher, Holmes; losing pitcher, Kitchen; time 2 hours; attendance 1,200; umpires, Hotrum, plate; Colling, bases.

The Peter increased their lead in the fourth when Foley opened with a single through short and pilfered second while Ash was being whiffed at the plate. Rose walked Batten's roller was taken by Weir. Then Whatley hit into the bushes in right field, Bath runners crossed the plate and Whatley made third on the blow but Rose was out when he failed to touch third base and only one run tallied.

The Nationals gained the score sheet for the first time in their half of the fourth, although Holmes's wildness had previously placed them in scoring position in both the first and third but the combined hits were not forthcoming. Uzonski opened Belleville's fourth with a single, and

TWO PLAYERS REACH 100 HITS FOR SEASON

New York, June 26 (CP)—Heinie Manush of the Washington Senators and Chuck Klein of the Phillies are the first major league batsmen to pass the 100-hit total this season.

Pullis collected six safeties Saturday to boost his total hits to 101, high for the National League. Manush contributed three hits yesterday to give him 100 for the American League lead in that department at 102.

GOLF FACTS

NOT THEORIES!

By Alex J. Morrison

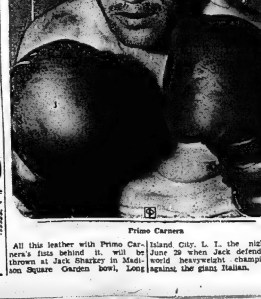
Putter should not be used from off the green

ALEX MORRISON says.

A reader asks: "How about an approach putt when the ball is just on the edge of the green?" That is, when the backstroke is necessarily low to ground, must I take the clubhead back into the tall grass?"

In the first place, a ball off the green is not, in my estimation, an approach putt. You probably call it such because you like to use a putter when you're a few feet off the putting surface.

It's a temptation. I'll admit, but you'll do better in the long run by using a No. 3 or No. 4 iron for those short shots, and with these clubs you have a more upright swing.



Next: Playing Rough Lie

THE BIG SIX

Norman Kies, Newark catcher, supplied the feature for the week-end's activities in the International League "big six" by pushing Grimsley Mulleavy, Bison shortstop, out of the circuit circle and occupying sixth place himself. Kies remained stationary at .341 but Mulleavy dropped two points to .339 to invite Kies to place among the league's leading hitters with a mark of .340.

The batting leaders:

	g.	h.	r.	h.	p.c.
Boone, Toronto ..	238	48	92	382
Solters, Baltimore	207	48	78	377
Clabaugh, Bal.	211	53	64	365
Thompson, Alb.	168	25	58	345
Dahlgren, Buffalo	213	59	73	340
Kies, Newark ...	122	18	45	341

Prince Carnera

All this leather with Prince Carnera's fists behind it, will be thrown at Jack Sharkey in Madison Square Garden bowl, Long Island City, L. I., the night of June 29 when Jack defends his heavyweight championship against the giant Italian.

Current Sport

Knocks and Boosts

Believe it or not fans the Belleville Nationals won a ball game. And it was no fluke either.

x x x

Performing like champions the crafty Nats out-played the league leading Petes in most every department. They fielded and batted the potential pennant contenders. The feature of the game was the work of Ernie Holmes, who hurled for the locals. After bowing to his ex-team mates twice before Holmes realized his life's ambition, when he hurled the Nats to victory over the club, that cut him loose last fall.

Holmes had everything, that a pitcher needs, speed control and a nice breaking curve. His drop ball, however, proved his best. On the other hand baseball is hard to understand. Belleville has elected Kitchen and Scriver from the hilltop right in Peterboro, while the two fall Look hurlers have had little trouble in downing the champion Petes, with both Scriver and Kitchen turning back the Ponies in succession.

x x x

Again Manager Mills retired to the bench in favor of "Sonny" Green, who incidentally handled the slants of Holmes like a veteran receiver. Green is hitting better since he assumed the roll of a receiver also. Some says that the "green screen" which he laid down in front of the Peterboro batters helped considerably. Jim Matthews appeared in a new role in right field. The smiling youth from the O. S. D. turned in almost a perfect box score having three outs and collected one hit out of two official times at bat. On his other two opportunities he plate he walked and later laid down a perfect bunt to sacrifice a runner to second.

x x x

As the locals stated after the game, it is a pleasure to play ball to Peterboro. Of course the fans take the locals for the well known "ride" occasionally but when the locals make a good play, they are applauded. At that the locals had as many supporters pulling for them as did the homesters, that is after Holmes settled himself towards a win. Ernie has a large following of faithful supporters in Peterboro yet

x x x

A marked contrast of the reception of a million dollars was shower between Friday's game at Kingston and Saturday's game in Peterboro. On Friday, as one car load of loco players drove through the gate in Kingston, one of the Ponies' officials jumped on the side of the car as they impatiently started to ask the locals but, strange as it may seem, their pals proved to be of a rather personal nature. Just what happened would not appear to be fit to print but when people have to get personal in their wise cracks it is well for all to keep feelings. Then after the game Manager Mills failed to collect the locals' guarantee of $33.90. The money was handed to him in an envelope. Upon opening it, however, the envelope was minus just $2.90. But, when they appeared at the gate in Peterboro, they were welcomed with open arms. Harry Dove, who represented the local executive, was told, that the gate would be checked at the end of the fifth innings. Everything went off as promised and the the locals were handed their share of the gate with an itemized statement of all expenditures. Following the game the Peterboro executive came to the locals' bench and congratulated them on the game and their win. Again we say "it's a pleasure to play a ball game in Peterboro."

x x x

The champion Ponies are scheduled to play in Belleville Wednesday. Perhaps old lady hard luck has relinquished her hold on the Nationals. Following the game Sunday, Manager Mills announced that he would start the identical same team against the Ponies, that appeared in Peterboro on Saturday. Incidentally Ares were in great evidence at second base. Art Scariett seems to be hitting the ball under control position in the batting averages, also, Roy Smith fell by the wayside Saturday and went hitless for the first time since opening day.

Bantam Ki-Y Softball Schedule

June 26th—
Blue Birds vs. Flying Canadians.
Bear Cats vs. Black Hawks.
Wild Cats vs. Camels.
Roaring Tigers vs. St. Michaels.
Rangers vs. Glanis.

June 28th—
Flying Canadians vs. Bear Cats.
Black Hawks vs. Blue Birds.
Camels vs. Roaring Tigers.
St. Michael's vs. Rangers.
Wild Cats vs. Glanis.

July 1st—
Blue Birds vs. Bear Cats.
Flying Canadians vs. Camels.
Wild Cats vs. Roaring Tigers.
Black Hawks vs. Rangers.
St. Michael's vs. Glanis.

July 5th—
Flying Canadians vs. Black Hawks.
Wild Cats vs. Blue Birds.
Roaring Tigers vs. Glanis.
Rangers vs. Bear Cats.
Camels vs. St. Michael's.

July 8th—
Rangers vs. Wild Cats.
Bear Cats vs. Camels.
St. Michael's vs. Blue Birds.
Glanis vs. Black Hawks.
Bear. Tigers vs. Flying Canadians

July 12th—
Black Hawks vs. Wild Cats.
Glanis vs. Camels.
Blue Birds vs. Rangers.
Flying Canadians vs. St. Michael's
Bear Cats vs. Roaring Tigers.

July 15th—
Blue Birds vs. Roaring Tigers.
Wild Cats vs. St. Michael's.
Flying Canadians vs. Rangers.
Glanis vs. Bear Cats.
Black Hawks vs. Camels.

July 19th—
Roaring Tigers vs. Black Hawks
Flying Canadians vs. Wild Cats.
Camels vs. Rangers.
St. Michael's vs. Bear Cats.
Blue Birds vs. Glanis.

July 22nd—
Wild Cats vs. Bear Cats.
Roaring Tigers vs. Rangers.
Black Hawks vs. St. Michael's.
Flying Canadians vs. Glanis.
Camels vs. Blue Bird.

Attention Captains and Managers of Teams

1. The manager of every team should make sure that he has his players' certificates with him at every game. These may be asked for by the manager of the team he is playing against.

2 Balls will be supplied for all games and umpires appointed by the league management.

3. All games to be of seven innings; the games to be played off if the daylight will allow for it in the umpire's judgement.

4. The captain of the team only may address the umpire during the play during the progress of the game.

LEAGUE LEADERS

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Davis, Phillies, .362; Klein, Phillies, .358.

Runs—Martin, Cardinals, 54; Bartell, Phillies, 45.

Runs Batted In—Klein, Phillies, 56; Bottomley, Reds, and Hartnett, Cubs, 44.

Hits—Puilis, Phillies, 101; Klein, Phillies, 96.

Doubles—Klein, Phillies, 23; Medwick, Cardinals, 21.

Triples—Martin, Cardinals, and Vaughan, Pirates, 8.

Home Runs—Klein, Phillies, and Berger, Braves, 13.

Stolen Bases—Pullis, Phillies, 10; Martin and Frisch, Cardinals, 9.

Pitching—Carleton, Cardinals, 10-3; Hallahan, Cardinals, and Cantwell, Braves, 9-3.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Simmons, White Sox, .366; Cronin, Senators, .362.

Runs—Gehrig, Yankees, 63; Manush, Senators, 56.

Runs Batted In—Gehrig, Yankees, 64; Simmons, White Sox, 60.

Hits—Manush, Senators, 102; Simmons, White Sox, 98.

Doubles—Cronin, Senators, 25; Burns, Browns, 22.

Triples—Combs, Yankees, 10; Manush, Senators, 8.

Home Runs—Gehrig, Yankees, 17; Ruth, Yankees and Foxx, Athletics, 16.

Stolen Bases—Walker, Tigers, 14; Chapman, Yankees, 11.

Pitching—Van Atta, Yankees, 6-2; Crowder, Senators, Grove, Athletics, Hildebrand, Indians, and Marberry, Tigers, 10-4.

For Summer Comfort

Cool, crisp broadcloth sport shirts that look like a million dollars on the Beach, Golf Course, Tennis Court or Dance Floor.

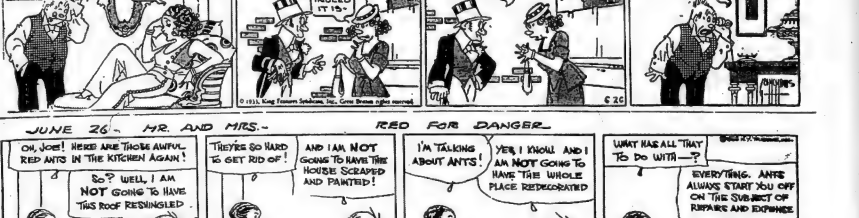
Better make certain your summer wardrobe boasts several.

QUICK AND ROBERTSON
CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

Jack Sharkey, top, and Primo Carnera

POPE COMPLETES ANCIENT RITE

Carrying out a rite which had not been fully completed since the fall of Rome in 1870, Pope Pius, on a throne carried by 12 attendants, encircles St. Peter's Square in the solemn Corpus Domini Holyday procession. The procession, colorful with uniforms of the renaissance and later eras, slowly followed the curve of the Vatican territory. After encircling the keeping within the limits of Vatican Square, he mounted an altar and blessed the crowd before him, the city of Rome and the world.



TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

FIVE O'CLOCK

By Miriam Scott Overlees

Thousands of clocks in the city with the hands in a straight line athwart the face, the large hand pointing to eleven, the small one nearly to five. Thousands of eyes watching the slow movement of those hands, some waiting for release, others trying to crowd more lease, others trying to crowd more work into those few moments before the city untied itself from a day of work . . .

A cheap nickel alarm clock sat on a packing box before Roy Clinton. He had sold his watch along with his office furnishings. But the lease on the office was not quite up and the telephone was paid to the end of the month. That was all there was on the improvised desk— the clock and the telephone. Since three o'clock that afternoon he had been sitting there between them, the fingers of his right hand stretched forth as if to clutch the telephone. There had been some calls and the sweat broke out on Roy's face as he answered them. But none of them was the one he was waiting for. Dewitt had promised to call him before— before the director's meeting was over at three. If the firm decided to take him on—his last chance—he was to have called Nona before five. Nona! The large hand moved along four minutes—three—two—one—

Roy stood up. His knees trembled under him. He walked over to the window and threw it wide open. Five stories below him were the double currents of motor traffic. There were not yet many people on the sidewalk for this was the office district. He looked straight down. Then he put his knees on the sill and—

The grandfather's clock in Robert Dewitt's handsomely furnished inner office chimed softly the first stroke of five. Dewitt looked up from the pile of papers before him. He had been very busy making up for the time lost in the director's meeting. The girl beside him wearily raised her pencil over her notebook.

"That will be all, Miss Hammond," Dewitt said as he closed his notebook. "No, wait a moment. Call Bill Clinton at Midway 6618 and tell him that the directors have decided in his favor and he is to be on the job in the morning."

The girl dialed the number and waited. "There is no answer, Mr. Dewitt," she said.

"Remind me to call him the first thing in the morning." Dewitt stood up. He looked anxiously at the clock and then dashed out of the room. If he hurried he could make the five-fifteen and be on the golf course by a quarter of six. Joyce, but he needed some outdoor air after a day like this one!

Two chimes quickly held the timepiece in Nona Clinton's boudoir. It was dainty and expensive like every thing else in the room. It gave no sound but that afternoon it had no need to proclaim the hour. A woman watched the delicate metal hand as it climbed slowly to an upright position. Her fingers pulled at a necklace around her throat until it broke. She did not notice the pearls scattering over her clothing and falling to the floor. She stood up and clutched at the smooth waves of her dark hair.

Roy had not phoned! His face ashen and stirred, as it had looked that morning, was before Nona. Why had she said, "You'd better lead a job pretty soon, Roy, if you want to keep me"? It was as though she had struck him. She tried desperately to vindicate herself. Men needed pulling. That was part of their creed. And Roy had lost his nerve since his own business had failed. But his face! If she had only told him what she really thought—that he was the dearest thing in the world to her—that she loved him no matter what happened. Sentimentalities had always been hard for her. But when Roy came home that night! How could she endure the hour until it was time to meet him at the train! Of course he didn't get the job with the Dewitt Company or he would have phoned her. But what did that matter? She would be there waiting for him. She would make him understand then what she really felt—

Mike Connely had lingered a little too long at the docks over a last glass of beer. He had a light load—empty shoe boxes— and thought he could make better time than he had. But every light had been against him. He was still a block from the warehouse when the clock in the Greely tower clanged hoarsely five gates closed at five. Well, if he got any breaks, he might make a dash and push in before big Greely had intoned the last stroke. A car jumped incitingly before him. The traffic on his left was solid; he couldn't pass. Mike hooked his horn, but the car did not move. He let out all the oaths in his vocabulary. He had used these before and he would probably lose his job this time. In his desperation he noticed that there was a clear space on the sidewalk and a low curb. No cop in sight! He could run up there and get by. The front wheels bumped up onto the sidewalk. Then he hear a crash behind him and glanced over his shoulder. He stopped the truck and, cursing loudly, got down.

He saw a man's legs hanging over the sideboards, his head evidently buried in the boxes. Mike climbed up the side and pulled the man out of them. A well-dressed young fellow, looking funny with a shoe tax jammed onto his head. There was a queer look in the young fellow's eyes.

"A guy jumped out of the window into my truck," Mike explained. "Looks like he's broke his leg."

The policeman looked at his watch. It was time for him to go off afternoon duty but he would take time to put in a call for the ambulance. . . .

DE VALERA WINS—Jockey Hank Mills rides De Valera to a win by a slight margin at Aqueduct, L. I., race track

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

©1932, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

The ape-man paused and listened, sniffing the air with his sensitive nostrils. Then on noiseless feet he crossed the clearing toward the hut. In the grass outside the palisade lay the dead body of a white man. A single glance told Tarzan it was the fugitive he sought, and even before he searched, he suspected that the sack of diamonds was in possession of whoever had slain the Russian.

Inside the hut and all about were indications of the recent presence of a man and woman. The spoor of the man tallied with that of the creature who had killed Gobu, the great ape, and hunted Bara, the deer, upon the preserves of the ape-man. But the woman, who was she? Swiftly Tarzan traced the footprints into the jungle. Now he saw the woman had been limping painfully and lagging behind her companion.

Esteban forged far ahead of Flora Hawkes, now too weary to keep up with his increasing haste. "Wait for me," she pleaded. "Then hurry up," growled the Spaniard. "Wait the fortune in my possession, I wait for nobody." "Save me," the girl cried despairingly. "I can go no farther." Esteban laughed mockingly and as a man in full flight about him from her sight, she dropped exhausted to the ground.

Tarzan was in no haste, for he knew he would soon overtake the fleeing pair. So he was not surprised when he came suddenly upon the huddled figure of a woman lying in the middle of the trail. Kneeling beside her he laid a hand upon her shoulder. It brought forth a startled scream. "You are in no danger," said the ape-man. Then she looked up at him and exclaimed: "Oh, Esteban, have you really come back to save me?"

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES

(Eastern Standard Time)

MONDAY

6.00—Banjoleers—CFCF
6.15—Peanut Vendor—CFCF
6.15—Arlene Jackson—WEAF
6.30—The Man About Town—WJZ
6.30—Harmony Four—CFCF
6.45—Orphan Annie—WJZ
7.00—Concert Orch.—CFCF
8.00—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
8.00—Dinner Musicians—CKCL
8.15—On the Air—WABC
8.30—Three X Sisters—WJZ
8.30—Doris Whitcomb—CKCL
8.45—Literary Digest—CFCF
9.45—Langford-Liebert—WEAF
6.00—Amos 'n' Andy—CFCF
6.00—Dutch Masters—WABC
6.00—The Mountaineers—WEAF
6.15—Everett Marshall—WJZ
6.45—Westphal's Orch.—WABC
6.30—Barbara Maurel—WABC
6.30—Countess Albani—WEAF
6.45—The Goldbergs—WBEN
7.00—Varied Program—WJZ
7.00—Carboni Concert—CFCA
7.00—Singing Sam—WJR
7.15—Melody Lads—WJR
7.15—Eton Boys—CFRB
7.30—Joyce Trio—CKCL
7.30—London Conference—WEAF
7.30—Jack Denny Orch.—WABC
7.45—Soloist and Orch.—WEAF
7.45—Romeo Johns—CKAC
8.00—Tenor and Orch.—WEAF
8.00—Tramtir Bros.—WGR
8.00—Greater Minstrels—WJZ
8.00—Male Chorus—WABC
8.15—The Street Singer—WABC
8.15—Viennese Nights—WJR
8.30—Gallop of Scotland—CFRB
8.30—Soloist—Orch—CFCF
8.30—Melody Memories—WJZ
8.45—The Guizer—WABC
9.00—Continental Frog—CFCF
9.00—Commission Frog—CFCA
9.00—Soloist-Quartet—WABC
9.15—Melodic Three—CKOO
9.30—Brian G. Hill—CFRB
9.30—The Hour Glass—WJZ
9.45—Barlow's Orch.—CFRB
10.00—Symphony Orch.—WABC
10.00—Romanelli's Orch.—CFCF
10.00—The Hall Family—CFRB
10.30—Violinist—WJZ
10.45—Gilbert Perman—WJR
11.00—Belasco's Orch.—WABC
11.00—Soloist-Orch.—WEAF
11.30—Bertuzzi Orch.—WABC

TUESDAY

7.00—Radio City Organ—WEAF
7.15—Xylophonist—WJZ
7.30—Morning Glee Club—CFCF
7.45—Havens and Mack—WABC
8.00—Otto Passel—WEAF
8.15—Florenda Trio—WEAF
8.30—Concert—WEAF
8.45—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
9.00—Sunshine Club—CKCL
9.00—Southern Singers—WJZ
9.15—Clara Li and Ens.—WJZ
9.30—Bill and Ginger—WJR
9.30—Sunny Songs—CKOC
9.45—Singing Stars—WJZ
10.00—The Looking Glass—WJR
10.15—Little Jack Little—CKAC
10.15—Morin Sisters—WJZ
10.30—Soloist-Orch.—WJZ
10.45—Vocal Gems—CKAC
11.00—John Marvin, Tenor—CFCF
11.00—Queen's Hall Trio—CKAC
11.15—Virginia Maurel—WEAF
11.15—Jeanne Van Heyden—WJR
11.30—Concert Miniature—WBEN
12.00—Vic and Sade—WJZ
12.00—Between The Acts—CFCF
12.15—Popular Varieties—WEAF
12.15—White's Song Review—WJR
12.30—Concert Ensemble—WEAF
12.30—Horseshoe Players—CKOC
1.15—Ann Leaf, Organ—CFRB
1.30—Russell Johns—WEAF
2.00—Vocal Art Quartet—CFCF
2.00—Soloist-Piano—WABC
2.15—Soloist-Orch.—WJZ
2.30—Soloist-Orch.—CFRB
2.45—The Bandstand—CKCL
3.00—U.S. Navy Band—WABC
3.15—Casanova Orch.—CFCF
3.30—Old Favorites—CFCA
3.30—Herrmann Sisters—CFRB
4.00—Melodic Thoughts—CFCF
4.15—Penrod and Sam—CFCF
4.30—The Singing Lady—WJZ
4.45—Nursery Rhymes—WEAF
5.00—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.15—Aunt Frances Adds—WBEN
5.30—Hymn Sing—WEAF
5.30—Kathryn Newman—WJZ
5.45—James Melton—WEAF
6.45—Lowell Thomas—CFCF
6.45—The Two Bootlegs—CKCL
6.00—Amos 'N' Andy—CFCF
6.00—Jack Pine Mine—WABC
6.15—Mitzi Cream—WJR
6.30—Concert Ensemble—WABC
6.30—Jack Rohr-Orch.—WJR
6.30—Yesterday Dandies—CFCF
6.45—B. Heatherton—WJZ
7.00—Mary Eastman—CFRB
7.15—Williams Presents—CFCA
7.15—The Magic Voice—WABC
7.45—Singing Lady—WABC
7.30—Golden Tower Orch.—WJR
7.45—Floyd Gibbons—CFCF
7.45—Melody Lads—WJR
8.00—Orrin Tucker—WJZ
8.30—Ed Wynn—WBEN
8.45—Tune Boys—CKCL
9.00—Commodore Perry—CFCA
9.00—Musical Memories—WJZ
9.45—Light Opera Gems—WABC
9.45—C. Brush, Baritone—CFRB
10.00—Pickens Sisters—WJZ
10.15—Betty Barthell—CFRB
10.30—Master Singers—CFCF
10.30—Soloist—WJZ
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.00—Mills Pro Boys—WBEN
11.30—Belasco Orch.—WABC
11.30—Roseland Orch.—WJZ

In consideration for his signing of a marriage contract renouncing all claims to the colossal fortune of his bride, the former Barbara Hutton of New York, one of the richest of American heiresses, Prince Alexis Mdivani has received a settlement of $250,000 a year from Franklyn L. Hutton, father of the bride. The expenses of the American girl's wedding, including the religious rites at the Russian Orthodox church in Paris, are estimated at $150,000. Layout above shows how this sum was spent. The $150,000 is exclusive of a fortune in wedding gifts and jewels not listed above.

HARD TO HOLD SENATORS AND GIANTS IN TOW

Bill Terry Has Team Clicking in Every Department

CUBS COMING BACK

A's Gain Half Game on The Slipping Indians

The two second place clubs in the major leagues appear to be learning by painful experience that if they give New York Giants or Washington Senators an inch in the pennant races they'll take a mile. Neither has shown a sign of a let-up since they began their respective parades to the top and both were able, over the past week-end, to improve their positions through slight but important lapses on the parts of their respective rivals.

The Giants, after picking up a half game Saturday when St. Louis Cardinals split a double header with the Phillies, stepped out yesterday while the Cards were having a day off and added another full game to their margin by taking two decisions from Cincinnati Reds. The Senators, one of two other teams to make a clean sweep in yesterday's bargain bills, pulled out a game and a half in front of New York Yankees who got only an even break with Detroit.

Bill Terry's highly efficient pitching staff played its usual important part in downing the Reds 7-1 and 5-3 but improved hitting was along with it. Behind Hal Schumacher's six-hit flinging the Giants battered Ray Kiop in the early innings to win the opener, then cut loose for four runs in the seventh to win for Fred Fitzsimmons, who gave seven blows.

Washington took two games from Cleveland, 9-0 and 10-1, in its usual slugging style. The Senators batted out a total of 29 hits while Earl Whitehill helped out with five-hit flinging in the first game.

The Yanks carried on the opening battle against Detroit for twelve innings before an error by Frank Crosetti opened the way for the Tigers to win 6-5. The second game was halted by darkness after six innings and in that time Russell Van Atta gave only two hits and fanned seven to win 3-0.

Browns Win Two.

St. Louis Browns were the day's other double winners, taking two games from Boston to close up a half game behind the seventh place Red Sox. A six run rally in the eighth won the opener 10-6 and then their heavy hitting brought a 6-4 triumph in the second.

Philadelphia Athletics registered a half-game gain on Cleveland by splitting a twin bill with Chicago White Sox. Jimmie Foxx clouted his 16th home run to win the second game for the A's 5-3 after an eighth inning outburst had brought the Sox all their runs for a 3-2 victory in the first.

Chicago's Cubs found their batting eyes in the first game against Boston and pounded their way to a 12-3 triumph with 18 hits, but Boston put over a sixth inning run against Charley Root to win the nightcap 4-3. Two neat mound performances enabled Pittsburgh and Brooklyn to divide two games. Leon Chagnon limited the Dodgers to five hits while the Pirates won 5-2; then Waller Beck came back with a four-hit job and Brooklyn triumphed 9-1.

While the Giants were downing the Reds 5-2 Saturday behind Roy Parmelee's fine pitching, Pittsburgh swamped the Dodgers 13-3 by combining three twisters for 21 safeties.

Washington scored over Chicago 7-5 Saturday to maintain its lead in the junior circuit and the Yankees kept pace with an 8-4 win over the Browns. Lefty Grove bagged his 10th victory of the season and lifted the Philadelphia Athletics into third place with his 6-2 triumph over Cleveland.

The monitor lizard of Africa lays its eggs in ant nests and the ants cover them up.

Fitzpatrick Retires

Keene Fitzpatrick

After 22 years as track and field coach of Princeton university, Keene Fitzpatrick retires from active service. Since 1911, Fitzpatrick has developed many great athletes.

CRACK

CENTRAL ONTARIO — LEAGUE — BASEBALL

WED. JUNE 28th 2.30 P.M.

KINGSTON at BELLEVILLE

PONIES NATIONALS

ADMISSION 33c PLUS 2c TAX

CHILDREN 10c—CARS FREE

Sets A. A. Record

Frank Sigafoos

Hitting safely in 38 games, Frank Sigafoos, Indianapolis second baseman, sets a new American association record for hitting in consecutive games. From May 16 to June 19, the day Toledo pitching stopped him without a hit, Frank garnered 64 hits—two homers, four triples, 14 doubles and 44 singles.

CARRICK WINS ONT. TITLE

Former Champion Outclasses Field in The Rounds

Toronto, June 26 (CP)—Back in the par-breaking form that made him Canada's outstanding amateur golfer a few years ago, Don Carrick, burly star of the Toronto Scarboro Club, held the Ontario amateur title for the third time today but had decided against seeking the Canadian crown next month.

So consistently good he outclassed the field of 130 that started in the provincial tournament, Carrick finished three days of smashing advances by defeating George Boeckh of York Downs 4 and 3 in the 18-hole final. The former University of Toronto football and hockey player and Olympic boxer had announced before the event he would not play for the Dominion title next month at Vancouver.

Carrick was far too steady for a field that included all the best talent in Ontario with exception of Sandy Somerville and Jack Nash jr., who are campaigning in England. His 72 won him the qualifying medal; par golf and better was sufficient to upset opponents in four straight matches.

In the semi-final Saturday morning Carrick trounced Phil Farley, champion in 1930, 5 and 4 while Boeckh was scoring a surprise victory over Fred Hoblitzel of Royal York, 2 up to enter the final for the first time.

ADVICE ON CURING HAY

"Cure-your-hay, Sail-your-hay, mow-in-a-way" runs the advice of a fire insurance company to farmers on the question of curing hay. The advice reads:

"The place to cure hay is in the field, not the mow. At the first of the season there is always the temptation to bring in hay that is a bit tough. This would not be so bad if it were at the top of the mow, but it's at the bottom instead. If you must bring in hay in this condition, salt it well, and spread it well. Half a pail of salt to 100 pounds isn't a bit too much. Help is cheap this year, keep enough of it in the mow."

"You may not believe in spontaneous combustion, but you do know that wet hay or grain will heat, so also will hay or grain that is dumped from fork or slings and not well spread.

The New Britishers' magic made one gallant Two quacks make one gallant.

REDWINGS WIN TWICE TO TIE NEWARK BEARS

Losing Streak of Six Straight Games Broken by Wins

LEAFS DIVIDE

Split Twin Bill With Royals to Remain Third

Rochester Redwings finally have applied the brakes to a losing streak that had gone through six games and boosted themselves back into a first place tie with Newark in the International League.

While Newark was bowing to Baltimore yesterday, Rochester took advantage of the occasion to whip Buffalo Bisons twice, 9-6 and 5-3, to deadlock the champions for the top rung with 44 victories and 30 defeats. The terrific hitting of Buster Mills, George Puccinelli and Ray Pepper, who accounted for 11 safeties among them, enabled Rochester to win the opening game although Jim Lindsey and Ed Chapman were hit hard. Pepper and Puccinelli drove in four runs apiece in this battle while Mills getting four safeties, scored three times. Fritz Mueller limited the Bisons to five hits in the nightcap to hang up his 12th win of the season, Charley Wilson and Gordon Hinkle dgvre in all the Redwings' runs in the game.

Baltimore trimmed Newark 5-4 in the first game of a double header and then played to a 3-3 tie in the second, halted at the end of the seventh on account of darkness.

Toronto Still Third.

Toronto clung to third place, a game and a half ahead of Baltimore by splitting a double-header with Montreal. Bill Dietrich allowed only six hits in the Royals took the opener 3-0 but Toronto came back to win the nightcap 4-3 and break a Montreal winning streak of four games.

Jersey City dropped a 4-3 decision to Albany in the first game but came back to win the second battle 4-1, as Jimmy McCloskey allowed only six hits.

On Saturday's bill Montreal wound up the series against Rochester with a third straight win, 5-4, when Pomorski registered his seventh pitching victory. Toronto split a double bill with Buffalo. They dropped the first 6-2, but the two hits they piled up in the closing off Bartulis in the nightcap produced the game's lone run and a 1-0 victory.

PROTECTIVE ARREST

Hamburg, Germany, June 26.—(AP)—Pretate Johann Leicht, Reichstag floor leader of the Bavarian People's Party, Deputy Minister of the Bavarian Diet, and city Councilors belonging to the party were taken into protective arrest today in connection with a raid on the party's premises throughout Bavaria.

MUST LIKE BUTTER

Toronto, Ont., June 26 (CP)—Arthur Farthing, 30, likes butter, police claim. In fact he likes butter so well he walks along the street and garners in all the butter dairymen leave. He will appear in court today on seven charges of stealing butter.

TOSS STONES AT CARS

Hamilton, Ont., June 26 (CP)—Boys tossing stones at passing motor cars were blamed by police today for two accidents. Two cars were showered with stones, one crashing through the windshield of a car driven by Ed. Spencer, shivering his wife and baby with glass. Neither was injured.

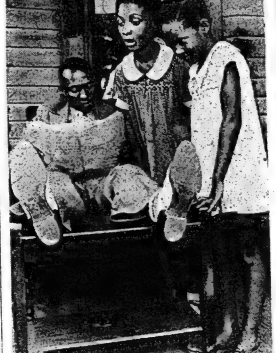
ONLY NAME SUBMITTED

KENORA, Ont., June 26.—(CP)—E. Hutchinson, M.L.A., for Kenora, has been nominated as the candidate of the Kenora and District Labor Party in the next Provincial election. He was the only name placed before a week-end convention by delegates. Hon. Peter Heenan was a speaker.

FEEL THE DROUGHT

Peterborough, Ont., June 26.—(CP)—Spring crops in this district today began to show effects of Ontario spell of dry weather. Farmers reported hill wheat, failing to fill, spring grains dried up on high lands and root crops stunted by lack of moisture.

TRADED STARS IN NEW UNIFORMS



Sam Leslie Max Carey

Lefty O'Doul Lefty Clark

Sam Leslie, slugging first baseman received by Brooklyn from New York, is congratulated by his new manager, Max Carey, on his good work since becoming a Dodger. Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, outfielder and William Watson (Lefty) Clark, received by New York in the trade, appear in their new uniforms. They're happy—for the Giants lead the pennant race!

Hot Feet! You - zah! And How!

Jesse, Margaret and Clara

Taking his ease on the porch of his Cleveland, O. home, Jesse Owens, high school track sensation, exhibits those fast-stepping feet of his — the same dogs that galloped 100 yards in world record time during an intercollegiate track and field meet in Chicago. The small admirers are Margaret Coston and Clara Wright.

SAIL, HO!—The Long Beach, Cal., star fleet engages in a race for The Macrae trophy on the open ocean course.

GERMANY OUT — Japanese tennis stars eliminate Germany from Davis cup play in Berlin matches.

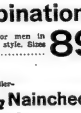
JACK TRAINS — Jack Sharkey hits Hans Birkie around as the champion trains for Camera bout.

Phone 3000 — CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED — Phone 3000

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Closes 1.30 p.m.

It's Underwear Day — Tuesday!

for Dad and His Lad—



Men's Balbriggan Combinations

A choice of three styles, all combining good fit with moderate price.
1. Short sleeves with ankle length legs.
2. Short sleeves, knee length legs.
3. Long sleeves and ankle length legs.
Garment 1.25

Men's Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers

Two piece garments of fine balbriggan yarns, which many men prefer. Good fitting, strongly reinforced at vital points. Sizes 34 to 46.
Garment ..... 50c and 75c

Men's Athletic Rayon Combinations

The run-resist rayon combination for men in athletic style, well reinforced. Button style. Sizes 34 to 44. Each 89c

Our Best Seller—

Men's Eatonia Naincheck Combinations

In both button and buttonless styles, athletic style, naincheck combinations in excellent weight for perfect summer comfort. Sizes 36 to 46. Suit 79c

Boys'

Balbriggan Combinations

Button style combinations for boys—balbriggan quality, of very fine threads. Sizes for boys taking 24 to 32. Suit 45c
—men's store

Boys'

Naincheck Combinations

Comfortable fitting no button style of sturdy naincheck fabric which is cool and light weight. All boys appreciate this type, for it gives them real freedom. Sizes 24 to 32. Suit ..... 49c and 65c

Cotton Filled Comforters for Camp or Cottage 1.98

Just the thing, these large, well filled cotton comforters for the camp or the cottage. Cotton filling is light in weight, remarkably warm—covering is well known Beaconsfield cotton prints, in neat floral patterns. A choice of colors. Featured Tuesday, each .....
—main floor rear

Irish Colored Bordered Linen Table Cloths

A fine, smooth crash linen, in white with colored woven striped borders. Attractive and serviceable, it's splendid for every day service, for both home and at camp. They launder excellently and are splendid value at these prices.

54 x 54 inches, each 1.29

54 x 54 inches, each 98c
—main floor rear

Tuesday Groceteria Specials!

FRESH GROUND Hamburg Steak 3 lbs. 25c

CHOICE SAUSAGE 2 lbs. 25c

EATONIA RASPBERRY JAM 48 oz. Jar 28c

HOUR SPECIAL 8.30—10.30 A.M. EDDY'S MAPLE LEAF MATCHES PACKAGE OF 2 LARGE BOXES Limit 2 packages or 6 boxes in all, when not with a 25c purchase or over. 20c

SUNKIST VALENCIA Oranges Good Size Dozen 29c

GOOD GRADE Potatoes 2 pecks 29c

BONELESS Stewing Veal lb. 10c

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

TUNEFUL '42ND STREET' BRINGS MUSIC AND SMILES TO BELLE

That popular music is returning to motion pictures is evidenced by the possibility of Warner Brothers' "42nd Street" the season's smash musical hit that returns to the Belle, tomorrow (Tuesday) and Wednesday, matinee daily, and which a complete musical comedy is presented scene for scene, while the heart-gripping story races on. This carries several specialty numbers written by Al Dubin and Harry Warren, Broadway song writers.

"Tin Pan Alley" invaded Hollywood with the advents of talking pictures four years ago, but musical films gave way to dramatic subjects, and the writers deserted the coast for the East again. Now with such films as "The Phantom President," "The Kid from Spain", and Metro Goldwyn Mayer picture, "Today We Live", which closes a successful engagement at the Belle tonight, Bebe Daniels, George Brent, Una Merkel, Ruby Keeler, Cliff Kibbee, Ned Sparks, Dick Powell, Ginger Rogers and Allen Jenkins.

But the trend is not toward entirely song productions" Carl Laemmle's director Busby Berkeley, well known Broadway director, created and staged the dance numbers and ensembles for a gigantic chorus of 200 beautiful girls.

Those funnny "Dial Boys" in a very clever and original comedy, "Wreckety Wrecks", the popular Metrotone News, and a clever pictorial offering will be presented on the same program.

JOAN CRAWFORD TONIGHT

Joan Crawford has a new co-star popular Gary Cooper in her latest Metro Goldwyn Mayer picture, "Today We Live", which closes a successful engagement at the Belle Tonight, Bebe Daniels, Una Merkel, Roscoe Kearns, Louise Closser Hale and other notables are in the cast. A cartoon and Noble Sissle and his radio grand orchestra in a clever Vaudeville offering are also booked.

MILK REPORT FOR JUNE

	Sediment Test	Butter Fat
Moorman	3.9	3.3
Farnham	3.9	3.3
Birch	3.9	3.4
Butler	3.9	3.5
Bellview	3.9	3.5
DeVault	3.9	3.6
Reid's	3.9	3.6
Millard	3.5	3.7
Whalen	3.7	3.7
Montrose (Jersey)	3.9	3.8
Montrose (Standard)	3.9	3.8
Walmsley	3.8	3.8
Clintens Dairy	3.6	3.6
Harper	3.7	3.7
Lermley	3.7	3.7

Signed C. B. Wylie, M.D., Director Laboratory

PROBABILITIES

Moderate southwest winds: fair and decidedly warm; Wednesday, moderate to fresh southwest winds, mostly fair and decidedly warm.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 1933

TEN PAGES

CALCUTTA IS GOAL

Rangoon, Burma, June 27—(AP)—Capt. Charles T. P. Ulm, Australian aviator who is flying from Australia to England, resumed his flight this morning when he hopped off for Calcutta.

WHEAT PRICES CARRIED TO NEW HIGH LEVELS

Wheat Sweeps Upward in Most Impressive Rise on Winnipeg, Chicago Marts

Cautious Traders Force Back Levels in Mid-Morning

BUYING FUTURES

Trading Sets Record at Rate Unequalled Since 1929

Winnipeg, June 27.—(CP)—Wheat futures prices shot six cents higher in a wild burst of trading Tuesday before the close of the Winnipeg Grain Market today.

Chicago, June 27—(AP)—Dollar wheat was reached and passed, on the board of trade today in one of the wildest sessions seen since the war. Sensational advances were reached maximum of more than six cents a bushel in the last few minutes of trading after yesterday's severe set-back. Prices for December delivery to $1.01 7-8 cents a bushel and the May Delivery to $1.06 3-4.

Impressive Buying

Winnipeg, June 27.—(CP)—Price of Canada's chief commodity continued to rise in an impressive fashion on the Winnipeg Grain Market today, a wheat futures, swept upward by strong buying that showed no signs of subsiding, scored extreme advances of nearly four cents.

The advance, however, met a check as the session progressed, as cautious traders, anxious to consolidate their position and cash in on the peak few days, disposed of large parts of their holdings. Values were forced back nearly two cents from their top-most levels.

Futures were bought and sold at a rate not equalled since 1929 and values, half-way through the session, still clung tenaciously to two cents of their gains. The July delivery at 76 1-2 cents, October 79 and December 80 3-8 cents. At their peak these values had all made marks they had not touched since Oct. 25, 1929.

3 Cent Jump At Chicago

Chicago, June 27—(AP)—Wheat jumped more than 3 cents a bushel at the opening of the Board of Trade today, and went above a dollar for the July option before trading was wild with large spread in prices. May sold at $1.01 to $1.02. Corn rushed up 2 cents and more to 64 for May.

The big rise was half as much as the tremendous bulge of yesterday when wheat rose 7 cents and other grains in proportion. Failures to get relief from the drought which traders said has ruined a large portion of crops, along with stop loss sales for those who were caught short in the rampaging market, burned out all opposition to the rise.

DEAN INGE

Dr. William R. Inge, the "gloomy dean" of St. Paul's, in London, is to retire next summer. Dean Inge has spent 22 years in service, and at the age of 73 wants to retire to spend his time at Oxford.

FOUGHT IN EVERY BATTLE

General Lindsay Found Dead in Bed at Hunt Club

Toronto, June 27 (CP)—Major-General William Bethune Lindsay, who was chief engineer in the Canadian Army Corps from 1916 to 1918 was found dead today at the Toronto Hunt Club, apparently from heart disease. He was 53 years old.

General Lindsay, a native of Strathroy, Ont., joined the Royal Canadian Engineers in 1904. In August, 1914, he organized, equipped and trained the 1st. Canadian Divisional Engineers with which unit he went to France with the rank of major.

He was said to have taken part in every major Canadian engagement in France from 1916 till the end of the war. He was credited with designing the first plank road built by Canadian engineers in France. His decorations included the D.S.O.

He was mentioned in despatches five times. Ill-health forced his retirement in 1920.

He was a member of the Engineering Institute of Canada and the Institution of Royal Engineers.

For many years he had resided at the Toronto Military Institute.

POISON IVY FOE OF FUSILIERS

London, Ont., June 27 (CP)—Fusiliers regiment, Essex Scottish, went to Cedar Springs for manoeuvres and found themselves attacked by a dangerous foe, poison ivy. The only member of the regiime however, who is hors de combat is assessment commissioner H. Bennett who is now confined to his home with ivy infection.

FUNNIES IN THE NEWS

Youngstown, O., June 27 — Gordon Groverfield found out an attorney's objections carry more weight than a defendant's.

When Judge Harry Hoffman fined him $25 and costs for disturbance, Groverfield stood up, just like he'd seen the lawyers do and said:

"I object, your honor."

"All right, $30 and costs," the judge retorted. "How object to that."

Groverfield didn't—aloud.

Meade, Kas., June 27 (CP) — Jimmie Howell tells this one: He was running rabbits, saw a bobber running with a piece of paper in his mouth and gave pursuit. As the quarry neared the bank it dropped the piece of paper. It was a one dollar bill.

Sedalia, Mo., June 27 (CP)— E. R. Farley, local grocery company president, has played golf for 21 years on the Sedalia Country Club links. Last Sunday he made his first hole-in-one.

Hamilton, Ont., June 27 (CP) —Cecilia Gore applied for relief with a roll of bills in her hand and exhibited the cash accidentally while asking for relief paper. She paid $25 and costs for attempting to defraud the city.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 27 (CP)—Thrown 90 feet over a fence into a field, Ted Fella-tracult, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., suffered only minor injuries while his companion, Ray Fowler, was severely bruised when their truck plunged into a ditch and turned over four times.

Acreage Restriction Awaits Crop Reports

METHODS OF CHRYSLER CO. QUESTIONED

Allegations Made in House That Empire Contents Rule Evaded

DENIAL MADE

President Mansfield Laughs, Says Charge is Silly

London, June 27 (C.P. Cable) — Methods of the Chrysler Motorcar Corporation in Canada were the subject of questions in the House of Commons this afternoon when it was alleged the company was evading the Empire Content Regulations. The government replied it would be willing to examine any authentic information that might be offered.

The questioner asserted motorcars shipped by Chrysler from Canada into England did not meet the regulations that 75 per cent. be Empire content, necessary to receive the preferential duty.

It was alleged the company manufactured four hundred automobiles in Detroit and merely painted-assembled and packed these cars in their large factory in Windsor, Ont. The questioner declared there was not a single manufacturing plant for the firm in Windsor.

Empire Content Evadable

E. L. Burgin, Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade, on behalf of the government, declared he had no official information concerning these charges.

He pointed out motorcars coming from Canada were entitled to the preferential duty on entering the United Kingdom only if the 50 per cent. Empire content when leaving the factory was observed by either the importer, the exporter or anyone entering the product or Empire labor used in its preparation, or both. The secretary stated he would gladly examine any information that might be submitted to the government.

Another member asked whether the government had any machinery for the purpose of checking whether Empire goods from Dominions or other parts of the Empire conformed to the 50 per cent requirement, but the secretary asked that the question be put on the order paper.

President's Denial

Windsor, Ont., June 27 (CP)—A. John R. Mansfield, president and general manager of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada, today denied charges in the British House of Commons that the firm was evading British Empire Content Regulations in automobiles sent to the United Kingdom.

"Some member of parliament in England has evidently been out in the talking about," Mr. Mansfield said. "There is only one way these charges can be added. "Our record is as good as that of any manufacturer in Canada. We ship goods to Europe, Australia and other British countries, and to the United States, and we are not aware as to their qualifications for preference."

Mr. Mansfield declining to reveal the average percentage of Empire content in cars built by the manufactured here, but said it was "well above" the minimum 50 per cent.

"It is just a matter of some politician in England getting up and talking about something he knows nothing about," he declared.

"It is silly. It is not worth answering."

HUMAN CHAIN SAVES GIRL

Toronto, June 27.—Jean Bishop, aged 11 years, of 97 Dawnroe Road, was rescued from drowning in the lake at the pier near the foot of Dowling Street, Wednesday afternoon by Fred Rohman, 96 Arundel Avenue. The girl was playing in the water with a large rubber ball when she was carried beyond her depth. She was seen to be drifting out and Rohman who was on the pier with his children, calling to two men, Norman got them to hold his legs and lower him from the end of the pier down to the water. He managed to grasp the girl by the back of the neck and pull her out of the water.

Flying Mollisons Will Start Again on World Flight Next Week

London, June 27 (CP)—The Flying Mollisons—James and Amy—hope to get a start on their 12,000 mile flight to New York, Bagdad and Croydon next week.

The aeroplane Seafarer, damaged in an adventurous attempt at a take-off some time ago, is again in readiness and will be flown by the Mollisons to Pendine Sands, Carmarthenshire.

The adventurous couple who have some of the greatest long distance flights ever made to their credit, will stand by from next Monday hoping to time their journey so they will have the benefit of a full moon on the biggest stage, from New York to Bagdad.

THEODOR HABICHT

Ordered out of Austria for his Nazi activities, Theodor Habicht, German press attache and member of the German Reichstag, arrives at the headquarters of the National Socialist party in Berlin to report to his superiors.

FOURTH DAY OF HEAT WAVE

Temperature Mounts And no Sign of Change is Forecast

A relentless sun still continued to pour down its stinging rays today, wilting foliage in the city and country, and boosting temperatures well above the hundred mark in the open. Even on the shady side of the house at noon, the mercury fell little short of 90 above. It was the fourth day of a heat wave and drought that has gripped the whole province. Only the saving grace of a slight, cooling breeze from the West saved the city from numerous less heat prostrations and actual deaths. The mercury continued its steady upward climb throughout the afternoon.

Scholars in classrooms throughout the city, tugging at their final exams for the year, worked in temperatures close to ninety in class rooms. Factory and office workers gasped for air that moved faintly through the wide open windows. Those who could migrate to parks in the city in an effort to shake off the lethargy that gripped the whole city.

Up to noon Tuesday no heat prostration cases had been received at the Belleville General Hospital despite the intense heat felt in the open.

Relief from the excessive heat is not yet in sight, according to the weathermen, whose official forecast for the day is "fair and warm." Black clouds rolled in the early north of the city late last evening, but it is believed little if any actual rain fell in the northern part of the county.

SHIP WAITS WHILE DANCER'S ARM SET

Miss Amelia Enger Had Arm Fractured in Fall on Dance Floor

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 27—Steamer Noronto, of the Northern Navigation Company, was delayed here for two hours on her first outward trip in the season while Amelia Enger, of Minneapolis, had a broken arm set at a hospital. Her arm was fractured when she accidentally fell on the dance floor aboard ship.

C.N.R. EARNINGS

Montreal, June 27. — The gross revenues of the all-inclusive Canadian National Railways System for the week ending June 21st, 1933, was $3,217,000 as compared with $3,197,567 for the corresponding period of 1933, an increase of $19,467.

AGED WOMAN LOST 12 HOURS IN WOODS

Picks Wild Strawberries And Walks All Night

Havelock, Ont., June 27—(CP)—Mrs. J. McArthur, lifes wild strawberries, but probably will not again go berrypicking alone in the bush. The aged woman spent more than 12 hours of the week-end lost in the woods while the town's population searched for her.

She was located long after sunrise, a trifle alarmed and considerably the worse for mosquito bites. She had walked all night.

AGENT GIVEN THREE MONTHS

Also Indeterminate Term of One Year is Imposed

Frederick C. Moffatt, local insurance agent, pleaded guilty to two charges of fraudulently failing to turn over insurance premiums collected by him when he was employed by Belleville police court before Magistrate Mikel and was sentenced to serve three months in Kingston jail and one indeterminate in the Ontario Reformatory.

The information relating to the charge was laid by Mr. Jeffery O. Richmond of the Continental Casualty Company, Toronto, the firm to which Moffatt was alleged to have misrepresented his sales and failed to turn in the necessary premiums. The total involved, although all the amounts were not recorded, exceeded $200.00 it is said.

J. D. O'Flynn, the defendant's solicitor, eloquently pleaded the case by pointing out to the court the disadvantages of imposing a long prison term on a youth such as the accused. It was after hearing Mr. O'Flynn's plea that His Worship took a rather lenient stand in the matter, stating that he was not one of a serious nature. B. C. Donnan, K.C., local Crown Attorney, who prosecuted the case, pointed out to the court that Moffatt had made a stolen money to visit his father in Texas, recently. Moffatt was lodged in the county jail where he will await his removal to the reformatory.

AIR ARMADA IS DELAYED

Orders Given For Start on First Favorable Day

Ostebello, Italy, June 27 (AP)—The take-off of 24 Italian seaplanes on the first leg of a flight to Chicago was again delayed by adverse weather conditions today, but orders still were to leave on the first favorable day. The Italians have arranged for stops at Cartwright, Nfld., Shediak, N.B. and Montreal.

YANGTZEMOOD IS PLACABLE

River Level Drops Six Inches, Flood Fear is Allayed

Hankow, China, June 27 (AP) — The rapidly changing moods of the Yangtze today favored valley residents and the mighty river recorded a sudden fall of six inches, thereby allaying fears of further destructive floods.

In eastern Kweichow province, however, a cloudburst resulted in the destruction of Yungpien, with a great loss of life, meagre reports said the flood, which spouted out overnight June 20, swept through the Mayan valley, inundating scores of villages. The death toll was set at more than 2,000.

BLACKBIRD BEATS UP SPARROW, DROWNS IT

Lorain, O., June 27—Joseph Jamison, postmaster, says he found a blackbird on the pier of his lake shore cottage holding a sparrow in its claws and shaking the smaller bird violently.

When the sparrow weakened, he said, the blackbird gnawed it to the edge of the pier and shoved it into the water.

DISTILLERY SHARES ARE SOUGHT IN U.S.

Boiling Exchange Floor Flooded With Orders

SHARE AS LURE

Walkers Jumps to $36 at Gong This Morning

Toronto, June 27 (CP) — Public gobbling of stocks continued at an apparently inexhaustible rate today as volume of trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange reached a new record. With a turnover of 135,000 shares in the first two hours the exchange was churning at the rate of 300,000 daily.

Values bubbled up during the morning, absorbed heavy profit-taking in the early afternoon and continued to advance. Distillery issues led the parade, commanding the widest gains. The turn-over in distilleries was enormous with Canadian Industrial Alcohol selling 15,000 shares distillers over 33,000 and Walker 12,000.

Seagram held an advance of over $2 while Alcohol eased a bit on realization but was still about $2 better. Walkers was inclined to rest near yesterday's close.

Implements followed wheat which showed signs of a rapid fashion at Winnipeg. Food issues also copied the wheat movement.

Enormous stocks of spirits held by the Canadian distilling companies were believed here to be the lure which was bringing United States capital into the stock exchange to acquire large blocks of shares of such companies as Seagram, Walker, Gooderham and Worts, Distillers Seagrams and Canadian Industrial Alcohol.

PLANES OVER BERLIN

Geneva, Switzerland, June 26 (AP) —Seventy German cities, associations and individuals protested to the League of Nations that aeroplanes flew over Berlin Friday, dropping propaganda handbills. They demanding that Germany be given the right to protect her territory against foreign planes.

REEL LOVE STORY

Just like a reel romance is the real romance of Peggy McGraw, 17, Oklahoma oil heiress, and Alexander Grey, actor, screen and radio star, whose marriage has just been disclosed. Peggy fell in love with him four years ago when she saw him on the screen, wrote him, kept up a correspondence, finally contrived to meet him. When they tried to elope in Dennis was Peggy's mother called the police. They bided their time, eloped again, were wed, kept it a secret for two weeks, asked mother's forgiveness.

"Voodoo" Saves Detested Starling From Guns, Traps, Poison, Wires

London, Ont., June 27 (CP)—Not only have starlings proved a menace to fruit crops in this district but there seems to be some "voodoo" protection which saves them from extinction. Time and time again the indignant farmers have sought their lives. On the other hand they seem others.

ON WORLD FLIGHT

Charles Ulm (above), flying companion of Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, another Australian, on a trans-Pacific hop, is off on a new air adventure. He has left Australia for England with two others on a flight around the world.

RYDER TROPHY TO G. BRITAIN

United States Defeated by 6 1-2 Points to 5 1-2 Points

Southport, England, June 27.—(AP)—Great Britain regained possession of the Ryder Cup, emblem of Anglo-American professional golf rivalry today, defeating the United States 6 1-2 points to 5 1-2 in two days' competition.

Syd Easterbrook, British pro, scored the deciding victory by defeating Densmore Shute, 1 up, at the 18th hole of the last of the morning exciting international golf battles ever waged, with the outcome in doubt until the last hole of the final match was completed.

The British divided the eight foursomes matches played today but the Americans ransomes yesterday, 5 1-2 to 1 1-2.

DUCKS HATCHED UNDER PARK SEAT

Guelph, Ont., June 27 (CP)—The French-critters at Stratilla Beach were surprised when, with a chorus of young quacks, eight newly hatched ducklings paraded from beneath the bench through the picnic ground crowd to the nearest water. Their mother had hatched them beneath the bench, undisturbed by the fact that the seat was in almost constant use.

AUTOS DAMAGED OCCUPANTS ESCAPE

Cars driven by Mr. C. Cassidy and Mr. Walter Harden of this city collided about one mile south of Bloomfield on the Bellevill-Picton road early last evening Mr. Harden accompanied by Milton Davison also of Belleville was proceeding southwards when the Cassidy car which was going in the opposite direction turned to drive up a nearby lane way, and a collision occurred resulting in considerable damage to the both cars. The occupants escaped serious injury. Provincial Constable Durnford of Picton investigated.

IN MID-NINETY IN BORDER CITY

Windsor, Ont., June 27—(CP)—Temperatures here spread through Western Ontario today and the thermometer here shot into the mid-nineties. Humidity was high and the day oppressive There was no indication from the Toronto office of the Dominion Meteorological Bureau forecast showers.

WHEAT SCENE CHANGED BY "PROVIDENCE"

Crop Prospects Now Subject to Close Study

SHORT CROP

Drastic Steps May Not be Necessary Says Mac-Donald

London, June 27 (AP)—What one of the "big four" chief delegates called an "act of Providence" has so altered the wheat situation that the conference closed today to wait until crop prospects are better manifested before approving or disapproving a plan to restrict wheat acreage.

Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, in an hour-long discussion of the problem with the leaders of the "big four" delegations, asked for postponement of further talks in the near breakdown of negotiations at the morning session of the conference. The "big four" are Canada, the United States, Australia and Argentina.

Rise in Prices

When he received information concerning the rise in the price of wheat on world markets, presumably because of adverse crop reports, Mr. MacDonald professed satisfaction with the progress of the negotiations.

While the Canadians and others continued to be hopeful, the attitude of the Australians toward the restricted acreage scheme may be modified in the course of the next few days.

It was stated that adverse crop reports, based on the continuance of rain and other natural factors, which one delegate said "has act of God, Providence or Roosevelt, whichever you choose," had greatly changed the situation.

Crop Shortage

"Experience has shown that a year's crop cannot be estimated safely even until July 7 to July 15th," one of those who attended the MacDonald meeting said. "Since there is every indication that the year's crop will be short, then it may not be so necessary to take such drastic steps as originally contemplated and it is hardly likely that a move will be made in that direction until about that time.

"Meanwhile, we shall be busy, but all this has got so much new data on the situation to consider it would be unwise to go ahead at the moment."

London, June 27—Great Britain and the United States world-tournament quarters this evening to have refused to commit herself to a new agreement to limit the quantity under which British and continental currencies may be exchanged, pending review of the desires of the United States.

NOT SHARKS BUT TUNOR

Hamilton, Ont., June 26—Sharks were not in Hamilton Bay during the week-end, but only by two landlubbers from the city, who left their names. Experts said the "sharks" were dorsal fins which followed the shad up the St. Lawrence and into the Great Lakes.

WEATHER

weather has been comparatively cool in all districts, but warm in other parts of Canada. Thunderstorms have occurred locally from Manitoba to the Maritime provinces.

Forecasts: Moderate winds easterly to southerly winds; partly cloudy and warm, with local thunderstorms.

Kenora and Rainy River—Fresh winds; partly cloudy and warm; local thunderstorms.

Manitoba—Fresh westerly winds; partly cloudy, local thunderstorms or a little lower temperature and probably a few scattered showers.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Partly cloudy with much the same temperature; fresh westerly winds.

Coming Events

MEETING WOMEN'S LIBERAL Association, Liberal Club Rooms, Thursday, June 29th., 8 o'clock. Miss Mowat, Kingston, Miss Pritchard, Toronto, will speak. All women invited. Refreshments. 127-28

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL AND Musical Festival, Auspices Four Square Club, Tabernacle Church, Sunday School Addition. Wednesday, June 28, 7 p.m. Admission 25c. 127-18

City and District News

C. P. R. OFFICIALS ARE PROMOTED

B. J. Guilty, superintendent of the Trenton division of the C.P.R., has been appointed superintendent of the Bruce division with headquarters at Toronto. Norman K. McMillan, superintendent of the Bruce division, has been appointed assistant to H. J. Humphrey, general manager eastern lines, with headquarters at Montreal. He has been with the C.P.R. for 21 years and Mr. Guilty joined the railway in 1897 as a brakeman.

THUMB CRUSHED AS HAMMER FALLS

Mr. George Semark, well known local boxer, had the misfortune to crush his left thumb yesterday afternoon while engaged in repairing some furniture at his summer camp on Swift's Island. A heavy blow with a hammer landing directly on the thumb fractured the upper joint of the member, and bruised the flesh considerably, resulting in a very painful injury.

P. E. CO. HAY CROP REPORTED LOWER

On the whole, the hay crop in Prince Edward County is expected to be somewhat lower, if not as last year, it has been estimated. From many localities reports show that the hay crop, particularly alfalfa and clover, is heavy this year.

In some sections at the country, the crop is now being secured. The continued dry weather has, in many areas of Prince Edward, lowered the timothy and other late hay crop yields. However, on the whole the fodder yield is reported as being very good.

NAPANEE HAS "D. S." TROUBLES

Bicycle cyclists of the local motorcycle club were accorded a warning two out of the three prizes in the cross-country competitions which were held in Kingston by the Kingston Motorcycle Club. Fully twenty-five entrants from the Kingston and local club entered the competition. Mr. Bert Perry, well known motorcycle enthusiast, was successful in winning the Wally Elmer silver challenge cup for first prize. This cup is donated annually, and must be won at three times in succession before the winner is finally awarded it for keeps. Mr. George Pepper of Belleville won second prize while third prize was won by James Reid of Kingston. A few spills on the difficult sixteen mile course were noted, but no casualties were reported.

McKEOWN'S BARGAINS

50c Milk of Magnesia TOOTH PASTE 25c

TOOTH BRUSH BOTH 43c

McKeown's Drug Store

CHERRIES CANNED AT CHERRY VALLEY

Cherries are to be canned at Cherry Valley canning factory this season for the first time. It is expected that operations will commence in about two weeks time.

This plant will also handle tomatoes. Farmers and laborers are especially pleased as this factory did not operate last year.

MOTORCYCLISTS WIN PRIZES

Daylight saving came into effect in Napanee at midnight Saturday, June 24, and will be enforced until September 1st. Many of the townspeople, unaware that the change had become effective, were late for Sunday services at the various churches, and in some instances the old time was adhered to.

TOURIST RATES AT NORTH LAKES

Tourist rates at resorts in the northern part of the county have taken a decided drop this year, being cheaper in many cases by half over the rates asked last year, according to the local Chamber of Commerce, who have dozens of returns listed for owners. Good board and lodging in cabins at many of the northern lakes can be had for as low as one dollar a day. In many instances a row boat is furnished in this rate, as some of the better known resorts where service is more polished, an extra charge is set as from $12 to $15 a week. Cabins, complete with bedding and furniture, can be had in some places for as low as $10 per week.

FIREMEN PUT OUT GRASS BLAZE

Firemen were called to the second grass fire of the year on the Coleman Flats at 3.15 Monday afternoon, where a small patch of dry grass had become ignited and was burning furiously, threatening to spread across the commons. Efficient work with the hand water pump soon extinguishing the blaze. From now on, with the constantly increasing dryness, members of both brigades have been on the alert for other fires or like nature to follow.

HARBOR WATER LESS POLLUTED

The water in the local harbor is less polluted this year than last, declare local health authorities. Last year considerable quantities of waste oil, said to have come from various gas stations along the river's edge, were poured into the river, where it formed a thick, oily skum. This film was difficult to remove from boats which had been anchored in it water, and even bathers at the end of the park had complained loudly against the practise. This year the water in the bay seems to be in fairly sanitary condition, except for the large patches of weeds which are begun to form south and west of the park. The present system of sewage disposal, however, does not assist matters for bathers who have been using the harbor waters.

For Women Who Cannot Make Up Their Minds

AID-A-WALK-ER

Brown Kid – White Kid and Black Kid

Moulded to Your Foot!

In many distinctive styles, sizes 1-12

Widths AAAA—EE

$6.00

Made in Canada

STRING BEANS OFFERED ON MART

Green string beans, new cabbage, new potatoes, freshly shelled peas and numerous other fresh vegetables featured Tuesday's mid-week market. Strawberries were also being sold at the rate of 3 boxes for 25c. Eggs sold at 15c dozen; new potatoes brought 15c a box; string beans 15c a berry box, while new cabbage sold for 5c a head. There were 25c a quart. Although the heat was oppressive there was a big crowd in attendance.

SPURT IN ARRIVALS AT TOURIST CAMP

Tourist camp registrations during the past week or so have shown a considerable increase, with six or six new registered at the camp from various parts of the continent. According to Mr. Sidney Nelson, caretaker of the camp the number of campers are availing themselves of the privileges of the camp this year will be as great as last year if the present month is any indication. Recent hot weather is believed to be responsible for the number of stopovers at the camp.

ALL IN A DAY FOR POUNDKEEPER

Two dogs were picked up on Queen Street this morning by the local dog catcher, minus their tags, and taken to the city pound. One of the animals, a big police dog, was called for by its owner soon afterwards. The other dog, a small fox terrier, still awaits a claimant. One large dog was disposed of at the pound on Monday after it had been disabled by a car.

WHEAT SELLS AT 75 CENTS HERE

Ontario wheat was being quoted at 75 cents per bushel today by feed store men at Belleville. This is due to the fact that the season has been the best one in years, and in this district a gradual increase in price is expected from now on.

INVITATION TO PUNT RACES

In an attempt to make the sailing punt races being held weekly in the local harbor an event open to all residents of the City of Quinte area, an invitation has been extended by the South End Athletic Club to the Canoe Club, Indian and Trenton, asking them to join the various classes. Pleasure boats from the city are expected to take part in Wednesday's race, making it the largest event so far held this season. The boats will start at 2.30 sharp at the end of Victoria Park.

LAWN BOWLING CLUB TOURNEY

Monday evening, forty members of the Belleville Lawn Bowling Club held a jitney tournament on their new greens in the Victoria Park grounds. The games developed into keen and spirited competitions with the following as winners of spoons for the evening: J. A. Peck, Lindsay, Scopa. Capt. C. W. Browne. Arthur McGie and H. Middleton.

TORONTO TUG FAST ON ISLAND SHOAL

A large tug, owned by a Toronto construction company, en route to that city from Kingston, became beached on a shoal in the Bay of Quinte near Bigger Island Monday morning and remained fast throughout the day. An attempt will be made late this afternoon by a tug owned by the MacDonald Dredging Company now in the city to free her.

COOL EVENINGS IN NORTHERN AREA

While a sweltering city is broiling in temperatures approaching close to the 100 mark, residents in the north section of the county are still dependent on heavy blankets in order to secure a good evening's sleep. Returning to the city this week from Maynooth where they had been camping for the week end, Dr. G. A. Stewart, in company with Ross Salisbury and John Salisbury declared that the weather experienced over the week end had been ideal. Cool nights, they declared, had called for extra blankets to ward off the chill

RELIEF TOTAL SLIGHTLY OFF

Twenty-Five Per Cent Drop From Winter Total

A slight drop in the number of those on relief in the city has been noted by the Central Relief Bureau during the past month. At present a total of 225 families are listed at Central Relief Bureau. During the past winter the average number has been somewhere in the neighborhood of three hundred per month. Seasonal employment since the beginning of June is believed to be responsible for the drop in numbers.

A talk-shopper is one who delights in questioning the salesgirls a good story or in picking some hole in it.

"All Kiwanis Night" Meeting Gala Affair for Club and Guests

Bright Addresses on Return to Anniversary Music and Dance Please

"All Kiwanis Night," an annual occasion when clubs in every part of Canada and the United States gather at approximately the same time as the opening of Kiwanis International" convention was fittingly observed Tuesday night in the Bay of Quinte Country Club. The club had as its guests Trenton Rotary Club and Rotary "Anna," also Kiwanis "Queens" and other loyling pests. Luncheon was served by the steward of the club, after which a program was rendered and the evening brought to a close with a dance, music being supplied by "The Commodores." In spite of the oppressive heat, the function was admirably staged amid most congenial surroundings.

Visitors Welcome

Jack McIntosh, president of the club, presided, and alongside the head table were Rex Brush, president of Trenton Rotary; Ed. Simmons, representing Howard Graham of Trenton; His Worship Mayor O. C. Thea and others. The guests were welcomed by Kiwanian Thea and Ken Couch brought greetings of the Trenton Rotary Club and Ed. Simmons expressed the regrets of the Mayor of Trenton in not being able to be present, but added that functions such as the one being held only cemented the fellowship and comradeship that exists between Trenton and Belleville, which has so much in common. Jr. C. MacLaurin proposed the toast to "Kiwanis International," giving in condensed form some of the objects of Kiwanis and what should be done to make the club prosperous in service and to have a rightful place in the community. He said that Kiwanis should meet regularly at their meetings and that committees in charge of programs always have a good program. The speaker thought too much attention was being given to the raising of money and not enough thought to the principles of Kiwanis. The secretary or the club, read the President's message, released to every club at the same time.

Musical Program

W. C. Mikel, K.C., delighted with a humorous address in proposing the toast to the guests, while Dr. R. E. Flynn responded. The programme arranged was one of the best in some time. Leo B. Riggs was in charge and the artists were heartily applauded for their various selections. A ladies' quartette, Mrs. Hackborn, Mrs. Leo B. Riggs, Miss Leona Riggs and Miss Reddick delighted with two numbers, while Harold Howard and James Bankier gave a duet. Cecil Searles of Peterborough contributed two violin solos. In all cases Mr. Riggs accompanied.

Eddie Shapiro was in charge of the stunts, and the guests all received handsome favors. Considerable amusement was created by the methods adopting to arrive at the winners but the guests entered into the spirit of the affair. At the close of the program the party adjourned to the dance floor, grouped of the club; many tables of bridge being in play, but the greatest attraction was the dance floor and the light fantastic was tripped to the early hours. The National Anthem closed another milestone in the history of Belleville Kiwanis.

Among those in all from International President Carl E. Endicott was, in part, as follows:

"Let us not look backward tonight to the successes and accomplishments of the past years, except that we may be urged to greater service and greater achievements in the future. Let us not exult in the friendships and fellowships of the past, but, rather in the possibilities for greater friendliness and a renewal of that fine moving spirit which has made Kiwanis what it is, and purified it in 1,300 communities and 100,000 hearts."

Mr. Endicott then went back to the birthplace of Kiwanis, and our present Kiwanis idea—"Forward in Kiwanis." This year looking ahead to a larger unity of purpose we have a slogan of even greater significance. That slogan is "United in Kiwanis."

"We took to heart that slogan of last year and we did go forward in many ways, notwithstanding the handicaps, both real and imaginary. We can and will face a new year with an organization united as never before. And, when we do face the possibilities of a Kiwanis, invested as it was never before needed, united as it was never before united, we will realize, as clubs, as well as individuals, that opportunities are ours for greater service.

"United in Kiwanis means a better fellowship among the members. United in Kiwanis means a better understanding and appreciation of the functions of District and International. United in Kiwanis means a more complete adoption of our great program of activities. United in Kiwanis will show great opportunities of helping the underprivileged of the world. United in Kiwanis will develop in us a more intense desire for a more intelligent and aggressive citizenship. United in Kiwanis will create the desire for better understanding and fellowship between all citizens, rural and urban. United in Kiwanis will enthuse us with a desire to promote our vocational guidance program and the various phases of our work with boys and girls. United in Kiwanis will give us a greater chance or selling a proper use of the franchise. United in Kiwanis will help us to solve the needs of Kiwanis, locally and internationally and in every other way."

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. FREDERICK KELLAR

The funeral of the late Mrs. Eliza Jane Kellar took place Friday afternoon from the home of her son, Christopher Kellar, University Ave. Thursday, to the Centre Street United Church, where service was conducted at two o'clock by the Rev. J. S. McMullen. Mr. McMullen also officiated at the committal in the Canniffton cemetery. A large number of friends and neighbors were in attendance at the funeral service to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased lady. She was a mediate neighborhood. The many floral tributes also evinced the kindly esteem in which Mrs. Kellar was held by her many friends during her lifetime, and were too, symbolic of the sympathy felt for the family in their bereavement.

Active as bearers were Messrs W Cox, M Duvall S. Boipit, R. Stapley, B. Wright and J. Stapley.

PETER VANALLEN

A well known and highly respected life-long resident of this district passed away sometime during the night at Corbyville in the person of Peter Van Allen. Mr. Van Allen was in his usual health when he retired Monday evening, but when relatives went to call him early this Tuesday morning they found he had died during his sleep, presumably about midnight.

The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Van Allen and was born in Foxboro, 85 years ago. He had always lived in this vicinity, and for a number of years past had made his home in Canniffton. Mr. Van Allen's father was a wood worker by trade and an expert cabinet maker as well. He had worked for different furniture factories in this city, when Belleville was a centre of furniture manufacturing ang he was actively engaged in his trade at time of his death. Mr. Van Allen was a member of the Tabernacle United Church, the L. O. Lodge of Canniffton and the Royal Black Chapter of Ireland, and of both these orders he was a Past Master. His wife predeceased four years ago and last week his brother, John, aged 80 years, passed away at Maynooth.

Condolences of their many friends are extended to the relatives remaining in the loss of a widely respected parent.

Surviving are one son, Lawrence in Canniffton, and three daughters, Mrs. John McLeod, of Maynooth; Mrs. Sarah J. Mason of this city, and Mrs. W. A. Tickner of Neville, Sask.

The remains will rest at the Thomas C. Trumble funeral parlor, 258 Front Street, until Thursday morning when they will be removed to the home of his daughter Mrs. Sarah J. Mason, N. Park St., for service there at 2.30 p.m.

PROVIDE WATER FOR THIRSTY DOGS, ADVICE

Plenty of Water Will Keep Dogs From Trouble

"Get a large pan. Fill it with fresh, cool water. Then set it out in the back yard where some of the wandering, thirst-tortured dogs will find it. Let them know where to it and the chance of any dog in the city getting mad is next to extremely remote now," declared Dr. D. H. Ackerill, well known veterinary surgeon today. "It's lack of water that makes dogs go mad and bite people," he remarked. "Give a dog plenty of water on a hot day and much trouble will be avoided." How difficult it is for a dog to get a drink in this city is pointed out by Dr. Ackerill. Throughout the city he has observed scores of dogs panting and investigating time the city with tongues lolling out, looking for the water that is so hard to get. "No wonder dogs go mad," he stated.

DROPS HIS FEET

Calgary, June 26—John Manuel, an architect and resident here several years, fell or leaped 270 feet to his death from the sunroom of a local hotel. He left behind his wife, widow and is believed to have relatives in Ottawa.

Geen's CORN REMEDY

For removal of Corns, Bunions, Warts and Calluses. A painless remedy for relief of corns.

NU-FEET Medicated Insoles

For relief of sore, swelling, burning, tired feet. 25c A PAIR

GEEN'S Drug Store

Prompt Delivery

TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT

London, June 27 (C.P. Cable) — Johnny Quill of London, scored a technical Knockout over Teddy Phillips or Toronto, in a bout at the Stadium Club last evening. The referee stopped the fight, a scheduled 12-round affair, in the sixth round to save the Canadian from further punishment.

WALKER'S Wednesday Morning BARGAINS Great Savings

Women's Angel Skin DRESSES

1.59

Women's Angelskin Dresses in a superfine quality. Sizes 14 to 42, and in colors of white, peach, sky pink, nile, etc. Greatest value shown today. Special—1.59.

Men's, Women's, Children's All Wool Bathing Suits

1.00

All pure wool Bathing Suits, in all sizes and a great variety of colors. One piece styles. We emphasize this, THAT THIS BARGAIN IS FOR WEDNESDAY MORNING ONLY.

OTHER LINES, ODDS AND ENDS, DISCONTINUED MERCHANDISE ON SALE WEDNESDAY MORNING—REMARKABLE SAVINGS.

WALKER STORES, LIMITED

Tomorrow At the CAPITOL

2.45 3.45 7.15 9.00

WHOSE FACE WAS RED? . . . When the Window-Cleaner Saw the Lady in the Bath?

YOU'LL HOWL! You'll Scream !!

ALBERT BURDON

RENEE GADD

MOLLY LAMONT

IN HENRY MOLLISON

Directed by LUPINO LANE

ENGLAND'S MERRIEST

WHAT HO! For the Life of a Window Cleaner

BRITISH

Gay and Rollicking Romance and Adventure of a Window Cleaner and his Girl Friend. How they attempt to "crash" society . . . their breathless experience in frustrating a gang of thieves . . . Good wholesome fun for every member of the family.

ADDED: HARRY LANGDON THE HITCH HIKER CURIOSITIES NEWS

RELEASED BY EMPIRE FILMS

TO-NIGHT 7.15 and 9.15

NIGHT OF TERROR and WORLD GONE MAD and FREE "ROYAL PRINCESS" DINNERWARE

SELECTION GIFT OF WEDGEWOOD "RICHELIEU" FRIDAY—ALL PERFORMANCES

CHILDREN! — ALL ESSAYS MUST BE AT THE CAPITOL BY THURSDAY NOON!

Sold Only By The

Haines' Shoe House

230 FRONT ST. In Belleville and District

Take HONEY DEW

On Your Picnic Tomorrow

Bring in your thermos bottle and have it filled

Quart Bottles — 30c

Pint Bottles — 15c

LATTIMER'S

DRUG STORE Phone 67

THE 1933 "BROADWAY MELODY"

the Greatest HIT in Years! Returns to BELLEVILLE TODAY

Every Spit Second Alive with Love, Life, Romance and Music, Song and Beauty!

42nd STREET

Warner Bros' mighty extravaganza of drama, melody and show of dazzling stars! 50 featured players! 200 beautiful girls!

Added Treats TARZAN'S "Wrestling Match" Canadian News Revue

14 STARS—200 GIRLS

Bella THEATRE Belleville, Ont.

Today & Wed.

2.30 — 7.10 — 9.10

Thursday is Treasure Gift Night

Ten Surprise Gifts including a Beautiful WALNUT SECRETARY BOOKCASE.

EXTRA! THURS. EVG. 8 P.M.—Mayor Tice on behalf of the Kiwanis Club will reopen the seals on the watch and announce the winner of the Free Trip to the Chicago World's Fair, or the Cash Equivalent.

Stabilize Sterling is Suggestion of France and Exclude U. S. Dollar

French Would Have Pound Linked up With Franc

UNITED ACTION

World Ring Currency Specialists Meets in London

London, June 27 (AP) — United action by central banks of France, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium to induce Great Britain to stabilize sterling and crush an international ring of currency speculators was decided upon at a secret meeting today.

Banks of Holland, Switzerland and Belgium, it was learned on high authority, agreed to join the French in bringing pressure on Great Britain to stabilize sterling in relation to the franc.

It was decided to ask the Bank of England to make a unilateral declaration in which it would be stated that a further depreciation of continential currencies would be distinctly unfavorable to England.

Nervousness Grows.

Nervousness sweeping over continental Europe over the ability of gold standard countries to remain on the gold basis caused the French delegation at midnight last night to call the closed session.

"We have decided to defend the gold standard to the last ditch," the president of one French bank said at the meeting.

The bank representatives met in the geological museum this morning before the arrival of the world economic conference delegates.

Gold Bloc Countries Active.

London, June 27 (CP)—The world economic conference this morning was in the throes of a fresh dramatic development precipitated by the unexpected action of gold bloc countries in trying to force European monetary stabilization irrespective of what happens to the American dollar.

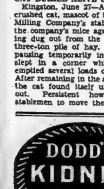
Representatives of the Central Banks of France, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium met secretly to perfect plans which involve forcing Great Britain to stabilize along with continental countries.

From this meeting came a decision by one of the conferees that gold would be defended to the last ditch.

Many observers expressed the opinion that this scheme is in effect, a challenge to President Roosevelt's price-raising program whilst the gold bloc nations themselves would force a depreciation of their currencies and would be disastrous.

British Sit Tight.

The bankers decided this morning to ask the Bank of England to make a declaration to the effect that it would not be in Great Britain's interest to see continental currencies depreciated.



Meanwhile, the British were sitting tight behind their attitude, but it was learned that a representative of the Bank of England was conferring this morning with Leon Fraser, president of the bank for international settlements.

The situation simmered down to this, according to well-informed conference circles: Success or failure of the gold bloc programme depended on Great Britain's decision.

On the other hand, she would suffer trade losses were France and other countries forced off gold, with a resultant depreciation of currencies in relation to the pound.

CAT BURIED ALIVE UNDER HAY

Kingston, June 27—A temporarily crushed cat, mascot of the Kingston Milling Company's stables, pursued the company's mice again after being dug out from the bottom of a three-ton pile of hay. The cat, pausing temporarily in its labor, slept in a corner while workmen compiled several loads of hay on it. After remaining in the spot all night the cat found itself unable to get out. Persistent howling caused stablemen to more the hay.

KING GUSTAV AIDS ROMANCE

Birthday of King Brings Crop of Humorous Anecdotes

Stockholm, June 27 (AP)—How King Gustav of Sweden became involved in a sailor's romance was recalled in the mass of anecdotes and biographical literature which greeted the king's recent 75th birthday.

"Darling," read a note His Majesty found amid his mail one morning, "can you meet me at the usual place tonight?"

Investigation revealed the message was intended for the Swedish warship "King Gustav V," and for a certain sailor in particular.

King Gustav paused to chuckle and dictated a telegram to the captain of the warship suggesting the addresses be given above leave that evening.

TRIP TO WORLD'S FAIR FOR BRAVE LADS

Inmates of Orphanage Fog Train and Prevent Wreck

Chicago, June 27—(CP)—For flagging an approaching train and warning of a broken rail on the tracks near their homes six boys from the Passaic Home and Orphan Asylum of Passaic, New Jersey, are getting their reward with a trip to the World's Fair.

HEPBURN ENGAGES HALL FOR DEBATE

Expects Hon. Charles McCrea or Some Other to Meet Him

TORONTO, June 27.—Claiming that from the reaction in the Ontario press it is evident that the people of the province want all phases of Hydro discussed in their proposed public debate, along the lines of his original challenge, Mitchell F. Hepburn, Liberal leader, has written Hon. Charles McCrea, Minister of Mines, to inform him that he has engaged Foresters' Hall, Toronto, for the night of July 14, and expects him or some other Ontario Cabinet colleague to speak on behalf of the Government.

"It is my sincere hope and desire," declared Mr. Hepburn, "that we shall be able to have a full discussion on the Georgian Bay Canal, Charter Bill and Hydro issues in Ontario, conducted by discussion further by correspondence is "futile and useless," he says.

BODIES OF FLIERS CAUGHT IN TREES

Spanish Aviators Meet Death In Mexician Woods

Mexico City, June 27.—The chief of the immigration office at Puerto, Mexico, Vera Cruz State, reported the Department of Interior that the bodies of the two transatlantic fliers, Capt. Mariano Barberan and Lieut. Joaquin Collar, have been found.

The airplane Cuatro Vientos was found destroyed by Lake Alcoran of Lake de la Machona, "Tabisco State," the message said. "The pilots were dead and will be brought to Puerto Mexico in the tugboat Osinco which is leaving Puerto Mexico at 3 a.m. tomorrow, carrying the commander of the local garrison and other officials."

The bodies of the two airmen were reported found hanging in trees where their plane crashed while they were flying from Havana, Cuba, to Mexico City, early last week.

MOLEY PLANS TO LAND AT PLYMOUTH

Cobh, Irish Free State, June 27 (AP)—Assistant Secretary of State Raymond Moley, who has intended to land here and fly to London where he will attend the World Economic Conference, changed his plans today and decided to proceed to Plymouth aboard the steamship Manhattan.

The Manhattan is due to reach Plymouth about 8.30 a.m. today (1.30 p.m. E.S.T.) and Mr. Moley is therefore scheduled to reach London at 11.30 p.m. (6.30 p.m. E.S.T)

BOY'S CHEST IS CRUSHED BY CAR

London, Ont., June 27 (CP) — Injured when his father's car collided with one driven by Stanley Crawford of Prospect Hill on the Asylum side road last night, Glen McVey, eight year old son of Thos. McVey, died in hospital early today.

The boy's chest was crushed and his lung punctured.

ONTARIOANS SEE ONTARIO

Sault Ste Marie, Ont., June 27—(CP)—Merchants here are reporting a large increase in tourist traffic with a total percentage of cars from Ontario points.

SEE FOR YOURSELF! ATTEND THIS SPECIAL

DEMONSTRATION

FRIDAY, JUNE 30th

It is our good fortune to announce that on the above dates an Expert of the Toronto Staff of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, world noted Foot Authority, will be at our store for the greatest Demonstration of Foot Comfort ever held here in this city. It means an opportunity such as you cannot afford to miss, if you suffer from your feet. What you will learn about your feet through the aid of this Expert will be of life-long benefit to you. You will know your feet as you never knew them before; what causes them to hurt and what to do to always enjoy foot comfort. The Dr. Scholl Appliance or Remedy you need to relieve and remove the cause of your suffering and the proper shoe for foot comfort will be demonstrated on your own feet WITHOUT CHARGE. Keep this ad as a reminder to be here.

AGNEW-SURPASS SHOE STORES LIMITED

252 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

Australian and Argentine Delegates Walk out from Big Four Wheat Meeting

Crisis Reached in Acreage Reduction Efforts at London

REASON UNKNOWN

Reports From Conference Indicate Important Moment Has Come

London, June 27 (AP)—A renewed threat of one or more delegations which will follow if the Canadian and U. S. wheat surplus of 500,000,000 bushels is "dumped" on the world market acted today to save from breakdown the wheat acreage restrictions negotiations of the four principal wheat producing nations.

A conference of representatives of the "big four" broke up after being in session for an hour. Stanley M. Bruce of Australia told Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and the representatives of the United States and Argentina that three Australian states were adamant in their opposition to the restricted scheme.

Mr. Bruce himself is not unwilling, he declared, to work out some plan whereby Australian adherence to the project could be assured, but he commented that the difficulties of his position could not be minimized.

Crisis Reached

London, June 27 (AP)—A crisis in wheat acreage restriction negotiations developed at the world economic conference today when Australian and Argentine representatives left a meeting of delegates from the "big four" wheat producing nations.

The departing representatives did not make a statement, but it was indicated that discussions had taken a turn far from successful.

Premier R. B. Bennett of Canada remained with Henry Morgenthau, Sr., and Frederick E. Murphy, American representatives, for a while after the others had left, and then departed himself.

The American group was left alone, earnestly discussing the situation in a private conference room.

Warning Given

What refusal of the North American surplus would do to world market was called to the attention of Mr. Bruce.

Afterwards it was commented that no one issue with this statement of the position, the problem remaining how to convince the Australian States.

Mr. Bruce and the Argentines left the meeting at this stage and Prime Minister Bennett and the Americans remaining on discussing the situation.

Mr. Bennett departed about noon and the Americans stayed together about half hour, reconsidering the position. One of them said afterwards that they were "convinced that Australia will have to come into line."

MEMORIAL IS TO BE MODIFIED

OOTTAWA, June 27.—Canada's national war memorial is being altered in accordance with suggestions of the Prime Minister. The memorial, which was completed two years ago, but has now gone back to the March Brothers' studio for changing. When completed the memorial will be brought to Canada, although it will not be definitely selected.

There is a strong likelihood that the Government may abandon the idea of placing it on the Parliament Hill post office it because conditions are not ripe for tearing down the building and spending a million or two on a new post office.

RESCUE ATTEMPT FAILS

Windsor, June 27—John Kelly, 11, was drowned near Amherstburg despite efforts of 11 year old Eva Charlton, Sandwich, to save him. The little girl kept the boy above water for several minutes, until his struggling overcame her, before other bathers could come to the rescue. The body of the drowned boy has not yet been recovered and it is feared that it has drifted into Lake Erie.

Baked Fields, Dried Pastures Tell Story of Drought Damage

Even if rain does come in drenching showers within the next day or so, its arrival will be too late to repair the inestimable damage to the district around this city the past weeks of drough have caused, in the opinion of farmers all through the section. They point to sunbaked fields with the formerly green crops now a rusty brown, dry and burned. Many springs in the back country have started to dry up. Cattle in pasture have been forced to graze on grass that is dry and branched. The heat is declared, too,

NEGOTIATION IS BEST PLAN

British Chancellor Places Duty on Debtor And Creditor

London, June 26—(AP)—Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the world economic conference today the best form of procedure in settling such questions as international indebtedness is by negotiation between the debtors who know their problems and the creditors.

He spoke in the monetary subcommittee dealing with immediate measures for financial reconstruction. The introduction to his remarks was a statement that he was going to give some observations of a creditor country as the sub-committee had been listening to debtors.

"The history of foreign loans has been such as to shake the confidence of lenders," the Chancellor declared.

He expressed the thought that in the future safeguards would be arranged.

"It does not seem to me," he continued, "that the present situation calls for permanent reorganization of debts, both short and long term.

Remarking that the best form of procedure is negotiation between debtors and creditors, he said, however, that there is a "reasonable complaint" of the debtor that there is no organization with which they can negotiate with creditors. He stated that certain organizations in Britain are representing the creditors, and that they have no statutory basis as Britain feels that no statutory authority should be given.

The Chancellor suggested that if national organizations should be formed, they could arrange for joint meetings.

He asserted that he would deprecate any attempt to lay down inflexible principles. "All we insist that is wanted is some authoritative impartial body."

HOT TAR SPRAYS OVER WORKMAN

Kitchener, June 27—Two men are in the Kitchener-Waterloo Hospital as the result of an accident late Monday on the Kitchener-Guelph highway, near Breslau. They are Gerald Shantz and Ted Kitchener, both of Breslau. The men were tarring cracks on No. 7 highway, when a car, driven by R. J. Mitchell of Preston, struck Shantz. The car also is said to have struck a tank containing the hot tar, spraying the men with the scalding liquid.

Shantz has a broken leg and other injuries, while Harmer's injuries consist of burns. Neither man is thought to be in great danger.

MOOSE JAW WILL NOT PAY EXCHANGE

Moose Jaw, June 27 (CP)—The city of Moose Jaw will meet a maturity of bonds issue of $100,000 on July 1 in Canadian funds and will not pay exchange in New York funds, City Council here has decided.

In session last night, the council passed a resolution to instruct the city treasurer to pay all debenture and interest payments due or accruing in Canadian funds only."

HUTTON MAY HAVE JOB AS WARBLER

McAllen, Tex., June 27.—(CP)—Ignatius Loyola Hutton, Mrs. Ignatius Hutton, baritone husband of Aimee Semple McPherson, the Ontario-born evangelist, 50 peso ring this week-end in the fight legles. If he will sing a song for the bull fight crowd at Reynosa, Mexico, immediately across the border, July 4.

He also offered Hutton 250 pesos more if he would sight and kill one bull. A previous offer to Hutton should wear a bull fighter's costume.

CONVICTED AT 18 YEARS

Amherst, N.S., June 26—A Supreme Court jury returned a verdict of guilty against Alvah Howard, aged 18, who went on trial Thursday in the court house here on Miss Mabel Smith last February. Trial of 18 year old Trueman Smith, on the same charge, was postponed to open today. Henwood will be sentenced by Mr. Justice Ross at the conclusion of the court term.

NO SUCH ANIMAL

Montreal, June 27—Arrested on a charge of keeping a betting establishment, Gertrude Doucette, 36, the only woman arrested on such a charge in Montreal, was freed when it was proved that there was no such horse as that which was mentioned in the charge allege they bet on, June 3.

LIGHTNING'S QUEER PRANK

Appleton, Wis, June 27—(CP)—Lightning came down a stovepipe at Daniel Schmidt's home in Grand Chute, took the top off one of his shoes, burned his foot and left him standing on the sole of the other shoe. Otherwise he was unhurt.

STERILIZATION ADVOCATED

Windsor, Ont., June 27—(CP)—Voluntary sterilization of mentally unfit was advocated by Dr. Madge Thurlow Macklin, London, in address here. She suggested calls for certification of unfitness by two physicians and the willingness of the patient to undergo the operation.

The Hit of the Beach

MOORES Delicious

Home Made Candy Is Good For You

Young and Old find its goodness just the thing for touching that hungry spot between meals during the long hours spent on the Beach, or at the Summer Camp.

— The Children Love It —

And no day would be half so joyful without a good supply of our real old-fashioned candy to start out with.

CANDY SPECIALS

Butter Cream Hand Rolled Chocolates, per pound	29c	Cream Caramels, per pound	25c
French Nougat, per pound	25c	Chocolate Nut Caramels, per pound	19c
Chocolate Fudge, per pound	15c	Maple Fudge, per pound	15c
		Cocoanut Crisp, per pound	19c

2 POUNDS FOR 25c

Don't Spoil The Children's Pleasure—and Yours Too, by Forgetting It.

MOORES

CANDY—ICE CREAM AND TEA ROOM
Next to Royal Bank—2 Doors North of Campbell St.

Toohey Evidence, Says Counsel, Did Not Quite Tell the Truth

Toronto, June 27—Admission by William Toohey that he had not told the truth when he appeared before the Dorland enquiry, placed before Hon. Justice Kingstone yesterday by T. S. Edmore, K. C., counsel for Toohey, resulted in the following retort by Charles W. Bell, K. C., Commission counsel, who "informs the Attorney-General that Toohey committed perjury." His lordship's action followed in swift climax the statement by Peter White, K. C., counsel for Chief Constable Draper, that he had been requested by Mr. Ellsworth to make a statement to him. Mr. White, having preceded Mr. White in the probe summation, was unable to appear for himself.

Mr. White stated that Mr. Ellsworth wished to make it clear that statements he had made about Toohey was having "told all the facts" while in the box were at Toohey's instructions. His Lordship promptly demanded that Mr. Ellsworth appear before him.

Mr. Edmore then repeated, in greater detail, what Mr. White had presented for him. His Lordship immediately rebuked that the Attorney-General be informed of the circumstances, "surrounding this admission of perjury in order that proper action may be taken."

Attorney-General Wilfrid M. Price stated last night that he had not as yet received any communication from commission counsel regarding the matter.

"All I can say," declared the Attorney-General, "is that when Commission counsel comes forward I shall have it dealt with immediately by the departmental officers and shall take whatever action under the circumstances is deemed advisable."

CHLORINE GAS SENDS 50 PERSONS TO HOSPITAL

Terror spread for blocks in Indianapolis when chlorine gas, the deadly gas of war time, leaking from a tank, sent some 50 persons, including 12 firemen and six policemen, to a hospital. Full effects of the gas on the victims could not be immediately determined.

Photos show a patrolman pointing to one of the leaking gas cylinders, in a warehouse, and seven-year-old Pauline Wiseman, one of the pupils, both victims of the poisonous fumes. The gas is used for water purification.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.

P. H. MORTON, Publisher

CHILDREN AND AUTOMOBILES

With the holidays this week pouring out streams of scholars from the schools, automobile drivers must use more than ordinary care in driving. The intense heat of summer and the sense of relief from discipline which the closing of school brings may cause children to become careless in crossing streets. It is unfortunate that this is so and the greater duty devolves upon the drivers to see that no child is injured.

The child is filled with the sense of the fullness of life and it is often in these roseliest moments that maiming or death comes in the way. Even if the child does make a mistake or is careless, the motorist knows this condition of mind is likely to exist and the thought driver is ready for just such emergencies.

SANE HOLIDAY PLEASURE

The midsummer holiday of Dominion Day is just ahead. It will mean many thousands travelling on the highways and in all probability will mean accidents. Some now healthy will doubtless lie, a week hence, on beds of pain awaiting convalescence from injuries. And the toll may be worse than mere injuries, it may be maiming for life and it may even be death upon the roads or in the waters of the rivers and lakes.

To contemplate such catastrophies is to cast a cloud over the horizon, but past experiences prove it only too true. Hamilton Spectator pointing to an editorial in a U. S. magazine on the inevitability of injury and death in July Fourth celebrations adds that because no person knows who is going to be the next victim there is little possibility of more carefulness being exercised.

SIR ADAM BECK

A window, depicting the Crucifixion was dedicated in memory of Sir Adam Beck, first chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission, in St. Luke's-in-the-Garden, the sanctuary in the midst of the hospital buildings at the sanitorium at Byron, near London, on Sunday. Vice-Chairman C. A. Maguire of the Commission, and the Dean of Huron paid tribute to the spirit of great men who give willingly themselves in service for others, not without struggle and sacrifice.

Sir Adam Beck was one of those men who saw a way of service, by utilizing the natural resources of this province in the water powers for the benefit of the entire people, with power sold at cost without the intermediary of any factor which would increase the price. It was a vision which has been realized in full measure, indeed nothing else quite of this kind has been attempted. Into this service Beck threw himself with energy—the man with the vision was also the man with the executive gifts.

Most men have not the outstanding qualifications of a Beck but they can at least serve in some less public capacity and men of limited means can accomplish in their sphere something which in its way is equally important as long as it is done in the spirit of altruism.

It is such an outstanding contribution as that of the creation of the Hydro for the people of Ontario which points the moral of the value of the less public deeds. Life itself is practically all small deeds the story of which gets little beyond the door of the doer and without these the big deeds would be impossible.

A SMALL ESTATE

The size of the estate never could be taken as an index of a person's contribution to the country in which he or she has lived. Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, former B.C. cabinet minister, left a net estate of only three hundred and thirty dollars. Yet she was able to serve her day and generation well. Probably the fact that she gave no undue care to money meant that she was able to serve.

CREATION STILL GOING ON

Creation is still going on in the cosmic vastness of interstellar space, Dr. Robert Millikan stated a few nights ago at Chicago. He revealed that he and his associates have succeeded in weighing the positron or the positive electron. They have also determined within a small fraction of error that the positron has the same mass as the negative electron.

He announced conclusions that elements even heavier than uranium, the heaviest of known metals, were being created in interstellar space. He accepts the Einstein theory of the interchangeability of mass and energy. Transmutation of one element to another is taken as proven by a new weighing machine known as the "atom scale."

A rolling stone can gather no moss.—Publius Syrus.

A goose flies by a chart which the Royal Geographical Society could not mend.—O. W. Holmes.

"If a man wants to know what his real religion is, he should ask himself, 'What are things which I would rie rather than do?'"—Dean Inge.

SIDELIGHTS—
GRAVE and GAY

EVERY MORNING

Every morning, with the dew
Shining on the clover,
Comes a sense of all things new,
Life seems starting over!

Sun and song and flash of wings,
Leaves so blithely dancing:
Robin redbreast as he sings,
Care-free, bold, romancing!

Every morning, year on year,
Still the wonder greets us;
Spite of trouble, spite of fear,
Nothing quite defeats us.

Days may bring their freight of cares,
Weariness and clamor:
But the heart each morning shares
Immemorial glamor!

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

DRIED APPLES offered for sale on the market, in this day and generation of evaporated foods and evaporated fortunes, brings back memories of former days when strings of dried and drying apples festooned the old farm kitchen and perfumed the air with that cidery aroma. Dried applesauce was esteemed highly in those days before diets broke loose and appendicitis became epidemic.

x x x x

DISTILLERY STOCKS are going up as the Yanks prepare to down copious draughts of the best Canadian whiskey, State after State going off the dry basis with such emphasis that there can be no doubt but that Andy Volstead's Ark will be floated higher than Mount Ararrat when the ban is finally and completely lifted—then will the three-point-two creek be swollen to river size, and the folk who have been busy drinking Canada Dry will set up parlor, for the busy corners which used to be monopolized by pubs are now reserved for filling stations of another sort. So howareya, come in and have a touch—and as Harry Lauder used to sing "Then we had anither one, and after that anither one—" and so far into the night.

x x x x

AL SMITH, known as "The Happy Warrior," ex-Governor of New York, ex-candidate for the Presidency, ex-newsboy, and principal owner of the Empire State Building, tallest business building in the world, was a character witness for Charles E. Mitchell, a New York banker, accused of evading income tax payment. Arthur Brisbane, chief editor of the Hearst chain of newspapers, was another character witness for Mitchell, and the resultant verdict of not guilty by a jury after twenty-four hours' consideration, was not altogether unexpected. Proves again that more than half the law battle is the lawyer.

x x x x

All day Bobby had been asking questions, and his elder brother was beginning to feel the strain.

"Gee, Harry," piped the little fellow, after a particularly awkward question, "why doesn't the sea ever dry up?"

"Because it's like you — it can't," retorted the exasperated Harry.

x x x x

"How did you complete your great dictionary?" the lexicographer was asked.

"Oh, it was something like having a quarrel with one's wife—one word led to another."

x x x x

The shopper was on her way out of the village shop after leaving a list of groceries to be delivered. At the door she turned and said coldly:

"Never mind the cranberries, Mr. Oats. I see the cat is sleeping on them."

"Lord bless you, mum," cried the shopkeeper, "she won't mind me waking her up!"

x x x x

Father—"Well, I can't see why you don't like Horace. He's so intelligent—why, he's like a walking encyclopaedia."

Daughter—"Yes, but I'd rather have somebody with a car."

x x x x

Mrs. Chitchat—"You seem to have forgotten you told me to put out my tongue three minutes ago, Doctor."

Doctor—"That's all right; you can talk again now. I only wanted to write this prescription in silence."

x x x x

MacTavish—"What for do ye shut yer eyes while ye're drinking?"

MacDougal—"Whist, mon, because the doctor tells me I musn't so much as look at whusky."

x x x x

Joan—"Whatever's the matter, John? What are you laughing at?"

John—"The best joke I've heard for years. Our maid has given notice—she's got a job in a china shop."

x x x x

Long—"You say you never quarrel with your wife?"

Short—"Never. She goes her way and I go hers."

LINDY HOME FOR CHILD WELFARE

Childish laughter and the patter of baby feet will once more resound through this house of tragedy, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, from which their child was kidnapped in March, 1932. The house and estate of 350 acres on Sourland Mountain, near Hopewell, N.J., is being transferred into an institution for the welfare of children. The Lindberghs will be trustees.

TREATMENT OF NERVOUSNESS OF CHILDREN

Untreated Child Likely to be Neurotic All Life

BY LOUIS E. BISCH, M.D. Ph.D., Famous Authority on Health and Psychology

Copyright 1933, King Feature Syndicate, Inc.

That children can be, and frequently are, nervous goes without saying. We all know of such cases. What we must guard against, however, is the rather prevalent notion that nervousness is part and parcel of the natural temperance of youth and that, even when it is excessive, a child will eventually outgrow it.

The truth of the matter is that a child seldom, if ever, changes a high-strung, nervous make-up unless the same be treated. Even then it may take months and years. In fact, what usually happens is that an untreated child becomes, and remains a neurotic in later life.

A child should be high-spirited and active. That is normal. A child should, however, be able to relax and rest.

If emotional instability is prominent, that is, if the child cries and laughs too readily, or perhaps hysterically, or it is given to violent anger, stubborn tantrums, and the like, the nervous system surely needs attention.

Akin to this general type is the one where cruelty to animals and even to playmates and babies is in evidence. Such a child may be capable of love as well as kindness but deep down there is a certain savagery present which had best be eradicated from his character.

Nervousness may manifest itself in inability to concentrate in play or the performance of a task. Here the interest shifts rapidly from one thing to another. Children of this type are quickly dissatisfied both with their toys and their playmates. They never accomplish a really enjoying anything.

Restlessness during sleep, night cries, bed wetting, dreams that frighten the child, sleep-walking, thumb-sucking and other similar manifestations should always be considered as being significant of a state of upset nerves. Such children are tired when they awaken in the mornings simply because they have not rested well.

Jerky movements of the body (twitching of individual muscle groups), twitching of the eyes, biting of the nails and the like also call for attention.

Nervous children are also likely to be afraid of bugs and beetles, cats, dogs, etc. They may go into a veritable spasm of fear on beholding a snake or even a spider. A robust, healthy child, on the other hand, may be cautious about certain animals and insects but he never is overwhelmed with fright.

A child whose nervous constitution is not started may or may not get along well in his studies at school. Sometimes, and contrary perhaps to what one might expect, such a high-strung youngster is exceptionally bright and alert and, without much effort, he easily outstrips the others of his age and group. Then again a nervous child may suffer from poor memory and general inability to learn, no matter how hard he tries.

Let every parent therefore be on the watch for signs of nervousness in his children. And when they do appear let them be considered equally as serious as the symptoms of a contagious disease.

Dr. Bisch's Daily Diet Hint

Because sugar is so readily oxidized to produce additional energy it is often used by mountain climbers and marathon runners, usually in the form of sweet chocolate. Persons with a weak heart, the aged, and those in convalescent states are also benefitted as a rule from eating sugar in some palatable form provided, of course, it does not upset their digestion.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 27, 1913

Mr and Mrs. Charles Thompson of Buffalo, N.Y. are visiting with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Warhag, West Bridge Street, have left for Edmonton, Alta., where they will visit their son and daughter.

The paving of Front street will be commenced in the near future. In conversation with Mayor Wills we learned today that the specifications for the work are being prepared by the engineer and contractenders for the pavement will be called shortly.

It is expected that the dredging in connection with the building of the new dock here will be commenced next week. Representatives of the dredging company are now in the city looking over the work.

Mr. C. J. Atkinson of Toronto will deliver a lecture in the high school auditorium this evening on supervised playgrounds.

Dr. D. Wilson of Ottawa is visiting his home in this city.

Mr. Charles Hubbard of Toronto is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. J. Lentz of Kingston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hogan, Baldwin street.

30 YEARS AGO

JUNE 27, 1903

The Fifteenth Regiment mustering 249 of all ranks, was inspected by Col. Buchan. Following was the strength of the various companies: A, Capt. Marsh and 35 men; B, Lieut. Hayes and 39 men; C, Lieut. Brown and 31 men; D, Lieut. Allen and 37 men; E, Capt. Barragar and 39 men; F, Capt. Cooper and 38 men. The regimental staff numbered 13 including Lt. Col. Halliwell, Major Pope, Major Stewart, Capt. Morden, adjutant, Quartermaster Vermilyea and the noncommissioned staff. Both bands were on parade.

Cows from the township of Sidney are coming to Ivan and eating our grass. Where are the police?

Mr. Fred Elliott, son of Dr. Elliott, formerly of Belleville, is spending his holidays here.

The seventy-first picnic of the Bridge Street Church Sunday School will be held at Twelve O'clock Point on Wednesday. The steamer Aletha will make four trips.

The city should do all that it can to aid St. Agnes School which promises to be a valuable addition to our educational institutions.

40 YEARS AGO

JUNE 27, 1893

Thos. Congdon has been gazetted second lieutenant, supernumerarily in the 15th Battalion.

Belleville is one of the ports at which coal oil for illuminating purposes may be imported in tank cars.

The executive committee of the city council met last night to consider the resignation of city treasurer Robert Tannahill and Mr. Wallbridge and the following aldermen were present: Walmsley, Ponton, Lansberger, Cook, Collins, Wills, Diamond, and Lingham. Mr. Tannahill could not be induced to withdraw his resignation. The committee therefore reluctantly accepted it, every member expressing regret that the city should lose so capable an official. Mr. Tannahill kindly offered to assist the new treasurer in any way he can.

Mr. H. K. Smith is spending a few days in Toronto

Mr. W. H. Campbell, barrister, is in Toronto on business connected at Trinity College.

Citizens' fourth annual decoration day will be observed on Wednesday, July 5th. The steamer Ella Ross will make hourly trips to the cemetery commencing at 12 o'clock noon. Tickets for the round trip, 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 27, 1883

A log got caught in the wheel of the ferry steamer Mary Ethel this morning and caused some delay.

The steam yacht Rosamond will be launched this evening.

As the warm weather has now set in, the public will be pleased to learn that the ice cream rooms of Dickens and Sanderson (successors to Wm. Dickens and Sons) are now open.

NEW NEW NEW

GOODRICH COMMANDER

WORLD'S LOWEST PRICED QUALITY TIRE

A bargain if ever there was one! An amazing new tire built by Goodrich and offered at the almost unbelievable prices listed below. There have been too many cheaply-constructed tires flooding the market—tires built to a price and not worth the money—not safe—not economical. So Goodrich built the Commander to give a quality tire to the man who must buy at a low price.

The Goodrich Commander will give you long life, durability, economy. It has an excellent non-skid tread. It gives really amazing value at rock-bottom prices.

FREE

This handsome emblem will be sent gladly upon request to prove you if your car is a 1933 Chevrolet, Ford and Pontiac, Buick and Oldsmobile a member of the Silver-town Safety League.

Commander	Standard Cavalier	Safety Silvertown
4.40-21 (29x4.40)	$5.25	$ 7.30
4.50-21 (30x4.50)	5.90	8.15
4.75-19 (28x4.75)	6.65	9.00
5.00-19 (29x5.00)	7.25	9.70
5.25-18 (28x5.25)	8.15	10.35

Excise Tax Extra.

Al's Tire Shop
301 Coleman St.
Phone 1380

W. E. Grills
85 Moira St. W.
Phone 1151F

Aselstine & Sons
40 Moira St. E.
Phone 229

GOODRICH Silvertown Safety TIRES

LOOK FOR THE MOUNTIE

This sign identifies us as a Goodrich Tire dealer where you can buy the Goodrich Safety Silvertown with Life-Saver Golden Ply.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK — By R. J. Scott.

GRAB BAG

In the revolutionary war, name a famous Frenchman who officered American troops?

What is the Pentateuch?

What section of New York City roughly corresponds to the Latin Quarter in Paris?

Correctly Speaking—

Do not use quotation marks to enclose proverbial expressions that do not constitute grammatically and logically complete statements.

Words of Wisdom

Laws and institutions are constantly tending to gravitate. Like clocks, they must be occasionally cleansed, and wound up, and set to true time.—Henry Ward Beecher—"Life Thoughts."

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day have much self-reliance and love to rule.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. Marquis de La Fayette.

2. The first five books of the Old Testament.

3. Greenwich Village.

STATION L-O-V-E

BY CRAIG CARROLL

"We!"

"Yes, Judy. We. Because Dick is through and we both know it. And that's all there is to it."

"We don't both know it, and Dick isn't through!"

"Maybe not. But they'll never let him work over again. No matter what Jenks says about it."

"You mean they'll never put him back on the staff?"

"Of course not."

"But suppose——" Just in time she caught herself.

What was it the man Flavin in the advertising salesman said? If announcer could not himself and his voice direct to the client, instead of to the station, he could make a lot more money and he wouldn't be responsible to the station at all; they'd have to use him whether they wanted to or not!

That was it. Then if Jenks wanted Dick Mason and nobody else?

"Suppose——" Judy said quickly. "I'm meeting some one."

"Not Dick?"

She shook her head. "Not, not Dick. I'm not trouble for Dick."

"That's right. He's gone, isn't he?" Elion asked, innocently.

That was too much.

"Then she said," he's gone. And you're the one who sent him away."

"I——"

"You. You know you did. You let them fire him without saying a word about it."

"Judy, I give you my word that isn't so."

"Your word!"

"My word. And for once, it's good. Because I didn't even know what was going to happen. Listen, Judy, I did a rotten trick. There wasn't any time to warn Dick. You'll have got the job anyhow. You'll never sure what Lone Ranger might have been said or done. I had to make sure. I was doing it for your sake, Judy, and I'm not sorry that I made a mistake. I didn't need to do anything. I've found out since that Jenks would have insisted on having you, no matter what anybody else said. He just put on the second audition to keep everything happy around here. But about putting Mason on the spot like that——"

"I didn't know, Judy. I didn't. I'm not that low, anyhow."

"You're not."

"No. And you know I'm not. Heard about Flavin?——I heard that somebody had been talking, and that Dick was likely to get in trouble. I tried to square it. Could not do a thing. I came up to see you and tell you that I'd done my best and said a lot of other things that sounded fine. That's what I meant every word I said, Judy, I love you."

She drew away from him as far as she could, but against the wall. Her face eloquent with distaste.

"Please don't say that again," she said.

"But I will, will keep on saying it. It's the only important thing in my life. Nothing! else matters but that. I love you. Don't you believe it?"

"No!"

"But how can you doubt it? Have not I proved it?"

"You think you've proved anything? When you let a man I really care for go? Is that the only important thing you did?"

He knew his lips tightened. His eyes, which had been tender, were hard as at once.

"You care about Dick Mason, eh? That much?"

"That much and more. More than you could ever understand. I love him. Some day I'll understand Elion Day? I love Dick Mason and always will. And you're the one to pay for hurting him! I hate you!"

Day clipped the word in an ironic gesture of surrender.

"The queen has spoken. All right. That's the end of it."

"Elion!"

"What? What now?"

"Aren't you going to tell that what really happened to Dick? You owe me that much. You can't lose any job, because you don't work now. You've got to your contract. Aren't you going to be fair enough to make them give Dick back his job? You can do it. You do anything. You know he didn't!"

"Won't you——"

"Won't I go in and say I'm a terrible person? Dick Mason's silly-white lamb and please give him his job back? Won't I say that?"

"Not that. You know what I mean. ——"

"Just enough so Dick will be here again and you can go on running around and laugh at me. Hah!"

"But you said——"

"I said I loved you. I didn't say anything about anybody else. What happens to anybody else is his own hard luck. If Dick Mason couldn't look out for himself he's a too bad but it's nothing to me."

"And you say you love me!"

"I do. My own way. And that's the best way I know. You'll get out good enough for you. You make that plain enough. So that's all there is to it."

"But Elion——"

"Let's not talk any more, Judy. This stuff is too good to waste out here in the hall. I've got to get my script instead and put it on the air. Great Day coming! Sensational! Great Announcers. That's a grand idea. I can sell it. To the Happy Home Laundry, maybe. Or the Oomph-Coconut Chocolates. Sweet! I've got to get busy on it while I can still remember the lines. I'll see you later, Judy."

Quickly he disappeared, shouldering through the crowd that filled the main lobby.

(To be Continued)

CHAPTER TWENTY-NINE

Judy signalled a page boy who stood near by.

"How do I reach Mr. Flavin?" she asked.

"Call him on the house phone, Right there, I'll get him for you."

He rang, wailed, rang again. "Here you are, Miss Allison."

"Mr. Flavin?"

"Yes?"

"This is Judy Allison."

"Oh, Miss Allison! Say, I've been wanting to tell you, that's a real smart play you made. Went you and Day pop over on Jenks the other day. Smart as could be! That's real slick, semanship, all right. And you'll earn the money, too. Jenks is tickled to death with the mail. And everybody says your voice is a knock out. Why, if you weren't under exclusive contract now I could put you on another program today!"

"Mr. Flavin, I'm calling about Dick Mason."

"Oh." There was a faint change in his voice, a lessening of enthusiasm. But Judy went on.

"Dick Mason—you said a song you know."

"Yes, I heard about it."

"Well, Mr. Jenks isn't satisfied with the new announcer. He's intrying to get Dick Mason back on the program now. And he says he'll not take anybody else."

"Oh, I'd better see him, then. Jenks is the kind that'll feel every thing wide open if he things he's not getting what he wants right away. Thanks for the tip, Miss Allison. I'll get after him right away."

"But I wanted to tell you——"

"Yes. Yes, you bet. Thanks, Miss Allison."

He hung up. Calling back would do no good, Judy knew. Flavin would be on his way already through the various departments to Jenks' office, talking to him, soothing him.

Somewhere in one of the studios a canary with an amazingly strong voice was singing, happy, delirious-ly gay against the slow monotone of piano. Somewhere else Paul Whitehead's band was rehearsed, rehearsed, ed, going over and over some new tune.

Judy Allison would have thrilled to all this a very few months ago. She would have waited to see Paul Whiteman emerge from the studios with his orchestra and watch the distinguished, quiet man somebody said was Lowell Thomas. She would have wished to meet the energetic young man she had heard announcing. She had seen—was Fred Waring, hurrying to play somewhere with his Pennsylvanians. Not now.

Dick Mason mattered. Nobody else in the world. She knew that, for sure.

At 7.10 Elion Day telephoned. Until then Judy sat in the lobby and read Elsie. He was told.

"Judy, I'm terribly sorry again. "Tell him I won't be back at all this evening if he was told. "Judy, I'm sorry. I don't want to see the sun go down. But it goes down, and I'm sure I can see that I will be sitting there from now on, and I'm sorry, Judy, I'm sorry."

"But——"

"I could phone him out for you, if you wanted me to," Elsie suggested, surveying her strong arms with considerable pride.

"No. That wouldn't do any good. Thanks, Elsie. And I don't want you to be on his way. You told him you're lying to me, and he can tell I know when he's not wanted."

"Maybe he's right," Elsie said, not. I think he honestly believes nobody can resist him, if he just keeps on trying."

"Maybe he's right," Elsie said. "Not about me."

"Then——"

"All right. I'll see him. Tell him I'll be down in just a minute, will you, Elsie?"

"Sure."

Judy dabbed a little powder on her nose. No use putting on much. No use taking much trouble. She didn't care if Elion didn't! She didn't look dressed up. Why dress up for him? Why bother at all?

But still remembering that, she entered the living room. He jumped to quickly. "Judy!"

"Hello."

"Judy, I don't know if you like flowers or not. Silly, taking flowers to a girl, but I had the boy in a book. Well, I' be a hero then. Just once. Here's flowers."

"Thank you."

"But you ought to open the box and stare at the flowers and be overcome. That's the way they do it in the movies."

"This isn't a movie."

"I'll say it isn't. This is life. Life my friends, is a problem. Life is a thing I can get along without—or everything anything of. Life is a thing Omar Khayyam darker and darker. Life is a poem by Dorothy Parker. Life——"

Judy called Elsie. "Elsie, I've always wanted to give some flowers to old Mrs. Williams in the third floor front. How about these?"

Elsie surveyed the box dubiously "Maybe," she said. "I wouldn't here in the big windows, were people be talking about, perhaps in to-day's paper, this kind of. Indeed, that kind of bias cut, that sort of fur trimming right around the neck, throat, that new little hat with the four cornered effect. Clothes she would have loved to have beaded she loved clothes; she loved looking at clothes she couldn't possibly afford. But now they were only dresses in a window.

As going to WAOA, being there just before 10.45 ready to go on the air, was just going on the air again now; not an adventure, not a great triumph, not a thrill at all.

So she waited in the studio. She was ready. She had not read through her script. Mustn't get careless. Mustn't forget that words mean more than words when you say them to many thousand people. She read carefully.

A good script, again. With the same fresh eager tone Elion Day seemed to be able to put into every script he wrote. Yet he hated them. He hated doing the work; he really didn't care anything about all this. Then how could he do it? By detaching himself completely, by forgetting himself. And he had done the trick so often, he had learned it so well, that he was not able to come back to himself when he was done.

She saw the clock hands, creeping close to 10.45. Three minutes to go. With professional defiance, learned already, she arranged the script carefully on the table. She then stood up very straight, lifting her lungs with air, exhaling deeply, inhaling again. Then rested.

Dick said it was a trick, it tightened up your muscles, it quieted your nerves, made your voice steady. He was right. Dick was always right. He knew his job. Anything Judy Allison did to make her program right, to make her voice carry the air as it should go, she did because Dick Mason had taught her how. And——

Ten-four-four. A minute to go. The announcer was at the microphone. He had turned to her ready. The man in the control room looked strangely familiar. But there was no time to look again.

Judy Allison did to make her program right, to make her voice carry the air as it should go, she did because Dick Mason had taught her how. And——

(To be Continued)

THE PERPLEXED HUSBAND

by Timmins

No one excuses "B.O." (body odour)

ROMANCE dies—love itself grows cold—when "B.O." (body odour) appears. Yet it's so easy to avoid and not know it. For pores are constantly giving off odour from perspiration—a gentle, healthful process—but bathe regularly with Lifebuoy. You will know by its pleasant, extra-clean, quickly-vanishing scent that Lifebuoy is no ordinary toilet soap; its rich, hygienic lather absolutely removes B.O. Without fail Lifebuoy helps to protect health, too—by removing germs from hands.

Dull complexions clear

Every night, massage Lifebuoy's bland, penetrating lather well into the pores; then rinse. Clogging impurities are gently washed away. Dull skins freshen and glow with health. Adopt Lifebuoy today.

A PRODUCT OF LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED, TORONTO

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP

BILIOUS HEADACHE INDIGESTION quickly relieved by DR. HAMILTON'S MILKY KIDNEY & LIVER PILLS

FAMOUS FAVORITES IN "42ND STREET" NOW AT THE BELLE THEATRE

"42nd Street"—an all-inclusive dramatic musical comedy spectacle of the theatre returns to the Belle today (Tuesday) for two days, continuing daily with an allstar cast of well-selected screen and stage players.

The screen play, based on the popular novel by Bradford Ropes, is said to contain every ingredient that makes for a really great picture. Romance, intrigue and heart interest are packed with laughs. It has, also, a dramatic underplying theme and reveals the mammoth spectacle of a musical comedy show in preparation when it is finished.

There is the romance of young love that takes the sensational tumbling through the varied pattern of the story like a bright golden thread that will take the most hardened theatregoer up the threat before its climax is finished.

Because it is a story of the backstage world of the theatre, each member of the cast was selected with an eye to stage prominence as well as screen talent. The stellar names include Warner Baxter, Bebe Daniels, Ginger Rogers, George E. Stone, Ruby Keeler, Guy Kibbee, Ned Sparks, Dick Powell, Ginger Rogers and Allan Jenkins all of whom have figured prominently on stage and screen.

"42nd Street" has one of the most imposing picture casts since "Grand Hotel." Besides its dramatic story of the lives and loves of the stage folk, there is presented a complete musical comedy score, which has been heralded as the greatest ever to be presented or produced for the screen.

The musical numbers were staged by Busbby Berkely, the noted Broadway director, who also created the dance routines and ensembles. Two hundred of the most beautiful girls from the stage or screen were selected by Berkely from 5,000 applicants to take part in the chorus.

This was staged in the elaborate settings especially constructed at the Warner Brothers studio. The final number is enacting on three great platforms, one on top of the other and revolving in alternate directions, with the chorus girls dancing intricate steps at each of the moving stages. Tuneful music dispensed by the Brother of Metropolitan orchestras was written for the picture by Harry Warren and Al Dubin. Harry Warren, the well known Broadway lyricist and composer. The numbers included "The Young and Healthy," "Shuffle Off to Buffalo," "You're Getting to Be a Habit With Me," and the title piece "42nd.

There can't be very much that's seriously wrong with this old world when there are pictures like "42nd Street" to be enjoyed. A few more pictures like this one and we were laughingly been calling "the depression" will be a thing of the past.

"Hello Prosperity!"

The "Taxi Boys" in a very funny comedy "Mutiny Aweigh." The popular Metrotone Canadian News and Fox Movietone Newsreel will be presented on the same program.

ADVENTURES OF A WINDOW CLEANER MAKE MERRY COMEDY

"Letting in the Sunshine" opens at the Capitol Theatre tomorrow (Wednesday) and the delighted theatregoers are in for a treat because this gayly sparkling picture is presented very, very new—the adventures of a window cleaner, wonderfully played by Jimmy Fidler, Canada's own Dogo-Burden.

The youngest star comedian in the country, Albert Burdon, who plays the leading role in "Letting in the Sunshine," started his stage career via the gymnasium. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, he began stage work as a youngster in the gym owned by his father. His skill as an acrobat soon made his stage debut at charity concerts, where he became a child Indian Club. So popular did the performances prove that Burdon linged with irresistible humour of the budding comedian, that his father, who had designs on a career of a previous composition, wrote a comic song to enhance Albert's fame. To display his versatility Albert took dancing lessons and added a few numbers of songs. Albert's Act had now reached professional dimensions, and at the age of ten Albert began his stage career proper, being billed as the boy comedian.

There followed five years of engagements at the most fashionable music halls in Scotland nearly terminated his promising career. The company he was with was stranded at Elgin without even the fare home. Father sent the necessary cash and the young actor returned home and metaphorically speaking lay away "Albert's Act" in lavender, where it remained for several long months. Not so glamorous but more secure!

But a kindly fate took care of him, and within a few months Albert's Act was allowed to remain in retirement for he became a fully fledged comedian in pantomimes after which he toured in "On the Dole," which will be in theatres all over the country. This revue brought fame to the North Country man and with it an offer from G. H. Cochran which resulting in Burdon's first West End engagements in the summer at the Adelphi.

It was while playing in Glasgow that Albert first saw and appreciated Burdon's talents and where realizing was in progress for the musical "Maid of the Mountains" Albert selected him for the part of the comedy leading-lad—Dogo. His success as a film comedian was instantaneous and now in "Letting in the Sunshine" he has his first starring role. Burdon is five feet, six and a half inches with brown hair and blue eyes.

"Letting in the Sunshine" is supported by Harry Langdon in "The Hitch Hiker," a curiosity and the News.

Friday is Selection Gift Day of the "Wedgewood Richelieu" Dinnerware.

Tonight

The second article of "Royal Flemish" Dinnerware will be given tonight at the Capitol theatre. "Night of Terror" and "The World Moves On."

Turkey proposes a law to encourage large families and the protection of individual business deposits.

SHORT SNAPPY CHURCH MUSIC

German Protestants May Have New Form of Service

Berlin, June 26 (AP) — Protestant church services in Germany will be short and snappy with martial music if Dr. Ludwig Mueller should become Reichsbishop and takes as a form of worship the service he himself conducted yesterday.

Preaching in the modern Kreuzberg Schlosskirche, built in 1827, only 15 minutes, during which he described the Nazi revolution as God's hour for the German people.

In dismissing the congregation he pronounced a new form of Apostolic blessing and also changed the Lord's Prayer in several respects.

A uniformed storm troopers' band played martial tunes. The entire service took less than an hour.

Quebec tobacco growers use fermalin as the best sterilizer for tobacco beds.

A scene from "Letting in the Sun shine" Opening Wednesday at the Capitol Theatre.

Had No Color and Always Felt Draggy

Picture of Health Now — Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful and irregular periods. I had no color in my face and felt draggy. My mother told me about the medicine last summer. Since taking it I suffer less and it is regulating me. My color is normal and I feel like a different woman." MRS. DAVID THOMSON, 37 - 9th Street, N. W. Portage La Prairie, Manitoba.

Ginger Rogers, George E. Stone and Una Merkel in "42nd Street", which returns to the Belle today.

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

ENGAGEMENT

The engagement is announced of Miss Eva Pauline LaVoie, well known organist and choir leader of this city, to Mr. Henry William (Harry) Dilnott, National Revenue Officer, also of this city, the marriage to take place early in July.
127-11

ENGAGEMENT

The engagement is announced of Gladys M., youngest daughter of the late Mr. Isaac and Mrs. Harper of Peterborough, to Delbert M., only son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sloss of Harold, the marriage to take place early in July.
127-11

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bottum returned to the city today, after spending the week-end in Roblin's Mills, guests of Dr. and Mrs. Kelly.

Mr. C. A. Cameron is spending a few days in Ottawa.

Miss Ruby Millburn of Toronto, is spending a few days in town with her sisters, Mrs. K. W. Scott and Miss Millburn, Charles St.

Mr. Arthur Northrup of Brighton, visited friends in the city yesterday.

Miss N. Huff and Mrs. Dobson, of Massassaga, left on Sunday to spend a week with friends at Toronto.

Mrs. C. Prest of Halloway, is seriously ill at her home.

Mr. George McGee, C.N.R. engineer, is recovering from an operation in Belleville General Hospital.

In the list of spiritual offerings for the late Mrs. Cavanagh the names of Mrs. Wm. Milne and family were omitted.

Mr. Jack Sherlock sailed Friday June 23rd from Montreal, on the "Letitia" for an extended holiday with friends in Belfast and Dublin.

SCOTT'S W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of Scott's W.M.S. met at the church, Sunday evening, June 18th with a good attendance.

The President, Mrs. M. B. Sine opened the meeting with the hymn 459 "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name", followed with prayer by the President.

Mrs. Taleman read the Scripture lesson 25th Chapter of Mark 15: and also gave a poem entitled "Unaware" Miss Hughes and Miss Badgley favoured with a duet. Mrs. Dafoe gave an interesting talk "What Might Be Accomplished by these Economical Times at Home" Collection was $2.47. The Watch Tower Heralds then gave interesting Reports as follows: Mrs. J. A. Lott "Home Ministry"; Mrs. W. Moon, "China"; Mrs. H. Dafoe, "Africa" Mrs. M. B. Sine, "Korea"

Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. A. Lott and Mrs. M. B. Sine. The hymn 317 "Jesus Shall Reign" was then sung. The meeting then closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

In tropical America, the iguana is a favorite article of food.

DO NOT ACCEPT SUBSTITUTES
There is only one
FLY-TOX

Two-Tones for the Eye Shadows

Harmonizing Colors Are Now Offered to The Beauty Guester

By HELEN FOLLETT

Cosmetic chemists who offer eye shadows are continually adding to their color list. There are new blue-greens that are becoming to blonde and brunette and the two eyes-and-between types. Begin the application in the center of the eyelid, work out gradually toward the eye corners, for the pigment do a fade-away as it creeps close to the eyebrow. The girl with dark eyes, dark hair and a brown shadow that will make her little heart rejoice and be glad.

Sties will devastate the eyelashes. Unless treated properly, styes will tag along, and a stye certainly puts a girl completely out of town. Three or four times a day apply gauze that has been dipped in a hot boric acid solution. Use a large compress, one that will cover the surfaces of both eyelids. Don't leave the eye. When there is a full yellow point, touch it with a cotton pledget, press out the substance gently.

Deep breathing and out-of-doors exercise promotes exhilaration of the spirit as well as the body. They are cosmetic agents that don't cost anything, are more precious than golden treasure. Change of activities is the cure for that tired feeling, tired eyes, swollen eyelids. So we must urge the office worker and shop girl to spend every unoccupied hour with Mister Al Fresco. Play golf or tennis, swim or walk. Get blood streams to racing—Lay up the ozone. The good effect upon appearance will be noticeable; old worry lines will up and scamper. Health is the foundation of the illusion of beauty. To be up to health par one must know how to play, relax.

Smoothness and youthfulness of the neck depend almost entirely upon how the head is held. Drop the chin and increases the necklace fashion across the throat. If sags have started, if fiddle strings have appeared, anoint the skin surface with coco butter, star slapping from collar bones into smooth upward with flattened palms. Follow with an ice rub.

Weddings

FLOWERS—SELL

(Contributed)

Front Road United Church, a profusion of marguerites, peonies and roses, was the scene of an interesting and charming wedding on June 21st at two o'clock when Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell, was united in marriage to Mr. George Flowers of Massassaga, son of the late George Flowers and the Hon. Eva Constance Flowers, daughter of the late Lord Ashbrooke of Suffolk, Eng., the Rev. Keough of Belleville, officiating.

The bride, dressed in yellow shantorgandy with hat, shoes and gloves to match, and carrying Ophelia roses, lily-of-the-valley, and Baby's Breath, entered the church with her father to the strains of the Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Helena Bradshaw, who was attired in pale pink chiffon. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Leola, who wore a beige lace dress with matching accessories and carrying Talisman roses and Baby's Breath. Little Miss Muriel Bell, wearing pink organdy and carrying a basket of roses, orange blossoms, lily-of-the-valley and Baby's Breath was the sister's charming little flower girl.

The groom was ably assisted by Mr. E. Lemon of Belleville, Mr. Arlington Bell and Mr. Roy Clasie, acted as ushers. During the signing of the register, Miss Anne Brown, wearing pale pink net with white accessories, sang very sweetly "Dreili". After the ceremony the guests, numbering about sixty, were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Windover, Albert street, cousin of the bride, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served. Mrs. E. and Mrs. D. Windover, the bride's cousins being artistically decorated in pink and white with tapers and streamers.

Receiving with the bride and groom, were Mrs. M. Windover, wearing pale green diagonal crepe, Mrs. W. Osborne wearing beige georgette and lace, and Mrs. Robert Bell, mother of the bride, wearing pale mauve chiffon.

Later the bride and groom left amid showers of rice, confetti and good wishes for Toronto, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Rochester and Port Vincent, the bride donning a very smart putty colored suit with fox trimmings, hat, shoes, gloves and purse to match. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Massassaga.

The gifts to the attendants were: to the flower girl a gold bracelet, the bridesmaid, an 8 ethyl necklace, the best man, a white gold pen knife, the pianist an emerald necklace and the soloist an aquamarine necklace.

BEAUTY CHAPERON FOR BEAUTIES

Meet the chaperon! "Mlle. Universe, 1931," otherwise, Netta Deuschateau of Belgium, who is to chaperon the ten foreign beauties now being selected in Europe to come to the 1933 beauty pageant in New York in September.

Fashion Flashes

You will lose your compact and other trifles if your Summer bag is too flimsy. An ideal model for Summer wear is of linen blue finished, with tucked and seamed detail. The fastening is formed by two initials in silver metal.

A real idea is the ensemble of gloves and handbag. For informal evenings one set is of fine black suede with inserts and appliques of silver brocade. The gloves have stitchings of silver thread.

Just as particular in line and fit as the woolen or cloth suit is the fine suit of linen. One new model is done in a heavy natural linen as sturdy almost as woolen. The jacket has the one-link fastening and is tailored just like a man's suit in detail and fit.

What to wear when spending a day in town is always something of a problem. A most useful suggestion is a loosely styled frock of black satin with a tiny white polka dot. It has wide, long sleeves and a tie neckline. The belt has a rhinestone buckle.

Straight from the shoulder across to the other shoulder best describes a most popular necklace for evening wear. It is done in black faille on a lovely evening frock of black georgette, trimmed with a huge flower of pink feathers placed at the right of the waistline girdle which is also of faille.

A shadow of forthcoming Autumn fashions is glimpsed in a new coat of black crepey woolen with tucks at the shoulder and down the arm, the lower part of the sleeve hidden under bands of black monkey fur. A slide of black box calf holds the ends of the scarf collar.

Checking up on the metal used in locks, catches, and latches for a new ocean liner, it was found that 20,000 pounds of nickel silver hardware were used.

JEAN HARLOW UND ERGOES OPERATION

Ailment which caused film star to be sent to hospital to undergo an operation is delaying Jean Harlow's return to Hollywood from Chicago, where she went to attend the World's Fair. This is one of her latest photos.

MRS. I. MITTS PASSES AWAY AT HUNTINGDON

Madoc—Mrs. A. Thompson has returned to her home in Madoc after spending a month's vacation with her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) Stanley Morton in Brockville.

Miss Jean W. Nicklis is spending two weeks holiday with her teacher at Montegale Valley Shool, Hybla.

Miss Hazel Rose is spending the week-end with her sister, Miss Mabel Ross and other friends in Toronto.

Mrs. H. S. Graham of Grimsby is the guest of Mrs. Lyle Holland in Madoc.

Mrs. Seymour has returned to her home, "Hawthornden," after spending the winter in Chicago.

Mrs. Beckstead of Foxboro spent a few days with Miss Rachel Christie last week.

Miss Lila Walker is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Stevenson, Birchcliffe, Toronto.

Mrs. Young of Madoc, who was operated on for appendicitis in Belleville General Hospital is convalescing favorably.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Garvey of Lindsay were week-end visitors in Madoc.

Miss Kathleen Lahey of Belleville is spending a few days' holidays at her home on the Irish Settlement.

Mrs. James Irwin and son, Murray, left town last week to visit relatives in Winnipeg.

Misses Leona Forestall and Norah Nayler are home from Peterboro Normal School.

Mrs. M. Caverly is spending some days in Madoc.

The teachers' examinations of Madoc High School were finished last week. Departmental examinations begin on Monday next, and for one class or another, continue until the second week of July.

L. O. L. No. 160 of Madoc attended Divine service at St. Peter's Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening, June 25th, with a good attendance. Rev. R. Bertram Heslop having charge of the service.

Mrs. Isabella Mitts, widow of the late Martin Mitts, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Wright of Huntingdon, on Sunday night in her 85th year. She was born in Thomasburg, and soon after her marriage moved to the north of Huntingdon, where she was well known and highly respected in the community. She was a member of the United Church and active in all branches of church work until illness prevented her getting out.

Left to mourn her loss are five sons, Sylvanus of Ivanhoe, Herbert of Madoc, Walter of Stirling, Fred of Quebec, Thomas of Toronto, also three daughters, Mrs. Emma Ryan at home, Mrs. Alex Woods of Crookston, and Mrs. Nettie Patterson of Niagara Falls, Ontario. Fourteen grandchildren also survive. The funeral was held on Tuesday, 20th, service being conducted in Fuller United Church, the burial being six of her grandchildren.

The baseball team defeated the Madoc Baseball team by a score of 22-1, on Friday afternoon in Madoc.

Labrash's softball aggregation defeated the Madoc Merchants' Medoc at the Armouries on Friday evening, the score being 17-7.

STONE CHURCH Y. P. S.

Y. P. S. of Stone Church met in the dining hall on Wednesday evening.

The meeting was opened with hymn 33, "Rescue the Perishing," followed by prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Hymn 225 was sung.

Mr. Stone, the citizen's Vice President, took charge of the programme. The Scripture lesson was read by Everett Phillips. Miss Magdaline Lloyd gave the topic on "The Call to Service" and "Our work" which was very interesting. Mildred Phillips read a paper on life in "Russia" at the present time. Hymn 164 was sung and the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

Johannesburg, Africa, is to have modern automatic telephones.

The Dutch East Indies have been officially named "Netherlands India."

Send for this FREE BOOK!
One hundred and eighty-six ways of making anytime cookies better with St. Charles are yours simply for the asking. Send for our new cook book "The Good Provider." Just fill in the attached coupon.
Borden's
ST. CHARLES MILK
UNSWEETENED EVAPORATED
The Borden Co. Limited
Borden Bldg., Toronto
Please send me, free of charge, my copy of "The Good Provider."
Name ....
Address ....

PALMOLIVE
MADE IN CANADA

Olive Oil

brings beauty to your skin

—and it's olive oil that makes Palmolive green

NATURE'S priceless secret of skin beauty has not changed in over 3,000 years. It is to be found in the precious oils of olive and palm.

Fortunately, the beauty effects of these oils are yours today in Palmolive Soap—easy to use, simple and inexpensive. Just rub a warm lather of Palmolive gently into the skin of face, neck and shoulders. Rinse, first with warm water, then with cold.

This thorough cleansing keeps skin clear and fine in texture bringing out all the charm of natural loveliness.

Now that Palmolive is selling at the lowest price in history, give yourself the full benefit of its mild, gentle cleansing—for the bath as well as face and hands. Try it cakes today. Learn for yourself how quickly your skin responds to Palmolive's simple beauty care.

Correct Manners

CANADIAN IN BRILLIANT WEDDING

At a Wedding

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I have been invited to a wedding which is to be held at high noon.

1. What is the proper thing to wear?

2. Does the invitation need an answer, and if so, what sort of an answer?

3. I would like to give a shower for this friend of mine. Just how should I go about it?

4. Is it true that the bridesmaid is the only one who should give a shower?

5. What sort of flowers should I wear?

6. My husband may not be able to attend. Will it be all right for me to go alone?

C.

1. For a high noon wedding at this season of the year, an afternoon dress is the appropriate thing to wear. Of chiffon, plain or flowered, or organza, or a light weight crepe ..something like that. And with this gone of the new large hats would be charming for wear to a wedding.

2. If the invitation is to the ceremony only you need no answer. If an invitation to the reception or wedding breakfast is also sent you, this is the form of the answer:

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wells accept with pleasure

Mr. and Mrs. (Bride's Parents's) kind invitation for Tuesday, the first of July at one o'clock

3. Ask for advice this, and determine what time would be most convenient for her. Then invite mutual friends, tell them in the invitation what kind of shower it is to be so that they can arrange about their gifts), and present the shower presents at the party, in some attractive way.

4. No. Showers are usually planned by a close friend of the bride. It doesn't have to be a bridesmaid.

5. A corsage of gardenias, or of small roses, or of sweet peas. Any of these would be effective and appropriate.

6. Yes.

What to Say

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

When I am leaving friends, and they say, "We are going to have met you", what reply should I make?

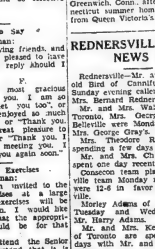
F.

Say, in your most gracious manner, "Thank you. I am so glad to have met you too", or "Thank you. I enjoyed so much meeting you too", or "Thank you. It has been a great pleasure to meet you too," or "Thank you. I enjoyed so much meeting you. I hope I'm to see you again soon."

At College Exercises

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

I have been invited to the Class Day exercises at a large college. These exercises will be held in the evening. I would like to know what is the appropriate dress that would be for that event?



2. I am to attend the Senior Prom and understand that it is to be informal. Would an anais silk organdy frock be appropriate?

3. For the commencement exercises to be held at ten in the morning, I am planning to wear a dark blue sheer frock and white accessories. Is it suitable for the occasion?

C.

1. A summery afternoon frock, or a chiffon (plain or flowered) ensemble of dress and jacket, would be appropriate. And with it a large or small hat of light weight straw. Or a dress and the kind of straw, horsehair, or linen.

2. Yes, this would be thoroughly appropriate.

Mr. Fred H. Booth, of Ottawa, with his bride, the former Miss Cordelia Ann Vanderhoef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vanderhoef of Prinyerville, following their wedding held at the bride's Conneautville home. The shoes worn by the bride were fashioned from Queen Victoria's wedding gown.

REDNERSVILLE NEWS BUDGET

Rednersville—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cannifton of Tweed visited Sunday evening callers at Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Redner's.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wallis of Belleville, George Reilly of Belleville were Monday visitors at Mrs. George Gray's.

Mrs. Theodore Reilin Sr. is spending a few days in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Chrville Hancock spent one day recently at Stirling.

Consecon team played Rednersville team Monday night. Innings were 12-6 in favor of Rednersville.

Morley Adams of London spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mr. Harry Adams.

Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Adams of Toronto are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gorsline and daughter of Belleville were Friday evening visitors of Mrs. Harold Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Redner and son called on Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Redner Friday evening.

Quite a number from this vicinity were in Belleville Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox and son of London are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Adams over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Redner and daughter were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bird Mrs. Redner and daughter are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Bird.

Betsie Tompkins spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Tompkins.

Mrs. Cole Rose spent Thursday with her daughter Mrs. N. Wilder.

Almost all the turquoise deposits known were mined in prehistoric days.

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleansing. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Send soiled and stained summer frocks here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
125 Front St. Phone 729
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you're asked us to look at it. Maybe's mere trifle will make it go.
Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth its cost.
Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.
J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 315 224 FRONT ST.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Crawford, P. B. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley, 1.05.
Amulet, 33.
Arno, 03¼.
Barry Hollinger, 11.
Base Metals, 2.30.
Bagamac, 06¼.
Central Patricia, bid 26.
Dome, 15.50.
Eldorado, 3.63.
Falconbridge, bid 3.81.
Granada, 1.30.
Hollinger, bid 9.80.
Hudson's Bay, bid 8.85.
Howey, 52.
Kirkland Lake, 41.
Lake Shore, bid 41.00.
Macassa, bid 70½.
McIntyre, bid 22.00.
Mining Corporation, 2.30.
McLeod River, bid 03½.
Nipissing, bid 2.72.
Noranda, bid 31.90.
Inter. Nickel, 20.25.
N.Y. Pioneer, 14.40.
Sherritt, 1.23.
Sisco, bid 1.51.
Stadacona, 1.
Sudbury Basin, bid 1.67.
Sylvanite, 1.
Tek Hughes, 6.40.
Vipond, 32.
Ventures, bid 1.12.
Wright Hargreaves, 6.48.
Aug. 1.38.
Big Missouri, 25.
Bobjo, 85.
Brakorac, bid 7.15.
Brownlee, 04¼.
Can. Kirk, bid 08.
Castle Trethi., 55.
Cent. Manitoba, 1.26.
Coast Copper, 6.25.
Contact, 65.
Dom. Explor., 07.
Goldale, bid 14.
Kirk. Trethewey, bid 36¼.
Malartic, bid 17½.
Malrobin, 23½.
Manitoba Basin, 05.
Moffatt Hall, 03.
Mose Mines, 06¼.
McVittie, bid 62.
McWatters, 88.
Premier, bid 1.32.
Reno, 1.45.
St. Anthony, bid 41.
St. Anselmo, 1.08.
Wayside, 1.
Waite Ackerman, 1.20.
Zenith Trethewey, bid 30.
Fed. Kirk., 05.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil, 13½.
Imperial Oil, 12¾.
McColl Frontenac, 13¾.
Dalhousie, Pete, 30.
Superial, 19.
Distill. Seagrams, 23.
Walkers, 36.
Walker's Pref., 16.
Canadian Alcohol, 12.
Canada Bkd., 9.
Can. Bakeries, 12.
Bell Telephone, bid 101.
C.P.R., 19¾.
Canada Cement, 45¾.
Canada Malt., 28.
Cockshutt, 5.
Dominion Stores, 23.
Ford "A", 15.
Smellers, 133.
Loblaw "A", 14.
Massey Harris, 10.
Page Hersey, 67.
Canada Vinegar, 22¼.
Brazilian, 18.

NEW YORK

American Can., 93¼.
Auburn, 66¾.
Am. For. Power, 17½.
Anaconda, 17.
N. Y. Central, 41¼.
Case, 93¾.
Drug, 56¼.
Elec. Auto Lite, 33¼.
Gen. Elec., 18¾.
General Motors, 29½.
Inter. Telephone, 18½.
Standard Oil of N. J., 39¾.
Chrysler, 39½.
Montgomery Ward, 36¼.
Radio, 9¾.
Stewart Warner, 8.
American T. and T., 139.
United Aircraft, 34¼.
Vanadium, 29.
Westinghouse, 47¼.
U. S. Steel, 50.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

Wheat—July 70¾, October 71¾, December 83¼.

Oats—July 36¾, October 69¼, December 71¼.

Barley—July 44¼, October 48¾, December 48.

Livestock

Toronto, June 27 (CP) — Early trading on Toronto Live Stock market was slow today with the few early sales made at steady prices. Cattle trade was slow, choice heavy, hogs unsettled, lambs steady and sheep slow.

Receipts were: Cattle 740, calves 1,000, sheep and lambs 680.

Cattle left-overs from yesterday totalled 1,000 head, mostly stockers. Choice heavy cattle brought $5.00 to $5.25 and with a few choice weights at $5.40 to $5.60. Good butcher cows sold mostly at $2.00 to $3.10 with a few at $3.25. Choice calves sold at $5.75 to $6.00 per cwt. Slow cattle were dull morning.

Veal calves opened a little slower with early prices unchanged. Choice vealers brought $5.50 to $6.00 per cwt. with common downward to $3.00.

No hog sales were made up to 11 a.m. with no definite prices established. Packers bids were not definite.

Lambs opened at $8.50 per cwt. for choice with culls selling mostly at $5.00. Sheep ranged from 50 cents to $2.50 per cwt. according to quality.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Prospects of Shortage in Wheat Crop Whirls Prices Upward—Senior Golds Wobble in Last Hour —Rail Issues Rise in New York But Market Generally is Unchanged

Winnipeg, June 27 (CP)—Despite heavy profit-taking and a decline of nearly two cents, prices finished close on the Winnipeg grain exchange today. During the bullish upheaval prices rose to heights they had not touched for nearly three years.

Shooting up cents higher in a wild outburst of trading ten minutes before the final gong, futures lost only a little more than a cent in the closing flurry, finishing 4¾ to 4⅝ cents higher, July quotes at 73¾, October 81¾ to 82 and December 83¼ to 83⅝ cents.

STANDARD EXCHANGE

Toronto, June 27 (CP)—Senior gold issues developed irregularity today on the Standard Mining Exchange, dropping away from their midafternoon highs in many cases.

Dome, Hollinger, Lake Shore and Teck Hughes closed under yesterday's final figures. Wright Hargreaves, however, held small gain.

Trading volume fell off with the easier feeling and the ticker ran idle for periods in the late afternoon. Base metal issues, firm most of the day, eased also, Base Metals Corp. dropping 4 and Falconbridge ·25. Coast Copper held a .75 advance. International Nickel was heavily traded, closing below its high for the day but still ahead of yesterday. Noranda was unchanged.

Silvers were brighter, in line with better prices abroad, Nipissing gaining .15 and Aldermac a fraction more.

Continued advances in the prices of metals on the London market was a bullish factor in the base metal shares here. Lead in London is selling some $9 above the price a months ago and zinc and tin show corresponding increases. The effect upon such companies as Noranda, Rhodon Bay mining and Base Metals Corporation has already been very pronounced. Base Metal Corp. has already announced it will reopen its property shortly.

NEW YORK

New York, June 27 (AP)— An advance in rail issues today drew only a scattered response from other parts of the stock market. Considerable clarifying comment among industrials and numerous specialties, including United States Steel, American Telephone, Dupont and General Electric, were fairly unchanged from previous closes. The later tons was steady to firm with advances of around 1 to more than 2 points in the carriers. National Distillers staged a spectacular rise of 12 points. Transfers approximated 6,000,000 shares.

TORONTO BOARD

Toronto, June 27 (CP)—A new all time high in volume, exceeding yesterday's figures, was chalked up on the Toronto Stock Exchange in a frenzied session today. New tops were penetrated in more than ten issues as the advance of the last several days continued unabated. Industrial activity was crowded into the distilling and agricultural implements groups, the latter also strong.

A jump in wheat lent impetus to all issues likely to benefit from the higher grain prices. Massey Harris and Cockshutt Plow advanced up from their last and continued to climb until a dip in the wheat pit took them down from their highs. Each closed better than two point gains. Waterloo manufacturing and the same group doubled its market value at $6.00.

High volume continued in the distillery issues, particularly Distillers Seagrams which ran up another big blocks for a gain of 4 points. Canadian Breweries advanced almost in half. Walkers Common showed a point gain in a somewhat lively narrow range but still showed a minor advance, liquor stocks picking up easily.

Liquor stocks have appreciated in the market place out of their share capital some $60,000,000 from their 1933 lows, Seagrams showing the most spurt recently. Walker, selling around 35, is 33 points above its price in September, 1932, and has a market of some $20,000. Distillers-Seagram has added about $23,000,000 in rising from 4 to about 23 and gains of several millions are shown by Walkers. It is inferred, Canadian Industrial Alcohol "A" and "B" and Brewers and Distillers of Vancouver.

The liquor situation was not clarified today, no confirmation of amalgamation rumors coming from any of the leading companies.

BAR SILVER

New York, June 27 (CP)— Bar silver firm, 1¼ higher at 36¼.

MONEY BOX

New York, June 27 (AP)—Prime Commercial Paper 1½ per cent. Exchange steady irregular. Demand rates (Great Britain in dollars, others in cents) Great Britain 4.24¼, France 4.90, Italy 6.57, Germany 29.60, Belgium 16.90.

TEMPERATURES

Tuesday—High 88, low 54.
Monday—High 86, low 65.

QUALIFYING ROUND OF GOLF

Wednesday afternoon promises to be another interesting day at the Bay of Quinte Golf Club when the qualifying round of the annual golf championship will be played. The defending champion, Col. "Bob" Graham, who is attending the International Convention Rotary at Boston, is the only player exempted from qualifying and there are a number of new stars in that particular golfing firmament. It is quite within the bounds of possibility that this year will see a new name engraved on the championship shield.

CHEESE

Toronto, June 27 (CP)—The Toronto wholesale cheese market was steady today with dealers buying large, colored, paraffined and government grades at 11¼ cents.

Wholesalers offered cheese to retailers at the following prices:

New—Large, 12c; twins 12¼c, triplets 12½c.

Old—Large 15½c, twins 15¾c, triplets 16c.

Medium—Large, 14½c, twins 14¾c, triplets 15c.

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT
By Special Correspondent

S.O.E. WELCOME NEWCOMERS

Bradford (Eng.) Folk Given Warm Reception at Trenton

Trenton June 27 (Special)— The Sons of England and Daughters of England gathered in the Sons' hall last evening to welcome seven newcomers from England to Trenton. The newcomers to Belleville also attended to greet Mr. Norman Wells, Worthy President of the Province of Ontario, in charge of the installation of members of the Lodge of Sorrow. Mrs. Downs Coulter Co., of Canada, and six others have come to Trenton to instruct our workmen in the woollen textile industry; Namely, Mr. and Mrs. Waddingham, Miss E. Wilman, Miss D. Metcalfe, Mr. L. Robinson and Mr. J. Austin.

Addresses of welcome were made by Worthy President Smith, Jones and Sgt. Maj. Almey. Mr. Bower replied for the newcomers and remarked on the beauty of the fine reception. Entertainment was provided by reading and songs by John North, Chas. Baker and Frank Smith of Trenton and Jas. Savage of Belleville. Miss Lulu and Dolfeed ended the happy gathering. Mr. Herb Almey, president of the local S.O.E. and Mr. Hackson president of the D. of E. presided.

The Herb Almey quoit team a firmer hold on the top wrung of the Trenton softball league when they came from behind to defeat the Foreign League team by an 11-8 score. Langdon started for the dairymen but was replaced by Coughlin who held the Almeyites while his teammates connected for 6 runs in the last inning. Four runs were batted struck out in their last stanza. Langdon pitched good ball for the dairy boys at the beginning while the boys from the air station went ahead leading by 3 to 1 in the fifth inning. This is the fourth game that Legionaires have dropped in the dying moments. s191 d2Sla ASCT

Line-up:

Riverside Dairy—Bohan ss; Alexander cf; Langdon p; Coughlin 1b; McCue 2nd; Steenburg c; Anderson lf; Chase rf; Langdon, Coughlin p.

Foreign Legion—Whitehead 3rd; Bell ss; Johnson 2nd; Whiley lf; Sero p; Brant cf and p; Marcelle c; Simmons rf; Clarke c; Johns cf.

Score by innings:

Riverside	041 000 6—11
Foreign Legion	011 520 0—8

Umpires—Field, Lewis; Bases, Long.

Have Your Clothes Cleaned Now in Readiness for the Coming Holiday and be Ready at a Moment's Notice for Any Activity it Calls Forth.

ODORLESS

Send them in now and avoid the last minute rush—Or just phone and we will call for them

LADIES' PLAIN DRESSES 1.00
GENTLEMEN'S SUITS .....

Pleated and Fancy Dresses Small Extra Charge

ODORLESS CLEANERS & DYERS
316 Front St. Phone 54

Proclamation
PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Owing to the fact that July 1st, observed as a Public Holiday throughout the Dominion, falls on Saturday, and, as the Merchants of the City have decided to close their places of business on Monday, July 3rd, I would respectfully request that all citizens observe Monday, July 3rd, as a Public Holiday, instead of Saturday, July 1st.

GEO. O. TICE, MAYOR

JS5, 28, 30

$0 Dundas St., E. For Sale
At An Attractive Price

Solid brick house, five bed rooms, living room, dining room, kitchen, sunroom, hardwood floors, bath, excellent cellar, barn with two garages, excellent garden.

For Sale Exclusively By
Belleville Locators
GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
'Phone 99 House 'Phone 637

MONUMENTS
A. C. Campbell
Memorial Craftsman
11 Bridge West Phone 1374

Auto Loans
CARS REFINANCED
NEW LOWER RATES
S. J. Fisher & Son
30 BRIDGE ST.
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto, Ottawa, Etc.
j6-tu,th,S-tf

BUSINESS LINERS

CLIMAX

kills Potato Bugs, Cabbage and Cucumber Bugs and other insects 10, 25, 50, 25 and 50c packages at Bishop's Seed Store. j27-3t

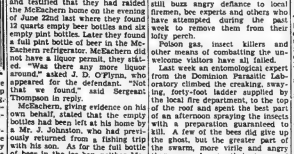
FARMERS ATTENTION!

Carload of Club Twine. Lowest cash price. Club orders filled. Orders to Dominion Mill or J. E. Morgan, Foxboro. j27-3t

SEEDS FOR LATE SOWING

Turnip, Millet, Seed Corn, Rape, etc. Bishop's Seed Store. j24 27c

CITY OF BELLEVILLE



CITY HALL ROOF REPAIRS

Sealed Tenders addressed to Aldd. Marshall, Chairman of Market and City Property, will be received by the City Engineer's Office until 5 p.m. June 29th, 1933 for the repairing and resurfacing the roof of the City Hall Building and City Market.

Form of Tender may be obtained at the office of the city Engineer.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Chas. A. Mott,
City Engineer,
j24 27.

Watch for the

HONORS DIVIDED

Southport, Eng., June 27 (AP) Honors were evenly divided today between Great Britain and the United States on the first day of play in the of the 36-hole singles competition, concluding the Ryder Cup golf battle.

China will raise money to provide roads and build highways by means of four state lotteries.

DEATHS

VAN ALLEN — At Canniton, on Tuesday, June 27th, 1933, Peter Van Allen, aged 85 years. The remains will rest at the Thomas C. Thompson Funeral Parlour, 352 Bridge West, until Thursday morning June 29th, 1933, when funeral will be conveyed to the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah J. Mason, New York, where funeral service will be held at 2.30 p.m. Interment Belleville Cemetery. j27-1t

THOMPSON
FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 62 — 238 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 2113

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
216-218 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2003
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Private Ambulance
Phone 774-W Day and Night
A. W. ALLISTON
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkston
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of
Victoria Ave. and Church St.

Classified Ad. Rates
PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, 50c; Obituaries and Funeral Notices, $1.00; Memorial Notices, $1.00; Resolutions of Condolence or Thanks, $1.00 for 10 lines over that the per count line; Lodge or Meeting Announcements, minimum charge, 50c.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, To Rent, etc.) Two cents a word the first insertion; one cent a word for each subsequent insertion. Minimum charge for any one insertion 15c per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for subsequent insertions ACCOUNT — Charged 1c per word, but minimum 25 words for first insertion, 15c per word for subsequent insertions. 2c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ad; when it is more convenient. PHONE 99. The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any Want Ad ordered by telephone.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed in care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

SMALL FURNISHED APARTment, 2 or 3 rooms. Central location. Reasonable rent. Write Box E, Ontario Intelligencer. j27-3t

WANTED TO RENT

MEDIUM SIZED HOUSE FROM July 3, for two weeks. Write Box F Ontario Intelligencer, stating terms, size, etc. j27-3t

FARM HAND SINGLE; ABLE and capable for all farm work. Non-smoker and dry hand milker preferred. Please give references and state wages for four months with board if satisfactory. Wages payable at end of term. Box D, Ontario Intelligencer. j27-3t

WORK WANTED

CARPENTERING AND PAPER hanging and painting of all kinds. Phone 673W. j27-6t

WANTED TO BUY—MEDIUM-sized square used Piano. Write Box D, Ontario Intelligencer. j27-1t

POSITION BY WOMAN (30) EXperience in all kinds of housekeeping and care of children. Apply Box T, Ontario Intelligencer. j26-3t

TO-LET

PARTIALLY FURNISHED SUMmer cottage, 3 miles from Belleville, south shore Bay of Quinte for the season. Apply Mr. Foy Anderson, R.R.1, Belleville. j27-3t

23 BINGO. VERY MODERN HOME 7 rooms, 3-piece bath. Garage. Newly decorated. Immediate possession. Apply on premises. j27-1t

FRONT BEDROOM AND SITting room, furnished. Apply 170 George street, Belleville. 361st

APARTMENT, NO. 7 WELL heated. Hardwood floors, fireplace 4 or 5 rooms, 3-piece bath. Apply 218 George street. j27-3t

FURNISHED COTTAGE BY WEEK or month of July. 24 Dundas St. city. Reasonable rent. 'Phone 438 j24-3t

FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED room for rent. 'Phone 289P. j24-3t

23 EARL ST., 6 ROOMS AND bath. Garage. Possession July 1st. Apply 30 Howard St. j24-3t

SEVERAL TWO OR THREE room apartments. Rent reasonable. Apply at Artistic Ladies' Wear. j22-tf

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences. 12 Albion St. or call 1374. m26-tf

MODERN APARTMENT, HEATED electric refrigeration, hardwood floors. Apply to Ontario Intelligencer. j24-tf

1 ROOM HEATED APARTMENT, private entrance, immediate possession. Apply Geo Deline, Front St. 'Phone 1374. j24-tf

ROOM APARTMENT HEATED or otherwise Electric stove, electric refrigeration. Attached garage. Apply 0. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. W. Phone 889W s23-tf

FOR SALE

GROCER'S ICE BOX. GOOD CONdition. Hobart Meat Chopper. (1) H. P. Electric Motor. Apply 'Phone 540. 225 Station. j27-1t

CHINGHUACHEE TOMATOES. VICTOLA Cheap. 218 Coleman. j26-3t

OAS STOVE WITH SHELF, GREY and white enamel; 4-burner, both new, coal annex, kitchen table, Bissell carpet sweeper, hardbred papers 211 Coleman. j26-2t

ONE GENERAL PURPOSE HORSE. Weight 1,200 lbs. Apply Lot 19, Rear Concession 1, Thurlow. j26-2t

4-BURNER GAS STOVE $5 ALSO Ruud hot water heater, first practically new. C. Brown, Front St., Trenton. j26-2t

REV. DR. PEDLEY'S ESTATE

Toronto, June 27.—(CP)—Rev. James M. Pedley, Toronto congregational pastor, left an estate of $17,000 in real and personal property, it was disclosed. His wife and son, James Hiram Pedley, were named beneficiaries.

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, EAVESTROUGHING
Colwell Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1377
j2-1m.

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLICitor, Notary Public, etc., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-tf.

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Solicitors for Royal Bank. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., B. D. Arnott. Offices: 191 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Conveyancers. Offices: 28 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. D. Ponton, K.C., R. D. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham, Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 26 Bridge Street E. K. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

S. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiocast Machine. Office hours: 9-11 daily stages. Foot disorders corrected. all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 274 Bridge East, Belleville. Picton, Tuesdays and Fridays.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Pain-Neuritis-Sinus Service
42½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S. DR. R. CHARLES ADAMS, M.D.C.M. Westinghouse X-Ray Equipment at office.
Office Hours:
8 to 10 a.m. 1 to 3 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle Street, Belleville
Phone 271 od-6m.

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1665
A. L. LEWIS, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Forin St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. P. H. Wills, Branch Manager. m3-1y.

FRASER ALEXSWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Conveyancer. Dominion Land Surveys. Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE 74 BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1364 137 Front St

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
157 Front St.
Phone 1364 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
351 Front St. Phone

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass
378 Front Street Phone 1134W

Spying on Sports

BY
William Ritt
Central Press Canadian

"THE GIANTS are o. k.", wrote a New York scribe recently, "but they lack color."

The first half of that sentence is perfect. The Giants have been not only a. k. but terrific, a. to the other seven inhabitants of the National lack. However, as for the rest of the remark — that goes for Sweeney.

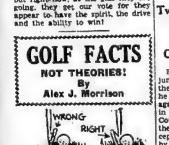
No color! What of it? They win ball games, lots of ball games, don't they? They may not perform like Chaplins on the ball field and like the Four Marx Brothers off it — which is what usually is meant by "color"—but the New Yorks are headed for that pennant and have a swell chance of grabbing it. what's more.

In making his point the scribe pointed out that the Giant gate receipts at home have not bounded to pre-1929 proportions and blamed the lack of color for that. Of course, it couldn't be that the fact money is still quite a scarce commodity in New York as well as elsewhere may have a slight bearing on Polo grounds crowds.

THE BROOKLYN Dodgers prior to the reign of Max Carey were baseball's most colorful crew—and ended in a mess. However, the Brooklyn club has a great community of several million to draw from and is notorious as having the greatest array of rabid followers.

To be the recipient of considerable patronage all the Brooklyns need do is hang around the first division—or near it. It would have been interesting to see just how much support the Flatbush organization would have transacted at the turnstiles if, instead of all that color which lost the Dodgers plenty of ball games, the lassie had been winning ones, such as represented Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburgh in recent years.

It's our guess that Brooklyn would have had the National league in patronage.



x x x

IT BEGINS to look as though the sport world has been overpaid for color. Sport followers now demand competence as well as an exotic manner in the performance of a game.

Gene Tunney was world champion and he lacked color. Yet Gene received the second highest fighter in ring history, Johnny Risko, Paulino Uzcudun and a host of others had in all over fifteen hours of treatment of color—but Gene made the dough.

The late Knute Rockne, greatest of football coaches and a human being with an excellent sense of values, was smart enough to know that excellence in performance beats color any day. Some of his greatest teams had no colorful star. Grange, Bronko Nagurski or Ted Coy in their limited day, but were undefeated.

So—the Giants may lack color, but right now, at the gait they are going, they get our vote for they appear to have the spirit, the drive and the ability to win!

WHEN PLAYING FROM ROUGH LIE -MAKE SURE CLUB FACE IS OPEN

When playing from rough lie make sure clubface is open.

ALEX MORRISON

It's bad enough to find your ball imbedded in a lie, but let a thousand times worse to try and hit it out of such a spot with a closed clubface.

Turning the clubface forward at the start of your swing means that you'll surely strike the ball with the clubface in the position or even more closed.

Obviously this makes it more difficult to get the ball up.

Open the clubface.

Lay it back as well when you play out of the rough.

And if the clubface is open as you address the ball, chances are you'll land on the ball first and thereby sent it up in the air as you desire.

Next: Backswing and Follow Through.

ADDITIONAL SPORT, PAGE 10

GOLF?
Suits, Knickers, Socks, Caps, and Sweaters
CHAS. J. SYMONS
206 Front St. Phone 439

CENTRAL ONTARIO LEAGUE
BASEBALL
WED. JUNE 28th 2.30 P.M.
KINGSTON at BELLEVILLE
PONIES NATIONALS
ADMISSION 33c PLUS 2c TAX
CHILDREN 10c—CARS FREE

SHUTOUT ACE - - - By Jack Sords

Hammett Pitches No Hit No Run Game to Defeat B.A.A.A., Makes Record

Twenty-One Men Face Pitcher in Game

CRYSTALACS LEAD

Bill Hammett of the Crystalac juniors entered the hall of fame in the baseball world last evening when he hurled a no hit no run game against the champion B.A.A.A. kids in a regular scheduled Hastings County junior loop game played at the Alexandra Grounds. With the exception of two walks and an error by the second baseman, not a single B.A.A.A. batter reached the initial sack. The three runners to touch that base, however, were later thrown out by catcher Don Thomas in attempts to pilfer the second sack. But 21 association batters faced Hammett during the seven innings game which was won by the Crystalacs by the score of 8 to 0.

With a fine assortment of curves and a fast speed ball Hammett literally mowed the B.A.A.A. batters down like chaff before the wind when he established a record in pitching that has not been registered in Belleville for many years past. "Bud" Roseberry, who hurled for the losing B.A.A.A. club was in rare form thus making the game a pitcher's battle throughout. Roseberry whiffed ten Crystalac batters while Hammett was striking out but six. Roseberry, however, allowed five hits while Hammett was invincible in that department. Both clubs committed a single error. Don Thomas carefully handled the slants of Hammett behind the plate while he was making baseball history. The winners collected but five hits.

Mason Ripby, who caverts about in centre field for the "Lac" kids, was the big hitter of the evening when he collected a single and later hit the old pellet far into left centre for a home run, with a runner preceding him across the plate. The Art Young-managed crew counted 3 runs in the initial frame from two hits, a walk and an error. Again in the second they added two more counters after Sinfield walked, advanced on an infield out and Benevitz's hit, base to score. Ora Ripby's home run in the fifth the "Lacs" counted two more runs and added another in the sixth on a walk, a hit, a steal, and two infield outs.

The win places the Crystalacs well up to the fore in the local junior loop race with five wins and but one single loss to their credit.

Crystalacs—Gray 1f., Sinfield 2s., Thompson, 3b., Ripby c-f., Thomas c., Cole and Langman 1b., Louis and Churchill r.f., Lee and Bennett, 2b., Hammett p.

B.A.A.A.—Barrage s.s., Temple r.f., Saunders 2b., Roseberry p., Forrester 3b., Angell 2b., Genereaux c-f., Bruce 1f. and Blakely c.

Score by innings: r. h. e.
Crystalacs ..... 3 2 0 0 0 0 0—5 11 1
B.A.A.A. ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 0 1
Umpires—Pointer and Darrah.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Northern Division	Won	Lost	P.C.
Rochester	44	30	.595
Toronto	43	33	.566
Buffalo	39	43	.434
Montreal	33	43	.434
Southern Division
Newark	44	30	.595
Baltimore	42	36	.538
Jersey City	31	43	.418
Albany	32	45	.416

Games today—Toronto at Montreal; Buffalo at Rochester; Albany at Jersey City; Newark at Baltimore.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Washington	43	23	.646
New York	40	25	.615
Philadelphia	33	29	.532
Cleveland	33	34	.493
Chicago	32	34	.485
Detroit	32	34	.485
Boston	26	41	.373
St. Louis	25	43	.368

Games today—Boston at St. Louis; Washington at Cleveland; Philadelphia at Chicago; New York at Detroit.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	44	22	.530
St. Louis	37	26	.587
Pittsburgh	35	30	.538
Chicago	33	31	.493
Brooklyn	28	33	.459
Boston	30	35	.462
Cincinnati	29	37	.439
Philadelphia	26	40	.394

Games today—Pittsburg at New York; Cincinnati at Brooklyn; Philadelphia at St. Louis at Boston.

BODYLINE BOWLING QUARREL

London, June 27—(CP Cable)—Bodyline theory is imminent danger of cancellation of the Australian cricket tour of England at the next summer Arthur Gilligan, former England captain, wrote in the News-Chronicle today there was "no reason to believe the situation arising out of the bodyline bowling quarrel is more serious than many may imagine.

BATTING IN INT. LEAGUE

Boone of Toronto Heads List With 382 Score

Big Ike Boone was the only member of the International League "big six" to be in action yesterday and the league-leading hitter kept his average steady at .382 by getting one hit in three official times up. He visited the plate eight times in all and got four walks and was hit once. Winnett hit his tenth homer of the season to join the leaders in the circuit smashes.

The batting leaders:

	ab.	r.	h.	p.c.
Boone, Toronto	241	48	93	.382
Solters, Baltimore	207	44	79	.382
Clabaugh, Balt.	175	20	64	.365
Thompson, Alb.	168	33	59	.345
Danning, Buffalo	161	28	55	.342
Kles, Newark	132	18	45	.341

Home Run Leaders

Blue, Toronto, 1; Winnett, Montreal, 1; Wilson, Rochester, 1; Shires, Rochester, 1.
Arlett, Baltimore	21
Carnegie, Buffalo	16
Tucker, Buffalo	14
Solters, Baltimore	14
Shiver, Montreal	11
Pickering, Montreal	10
Hoag, Newark	10
Winnett, Montreal	10

KI-Y SOFTBALL

Three more games of softball were played in the juvenile section of the Ki-Y League last evening when the Die Hards moved into first place by defeating the Athletics by the score of 10 to 4. The Orioles winning from the Monarchs 16 to 5 while the Rangers and the Lucky Strikes played a 15 all tie.

At Queen Victoria school grounds the Orioles stopped the mighty Monarchs when the former team went on a batting rampage and scattered the ball to practically every corner of the ball yard to win by the large score of 16 to 5.

Down at Queen Alexandra school grounds, The Die Hards won a closely fought game by the score of 10 to 4. The win gives the Die Hards the league leadership. When the Rangers and the Lucky Strikes played a 15 to 15 tie at Queen Mary school grounds the game was not umpired by official umpires and will be replayed if the game has any bearing on the standing of the league after the schedule has been completed.

At Q.V.S.—

Orioles	7	0	0	1 2 —16 runs
Monarchs	0	0	1	0 1 0 1—5 runs

Umpires—D. Ridley and C. Bryant.

At Q.A.S.—

Die Hards	..	2	0	0	0	0	5	—10 runs
Athletics	..	2	0	0	1	0	1	—4 runs

Umpires—H. Rollins and J. Wilson.

At Q.M.S.—

Rangers	....	4	1	4	4	0	0	2—15 runs
Lucky Strikes	5	2	0	3	0	4	1	—15 runs

A slice of pudding sez. from England to a girl in Paris was subject to duty under seven headings, apart from the actual postage fee.

CLOSE! — It took judges five mins to pick the winner of this Aquedoct race. Bellanth es (extreme right)

ROSS BECOMES LI GHTIE CHAMPION

Up in the air goes Barney Ross right mitt, held aloft by the announcer, as the youthful Chicagoan is declared winner over Tony

BETWEEN INNINGS

AMERICAN LEAGUE teams of the east—New York, Philadelphia, Washington and even Boston — have found good business at the turnstiles during their current swing through the western division of the circuit.

x x x

JIM BOTTOMLEY, Sparky Adams and Andy High, Paul Derringer, Allyn Stout, Chick Hafey and Wally Roettger all St. Louis Cardinals during the world series with the A's in 1932, are now with the Cincinnati Reds.

x x x

WESLEY FERRELL, Oral Hildebrand and Mel Harder of the Cleveland pitching staff may find it necessary to start every third day or so since the Indians have no other starting pitchers and little prospects of getting one.

x x x

BABE HERMAN, the Chicago Cub clouter who is in one at the present time, says really great hitters do not mind slumps. They know they will get out of them sooner or later, says the Babe.

x x x

DETROIT'S recent defeat of Lefty Grove has fired the Tigers with enthusiasm. They believe they can lick any pitcher now. The victory over the Bengals' first at the expense of the Philadelphia southpaw in five years!

GOLF

The ladies' section of the Bay of Quinte Country Club held a most successful Field Day on Monday, June 26th. Competitions were open to the Belleville Golf Club and the Trenton Golf Club and over 50 entries were received from the three clubs.

In the morning, Driving, Approach, Putting and Putting competitions were held and after lunch the Medal Rounds and Sealed Hole.

Prizes were won by the following:

Driving—1 best drive—Mrs. Robertson (Belleville Golf Club).

Approach and Putting—1st Miss M. Roberts (Bay of Quinte).

2nd, Mrs. Calder (Belleville Club).

Sealed Hole—Mrs. Hennessey (Belleville Golf Club).

Medal Round—Best Gross Mrs. Hennessey (Belleville Club).

Best Net—1 Miss Schuyler (Bay of Quinte); 2nd—Mrs. O'Flynn (Bay of Quinte).

Consolation Net—Mrs. Wherlatt (Belleville Club).

Hi-Hole Medal Round—Best Gross —Miss M. Roberts (Bay of Quinte).

Best Net—1 Miss Mae P. Burrows (Bay of Quinte).

2nd—Mrs. O'Flynn (Bay of Quinte).

Sealed Hole—Low score—Mrs. Parker (Trenton).

High Score Mrs. Wherlatt (Belleville).

9-Hole players only—Driving—3 best—Mrs. Shurie (Trenton).

Longest Individual—Mrs. Pinkle (Belleville).

Medal Round, Best Net—Mrs. McClung, Trenton.

CARNERA IS CALLED FREAK

Doctor's Claim Gland Responsible For Size

New York, June 27—In a copyright article the New York World-Telegram finds that Primo Carnera, after examination by three medical experts, is "definitely a physical freak of the Acromegalic type and a giantism in his case which is great a production of the growth hormone by the pituitary gland, which is attached to the brain."

Findings, result of examinations by Dr. Joseph Eidesberg, head of the Endocrine Research Clinic at Columbia; Dr. Morton E. Hertz of the Post Graduate Hospital, and Dr. Vincenzo Panoni, former head of the Italian Hospital, seem to settle a controversy that started when another afternoon paper announced that Primo Carnera was perfectly normal, and not a freak.

Highlights of the World-Telegram version are: "Hyper-pituitary development like that of Carnera is accompanied by a deficiency in coordination and a slowing up in reactions and reflexes. Carnera's size does not give him greater immunity than Sharkey insofar as a knockout is concerned. His advantage lies only in size and weight. His acromegalic giantism has not produced commensurate gains in strength and endurance . . . "

The doctors refused to believe Carnera's claim that he weighed 22 pounds at birth. The record is about 17 or 18 pounds.

CITY LEAGUE SOFT BALL

"Wally" Grills' "mechanics" upset the dope in the local senior softball league last evening when they defeated the fast College Hill nine by the score of 2 to 1. At no time did College field while the league leading Cubs were batting, winning from the South End A. C. by the score of 8 to 4 at the Cricket Field.

Behind the superb pitching of Earl Clarke the "mechanics" from Grills' garage battled the Cubs from College street throughout. For six innings Clarke kept the Cubs from the score sheet only to yield a run in the final frame. Clarke just missed being the hall of fame when he let the hard-hitting Cubs down with but three hits while the "mechanics" were collecting but four binglers from the offerings of "Red" Miller, who hurled the game for the Cubs. As the South End A. C. lost to the Bearcats Mr. Grills' charges moved up into second place in the league, just two games behind the league-leading Bearcats. Ticket No. 2078 won the drawing at the College field.

Grills' Garage — J. Barriage, G. Barriage, White, Latchford, Boyle, Matthews, Clarke, Reid and W. Clarke.

College Hill—Lupenette, Jenkinson, C. Murray, Ernest, Miller, Caddick, J. Murray, Robinson, Bellis and MacDonald.

Score by innings— r. h. e.
Grills' Garage .. 0 1 0 1 0 0 —2 4 1
College Hill .. 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1 2 1

Umpires—Dey and Miles.

Complaining in their winning streak the Delaney Bearcats turned back the South End A. C. by the score of 8 to 4 at the Cricket Field when George Jenkinson literally held the "south enders" at bay with his pitching ability. "Cap" Smith, Belleville's veteran hurler was elected to stop the league leaders and although the gray-thatched veteran hurled excellent ball his team mates failed to connect for the needed hits when "Stub" Palmer proved to be the only "red and white" clad batsman to solve the slants of Jenkinson. The Cubs dropped to the league cellar by a third place while the Bearcats still are perched on the top rung of the league ladder.

Bearcats—St. Denis, Gaulin, Henn, Hayes, Denroche, C. Smith, Tuttle, Bawden and Jenkinson.

South End A. C.—Palmer, Henn, Kizer, Burley, Knott, Ethier, Cornell and Smith.

Score by innings— r. h. e.
Bearcats .. 1 2 1 2 0 2 0 —8 13 4
S.E.A.C. ..... 0 0 1 1 0 0 2—4 4 2

Umpires—Clapper and Ethier.

Yesterdays Deaths

Toronto—Arthur C. Pyke, 60, secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

Vancouver—John Simpson Gordon, 67, superintendent of Vancouver City Schools.

Annapolis Royal, N.S.—Jacob Miller Owen, 89, judge of probate for Annapolis County and United States Consular Agent.

TENNIS

London, Ont., June 27 (CP)—Play resumed today in the Western Ontario Tennis Championships, with a large field expected, for the semi-final and round games of the men's singles were completed yesterday, and today the third and fourth rounds are scheduled, with first and second rounds of women's singles. Tomorrow, play will commence in the men's and women's doubles events.

The competition this year is expected to be unusually keen, for today a group of Detroit net stars will arrive to participate in the tournament.

For Summer Comfort

Cool, crisp broadcloth sport shirts that look like a million dollars on the Beach, Golf Course, Tennis Court or Dance Floor.

Better make certain your summer wardrobe boasts several.

QUICK AND ROBERTSON
CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

Yesterdays Stars

By The Associated Press

Gordon Rhodes, Redcox: Pitched well against Browns and collected two doubles and pair of singles.

Jim Peterson, Athletics: Allowed only five hits in eight innings in relief role against Whitesox.

Ossie Bluege, Senators: His single in the eighth drove in run that beat Indians.

Guatemala's long and severe drought and subsequent strong winds and heavy rain, have caused a heavy agricultural loss.

When Spanish explorers discovered tobacco in America they carried back seeds and grew the plant as a curiosity.

CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY"
CONCLUDED MR. PICOBAC

"I was born in the County of Essex."

Mr. Picobac waited for the cheers, led by a Board of Trade member formerly of Essex Centre, to subside.

"Essex," continued he, "where still men are men, and women, I am glad to say—and I thank God for it—are still women." (Renewed cheering)

"Essex," continued the philosopher . . . "Canada's farthest south . . . where peaches have the flavour and melons ripen on the vine . . .

"Essex . . . and her good friends and neighbours along old Lake Erie's shore—Kent . . : Elgin : : : Norfolk . . .

"In Sunny Southern Ontario, where burley tobacco grows to its finest, full . . . ripe . . . perfection—Picobac!"

Handy packet tin, 15¢ also in 1½ lb. Humidor Tins

In the five minute demonstration of enthusiasm which followed his address Mr. Picobac withdrew a pipe from his vest pocket in preparation for a mild . . . cool . . . sweet smoke.

Mr. Picobac leaves to investigate Ottawa tonight. Watch for his address to the Senate. And in the meantime get Picobac. Try a pipeful.

—and don't forget, you get more tobacco for your money.

Good for making cigarettes, too.

IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!

Picobac

Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada, Limited

Two and Two Make Five

By Mason Barlow

Margaret Bradford sat down to read the last issue of Giddy Stories, when the doorbell rang..

"Why, Jane Price! Where's you been, all those months? Do come in, and stay for hours; tell me all about it."

"It was our Mediterranean cruise Margaret, John made the decision so suddenly!"

"Mediterranean," squealed Margaret, "it reminds me of Junior; he's studying geography. And the maps he draws! Henry says they're all original primitives, but husbands don't understand children. I think the maps are perfect examples of self-expression. Well, here we stand in the hall a talking. Let me have your things. So, you've been on a Mediterranean cruise. Tell me all about it; begin at the beginning, Jane."

"Margaret, I think it was Confucius who said that a journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step."

"Oh, Jane! Don't sit there. Sink into this Morris chair; imagine yourself in a steamer chair. That's my husband's pet chair, and my pet peeve. But here I go, rattling along, as the saying is. Tell me all about your cruise. Begin at the beginning, Jane."

A strange experience happened right at the start, at the very front door! It was a matter of taste.

"Aren't they awful, Jane? Henry is distracted; says he doesn't see how he can keep the roof over our heads, with the general taxes almost doubled, and—"

"Pardon, Dear. I said taxicab! Our next-door neighbor—"

"Neighbors! Say nothing to me about neighbors! The one at our right, Mrs. Brown! You should have her young hopeful as a neighbor, Jane. I've come to the deduction that she doesn't know anything about bringing up a boy. I never saw a child so willing to pick fights. Yesterday, the children were absolving like Comanches; and I saw her kid pummeling a little boy, down on the sidewalk. He struck so hard as to actually draw blood! When a child will do anything so revolting, it shows the kind of parents it must have. I've heard nothing definite; but I'm certain, now, that his mother comes from a family of lowbrows, Dear me! Jane, we drift from one subject to another; don't we, Dear! Let's see, we were talking about taxes, weren't we? No, no, taxis—Oh yes! You were going to tell me about your Mediterranean cruise. Begin at the beginning, Jane."

"An interesting deduction you made, Margy; your neighbor comes from a family of lowbrows, because the boy got into a scrap. Perhaps it isn't deduction at all. Looks to me like addition. You add two and two and get five."

"Jane Price. It's nothing of the kind! You know murder will out, or whatever it is they say like begets like. I can judge people, and I don't like her looks. Furthermore no child properly reared would act that way. You wouldn't find Junior—excuse me.....that's my angel child at the back door now. He's dashed around to the front; guess he doesn't intend to come in.. As we were saying, it must be terrible for our husbands—the taxes.....

Why, Jane! Are you thinking about something you must tell some one? Oh, I know! You had such a relaxed expression. For a moment, I thought you were bored. How stupid of me. Of course, you must tell me all about your Mediterranean cruise. Begin at the beginning, Jane."

"I'll pass the beginning—"

Margaret looked out of the window, when she electrically stiffened, dashed to the front door, swung it open and with every ounce of energy, she shrieked, "Junior, come in!"

Junior came in. His shoes were covered with mud, his ribbed stockings were smeary, and a dirty, bleeding knee peeked through a triangular rent in his besmirched knickers. His sweater did its best to tell the world it was once maroon, with two wide bands of orange; but the gumbo had the best of it. He was hatless, his frow peering from under a matted lock of stringy hair. On his cheek, between the left nostril and his molars, was a streak of red-dish smear that wasn't paint.

"Did an auto knock you down and drag you under? Are you hurt? What's the meaning of this, Junior?" Margaret's terrified query fell on him with speedy staccato.

"Naw. It ain't nothin', mother. Beany Bowen wouldn't let me ride on the merry-go-round at th' playground an' I asked him on th' sly, an' he rastled an' by pants got torn" Junior answered with the bravado of a tough guy.

With a sigh of relief and a glance of apology at Jane, she popped, "Is that blood, on your hand?"

"Well, I told you, Mother, I sock-ed him on th' beezer, didn't I? An' when I sock, I sock!"

Her eyes brightened. "Did you make his nose bleed?"

"Cert'n'y!"

Margaret turned to Jane. "Just as I told you it's that Bowen woman's reflection to a T! Her scrappy kid bullies every child in the neighborhood. Serves him right! Junior, go to your room and strip; I'll be there presently to help you."

Jane, with an amused and tolerant smile which belied her innermost thoughts, arose and said, "Margaret, dear the afternoon has worn away. You'll be spending some time with Junior after his bit of self-expression, so I'll be toddling along".

"Why, Jane, I had no idea of the time. You must come again, soon. I want to hear all about your Mediterranean cruise."

In the pretty play of light the Spaniard saw visions of future power, luxury, beautiful women—all that great wealth might purchase for a man. With half-closed eyes he thought of the dream woman for whom he had always longed. Presently he seemed to see before him a vague materialization of the figure of his dreams. It appeared to hover just above him, at the firelight's outer rim upon the summits of the ancient river bank.

Strange how the vision persisted! With staring eyes he slowly rose to his feet to confront the apparition when in soft, gentle tones, it spoke. "Beloved!" it said, "it is really you!" Esteban wondered if he had lost his wits. But no; the figure came toward him smiling, with outstretched arms. Who was this vision of beauty, alone in the savage African wilderness?

"Do not tell me that you do not know me!" it cried. Esteban first pictured the diamonds to their pouch in the sack and in his turn to confront the figure that was a step forward. The spell of the woman's beauty and mystery surged through his veins. She was quite close now, her face uplifted. A sudden wave of madness swept over the Spaniard as with outstretched arms he sprang forward to meet her. But just then he was about to clasp the vision, he stopped frozen in his tracks, wide-eyed with fear.

PNEUMATIC TIRES TO BE ON RAILWAY CARS

Railroad Says Trend is Seen Along with Double-Deck Trains

Chicago, June 27—A trend toward pneumatic tires for railway cars and toward double-deck suburban railway trains was noted at meetings of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

C. D. Young, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, speaking before one group of the 13,000 engineering specialists in the engineering profession here for the American Association for the Advancement of Science meeting, described the light double-decker trains in use in Europe. It could carry many more passengers than the present type at high speed.

"Another interesting development" he said, "is the pneumatic-tired rail car, now constituting a self-propelled unit for passenger service. It reduces noise to the minimum and makes for the greatest comfort."

Another development Young mentioned was the pneumatic-tired car for electrified passenger service. Each car carries its own motor, making possible trains at any length and providing rapid acceleration. These trains are designed for the high-speed commutation service in cities where many stops are necessary.

DORLAND PROBE IS BROUGHT TO END

Toronto, June 27—Shortly before midnight last night, Charles Bell, K.C., concluded his final summing up as counsel to Mr. Justice Kingstone's Royal Commission and ended the inquiry into the Dorland case.

"I feel a heavy responsibility rests upon my shoulders," he said, "and the ship before me left in the hands of the third floor city hall court room. "I shall take considerable time to prepare my report to the Attorney General and while I am satisfied you all, I shall endeavour to do my duty without fear or favor to anybody and the only satisfaction I can get out of it is that of doing my duty as I understand it. I am indebted to you all for the very thorough and capable manner in which you have presented the evidence."

Now that Venice has a new three-mil viaduct linking it with the mainland, motorists can drive up to the gate of the city and garage their cars. The old railway still is closed terriory to autos because of the narrow streets and bridges.

HONEST DOG TOO EASY FOR BAD MAN

Liberty, Mo., June 27— Pence Burke's five year old Pointer dog, Dick, has lost credit rating at the corner grocery.

Burke used to write an order for dog meat, place it in a sack and send Dick to the store with it. The order would be filled. Dick would seize the sack and return with his meat.

However, a villain, unidentified, learned of the trips and planned the unsuspecting dog one day. He added a dime to the meat and sent in the order. The grocer filled that too.

Naturally Dick, heavily laden, did not return. He was called again and relieved of part of the load on the way home.

Burke learned of it when he got a dog meat bill for $1.85 in spite of the customary 35 or 40 cents. Now when Dick goes to the store he carries a nickel in the sack.

POISONED CORN IS FATAL TO PIGEONS?

Campbellford, Ont., June 27—Poisoned corn sown by some farmers in the district to save their crops from the ravages of crows is blamed for the decrease in the pigeon colony that inhabits the tower of the local fire hall and the Seven Oaks factory. More than 30 pigeons have come home to die. Their crops contained poisoned corn. Others are being cared for and are expected to recover. They come home and perch on the roof for a few minutes, then they just tumble over and fall to the ground dead," the firemen explain. "Some of their crops have been full of poisoned corn."

HOG SURVIVES 38 DAYS UNDERGROUND, DIGS OUT

Norris Grove, Ill., June 27—A hog at the Hugh Norris farm has set a record which may be the envy of the long imprisoned horned toad in Texas.

The hog disappeared from the Norris pen during the May 30 rainy month ago.

Norris found the hog in a deep hole in the pasture. The hole was two feet deep and the hog had turned around in and he had apparently gone without food or water for 30 days. He had lost 70 pounds during his imprisonment and weighed only 70 pounds when rescued but seemed to be in fine health otherwise.

24,000 in-patients and 33,000 out-patients from motor accidents were treated by British hospitals last year at a cost of approximately £230,000.

CHURCH ONE CENTURY OLD

St. Andrew's Ureabyterian at Picton Will Celebrate 10 Days

A ten-day celebration of the Centennial of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Picton, opens Friday, June 30th. Special features and music will mark the services the following Sunday when former pastors of the church are expected to be present. Monday, July 3rd, is a holiday in Picton, and a Congregational and Sabbath School picnic is to be held at the Sandbanks. Wednesday of next week will include a motor trip through Prince Edward and a strawberry festival on the church lawn in the evening. Friday of that week includes on the program a public meeting with special speakers and former members of the congregation giving addresses.

A memorial service for those members who have passed away will be held the second Sunday of the celebration (July 9th.). At this morning service the church, which has been redecorated will be rededicated to the service of Almighty God.

The choir, under the leadership of Mr. V. Dow, has been for some weeks preparing special musical offerings for the celebration.

A $20,000 automobile on display at the Chicago Fair is made of aluminum and has a wheel base of 153 1-2 inches.

EVER HEAR OF THIS ONE, FARMER?

Twin colts, one a mule mare and the other a horse colt, born to a Percheron mare on the Henry Zuger ranch at Wallsburg, Wash., have amazed farmers of the northwest. The mother was first bred to a jack and four weeks later to a stallion.

Some of the newest museum cases are made of glass plate cemented together, so that no wood or metal edges interfere with complete vision.

It is reported that the Japanese are endeavoring to increase their daily supplies, hoping that more milk-drinking will make bigger boned Japanese.

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES
(Eastern Standard Time)

TUESDAY

4.00—Melodic Thoughts—CRCT
4.15—Penrod and Sam—CRCT
4.30—The Singing Lady—WJR
4.45—Nursery Rhymes—WEAF
5.00—Rise and Dunn—CFRB
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Mme. Frances Ingo—WBEN
5.30—Hymn Sing—WEAF
5.30—Kathryn Newman—WJZ
5.45—James Melton—WEAF
5.45—Lowell Thomas—CRCT
6.00—Tony Wons Scrapbook—CKCL
6.00—Amos 'N 'Andy—CRCT
6.00—Cyrpess Twins—WABC
6.15—Mitzi Green—WJR
6.15—London Conference—WABC
6.30—Lud Rebo Orch—WJR
6.30—Yesterday Dandies—CRCT
6.30—Ed. Sullivan—WJZ
7.00—Mary Eastman—CFRB
7.00—Metropolitan Presents—CFCA
7.15—The Magic Voice —WABC
7.30—Sally Eilers—WJR
7.30—Golden Tower Orch.—WJR
7.45—Floyd Gibbons—CRCT
7.45—Melody Lads—WJR
8.00—Ortis Tirado—WJZ
8.00—Lum and Abner—CFRB
8.45—Tune Boys—CKCL
8.45—Commission Free—CFCA
9.00—Musical Memories—WJZ
9.45—Light Opera Gems—WABC
9.45—C. Brush, Barlton—CFRB
10.00—Pickens Sisters—WJZ
10.15—Buddy Barthell—CFRB
10.30—Master Singers—CRCT
10.30—Ozzie Nelson—WJZ
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.15—Milt Rogers Orch.—WBEN
11.30—Belasco Orch—WABC
12.00—Roseland Orch—WABC

WEDNESDAY

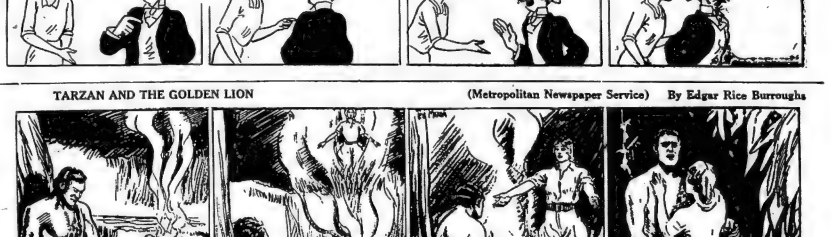
7.00—Gene and Glenn—WJR
7.15—Xylophonist—WJZ
7.30—Sunny Melodies—WABC
7.30—Glen Club—CFRB
8.00—Little Jack Little—CFRB
8.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.15—Melody Magic—CFRB
8.15—Amanda Vick—WEAF
8.30—Breakfast Club—WJR
8.45—Morning Serenade—CKCL
9.00—Breen and De Rose—WEAF
9.00—Negro Quartet—CRCT
9.00—Main Trio—WABC
9.15—Artists Trio—CRCT
9.15—Bill and Ginger—CFRB
9.30—The Three Scamps—CRCT
9.45—Singing Strings—WJZ
10.15—Four Showmen—WABC
10.30—The Playboys—CFRB
10.45—Variety Trio—CKCL
11.00—Commodores—WEAF
11.00—Detective Stories—CRCT
11.15—J. MacKenzie, Tenor—WJR
11.30—Concert Miniatures—CFRB
11.45—Joy Steele—WJZ
12.00—Rex Battle's Orch—CKCL
12.00—Song Revue—WJR
12.15—George Hall's Orch.—WABC
12.30—Horace Heidt—CFCA
1.00—Ann Leaf, Organ—CFRB
1.15—Afternoon Musicale—CFCA
1.30—Mary Lindsay—WJR
1.30—Artists Recital—WABC
1.45—Eddie Duchin—WJZ
2.00—Grande Trio—WEAF
2.15—Ann Leaf, Organ—CFRB
2.30—Days in Dixie—WJZ
3.00—Mid-week Musicale—WJZ
3.00—Pop Concert—WEAF
3.30—Virginia Hopper—WJR
3.45—Edna Odell—WJZ
3.45—Round Towners—WABC
4.00—Al Bernard—CRCT
4.00—The Marionettes—WBEN
4.15—Ben Bernie—WABC
4.15—Ralph Arlene—WEAF
4.30—Singing Lady—WJZ
4.45—Italian Ambassador—WJZ
4.45—Paul Wing—WEAF

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus



JUNE 27 MR. AND MRS. - AND THEY SAY THAT WOMEN CHATTER

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

After deserting Flora, Esteban camped beside a spring in the jungle. He was insane. Tarzan of the Apes gave him a false courage. He foraged for food, built a fire and ate drank his fill. Then he drew forth the pouch of diamonds opened it and poured a handful of the gems into his palm. The flickering firelight playing on them, sent scintillating gleams shooting into the jungle night, © 1933, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

ROSLIN GIRLS BASEBALL TEAM IS DEFEATED

Fine Competition Enjoyed in Mixed Bowling Tournament

TWEED—Roslin Girls' Softball team journeyed to Tweed on Friday evening accompanied by Dr. Dafoe and Welsh to meet Tweed girls at Memorial Park. The experience of the locals was more than the visitors could cope with however, and they went down to defeat by a score of 24 to 10. Roslin pitcher and catcher played efficiently but their support was somewhat shaky at times. Mabel Freeman with two home runs a triple and a single and Frances Carleton with two homeruns, two doubles and a single were the leading batters, the latter also crossed the plate six times.

Tweed team was composed of C. Godfrey, 3b; J. Stevens, c; C. Caudill rf; M. Freeman, 1b; F. Carleton v; Freeman jr; A. Thompson ss; E. Terry 2b; I. McConnachie cf.

Roslin—Annie Johnson rf; Kathleen Carter p; Velma Chapman 3b; Marion Fairey c; Allene Craig s; Vera Copeland 3b; Mary Gray 1b; Vera Bennett cf; Alethea Bailey lf.

Umpire—Borden Rollins.

Score by innings:

Roslin..	-	0	5	1	1	0	1	0	—10
Tweed..	..	3	2	4	6	3	4	2	—24

The return game will be played in Roslin on Thursday evening.

In the mixed scheduled tournament of Tweed Bowling Club in which practically all the members participate and keen interest is shown, there are eight teams drawn. Each team plays each other team during the season, making seven games. A win counts ten points, a tie, seven points, one point, a loss by two counts eight points, and no win, three.

The winning rink will be that which wins the greatest number of games with the highest points. Consistent good play will thus be rewarded. The second night was played on Friday night by virtue of which three teams are tied for leadership with two wins each. The teams are Mrs. C. H. Reeves, skip, Mrs. Reeves, W. J. McCutcheon, Mrs. A. E. Allen; S. B. Mercer, skip; Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. J. Prust; Mrs. M. Quinn; T. F. Moffat, skip; Mrs. S. B. McKee; Jas. Ryan, Mrs. T. N. Beatty.

Some of the teams usually in the run have not got into their stride yet, but will be heard from before long.

First afternoon euchre and bridge held in Tweed on Thursday was an outstanding success. It was sponsored by the Catholic Women's League. Tweed subdivision and its success was largely due to the initiative of Miss A. Courreyes and Mrs. J. J. McHugh. The prizes were won by Mrs. T. McGhan's vacant store which was prettily decorated in pink with peonies and other flowers of the same colour. There were twelve tables of bridge and nine of euchre. Play lasted from three o'clock till five, after which lunch was served. Mrs. McCann and Mrs. Feeley poured tea. The prize at bridge was won by Mrs. W. A. Paul, and for euchre by Mrs. Roy Mallon. Proceeds amounted to $27.00.

The forty-third anniversary of the founding of the Women's Missionary Society of Tweed United Church was observed on Friday by the newly decorated Church Parlours. There were nearly one hundred ladies present from the Auxiliaries of Tweed, Stoco, Madoc, Uxbridge, Bullpitie, as well as from the auxiliaries of the Presbyterian and Anglican Churches of Tweed. Mrs. J. W. Kingston, President, had charge of the meeting. The meeting was opened with the Doxology which was followed by the Lord's prayer of welcome to the visitors by Mrs. G. H. Kerr, Secretary of Tweed W.M.S. Mrs. W. H. Hicks gave an interesting account of the early days of the local society since its inception. Incidents, remembered, only by those who had joined the society in its earliest years, were recounted. This history was greatly appreciated by all. After the singing of "O Worship the King" Mrs. Claude Barrett offered prayer, Mrs. F. S. Foster read greetings from Mrs. (Rev.) Charlotte Totton, Toronto, a past president; Mrs. (Rev.) E. Coon, Peterboro, a past president; Mrs. Murney Badgley, Toronto, a past president; Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell Belleville, a charter member and Mrs. F. R. Cooke, Cannington. Mrs. W. A. Beatty sang "The beautiful garden of prayer" which was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. S. Webb of Thomasburg, gave a splendid reading entitled "A Perfect Day". A very interesting address on missionary work in the various mission fields was given by Mrs. (Rev.) S. B. Harrington of Thomasburg. Mrs. Harry Grier sang a beautiful solo "If we Love." The Mission Band under Kiwi Mrs. C. Porritt and the direction of Mrs. C. Porritt and Mrs. R. Grier gave an interesting play "The Builders".

Three charter members of Tweed W.M.S. still reside in the village. Mrs. E. Woods, who is also the oldest living member, Mrs. P. K. Newton and Mrs. George Brown. To each of these was presented a beautiful basket of roses.

The meeting was closed with "Blest be the tie that binds" and prayer by Captain Rumford of the Salvation Army, Mrs. Harry Foster of the W.M.S. moved a vote of thanks to Tweed W.M.S. In four of the circuits of Tweed Presbytery School tables had been set. These were tastefully decorated as was the main table. Bowls of peonies, roses, Canterbury bells, marguerites and, lupins were used. Lunch was served to the guests in these rooms.

TO CLEAR
Our Complete Stock of Renfrew
REFRIGERATORS
In golden oak finish and steel white enamelled.
Prices as low as $12.85
We Also Sell
MONARCH STEEL
REFRIGERATORS
BUY NOW AND SAVE
SMITH
HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

REDWINGS IN FULL CONTROL

By HERBERT W. BARKER,
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rochester Redwings were on the upward path of the second battle they've been waging with Newark Bears for the International League lead today.

While the Bears were enjoying a day off yesterday, the Redwings plastered a 9-1 defeat on the Buffalo Bisons and sauntered full control of first place, a half game ahead of Bears.

Sheriff Blake stopped the Bisons with four hits in the seven innings he worked before the heat caused his removal. Del Wetherell took up the burden and gave three more hits and an unearned run in the ninth. Rochester, meanwhile, pounded Phil Gallivan and Ace Elliott for 13 hits including home runs by Charley Hargreaves and Art Shires. The game really was decided in the sixth inning when the Redwings unloosed a six-run rally marked by Shires' circuit smash and a double by Wilson that drove in two tallies.

In the only other contest of the day, Toronto Maple Leafs outlasted Montreal Royals 8-6 in a 15-inning thriller at Montreal.

The Royals came from behind twice, in the fourth, eighth, 11th and 12th innings, to tie the score but could not match Toronto's two-run rally in the 15th when Murray Howell's triple was followed by singles by Irvin Brune and Lee Mallon.

Boss and Manager Dan Howley of the Leafs and Lou Finney of the Royals were banished for arguing with the umpires during the long drawn-out argument.

SENATORS TWO FULL GAMES

While Washington Senators have been hitting the ball in all corners of the ball parks in their march to the top of the American League, manager Joe Cronin's pitchers also have been playing an important role in the sensational season's major league record for consecutive victories.

With a 4 to 3 triumph over Cleveland Indians yesterday, the Senators added another leader lead to their full games over the idle Yankees but won their eighth successive game and their 18th in sixteen starts.

Just how effective Manager Cronin's pitchers have been is shown in their record of allowing the opposing batters only 83 hits and an average of 2.3 runs a game in the club's last eight triumphs.

The Athletics got away to an early lead against the White Sox when Jimmy Dykes got 3b Jim Peterson pitching effective relief ball pounded out an 8-2 victory.

Peterson, receiving credit for his first victory of the season, relieved Tony, Freitas in the second inning with the bases filled. He allowed one run to score and then shut out the Sox the remainder of the way for his scattered hits. Meanwhile his team mates blasted Whitsler Wyatt from the mound and continued their heavy hitting off Joe Hering.

With Dusty Rhodes keeping the Browns' nine hits well scattered and pounding out four hits, including a pair of doubles, Boston Red Sox defeated St. Louis 3-1. Two of the Browns' hits were home runs by Jimmy Reese and Bill Hodapp which connected with a circuit blow for the Sox.

The Yankees and Tigers failed to get into action when rain interfered while all of the games in the National League were washed out, the Cubs-Phillies after one-half of the first inning had been played.

Johnson Would Lose 100 Pounds In Five Months of Hard Training

Chicago, June 27—(CP)— Open Johnson—220 pounds, six feet three inches tall, 23 inches around the biceps, and possessor of size 12 1-2 shoes—has set out to lose 100 pounds in five months.

Whether he does it or not, grunted from the mound and batted .350 is a safe bet that he will break in modern-day baseball, the weight will come off at 20 pounds a month.

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

Watch to see how that we've tacked victory" in the cry of Penney Elliott Nationals these days. At practice Monday evening the youthful Nats were in the shiny by anything and promised the manager they would do or die on Wednesday, if the locals can pull through with a win against the Pembs and win both games of the double header against the Toronto Hawks on that night, they'll be right up in the thick of the fight. Even right now they are but three and one-half games behind the league leaders. Maybe we've been a bit hard but a little early but if the locals can down the Pembs on Wednesday just watch them go during the second half of the C.O.B.L. schedule.

On the other hand the Hawks have dominated the locals all season and are about due for a fall. Let's hope the Pembs stumble on Wednesday." The manager help a game on Monday all were sent out, and the same lineup will start against the Hawks as was used in Peterboro Saturday.

The home fans will get their first peek at Jim Mathews, pitcher and outfielder, on the half holiday. Mathews has been performing from the mound to outfield duty of late and the big lad is from the O.S.D. He's making a good job of it. He takes a healthy swing at the ball and has a favorite with local fans.

The following two paragraphs appeared in the Kingston press recently regarding the C.O.B.L. umpiring staff. The Kingston scribe has taken a pointed stand with which we heartily agree, in regulating to the appointing of umpires.

"This umpire business, after all, isn't so much the business of the league as it is the teams'. President Mac Swanston has made it clear that the umpires were used by the teams and are being tried out by the league."

"In several instances, however, it seems that the league has not exercised to assume their rightful authority and appoint the officials themselves, regardless of the teams. It is difficult to get teams satisfied on umpires and the league might just as well show who is boss by naming the officials and letting the teams play."

In regard to the Belleville set-up Kingston seems to be a bit the following to say:

"There was little to complain about in the umpiring last night—just a pleasant change from past performances. Ralph Hall first appearance as base umpire and handled two games with the best of the local season, while Woodley Ray Hughes umpired behind the plate."

Congratulations are the order of the day to Waller Grew, ex-pilot of the Belleville Nationals, now residing in Napanee, Ont., as the proud father of a bouncing baby girl. Both the baby and Mrs. Grew are in excellent health, we are glad to say.

Sandy Burrows, recently turned in a 56 for 18 holes at the Bay of Quinte Golf Club course recently. Splendid work, Sandy, old boy, you have a style of hockey and golf that seem to be headed towards other laurels in the sport world.

The annual three-mile run staged every Victoria Day by the local Y.M.C.A. was postponed this year on account of rain. Physical Director Ralph Morden announced yesterday that this event would be competed for on Monday, July 3rd, at the Exhibition Park. The run will be staged just previous to the ball game. Numerous middle distance runners from out-of-town have been invited to compete.

The complete card for Thursday night's boxing card at the airport has been announced. Of course the feature bout will be the chief attraction as it brings together Ken Robinson of Toronto, present welterweight champion of Ontario, against Jimmy Leonard, former middleweight champion of this province. Eleven all-star bouts have been arranged while the Trenton Citizen's Band have offered their services gratis and will entertain the fans before the bouts. As was previously stated the bouts will be held in one of the hangars at the Airport.

Apparently junior baseball in Belleville is coming into its own. When young pitchers can bang out a record as young Bill Hammell did last evening, hurling a no-hit, no-run game for the Crystalaes over the champion Red Sox, the future of baseball looks promising to say the least. Hammell pitched a lonely, steady game, while his slants were more than capably handled by Don Thomas, his catcher. Hammell's entering of the hall of fame by pitching such a game is the first to be registered in Belleville in many years. The kid is to be congratulated.

The girl softballers take to the Armouries this evening.

TWEED LODGE A.F. AND A.M. HAVE CHURCH PARADE

Rev. R. R. Nicholson Delivers Inspiring Sermon

Tweed—The members of Tweed Lodge No. 239 A. F. and A. M. paraded to the United Church on Sunday morning to attend Divine Service. Visiting brethren were present from Belleville, Stirling and the surrounding district. The Church was filled, the members of the Masonic order occupying the entire centre section. Appropriate flowers were arranged on both sides of the pulpit. Fanning's choir sang "The power of Jesus' name," "He lives with King," and "Fight the good Fight."

The choir of twenty voices under the leadership of Mr. S. H. Connor, sang two anthems:—"I will magnify thee, O God, my Lord or hear me." The solo in the former anthem was sung by Mrs. H. Grier in her usual pleasing manner. Mrs. S. H. Connor sang the solo in the second anthem and with Dr. M. O. Oakes sang the duet, "Lord accept(ably)." Miss Lois Richardson played the accompaniments in a very capable manner.

The subject of Rev. R. R. Nicholson's address was "The Sovereignty of Man." The minister chose as his text Paul's words to his son Solomon.—"Be thou strong therefore, and shew yourself a man." In his masterly address, Mr. Nicholson urged among other things the value of character, courage and service as the traits of qualities of a real man. He showed that a true follower of Christ's example.

The Women's Adult Bible Class of Tweed United Church will hold annual picnic at the home of Mr. Lincoln Elliott on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Logan of Belleville were week-end guests of friends.

Mr. W. H. Orcutt, District Forester, spent several days of the past week on business in the north country.

Tweed Forestry Branch states that the precipitation recorded in the heavy rain of Wednesday last, was 1.94 inches.

Mr. Bert Houston of Belleville attended the Masonic service in town on Sunday.

Miss Helena McGee and Mr. Wm. Christie of Trenton spent Sunday with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McGee.

Miss Dorothy MacDonald of Listowell, Evelyn Willigus of Forest, Jean Lindsay of Port Hope and Ruth Hawkins of Port Hope have returned to their homes. Miss Gordon from a motor trip to Quebec and are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gordon.

Messrs. J. J. Carty, G. Cotton, A. Lane, F. C. Bowers and H. Casbey of Bulpitt attended the Masonic Service on Sunday.

LEAGUE LEADERS

By The Associated Press

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Unchanged from yesterday except five Rotsler, Cincinnati, who tied 3rd and eliminate Hartnett.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batin: Simmons, Whitesox, .363; Cronin, Senators, .360.

Runs batted in: Gehrig, Yankees, 64; Simmons, Whitesox and Cronin, Senators, 56.

Hits: Manush, Senators, 102; Simmons, Whitesox, 98.

Doubles: Cronin, Senators, 25; Burns, Browns, 22.

Triples: Combs, Yankees, 10; Manush, Senators 8.

Home runs: Gehrig, Yankees, 17; Ruth, Yankees and Foxx Athletics, 15.

Stolen bases: Walker, Tigers, 14; Chapman, Yankees 11.

Pitching: Allen, Yankees, 6-2; Crowder, Senators, 11-4.

Webster
in Cigars means Quality
NOW 5¢
Smoke them and appreciate the difference

Phone 3000 — THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED — Phone 3000
Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 8 a.m. Close 5.30 p.m.

Shop Before 12 o'Clock Noon For These Rousing

HALF-DAY SPECIALS

Panties and Girdles in Half Day Sale!

Garter Girdles
Splendid for warm weather, of fancy brocaded material—sizes 23 to 27. Special, each 29c

Women's
Rayon Panties
In three styles, in a nice assortment of colors—in all sizes. Made of superior quality rayon. Half Day Special, pair 49c

Cool Mesh Panties
Delightfully cool and comfortable for summer wear. Tailored in style, with a flat band front. In white only. Sizes, small, medium and large. Pair 39c

Young Men's and Youths' Breeches
A big half day selling of young men's and youths' breeches. These were formerly priced at three and four times this amount—and should clear very quickly. Of sturdy khaki material or dark grey cloth, in four tweed mixtures. Splendid for camp wear, for hunters, or for truck drivers. Assorted sizes in the group. A half day selling only, pair ..... 1.00 —men's store

Women's Crisp Print and Linene House Frocks, each 79c
For the garden, or for house wear, cool, crisp print and linene house frocks—in a wide selection of styles and pretty colors. Print frocks are in a selection of flowered and geometric effects. Linene frocks plain with colored bindings. Sizes 34 to 48. Half Day Special, each ..... —second floor

Women's Rubber Aprons—Reg. 35c
Of excellent grade rubber, in good large size. A clothes protector in morning. Regularly these are priced at 35c each. Half Day Special
Special 25c each —main floor centre

Big Value! 36" Printed Cotton Chiffon Voiles, yard 19c
Dainty printed voiles, in stunning patterns and colorings that look smart made up into summer frocks. They're all fast colors, and the quality is fine and smooth. A host of color combinations on light grounds makes the selection every large complete and very easy to choose from. Half Day Special, yard ..... —main floor rear

Stamped Linen Lunch Sets
Of sturdy Irish linen, a very attractive set of 5 pieces—consisting of one cloth, size 44 x 44 inches, and four serviettes to match. Neatly hemmed, each piece stamped with a pretty design to embroider. Regularly priced at 79c set. Half Day Special,
reg. 79c 49c set —main floor right

Clearing of Screen Doors 1.49
Frames are made from "x" lumber, in stained finish, in three sizes, 2' 8" x 6' 8"—2' 10" x 6' 10"—3' x 6' 10". Galvanized screening used on every door. Clearing, each ..... —basement

Clearing! Ice Water Pitchers
These are specially designed with spout that stops ice from sliding into glasses. Clear glass only, in good large size. Special, each ..... 49c —basement

Walnut Finished
End Tables
In half round style—of sturdy construction with three legs. Legs are nicely turned and the whole table well braced. Half Day Special
Special each 1.49

Assorted Patterns in Feltol Mats
Suitable for use as scatter rugs, in sun parlors, halls, dining rooms, or bedrooms, sturdy felted mats, size 18 x 36 inches. In an assortment of patterns and colorings. Half Day Special
Special each 19c —main floor rear

Filet Panels
In rich ivory shade, with heavy fringe trimming. Handsome filet panels, for angle, double and triple shad windows. Size is 42 inches by 2¼ yards long.
Special each 69c —main floor rear

Half Day Specials in the Groceteria

CHOICE
WEINERS 11c per pound
FRESH
VEAL CHOPS 15c per pound

CALIFORNIA
Grapefruit 3 for 21c

ONE HOUR ONLY—9.30 to 10.30 A.M.
Lux Soap Flakes
LARGE PACKAGE 16c
Limit 2 Packages to a Customer with a 25c Purchase or Over.
A Saving of 18c on 2 Packages

GOOD SIZE
Pineapples
To Clear 2 for 27c

NEW
Potatoes 5 lbs. 24c

NEW LOW PRICE
Classic Cleanser tin 5c

Children's Awning Stripe
Sandals
Made with heavy rubber soles, and awning stripe duck uppers. Buckle fastening style, and excellent for street, sport or camp wear. Sizes 5½ to 10½. 79c and 11 to 2. Pair ..... —men's store rear

Women's White
Mesh Sandals 1.69
Designed with a cuban heel, neatly covered with mesh uppers. Buckle fastening with leather soles that are sturdy and flexible. Smart for summer wear. Sizes from 4 to 7 in the lot. Special, pair ..... —men's store rear

Sport Oxfords
For Women
In black and white or beige and brown—comfortable fitting sport oxfords—with the new rubber soles and heels. Good looking and remarkably serviceable —outstanding value at this price. Pair 1.98 —men's store rear

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

SCHOOL REPORT

Promotion Results S. S. No. 23 Tweed.

To Sr. IV—Ruth Whitfield, (H); Lena Deller (H); Mary MacPherson (H); Flossie MacMurter (H); George H. Woods.

To Jr. IV—Margaret Whitfield, (H); Alberta Vermilyea (H); Frances Woods (H); Georgia A. Woods (H); Everett Woods.

To Sr. III—William Taylor (H); Clara MacPherson.

To Jr. II—Lenore Vermilyea (H); Lela Woods.

To Jr. II—Jim Vesterfelt, Earl MacMurter.

To Jr. II—Betty Twiddy (H); Mary Whitfield; Clare Twiddy; Gladys Van Skiver.

To Sr.—Doris Chisholm.

Sr.—Pr. — Joyce MacPherson, Ruth Whitfield and Ida MacArthur equal;

Jr.—Gordon Chisholm.

M. Bristol, teacher.

About 320 muscles are used in moving the human body.

MISSION BAND

The Stone Church Mission Band met at the school on June 22nd. The meeting was opened by singing "Brighten the Corner." Laura Potter read the Scripture Mark 15: 22-32 after which the 23rd Psalm was repeated. The hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" was then sung.

Roll call was answered by the name of a favorite hymn. Mrs. Whitfield told a very interesting story to the class.

With "Jesus Loves Me" was then sung and the Lord's Prayer repeated as a closing. Attendance thirteen members.

Portuguese sailors brought the ukulele to Hawaii in 1879, which means "little flea" in Hawaiian.

Australia paid over $1,700,000 in subsidies to wine growers last

PROBABILITIES
Moderate winds; fair and very warm, Thursday—Continuing warm and mostly fair. Probably followed by local thunderstorms.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES
Official 2 o'clock temperatures for Wednesday:
Wed., high, 91; low 72.
Thurs., high, 89; low 64.
Wind velocity 24 miles per hour.

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1933

TEN PAGES

FRANCE MAY BE FORCED OFF GOLD BASIS

Battle of Franc is Lost, Only 'Miracle' Can Save; Stabilization Only Hope

Sudden Reversal Sends Wheat Markets Tumbling

Abandonment of Gold Standard by Esthonia

U. S. DOLLAR OFF

Gold Bloc Urges Britain to Support Stabilization

London, June 28 (AP)—The European gold bloc nations redoubled their efforts this afternoon to obtain British support for the gold standard. Central Bank representatives of France, Holland, Switzerland and Belgium conferred with the British at the Bank of England.

There was, it was said, a "flicker of hope that the British might give some satisfaction."

Franc Loses Out.

Paris, June 28 (AP) — Financial experts said today that the battle of the franc is lost and it is only a question of time until France will be obliged to devaluate.

Telephone conversations between Premier Daladier and Finance Minister Bonnet, who is at the London Inter Bonnet, who is at the London Conference, are said to have revealed that hope has been abandoned of Great Britain's stabilizing with Europe.

Economic forces either will push France off gold or compel the drastic reining of the franc, probably a fourth or a fifth to meet it, if dollar competition, financial experts said.

"It is wiser to act now," declared a source conversant with the views of the government, "but the public must be educated."

Only "Miracle" Can Save.

Nothing except the "miracle" of high dollar stabilization can save the franc, it was said, because dismissal of foreign trade will henceforth be accelerated as tax receipts diminish and the budget deficit grows, compelling the government to inflate to get money as the treasury already is almost empty.

If parliament and the people were awake to the danger devalorization would be effected soon with less suffering, it was said, but the country is so thoroughly imbued with the idea of maintaining gold at any cost the franc safe that the government would be immediately overthrown if any move were changed now.

Marcel Regnier, reporter for the finance committee, yesterday warned the senate of the "gravity" of the French financial situation. Formerly Premier Joseph Caillaux predicted a "collapse of the public finances" if an additional burden were imposed through a too large aid to agriculture.

U. S. Dollar Falls.

London, June 28 (CP)—The gold standard battle assumed a more menacing aspect behind the scenes of the world economic conference today.

An overnight fall in the American dollar sent a wave of excitement through the conference which dominated all proceedings. The delegates crowded about ticker machines more intent on exchange quotations than the committee discussions.

The fall of Esthonia from the gold standard, effected during the night, gave rise to the free prediction that other Baltic countries would have to follow suit and the remaining gold countries would soon be involved.

So far however the French, Swiss and Dutch currencies are holding firm. Representatives of the Central Banks of these countries met again today and reportedly worked on plans to first prevent any forcing of Holland off gold.

Meanwhile the rise in commodity prices is outstripping the fall in the dollar, officials say, new benefits to gold producing countries like Canada.

Young Fairbanks III

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR.
Battling pneumonia in a New York hospital, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., screen actor, was reported to be "holding his own". He was stricken upon his arrival in the United States from London.

SWIMS ACROSS LAKE TO BOY HE HIT FOR DEER

Despite Aid Boy Dies in Hospital at Kenora

Kenora, Ont., June 28—Robert Shave, a 18 year old Winnipeg boy died in hospital here as the result of a bullet wound in the abdomen inflicted by a hunter who mistook him for a deer.

Robert Shave was shot yesterday at Ingolf, Ont., 20 miles west of here, where he had been camping with his family. The hunter, named Kyle, seeing a movement in the bush, fired.

Tossing his rifle aside, Kyle swam across a small lake to where the boy lay and carried him to Ingolf. An inquest will be held.

HOTTEST DAY FOR SEASON

Mercury at 91 at One O'clock on Wednesday

Was Wednesday warmer than Tuesday? No, remarked residents who failed to notice their thermometers. Yes, declared the official weatherman to whom reference in the thermometer is part of the day's business.

So the exact Wednesday at noon beat by two points the highest mark registered for the day Tuesday, the high of 91 was registered on Wednesday, corresponding with the record of the day, 89 on Tuesday. Low on Wednesday was marked at 72; for Tuesday the low was 64.

A fresh, twenty-one mile an hour breeze which blew steadily during the west all day made all the difference in the world to the stuffiness of balance. It belied the excessive heat of the hottest day of the year, the fifth day of the heat wave which has held the city and district since last Saturday.

Throughout the day, in an effort to escape the heat, swimmers again filled the bay and harbor, but even there little relief could be found. The official temperature of the bay was given as 76 at the pump house. In the harbor it was as "warm as toast."

STRAWBERRY CROP ENDS

Ste Catharines, June 28 (CP)—Strawberry crop here is practically ended owing to the continued drought that has scorched the plants and dried up the berries. Some 234 firms operated thru out May without a single lost-time accident. Accidents reported by all firms reporting showed a decrease in comparison with the average for 1932. Best records for number of hours worked without a single accident were achieved by the Canadian Bank Note Company, Ottawa, the Ford Motor Co. plant, and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, New Toronto, the best so far this year.

TORNADO HITS LAKEHEAD

Port William, June 28—The first tornado ever reported at the head of the lakes, reached here today.

A miniature twister shattered seven of the city's power and telephone poles on Leland Avenue. Witnesses described what they call ed a boiling cloud whirling down from the skies, breaking the poles in its path.

Mayor Asks For Strike Intercession

Ottawa, June 28—(CP)—Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor, received this morning a telegram from Mayor Quinto Peebles, of Hamilton, asking him to intercede in the strike of employees of Mercury Mills, Ltd. The Minister with his Department officials, is considering what action should be taken.

Hamilton despatches state that 250 persons are idle as a result of the strike.

FUNNIES IN THE NEWS

Spokane, Wash., June 28 (CP)—Secretary will rain from the skies to American civilian conservation corps workers in Idaho, Washington and Montana, Maj. George S. Clarke, executive officer for this district said an army plane will fly over each of the 42 isolated camps in the district, dropping the money in stout canvas bags.

Camden, N.J., June 28 (CP) —William Peters sold pretzels and potato chips at his restaurant on Sunday, giving 12 away with them, and the somewhat novel method has led to the law prohibiting sale of beer on Sunday.

SHIPPING WAR ON LAKES IS PRICE FACTOR

Two Cents Bushel Rate From Head of Lakes to Montreal

- 4½ CENT CUT

Canada Has 196 Million Bushels of Wheat in Store

Ottawa, June 28 (CP)—The battle among the lake shipping interests in a factor in the present improved wheat situation according to word reaching the government department here. Boats are carrying the wheat from the head of the lakes to Montreal at as low as two cents a bushel. This is the lowest rate that statistical officials here can recall. Last fall the price was around 6½ cents.

During last session an amendment was made to the canal laws limiting the business from the head of the lakes to Montreal to British ships, but it will only be brought into effect by proclamation and it is understood this will be delayed at least until Premier R. B. Bennett returns. Bean rates are also down.

Canada Well Supplied

Canada is still well supplied with wheat. Last Friday the visible supply was estimated at 196,000,000 bushels and will be about 192,000,000by the end of the month and by the end of June last year it was 138,000,000. These figures do not include the grain in transit.

The higher price of wheat will make much for Canada if the prices are maintained. Officials here are awaiting the reports and are hopeful optimism, hoping that the present advances will hold.

Earth Cracks, Grains Head Out Far in Advance of Time

Baking Heat Following Weeks of Drought Causes Farmers to Despair of Produce—Soil Baked Too Hard For Rain to Penetrate

Burning heat and high humidity continued in Ontario today and the farmers at many points despaired of early maturing crops as no relief appeared in sight.

Rural residents of the Barrie district said they were about ready to abandon hope of saving their produce as a drought entered its fourth week. Gaping cracks appeared in the fields, strawberries ripened too fast and fall wheat began to head far in advance of proper time.

Guelph reported prospect of serious crop damage in the district as one-minute shower provided the only precipitation in two weeks. Most farmers have finished their haying but report only drenching rain can save grains and roots.

At Brantford rain last Monday was said to have done more harm than good. Burning temperatures baked top-soil hard. Roots and grains were reported suffering and the strawberry crop was virtually wiped out.

In Sault Ste. Marie district, weekend rains apparently saved the situation. Further rain today refreshed crops and strawberries, in particular, were said to be good.

Parts of eastern York had fallen for twenty minutes during the past three weeks. Agricultural experts there said unless rain arrived in two days the situation would be serious indeed. Barley and oats were said to be ripening on short straw, bringing lights yield. Turnips were dry. Sugar corn and potatoes remained unin-jured.

Mercury Drops Twelve Degrees as Clouds Form

A 12 degree drop in temperature within the space of a few minutes brought relief to the city pump house on the official reading thermometer at noon before two o'clock today. Black clouds rolled from the north, threatening a downpour of rain to end the present period of drought, accompanied by a sudden windstorm was responsible for the drop.

PLOW HORSE BUCKS ON WAY TO SMITHY

London, Ont., June 28—(CP)—Tossed from a bucking plow horse which he had been riding to the blacksmith shop, Stanley Ashby was painfully injured and suffered concussion of the brain. Ashby had been riding the animal bareback to the smithy's to buy it a set of shoes. Suddenly it developed bronco tendencies and threw the rider to the pavement.

ARMADA AGAIN DELAYED

Orbetello, Italy, June 28—(AP)— Bad weather again today caused postponement of the start of 25 seaplanes for the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago, by way of Reykjavik, Iceland, Shediac, N.B. and Montreal.

Gulls by Thousands Like Soldiers Kill Millions of Grasshoppers

Winnipeg, June 28 (CP)—Across the prairie farmers today scanned cloudless skies, hoping before night there would be a shift in the wind and rain to aid parched crops in many western areas. Again it was fair and warm early today in all provinces, with only isolated showers overnight. Generous rains are shown in many districts.

The grasshopper menace, acute in many Manitoba and Saskatchewan fields, also held attention today. Reports from several southern camps one reassuring report—thousands of Franklin gulls have taken up the cudgel and joined humans in the fight against the hoppers.

Near Liberty, in the south, the birds in countless thousands are attacking the insects with military precision, first carrying on the attacks in an organized column, attacking the fringe of grasshoppers, he said. Millions of the insects complete have provided food for the gulls.

Alberta Rains Cause Winnipeg Grain Market to Sell Off Suddenly

Four And One Half Cent Drop Follows Chicago Break

FLAX CRASHES

Twelve Cent Break in Flax on Winnipeg Market

Winnipeg, June 28 (CP)—The bottom fell out of the market shortly before the close of the Winnipeg grain market today as reports of rain over Alberta sent wheat futures prices reeling. Declines of more than 4¼ cents were suffered.

The reports, however, brought out a torrent of selling of every variety. Quickly following the break sent down at Chicago, local futures lost as much as three cents in early trading before recovering part of the lost ground. Profit-taking and stop-loss selling was heavy.

Cash grains failed to show improvement and trading in that department was slow throughout. The coarse grains also declined sharply, with flax predominating. That grain "broke" as much as 12 cents at one time. Barley, however, held the trend, held fractional gains for most of the session.

Chicago Weakness.

Chicago, June 28 (AP) — Wheat broke sharply from its newly acquired dollar price at the opening of the board of trade, but snapped back to prices close to yesterday's high top within a few minutes. The break ran as high as 6¼ cents a bushel in July. Various reasons were ascribed for the violent and confused trading, but as the bulls got control after a large number of stop loss orders had been cleaned off, it was believed that a bear raid had caused the collapse.

To the recovery. May rallied more than 4 cents to $1.04. All the coarser grains, which had dropped around 8 cents a bushel with wheat, also recovered most of their losses. The confusion in the pits was maniacal. The records on the blackboards were all but obliterated. Many bushels of grain were sold at rapidly receding prices and then were bought up on rocketing figures.

The expected break in grain was immediately forthcoming. Prices plunged downward with wheat off as much as 5 cents under the May price opening with other grains showing losses in proportion. Liquidation of unhedged prices up between four and six cents in wheat, later, but these failed to stick and the break was sharply lower. Huge sales to collect profits which found few buying and had to have caused the initial break. The rally in wheat was near the day's bottom prices.

READERS' INSURANCE ORIGINATOR PASSES

Sir Chas. Starmer Founded Schemes For Newspaper Readers

London, June 28—(CP Cable)—Sir Charles Starmer, credited with being the originator of newspaper insurance schemes for readers, died today in the age of 72 years.

Sir Charles was publisher of 30 daily or weekly newspapers in the provinces. He was a former Liberal member of Parliament and from 1907 to 1908 was Mayor of Darlington.

The newspaper insurance schemes which he invented have been widely adopted by metropolitan newspapers in recent years.

'BIG FOUR' ARE SUMMONED

Prospect of Restriction of Wheat Acreage Grows

London, June 28 (AP)—A possible turn for the better in efforts to obtain a wheat restriction program was indicated this afternoon when the Australian delegation asked that the "big four" conferees be brought together later in the day.

All of them could not be reached in such a short time, however, and the present plan is to meet tomorrow morning prior to the world economic conference sessions.

It was understood that a new communication had been received from Australia which may make possible a more co-operative attitude on the part of the Australian government toward the restriction plan, although the contents of the message were not revealed.

Canadian, United States and Argentine quarters were jubilant at the market's turn for the better, although the feeling was expressed that they must not lose sight of the necessity of forcing the restriction program.

"We've simply got to bring about this agreement," said one. "On one of the big producing nations can afford to let it fall down."

SIDEWALKS ARE HEAVED

Expansion Lifts Twenty Feet of Concrete on Coleman St.

Speaking about heat waves—Yesterday's heat was so intense in the city that even the concrete sidewalks couldn't take it.

At the end of Cedar street, late yesterday afternoon, a large section of sidewalk about twenty feet long, rose a few inches distance in the air with a resounding crack. The walk split, and several large fragments bounced like basketballs.

Department of Public Works' employees today had barricaded the section of sidewalk off until they could repair the damage which was considerable.

Expansion of the hot concrete on top of the pavement and the static condition of the comparatively cool bottom was blamed by the City Engineer's office for the explosion. Several sections of walk in other sections of the city have also heaved noticeably.

SOUGHT FIVE YEARS, HELD

J. J. O'Brien Alleged to Have Killed Two With Automobile

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 28 (CP) —John J. O'Brien, Niagara Falls, N.Y., sought by police for more than five years, was arrested and brought to Welland jail to await trial on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the killing of William Hay and four-year-old daughter. He will be arraigned for trial July 14.

O'Brien is alleged to have crossed the border after driving his automobile at a high speed through a crowd of people, killing Hay and the young daughter he was holding in his arms.

EAST AND WEST TRACK FOR CHICK

Parsmingdale, N.J., June 28 (CP) —Edmund Certa, a poultryman, has a chick that doesn't know which way to go. The chick, just hatched, has two pairs of legs, one pair goes east and the other west.

SKULL IS BROKEN

Kingston, June 28—Eldon Hinman, of Kingston, who was hit on the head while driving a Canada Coach from Kingston to Montreal, on March 1, has again been admitted to St. Luke's Hospital, Montreal. This time the X-ray shows a depressed fracture of the skull.

CONSENT IN DIVORCE CASE

Scientists Told Time Has Come For Change in Laws

Chicago, June 28—(CP)—Divorce by mutual consent has been practised in the United States since at least 1887, despite laws to the contrary, and should be legalized because most people are in favor of it, the American Association for the Advancement of Science was told today.

About seven-eighths of the divorces obtained in the United States are based on "fictitious or collusive" cases, "indicating, undoubtedly in a majority of these cases, that they were obtained through the mutual consent of the parties involved," said Charles R. Metzger, of the University of Indiana.

"The feeling prevails," he went on, "that the time has come when divorce by mutual consent should be considered disquisitionately with the question of whether it is in accordance with the customs of the people." He spoke before a symposium on "the family," sponsored by the American Sociological Society and the Society for Social Research.

CHEESE STEADY

Woodstock, Ont., June 28—(CP)— Cheese remained steady at 10 3-8 cents on the Ingersoll cheese board this week. Offerings of 11 factories totalled 1,298 boxes, all sold at that figure.

Total of Workers and Hours of Labor Increased in Ontario, Report Shows

An increase in both the number of workers and in the average number of hours worked during May, in comparison with the records for April, is reflected from an analysis of the monthly records of 234 large industrial firms in Ontario, made public yesterday by R. B. Morley, general manager of the Industrial Accident Prevention Associations.

The firms reporting, all members of the associations, employed a total of 79,135 persons during May, the analysis revealed, an increase of 1,677 over the total for April. An increase of 1,452,764 hours in the total number of hours worked was also achieved, while the average number of hours worked per employee increased from 160 to 175 which was the average for 1932 as a whole. The average of hours per employee in May, 1932, was slightly under 175.

The report also shows that 157 of the 234 firms operated thru' out May without a single lost-time accident. Accidents reported by all firms reporting showed a decrease in comparison with the average for 1932. Best records for number of hours worked without a single accident were achieved by the Canadian Bank Note Company, Ottawa, the Ford Motor Co. plant, and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, New Toronto, the best so far this year.

YELLOW RIVER CHANGING CHANNEL

The great Hwang Ho, the Yellow river of China, swollen by flood waters, may obliterate the dikes at Kaifeng and return to its old course to the south, which it left 81 years ago. If the river does take to the old bed, it will sweep away a million homes and empty again into the Yellow sea, 400 miles south of its present mouth in the Gulf of Po. The photograph above shows the river pouring over its dikes in the present channel at Kaifeng. The map below shows the present course of the river and the old river bed.

Four And One Half Cent Drop Follows Chicago Break

FLAX CRASHES

Twelve Cent Break in Flax on Winnipeg Market

Winnipeg, June 28 (CP)—The bottom fell out of the market shortly before the close of the Winnipeg grain market today as reports of rain over Alberta sent wheat futures prices reeling. Declines of more than 4¼ cents were suffered.

The reports, however, brought out a torrent of selling of every variety. Quickly following the break sent down at Chicago, local futures lost as much as three cents in early trading before recovering part of the lost ground. Profit-taking and stop-loss selling was heavy.

Cash grains failed to show improvement and trading in that department was slow throughout. The coarse grains also declined sharply, with flax predominating. That grain "broke" as much as 12 cents at one time. Barley, however, held the trend, held fractional gains for most of the session.

Chicago Weakness.

Chicago, June 28 (AP) — Wheat broke sharply from its newly acquired dollar price at the opening of the board of trade, but snapped back to prices close to yesterday's high top within a few minutes. The break ran as high as 6¼ cents a bushel in July. Various reasons were ascribed for the violent and confused trading, but as the bulls got control after a large number of stop loss orders had been cleaned off, it was believed that a bear raid had caused the collapse.

To the recovery. May rallied more than 4 cents to $1.04. All the coarser grains, which had dropped around 8 cents a bushel with wheat, also recovered most of their losses. The confusion in the pits was maniacal. The records on the blackboards were all but obliterated. Many bushels of grain were sold at rapidly receding prices and then were bought up on rocketing figures.

The expected break in grain was immediately forthcoming. Prices plunged downward with wheat off as much as 5 cents under the May price opening with other grains showing losses in proportion. Liquidation of unhedged prices up between four and six cents in wheat, later, but these failed to stick and the break was sharply lower. Huge sales to collect profits which found few buying and had to have caused the initial break. The rally in wheat was near the day's bottom prices.

WEATHER

Toronto, June 28—(CP)— The weather in the west has been fair and moderately warm, while in Ontario and Quebec it has been decidedly warm with thunderstorms occurring locally in northern districts. In the Maritime Provinces it has been cloudy with moderate temperatures and considerable fog.

Northern Ontario—Partly cloudy and warm today and Thursday; probably a few scattered thunderstorms.

Lake Superior—Moderate winds; mostly fair and warm; possibly scattered thunderstorm.

Kendra and Rainy River —Fair and warm.

Western Provinces — Moderate winds; fair and warm.

Coming Events

DANCING AT MELODY INN TONIGHT, Wednesday and Thursday. Cresco. Free Bus leaves London Lumley 8:15. Admission 35c. Cool and comfortable. 128-1c

DR. ALBERT BURDON, L.A.R.F. will be "Letting in the Sunshine" at the hospital every Tuesday until Friday. Come and be cured of your Blues! Visiting hours 2:45 - 3:15 and 8:00. Telephone No. 276. 128-1t

CHARITY EUCHRE AND DANCE Thurs. Arena, Tweed. Hall Friday, June 30th. Admission 25c. 128-1c

City and District News

STANDARD ROSE IS "BEAUTY"

At the home grounds of Mr. Jim Freeman, Grove street, are to be seen some fine specimens of "Standard" roses, in fact the finest the writer has ever noted in Belleville. Mr. Freeman who is connected with the Lake Shore Gravel Co., brought the trees from Oshawa when he returned to Belleville to make his home here, last year. Some "Standard" Crimson Ramblers and "Dorothy Perkins" are just flowering out, while some ten other trees are just passing the zenith of their bloom.

CAR AND TRUCK IN COLLISION

A slight motor accident happened in front of the Chamber of Commerce Building, Front street, about 4 p.m. Tuesday afternoon when a truck, the property of the Foy and Irwin Boiling Company, Belleville, collided with a roadster, driven by Patrick Nolan, Belleville, who was going west on Market St. Apparently neither driver saw the other until the accident was inevitable. The roadster was damaged the radiator and lights in front tendering being crumpled. No person was injured.

ALLEGES WINDOW PANE BROKEN

Mrs. Oscar Babcock, 39 Foster Ave., reported to the police that two men had thrown a stone through a window of her home, last evening. Mrs. Babcock also stated that the men had entered her home and generally disrupted the furnishings. The police are investigating.

ELECTED HEAD OF INSURANCE BODY

Mr. L. K. Pile of Toronto who has been elected president of the Insurance Institute of Toronto, is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Pile of Bloomfield, Prince Edward County. Mr. Pile is associate actuary of the Sun Life Assurance Co. and one of the leading and cleverest actuaries in the Queen City. His many old friends in Prince Edward are delighted to learn of the honor and a fitting one that the county and extend hearty congratulations to the new head of the Insurance Institute of Toronto.

PERFECT WEATHER FOR PUNT RACES

A perfect breeze which rippled the surface of the bay today made it an ideal one for the punt and canoe races which were being held late this afternoon. Fifteen punts faced the starting line at the end of the Victoria Park, awaiting "King" Rogers' starting gun. Only punts had been entered in the larger "A" class, although the smaller classes showed a greater turnout than in previous races.

LABOR BODY GIVES PRIVATE RELIEF

Work of caring for a number of needy cases in the city has been taken up by the Belleville Unemployed and Labor Association who have spent about $100 a week and part of this week some eighty-odd cases in milk tickets, fresh meat and other necessities, according to reports made at the meeting by Mr. E. J. Baldree. The money put on the private list of relief applicants is from private funds of the organization.

ARM BROKEN AS CAR IS DITCHED

A man who was said to have been Mr. L. Lalonde, of Belleville, had his arm broken in a car driven by P. A. Morgan of Campbellford

McKEOWN'S BARGAINS

50c Lavender Mentholated Shaving Cream
6 Foot Roll-up Steel Tape
Both 63c

McKeown's Drug Store

CRESS CORN SALVE
"Just rub it on"
The proven better remedy for Corns, Callouses, Blisters, Tender Feet, Warts. Night's treatment. Get a jar to-night. Use as directed. Get all Drug Stores.

left the road in Napanee yesterday and went into the ditch near Frenchy's service station. The car was a complete wreck, caused by fire which broke out near the engine, destroying the front part of the machine. A burning line was given as the cause of the accident.

SECOND GRASS FIRE IN "FLATS"

For the second time in two days, firemen were called to a grass fire on Coleman Flats. No. 2 brigade received the alarm at 7.43 Wednesday morning and arrived on the scene in time to extinguish with hand water pumps the brisk blaze that had started to spread. Both departments have been standing to in the halls during the present heat wave for more runs which are expected.

WARDS AWAIT ANNUAL TREK

Forty-six children, wards of the Children's Aid Society in the city are anxiously awaiting the first of next week when the annual trek to the summer camp at Redners-ville will take place. The children will have the usual two weeks in camp this year until school starts, and the event is one that is eagerly looked forward to by all. It is the usual custom, year after year, for members of Chapter 55 of the Daughters of the Eastern Star are making arrangements to convey the children to the camp. The custom also calls for an especial little treat of ice cream and other goodies which are supplied the children by the Order.

NO HALF PRICE UNTIL SEPTEMBER

"As far as we know in this office," said the license clerk, "no cars and trucks will not go into effect until September 1st," the chief constable declared Mr. Geo. Ketcheson, license issuer of licenses for this district when questioned today.

POLICE COURT

William Stapley, 34 Brassey St., appeared in Wednesday morning's police court held before Magistrate Mikel and was convicted on a charge of selling home brew contrary to the Excise Act. Stapley was fined $50.00 and costs or in default of payment must serve one month in the common jail. The accused man took the jail sentence. Stapley was arrested recently by the R.C.M.P. of Ivanhoe.

DEMONSTRATION NOW GOING ON! OF WESTINGHOUSE
Refrigeration by Westinghouse Representatives, who are in a unique manner showing scores of intensely interesting and invaluable operation of this refrigerator. Continuing all this week.
ALL ARE INVITED
DOYLE'S DRUG STORE
221 FRONT STREET

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT
By Special Correspondent

MERCURY AT 90 IN TRENTON

Half Holiday Sends Many on Trips to Beaches, Lakes

Trenton, June 28—(Special)—While afternoon heat waves danced off the asphalt pavements in Trenton today, on what was officially marked the hottest day in the year, the fifth day of the heat wave to be chalked, perspiring residents sought the waters of the bay and river to cool off from the excessive temperatures which spurted past 90 on the thermometers just before noon. The more prosperous residents packed up for a trip to the lake.

Presqu'ile Beach, Cedardale-on-the-lake and Harwan Beach were soon filled on the half holiday. Children could be seen last evening playing with the hose on the lawns getting what relief they could. Cooling off with the town's cold spring water. The dock has been a cooling spot for many of the thousand young. Some of the older boys enjoyed a swim at the municipal dock at midnight. A trip around the town last night at 11 o'clock showed many residents still sitting on the verandas to catch what little breeze prevailed. A day of life is almost miserable these days. Sitting pale faced to be around in a shady spot and have lost their fetishness for the dances on cooler days. Some school children are suffering from not only the heat but the examinations that have to be written heat or no heat.

The farmers are looking for a downpour soon or much of the harvest promise will be ruined by the drought.

Lads Charles A. Smith

Many friends and neighbors were this (Wednesday) afternoon, in attendance at the funeral of the late Charles Allen Smith, which was held from the late residence, Dundas St. East, under Masonic auspices. The late Mr. Smith was a member of Grace United Church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ross, conducted the service in the home and at the graveside in the Front of Sidney cemetery. The many beautiful floral tributes from friends and organizations testified to the high esteem in which the deceased had been held and the sympathy felt for those bereaved in this home.

The late Charles Allen Smith was born in Lake Lake on Saturday Monday last, following a month's illness. He had been in poor health for the past two years, and his death was not unexpected by relatives and friends. He was born in Trenton 85 years ago, the son of the late Nathaniel and Ann (Fleming) Smith and had lived here all his life. Mr. Smith was a carpenter mechanic and at times had worked at Point Anne and at Picton. During his younger days he was a member of Grace United Church and Moira Lodge No. 11 A. F. and A. M., Belleville. Mr. Smith had the respect of all principles to know him, and sympathy is extended to those left to mourn his loss.

Surviving immediately are the widow, two sons, Ambrose at home and William of this town; three daughters, Mrs. A. Mitchell (Leota) of Trenton and Phyllis and Ann, at home; two brothers Peter and James (Jas-G) Trenton; and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Russell in Ithica, N.Y., and Mrs. J. W. Lewis of Toronto.

Trenton Chamber

Members of the Trenton Chamber of Commerce met last evening in the town hall to discuss the possibilities of holding "Trenton Week" again this year. Mark Tripp, vice president was in the chair owing to the absence of Ed Simmons, the president. He was out of town. The excessive heat kept many members absent so the meeting was adjourned to a later date.

O.O.L. Strawberry Social a Success

With perfect weather prevailing a large crowd gathered in Governor Simcoe Street last evening for the strawberry social held by the members of the Lady Grange Lodge. Music was furnished by the Trenton band, under bandmaster Cooper. Ice Cream and soft drinks found ready sale while the strawberries and cake, baked by the ladies of the lodge, disappeared amazingly by the many patrons present. The success of the evening was due to the work of the lodge members under Master E. Donaldson, S. Carr and E. White.

Wooler Leafs Defeated

The C.P.R. soldiers continued their winning streak when they defeated the Wooler Leafs by a 14-8 score last evening. The game was full of serious errors on both sides with both teams doing some heavy hitting. The railroaders pounded three errors at the start when they garnered four runs in the first. Wooler was relieved of the pitching duties in the fourth after Wooler added four runs, two being homers by G. P. and C. A. Ruttan.

E. Bowler the old reliable held the Woolerites down for the remainder of the game and to finish up he smashed out a homer with two on in the sixth to clinch the game. "Soup" Pree was very unsteady in the box for the Woolerites but errors proved their downfall.

Line-ups:

Wooler— C. C. Ruttan 2rd; Riel 1st; S. P. Ruttan c; C. A. Ruttan 2nd; Pulman ss; Hendershott 3rd; Colliffe ss; G. O. Ruttan cf; Pree lf; C.P.R.—Larry ss; Beglin 2nd; Gordon 3rd; Kennedy lf; Kidd c; Johnson cf; Bennett rf; Sager E. Bowler p; Long 1st.

Score by innings

	R	H	E
Wooler	004 400 0—	8	4
C.P.R.	410 603 x—14	10	6

Struck out by Sager 7; by Bowler 2, by Pree 6.

Bases on balls off Sager 2; off Bowler 1; off Pree 3.

Home runs—Long, E. Bowler, G. P. Ruttan, C. A. Ruttan.

Umpires— Plain. K. Chambers, bases. C. Purdy.

CITY OILER IS READY TO 'GO'

Public Works Machine Reaches Her on Tuesday Night

Hugs and efficient looking, the large oiler and distributor recently acquired by the city arrived here from Brantford early last evening and today was being given the finishing touches by the mechanical engineer who have been assigned to the job. The machine and truck will be lettered this week, after which the first of the city oiling will undoubtedly be in order. Accompanying the truck and distributor back to Belleville were Alderman Wm. Donahue, Alderman W. Woodley, Alderman F. Foley and city engineer Chas. A. Mott, who left for Brantford this week to inspect the machine before its acceptance. Two large spreaders, part of the equipment, were purchased by over one half ton apiece, will arrive later this week an a transport.

PROMOTIONS AT AVONDALE SCHOOL

The promotion report of Avondale School is as follows:

From Junior IV to Senior IV—Douglas Christie, 84.3; Helen Scott, 80; Evelyn Smith, 79.6; Gerald Ambridge, 74.3; Reggie McKee, 73; Jack Livesey, 72; Jean Thornton, 69.

From Senior III to Junior IV—George Martin, 80.4; Margaret Cameron, 75; Olive Easton, 74; Ivan Easton, 63.

From Junior III to Senior III—Clifford Millar, 70.1; Roberta Kingston, 68; Frank Martin, 67.7; Glenn Bedell, 66; Clare Millar, 64.4; Betty Sills, 64.1; Earle Vandervoort, 62.1; Oscar Coates, 60.3; Jean Mallish, 59.6.

From Senior II to Junior III — Philip Flagler, 84; Gwendolyn Kelley, 82; James Christie, 80; Jack Smith, 77; Dina Shoebridge, 74; Russell Flagler and Lyle Bedell, 69 (equal); Archie Thornton, 67.2; Stanley Daniels, 66.

From Junior I to Senior I (names in alphabetical order)—Donald Lingney, George Flagler, Lawrence Flagley, Betty Mallish, Harold Flagler.

From Junior Primer to Senior Primer (names in alphabetical order)—Donald Lingney, Mildred Silk.

Junior Primer (names in alphabetical order)—Ruth Nelson, Harold Flagler.

—Lurene M. Smith, Teacher.

ROAST BEEF CALLS OUT FIRE BRIGADE

Peirolla, Ont., June 28—(CP)—Firemen were called here early last to the home of A. Weatherstone after neighbors had seen clouds of smoke issuing from doors and windows. The fire fighters arrived on the scene, but through dense smoke and finally arrived at the kitchen, where they found a roast of beef burning in the oven.

BOY SPEAKERS BANQUETTED BY KNIGHTS

Father Keating of Regiopolis College Speaks on Education

Members of the Boys' Public Speaking Club, an organization sponsored by the Belleville Council Knights of Columbus were entertained at a banquet, in St. Michael's Academy Auditorium, last evening, as which Rev. Father J. Keating, S.J., a professor at Regiopolis College Kingston, was the distinguished guest-speaker. Among those present at the banquet were Rt. Rev. J. F. Nicholson, V.G., Rev. Father Powell, Erinville; Rev. E. M. Lacey, Deseronto; Rev. G. E. Madden, Rev. J. J. Coffey, State Deputy A. B. Collins, K.C., Grand Knight Jas. Donovan, officers of the local Council K. of C. and twenty-six boys of the Club. The banquet part of the evening was E. B. Lally K. of C., lecturer, and director of the Boys' Club.

The tables were beautifully decorated with banks of flowers and laden with every delicacy. A delightful meal was served by a committee of ladies of which Mrs. F. Corrigan was convener.

After the opening the toast list explained the aims of the club, that of helping the boys to express their thoughts in a clear and concise manner. He welcomed the guests of honour and sincerely thanking the ladies, priests and members of the executive for their willing cooperation in the work. The boys in response had his appreciation of the way in which they entered into the referring to the competition. Every boy who became a member of the Club was required to take an active part in its program, contributing generally to social entertainment and to the banquet were invited only those who had cooperated in this work.

Toasts were proposed by the boys themselves and in addition to each speaker, Mr. Lally told something of their achievements in the Club. The manner in which the boys spoke showed their experience in public speaking, for each brief address was well prepared.

Patrick Hope proposed the toast to the King and to the Pope, an expression of high moral, temporal and spiritual rulers of every rank. Ted Hogan, winner of the cup recently contested for, proposed a toast to the Knights of Columbus, describing its organization and expressing gratitude to the local Council for aiding the Boys' Club.

To this toast, response was made by Grand Knight Francis Corrigan. Sponsoring the Public Speaking Club had been the main project of the local council last year, and to Mr. E. B. Lally, he gave due appreciation of the Council for the way in which he devoted himself to the work in spite of many other calls on his time. The Grand Knight said that no greater work could be undertaken by the council, because, unlike merely social events when the evening's pleasure was soon over, it laid the foundation of great things for the boys. Lack of experience in Public Speaking was a source of embarrassment and a great handicap to adults and the boys were starting at a splendid age to prepare for ease in delivering address.

Jack Doyle, a member of the debating team which had competed against Campbellville, proposed the toast to "Canada" mentioning the grandeur of its resources and the possibilities of her prosperity and Madden, opportunities for her future ambitions. Response was made by State Deputy A. B. Collins, K.C., who prefaced his remarks with words of congratulation to the boys especially to the newly organized debating team which had been formed at Campbellville, proposed the toast to "Canada" mentioning the grandeur of its resources and the possibilities of her prosperity and

Gold Coin, Certificates Are Not Required for Circulation Says Report

Use of Gold According to Report, Only to Pay International Balances

GREAT ELASTICITY

Warning Issued Against Building up Large Credit Structure

By Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Staff Correspondent

London, June 28 (AP)—Approval of Senator Key Pittman's gold resolution which provides, among other things, for removal of the yellow metal from circulation and reducing the gold coverage of central banks to 25 per cent, was formally reported this morning by the sub-committee which has been studying it.

This sub-committee reported its findings to its parent commission, which will now consider the matter.

The sub-committee made some slight alterations in the phraseology of the Pittman resolution, the most important being to insert the statement that such monetary changes must not be taken as an excuse for unduly building-up a larger superstructure of notes and credits."

Leon Fraser, head of the Bank for International Settlements, as reported by the sub-committee, submitted the findings to the parent body. He said the sub-committee work that the objective was to study what errors in the past might be remedied and also to expedite a return to the gold standard by those countries which had left it.

ALLISONVILLE COMMUNITY NOTES

ALLISONVILLE— Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spencer motored to Latta, Sunday, and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCreary.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkitt and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Burkitt and family, spent a day recently at Oak Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace King and Baby Don of Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McHenry, called on Mrs. Geo. D. Hubbs on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Densmore Dyer of Hillier and Mrs. J. W. Boyd and Mr. O. M. Young were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyd, Belleville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman called on friends here Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orani Wallace of Melville, were in the village on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Loral Boyd made a business trip to Belleville, Monday.

Mr. McQuay of Whitby was here looking after his farm on Thursday.

3,500 SKINS SHIPPED AWAY

Increase Demand Puts Higher Prices on Hides

The Boyce Cartage Co., of Toronto, Tuesday evening, carried away from Belleville one of the largest shipments of hides to leave this immediate district in many years. The company's immense transport and heavy trailer were piled high with 3,000 calves skins and over 2,500 sheep skins, which have been under careful curing and accumulation the past two years at Clark's in Thurlow.

A staff of nine men have been employed since Monday noon, shaking the salt from the skins, and later yesterday loading the transport. The work was not completed until after 7 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The care taken in curing the hides and their quality, may be guaged by the fact that out of the over 3,500 skins, not one was discarded by the buyer for imperfections, and only two skins were torn in the handling and loading.

Mr. A. B. Appelby of Cobourg, connected with the Edwards and Edwards, tanners and leather goods manufacturers of that town, was the purchaser of the consignment. He and Clark's have done business together in hides and skins for over 30 years, and there is mutual respect between the two parties; each recognizing that the other is an expert in his own line. Mr. Appelby is one of the oldest, if not the oldest buyer of his line in Canada, and has purchased hundreds of thousands of skins in his long years of activities. On the last evening Mr. Appelby of the Clark's of Thurlow, that "he had yet to find misrepresentation made by them".

Prices of skins have more than doubled since the winter and the advanced price led the Clark's to dispose of their accumulated stock.

STARS OF RADIOLAND

CHARLES CARLILE

You see here an informal portrait of Charles Carlile, young tenor, who is rapidly rising to fame in the world of radio. He is heard on appreciable number of half-dozen programs every week now.

FRAGMENT OF BOMB HURLED 1,500 FT. AWAY

Marmalade Factory Roof in Vienna is Damaged

TRACK TORN UP

No Trains Running at Time When Bomb Exploded

Vienna, June 28 (AP)—A bomb exploded today on the Vienna-Baden Suburban electric railway. A stretch of trackage was torn up and a steel fragment was hurled 1,500 feet through the roof of a marmalade factory.

The explosion occurred during the early hours when no trains were running. The track was repaired and the train schedule resumed at the usual hour.

CATHOLIC PRIEST IS BEATEN IN GERMANY

Catholic House Attacked, but Nazis Blame Provocators

Reingoennheim, Germany, June 28—Rev. Father Garoll, a Catholic priest, was beaten an enemy by three unidentified men last night that he hag to be taken to a hospital. Nazis blamed provocators.

At a nearby village windows in a Catholic parish house were smashed and the priest was harassed after vain attempts had been made to break into the homes of Catholic parishioners. Nazis blamed provocators here also.

At Heide storm troopers removed a pacifist editor and his son from jail and paraded them through the streets on a cart. The son was placarded with a banner reading, "I am a traitor," and the father had another reading: "So is my family."

THIRD THURLOW LOCAL HAPPENINGS

THIRD THURLOW— Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Bell, Belleville, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooley.

Mr. Roy Wilson, Belleville, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean.

Mr. Wm. Phelps spent the tea hour one day this week, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rupert.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bell, Belleville, were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke.

Mr. F. Cook visited lately at Mr. Frank Easton's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke and Reta, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Simpson, Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hamilton and family also Mr. and Mrs. Percy Badgley and Doris, spent a day recently at Mr. Geo. Hamilton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean spent a day this week in Foxboro, visiting friends.

Mr. Harry Walker and family spent a day recently with his brother, Mr. Frank Walker.

Mrs. Robert Rupert of Toronto, spent a few days last week with her nephew, Mr. Frank Easton.

PEANUT IS CENTRE OF $5,000 LAWSUIT

Insurance Company Says Death of Woman Not Accidental

Lincoln, Neb., June 28 (CP) —Upon a peanut hinges the sum of $5,000.

Attorney for the executor of the estate of Mrs. Harry Carl Johnston of Blanchard, Ia., contended that the peanut, lodged in her esophagus, led to her death and that her demise could be classified as accidental. An insurance company contended death was not accidental within the meaning of the terms of an insurance policy.

PROVINCES OF WEST CONTROL TELEPHONES?

Plan Under View to Enter Commercial Telephone Field

NO ACTION YET

Prairie Commissions Have Authority to Engage in Business

Winnipeg, June 28 (CP)—Prairie government telephone commissions had under consideration today a plan under which governments of the three provinces would enter the commercial telegraph field. No definite action was taken at a recent conference here.

Hon. W. J. Major, Minister of Telephones for Manitoba, denied last night this province was considering entering the field but said J. E. Lowry, telephone commissioner, had proposed that it be discussed. It is understood all the prairie commissions have the right to engage in the telegraph business.

CRIMINALS RARELY MAD

Student of Underworld Says Revolutionary Type Brainy

Chicago, June 28 (CP)—Dr. Ben Reitman, "free-lance" student of the underworld and once head of a Chicago "Hobo College" today told a gathering of Sociologists that most criminals "are brainy, have good mentalities and were not as dull a community as some other groups.

Dr. Reitman spoke by invitation on a new classification of criminals" in a symposium on crime, sponsored by the American Sociological Society and the Society for Social Research in connection with the meeting here of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Among the class of criminals and non-criminals, Dr. Reitman said the "revolutionary" group had a superior mental make-up with probably less than one per cent. of insanity. Criminals he asserted were less than five per cent. insane. Vagrants have the highest percentage of insanity, running as high as 25 per cent.

Criminals as contrasted with vagrants he said, have the more aggressive and stable characters. They usually come of "fairly good" stock, have permanent homes and families, save money with an eye to the future, are willing to work hard, keep a check on their weaknesses, are loyal to friends and pals, and maintain a high standard of living.

Vagrants on the other hand come of poor stock, are dependent on society, unconcerning for the future, lazy, and lack self discipline.

In his "new classification" of criminals Dr. Reitman listed five groups, the "big ten" and the "little ten," classified "according to their ability to harm society."

In the "big ten" he listed politicians because they "make wars and class legislation; dishonest bankers, corporate law-enforcing agencies; dishonest lawyers and lobbyists; "exploiters" of labor; gamblers; dishonest business men; bootleggers and adulterers of food; newspapers that deceive the public.

He listed in the "little ten" thieves, gunmen, confidence men, organized vice group, drug addicts and peddlers, auto racketeers.

BOTH STATES VOTE REPEAL

West Virginia and California Join Third of States

Washington, June 28.—(CP)—One third of the 48 states have now voted to strike the 18th amendment from the U.S. Constitution.

West Virginia and California made the score 18 to 0 in favor of Repeal when their voters returned majorities yesterday for the 21st amendment, which aims to delete the 18th.

In West Virginia, a border state which had been dry for 20 years, the margin of the repeal victory was about 79,000 with approximately three-quarters of the ballots counted.

California, which had wiped its own prohibition law from the books last year, was giving repeal a lead of about 3 to 1 as tabulations poured in today.

Repealists must win 20 more states to delete prohibition from the constitution.

"PAUPER" HAS $5,000 DIES OF OVEREATING

Boonville, Ind., June 28—(CP)—Death of James Garfield Wright, 60, Tennyson, Ind., believed a pauper by his friends has revealed an estate of more than $5,000.

Physicians attributed his death to overeating, after learning fellow workers at a sawmill divided their lunches with him.

Forecast of Henry's Speech at Mitchell, First Since Adjournment

Questions of Election May or May Not Be Referred to

'MERELY SPEECH'

Leadership Question May Also Come up in Course Of Address

Toronto, June 28—(CP)—Premier George S. Henry left Toronto by motor today for Mitchell, Ont., where he will make his first political pronouncement since closing of the Ontario Legislature.

An address by the Premier to Perth riding Conservatives tonight will be the first of a series to be made at strategic points throughout the province. Mr. Henry has been reticent regarding the nature of his speech. He admitted he would not tell Perth constituents there would be no elections this year. But he didn't say he would. And so the Premier's plans are a matter of conjecture.

Forecast in some quarters is a definite announcement by the Premier as to his future leadership of the Conservative party in Ontario. Opposition speakers have declared there was strife among the party heads but no comments ever was made in this respect by those who usually speak on behalf of the government.

The Premier himself described his speech tonight merely as an address to adherents of the party.

BOY'S PLANE FLIES UP 5,000 FEET

Mineola, N.Y., June 28 (CP) — Maxwell B. Barnett, 18, a pupil and his model aeroplane astonished spectators at a championship meet by ascending 5,000 feet and flying 22 minutes.

It made a happy landing on a milk truck.

The engine has one-tenth of one horsepower and the gas tank holds one ounce.

CAR TROUBLE GALORE FOR HEPBURN, NIXON

End Journey by Pushing News Jitney, Arrives Late

Petrolia, Ont., June 28—(CP) Ontario Liberal Leader Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P. and Progressive leader Harry Nixon had automobile trouble yesterday and arrived at a joint nomination meeting of their parties here late and hot.

Mr. Hepburn's car broke down between his St. Thomas home and London. When he arrived in London he learned Mr. Nixon had experienced similar trouble.

A garage repaired Mr. Nixon's car and both started on it toward Petrolia.

The car caught fire. They extinguished the flames. It developed radiator trouble. They fixed that and arrived pushing another car containing two London newspapermen. Whose auto had broken down en route.

WARKWORTH BOY DROWNS

Wading in Millpond Steps Beyond His Depth Into Hole

Peterboro, June 28—Wesley Makepiece, eight, was drowned Tuesday in a Warkworth mill pond as he played with three small companions.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Makepiece, was wading in shallow water, but walked further toward the middle. He stepped into a hole and disappeared. His companions cried for help and neighbors found Wesley's body about 20 minutes later in 12 feet of water. Dr. Ed. Lawson and Dr. G. C. Armstrong worked for two hours but failed to resuscitate the boy.

JAPAN AGREES UPON TARIFF

Truce Acceptance is Reported to World Conference

Tokyo, June 28 (AP)—Foreign Minister Count Yasuya Uchida instructed Ambassador Tsuneo Matsudaira in London today to notify the World Economic Conference of Japan's acceptance of the truce on tariff changes.

The foreign minister acted after the Privy Council's formal approval of reservations which some quarters described as virtually nullifying the force of the acceptance.

The reservations are: First, Japan assumes no obligations to respect reservations of other nations; second, this government reserves the right to retaliate in the event other powers break the truce; third, Japan reserves the right to take any necessary measures for economic self-defense.

BULL DRAGS MAN IN PASTURE FOR ALL DAY

Beast Has to be Shot to Clear Victim of Chain

Honey, B.C., June 28—William J. Coward was killed and his body apparently dragged around a pasture for a full day by an infuriated bull which had to be shot to get the mangled body clear from a chain which entangled it.

Coward, a bachelor living alone on his farm on Nelson Road, Yennadon, was last seen alive Monday morning when he left the bulk, a 1,000-pound Holstein, to pasture. A neighbor, George Ralph, discovered the ingored bull night when he saw the animal tearing around dragging an object behind on a chain fastened to its nose. Investigation revealed the body of Mr. Coward, all his clothing torn from his body.

Dusk made shooting of the moving animal difficult and 10 shots were fired before it was killed. The pasture was torn up like a hog-pen in the bull's efforts to rid itself of the body of its victim.

In the newest balloon altitude record the gondola will be made of a magnesium metal alloy known as dow-metal which is a third lighter than aluminum.

The BEST TIRE to Buy is The GUTTA PERCHA TIRE

STRONGER, SAFER CONSTRUCTION

GUM CUSHIONS
An Extra Value
GUTTA PERCHA Tires have Cushions of pure gum rubber moulded in between the plies of cord fabric, making a "bearing" that reduces friction and wear at these points as effectively as ball bearings do in machinery.

GUTTA PERCHA Tire Treads are carefully designed to give the maximum grip of the road surface, thus giving extra traction and braking power.

GUTTA PERCHA Tires are reinforced at the sides and have Gum Cushions at these points to give extra protection and strength.

GREATER MILEAGE, MORE VALUE

BECAUSE!
Its Gum Cushion construction is stronger and safer. The illustration shows the extra protection given by Gum Cushions.

BECAUSE!
The Gutta Percha Tire is guaranteed for twelve months from date of purchase for passenger car service against any condition which may render the tire unfit for further service, where such condition is due to ordinary wear and tear, or injuries thereto caused by blowouts, cuts, bruises, rim-cuts, under-inflation, wheels out of alignment, faulty brakes, or any road hazard.

BECAUSE!
It is the tested quality product of 50 years of experience in the rubber industry.

BECAUSE!
It is made by a 100% Canadian Company, and gives many extra values, yet costs no more than a tire that does not have the extra protection of Gum Cushions.

Insist on Gutta Percha Tires—Gum Cushioned —and get thousands of extra miles of tire life, with extra safety in each mile. No other tire gives such value for your money.

GOLDEN JUBILEE
50 years ago, in 1883, this Company commenced the manufacture of rubber goods in Toronto. Today, the quality of its products is known all over the world, and it has grown to be the largest all-Canadian rubber company. It employs 1,500 people, covers an area of 11 acres.

GUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER, LIMITED
Head Office: Toronto Branches from Coast to Coast

GUTTA PERCHA TIRES
GUM CUSHIONED

THE LARGEST ALL-CANADIAN RUBBER COMPANY FOUNDED — 50 YEARS AGO — IN 1883

THIS IS OUR GOLDEN JUBILEE YEAR

HEY, SKIPPER, GIVE 'EM YOUR OPINION OF "GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES

"Take the word of an old sailor, this 'Grape-Nuts' Flakes is the biggest treat that's ever come to breakfast! I've never found a flavour to beat it. Take my advice and try it."

Hastie to your grocer's and get a package of this delicious new breakfast dish — curly, golden flakes—with that grand "Grape-Nuts" flavour. A single serving supplies more varied nourishment than many a hearty meal. "Grape-Nuts" Flakes and "Grape-Nuts" Cereal are made in Canada from Canadian wheat and malt.

IT'S FULL SAIL FOR A HAPPY BREAKFAST

"GRAPE-NUTS" FLAKES
GOLDEN-FLAKE COMPANION TO "GRAPE-NUTS" CEREAL

EVERY SIZE STOCKED BY
BELLEVILLE VULCANIZING CO.
AND
J. LLOYD'S SERVICE STATION

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER
THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.
P. D. ROWSON, Publisher

IN THE PLAYGROUNDS

Children these days take advantage of the playgrounds offered them and in some cities they have started their elders and their parents to play.

Citizenship is a serious enough thing—that is to perform duties for the good of the entire state—but it is not so serious as to keep a man from his enjoyment of play.

So it is a fine thing to see on the parks of some cities adults at play. When groups of small children are at play the onlooker knows that these youngsters are working out the very process of life for which they were born. In the great heart of nature there is provision for exercise, provision for fun as an activity and also provision for the mental and spiritual thrills. The children achieve these with the greatest success because they are so natural in their play.

In a modern city sometimes children are restricted in their places of play and it is a good thing when the city authorities provide the young takes upon itself to provide these places of amusement. Sometimes it is an individual who sets aside lands or money for the purchase of park lands as playgrounds.

At first playgrounds in the larger cities were looked upon as a fad and extravagance by some people, but the playground has survived and has achieved so much good that the principle will always be a part of the life of the nation.

In the year 1931 there were 270,000,000 more women and children visited 7,500 play areas while attendance at outdoor playgrounds was thirteen million more than in the year 1931. There are 12,684 play areas in 1,012 cities in the United States and Canada.

Health and safety are protected and developed in these open spaces and it is fairly well established that the open air education will grow more and more.

SUNDAY SELLING

Discussion has arisen, no doubt largely to the warm spell and the annual arrival of summer, "Why should ice cream be allowed to be purchased on Sunday." Referred to be purchased in Toronto have signed a petition asking that the sale of ice cream on Sunday be permitted.

The man on the street believes that many many times ten thousand could be found who would subscribe to such a petition. Numbers would be found ready to sign in the smaller cities too.

Ice cream is one of those things which cannot be kept without proper care for their preservation. Many people have not refrigerators in their homes and certainly they cannot carry refrigerators off to a park or beach when they are off for the week-end. The great bulk of the people including the children who most of all need drinks and ice cream are at the mercy of those who have the power to restrict or prevent sale, they depend upon the common sense of the law and its officers.

One cannot see why it is any more harmful to eat ice cream from a cone in a park than it is to eat it at a table in a hotel or restaurant on the same Sunday.

Such a convenience as the sale of ice cream will not break down the Sabbath, probably will not do as much as the unbending enforcement of the law in what is really no offence at all.

No one desires to see the Lord's Day made a day of barter and buying and selling or of unnecessary work, but surely man might be privileged to buy something refreshing whether at meal time or not.

The common sense of the people is prevailing.

HARD-BOILED ATOMS

"The simple truth about the atom would seem to be that the physicists are finding it a much harder nut to crack than they expected. This is literally true. It is only the other day that the laboratorians were lightly talking of what would happen when they got around, pretty soon, to splitting an atom. Among other things the whole universe might blow up. But what they've got to make an atomic omelet without breaking cosmoses," says New York Times.

"Today it is not so easy. They have been bombarding the atom with all kinds of invisible projectiles and the bullets are being thrown back for a loss. It is the projectiles that are cracking up. The investigators, to be sure, have not lost heart. They still speak of the atomic energy in a glass of water as enough to drive the Mauretania across the Atlantic and back again. In other words, there is enough energy in a glass of water to carry an American delegation to a European conference and bring it back again with nothing accomplished."

x x x x

We should keep a corner of our heads open and free, that we may make room for the opinions of our friends. Let us have heart and head hospitality.—Joubert.

x x x x

Chance opportunities make us known to others and still more to ourselves. — Rochefoucauld

SIDELIGHTS
GRAVE and GAY

NORTHLAND MEN

Mighty men with quiet eyes,
Where a certain hunger lies;
Hunger that may never show
In their careful speech and slow;

Rockman, sand-hog, lumberjack—
Building bridges, laying track;
Steady hand on axe or drill,
Arm of steel and touch of skill—

Surely it was men like these
Sailed of old, the northern seas!
(Every day I think I meet
Some lost viking in the street).

Was the Promise ever worth
Seeking, men of older earth?
Farm and village, dale and hill,
These are waiting for you still.

Was it all too long ago,
Men of careful speech and slow?
Men with blue, bewildered eyes,
Have you missed your Paradise?

Elspeth Honeyman Clarke

x x x

BLACK CATS AND BLACKBIRDS formed the subject of an animated discussion with a group of Belleville businessmen recently. The question came up when a bird's nest and egg (sans egg) man told about taking a pot shot at a black cat which was stalking a young robin in his yard. He missed the cat but the cat missed a meal of young robin and all was well. Another well known business man told of trying to protect a nest of young robins from predatory cats which surround his residence every night. He rigged up a protective barrier of large fish hooks, but a big black cat gave the hooks a miss and inserting his paw in the nest made away with the wee birds. Discussion set a flock of sparrows flocking to the claim of a flock of swallows for whom a bird house had been built, especially, was the subject of another tale by a Front Street druggist. The sparrows stormed the swallow house and put them to flight and then the bird lover took a hand and it was just too bad for the sparrows—funeral private—no flowers. And the swallows lived happily ever after. Offering a box of two dollars each for black cat tails (Manx excepted) was a suggestion from a local manufacturer, but if that were done the town would be full of black cat hunters and somebody would be sure to get shot, half shot anyway. Starlings also came in for condemnation as unmitigated pests and all in all the discussion developed that many business men of Belleville take an active interest in the welfare of the song-birds of Canada. However, here's a thought from a noted naturalist—if the birds had no natural enemies such as the cat would they not multiply so fast as to become a menace. Here's another thought from a local financier—folks who wish to get rid of cats have a habit of moving out into the country and dropping pussy near some nice looking farm house where it may find a good home. Don't practise has become so prevalent, see, he, that the country is full of wild cats and yet another menace to birds and beasts and humans is born.

x x x x

ONE-LEGGED HIKER arrived in Belleville Monday morning about ten o'clock. He was a tall, well-built, clean looking and well dressed man in his thirties. In conversation he said that he was an engineer, had friends in Kingston and Montreal and was on his way to visit them, on a general trek which he honed had a position at the end of it. He carried a small bundle and appeared very cheery and hopeful, had money for coffee and cakes and his present quite well protected feet and confident that he would not have to walk very much of the journey toward Montreal.

x x x x

Magistrate—"Suppose the accused tells us exactly what happened in his own words."

Accused—"I can't very well do that, your Worship, seeing as how I've pleaded Not Guilty."

x x x x

Headmaster—"Now, we will have a little performance with the cane."

Boy Who has stuffed pads in the seat of his trousers in readiness): "All right, sir, I've booked my seat."

x x x x

"What's this, honey?" said Mrs. Young Bride's husband, as he speared a slice on a dish.

"Lucifer cake, dear," she answered.

"But I thought you said you were going to make an angel cake?"

"So it was—I fell!"

x x x x

Business is looking up for those who are looking it up.—Nashua Journal.

x x x x

"How long are you in-gaol for, my man?"

"Two weeks."

"What is the charge?"

'No charge—everything's free." —

AUSTRALIA WILL NOT SIGN

Sees Menace in Other Countries Outside "Big Four"

SYDNEY, Australia, June 26 (CP) Cable)—Australia is not prepared to agree to any wheat restriction scheme, the operation of which is confined to the "Big Four"—Canada, the United States, Argentina and Australia.

Australia takes the view any scheme will be futile if the cooperation of the smaller wheat-exporting nations in Europe is not to be given. Accordingly Stanley Bruce, Australian delegate at wheat conference, has been instructed to assist by formulating a scheme for submission to the European countries.

With the wheat situation taking care of itself for the time being, wheat reaching the globe market again in the United States on attractive weather and crop reports in North America, the wheat conference in London, Ont., reopened it would afford to wait a week or more for more definite advance on this year's crops, meanwhile continuing conversations informally with a view to drawing up a permanent scheme designed to guarantee against any future collapse of wheat prices.

240 PIGS BURNED LOSS OVER $8,000

St. Sylvestre, Que., June 26 (CP)—Flames shot hundreds of feet into the air and were visible for 15 miles as fire destroyed a large piggery at the village of St. Joseph D'Estmaska. The building was burned to the ground last night and 240 pigs were burned to death while 40 more, mostly small ones, were saved. The loss was estimated at $8,000.

HOLE IN ONE, HIS FOOT WAS IN IT

Regina, June 28—(CP)—A. Macomb, Illinois golfer, made a hole-in-one and didn't tell anybody.

That was supposed to be a record but right here in Regina the same thing happened last week.

Playing on the course at Kalepelin, Eddie Wiesniak, Detroit left wing hockey star, sank his tee shot on the second hole. But it was left to Mitchell, one of Wiseman's closest friends, to tell the story.

Yesterday's Deaths

(By The Canadian Press)

Quebec: Jean Paul Provencher, 34, Gravelbourg, Sask., lawyer and graduate of Laval University.

Ottawa: Phillip O'Reilly, 72, pioneer in the Child Labor campaign.

Richmond, Que.: John McMorine, 71, former mayor of Richmond.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28, 1913

Mr. H. C. Hamilton, who for ten years has been organist of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at Lindsay, has accepted the position as organist of Holloway St. Methodist Church in this city.

Mayor Wills presided at the city police court this morning and dispensed of several cases.

John Bennett, while operating a press in a local printing office yesterday caught his right hand in the press and three fingers were badly lacerated. Dr. Ponton attended.

Members were dressed by a physician and no serious results are anticipated.

Under the auspices of the Brotherhood Class of St. Andrew's Church a social was held last evening on the lawn at the Misses George Street. The Kilties Band was just the ticket for the dancing and Johnson was present and discounted a program of excellent Scottish numbers. Many persons were present and they thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mr. Jno. M. Sheehan and nephew, Gerald Sheehan, left Clareland, are visiting friends in the city.

Miss Flint of Toronto is in the city the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ray, William Street.

30 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28, 1903

The last general conference of the Methodist Church decided that four years is the longest time a minister may remain in charge of a congregation, and in accordance with this Tuling the Rev. W. J. Crothers, D.D., pastor of Bridge Street Church, will be required to leave here in June 1904. The practise has become so prevalent, see, he, that the country is full of wild cats and yet another menace to birds and beasts and humans is born.

x x x x

ONE-LEGGED HIKER arrived in Belleville Monday morning about ten o'clock. He was a tall, well-built, clean looking and well dressed man in his thirties. In conversation he said that he was an engineer, had friends in Kingston and Montreal and was on his way to visit them, on a general trek which he honed had a position at the end of it. He carried a small bundle and appeared very cheery and hopeful, had money for coffee and cakes and his present quite well protected feet and confident that he would not have to walk very much of the journey toward Montreal.

x x x x

Magistrate—"Suppose the accused tells us exactly what happened in his own words."

Accused—"I can't very well do that, your Worship, seeing as how I've pleaded Not Guilty."

x x x x

Headmaster—"Now, we will have a little performance with the cane."

Boy Who has stuffed pads in the seat of his trousers in readiness): "All right, sir, I've booked my seat."

x x x x

"What's this, honey?" said Mrs. Young Bride's husband, as he speared a slice on a dish.

"Lucifer cake, dear," she answered.

"But I thought you said you were going to make an angel cake?"

"So it was—I fell!"

x x x x

Business is looking up for those who are looking it up.—Nashua Journal.

x x x x

"How long are you in-gaol for, my man?"

"Two weeks."

"What is the charge?"

'No charge—everything's free." — press to a recent issue contained a flattering notice of Bandmaster Chris' McDonald, who in connection with the Oddfellows' Band in this city, at one time.

Good horses are bringing fair prices and are in brisk demand. Mr. W. H. Davis of Hungerford sold a fair team the day to Mr. Walter Panning for $155.

Members of the Belleville Bowling Club after a spirited game between Belleville and Trenton were compelled to acknowledge defeat by the latter's University team. Following were the Belleville rinks: Rink—Wm. Webster, Ald. LaRoche, P. J. M. Anderson, W. H. Biggar, Skip. Rink—Geo. Gordon, D. B. Robertson, John Lasser, Chas. Davis, Skip.

Some members of the 15th Prince Edward Regiment were conspicuous in their red coats in the streets of this last night.

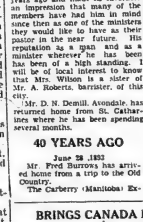
Mr. Mithael J. Hendrick of Union Spring, N. Y., the recently appointed U. S. Consul for the Bay of Quinte district, to succeed Mr. Dow, has arrived in the city and will assume his duties on July 1st. Mr. Hendrick who is a bachelor is persuading of his first acquaintance. He is not a colonel, but since the office of U. S. Consul has met with that of Colonel in the United States army and that of Captain in the Navy, Mr. Hendrick be no objection to referring to Mr. Hendrick as "Colonel" or "Captain." Dr. Dineen will leave for Chicago on Monday, where he will be the guest of his son while taking in the sights of the White City.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28, 1883

A meeting of the subscribers to the open house skating rink was held at Mr. Henry Corby's office this evening.

A petition is being circulated favoring the closing of the post office at 8.30 p.m. instead of 7.30 as now.



Lieut. Meister of the 15th Argyll Light Infantry, Belleville, is taking a short course of instruction at "B" Battery.

Fearing that the boom at the mouth of the river might break and damage the yachts, the owners of the Wanda and the Dauntless have taken them to safer quarters. They are now at anchor east of the Grand Junction Railway dock. The Wanda is at the inside slip in front of the old mill.

The removal from Picadilly and Kelso's store to the post office block necessitates many improvements and if some attention were bestowed on the sidewalk at the north end of the stone wall above the upper bridge, there would be less profanity and too stubbing in that quarter.

The members of Bleecker St. Church united giving the Rev. R. N. Burns a farewell Soiree on Dominion Day previous to his departure to his new appointment.

BRINGS CANADA DRY TO BELLEVILLE

One of Canada Dry's new fleet of trucks paid a visit to this city yesterday and made deliveries of this well known beverage to Belleville dealers. These trucks will soon be familiar to all Ontario highways.

40 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28 ,1893

Mr. Fred Burrows has arrived home from a trip to the Old Country.

The Carberry (Manitoba) Ex-

AUSTRALIA WILL NOT SIGN

Sees Menace in Other Countries Outside "Big Four"

SYDNEY, Australia, June 26 (CP) Cable)—Australia is not prepared to agree to any wheat restriction scheme, the operation of which is confined to the "Big Four"—Canada, the United States, Argentina and Australia.

Australia takes the view any scheme will be futile if the cooperation of the smaller wheat-exporting nations in Europe is not to be given. Accordingly Stanley Bruce, Australian delegate at wheat conference, has been instructed to assist by formulating a scheme for submission to the European countries.

With the wheat situation taking care of itself for the time being, wheat reaching the globe market again in the United States on attractive weather and crop reports in North America, the wheat conference in London, Ont., reopened it would afford to wait a week or more for more definite advance on this year's crops, meanwhile continuing conversations informally with a view to drawing up a permanent scheme designed to guarantee against any future collapse of wheat prices.

240 PIGS BURNED LOSS OVER $8,000

St. Sylvestre, Que., June 26 (CP)—Flames shot hundreds of feet into the air and were visible for 15 miles as fire destroyed a large piggery at the village of St. Joseph D'Estmaska. The building was burned to the ground last night and 240 pigs were burned to death while 40 more, mostly small ones, were saved. The loss was estimated at $8,000.

HOLE IN ONE, HIS FOOT WAS IN IT

Regina, June 28—(CP)—A. Macomb, Illinois golfer, made a hole-in-one and didn't tell anybody.

That was supposed to be a record but right here in Regina the same thing happened last week.

Playing on the course at Kalepelin, Eddie Wiesniak, Detroit left wing hockey star, sank his tee shot on the second hole. But it was left to Mitchell, one of Wiseman's closest friends, to tell the story.

Yesterday's Deaths

(By The Canadian Press)

Quebec: Jean Paul Provencher, 34, Gravelbourg, Sask., lawyer and graduate of Laval University.

Ottawa: Phillip O'Reilly, 72, pioneer in the Child Labor campaign.

Richmond, Que.: John McMorine, 71, former mayor of Richmond.

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28, 1913

Mr. H. C. Hamilton, who for ten years has been organist of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at Lindsay, has accepted the position as organist of Holloway St. Methodist Church in this city.

Mayor Wills presided at the city police court this morning and dispensed of several cases.

John Bennett, while operating a press in a local printing office yesterday caught his right hand in the press and three fingers were badly lacerated. Dr. Ponton attended.

Members were dressed by a physician and no serious results are anticipated.

Under the auspices of the Brotherhood Class of St. Andrew's Church a social was held last evening on the lawn at the Misses George Street. The Kilties Band was just the ticket for the dancing and Johnson was present and discounted a program of excellent Scottish numbers. Many persons were present and they thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mr. Jno. M. Sheehan and nephew, Gerald Sheehan, left Clareland, are visiting friends in the city.

Miss Flint of Toronto is in the city the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ray, William Street.

30 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28, 1903

The last general conference of the Methodist Church decided that four years is the longest time a minister may remain in charge of a congregation, and in accordance with this Tuling the Rev. W. J. Crothers, D.D., pastor of Bridge Street Church, will be required to leave here in June 1904. The practise has become so prevalent, see, he, that the country is full of wild cats and yet another menace to birds and beasts and humans is born.

x x x x

ONE-LEGGED HIKER arrived in Belleville Monday morning about ten o'clock. He was a tall, well-built, clean looking and well dressed man in his thirties. In conversation he said that he was an engineer, had friends in Kingston and Montreal and was on his way to visit them, on a general trek which he honed had a position at the end of it. He carried a small bundle and appeared very cheery and hopeful, had money for coffee and cakes and his present quite well protected feet and confident that he would not have to walk very much of the journey toward Montreal.

x x x x

Magistrate—"Suppose the accused tells us exactly what happened in his own words."

Accused—"I can't very well do that, your Worship, seeing as how I've pleaded Not Guilty."

x x x x

Headmaster—"Now, we will have a little performance with the cane."

Boy Who has stuffed pads in the seat of his trousers in readiness): "All right, sir, I've booked my seat."

x x x x

"What's this, honey?" said Mrs. Young Bride's husband, as he speared a slice on a dish.

"Lucifer cake, dear," she answered.

"But I thought you said you were going to make an angel cake?"

"So it was—I fell!"

x x x x

Business is looking up for those who are looking it up.—Nashua Journal.

x x x x

"How long are you in-gaol for, my man?"

"Two weeks."

"What is the charge?"

'No charge—everything's free." —

GERMAN FLAGS AT HALF MAST

National Mourning For Treaty of Versailles of 1919

Berlin, June 28—(AP)—All Germany went into mourning today in protest against the Treaty of Versailles, signed 14 years ago by representatives of the Allied Powers and Germany.

The new regime of Chancellor Adolf Hitler, which proved closer to possible domination of the international scene with the dissolution of the Socialist party and its affiliates, is responsible for the first observance of the anniversary.

Flags were flown at half mast from churches, public buildings and homes. The signing of the post-war treaty was the theme of school exercises. Thousands of demonstrations were planned. The Berlin Protestant Cathedral conducted a special prayer service on the theme, "God liberate us."

BUILD NO NEW SUGAR PLANTS

Sugar Council Sets Ten Year Term on Agreement

By George Hambleton
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, June 28 (CP Cable)—The International Sugar Council today completed the draft of a sugar production control scheme to be laid before governments.

Under the proposed convention the contracting parties would agree not to construct new sugar factories for 10 years, not to increase their daily effective capacity as determined at present.

During the same period the parties to the convention would also agree not to grant any new subsidies to production or export, or to increase the existing import duties. An exception is made where import duties at present in force do not exceed 10 per cent Ad Valorem in which case it would be permissible to increase them to that figure.

WAR ON STARLINGS

St. Thomas, June 28.—The war against starlings is in full swing in the fruit district of Elgin county. Already their ravages in the early varieties of cherries has been felt, and it is hoped that the city will be reduced by 50 per cent. If the birds are not destroyed. Mayor Wilson has given permission to shoot the birds in the city, and traps similar to those used at Jack Miner's bird sanctuary at Kingsville are in operation in the city.

PASSED MEDICAL COUNCIL

Ottawa, June 27 (CP)—A list of those who passed the examinations held by the Dominion Medical Council, held throughout Canada, was handed out today by the registrar. Those who pass the examination are entitled to practise medicine in any part of the Dominion. In the pass list for examinations held in Kingston was F. A. Alexander, Tweed, Ont.

DOCTORS FLY TO BEDSIDE

Motorcar Official's Wife Taken Seriously Ill

Detroit, June 28 (CP)—Two surgeons from Rochester, Minn., completed an aeroplane trip to Detroit today and were rushed, with a motorcycle escort, to Chatham, Ont., where Mrs. Fred M. Zeder, wife of a Chrysler Corporation executive, is seriously ill.

The surgeons, who arrived at the Detroit City Airport about midnight, declined to give their names. A motorcycle escort awaited them and they sped through the Dindoor Detroit tunnel to Windsor, where another escort awaited them.

Mrs. Zeder, whose husband is in charge of engineering for the automobile company, lives in Detroit, but was at her summer home at Highbanks, Ont., when she became ill Sunday and was taken to the Chatham Public General Hospital.

HULL OF OLD SHIP FOUND

Independence Sunk in 1853 When Boilers Blew up

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 28—Hull of the Independence, the first steamer to ply Lake Superior, has been encountered by the Dulutb Superior Dredging Company, operating on the Duluth Canal side of Vidal Shoals, above the ship canal.

The Independence was wrecked November 22, 1853, when her boiler blew up and her hull bore filled. Today bits of oak planking, copper plates, pipe fittings, and hand-

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. Scott

GEAB BAG

To what king of Phrygia did Bacchus give the power to turn all he touched into gold?

On what spot did Noah's ark land after the flood subsided?

Of what South American country is Montevideo the capital?

Correctly Speaking—

Never use an apostrophe with the possessive adjectives, its, hers, ours, yours or theirs.

Words of Wisdom

As a vessel is known by the sound whether it be cracked or not; so men are proved by their speeches, whether they be wise or foolish.—Democritus.

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day are kind, loving, true, loyal, and devoted to those they love.

Horoscope For Sunday

Persons born on this day show much persistence and determination regarding their undertakings.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. Midas.
2. Mount Ararat, Armenia
3. Uruguay.

Copyright, 1933, by Central Press Association, Inc.

Westminster Hotel
TORONTO

Centrally situated, close to shopping district and theatres. Fireproof. Tea room open till midnight. Single room with bath, $2.25; Double room with bath, $3.50 and up. Breakfast 25c to 70c. Luncheon 50c. Dinner 60c.

346 Jarvis St., Toronto

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleaning. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Send soiled and stained summer finery here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS

192 Front St. Phone 728
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go.
Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth its cost.
Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.

J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 518 224 FRONT ST.

Chimneys brought to Michigan Soo in the fall of 1845.

Sulphuric acid, cheapest and most important acid in the chemical industry, may be replaced in its distinction by phosphoric acid made by a new process.

STATION L-O-V-E

BY CRAIG CARROLL

It had started with Jenks. Wife-Flavia, that is. Really, with Judy's suggestion, but nobody had told Dick that and Judy never could tell him. Jenks had found out. Found out Dick was working for a station in Cleveland, had brought him back under contract. A suggestion being an observer and also eager to have Dick happy, figured that other jobs could be had in the same way.

His wife Dick recalled then, was an asset that people would pay for. So he had simply gone to the clients directly, told them he was at liberty, told them he would go on with their programs, but only under contract with them. And out of six clients he had sold himself to four.

People around the station said he was earning $600 a week; $1,000. He was living at a fashionable north side hotel. He was driving a new car. He ordered three suits at once. He came into the station just in time for his program, then disappeared as soon as it was over, then returned for the next.

He was working up program ideas for a big advertising agency. Jenks had helped him there, but Dick began his business; he had a name without having realized it before.

He was earning more, all of one week, than the man who discharged him. And the people who had black-listed him and said he could never work for them again couldn't do anything about it. His clients were theirs, his contracts were as good as theirs.

He came into the studio at 10.45 each day, just in time for the opening announcement. He said nothing to Judy. Once she moved as though to speak. Dick looked and went out of the other door. After that she only watched him, knowing that she was watching, ashamed of herself for weakness. But weakness didn't matter.

She talked to Elsie about it at night, and Elsie talked to Billy once. But Billy, loyal follower of Dick called Elsie only once. As say he was back to say he was doing well as a special operator and was starting a program-reporting service under Dick's direction. He didn't call.

If Dick saw no more of Judy, then Billy would see no more of Elsie. That was the way of it and this made Elsie miserable, no matter how thoroughly she hid her misery with dismal laughter and jokes that were not quite funny.

But something Billy could be done.

Not, Judy assured herself, because of any belief that Dick Mason would be interested. Seeing him leave the building one night in his new car, with the same platinum-blond girl beside him, seeing him again at lunch with a singer who was to work on one of the programs he was helping to prepare. Seeing him for a moment only as he passed her in the station, jokey, cold, distant, nod, smiling at all, she waited only to know that he knew the truth. After that it wouldn't matter, she insisted to herself.

Just to have Dick understand. Just to make that strained, twisted look go from his face!

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE

Judy saw Elton Day at the studio often. He was always polite, always distant, saying little or nothing to Judy, putting what was said in calm business words.

One day Jenks telephoned her and said, "I'm having some of our advertising department over to be here. And I'd like to have you there at lunch. Can you make it?

"Yes," Judy said. "I'll be there."

"Fine. The Blackstone, that is, 11.45." So she went under special sponsoring some of the money that came so easily now and seemed to mean so little. A new dress. As she tried on the particular sort of dress she had wanted, she remembered talking about this same model to a Beauty Builder program. And when she gave the salesgirl her name the girl stared openly. "Miss Allison? Why, aren't you on the radio?"

"Yes. A little."

"A little!" the girl said. "Oh, Mr. Tallaferro! This is Miss Allison. You know, The Beauty Builder."

"Of course, of course, rubbing his hands together. Immediately he launched into a discussion of styles, of new suggestions, of this model and that, and Judy, not understanding most of it, totally out of her depth, still did as well as she could, still kept the pose—but knew the man was wondering how a girl so brilliant on the air could be so uninformed when he talked to her about the very things she knew so much about.

She was glad to escape. And when she appeared the next day, wearing the new black dress and the new hat, Jenks was waiting at the door of the restaurant, watch in hand.

"Oh, I was afraid you weren't coming."

"But I'm here."

"Of course. Of course. And that's just fine, Miss Allison. Here—We'll go along this way. We've got a place for you up at the head table, you see." He giggled. "What you'll be where everybody can see you."

"Oh—" She drew back. "Must I sit there? Up in front of everybody?"

"Oh yes. Yes. Of course. So they can all see you. Come along, Miss Allison. Come along."

He led the way, crowding past chairs, and Judy, following slowly, resolutely staring straight ahead, heard whispers heard murmurs, heard men saying out loud, "That's the Beauty Builder," and "That's all right," and, "No wonder she got the job."

She slipped into the chair quickly, she looked down at the table, she found water glass and drank quickly, then put it down. Then, for the first time, she realized what Jenks had done.

On her right sat Dick Mason. On her left sat Elton Day, and both of them looked straight ahead, and Judy Judy Allison did not even exist.

Lunch came and was taken away, and coffee came and that was carried away, and then men leaned back in their chairs, puffing on gift cigars, and the air was blue and thick and there was an undercurrent of chuckles, of arguments. But Judy, knowing nothing about all this, though, that every moment was an hour long, thought the time will for something more terrible still to come would never end.

Jenks stood up, clearing his throat.

"I know how interested all of you are in what we're doing on the air," Jenks said "so I've asked the three people who've made our programs so successful to come here and meet you for the first time. And I'm not going to make any speeches for them, I'm going to leave that to them, because— —" he giggled and some of the men nearest chuckled guiltily. " because that's what they're paid for, talking. And I don't get a nickel for it." He giggled self-consciously again and more of the men chuckled with him knowingly. "So I take this opportunity to present to you, first announcer of our Beauty Builder program, who will tell you about himself and will introduce his partners, Mr. Elton Day." He turned and looked at Dick. Stand up and face the music. Here you are boys. Dick Mason, himself. Call him Dick. He likes it."

There was a patter of applause from the men, then a chuckle from their wives, a mouth greater outburst of laughter. Dick Mason stood. Women who had heard Richard Mason's voice so often looked at him now the first time. He fitted the picture. Tall, broad-shouldered, smiling, he faced them without any embarrassment at all. Judy could not help wishing the little bit of ness had gone from his smile and his eyes. But she could not help admiring him now. For he said almost nothing, yet nothing he said betrayed a feeling of all the cause there was no feeling! Because he had ceased to care at all.

He said, "Thank you, Mr. Jenks. And thank you ladies and gentlemen. But I must tell you—an announcer means little or nothing. He is simply there to set the stage. And when his very brief moment of glory is over the real voice is heard. The voice I know you want to hear now. The voice of Miss Judy Allison, who is the Beauty Builder."

He took her hand casually, and she stood up, facing all these people, fighting down her terror, her wild desire to run madly out of the room.

"Say something, Judy," Dick said quietly. "Anything. Just talk."

"I—"

"Go ahead, Hurry."

She fought for composure for words to say. There was nothing to be said. All these people—scores of them knew more than Judy Allison knew about the thing she was paid to talk about. And yet they were waiting. They stared, studying her, wondering about her. And beside her was Dick Mason. On the other side, Elton Day. Two men. A man she loved, who did not love her at all; a man she did not love who said he loved her, but would do nothing to prove it. Two men.

Suddenly Judy Allison saw the way. She knew what to say now. She knew what could be done.

"Thank you" she said quietly to Dick Mason. "Thank you, Mr. Jenks. I have something to say. Something very important." Then a little louder but still so softly that people down along the table strain. ed eagerly to hear, and still heard only a little, Judy Allison said what had waited to be said for a long time.

"Mr. Jenks," she began. "Dick Elton. This is my last day. I'm all through with radio. I'll never go on the air again."

Jenks started up, but he paused, waiting unbelieving, almost convinced that it was a play, a comedy. So much so that he giggled self-consciously, a little uncertainly. And, hearing him, other men along the table chuckled, too. This Allison girl was a card. She could just stand right up and put on comedy with a straight face and without even letting you know she meant to be funny. You hear that, Ed? Says she's through with radio. And her getting $50 a week, I heard. Some—think like that. Listen! She's saying more. She's a card! I tell you! Listen!"

Judy Allison moved down along the table a little. The door was not very far away. The people were waiting. Dick had not moved. He only stared strangely, his eyes deep his mouth drawn tight, hard hard. And Elton Day looked down at the table, not at her, but he was listening, she knew he would hear every word.

"I'm going to tell you a story," Judy said suddenly clearly, in the same voice they all had heard over the air a dozen times. But she was not talking about beauty now. She was talking about herself and about Dick and about Elton. And she said: "I'm telling the truth, which ought to have been told a long time ago. I'm on the air, I've been on the air just because of a trick. There were a dozen voices as good or better than mine. But a man who is in this room now thought he wanted to help me. He got started. And I got the job. And—"

"Judy! Be still! Don't, Judy! Don't!"

(To be Continued)

Watch for the TIGER

FARMERS BUSY WITH HAY CROP

3RD HILLIER—The farmers are busy men these days, with the hay crop and corn ready to be cultivated, and those living near a cereal, and those living near a cereals is cut or spray.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Leavens spent Sunday evening at Consecon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benway and Geraldine spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rorke of Consecon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clapp and Vernon, spent Sunday evening at the Point also the Cunningham family of Hungry Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry DaFoe and family Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lunn and family spent Sunday afternoon at North Bay.

Rain is badly needed again in the County.

The teachers and children are all working hard this week with their examinations.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Benway and family were at North Bay on Sunday.

PERSONAL NOTES OF READ DISTRICT

READ—Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyd and family of Perth, spent the week end at the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Doran.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hunt have moved to Marysville, and have taken over Wallly's Service Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burgess of Toronto, are spending their holidays at Mr. and Mrs. John Doran's.

Mr. Leo McDermont has returned to Toronto, to resume his work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Dorey of Sydenham, spent Sunday, at Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunt's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur La Pierre of Detroit are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hannifan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Coffey spent Thursday in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sullivan of Lonedale, were Sunday visitors at Mr. John Doran's.

Mr. Stephen Brennan spent the week end in Toronto.

Mr. Willie McGinnis and his sister Kathleen, spent the week end in Belleville spent Sunday with Mr. Charlie Coffey, who is attending St. Michael's Academy, Belleville, spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Carmel Doran of Toronto, is spending her holidays, under the parental roof.

Miss Patricia Jarrell has accepted a school in Richmond Township.

ATTEND INTERESTING WEDDING CEREMONY

VICTORIA—Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sager and Beatrice also Mr. Charles Drinkwater spent Sunday at Mr. Wm. Hubbs'.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Weese and Bobbie also Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Orser and Wilbert called Sunday evening at Mr. Everett Brickman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fox and Mrs. D. B. Fox returned home on Sunday evening after spending a week with her father, Mr. Geo. McCurdy.

Mr. and Mrs Everett Brickman attended the wedding on Wednesday June the 21st of their son, Roy Eugene to Miss Luella Holmes of Sidney.

Miss Velma Arkell attended the Brickman-Holmes wedding on Wednesday.

Mr. Fox Foley, Wellington, spent a couple of days at Mr. L. R. Brickman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Redner spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weese spent Saturday afternoon at Mr. Lestie Allison's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hubbs and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Brickman called Sunday evening at Mrs. C. Bonter's Wellington. Mrs. Bob Reilly returned home with them.

Mrs. Horace Calnan, Mrs. Lorne Brickman and Audra attended the Ladies' Aid Convention on Thursday at Belleville.

MISS HELEN REDNER ENTERTAINS LADIES' AID OF CENTRE

CENTRE—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fox returned home Sunday evening after a ten days stay at Mr. Geo. McCurdy's of West Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stewart of Belleville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fox.

Mrs. Julia Fox spent a week at West Huntingdon.

Ladies' Aid of Centre met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Helen Redner. A nice quilt was quilted and a former one disposed of. Mrs. Leslie Parliament held the drawing ticket.

Mrs. Leslie Parliament has been visiting her son Nelson and wife in Toronto for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Fox attended a W. I. meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Nonon of Jerichs on Wednesday.

Another local young man passed into the realm of the benedicts on Wednesday when Roy Brickman was married to Miss Luella Holmes, 4th of Sidney.

Mr. W. H. Redner and Miss Helen Redner also Margaret Fox motored to Toronto Friday returning Monday to visit friends in that city.

The members of the leadership training class received their diplomas the past week. Miss Dorothy Gilles secured honors on her paper, leading the class.

A few of the ladies attended the W. A. Convention in Belleville on Thursday.

An English pickpocket is there known, in slang, as a "fingersmith."

A scene from "Letting in the Sunshine" now at the CAPITOL Theatre

MILTON ROSE FOUND DEAD

Body in Lake Near Waupoos, Missing Three Days

PICTON, Ont., June 28—The body of Milton Rose, of Waupoos, missing from his home since Saturday night, was discovered Tuesday near the mainland of Waupoos. Rose had left Waupoos Island to return to his home on the mainland late Sunday night. No alarm was felt at his absence until Sunday night, when his boat was found adrift upside down near the shore. Rose had been engineer for the Waupoos Canning Factory. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Addie Cole of Cedarsburg, N.Y., a son, Keith Rose, and a daughter, Mrs. Keith Ostrander, of Waupoos.

"Education is a matter of opportunity religion is a matter of opinion, but character is essential in all walks of life."—Mrs. August Belmont.

An invitation that is hard to resist...

Listen! get hungry

IN MAKING Rice Krispies, the Kellogg Company produced a ready-to-eat cereal that has won millions of friends.

Those crunchy bubbles of rice look so inviting when you heap them in a bowl. As you pour on milk or cream the way they snap, crackle, and pop is an appeal that seems to say—"Listen!... get hungry." And every spoonful you eat is a thrill in flavor.

Countless mothers depend upon Kellogg's Rice Krispies because their flavor and crispness are always welcomed by children. And since Rice Krispies are nourishing and easy to digest, they are a fine food for any meal.

Grown-ups, too, delight in their crunchy goodness. Fine for breakfast, luncheon, or light snacks. Economical. Quality guaranteed. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

W. K. Kellogg

Old Times and Old Timers

A warm greeting—a friendly smile—a glass of Kuntz's Olde Time Stone Ginger Beer—mellow and refreshing—makes for good friendship, and a perfect interlude in the rush of everyday business. Worries are brushed away, and fatigue is forgotten under the enjoyment of an ice cold glass of that Olde Time Favorite, bottled in the modern sanitary amber glass bottle.

Kuntz's Stone Ginger Beer—brewed as only the Englishman knows how—is genuine English—the real thing. It has the sparkle—the true flavour—the delightful tang—and the same healthful invigorating goodness that for generations has made English Stone Ginger Beer win out in public favour over all other carbonated beverages.

—And it mixes to the King's taste.

5¢

Kuntz's

STONE GINGER BEER

THE KUNTZ BREWERY LIMITED WATERLOO AND TORONTO

In Transparent Amber Glass Bottles, Visibly Pure, Sterilized and Inspected

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

BRIDE GIVEN USEFUL GIFTS

Madoc Junction Friends Honor Mr. and Mrs. H. Mudd

Madoc Jct.—Quite a bad electric storm passed over this district on Wednesday. The rain was very welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ashley, Mrs. Harry Clarke and Mrs. Carl Reid were in Belleville on Wednesday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Carman Ashley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pitchett of Stirling and Miss M. Pitchett of Toronto had tea Thursday evening at Mr. and Mrs. C. Pitchett's.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson of Wellman's were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. H. Ashley's on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Irvin of Tweed and Miss M. Irvin of Toronto spent Thursday evening at Mr. and Mrs. C. Pitchett's.

Friends here are shocked to learn that Harry Stapley of Carmel had passed away Friday evening after a short illness. He ceased had spent his childhood and youth in this neighborhood and the sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing relatives.

On Friday night the friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. Clinton Juby and presented Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mudd, with a miscellaneous shower of pretty and useful gifts.

The house was arranged on a large table and the following address was read by Miss Ina Ashford.

Madoc Jct., June 23, 1933

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mudd.

Dear Dorothy and Henry,—

The neighbors declare it
The papers have said
That a youth and a maiden
Have lately wed.

The young couple joined
Are with us tonight
Tuesday with Henry
The pride of his life.

This evening your friends
Have all gathered here
The young lads and lassies
To wish you good cheer.

We trust that your future
Will always be bright
Your pathway be joyous
Your troubles be light.

Now if shadow should come
Just whistle and sing
It will make the clouds vanish
And much brightness bring.

Dorothy be to your husband
A kind trusting wife
Then he will love you
The rest of your life.

Henry be a good sport
Don't be cranky or pout
Then your wife will be happy
When you are about.

Now on this occasion
We have brought you tonight
Knives, basins and knifes
All shining and bright

We hope you will like them
That useful they'll be
Also serve to remind you
Of friends one, two and three.

Please kindly unwrap them
And we will stand by
And watch with delight
As each piece you untie.

Signed on behalf of the community

Nina Wilson
Bernice Cooke

Mr. and Mrs. Mudd both made a suitable reply and thanked their friends for the gifts. During the evening the Gaspley orchestra played several selections which were greatly enjoyed. Later the ladies served lunch.

SALEM W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of Salem W. M. S. was held on Wednesday June 24th at Salem Union Church with 12 members and two visitors present. The meeting opened by singing hymn 265 "You May Have the Joy Bells" followed by responsive scripture reading from Matthew 11, 1-16. Prayer by Mrs. J. Sills. Reports were read and adopted. Roll call was answered by a verse beginning with our last name. Offering taken up by a verse comming the word "wisdom." Next meeting is to be held in October. It was decided to have a sewing bee at Mrs. Coles on the near future. An invitation was accepted from Shannonville W. M. S. A letter was read by Mrs. Sills from the neighborhood Worker's Association which was an appeal for the needy take children from the city for a two weeks vacation during holidays. Miss Helen Leslie, Group Leader then took charge. Hymn 347 "Jesus Calls Us" followed by reading by Miss Bernice Robinson "Where Love Is, God Is." Reading by Mrs. I. Leslie "Sonny Jim." Reading by Miss H. Leslie "The evolution of a Bible Woman." A letter was read by Mrs. L. McLaren from the Temperance Sec'y. Reading by Mrs. G. Badgley. Hymn 191 "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me," followed by all repeating Lord's Prayer.

Personals

Mrs. W. J. Brown left yesterday for Lindsay, owing to the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. J. Shannon.

Miss Betty Sprung is visiting friends in Barrie, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thoker have returned home after attending the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Mason Thorpe, Brinston's, Dundas County, Ont.

Mrs. Harry Varley of this city was yesterday a visitor at the annual Rose Show being held in the Talon Auditorium as Toronto.

The hostesses this afternoon at the Belleville Golf Club were:—Mrs. J. W. Kinnear and Mrs. W. C. Mikel.

Miss Muriel Hill has left for Bancroft for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. V. P. Hunt who is a patient at Belleville General Hospital, is progressing favourably.

Mr. Joseph Burgess, chief of the Dairy Produce Division, of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, was a visitor in the city, Tuesday.

Mrs. H. Rose and daughter of Morrisburg and Mr. Clayton Hicks, Chas. Falls, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Chas. Ridley, 38 Sinclair street.

The condition of Mrs. Katherine M. Leach has improved sufficiently this week to allow her to sit up part of the day.

Mrs. John Rathman and granddaughter, Evelyn Empson, are visiting relatives in Toronto.

A euchre party under the auspices of St. George's Guild was held last evening in St. George's Hall, Prize winners were: ladies' first, Mrs. Lott, second, Mrs. Gray; Consolation, Mrs. English; men's first, Mr. Marshall, second Mr. Grey, Consolation, Mr. Raynor. Refreshments were served after the enjoyable games.

At the tea at which members of the Quinte Golf Club were entertained by the Belleville Golf Club, yesterday after their game, Miss Stewart Masson poured tea and those who assisted were Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Kinnear and Mrs. Mikel.

Miss Ruth W. Hinchcliffe, B.A., Belleville, R. R. No. 2, is spending a few days in Ottawa, the guest of her friend Mrs. R. H. Bray, B.A.

The home of Mrs. Percy Mott, Trent Road, was the scene of a delightful garden tea, yesterday after, noon, held under the auspices of the Women's Association of Holloway Street Church. The verandah with its baskets of lovely roses and delphiniums and the lawn dotted with little tables made a pretty scene. Tea was poured by Mrs. Ray Laughter, president of the W. A. and those who assisted in the serving were Mrs. Arthur Ellis, Mrs. Nelson Schryver, Mrs. Harold Blakelburn and Mrs. Leonard Reid.

The annual meeting of John St. United Church Guild met at the home of Mrs. Green, Octavia St. The meeting was opened with a service of praise, after which reports for the year were read by secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Williams, president, spoke of the aims of the society and how the programs throughout the year had fulfilled these. Mrs. Graham, chairman of the nominating committee, presented her report which was followed by the election of officers, for the new year:— President, Mrs. Sexsmith, Vice-President— Mrs. McClinton, Secretary—Miss Irvine; Treasurer,—Miss Janet Miles; Press Reporter.—Mrs. Chambers. Suggestions were made for next year's programme. Mrs. Wickham took charge of the social half-hour after which delicious refreshments were served.

Paris has a house made of translucent glass three inches thick, the walls of which are cleaned by an automatic sprinkler system.

ONLY SURVIVOR

MRS. CHARLES RENNIE, JR.

Though still suffering from exposure and shock as a result of her harrowing experience in Lake Michigan, Mrs. Charles Rennie, Jr., has been pronounced out of all danger of pneumonia at Traverse City, Mich. Five 34 hours she drifted on a make-shift raft and watched her husband and two other men slip to their deaths following the crash of their seaplane into the lake.

HUGENBERG RESIGNS

Berlin, June 28—A crisis in the Nazi regime of Chancellor Adolf Hitler was precipitated last night with the resignation of Dr. Alfred Hugenberg, Minister of Economics followed by his own order dissolving the Nationalist Party, of which he is the head.

The United Press Portfest that Dr. Hugenberg's resignation came during a stormy session of the Cabinet last night, during which the point at issue was whether the Nazis would yield in their determination to dissolve all other political parties.

Weddings

DEROCHE—WEGENAST

Summer flowers, palms and ferns in profusion decorated Christ Church, Brampton, yesterday for the marriage there of Eleanor Louise Wegenast, daughter of Mr. F. W. Wegenast, K.C., and Mrs. Wegenast of Brampton, and William Edward Percival DeRoche, son of Mrs. and E. DeRoche and Mrs. DeRoche of Belleville, Rev. R. W. Allen officiating. White flowers had been placed on the altar, while bouquets of variegated flowers marked the guests' pews.

Special interest centres in the wedding since both bride and groom are lawyers, the bride's father is a lawyer, the groom's father a judge and one of the bridesmaids, Miss Helen DeRoche, a lawyer. Even the officiating clergyman studied law before going into the ministry.

Mrs. W. G. Fulton presided at the organ throughout the ceremony and during the signing of the register Mrs. C. M. Corkett sang "Still As the Night."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite wedding robe of white brocaded satin made on close-fitting lines and flowing gracefully into a train at the back. Over it fell a sttimmering veil of silk net bordered with lace. Fashioned into a pleated cap at the head and caught with orange blossoms and seed pearls. The bride carried a white prayer book from which fell streamers of lily of the valley.

The procession of bridesmaids included Miss Alice Malcomson of Kincardine; Miss Eleanor Lowry, Miss Mary Anley of Brampton, and Miss Helen DeRoche of Belleville, sister of the groom. They were frocked alike in chiffon frocks of pastel shades of blue, pink, yellow and mauve, respectively. The gowns were made on long, flowing lines with large-sleeved jackets, hats and gloves of matching silk organdy and matching shoes. They carried bouquets of summer flowers in the four different shades. Mr. Walter Rennie of London was groomsman and the ushers, Mr. Allister McCulloch, Mr. Robert McCullough and Mr. Ralph Sargeant, all of Toronto.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents, where Mr. and Mrs. Wegenast and Judge and Mrs. DeRoche received with the bridal party. Mrs. Wegenast had chosen a gown of brown and cream figured chiffon with large picture hat of cream-colored mohair trimmed with brown organdy and corsage bouquet of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a graceful frock of Copenhagen blue lace with hat and shoes to match. Her corsage bouquet was pink roses.

Later the bride and groom left for Montreal, where they sail for Bermuda, the Bahamas and Jamaica. For travelling the bride wore a smart navy blue costume in rough silk crepe with blouse of blue and white chiffon and hat and accessories in navy and white. On their return the bridal pair will reside in Toronto.

Among the legal guests were Andrew Dods, Toronto, W. G. F. Grant, Toronto, F. C. Smily, K.C., Toronto, Miss Margaret Fraser, Toronto, Miss Marion Niven, Toronto, Judge Treed of Cobourg, Brampton, Gordon Grayson, Brampton, Warwick Marshall, Brampton, and among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell, Miss Adelaide Bell, Windsor, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ackerman, Niagara.

REEDER—LITTLE

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Steele Cottage on Tuesday evening, at half past seven when Mr. Frederick Charles Reeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sidney Reeder, and Miss Helen Marguerite Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Little, were united in Holy Matrimony by the bridegroom's aunt and wife by Reverend Albert L. Reeder.

Mr. T. N. Dopking assisted the groom and Miss Nora Pearl Dunning, for the bride. The happy couple will reside in the city.

The bride carried a bouquet of lovely roses.

The person who goes through the year without illness is exceptional, for statistics ascribe 850 cases of illness to each 1,000 persons in the United States each year.

"AN ORDINARY MAN"

GWENDOLYN McCORMACK

"Not a sailor, nor a soldier; just an ordinary Lancashire man." That's the way Gwendolyn McCormack, daughter of John McCormack, famous Irish tenor, describes her fiance, Edward Pyke, of Lancashire, Eng. Miss McCormack, herself a singer of note, is shown in London.

ZION W. M. S.

The June meeting of Zion W. M. S. was held at home of Mrs. Cecil Ketcheson. Opened with watch word, and Hymn: "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Prayer by Mrs. W. Ketcheson and Mrs. Scarles. Scripture Lesson Matt. 13 chapter was given by Miss Edna Ray. The minutes were read and adopted. Then followed the Treasurer's report and a few remarks by Mrs. Denyes on the group system. Full plans were then made for open meeting on June 14. Solo by Miss Olive Searles was enjoyed by all. Reading by Mrs. Cleverley followed with the Study Book given by Miss. Jennie Kennedy. Remarks were then given by Mrs. Tufts "Peace Secretary." The temperance work was given by Mrs. Denyes. Four of the girls taking part. Hymn 94, "Jesus shall reign wherever the sun" and Miss Olive Searles closed with Prayer. The hostess then served a dainty lunch and a social hour was spent.

The open meeting held on June 14 was a decided success with several neighboring auxiliaries being invited along with Tabernacle of Belleville, who furnished programmes which all thoroughly enjoyed very much which consisted of adult solos and singing by all the members. Readings were also given which were very interesting. Then Mrs. Horton the President gave a splendid address giving outlines of Missionary work in other countries. We were also favored with a solo from Mrs. Arthur Hall, Plainfield, which all enjoyed. The meeting closed with Hymn and prayer after which Zion ladies served lunch, sandwiches, cakes, tarts, jellies and lemonade and a social half hour was spent.

ZION MISSION BAND

The meeting opened by singing "Work for the Night is Coming." Roll call was answered by all members. The minutes were read and adopted. The Watch Tower was given by several of the members and call to worship was given by President, followed with Prayer by Jack Ray. The Scripture lesson from Luke 22 chapter. The secretary gave responsive reading then Hymn "Jesus Saves" was sung and June Ray gave the continued story called "A Wonderful Change." The reading being Mrs. Cecil Ketcheson who gave us a talk on "A Piece of Clay" which delighted us all. A duet was then given by Gordon Ray and Vernon Emerson entitled "Search Me O God and Know My Heart." Then the closing Hymn was sung and Mrs. Ketcheson closed with prayer.

Whichever star you see tonight—

—notice her marvellously Youthful Complexion

THEY KNOW THE SECRET OF KEEPING YOUTHFUL CHARM

Why don't you guard your skin the Hollywood way?

SCREEN STARS have such exquisite skin! They know their complexions must be lovely if they are to win—and hold—hearts by the thousands. "To be alluring you must guard complexion beauty," they declare. "We use Lux Toilet Soap."

Kay Francis, lovely Warner Brothers' star, guards her beautiful complexion with this fine white soap. "Lux Toilet Soap keeps the skin always soft and smooth," she says.

Whichever star you see tonight, notice how alluring her smooth skin is. Is your skin as lovely —as tempting? Why don't you try Hollywood's favourite beauty care—use the gentle, inexpensive soap that keeps the stars' priceless complexions always youthful!

9 out of 10 Screen Stars use it

Of the 694 important Hollywood actresses, including all stars, actually 686 use Lux Toilet Soap. All the great film studios have made it their official soap. Begin today to let this fragrant white soap work wonders for your complexion!

The Beauty Soap of the Stars

Lux Toilet Soap—

SUCH UNRIVALLED WHITENESS

Lux Toilet Soap is Important . . . We Use LUX Toilet Soap"

Lux Toilet Soap is Important . . . We Use LUX Toilet Soap"

Lever Brothers, Limited, Toronto

Soapmakers by appointment to their Excellencies the Governor-General and Countess of Bessborough

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Bigger and Crawford, P. H. Willis branch manager. Quotations at 2.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley, bid 1.05.
Amulet, 36.
Arno, 03½.
Barry Hollinger, bid 11.
Base Metals, bid 2.85.
Bagamac, 06.
Central Patricia, bid 27.
Dome, bid 33.80
Eldorado, 2.75.
Falconbridge, 8.80.
Granada, 1.30.
Hollinger, 21.
Hudson's Bay, 8.00.
Howey, 81.
Kirkland Lake, bid 41.
Lake Shore, bid 40.10.
Macassa, bid 1.95.
McIntyre, bid 21.25.
Mining Corporation, bid 2.15.
McLeod River, 03¾.
Mpissing, 3.86.
Noranda, 31.70.
Inter. Nickel, 16.50.
N.O. Pioneer, 13.50.
Sherritt, 1.28.
Sisco, 11.50.
Stadacona, 04.
Sudbury Basin, 1.75.
Sylvanite, 1.39.
Teck Hughes, 6.30.
Upond, 05.
Ventures, 3.10.
Wright Hargreaves, 6.15.
Yale, 1.16.

Big Missouri, 27.
Bobjo, 21¼.
Braxorne, 7.36.
Breth. Treth., 31.
Brownlee, 04¾.
Can. Kirkland, 06.
Castle Trethi., bid 51.
Cent. Manitou, 14.
Coast Copper, 6.50.
Coniagum, bid 55.
Dom. Asbestos, 06 07.
Fed. Kirkland, 08¾.
Goldale, 16½.
Kirk. Townsite, 39.
Malartic, 14.
Malrobic, bid 05.
Manitoba Basin, 05½.
Mistaya, bid 07.
Moss Mines, 00.
McVittie, bid 05.
McWatta, 86.
Premier, 1.21.
Reno, 2.30.
St. Anthony, bid 36.
S. Antonio, 1.04.
Wayside, bid 36.
Wells Arkenman, 1.44.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil, 15.
Imperial Oil, 14¾.
McColl Frontenac, 13.
International Pete, 10¾.
Distill. Seagrams, 35¾.
Walker's, 45¾.
Walker's Pref., 18.
Canadian Alcohol, 12¼.
Canada Bud., 9.
Can. Bakeries, 12.
Bell Telephone, 101½.
C.P.R., 19.
Canada Cement, 7¼.
Canada Malt., 30¼.
Cockshutt, 10¼.
Dominion Stores, 23.
Ford "A", 14.
Smiliers, 136.
Loblaw "A", 14¼.
Massey Harris, 8¾.
Page Hersey, 68.
Shawinigan, 31½.
Canada Vinegar, bid 30.
Steel of Canada, 27¼.
Brantford, 16½.
Pressed Metal, 16½.

NEW YORK

American Can, 90¾.
Auburn, 63¾.
Am. Por. Power, 17¼.
Anaconda, 10¾.
N. Y. Central, 44¼.
Case, 98.
Drug, 31¼.
Elec. Auto Lite, 34¾.
Cons. Gas, 58¾.
General Motors, 28¼.
Inter. Nickel, 16½.
Standard Oil of N. J., 38½.
Chrysler, 31¾.
North American, 27¼.
Nat. Dairy Prod. 23¼.
Montgomery Ward, 24¾.
Radio, 9¾.
Standard Brands, 24¼.
Stewart Warner, 14¾.
American Can pf. T., 128½.
Vanadium, 25¼.
Westinghouse, 54¾.
U. S. Steel, 58½.
United Aircraft, 23¾.

Livestock

Toronto, June 28 (CP) — Early trading on the Toronto livestock market was slow today with light offerings in all classes. Prices generally remained unchanged with yesterday's closing level. Cattle trade was dull, calves steady, hogs unsettled, and sheep and lambs steady.

Receipts as reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were: Cattle 360, calves 230, hogs 630, sheep and lambs 150.

Cattle left over from yesterday totalled 1,000 head including about 800 stockers. A few choice butcher cattle sold at $3.50 to $3.75 per cwt. with common downward to $3.50. There were no heavy steers sold up to 11:00 a.m. Choice fed cattle brought $3.75 to $4.00 per cwt. Good butcher cows sold at $2.00 to $2.25 per cwt. Stockers were not moving.

Veal calves opened steady at yesterday's decline selling at $5.00 to $5.50 for choice with common veals downward to $3.00. Calvers brought $2.00 to $2.50 per cwt.

No hog sales were made up to 11 a.m. with packers bidding $3.40 F.O.B. for bacons, $3.65 off truck, and $3.90 off cars. Salesmen are asking 10c per cwt. higher.

Lambs opened unchanged at $4.50 per cwt. for choice and at $3.50 to $3.75 for culls. Good to choice sheep brought $2.00 to $2.50 per cwt.

SILVER AT NEW YORK

New York, June 28 (CP)—Bar silver steady and unchanged at 34¼.

FINANCIAL MARKETS
NEW YORK TORONTO WINNIPEG

Wheat Prices Crash Over Five Cents a Bushel Owing to Heavy Rains—Cold Stocks Unsettled by News From London—Prices Climb on Toronto Board Against Falling Wheat Market.

Winnipeg, June 28 (CP) — Rain over North American wheat growing areas today crashed wheat futures prices down more than five cents on the Winnipeg grain exchange and left them with losses and gains of the past few days more than halved at the close.

Wheat for delivery in July closed at 74⅞, October at 77 and December at 78, a closing range of 4¾ to 5¾ cents lower.

TORONTO EXCHANGE

Toronto, June 28 (CP)—Gathering momentum as it goes along, the bull movement was in complete control of the Toronto Stock Exchange today for the third wild session. Turnover again broke all records. The closing was easier, however.

While in the final hour some parting of values followed the downward thrust in the wheat pits, prices were still above yesterday's close, particularly in the distilling issues. Walker crossed 40 for the first time and ended about a point under that figure for a 3 point gain.

Distillers Seagram and Canadian Industrial Alcohol were about two points better.

A feature of the market was the strength in oils which pushed through for point gains and held practically all the increase at the close. Imperial, British American and McColl Frontenac all advanced up more than a point.

Pressed Metals was picked out for a five point rise on rumors that General Motors was interested in it.

Cockshutt and Massey Harris were drawn from their tops in line with wheat.

Perspiring brokers, working in their shirt sleeves, strove to keep abreast of the flood of orders which continued without abatement during the session. Outside influences were disregarded for most of the day as the exchange continued to climb against an uncertain wheat market, which subsequently broke, and profit taking which shaved prices in New York.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:
Wheat—July 74⅞; Oct. 77; Dec. 78.

Rye—July 60 3-8; Oct. 62 1-4; Dec. 65 1-4.

Barley—July 43 1-4; Oct. 45 3-4; Dec. 46 7-8.

Produce Market

Toronto, June 28 (CP)—The following quotations on produce delivered at Toronto were supplied by the United Farmers' Co-operative Co. today:

Eggs—Extras 18c doz., firsts 13c doz., seconds (cracked) 10c doz.

Churning Cream—Special 23c (P.O.B.) 19c lb., No. 1 (off truck) 19c lb., No. 2 15c lb.

Butter—No. 1 (solids) 19¼c lb., No. 2 (solids) 18¾c lb.

Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick potatoes, per bag, $1.50. New Ontario potatoes, per barrel, $7.50.

Dealers prices on hand-picked beans, in car lots, per bushel (P.O.B.) at point of shipment, $1.85.

BAR SILVER

LONDON, June 28.—(AP)—Bar silver down 1-8 lower at 18 15-16d.

MONEY BOX

Exchange rates at noon today were: Pound sterling in Montreal 4.74; U. S. dollar in Montreal, 1.19 1/16; pound sterling in New York, 4.31½, Canadian dollar in New York, 85c, Canadian dollar in Paris, 18.18 francs; U. S. dollar in Paris, 19.96 francs.

Storm Racing from Trinidad

Miami, Fla., June 28—(AP)—The United States Weather Bureau here issued the following at 11.30 a.m.

"Advisory 11 a.m. from Washington tropical disturbance of great strength and extent will cross either apparently moving northwestward about 100 miles west of Port of Spain, Trinidad."

Steel Production Stands at 53 P. C.

New York, June 28—(AP)—Steel production has risen three points to 53 per cent of capacity, "Iron Age" said today. The upward swing was interrupted for a time during the first of March when operations touched 14 per cent. It was one of the features of the industry's history.

The rise this week will give steel trade's recovery, said the publication, appears to be over.

NAPANEE BOY PASSES COUNCIL

The name of R. L. Empey, Napanee, appears in Weekly No. 17 of those who passed the examinations of the Dominion Medical Council held throughout Canada.

PROBE JUNGLE FOR TRACES

Belleville House "Open" Though Left Closed by Owners

Apparently frustrated in attempts to burglarize the home of Mrs. Carter, 219 McDonald Ave., unidentified burglars made a quick exit through a rear door of the Carter home as Mrs. Carter's daughter, returned home early Wednesday morning to find all of the doors of the home open.

When the family left home Tues. day evening all doors of the house had been securely locked except the front door which was locked, although not locked. When Miss Carter returned found the front door standing ajar. Upon further investigation the young lady accentained that a rear door which had been left securely locked, was open and nothing was disturbed although the persons had been beating a hasty retreat.

Provincial Constable Kelly investigated the case and although nothing of value was reported missing from the Carter home the officer is of the opinion that the intruders in the Carter home where numerous articles of value were displayed. No evidence or any of the transient "hobo" in the "jungle" having been connected with the burglary could be established.

TOO FAR FROM RAIN TO RAIN

Parasitic Laboratory Records Show Long Drought Periods

Despite the fact that this summer season appears to be a record one for dryness, sndwich at rain, statistics of the official weather bureau at the Dominion Parasitic Laboratory, prove that more actual rainfall has been recorded in other years than last. During the early spring months, however, a record was made for amount of precipitation received. This present month of June, also, has been credited with no less than one inch of rainfall so far. The "dog days" of August, officials of the bureau, "the periods between showers," have been attended ones."

The only good rainfall received in this district was recorded on June 2nd, when 1.25 inches fell and a total of rain fell. Since then only a few scattered showers have been received, exchange reports.

Tables showing the amount of rain received at the Parasitic Laboratory since that April 1st 1-2 inch fell. On April 17th, 3-4 inches. May 2nd 1-2 inch, May 24th 1-2 inch, June 3rd 1-2 inch.

This year, April almost broke the record with nine inches of rain. May totalled three quarter inches and this present month of June

Proclamation
PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Owing to the fact that July 1st, observed as a Public Holiday throughout the Dominion, falls on Saturday, and, as the Merchants of the City have decided to close their places of business on Monday, July 3rd, I would respectfully request that all citizens observe Monday, July 3rd, as a Public Holiday, instead of Saturday, July 1st.

GEO. O. TICE, MAYOR

jne. 28, 30

For Rent Furnished
For July and August

TWO FINE HOMES—ONE ON EAST HILL AND ONE ON THE WEST HILL.

All Conveniences—Reasonable Rent—Very Comfortable

Belleville Locators

GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.

'PHONE 90 HOUSE 'PHONE 637

Marriage Will Unite Two Great British Houses

The Earl of Warwick and his fiancee, Miss Rose Bingham, as they were leaving the Hotel Ritz just after luncheon. The young man's title is one of the oldest in England, and his fiancee is a daughter of Lady Rosabelle Brand, and a granddaughter of the Earl of Rosslyn. The engagement is shortly to be announced officially.

UNCLE AND NEPHEW MAY MEET ABROAD

Both Are Visiting in Scotland at Present Time

A fortnight ago Alderman C. C. Walker, noted in the "Personal Column" of the "Belleville Gazette" as item asking for information regarding, "Robert Boyle, former principal of the Belleville Business College, Montreal," a nephew of Mr., Boyle, Mr. Allan Boyle, who had lived in South Africa, a number of years, now in Scotland, was endeavouring to get in touch with his uncle, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyle are at present in Scotland on a visit, to Alderman Walker forwarded the clipping to Mr. Boyle there. Doubtless a happy meeting of uncle and nephew will take place in the land of heather and kilts, in the very near future, thanks to Mr. Walker's discovery of the item and his subsequent kindly action.

TUG STILL FAST ON SHOAL IN BAY

Still hard and fast on a shoal near Nigger Island in the Bay of Quinte since early this morning, the large steam tug, "Foundations Maravel", owned by the Foundations Company of Montreal, was waiting today for the large tug, "Salvage Prince" of Kingston, to move her. A smaller tug owned by the MacDonald Dredging Company, also of this city, had tried late Tuesday afternoon without success to get the larger tug loose. The "Margaret" had been on her way back to Toronto from Montreal, where she has been employed for some time on harbor work in that city.

NOVA SCOTIA CAR RUNS INTO DITCH

A minor car accident took place Wednesday, east of Shannonville when an automobile driven by Jack Irving, Montreal, left the highway and crashed into a culvert.

Irving was driving for a Mr. G. A. Hapin of Nova Scotia, when the car got out of control. The front of the vehicle, including the left front wheel, radiator and front axle were badly damaged. The driver and Mr. Hapin sustained minor cuts and bruises.

300 LEGAL CASES "WAITING"

Toronto, June 28 (CP)—Nearly 300 cases will be on the "ready list" when civil courts commence their long autumn sittings, Chief Justice Mulock declared today. In fact, he said, the congestion of business among members of the judiciary and the demand for judges for the various outlying city courts makes it impossible to carry out the plan of holding two terms per county.

GIFTS MADE TO PRINCIPAL

Mr. M. W. Mott Honored by Scholars at Q. A. SCHOOL

When teachers and pupils were assembled in the Auditorium of Queen Alexandra School on Tuesday, for opening exercises, Margaret Houston, a pupil in the Senior Room came to the platform with one of the teachers.

On behalf of the boys and girls of the room, the Principal, Mr. M. W. Mott, an address and presented to him a very beautiful house coat, a pretty pair of slippers and other very useful articles.

Principal Mott was very much taken by surprise and found it difficult to express his appreciation to the pupils in the school.

Mr. Mott retires at the close of the present term after long and useful service in the schools of Belleville.

The address follows:

"Mr. Mott:

"The staff and pupils of Queen Alexandra School, both those of us who are just commencing school life as well as those of us who have graduated from this school this year, take this opportunity of our respect and admiration for your long and successful career as our principal and your untiring efforts on our behalf as you have accept this small gift.

We hope that when you wear them they will remind you of your association with the school and the high regards in which we hold you. We know that there are few principals who have worked so hard and unstringly as you have for Queen Alexandra, both as principal and teacher and that there are countless young men and women, who owe a successful start in their school life to you.

"We are sorry you are leaving us but wish you many years of happiness and prosperity."

GOLF

Women players of Belleville Golf Club defeated Colarossi Club of Picton by 10 points to 5 here visited here yesterday. The results of the games were:

Kingston—Miss Mitchell 2; Mrs. McCallum 0; Mrs. McIntosh 1; Mrs. Hodges ½; Mrs. Austin 1; Miss Rooke 2; Miss Stacy 0; Miss Jackson 0; Miss M. Mahood 3; Miss E. Mahood 0.

Belleville—Mrs. Reeves 1; Mrs. Hennessy 2; Mrs. Allen 2; Mrs. Patterson 2; Mrs. Scott 0; Mrs. Train 3; Mrs. Parker 2; Mrs. Temple 0; Mrs.

GRACIE ALLEN

Gracie Allen is going literary. She's snapped using the dictaphone that the cave old fashion that we have come to expect of the young lady. She'll probably be telling you all about it one of these Wednesday

TICKELL & BROWNE
Clarence W. Browne
Orland A. Flinkton
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON
FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 62 — 228 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 1313

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
219-221 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2065
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. IRELAND
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

MONUMENTS
A. C. Campbell
General Craftsman
21 Bridge West Ave. Belleville

PHONE 1340
BELLEVILLE-MADOC BUS
Leaves Madoc Daily 9 A.M.
Belleville 5.30 P.M.
5.30 P.M
Parcel Express Orders Called for and Delivered.
E. STAPLEY—Phone 1340

BUSINESS LINERS

FARMERS ATTENTION!

Carload of Club Twine. Lowest cash price. Club every billed. Order early. Foxboro Mill or J. E. Morgan, Foxboro. 127-21

EXPERIMENTAL PEAR SHIPMENTS SUCCEED

Montreal, June 28.—Experimental shipments of Australian pears to Canada promise to develop this year into a regular trade, reports Canadian Fruit News. Shipments, whose ship "Canadian Constructor" landed Quebec, went to markets in Quebec and Ontario. More are to follow due to success of this consignment of Australian fruit, there would have been no room on the Canadian market at that particular time.

THE TERRIERS'

SCRAPBOARD APPEAL

Montreal, June 28.—Please lead us out every morning and feed and water us. Then we will wag and thank you." These quaint instructions were painted in large letters on the two doors containing three thoroughbred wire-haired fox terriers aboard the Canadian National Steamer "Clidmedy" which docked here from Montreal for Puerto Rico. The dogs had as trayelling companions a pair of Siamese cats, five turkeys, one of which signalized the departure of the vessel with a gobble.

DOMINION DAY BROADCAST

Ottawa, June 28 (CP)—Sir George Perley, acting Prime Minister; Hon. Hugh Guthrie, King, leader of the Opposition, and Hon. Arthur Sauve, Minister General will participate in a special Dominion Day coast to coast broadcast which has been arranged by the Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission for Saturday, July 1.

The intense cold of space is believed to be at absolute zero—minus 273 degrees centigrade.

Classified Ad. Rates
PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, 1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $2.00; In Memoriam, $1.00; Memorial Poetry, minimum charge $1.00 for 16 lines, 5c per line for each additional line. Local Items Receiving Announcements, minimum charge 25c per insertion.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1½c per word each for the first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions ½c per word per insertion.

COMING EVENTS—2c per line for each 7 words or less. Minimum charge 25c per insertion.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—Yearly Contract $5.00 per month, 50c per week.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT ADVERTISING—Rates 10c per agate line 114 lines to the inch for first insertion; 5c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—$2.00 per week, including no count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for the consecutive insertions, 2c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ads; when it is convenient. PHONE 99.

The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of Want Ads unless notice is given.

Advertisers may have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

HOUSEKEEPING POSITION wanted by refined Canadian girl, boy 3 years old. Write Box H, Intelligencer. 126-tf.

ALSIKE CLOVER COULD HANDle a limited quantity, as reasonable cash price. Write Box 30, Bishop & Son, Belleville, Ont. 126-21

lavinol shall caeiol shridui shrdu HAVE WITH YOU TO HANDLE OUR business locally. Good pay and opportunity. Experience allowance. Write immediately. Rawleigh's Dept. Co., Peterboro. 128-31

WANTED TO RENT FROM April 1st, for two weeks. Write Box P, Ontario Intelligencer, stating terms, size, etc. 127-21

PARK HAND SINGLE; ABLE and capable for all farm work. Non-smoker and light hand milker preferred. Please give reference and state wages for four months with board if satisfactory. Could be payable at end of term. Box K, Ontario Intelligencer. 127-21

WORK WANTED

CARPENTERING AND PAPER hanging and painting all kinds. Geo. Gerow 161 Church Street. 127-6t.

POSITION BY WOMAN (30) EXperienced in all kinds of housekeeping and care of children. Apply Box T, Ontario Intelligencer. 126-3t.

TO-LET

FRONT STREET APARTMENT for business man or woman, keeping, corner Victoria Avenue. Apply Mrs. Marsaka, 'Phone 1338 128-31

FURNISHED COTTAGE AT WELlington. Electric, Canadian, New awnings. Electricity. Apply to F. Cooke, Glebe, Fairview Park, Toronto or Belleville 704. 126-2t

GOOD SIZED COTTAGE AT Consecon Lake, commencing last week of July or last three weeks in August. Apply to Mrs. Sullivan, Box 171 Marmora, 'phone 12. 126-tf

23 EARL ST. 6 ROOMS AND bath, Garage. Possession July 1st. Apply 25 Earl St. Montreal 126-tf

APARTMENT, MODERN CONveniences electric stove in kitchen, 2 rooms, 2 bedrooms, 1611F, between 5.30 p.m. and 7. 128-2t

PARTIALLY FURNISHED 3 ROOM cottage, 3 miles from Belleville, south shore Bay of Quinte for the season. Apply M. Roy Anderson, R.R.1, Belleville. 127-3t

FRONT BEDROOM AND SITting room furnished. Also small 10 George street. 'Phone 361M. 127-3t

SEVERAL TWO OR THREE room apartments. Rent reasonable. Apply at Arnold Bros. Wear. 123-tf.

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and 2 Modern conveniences 11 Albion St. or call 908J. 122-tf

MODERN APARTMENT, STEAM heated, electric stove and store, hardwood floors. Apply to Ontario Intelligencer. 122-tf

HOUSE WEATHER APARTMENT Every convenience Immediate possession. Apply Oak Grange Front St. 'Phone 1579. 425-tf

ROOM APARTMENT HEATED or otherwise, electric stove electric refrigerator hardwood floor Garage Apply 57 or Thursday 104 Dundas St. W Phone 849W 123-tf

FOR SALE

200 BARRED ROCK CHICKS. Ready June 30th. 9c. Phone 1-r-1, Tyendinaga Mohawk Settlement. 128-1t

MOTORCYCLE IN GOOD CONdition. Cheap. Arthur E. Wesc, 1 mile south of Consecon. 127-3t

ORTHOPHONIC VICTROLA. Cheap. 218 Coleman street. 127-2t

LOST

BETWEEN QUICK AND ROBERTson and Bridge street, sum of money. Finder kindly return to this office. Reward. 126-1t

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, EAVESTROUGHING
General Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1277
jl-12m.

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLicitor, Notary Public, etc., Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-tf.

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public. Solicitors for Royal Bank. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: 319 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners, etc. Offices: 26 Bridge Street East. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on real estate. Offices: Robert K.C., R. D. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham. Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. S. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 38 Bridge West E., K. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

R. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiant rays reveals all diseases in the early stages. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or with board if satisfactory. Belleville. Picton, Tuesdays and Fridays.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
(Graduate Chiropractors)
Phone Belleville Service
42½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1276 Belleville, Ont

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S.
DR. R. CHARLES ADAMS, M.D.C.M.
Wellington X-Ray Equipment at office.
Office Hours:
8 to 10 a.m. 1 to 3 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle Street, Belleville
Phone 271 ok-8m.

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1603
A. L. HARVEY, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Forin St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. F. H. Willis, Branch Manager. mh-12-

FRASER ALLYESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyors and Registered Professional Civil Engineers. Plans and Reports. Descriptions, etc. promptly attended to. PHONE 2-W or BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1364 137 Front St.

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
157 Front St.
Phone 1364 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 138

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 1154W

Spying on Sports

BY

William Ritt

Central Press Canadian

THE TWINKLING wheels of sinder-thin sulkies and the clop-clop of sharp-gaited sparring hooves on Cleveland's North Randall track Saturday, July 1, will usher in 1933's Grand Circuit season and, incidentally, celebrate that ancient racing ally, orchestra and concert wheel's sixtieth anniversary.

Backers of the Grand Circuit—the "Roaring Grand" as its followers prefer to call it—expect a pretty good season with Hambletonian, leading Cleveland fair, Detroit Memorial and Tavern premier events to entertainment for the sulky sport supporters.

x x x

AT NORTH RANDALL a list of brilliant two-year-old prospects will make their bow into the big wheel. These include Calumet's Hanover, Bertha G. Hanover, Hanover, Hollywood Sheriff, Harvey Spencer, Reynold Mansfield, Sunny Mack and Tha Gem.

Sir Raleigh and Spencer McElwyn, favorites in trotting's classic, the Hambletonian, $50,000 stake event to be run at Chicago, on Aug. 16, will battle it out in the Champion Stallion event.

The star pair are also eligible for the Matron in which race they may meet such star speeders as Calumet mare, Hollywood Portia, Bobby Donald, Hollywood Betty and Mary Reynolds.

After North Randall, the trotters and pacers move to Fort Miami (Toledo) July 10. In August they will be in Goshen and in September in Lexington, Ky.

x x x

THOUGH RACE FANS who follow the sport are inclined to ignore the trotters and pacers, the sulky boasts a colorful descendant of the chariot races of ancient Rome and more exciting than the

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

We just got a hot tip that the season's outstanding softball game is scheduled for this evening when the local barbers tangle with Chief Lynch's firemen. Will it be a case of—you'll have to call the department to get the side out?—Even if Assistant Fire Chief Gerald Vanek is there, the men hairdressers entered in the local city league last year that does not mean to say that "Tiny" Sullivan and "Larney" Bennett have not got an ace or a deuce, up their sleeve. The game is scheduled to be played at Queen Mary School grounds right after supper. By special request of Freddie Symons and Art Skinner, no soft boiled tomatoes or ancient hen fruit will be allowed on or near the diamond. So let 'em against a good sized brick, though.

Wilmer Hillock, trainer of the Orr Bros. stable (Hillock's Little Stables) has shipped his crack pacer, Vernon McKinney to Orangeville for a big $500.00 stake race that is scheduled to be run off on Friday. Mr. Hillock is leaving Catherine Station and Mr. Harold Orr is leaving Belleville, but this other two crack horses at Port Hope on his way westward. On Saturday Mr. Hillock is planning on returning to Port Hope with the Quinte Stables' best and completing a day's racing with all three head home there. On Sunday all three will be shipped to Napanee for Monday race meet there. Incidentally this is big stake race at Orangeville is to be a $.10 pacer.

Despite the intense hot weather which has been the order of the day for the past week, we understand that a large delegation of local fight lovers have secured ringside seats for tomorrow night's all-star boxing show which is being staged at the Trenton Airport. Flying Officer Laurie Wray who is in charge of all sports at the Trenton Airport has completed final arrangements for the bouts. So as to enable the fans a little coolness the officers will throw open the large doors at both ends of the large hangar in which the bouts are being held. By so doing a current of air will be circulated through the building. Eleven bouts are being presented with the main bout of the evening bringing together Jimmie Loonard of the Airport and former middle-weight champion of Ontario, in the ring against Ken Robinson, the present welterweight champion of this province.

On the surface it looks as though the local girls' softball league is headed towards a rather drastic climax. "Shorty" Harrell's champion Belleville Fruit club is far too strong for the weaker Maple Leafs and South End A.C. teams. Two seasons ago there were enough young feminine ballsters to stand out five fairly good teams whereby the fans were assured of a close tilt each playing night. Now it is different all the players, who wish to continue playing softball, are confined to one club. No league can exist with such conditions.

Out of a class of some twenty who have been receiving special swimming instruction at the Y.M.C.A. thirteen were successful in passing their Beginners Test recently. Several others who were absent will be given another opportunity to take the test. Those who were successful in graduating from the non-swimmers class were as follows: .. Jimmy Johnson, William Gerrie, Gordon Griffin, Arthur Griffin, Barnie Carlyle, William McKeechie, Marion Hitchen, Andrew Martin, Joseph Pritchard, Kenneth Ingram, Billy Gordon, Jack Howe William Gordon. These boys will have as their next objective the swimmer's test which comprises swimming 50 ft. on the back in 75 seconds or less, swimming a hundred yds. free style in 1 minute 55 secs. or less and also do not standing dive well enough to score 7 out of 10 points. The local which three boys are preparing for are part of the standardized programme as outlined in the newly published Canadian A.C.W.A. Swimming, Diving and Life Saving Manual which from now on will be the regular text for all Canadian Associations.

Ralph Metcalfe's title of the "world's fastest human," handed down from Charley Paddock to Eddie Tolan is Metcalfe will be endangered in the track and field championships at Chicago Friday night. Metcalfe has been set for the world's record for every standard sprinting distance by his heels, but the Marquette negro will have to run like he never ran before to conquer Ben Johnson, lithe Cleveland negro, in the 100 metres.

Matchmaker Joe Corcoran dropped in the editorial room this a.m. on his way eastward to inform us that next Wednesday night's wrestling card has been arranged.

DANNY MAC PAYDEN, who has failed to come though, may soon clinch elsewhere than Yankee Stadium. Danny cost the Giants $50,000 Henry Johnson, Ivy Paul Andrews—and a headache.

WILD BILL HALLAHAN, Cardinal southpaw, played in four leagues and 22 ball parks during the 1924 season. Which made him—until the Reconstruction Finance corporation was organized, the greatest boon to railroads in history.

A woodpecker pecks to digest a nest and to obtain food; he drums for pleasure or to call other birds of the same species.

BRITISH STAR—Sheila Hewitt, shown in action, is one of England's most promising young net stars

SIDNEY WINS FROM ROSLIN

Third Consecutive Victory in a Week is Recorded

With a large crowd of cheering fans in attendance, the Sidney Sluggers brought down a crushing victory over Roslin last Friday evening. Sidney defeating the visitors on their own diamond by 26 to 6. This game makes Sidney's third consecutive win in a week. Never have the Sluggers shown better form from start to finish. It was a case of good batting and smart fielding. M. McNab in left field received the lion's share of the fun which he handled with a deftness that was remarkable.

Charlie Ross, with the bat, showed them how it was done by making the most runs in the game. Also Gerald Irwin proved his ability by breaking a brand new bat with a terrific drive. The Sidney team defeated the Sixth Concession last Thursday evening in a five innings game with the score of 12 to 6. Five innings only were counted on account of the Sixth Concession refusing to play the latter half of the seventh inning.

FRUIT LASSIES SCORE AGAIN

Maple Leafs Defeated by Score of 18 to 8

Leo Barrett's Belleville Fruit ladies continued their uninterrupted march towards another league title by defeating the lowly Maple Leafs by the score of 18 to 8 at the armouries last night.

Completely outclassed in every department, the Maple Leafs battled gamely back in the face of defeat to pull up on even terms with the Domenico-manager crew along about the sixth frame only to see the fruiters register a belated batting rally to pound out a win.

"Tiny" Morgan was on the hilltop for the winners and hurled her usual steady game. Home runs were registered by the winners when Doris Bland and Beryl Bowbotham popped the pellett over the fence twice for the circuit. Captain Helen Gandy had four hits including a double, while Muriel Leavey collected three singles. G. Means of the Leafs hit for the circuit. M. Martin also hit over the fence.

The win gives the Fruit lassies ten victories in as many starts while the Leafs have yet to register on the column that for this season.

Maple Leafs — Munville, Martin, Gilday, Kenny, Auchinleck, Rushton, Goldrey, White and Young.

Belleville Fruit — Tuttle, Leavey, Thrasher, Bland, Bowbotham, Graham, Gray, Canning and Morgan.

Score by innings:

Belleville Fruit 213 020 226—18 20 0
Maple Leafs .. 102 001 004—8 14 6

Umpires—Clapper and Pointer.

GOLF FACTS

NOT THEORIES!

By

Alex J. Morrison

Backswing should be just as long as follow through

ALEX MORRISON says:

The golfer who plays golf seems to think that if they produce a good long backswing through the shot will be all right.

It isn't so much how looking picture but if the backswing is not right the ball cannot possibly travel the proper distance.

The first step toward making the backswing correct is to produce just as much swing back of the ball as you make forward of it.

And it's quite long enough that the ball should be struck near the center of the swing and not when you've just made about a third of your swing.

The action should be evenly divided on both sides of the ball.

NEXT—Three feet of club is ball.

TENNIS

Wimbledon, Eng., June 28.—(AP)—Helen Jacobs, United States tennis champion, today advanced to the third round of the Wimbledon championships with a 6-1, 6-3 victory over Miss J. Saunders, unranked British player.

Mrs. Dorothy Round Little Burke of Stamford, Conn., kept pace with Miss Jacobs by defeated Miss D. H. Crichton, also of England, in a second round match 6-4, 6-2.

50 YEARS PROVEN QUALITY

Peg Top 5¢

BETWEEN INNINGS

HAL SCHUMACHER, Giants' curve architect, has made all the other National league darb horses look like the old gray mare by fitting them with a series of horse collars. He has five whitewashings to his credit.

x x x

FRANK PRISCH received a sultry cut; it is said, of 50 per cent and the Cardinal infielder is playing twice as well as he did in 1932, all of which perhaps proves that the star second sacker is an amateur at heart.

x x x

RABBIT MARANVILLE is at last on the Boston Braves' bench but the ancient infielder shouldn't be ashamed of that. Most ball players at his age are on benches—with wheels under them.

x x x

PIE TRAYNAD, the Pirates gentlemanly third baseman, was ejected from a game the other day—for the second time in his long, long career. Maybe Umpire Dolly Quigley, who pointed to the exit, thought Pie deserved a vacation.

x x x

DAZZY VANCE believes that one of the secrets of his success was that he did not break into the big leagues until he was 28. Maybe, but it certainly was the secret of the success of some of the pennant winners who played against Brooklyn this first major team before he broke in.

x x x

FREDDIE LINDSTROM, age 28 is believed to be burned out because he played big league ball at 18. Ty Cobb, another kid who came up at 18, also didn't last very long—just 24 years.

The first National Park Yellowstone, was established in 1872.

BRITISH CHAMPION

The Honorable Michael Scott

The Honorable Michael Scott at 55 is the oldest player ever to win the British amateur golf championship. He won the title at Hoylake, England, by beating Thomas Bourn 3 up. who was an infant when Michael was first winning championships in Australia nearly 30 years ago.

CONTENDERS THREATENED FOR LEADERS

Cards Suffer Fourth Defeat in Boston by Pitching

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Second division clubs of the Major Leagues have been dipping their thumb into the pennant pie in the past week or so with results that were costly to two of the leading contenders for first place.

After being outslugged by the Phillies in three out of four games, the Cards went to Boston resterday and ran into an unbeatable brand of pitching that gave them their fourth defeat. Leo Mangum, who hadn't started a game since early May, blanked the Cards with six hits, only two of them solid swats, to beat Bill Walker in a brilliant pitchers' duel 1-0.

Although Boston recorded its sixth victory in seven games, Brooklyn Dodgers kept pace with the Braves, remaining in a virtual tie for fifth place by trouncing Cincinnati Reds 11-2. The Dodgers started fast, scoring 10 runs off Si Johnson and Ray Kolp in the first three innings. The Phillies and Chicago were idle.

Washington Senators lost half of their American League lead over the Yankees when the ninth-inning wildness of Jim Mcdonald and Jack Russell gave Cleveland two runs and a 7-6 decision, while the Yanks nosed out Detroit's Tigers 3-8.

COMEDY AND CRIME IN MERRY ENGLISH PLAY AT CAPITOL

How the machinations of a gang of crooks are frustrated by a wily Yankee crime-chaser and his servant-sweetheart forms the theme of "Letting In the Enemy," the attraction at the Capitol Theatre today until Friday.

Albert Burdon, sitting in the uniform of the Marines with Queen Elizabeth's Company, romps his way thru this merry mix-up with humorous freedom and ease, while the gang demoralizing the crooks but reaches the funny bone of the audience time after time.

He discovers that Dorine a dancing instructress, who is, in reality, a jewel thief, has designs on a famous diamond necklace in the possession of Lady Anne Warminster when Dorine is partnering her in a specialty dance during the Warminster masquerade, to be held in honor of a royal visitor.

With the help of Renee Gadoi, who is his stalwart assistant, Albert in Dorine's lodgings, Burdon is able to thwart the thefts when they occur, but on the night of the ball the gang gain admittance while the unfortunate Burdon is engaged in a dance specialty. However they "effect an entrance" and Burdon is on hand to be in the imagination!

Supporting Burdon and Renee in this rollicking comedy-romance is Molly Lamont, who as the Lady Warminster, contributes a specialty dance in which she is partnered by Henry Bingham. Other leading parts view Eric le Pre, Tonie Bruce, Ethel Wright, Hubert Langley and Henry Longhurst support them and the whole film, directed by Lupino Lane, is replete with "let in the sunshine."

Harry Langdon in "The Hitch Hiker." Curiosities and Canadian News complete the programme.

Selection Night

There will be Wedgewood "Richelieu" Dinnerware Selection Gift Night on Friday. Ladies wishing to do so may secure Dish Gift at the matinee by paying the evening admission.

Essays

All children competing in the essay contest for Owen, free rights of way to the Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp must have their essays in by Thursday noon at the very latest.

MUCH TALKED OF GEORGE RAFT IN VINA DELMAR STORY

Sylvia Sidney and George Raft appear together for the first time on the screen in Vina Delmar's story, "Now and Forever," in this writer's powerful production "Penal Girl." The picture which opens at the Belle Tomorrow (Thursday), is a tender human story of a girl who goes to the shot through with thrills and tragedy, and made real by Vina Delmar's clever writing.

The story of "Now and Forever," a B. P. Schulberg production is the story of a girl, released from prison to child's welfare, Still behind the bars is her husband, whom she defends, after a murder charge. Once out, the girl finds herself facing circumstances. She meets a taxi driver achieves a fondness for him which ripens into love, and has to refuse to marry him because of her previous marriage.

Through her encouragement the taxi driver goes into the garage business waxing prosperous. Becoming society-minded, he starts chasing a wealthy girl, only to discover when almost too late, that his first girl is the one who really matters.

In a series of dramatic scenes the picture moves swiftly to its conclusion bringing in the girl's husband, who has escaped prison to reclaim his wife. The story builds to an exciting climax, in which the love of the girl and her man is threatened. It is a dramatic tale of power to which Sylvia Sidney and George Raft contribute what are probably their finest performances.

Like Vina Delmar's "Bad Girl," "Now and Forever" has the same poignant appeal. In the rare beauty of Miss Sidney's playing, the support of George Raft, and the able direction of Marion Geering, its characters emerge real people who tug at your heartstrings.

Three Short Gems

"Plumber and The Lady," a very funny Mack Sennett Star comedy. Speaking of Operations," a gorgeous tuneful musical revue, and "42nd Street." The smash musical hit of 1933, closes its engagement at the Belle Tonight, boasting 14 clever 50 featured players, and 200 dazzling girls.

Quick & Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

For a Plunge Into Beach SMARTNESS Choose Your Swim Suit Here

Rush of Money to Back Mammoth Italian Seen

By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer

New York, June 28—For the first time in boxing history a heavyweight champion may enter the ring a short-ender in the betting when Jack Sharkey ducks under the ropes in Madison Square Garden's Long Island Bowl tomorrow night for his 15-round title defense against Primo Carnera.

Today champion Jack was a 1are 6 to 5 choice with some quarters as low as 11 to 10 and there were strong indications Carnera would be no worse than a dangerous puncher.

Even money bet, and perhaps a slight favorite, by fight time.

Just what has caused the rush of money on the mammoth Italian's chances had even the bookmakers mystified, but it seemed possible Carnera's knockout victory over ill-fated Ernie Schaaf, as well as Sharkey's inactivity, may have played an important part. Schaaf, knocked out in the 15th round of the match with Carnera at the Garden Feb. 10, died of inflammation of the brain four days later. The outcome of that match, apparently, has left the customers to tag Carnera a dangerous puncher.

Belle Canadian Newsreel, with its up-to-the-minute events are announced for exhibition on the same program.

Thursday is Treasure Night at the Belle, when ten surprise gifts including a beautiful walnut-secretary bookcase will be presented to patrons.

On Thursday evening at 9 p.m., Mayor Tice on behalf of the Kiwanis Club will reopen the seals on the watch and announce the winner of free trip to the Chicago World's Fair, or the cash equivalent.

"42nd Street" Tonight

"42nd Street," the smash musical hit of 1933, closes its engagement at the Belle Tonight, boasting 14 clever featured players, and 200 dazzling girls.

OUT AT SECOND—Demaree, (Cubs) is out at second, Ryan (Giants) is safe. Critz on a forceout

George Raft and Sylvia Sidney are co-starred in Paramount's new Vina Delmar story, "NOW AND FOREVER" coming to the Belle To-morrow.

GOLF?

Suits, Knickers, Socks, Caps, and Sweaters

CHAS. J. SYMONS

206 Front St. Phone 53

KI-Y SOFTBALL

Three games were played in the midget section of the Ki-Y Softball League last evening when the Q.V.S. Cubs defeated the S.E.A.C. kids by the score of 19 to 5, the Midgets won from the Maple Leafs 31 to 2 and the Maroons beat the "Y" Bruins 8 to 3.

The most interesting game of the evening was played at Queen Alexandra School grounds where the "Y" Bruins were downed by the Maroons by the score of 8 to 3. Down at the Cricket Field the Q.V.S. Cubs romped home to a 19 to 5 win over the S.E.A.C. kids while at Queen Mary School grounds the Midgets swamped the Maple Leafs 31 to 2 in a rather one-sided game.

At Q.V.S.—

"Y" Bruins .. 0 0 0 2 0 1 0—3 runs
Maroons .. 3 0 2 2 0 0 —8 runs
Umpire—Buchanan.

At the Cricket Field—

S.E.A.C. .. 0 0 1 1 0 3 0— 5 runs
Q.V.S. Cubs. 7 0 2 2 4 4 —19 runs
Umpires—Sanderson and Hinton.

At K.G.S.—

Maple Leafs.. 0 1 1 0 0 0 0— 2 runs
Midgets.... 7 6 5 4 3 6 —31 runs

COUNTY NEWS

ARE DELEGATES TO CONVENTION OF WOMEN'S SOCIETIES

SIDNEY CROSSING— Mrs. S. Stafford spent Tuesday last with relatives in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jones and family of Bayside, called on friends in this neighborhood on Thursday evening.

A few of the ladies from here, attended the Ladies' Aid Convention held in Belleville on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. A. Page has returned home after spending the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Hogle, Belleville.

The regular monthly meeting of the Alkins' Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. T. A. Hubbard on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. Ketcheson spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. Hamilton.

Mr. George Saylor and Eleanor, Myra Rose, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Saylor.

Mrs. M. Keating attended Alkins' Church on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Sexsmith and Eddie, took dinner on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hogle and family.

Mrs. Richard Eggleton spent the less hour on Friday last, with her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Morrison.

Friends and neighborhood were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Frank Bateman, Belleville, on Sunday. He was a former resident in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jeffrey and Grace, also Mrs. Bruce Hogle, called at the home of Mrs. Jennie Hogle, Belleville, on Sunday evening.

A large number attended Alkins' Church on Sunday morning, with much regret to hear Rev. E. B. Sexsmith's farewell sermon, as he is moving to Harrowsmith.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brickman also Miss Irene Grills attended the Brickman-Holmes wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Fourth Concession.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jeffrey and family also Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jeffrey and children of Oshawa, visited at the home of Mr. A. Page on Saturday evening.

NILES' CORNERS WEEKLY NEWS

NILES CORNERS — Miss Beryl Mallory of Trenton, is visiting her cousin, the Lunn family here.

Saturday is the birthday of the day, the funeral of the late Elizabeth Strickland on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended. "Aunt Bessie" as all called her, is much loved and respect by all, will be greatly missed.

The Anniversary Services and Supper at Rose Hall United Church were a great success.

Mr. T. Fillingham of Rose Hall and Mr. A. N. Dafoe spent Thursday morning at Trenton.

Trevor Herron of Hillier, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. Fred Mallory of Trenton, called to see his niece, Mrs. H. Lunn on Friday last.

Mrs. Geo. Newson, Sr., of Rosehall, visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellis on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McPaul entertained relatives on Sunday.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL GREATLY ENJOYED

3RD AMELIASBURG — The ice cream social which was given in the school house under the auspices of Adams' Sunday School was well patronized indeed. Over thirty dollars was realized. The program was varied and interesting and the generous lunch given with the ice cream was very much enjoyed. Congratulations to the Superintendent, Blakely and the assistants are due.

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn Adams and Keith spent Sunday at Albury with Mrs. Lettie Allison and Mr. and Mrs Lorne Weese.

Mr. Percy Hayes is trucking green beans to Consaves factory for Arthur Ellis.

Mr. Edgar Alyea is spending this week with Mr. John Bos, Marshall Road.

Mrs. Annie Calnan of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Edgar Alyea.

Mrs. Gordon Boyle is quite indisposed. We hope she may soon be better.

Mr. Orwell Carrington and wife and family returned to their home in Oshawa on Thursday after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Morley Carrington and Mrs. Etta Elvin.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. DeLong were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tyler on Thursday honoring Mr. DeLong's eighty-third birthday. Congratulations.

Mrs. Gordon Boyle is quite ill again. Her neighbours and friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Albert Adams of London, was the guest of Mr. Everet Adams over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Carrington were the dinner hour guests of Mrs. Orwell Wing and family on Thursday.

Mr. Howard Adams has secured a job for the summer at Mr. Cecil Moriand's, South Lakeside.

LAWN SOCIAL IS FINE SUCCESS

ROSSMORE — Mrs. Wm. Brickman spent a few days with friend at Kingston on the week end.

Mrs. D. McDonald, Point Anne, called on Mr. and Mrs. John Belknap on Friday last.

Mr. O. Dearle and Marguerite, Tweonto, spent a day recently with Miss Mosher, Mrs. Wm. Brickman.

Miss Marguerite Reddick, Rochester, N.Y., was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Orra Reddick.

Mrs. F. Dobson spent a day recently with Miss Norma Huff.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Young entertained company on Sunday.

Mrs. Bruce Gibson, Belleville, spent a day last week with his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Thompson.

Mrs. B. Wood attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Carman Ashley, in Belleville, on Wednesday last.

A large number of people attended the lawn social of St. Andrew's Church, which was held at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCreary's summer home on Friday last. Strawberries, ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Alyea motored to Napanee on day last week.

Mrs. Alyea has moved to Consecon Beach, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reddick, Corbyville, were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. M. Reddick's.

Mrs. J. S. Thompson entertained her mother on Sunday last.

Mrs. F. Dobson motored to Toronto, on Sunday evening, where she will spend a few days.

Mr. Wm. Belnap is building a summer cottage for his son, down at Pete's Beach.

Mr. M. Gerow, Belleville, spent a day recently in this village.

LOCAL NEWS FROM CROFTON

CROFTON—Mr. and Mrs. Grayden Calnan and children returned on Saturday from a visit with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calnan of Oshawa.

Mr. Edward Trumpour of Belleville spent the week end with his niece, Mrs. S. J. Munroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Caughey spent Sunday with Mrs. S. R. Munroe.

Mrs. B. Jones spent a couple of days last week with her father, Mrs. Jamse Clement of Big Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Grayden Calnan made a few calls through here on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke were in Belleville on Friday.

Mr. Leo. Caughey and Mr. W. Milligan of Big Island have returned from a trip to Philadelphia.

Mr. Louis Pringle of Belleville, spent the tea hour on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker.

Miss Beatrice Baker spent Monday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ralston were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Shepard.

Belleville sailors on Saturday, were Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Munroe and Mrs. W. J. Gray and Master.

ADDRESSES W. I. ON FRIENDSHIP

CHRISTIAN STREET—Rev. and Mrs. J. R. McCormick of Picton, called at a number of homes on the street on Tuesday afternoon.

Gilbert's Mills' Women's Institute met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the new President Mrs. Harold Nonon, with Mrs. Earl Purtelle, 1st vice president presiding. The members were very pleased to have Mrs. S. Fox, past president of Prince Edward County Institute with them and hear her address on "Friendship", which was much enjoyed by all present. Mrs. D. W. Allison gave a very interesting report of her recent trip last summer through Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, after which a delicious lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huff and children of Mount Pleasant called on Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Werden and family on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Hanson Huff and family of Picton, spent Friday afternoon, with her mother, Mrs. James Noxon.

Mrs. Harold Nonon spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Densmore Doolittle of Mount Julian, went to Belleville, with them in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Calnan and daughter Lois of Douse's spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Calnan.

Specials Thursday in Eaton's Groceteria

QUAKER CORNFLAKES 2 Packages 15c

EATONIA—BINDLESS Breakfast BACON 1-2 Pound 13c

ONE HOUR ONLY—9.30—10.30 A.M.

BLADE ROAST BEEF lb. 12c

P & G SOAP 10 CAKES 27c

Limit 16 Cakes to a Customer with 25c Purchase or Over. A Saving of 10c on Every 10 Cakes.

SPRING LAMB CHOPS OF LOIN lb. 25c

CHOICE IMPORTED TOMATOES - - lb. 17c

NICE WHITE HEADS CAULIFLOWER Each 21c

GOOD SIZE

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES (Eastern Standard Time)

WEDNESDAY

4.00—Al Bernard—CRCT
4.00—The Marionettes—WHEN
4.15—Penrod and Sam—CRCT
4.15—Arlene Jackson—WKAP
4.30—Singing Lady—WJZ
4.45—Orphan Annie—WJZ
5.00—Paul Whiteman—WJZ
5.45—Do-Re-Mi—WABC
5.45—Hayden-Lang—WABC
5.00—Hibbert's Ensemble—WJZ
5.00—Meet the Artist—CFRB
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Black and Blue—WGR
5.30—Three D Ranch—WJZ
5.45—Lowell Thomas—WJZ
6.00—Nelson Pierce, Tenor—WEAP
6.00—Amos 'n 'Andy—CRCT
6.00—Milton Berle—CFRB
6.00—Mountaineers—WEAP
6.15—Everett Marshall—WJZ
6.15—Gilbert Wilson—CFRB
6.30—String Symphony—WJZ
6.30—Eight Limberjacks—CKCL
6.45—The Goldbergs—CFRB
6.45—Richard Andrey—CFCA
7.00—Wrigley Hour—CFCA
7.00—Variety Prog—WEAP
7.30—Kate Smith—WABC
7.30—Donald Novis—WEAP
7.30—Tom Hamilton—CFRB
7.45—Phil Cook—WJZ
7.45—Jean McLachlan—CFRB
8.00—Variety Prog—WEAP
8.00—Irvin S. Cobb—WABC
8.00—Maldwyn Bramwell—CFRB
8.00—Thos. Allen, Tenor—CKOC
8.15—The Silver Singer—WABC
8.15—London Conference—WJZ
8.30—Celtic Choir—CFRB
8.30—Burns and Allen—WABC
9.00—Corn Cob Club—WEAP
9.00—Commission Prog—CKCL
9.30—Edwin C. Hill—CFRB
9.45—Columbia Orch—WABC
10.00—Light Opera Gems—CKLW
10.00—Pickens Sisters—WJZ
10.15—Little Jack Little—CFRB
10.15—John Daly Tenor—WJR
10.30—Phantom Organist
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAP
11.30—Don Bestor's Orch.—WABC
11.30—Fisher's Orch.—WEAP

THURSDAY

7.00—Radio City Organ—WEAP
7.15—Xylophonist—WJZ
7.15—Hollywood Hotel Club—WEAP
7.45—Havens and Mack—WABC
8.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.15—Goldy and Dusty—WGR
8.15—Phoebe Tris—WEAP
8.30—Cherrio—CRCT
8.45—Reis and Dunn—CFRB
9.00—Southern Singers—WJZ
9.00—Bonjoi Madgue—CKAC
9.15—Clara Lu and Em—WJZ
9.30—The Happy Rambler—WEAP
9.30—Between the Acts—CRCT
9.45—Melody Moments—WGR
9.45—Barbara Gould—CFRB
10.00—Singing Strings—WJR
10.15—Francis L. Barton—WEAP
10.15—Freddy Miller—WABC
10.15—Memory Lane—CKCL
10.30—U. S. Navy Band—WEAP
10.45—Al Howard, Tenor—WJR
11.00—John Marvin, Tenor—WEAP
11.00—Concert Prog—CFCA
11.15—On Wings of Song—WEAP
11.15—On Wings of Song—WHEN
11.45—Melody Maids—WJR
12.00—Ben Bailie's Orch.—CKCL
12.15—Song Review—WJR
12.30—Popular Varieties—WEAP
12.30—Horseshoe Prog—CKOC
1.00—Ann Leaf, Organ—CFRB
1.00—Concert Ensemble—CRCT
1.30—Male Quartet—WJZ
1.45—Buffalo Quart.—WHEN
2.00—Schlitt Sisters—CRCT
2.15—On the Air—WABC
2.30—Betty Barthell—CFRB
2.45—Roger-Gallet Prog—CFCA
3.00—Ann's 'Andy—CRCT
6.00—Chas. Carillo—WABC
6.00—Mountaineers—WEAP
6.15—Mitzi Green—WJR
6.15—Soloist-Orch.—CRCT
6.15—Countess Albini—WEAP
6.30—Harding Sisters—WEAP
6.45—The Goldbergs—WEAP
6.45—Flying Fingers—CKCL
7.00—Variety Prog—CFCA
7.00—Do-Re-Mi—WABC
7.30—Phantom Singers—WJZ
7.45—Harpist—CKOC
8.00—Henry's Showboat—WEAP
8.15—Pray-Braggiotti—CFRB
8.30—Columbia Revue—WABC
9.00—Dance Hour—CRCT
9.00—Commission Prog—CFCA
9.00—Festival Orchestra—WJZ
9.00—Jack Pearl-Orch.—WEAP
9.15—Windy City Revue—CFRB
9.30—Golden Chords—WJZ
9.45—Maude Roosvy—WABC
10.00—Harmony Trio—WJZ
10.00—James Melton—WEAP
10.15—Phil. Regan, Tenor—WABC
10.30—Lombardos Orch.—WABC
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAP
11.30—Jacob Nelson Orch.—WABC
12.00—Roseland Orch.—WABC

By Russ Westover.

TILLIE THE TOILER

By George McManus

BRINGING UP FATHER

JUNE 28 MR. AND MRS.- IT HAPPENS IN EVERY HOME

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

As Flora Hawkes cried out, the ape-man looked his astonishment. "Esteban?" he exclaimed, "that is not my name." Then the girl recognized him. "Lord Greystoke," she cried, "is it really you?" "Yes," he replied, "and who are you?" "I am Flora Hawkes, once your wife's maid. Don't remember you," said he, "but what are YOU doing here, alone in the heart of Africa?" "I dare not tell you," moaned the girl. "Speak," said the ape-man, "Tarzan would not harm a woman."

Haltingly, Flora told him how she and her confederates had come to get gold from the treasure vaults of Opar, How after they had it, he came with his Waziri and took it from them. "Do you mean you were with those Europeans," said Tarzan, "who drugged me and left me in their camp?" "Yes," replied the girl, hanging her head. But Tarzan seemed to forget that affair. "I came with no Waziri and took nothing from you," he said; "I do not understand."

Flora looked her unbelief, yet she knew that Tarzan of the Apes never lied. So she told how Esteban had stolen her from the others. "And then," she said, "Carl came with the diamonds and Esteban killed him, taking the jewels himself." "It was now Tarzan's turn to betray surprise. "Come," he said, "I will find him." "But I cannot walk." Flora replied. "That is a small matter," laughed Tarzan, and stooping lifted the girl to his shoulder and bore her through the trees.

They stopped once for food and water, which revived the girl. "Why have you saved me?" she asked. "You are a woman," answered Tarzan, "I could not leave you to perish, no matter what you have done." And Flora Hawkes could only sob out a plea for forgiveness for the wrong she had done him. It grew quite dark then, as they moved along the silent trail, the ape-man caught the reflection of firelight. "I think we shall soon find our man," he whispered; "make no noise!"

HEART-to-HEART TIME

What sweeter time could there be for WRIGLEY'S?

This delicious chewing sweet is so wonderfully refreshing. Good for teeth and gums — and improves your digestion when used after every meal.

5c

TIME FOR WRIGLEY'S

INEXPENSIVE - SATISFYING

Cute Little Organdy Bonnets
For Tots Up To 2 Years
For the small tot up to 2 years of age. Crisp organdy bonnets, in white, pink or blue. A choice of styles, all clever, and admirably suited to this weather.
Each 79c

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

New White Bags
With all the smart touches that usually are seen only on higher priced bags. Of washable fabric, some with silfle fasteners, some with mirrors and all with smart finings. Styles are in a big variety. For best choice we advise early shopping. Special, ea. 1.00

It Starts Thursday at 9 a. m. Sharp!

Our A MONTH OF SALES..

SOMETHING DIFFERENT EVERY DAY

Extra! Misses' Summer Swagger Suits — Special Each 2.95

Smart two and three piece outfits that are admirably suited to summer weather. Very practical, too, for they can be used in several different ways—with the smart checked coat in brown and white; black and white or mauve and white. The plain white linen frock with each outfit can be used separate for a cool sleeveless, sport or street dress. Some have three piece and are loosely woven linen material—These consist of jacket, blouse and skirt—in coral shade, blue, yellow and several other smart shades. Sizes 14 to 20, and remarkable value Thursday. See windows for these new arrivals. Each .....

Small Tots Fine Batiste Dresses

Dainty little batiste frocks with panties of the same fine material. Cool and crisp for summer in a nice assortment of styles for 2 to 4 years old. Feature Value, each 89c
—second floor

Women's Angel Skin Slips 98c

In white only, richly trimmed with lace in many smart ways. Of lovely fine angel skin. Sizes 34 to 44. These are fitted style.
Each 98c
—second floor

Toiletry Specials

Eaton's Milk-o-Lax, 18 oz... 25c
15 oz. Eaton's Cold Cream ... 45c
16 oz. Eaton's Peroxide 19c
Eaton's Shaving Cream 19c
Corson's Charcoal Tooth Paste ..... 2 for 25c
Magnesia Tooth Paste 2 for 29c
12 oz. Glycerine 39c
12 oz. Eaton's Compound Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil Rum and Honey 58c
Hot Water Bottles, each 49c
Calox Sanitary Pads, 12 in box ..... 2 boxes for 39c
—main floor right

Misses' Chiffon Frocks — Special 6.95

In those gorgeous flower prints that every miss adores—there's a good choice and an equally good color selection. Summery and cool, they are remarkable value at this July Special pricing. Styles are extensive, and display trimmings details and interests that are usually shown on frocks of much higher price. Sizes from 14 to 20. July Special, each .....
—second floor

New! Special in Costume Jewelry

A new shipment just arrived for this event—in a variety of clever styles, and smart colors for wearing with summer frocks and outfits. Choose early
Special, each 19c
—main floor centre

Special Buy!
Women's all Wool Bathing Suits

Knit to snugly fit the body, in a host of bright shades that are favored this year. Sizes from 34 to 44 in the group. All wool, in one piece style with skirt. July Special,
Special Each 1.49
—second floor

July Special! Women's Real Silk Hose!

Some Seconds in The Group
One of the biggest scoops in value we have been able to offer you—and we expect at the price you'll buy a whole summer's supply! You'll not regret it either—of fine, clear silk, in chiffon and service weights, full fashioned with a slim fashionable panel heel. Though some are marked seconds flaws are very slight and in some cases hardly detectable. Choose from smoketone, chukker, deauxan, gunmetal, pepper and brownette. Sizes from 8½ to 10½, in the lot. July Special, pair .....
—main floor left

Women's Celanese Hose 39c

Of real fine celanese yarns, smooth and trim fitting, with reinforced toe and heel. Four shades in the lot, all popular for summer, too, pepper, grey, deauxan, and smoketone. Sizes from 9 to 10 in the lot. Special, pair .....
—main floor left

Clearance of Girls' Print Frocks — Regularly 89c

Crisp print frocks that regularly sold for 89c each. In a fascinating array of styles, in a wealth of gay colors and attractive patterns. Sizes for 7 to 14 year olds. July Special, each 69c

July Specials in Family Footwear!

Clearance! Women's Smart Shoes, pr. 1.00

For only 1.00 a pair! Another of those big value giving events in shoes that the C.D.S. are noted for! A wide variety of styles, including ties, pumps and straps, with a choice from many leathers, in both black, grey and white. Regularly these are much higher in price and invite early shopping the day they are on sale! Sizes from 3½ to 8. Pair .....
—men's store rear

Men's Black Calf Oxfords
Sturdy black calf oxfords that are marvellous value at 1.98 a pair. With good wearing leather soles, and rubber heels, they come in a size range from 6 to 11, including half sizes. July
Special, pair 1.98
—men's store rear

Boy's Sport Oxfords
Dandy for boys and remarkably sturdy too. Built on comfortable last, in tan grain and brown leather—with durable rubber soles and rubber heels. Sizes from 1 to 5. Pair .....
—men's store rear 1.69

Women's Cosy Boudoir Slippers
Comfortable bedroom slippers, in leather with cuban heels. Just the thing for ramp or cottage—and they come in gay colors, too, of red, green and blue, or black patent. All sizes in the lot from 3 to 7. Clearing, pair .. 69c
—men's store rear

Set of Three
Aluminum Saucepans
Of light aluminum for quick heating on summer stoves. Set of three in graduated sizes. Much the same as sketched.

Set of 3 49c

Crockery Tea Pots
Strongly made, and very pretty too, these crockery tea pots, mostly all in charming little Dutch scene in blue on cream ground. Handles are of fibre. About 5 cup size.
..... 19c

Ice Cream Freezers
Outer ice tub is galvanized, with inside metal cream can of dairy metal. Will hold about 3 imperial pints. Special, each 1.17
—basement

Green Bamboo
Verandah Shades
Strongly made, yet light weight and very serviceable. Equipped with pulleys, and cords ready for hanging.
Size 6' x 8', each 1.98
Size 5' x 8, each 2.49
Size 6' x 8', each 2.98
Size 8' x 8', each 3.49
—main floor rear

July A Month of Sales Brings a Special Selling of Men's Tailored To-Measured Suits
Thursday and Friday'i

Special Representative Here to Take Individual Measure

Our Special Representative, Mr. Adcock of Toronto, will be in our Men's Department for Two Days, Thursday and Friday with a large range of imported worsteds, grey and blue serges, and a fine range of Irish twists, and Scotch tweeds, as well as smart flannels and tropical worsteds for summer wear. Every man is cordially invited to inspect this display of fine imported materials. Mr. Adcock will personally attend to special measurements to guarantee you a perfect fit. These fine materials range from

17.50 to 35.00
—men's store

Men's Fine English Cotton
Broadcloth Pyjamas
These are splendid weight for present wear, cut on roomy, comfortable lines from sturdy English cotton broadcloth—in fancy mannish stripes. Nicely finished and trimmed. Sizes from 36 to 46 in the lot. Special, suit 1.39

Boys'
Khaki Knee Pants
Of sturdy khaki drill, in cool knee length style with belt loops and one hip pocket. Sizes 24 to 30. Ideal for summer holiday wear.
Special, pair 55c
—men's store

Lustrous Brocaded Rayon Bedspreads
Size 80 x 90 inches—Ordinarily 2.25
Without a doubt this is an "exceptional value" made possible by a huge purchase for a special in our C.D.S. Stores. Made from a high grade lustrous rayon and cotton in brocaded designs, either large floral effects or basket designs. Colors are rose, blue, yellow and green. No phone orders please. Special, each 1.98
—main floor rear

36" Checked Ratine — Reg. 39c
Only a limited yardage at this price! Cotton ratine in plain colors with woven checks in white. Colors are red and sand. 36 inches wide—regularly 39c a yard. Special Thursday, yard 25c

Irish Linen Damask Cloths, Each 2.29
A smooth, satiny linen, woven in exquisite fruit, floral and conventional types of designs—from a superior quality of Irish linen. Snow white, with a soft, shimmering finish that will display your silverware to splendid advantage. A quality renowned for its durability and everlasting, rich appearance. Special, each .....

Seconds in Large Jacquard
Bath Towels
A lovely soft, spongy, jacquard towel which usually commands a much higher price than this but owing to their slight defects they are marked special to clear quickly. A wonderful assortment of designs and colors in the group.
Special, pair 25c
—main floor rear

Seconds in Large
Bath Mats
Beautiful bath mats, purchased at half ordinary price, due to slight defects which will not impair their wearing or washing qualities. Colors are yellow, mauve, green and blue. Large size
Special, each 98c
—main floor rear

Comfortable
Verandah Chairs
In rocker and chair styles, with varnished frames of hardwood and woven reed seat and back. Note the low prices.
Chairs 3.95
Rockers 4.34
—main floor rear

Davenport Style
Couch
A comfortable chintz covered davenport style couch of steel construction with easy-less springs and comfortable cotton filled mattress with roll edge. Excellent for cottages, or for the sun porch.
Complete 13.50
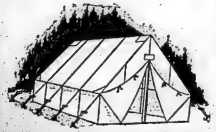
—main floor rear

All Wool Plaid Motor Rugs



Size 54 x 68 inches
You'll want one of these for travelling, lovely all wool rugs in plaid effects, all fast colors and a handy size for camp use. Finished with fringed ends. A limited number at this price. Each 2.95

Special July Sale Prices on WallTents

A special selling of wall tents on Thursday—with prices the lowest in some time. Check their five points of superiority and you'll find why they are such good value at these prices.

1. Double sewn seams.
2. Good quality manilla rope.
3. Reinforced at corners, and points of strain.
4. Dimensions full sized.
5. Material standard 8 oz. duck.

Two sizes and prices:
Size 7½' x 7½' x 7' with 2 foot wall 9.50
Size 9½' x 9½' x 7' with 2 ft. wall 12.50
Wood poles and pegs for above 1.85 set
—basement

Sale! Borderless Congoleum Rugs

Check your wants in this line, and shop early Thursday—big savings in store for you! Borderless style congoleum rugs of first quality, in a choice of several charming patterns and color combinations. Rugs for living rooms, dining rooms, halls, etc. Note the list below!

Size 6' x 9', each 3.60
Size 7' 6" x 9', each 4.50
Size 9' x 9', each 5.40
Size 9' x 10' 6", each 6.30
Size 9' x 12', each 7.20
—basement

Corn Brooms Special 24c ea.

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

PROBABILITIES
Fair and warm today, somewhat cooler tonight. Friday, moderate east to southeast winds; mostly fair and warm followed by local showers or thunderstorms, chiefly over western portion.

The Ontario Intelligencer

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1933

TEMPERATURES
Two o'clock temperatures in the city on Thursday were: High 80, low 65.
Wednesday: High 81, low 72.
Temperature of bay water, 78.

SIXTEEN PAGES

BRITISH COMPROMISE FAILS, UP TO U. S.

Stabilization Dilemma Thrust Squarely Before United States Today

Gold Bloc Warned by Sharp Drop in U. S. Dollar

COMPROMISE FAILS

United States Not Considering Dollar Stabilization

By The Canadian Press

London, June 29 (CP)—The gold bloc nations served a currency stabilization ultimatum on Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald today and immediately thereafter Mr. MacDonald had a meeting with the American Secretary of State, Cordell Hull or the American delegation.

The World Economic Conference reached its most critical crisis today as the European gold bloc—France, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland, gave to Britain an ultimatum that if something isn't done immediately to support their demand for currency stabilization, then they will quit the conference. But the British decline to take any steps until the United States has made up its mind.

Impressed by the gravity with which the European gold nations view the situation, increasingly tense with anxiety as sharp drop in the U. S. dollar to a new low, the American delegation held a long session and then sent a cable to President Roosevelt which according to some British newspapers was a request for a definite pronouncement of American policy.

Dollar Falls

As the dollar fell to a new low of 4.41½ in the money of the pound in London and various grave meetings were held in the activities of the conference proper were virtually at a standstill pending the outcome of the stabilization crisis. The wheat conference was also temporarily stalled, of Canada, the United States and Argentina being undecided whether they can meet the Australian demands. These are for a definite method of cutting production and for European cooperation before they can consider agreement.

Gravest Crisis

The gold bloc ultimatum provided a new and grave crisis for the World Economic Conference. The gold nations, headed by France, declared that they would withdraw from the conference unless something was done immediately to achieve stabilization of currency.

Virtually all the conference activities revolved around the stabilization issue, which was rendered more acute by the weakness displayed by the American dollar.

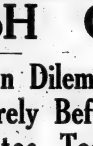
A report that a new stabilization proposal already had been forwarded to Washington was calling to Sprague's attention to the new leaving the American conference.

When asked if the rumor were true, he replied merely, "That's the kind of question I can't answer."

London, June 29—The conference dilemma over stabilization of currencies was focused on the attitude the United States today after a British statement had failed to satisfy the demand of the European "gold bloc" nations.

The world conference reached its gravest crisis as France, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland, the four standard nations, flatly told Great Britain it was no use going on if they were not to get any support for currency stabilization.

The gold block were further worried by another sharp drop in the American dollar although it later



ODDITIES IN THE NEWS

San Quentin Prison, Calif., June 29 (CP)—Inmate initiation has a hearty shop. It is just a little corner of the prison room, painted with burlap screens and filled with gadgets. But makers of baskets, belts and a manicure has given many of the newest inmates confidence before the parole board and has helped them to while their bed on the day of all days when they are released. Some of the inmates have developed beauty culture in the institution.

St. Paul, June 29 (CP)—Mrs. Bertha Moore wants $15,000 for eating a piece of blueberry pie. She is suing a local pie company for that amount, charging the piece she ate contained glass which caused cuts in her mouth and gums.

Watseka, Ill., June 29 (CP)—On the day after Mrs. Ira Jones of Milford received a divorce she took a job as a housekeeper for her former husband—at a salary.

NEW ROTARY HEAD

JOHN NELSON

For the first time in 10 years a Canadian has been elected president of Rotary International. John Nelson of Montreal attained the office at the annual convention in Boston.

firmed. The British however will no peg the pound to the gold franc at any level unless they know what is going to happen to the American dollar, and only silence meets the general question as to what the United States is going to do.

NO U. S. PLAN

Washington, June 29—(AP)—Dean Acheson, Under-Secretary of the United States Treasury, told reporters today no action was being considered in Washington regarding stabilization of the dollar and nothing had been done in this respect since President Roosevelt rejected the temporary stabilization proposal forwarded from the London conference some days ago.

He declined to discuss anything having to do with the London economic conference, although advices were being received from the American delegates and being forwarded by the State Department to the President on his way to Campo Obello, N.B.

Acheson expressed surprise at published reports that he was considering new stabilization plans and said he wanted to "unhesitatingly brand the report" as only the budget for next year was discussed at a conference yesterday between him, Lewis W. Douglas, director of the budget and Dr. E. A. Goldenweiser, chief statistician of the Federal Reserve Board.

Paris, June 29—(AP)—Premier Daladier, his friends said today, will fight for time with his back against the walls of the gold-bloc bank of France while economic forces are creating a demand for devaluation.

Don't Overeat, Icy Drinks Risk

"Just keep cool," was about the only advice Dr. C. W. Cronk, M. O.H., for this city could offer sweltering citizens on the ninth day of the present heat wave.

"Don't overeat," warned the doctor. "Don't drink ice-cold drinks too freely. And don't worry too much about the excessive heat."

So far, declared Dr. Cronk, the city has escaped heat prostrations. Not one case during the present season has been reported to him.

BODY FOUND IN CANAL

ELGIN, Ont., June 29.—(CP)—Police today began an investigation into the death of Herbert Foster 50 whose body was discovered in the Rideau Canal last night. Foster had been employed on the Newbord home since last Tuesday.

Rains in West Better Outlook as Moisture Prevents Grain Deterioration

WINNIPEG, June 29—(CP)—The outlook for Western Canada's grain crops appeared more cheerful today with rain reported from most points on the prairies. The moisture will halt deterioration of crops which the dry, hot spell of the past two weeks had initiated, and also prove good in reducing the menace of grasshoppers than many days of sunshine with possible hail.

Central and Southern Alberta reported a light steady rain all day yesterday with prospects of its continuing today, and possibly spreading into the northern part of the province where the weather has been cool for the past 24 hours, without, however, any rain falling.

Skies in Saskatchewan and Manitoba were cloudy yesterday with heavy showers at many points. Rainfall by more than two inches of heat with no rain, crops were reported benefitting by the precipitation. Forecasts were for further relief today.

RAIL STRIKE LOOMS RESULT OF DEADLOCK

Background of General Tie-up Seen as Sides Stand Firm

DOUBLE WAGE CUT

Appeal May be Made to Members Whether to Strike

Ottawa, June 29 (CP)—Representatives of the running trades of the Canadian railways conferred here today, with the possibility their deliberations may lead to a strike. A deadlock resulted yesterday when the men met railway officials over the proposed 20 per cent. wage reduction. Today they will decide whether to ask the 24,000 members of the five unions whether to ballot on the calling of a strike.

In the background lay the possibility of a general railway tie-up. The conferences have represented five groups of railwaymen, engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and telegraphers. On June 15, the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways served notice on all employees other than the five unions mentioned, they too must accept a 20 per cent. reduction in their basic rates. If the running trades decided on a walk-out it was believed likely they would be joined by the others, including shopmen and trackmen.

Double Cut.

For some months the running trades have been operating under a 10 per cent. salary cut. The railways, however, insisted on reducing their basic wages 20 per cent. And this the men refused to accept although they said they would continue under the 10 per cent. cut. A 20 per cent. wage reduction, it was said, would mean Canadian railwaymen would be working at rates 17½ per cent. lower than those prevailing in the United States.

The conference yesterday, which ended in deadlock, was presided over by Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor. It simmered down to the companies insisting the men accept the 20 per cent. reduction in basic wages and the men determined not to. The men then took under consideration whether they would submit a strike ballot to their union members, at the same time intimating that they took steps to secure the necessary authority from the unions' executives to make the appeal to the members.

T. B. VACCINE FOR CHILDREN

Deaths of Children in Family With Disease Cut Two Thirds

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—In spite of healthful surroundings, assistance in using preventive tuberculosis vaccine for children exposed to the disease, Dr. William H. Park, health officer of New York city attending the National Tuberculosis Association convention here, recommended without qualification the use of the preventative.

The internationally known health officer told interviewers today that deaths from tuberculosis among the children in families where some member has the disease have been reduced by two-thirds since the vaccine had been produced. The preparation of the vaccine in conjunction was discovered by the French Research Specialist, Calmette.

Immunity produced by one injection of the Calmette vaccine had been proved by tests in last three years at least, Dr. Park stated. "It is hoped it will last longer," he added.

David Wrightmeyer is Sentenced to Reformatory

ANNE TO MAKE F LIGHT WITH LINDY

Anne Lindbergh, flying wife of America's pioneer aviator, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, will accompany her husband on his projected inspection flight to Greenland in the near future, an air voyage that may carry the Lindberghs across the Atlantic to Iceland and possibly Denmark. The flight will be in the nature of a survey to determine the feasibility of a northern route to Europe. The Lindbergh's plane, above, fitted with pontoons, that carried them on their flights to the Orient.

Dominion Day in London Marked Mostly on Monday

London, June 29 (C.P. Cable) — Celebrations of Canada's Dominion Day—July 1—will be held in London mostly on Monday.

Hon. O. Howard Ferguson, Canadian High Commissioner to the United Kingdom and Mrs. Ferguson have issued 2,400 invitations to a reception in Canada House Monday afternoon.

A great Dominion Day dinner will be held Monday evening at which the Prince of Wales will propose King's College, Nova Scotia.

the toast to Canada, and Prime Minister R. B. Bennett reply.

At this dinner there will be 650 guests, including the heads of all Dominion delegations to the World Economic Conference.

An official Dominion Day service will be conducted by Merger's Chapel, Cheapside, Saturday afternoon by the aged Bishop William Wilcox Perrin, assistant Bishop of London, who holds an honorary degree from Principals in Bout at Garden Bowl, N. Y.

New York, June 29 (CP)—The displayed everything he needs to defend the crown in his weekend, speed, snap, confidence and a venomous punching power that has partisans including there is the tragic "angle" of Ernie Schaaf's death a few days after he was knocked out by Carnera last winter. Although the medical evidence revealed that Carnera's jab had little or nothing to do with Schaaf's death, it gave him a reputation as a "killer" and it gave Sharkey, Schaaf's stable-mate, an incentive to do his best tonight.

Weather predictions indicated the possibility of showers today but there is little likelihood of a postponement unless a heavy rain develops. The first preliminary is scheduled for 7 p.m. (E.S.T.) with the main event going between 8.30 and 9 p.m. or earlier if the weather becomes threatening. There will be no broadcast.

Roosevelt Boom Market Probe May be Opened

Washington, June 29—(AP)—Chairman Fletcher told newspapermen today the U. S. Senate Banking Committee "may make some inquiry into the Roosevelt boom market but it would not be done now.

"I think it is simply based on anticipation of what prices may be under the new governmental programme," Fletcher said of the stock market boom.

He added no definite plan had been made for an inquiry, but that Pendleton Brown, committee counsel, would watch developments.

MT. EVEREST EXPEDITION IS GIVEN UP

Bad Weather Forces Relinquishment of Plans

MOUNTAIN WINS

But "Struggle Still Goes on" Says C. G. Bruce

London, June 29 (AP)—The chairman of the Houston Mount Everest Expedition, C. G. Bruce, announced today that as a consequence of continued bad weather the expedition will be withdrawn.

"That does not mean," he said, however, "that we have given up hope of finally getting there.

"The struggle still goes on, but for the moment the mountain has won against man and his machine."

Two expeditions were financed by Lady Robert Houston to conquer the world's highest peak, which towers 29,141 feet. One, the air expedition, flew over Mount Everest early in April.

The other, headed by Hugh Rutledge, a retired officer in the Indian civil service, sought to conquer the peak by land.

It had expected to reach the base camp north of Everest in April with two months to go before the monsoon.

Unsuccessful attempts to scale the Himalaya monarch also were made in 1921, 1922 and 1924.

FOR CONTROL OCEAN ROUTES

Sweeping French Plan to Internationalize Shipping

By George Hambleton

(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, June 29.—(CP Cable) —Under sweeping proposals submitted by the French delegation to the World Economic Conference today, control of the great ocean routes would be brought within the boundary of international agreement.

The purpose behind the French proposal is to cut out "the ruinous and fatal competition between national flags," a struggle which, according to the French submission, takes the form of increasing competition in tonnage and speed, and a dangerous race for which is a menace to the budgets of both shipowners and governments.

ARMS PARLEY IS ADJOURNED

Germany Takes That World Will Not Understand

Geneva, June 29 (AP)—The World Disarmament Conference was adjourned until October 19 today following a protest by Rudolph Nadolny, Chancellor Hitler's representative, that the long recess amounted to a first class funeral for disarmament.

The German representative declared the public would be disillusioned by the adjournment and asserted that the plan to hold private conversations between now and October was useless.

Hiram Walker & Sons Subsidiary in Detroit If and When Laws Permit It

Detroit, June 29—(CP)—The old-established Canadian distillery firm, Hiram Walker & Sons, Limited, had gained approval today of a decision to set up a subsidiary in the United States if and when repeal of the country permit it.

Articles of incorporation for an American branch to be known as Hiram Walker & Sons, Incorporated, were accepted by Michigan authorities and executive and subsidiary headquarters will be in Detroit.

The announcement came as a sequel to notable strength of Distillery Stocks on all North American Exchanges, due largely to the current speculative boom in securities in United States. Sixteen States have voted to date for the prohibition repeal question and every one has approved such a step. Ohio voted on it in a first class funeral for disarmament.

The German representative declared the public would be disillusioned by the adjournment and asserted that the plan to hold private conversations between now and October was useless.

Wrightmeyer Admits Setting Fire to House, Will go to Reformatory

Plea Entered Some Days Ago is Changed to "Guilty"

COURT CROWDED

Magistrate Says Penalty For Arson Might be Life Term

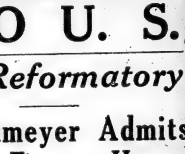
David Wrightmeyer, 23, of this city, pleaded guilty to a charge of unlawfully setting fire to a dwelling house, the property of John Donovan, and was sentenced to not less than one year nor more than two years less one day in the Ontario Reformatory when he appeared in the local police court held before Magistrate Mikel Thursday morning.

Wrightmeyer, who was arrested by Provincial Constable Kelly on Saturday night last in a local restaurant, changed his plea from not guilty, when he appeared in Monday's police court, to that of guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court.

The charge arose out of the consuming of a house that is located in Thurlow about one half mile north of Bellevile on the Carrington Road, on fire last Saturday night. It was established by the prosecution that Wrightmeyer had insured the contents of the house some time in the latter part of May. On Saturday night last the accused man acted as a caller-off at a square dance on the market square. At the conclusion of the dance Wrightmeyer hired a taxi and speeded to his home, subsequently evading a number of police and firemen who were lying in ambush awaiting. The police, however, obtained the license plate number of the car as it sped away and later arrested Wrightmeyer.

Through information received the provincial police, under the direction of Inspector Lougheed, guarded the house and saw Wrightmeyer enter the front door. Apparently the scene was all set for the firing as he was last in the house long when he came out and drove away. Later the fire was reported by Chief Lynch had been previously informed of the accused man's intentions and had sufficient fire-fighting apparatus on hand to successfully combat the blaze.

After the fire had been extinguished the building was thoroughly searched and it was found that a quantity of old newspapers had been placed in between the partitions and walls. The blaze was lighted in two places on the ground floor.



Charles A. Payne, K.C., appeared in the court on behalf of Wrightmeyer and pointed out to His Worship, previous to the meeting out of the court, that the accused man had always had a good reputation. He also produced a character from the record and his family ties. B. C. Donnelly, K.C., Crown Attorney, was also was of the opinion that owing to the fact that Wrightmeyer had a previous clean record perhaps a lenient light could be granted in this case than otherwise.

His Worship, however, pointed out that the crime committed was one to be punished with life in prison but he took into consideration all of the facts before meting out the sentence. The court room was crowded to the doors with interested spectators.

OPERATED AT LOSS

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—The operating loss of $71,276 was shown for 1932 at the annual meeting today of English Electric Company of Canada. Working capital was maintained at a ratio of current assets exceeding current liabilities by 35-1.

DOG SAVES MAN

"Sonny" is hero of Nahant, Mass., since he saved a 200-pound man, Roy Umaficio, from drowning.

Several Thousand Dollars Damage to Phone Lines

The Bell Telephone Co. in this district suffered several thousand dollars in damage to lines. At Glen Miller there are 11 poles down on the Marmora-Belleville-Stirling line. Considerable damage was done to the Smith's Falls-Perth line long distance lines and the Madoc, Tweed and Stirling services were disrupted and costly repairs are being made in those neighborhoods.

WEATHER

Toronto, June 29 (CP) — Heavy rains have occurred in southern portions of Alberta and Saskatchewan and moderate showers in Manitoba, while over Ontario and Quebec it has been decidedly warm with thunder showers occurring locally. In the remaining Provinces it has been cloudy with scattered showers and fog. Pressure is relatively high over Northern Ontario, and low over the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the western portion of the United States.

Northern Ontario—Moderate winds, fair today and Friday, rather cool tonight.

Lake Superior—Moderate winds; fair, with much the same temperature.

Kenora and Rainy River — East and northeast winds; partly cloudy and somewhat cooler, with scattered showers.

Manitoba — East and northeast winds; partly cloudy, with scattered showers; not much change in temperature.

Saskatchewan—Partly cloudy, with scattered showers, chiefly in the southern districts.

Alberta—Partly cloudy, with a few scattered showers; becoming a little warmer.

Coming Events

BASEBALL DOUBLE HEADER—Belleville vs. Kingston, Friday, July 1st. Toronto Hawks at Belleville Thursday July 6th—scheduled games. First game called 2.00 p.m. Admission 33 plus Tax 2c. Cars free. 229-16

ENJOY AN EVENING'S DANCING at Quinte Inn, to-night and every Thursday night. Music by Dutch Turney's Commodores. 229-1t

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES' Well Baby Conference will be held in the City Hall lemonroom afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30. 229-1t

MEETING WOMEN'S LIBERAL Conservative Club Rooms, Thursday, June 29th, 8 o'clock. Miss Mowat, Kingston, Miss Pritchard, Toronto, will speak. All women invited. 229-1t

JAT-20.

City and District News

AGRICULTURAL EXPERTS IN CITY

Prof. W. H. Sproule, head of the Dairy Department, and Prof. George Raithby of the Animal Husbandry branch of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, were in the city Wednesday evening and Thursday morning, stopping over in Belleville on their way to daily meetings in Eastern Ontario, and visits to agricultural representatives and dairy instructors in that section of the province.

RAINFALL AFTER STORM'S ARRIVAL

Following the sharp drop in temperatures which was felt in this city shortly after two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, rain fell in the district of Campbellford and Peterborough. Minaiure cyclones also struck that district, sending the mercury down to comparatively low levels. No damage was reported. There was a slight sprinkle in Belleville.

CITY OILER IS LOOKED OVER

In the presence of several members of the city council the new city oiler and distributor was put through some preliminary tests at the government dock on Thursday morning. Water was pumped from the bay and distributed through the machine in the same manner as that in which the oil will be sprayed on road work soon. The truck is now complete with lettering of the department of public works. The large spreaders, part of the machine, arrived in the city today and will be installed at once in order to commence the work of street oiling.

STUDENTS STARTLE WEST SIDE FOLK

Upon hearing rifle shots in the vicinity of the old fair grounds last evening residents of that community became alarmed and notified the police. Sergeant Booth and Constable Evans upon investigating the trouble found that two Albert College students were but holding a target practice with rifles containing a .22 calibre rifle. The fire arm and some 50 cartridges were confiscated by the police.

BARN BURNED AT CANNIFTON

Fire of undermined origin completely destroyed a large frame barn on the farm of Mr. Wm. Mathews, three miles east of Cannifton, late Wednesday morning. According to reports, there was no stock in the barn, and little machinery. The loss is believed to have been partially covered by insurance.

NEW CABLES LAID AT DESERONTO

Bell Telephone Company employees have been working for the past several days in Deseronto, installing new cables on the north side of the street, to replace the old telephone cables which will be taken down and scrapped. All poles along one side of the street will be removed, and the telegraph wires will also be shifted to the north side.

CAPITOL
COOLED! NOW!

ALBERT RENEE
BURDON GADD
with MOLLY LAMONT HENRY WILLSON
ENGLAND'S MERRIEST
LETTING IN THE SUNSHINE
ENGLAND'S LATEST COMEDY TEAM
Their hilarious and exciting adventures in thwarting a gang of crooks — their ludicrous struggle to "crash" society will leave you limp from laughter.
HARRY LANGDON
NEWS — CURIOSITIES
We Have Secured a Few VEGETABLE DISHES For The SELECTION WEDGEWOOD DINNERWARE
FRIDAY
2.45 :-: 7.15 :-: 9.00

McKEOWN'S BARGAINS
50c Floor Wax
50c Chamois
BOTH
50c
McKeown's
Drug Store

FAIR PRIZE LIST IS DISTRIBUTED

Mr. R. H. Ketcheson, secretary of the organization, is this week completing the mailing of some 500 prize lists of the Belleville Bigger Fair to anticipated exhibitors in this district. Already through members of the Chamber of Commerce has been made of scores of the booklets which announce the Fair to take place this year on August 29, 30, 31 and September 1.

FRACTURES NECK IN FALL OFF HAY

Stratford, Ont., June 29 (CP) — Henry Searl, 28, of Scaforth, was in hospital today suffering from a fractured neck and partial paralysis resulting from a fall off a load of hay on the farm of his sister yesterday.

His condition was described as critical but he retained consciousness.

MANY BATHERS IN BAY ON HOLIDAY

A large number of bathers took advantage of the coolness of the waters of the Bay of Quinte yesterday afternoon. Especially of note was the large number of swimmers who participated in a squatics in front of the Bay of Quinte Country Clubhouse. Using the club's dock on which to lounge in the sun, the youthful bathers enjoyed an afternoon's coolness. Their activities were enjoyed by the lady members of the club from the verandah. A social afternoon was spent in the club's lounging rooms.

OLD SOL IS BEST POPPER TODAY

It was so hot here on Wednesday reports an observant citizen that peanut vendors of the city haven't bothered lighting fires to roast the peanuts. Placed in the little copper container the nuts have been done to a turn in short order. Pop corn piled in one corner of the cabinet has also been popping merrily with the heat, without ever a popper in sight.

HUCKLEBERRIES ON LOCAL MARKET

Despite the hot blazing sun that poured its rays down on the local market on Thursday morning a fair business was enaued. For the first time this season and at an earlier date than usual huckleberries made their appearance on the local market selling for 20c per box. Strawberries remained firm at 12c. Shelled fresh green peas brought 20c a quart while newly dug potatoes sold for 30c per berry box. String beans sold for 15c a quart while fresh young cabbage were offered at 5c each. Fresh beets were offered at 10c a bunch while this years radishes were also in evidence. Home grown hot house raised tomatoes made their appearance on the market while eggs were steady at 15c a dozen. The berry market was heavy.

S. A. OFFICERS TO TORONTO

For the past two years in charge of the Picton Salvation Army Corps, Adjutant Damby and Lieutenant Hardie who have been stationed in Picton, will leave this week for Toronto, where they will be in charge of the Byng Avenue Corps. Captain Wilfred Hawkes of Picton, will take charge of the local corps.

LARGE TUG IS FREED FROM SHOAL IN BAY

Late today the large tug "Foundation's Marguerit", owned by the Foundation's Company of Montreal was freed from her position on a shoal near Nigger Island in the Bay of Quinte, where she had been fast for two days. The tug continued her trip to Toronto. Early today the s Kingston tug the beached tug secured the services of a Toronto boat to pull her off.

WHIRLWIND AT FAIR GROUND

A twisting, twirling, miniature cyclone which swooped into the city from the west shortly after two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, whipped dust and debris into whirling clouds along city street, broke tree branches in residential sections, and reaching its full force west of the city limits, descended on the baseball grounds while the ball game was in progress and overturned one dug-out, twisted the batting cage on the ball diamond into a heap of wire screen and broken pipe, and whisked a six-foot square hatch on the grand stand roof out of sight. Movement had not yet recovered the missing hatch on Thursday. Department of public works declared damage to trees and property was little, confined to the west side for the greater part.

A New Deal!
The New BULOVA
"SENATOR"

$24.75
Flower has so much watch value been offered for so little!
15 jewels; the smartest man's watch we ever offered at $24.75
Angus McFee
On Display in Our North Window

REV. DR. BELL TO AURORA

Removes Today to Take Charge of Pastorate in That Place

Rev. Dr. R. H. Bell, minister of the Bridge Street United Church for the past four years, is moving today to Aurora, Ontario, where he will take over the pastorate of the United Church in that place.

Rev. James Semple, D.D., of Smith's Falls, will arrive in Belleville tomorrow to assume the pastorate of Bridge Street United Church, succeeding Rev. Robert H. Bell.

Dr. Semple, who is attending an induction in Trenton tonight, will himself be inducted into the charge of Bridge Street on Sunday, July 6th. Rev. H. B. Neal of Holloway Street United Church is in charge of the arrangements for the ceremony.

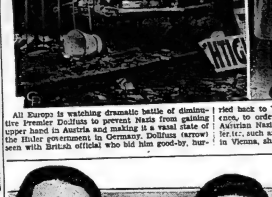
OBITUARY

LATE FRANK V. SPAFFORD

Under I.O.O.F. auspices the funeral of the late Frank Vandervoort Spafford was held Tuesday afternoon last from his late residence, 252 Front Street, and interment made in the Belleville cemetery. The service was held in the Sidney circuit of the United Church, conducted the service at the home and at the graveside. A large number of former friends, relatives and acquaintances and brother Oddfellows were in attendance to extend their tribute of respect to the memory of one who had been so widely known and highly esteemed. The many floral tributes bore further evidence of the high regard in which Mr. Spafford was held during his lifetime, and were expressive of the sympathy felt for those bereaved in his passing.

The pall bearers who were all of the Oddfellows was performed under the direction of H. R. Flagg, I.O.O.F. Mispah Lodge. No. 81, with George H. Thompson acting as chaplain.

Brethren of the Order acting as bearers were Ira McLean, W. H. Brooks, F. C. Fairman, C. F. Frost, George S. Kerr and Charles Allen.



LAWN BOWLING

The annual tournament of the Deseronto Lawn Bowling Club was held Wednesday afternoon and evening on the greens of that club. Some sixteen rinks took part in the games and outside clubs from Belleville, Picton, Tweed, Kingston, Stirling and Madoc sent representatives. Three rinks from here competed and the rink composed of C. A. Peck, W. Pavlow, J. Shaw and T. E. MacLean (skip) captured the consolation prize of radio electric lamp.

A Kingston rink eliminated Picton in the finals while a Deseronto foursome were donated the hard luck trophies.

The annual Scotch doubles of the Belleville Lawn Bowling Club will take place on Monday next, July 3. The draw is to be made at 6 p.m. on that day and a keenly contested competition promises to be keen. All clubs in the district have signified their intention of being well represented for the first time play of this event on the local club's new greens at the agricultural grounds.

All Europe is watching dramatic battle of diminutive Premier Dollfuss to prevent Nazis from gaining upper hand in Austria and making it a vassal state of the Hitler government in Germany. Dollfuss (arrow) seen with British official who bid him good-by, hurried back to Vienna from London Economic Conference, to order arrest of Alfred Frauenfeld (LEFT), Austrian Nazi Bader, after new outrages of the Hitlerite, such as the bombing of the Jewish store "Hak" in Vienna, shown here.

FRAY AND BRAGGIOTTI

One of the most popular piano teams on the air is that of Jacques Fray, LEFT, and Mario Braggiotti. The camera pictures them clothed for comfort in their duplex New York apartment.

MOTORCYCLE ENTERS HOUSE

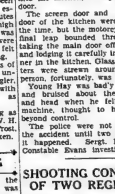
Crashes Two Doors of Kitchen After Losing Its Rider

A motorcycle crashed into the side door of a house at the corner of St. Charles and East Moira Street about 6 p.m. last evening causing confusion and damage in general to the household.

Raymond Hay, 22 East Moira St., who had been riding down St. Charles Street, had fallen off the machine, but the bike gaining speed, crossed the sidewalk and careening off an iron fence, surrounding a flower bed and jumped up on the rear verandah of the, crashing into the kitchen, through the back door.

The screen door and the main door of the kitchen were closed at the time, but the motorcycle in one final leap bounded through both, taking the main door off its hinges and lodging it carefully in a far corner in the kitchen. Glass and splinters were strewn around, but no person, fortunately was hurt.

Young Hay was bady shaken up and bruised about the shoulders and head when he fell from the machine, thought to have gotten beyond control.



The police were not notified of the accident until two hours after it happened. Sergt. Booth and Constable Evans investigated.

SHOOTING CONTEST OF TWO REGIMENTS

TORONTO, June 29. — (CP)— Shooting competition between visiting officers of the 38th regiment, United States Army from Rochester N.Y., and the Irish Regiment will be held in connection with the regimental sports programme on Saturday at Long Branch. Col. T. Remington will command the American visitors. At a later date the Irish officers will return the visit at a shoot to be arranged in Rochester.

PETTY THIEVES ARE ACTIVE AT PARK

Petty thieving of clothing and other articles in the dressing rooms at Victoria Park, where the younger element of the city have been gathering the last few warm days, is complained of by a number of mothers in the city. Considerable number of minor effects, as well as clothing was stolen by some person or persons.

BELLE STARTS Saturday
A MAN'S PICTURE That Every Woman Will Love!
Frederic March Carey Grant
"THE EAGLE AND THE HAWK"
A Paramount Picture
CAROLE LOMBARD JACK OAKIE

PLUS ZASU PITTS THELMA TODD in "BARGAIN OF THE CENTURY" 3 OTHERS

Watch for the

TIGER
Saturday

95 DEGREES IS REACHED

Higher Marks Looked For Today, No Relief is in Sight

Broiling, sizzling heat on the sixth day of the present heat wave continuing to the extreme, is the record to the same high levels marked on Wednesday. At noon Thursday a mark slightly above 90 degrees had been recorded. On Wednesday almost the same registration was marked. However, during the heat of the afternoon it is expected that still higher marks may be recorded on local thermometers. A mark close to 100 is expected during the afternoon. Not even the raising grace of a breeze between first during Wednesday's gasping heat was felt in the city today. So far no heat prostration cases have been reported at the Belleville General Hospital, and enquiry at local doctors' offices failed to bring to light any actual distress attributable to the heat. Still no relief is in sight, according to weathermen of the province, whose only cheering predictions were that this district "might" be visited by thunder-storms today or tomorrow. Otherwise the probabilities are still "fair and warm." Temperature readings at noon Thursday were:

Thursday, high, 91; low, 65; Wednesday, high 91; low, 72.

At 2 p.m. Thursday in a steady rise throughout the day, the mercury had touch a high point of 95 above, the hottest day so far of the season.

QUAKE IN JAMAICA

Kingston, Jamaica, June 26 —A violent earthquake shock lasting several seconds and rocking buildings was felt at Kingston at 8.40 Eastern Standard Time, this morning. People of the city were panic stricken for a few minutes, but no injuries were reported and the damage was slight.

SPECIAL PACKAGE WITH ONE EXTRA For 25c
Modess Modess
bring Us Your Films for Quick and Efficient Printing and Developing GEEN'S DRUG STORE
Phone 111
For Prompt Delivery

STROUD'S
Holiday Specials
THIN GLASS
Table Tumblers 6 for 25c
Electric Iron On Sale $1.59
Well worth $2.00. Guaranteed and heavily plated
Window Screens On Sale 39c
Extending to 36 inches. Galvanized screening.
Folding Camp Chairs 49c
With adjustable back, made of heavy striped duck
New Clover Honey
5 lb. Pails at
39c
Gross Weight
Horne's Punch
A Delicious Cold Drink
25c
"Grape", "Orange", "Lime" etc.
WEDDING GIFTS
Silver Bread Tray with Handle, neat design 1.50
Silver Cake Plate, a lovely gift, for 1.25
26 Piece Cabinet of Silver Flatware.
Stainless bladed knives 10.00
Chime Walnut Mantel Clock. Very new, at 12.00

FACE and FEET and FACT
If Your Feet Hurt You It Shows in Your Face
DR. SCHOLL'S personal representative, Mr. C. Lampkin, will be here TOMORROW, FRIDAY
June 30, to demonstrate the latest and most improved method of Foot Relief. If you are having any trouble with your feet come and have him test your stockinged feet — he'll tell you the cause of your trouble, and how to overcome it.
NO CHARGE for this service.
Belter Phone RIGHT NOW for appointment.
Tomorrow
Agnew Surpass Shoe Store
252 FRONT ST. Belleville

FISHER WANTS REFLATION

Economic Recession is Due to Too Much Debt He Says

Chicago, June 29 (CP)—Prof. Irving Fisher, of Yale University, told the American Association for the Advancement of Science today that the best and quickest way for the U. S. to regain economic equilibrium was through the government's monetary reflation program.

Prof. Fisher contended the economic recession, like most others in the past, was caused by too much debt which, by "distress selling" and liquidating bank loans thereby using up much of the deposit currency of the country, to deflation of the price level.

This deflation, he said, proceeded faster than the liquidation which was responsible for it. The result, Prof. Fisher said, was that the debt while nominally reduced, was really increased, as measured in commodities.

As the number of dollars owed decreased, he said, the value of each dollar owed increased faster, the effort to alleviate the debt burden thus actually making it heavier.

If the remedy for the situation were sought through further liquidation, Prof. Fisher said, the depression would not end until bankruptcy and unemployment were well on universal."

Reflation, such as approved by President Roosevelt, Prof. Fisher said, was the best way and the quickest way toward economic stability.

Another economist, Prof. James G. Smith, of Princeton University, labelled business cycles, with their periodic calsams, the "product of human manipulation through government units either as a result of blundering or as a result of control by special interests."

WHEATSTEADY AFTER BREAK

July Closes at 73 Cents October at 75 5-8, December at 77

Winnipeg, June 29—(CP)—Backed by supports of 1,000,000 bushels of grain sales, first good-sized business in nearly two weeks, wheat future prices staged a strong recovery from earlier three-cent declines to close less than two cents lower on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

July wheat closed at 73; October at 75 5-8 and December at 77.

CHICAGO, June 29.—(AP) — Heavy rains over the spring wheat belt and in Illinois and Iowa greatly dampened bullish enthusiasm in the grain pits today. The market oscillated uncertainly much of the time as commercial lows was soggy. Rallies soon after a fairly steady opening were followed by recessions to considerably below yesterday's finish, but later the market rather hesitantly righted itself and prices were not far from yesterday's closing levels near the finish.

Tonight on the Stage-9.00 p.m.

TREASURE GIFT NIGHT
Ten Surprise Gifts including a Beautiful
Walnut Secretary
BOOKCASE
Mayor Tice will re-open the seals on the Kiwanis Club Watch. Winner of the Trip to the Chicago World's Fair or Cash Equivalent will be Announced
ON THE SCREEN—
Better than "Bad Girl" Wins Fox's Greatest Romantic Story
NOW and FOREVER with SYLVIA SIDNEY GEORGE RAFT
Mack Sennett Comedy - Belle News - Tuneful Revue
BELLE Today & Friday
17°8 COOL HERE — 2.30—7.10—9.10

COUNTY NEWS

FUNERAL SERVICES OF H. J. STAPLEY LARGELY ATTENDED

Rawdon—Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sharp, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hagerman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Snarr were married forty-two years on June 17. Both are ill and were unable to celebrate their wedding anniversary this year.

Mr. A. D. Runnalls underwent an operation at Belleville Hospital on Monday, June 19th and latest reports say he is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery, Mrs. Charles Stewart and Douglas, spent Sunday evening in Campbellford.

Misses Henry Hagerman of Edmonton and Will Hagerman of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. George Heagle, Welland, on Tuesday and they also spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs Ernest White at Mount Pleasant.

On Tuesday evening Glen Rose ball team journeyed to Springbrook and the teams tied. Rosanna played and beat Glen Rose, returned home on the short end of a 15-12 score.

Mr. Hoke Allen spent a few days recently with Rawdon friends.

On Thursday evening Glenn Rose journeyed to Mount Pleasant and a snappy game of softball was played. The umpires were Orrin Sharp and B. Hulin. Scorekeeper, Edna Campbell and Ernest Carlisle. The lineup:

Glen Rose—Harry Brown, J. Armstrong, K. Michen, A. Fraser, C. Fyear, B. Hagerman, J. Carlisle, H. Brooks, R. Brooks.

Mount Pleasant—C. Holmes, J. Coggins, T. Scott, A. Kellar, H. Higgs, K. Holmes, C. Dunkley, R. Jeffs, R. Hagerman.

The visitors went to bat first and Harry Brown made a run and to the last half of the first went C. Holmes, Bowler and Kellar each scored a run, leaving the score 3 to 1. In the second frame K. Holmes to the field, made a nice, old catch, and R. Hagerman who had made the long shot was one. The visitors failed to make a run and the home team piled up three more with Bert Jeffs managing the only home run of the evening, and C. Holmes and J. Coggins the other two, score 6-1. In the third frame the visitors worked hard and evened the score and R. Brooks, also strong, Wickens and Fraser each scored a point, while Hagerman's score a run for the home team. In the fourth, R. Brooks made a trip around the diamond and the home boys got two, Kellar and Higgs, scoring. In the fifth inning around the air was filled with excitement as each man was anxious to win as the previous game had resulted in a tie. However the visitors had a stroke of bad luck as Wickens and Fraser went out, Fyear got to second and Hagerman then went home. The home team were also blanked. In the sixth C. Holmes caught out Carlisle, C. Holmes took H. Brooks' fly and Kellar did the same to R. Brooks. The home team went out in order also. The visitors then began the seventh with a determination and H. Brown and J. Armstrong each scored, and with the lone tying run on third, three men were retired leaving the score 8-8 and the home team next.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elliott of Tweed and Mr. Conger McConnell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Foxis.

Mrs. Manson McConnell is slowly recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Heath and Miss Lola Heath visited Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bailey and Miss Nobel Turner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvie and Miss Frances Harvie of Wooler, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Reid.

Mrs. Charles Stewart and Douglas of Foxboro, are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Montgomery.

Miss Faye Andrews spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sine, Harold.

Mrs. Edith Sharp and Mr. Jack Sharp visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thrasher on Sunday.

A large number of Rawdon folk attended the funeral service on Monday afternoon of the late Mr. James Stapley, of Carmel, who died very suddenly Friday evening in his 68th year. The service was held in Carmel United Church and the burial was at Glanford cemetery, Madoc Junction. Rev. R. W. Rowland was in charge of the service and Carmel choir rendered an anthem "Sunlight in Heaven" with Mrs. Arthur Fryer presiding at the organ. A wealth of floral blooms covered the casket, principally roses and white lilies.

The church was filled to the doors with sympathetic friends and a host of mourners. The bearers were Ashley Brooks, Lorne Lowery, Clinton Hagerman, Harry Hagerman, Hector Whitton and Charlie Johnson.

Left to mourn are his widow and three sons, Lorne, who resides at Hoards' Station; Clayton and Chester at home; two daughters at home Mrs. Marie Draup and Miss Dorothy, also one grandchild, Aimera Draup. He also leaves his father, Mr. Jamey Stapley at Oak Hills; four brothers, William of Madoc Junction; Murney of Oak Hills; Fred of Nanaimo, Alberta, and Robert of Foxboro; also five sisters, Mrs. Ernest Wilson of Madoc; Mrs. Roy Wilson of Oak Hills; Mrs. W. Cook of Foxboro; Mrs. John Cook of Madoc Junction and Mrs. Chalk community extend deepest sympathy to the family in their sad bereavement. The deceased had resided on the second concession of Rawdon and was an adherent of Carmel United Church, having lived in the community several years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp entertained Mr. and Mrs. David Brotherton and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Tucker of Salem to dinner on Sunday.

Miss Olive McComb visited Miss Edna Thrasher on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sharp called on Mr. R. Post who is ill at the Belleville Hospital, on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sharp and Douglas of Mount Pleasant, and Mrs. Nell White or Calgary, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Sharp and Mr. Gerald Sharp, Murray, on Friday.

Mrs. W. Anderson of Carmel, spent Tuesday with her niece, Miss Mildred Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sine, Mr. and Mrs. D. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Heath, Miss Lola Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gummer, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Martin, Mr. John Scott and Miss Laurena Scott of Bethel; Mr. John Sharp, Miss Edith Sharp, Mr. Jegg Sharp, Mrs. Israel Clancy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clancy and son, of Wellman's, attended the Holy Communion service at Mount Pleasant United Church on Sunday morning.

HAY IS PROVING A GOOD CROP

Ivanhoe—Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fleming and family spent the week end in Pakenham.

A number from this community attended the funeral of the late Mr. Elisha Maynes at Thomasburg last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Detlor and family visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Prest on Sunday evening.

Mr. C. Hann of Madoc, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mills spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Mills of Hallowy.

The farmers here are busy with their hay which is a good average crop.

The rain last Wednesday was badly needed and has made a marked difference in the crop outlook. No serious damage was reported in this section from wind and hail.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woods and George visited their aunt, Mrs. R. Vance in Stirling on Sunday afternoon.

PRESENT BRIDE WITH SHOWER OF LOVELY GIFTS

ROSLIN—On Tuesday evening, June 13th the annual lawn social of St. John's Anglican Church, Mt. Moneymoore, was held on the church grounds. A large number witnessed a ball game between Roslin and Moneymoore, when Roslin proved victorious. This was followed by an interesting programme as follows:

Chairman's address—Rev. F. C. Baker; solo, Mrs. Peacock; recitation, Miss Roy Vance; Concertina solo, Mr. Vance; solo, Mr. Willis Wilson; address, Rev. H. R. Harrington; recitation, Miss Mary Crey; duet, Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. S. Weir; solo, Master Edgar Burleigh; address, Rev. W. G. Howe Swayne; solo, Mrs. (Rev.) H. B. Herrington; solo, Mr. Vance; solo Miss M. Miller; recitation, Mrs. Roy Vance; solo, Mrs. Faucet; duet Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Peacock; recitation, Miss M. Grey; solo, Mr. Willis Wilson; solo, Master Edgar Burleigh. The programme was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Later refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Rev. J. N. Blodgett, B.A., Field Secretary of Wycliffe College, Toronto, was guest of the Rev. F. C. Baker and Mrs. Baker of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Roslin on Friday and Saturday of last week.

The Roslin girls met defeat at their first soft ball game of the season with Tweed girls on Friday evening at Tweed.

The boys' team which has been very successful recently met defeat also on Friday evening when they played the Sidney team at Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley spent Thursday evening with Mr. John Ketcheson.

A GOAL FOR SAVINGS

A university education is an advantage which most parents would like their children to enjoy. Even with a small income, this is often accomplished by keeping a special Savings Account. Regular deposits at compound interest, soon accumulate.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

CELEBRATE 28TH ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

QUEENSBORO — On Tuesday, June 20th, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sager observed the 28th anniversary of their marriage. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sager were born and raised near Queensboro. They were married by the Rev. H. B. Rowe Methodist minister here at the close of the Sager who is not in the best of health is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Dyer.

The members of Queensboro L. O. L. presented Mrs. Sager with an address and the jewel of a Past Mistress on the occasion of her wedding anniversary.

Mr. George Moorcroft is erecting a new barn this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox of Eldorado spent Saturday evening and Sunday with their daughter Mrs. Allan Diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sager of Ottawa, with a number of friends spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Broad and little daughter spent Sunday with his brother Mr. Nancy Broad.

Miss Jennie Thompson, Miss Marion Love, Mrs. John O'Rourke, Mrs. Harry DeClair and Mrs. Goldie Holmes attended the Ladies' Aid convention held in the Tabernacle Church in Belleville on Thursday.

Miss Jennie Robinson, of Remington spent Sunday with Mrs. Eric Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Holmes.

Mrs. Alex. Gilmore is spending a few days with Mrs. Albert Reed in Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dyer, of the Lost Channel spent Sunday with the parents Mr. and Mrs. Miles Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGee and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sager.

Mrs. Curtis Jones spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Woodford Blakley.

Mrs. William Chalker has gone to Ottawa to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Glover spent a day recently with friends in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson of Morganston were the guests on Sunday of Mr. Egbert Demorest.

The induction service for the Rev. E. W. Calley is being held in Hassard's United Church on Thursday evening and will be in charge of Rev. G. W. W. Rivers, of Madoc, who will be assisted by Rev. J. R. Trumpour, of Eldorado and others.

At the close of the lawn on Dominion day in the United Church Sunday School the members of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Everson a warm expression of their appreciation of her work as their teacher.

THIRTEEN YOUNG PEOPLE JOIN SALEM CHURCH

Minto—Mrs. F. Sine and Mrs. Sylvenus Sine visited Mrs. George Stone on Thursday.

Friends of Curtis Marjorie Clements will be glad to hear she is improving since her recent operation in Belleville Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stotzl, Stirling, spent Thursday evening at Mr. G. McMaster's.

Mrs. Willis Vance and Don Hogle spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. Bateman and family.

Miss Marguerite White spent last week with her sister, Mrs. George Stone.

Miss Kathleen Stout of Belleville, and Mr. Robert Stout of Actinolite, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stout.

Miss Christina McMurray spent Sunday with her parents.

Thirteen young people were added to the membership of Salem Church on Sunday.

Master Earl McMaster visited Mr. and Mrs. Irk Bristol over the week end.

Mr. Wm. Hagerman is enjoying a visit from his parents, who has returned from the west.

Mrs. Harold Tanner is ill in the Kingston Hospital; her friends here wish her a speedy recovery.

INTERESTING WEDDINGS TAKE PLACE AT CONSECON

Consecon—Mr. John Barline and Miss Margaret Crout (nee) of Carrying, were married in the Pentecostal Hall by Rev. H. Adams on Thursday of the evening. Her many friends gathered for an old-time charivari. They were invited in the Orange Hall where refreshments and dancing were enjoyed until the early hours. All wished Mr. and Mrs. Barline many years of happy wedded life.

Mr. Richard Newton and Miss Nora Mahler were married by the Rev. Mr. Swayze at the United Church parsonage on Saturday. On Monday evening many of their friends gathered at the home of Mr. George Peter and presented them with many useful gifts. The

Mr. W. A. Chase and Mr. Selim Weeks are painting Mr. Allen Goodmurphy's store.

Mr. George Miller of Port Carling spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller.

Miss Hutchinson of Kingston General Hospital, spent the week end with Miss Helen Miller.

Mrs. M. D. Robinson entertained Rev. and Mrs. Taverner at dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Blakely and daughter, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Wm. Blakely.

Mrs. Rita Kerman returned home after having spent a week with friends in Picton.

Mayor Coe of Picton was in the village on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chase, Rev. H. W. Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Burr, Mrs. M. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lodge and guests of Mr. Robert Zufelt and family attended the service at Long Point on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald were in Trenton on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. Dickerson entertained a number of friends on Thursday.

FOXBORO CHURCH HAS SERVICE FOR GRAND-PARENTS

Foxboro—Mrs. John Goswell, Sr., visited Mrs. Will Goswell on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed. Reynolds and Mrs. P. Sills called on Mrs. J. Cook on Thursday.

Mrs. E. Elliott of Thomasburg, returned home after spending a few days with Mr. J. Elliott.

A number attended the lawn social at Marsh Hill on Monday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Daniels spent a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Scott of Stirling.

Mr. Will Ketcheson, Davison, Sask., called on friends in the village on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMechan of Madoc, and Mrs. Hugh Barclay and children of Belleville, spent last week with the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murney Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd and son have moved into Mr. O. Chisholm's property.

Mr. Lee Laird of Detroit, called at Mrs. John Goswell's on Sunday.

Mrs. and Miss Thompson of Belleville, called on Mrs. Gowsell on Friday.

Miss Eleanor Johnston was a climber hour guest of Miss Marjorie Ketcheson on Tuesday.

Grandparents' service was held in the United Church, Mrs. (Rev.) Mutton sang a very appropriate solo.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wm. Cooke in the sudden death of her brother.

Some of the school pupils are trying examinations.

Mr. Bert Wannsmaker is entertaining his brother-

Mr. Earl Wood of Peterboro, spent Saturday at Mr. Dan Ketcheson's.

7TH TYENDINAGA NEWS BUDGET

7TH TYENDINAGA—Mr. and Mrs. Newton Wagar, Tweed, spent Sunday the dinner hour on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Murney Wilson.

Miss Mary Channon spent Thursday last with Mrs. Jean Kerry, Bart.

The W.M.S. held their monthly meeting at Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goodfellow and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Emerson's.

Mrs. Jas. Dan Ganzon and family Corbyville spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. O'Shaughnessy.

HEAT IS BLAMED FOR DERAILMENT

Kitchener, Ont., June 28—(CP)—Intense heat which struck Ontario today blamed heat for derailment yesterday near Montrose of the eastbound freight train of a freight train.

Traffic was tied up 10 hours on the Guelph-Goderich branch of the Canadian National when spread by the heat. Passengers on an evening train out of Goderich were taken to Guelph by automobile.

A new commercial process for concentrating orange juice is reported to be simple and to result in no loss of Vitamin C.

Egbert was the first king of all England; he reigned from 827 to 839.

Nearly 10,000 pictures have been submitted for exhibition in this year's exhibit at the Royal Academy, London; only 1600 of this number can be accepted.

HALLOWAY W.M.S. HAS JUNE MEETING

Halloway—The farmers are busy in the haying.

A much needed shower visited this locality on Wednesday evening, accompanied by a strong wind; no serious damage was done.

Mrs. E. Wilson received a message of the sudden passing of her brother, Mr. H. Stapley of Rawdon, on Friday evening.

Mrs. Keogh of Belleville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Carter.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Mutton called on Mr. and Mrs. S. Rose on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. Fleming and daughter, Ethel of Ivanhoe, called on Mrs. R. Townsend on Thursday last.

The Roslin baseball team played Sidney on Friday night, the Sidney team winning.

Mr. Cecil Carter and sisters, Dorris and Mary, motored to Toronto for the week end.

The W. M. S. held their regular monthly meeting and dinner at the church on Wednesday last.

Mr. Ray Blakely spent the week end at Mr. Wannamaker's, Sidney.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chisholm attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Spafford on Tuesday afternoon.

DOMINION DAY FARES

BETWEEN ALL POINTS IN CANADA

FARE AND ONE QUARTER FOR ROUND TRIP

TWO TO THREE DAY TRIP — Good going 12 noon Friday June 30th till 12 noon Sunday July 2nd. Return limit to leave destination not later than midnight Monday July 3rd (Standard Time).

SINGLE FARE FOR ROUND TRIP

ONE DAY TRIP—Good going on any train after 1 a.m. Standard Time on July 1st. Returning limit to reach original starting point any train up to midnight (Standard Time) July 1st.

Usual One Day (Sunday) Fare also in effect July 2nd

Examples of Round Trip Fares from BELLEVILLE to

	2-3 Day Fare	1 Day Fare		2-3 Day Fare	1 Day Fare
Buffalo	$ 9.25	$6.00	Sudbury
Hamilton	6.65	4.90	(via Lindsay) CN	$12.50	$8.00
London	9.90	6.90	Ottawa	5.75	3.80
Montreal	3.50	2.00	Quebec	10.00	6.00
Sudbury			Toronto	4.95	3.35
(via Toronto)	16.00	8.90	Windsor	14.65	9.00

Proportionately low fares between all other points in Canada and to certain destinations in the United States.

For Fares and further information apply to Railway Ticket Agents.

Canadian Pacific • Canadian National

Dominion Day

1867 1933

Holiday SUGGESTIONS

A&P

SHOPPING HOURS
Open All Day Saturday
Closed Monday

The sixty-sixth anniversary of Confederation finds the world looking with satisfaction towards the International Conference in London, from which statesmen have already shown willingness and ability to play a leading part in fostering the world's economic welfare.

It is the ambition of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company to play a leading part in furthering the welfare of the Canadian people and Canadians who honour us with their custom and patronage.

GOLDEN BAR—PLAIN OR PIMENTO
CHEESE 2 ½-LB. PKG. 19c

ENCORE
SANDWICH SPREAD 8½-oz. Jar 17c

Absolutely Guaranteed
MEATS at A & P MARKETS

SMOKED PICNIC STYLE
PORK SHOULDERS
Shankless For Roasting lb. 12c

SMOKED SHOULDERS
BAKED VIRGINIA STYLE—READY TO SERVE
lb. 25c

FRESH SUITS OF PORK FOR ROASTING lb. 13c

GENUINE SPRING LAMB
LEGS - - lb. 25c
LOINS - - lb. 22c
FRONTS - - lb. 15c

A & P QUALITY BEEF
ROASTS
BLADE lb. 12c

COLD PLATE SPECIAL
SAVOR TIGHT—SLICED
LUNCHEON MEAT lb. 29c

FRESH
WHITEFISH lb. 13c

AYLMER FANCY GOLDEN BANTAM
CORN 2 NO. 2½ TINS 25c

AYLMER FANCY JUMBO
PEAS 2 NO. 2½ TINS 25c

AYLMER TOMATO
Catsup 2 12-OZ. BOTTLES 25c

AYLMER—ORANGE
MARMALADE 32-oz. Jar 25c

LIBBY'S
OLIVES
STUFFED 2½-OZ. JAR 17c QUEEN 2½-OZ. JAR 13c

BRUNSWICK
SARDINES 6 TINS 25c

FRESH FRUITS

SOWEGA FAMOUS
WATER-MELONS

Carloads of these famous watermelons, fresh from the fields of Georgia, are coming to A & P stores. A & P prices are the lowest on the market.

California Valencia—Medium Size
ORANGES Doz. 27c

Make this your headquarters for "Daily Eggs" Mash and Scratch Feeds, also Oyster Shell. All prices are right.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO. LIMITED OF CANADA

Used by the Expeditions of BYRD and WILKINS

Best and Most Economical for YOUR Radio

BURGESS RADIO BATTERIES

A Full Supply Of Burgess Flashlights, Burgess Radio Batteries Always On Hand At

John Lewis Company
205 Front St. Phone 3500

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

KIDNEY DISEASE
BACKACHE
RHEUMATISM
BLADDER TROUBLE
DROPSY
DIABETES
BRIGHT'S DISEASE

DODD'S 1787 1933 THE PROVEN

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE DAILY ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at the Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.

B. E. MORTON, Publisher

DIFFERENCES

Those who appear to be "hurt" over reports from London of differences of opinion and who seem to think that there should be harmony as would not even allow such reports to be broadcast, should remember that the Economic Conference is one in which real differences of opinion are brought together to see if it is possible to iron out difficulties. If there were not real difficulties there would be no conference.

It must be realized that many of these differences of opinion are fundamental. Judge John Bassett Moore, writing in the July Foreign Affairs says, adding that no experienced diplomat would trust out of his sight an adversary who did not seek to attain for his own country a fair deal. According to the New York Times, he says: "Only those who are disposed to maintain the rights and interests of their respective countries can treat with one another on the basis of self-respect. The best diplomatists are those who are willing to give as well as to take; who can grasp as well and apply the equitable solution that assures to each that which is justly due; who, in leaving behind them no heartburns and resentments, conserve the interests of all."

The Times points out that this is the spirit in which the leading minds of the Conference are met. "Because they are not able at once to strike hands on a general bargain, it is not to be inferred that they are secretly conspiring against one another or trying to play a sharp game. Such clashes of opinion as have taken place are inevitable."

Canadians and citizens of the other Dominions of the Empire have just to recall how the various parts of the Imperial Conference which met last summer in Ottawa, seemingly took opposite sides and struggled in a way which might lead some to think they were not members of the same commonwealth, when as a matter of fact the very strenuousness of the efforts proved them members of the same family who knew one another and who were working not only for the good of themselves but also for the welfare of the entire empire.

LIFE AS EXPERIENCE WITH SYMBOLS

Life is merely dreamed, is the new nerve theory propounded by Professor Henri Pieron of the Sorbonne, Paris, as expressed before the American Association for the Advancement of Science at Chicago. He applies modern psychology to the analysis of human sensations and consciousness.

In this he goes very close to the ancient Greek philosopher, Plato, who in a somewhat similar view without the knowledge of modern science to support him, and also to Shakespeare who puts into the mouth of one of his characters in his last play "The Tempest," the same concept of life, "we are such stuff as dreams are made on and our little life is rounded with a sleep."

Dr. Pieron says between us and reality there stands an insurmountable barrier beyond which man's knowledge and consciousness may never pass. He says: "What we see, hear, touch, smell, taste, feel, think or know are merely shadows, symbols of objects but not the objects themselves, 'such stuff as dreams are made on'."

Of course Dr. Pieron does not mean that life is not real. It is real to us and must be lived out according to the physical and moral laws of existence which have been proven as essential for right social and individual existence. The symbols he speaks of will include all our experiences, the trees, the earth, water, hill and dale, other beings, colors, and so on, but they are not quite known to man—there is a barrier which really makes this life a shadowland, walled from the great reality behind the symbols.

This view does not add unreality to existence; it enriches existence by the stress which it places on the verities which lie behind all experience. It may help some to that view of most men who believe that when their spirits have passed behind the veil into the now unseen, there without the use of the senses which are essential to physical life they will see the fact behind the symbol. Thinkers all through the ages have striven to discover what it is which is at the basis of the life principle.

WHEAT PRICE MOVEMENT

Climbing of wheat prices for two days this week and then the loss of a half of the two-day gain have stirred the agricultural community as it is realized that the possibility of much higher prices for wheat may not be so far off as once thought likely. At the same time it is distressing to think of shortage of crops as a possibility through drought and grasshopper plague, for through a scarcity from such causes there is certain to be some suffering by those whose crops have failed.

Yet whatever brings higher prices will in the long run help in the rehabilitation of the farmer and through him of the nation. With a rise in price Canada's surplus of nearly 200 million bushels will mean a great increase in wealth, which will be

THE CHILDLIKE HEART

Such simple things have brought me joy;
A linnet singing overhead,
A far ship swimming into sight,
A word you said!

I would not have it otherwise,
The childlike heart is greatly blest,
Though high estate is not for me,
My lot is best.

A little child sees life all fair,
His innocence knows naught impure.
Unfaith may dwell beside him, yet
His faith is sure.

I go so gladly all the day
And find in every flying hour
Some fresh entertainment for my mood
In wind or song or flower!

Such simple things have brought me joy;
Tossed foam, like lace, upon a wave
The graces of a poplar tree,
A look you gave!

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

REMEMBER THE LUSITANIA

CAPT. WM. THOMAS TURNER died last Friday evening at Great Crosby, near Liverpool, England, aged 77. Capt. Turner was in command of the Steamship Lusitania, sunk by a submarine in 1915, with the great loss of life. Capt. Turner also commanded the Ivernia when she was torpedoed in the Mediterranean on New Year's Day, two years later, while he was taking troops to Salonika. His father before him was a sea captain and when a lad of eight sailed from Glasgow with his father on the barque Grasmere which struck a sunken rock near Belfast and sank. All on board escaped. He saw much sea life on windjammers until he joined the Cunard staff. Following the best sea tradition Capt. Turner was the last to leave the Lusitania after it had been torpedoed by a German submarine. Findings of the inquiry presided over by Lord Mersey at the direction of the Board of Trade held that the liner was unarmed with no trained gunners on board and that Captain Turner was free of blame. Germany's strategy and frightfulness was given the entire blame for this terrible human slaughter.

x x x x

When the ship sank Captain Turner went down with it, standing at his post on the bridge. As the water rose over him he climbed a ladder, saw an oar floating near by, grasped it and swam off Letting go the oar he clung to a chair for two hours until it turned over. Then he flung up a gold braided arm, a sailor saw it and he was rescued.

x x x x

The Ivernia was his last sea-going command. He assumed it only four hours before the ship sailed, relieving Captain Arthur Rostron. Thereafter he was relief captain at Glasgow and Liverpool until his retirement in November, 1919, on reaching the Cunard Lines age limit for commanders, 63 years.

x x x x

Captain Turner commanded the Lusitania and Mauretania when they made some of their fastest runs between New York and Liverpool. He was regarded as especially skillful in docking a ship. On her first voyage he docked the Aquitania at the Cunard pier, foot of West Fourteenth Street, in nineteen minutes, a record for a ship of that size.

x x x x

RINGLING BROTHERS AND BARNUM AND BAILEY Greatest Show on Earth played Montreal Monday and Tuesday in accordance with their present policy of hitting only the high spots. John Ringling may send one of his smaller circuses thru Ontario playing one-day stands, but no announcement has been made as yet to that effect. However, there's still a circus lot in Belleville, dedicated to the Big Top and the menagerie, and marked by the grave of that brave young lion, Brutus, who escaped at Kingston, was strangled by a lunatic's lasso, and brought to Belleville and buried. Brutus was a good performer, young and healthy, and was valued at about $5,000.

x x x x

BELLEVILLE MOTORISTS, touring recently, report that No. 3 Highway, west of Toronto, is a better route to take than No. 2 Highway, the scenery being finer and the roadbed superior. No. 3 Highway leads along the lake shore and avoids the various large communities of western Ontario—and SO, here's a tip for the Sidelight Family who may go a-motoring over the holiday.

x x x x

Brown—"What do you do when a woman asks you to parade her goods?"

Smith—"I guess my guess to myself, knock off 30 per cent., and generally come near making myself adored."

x x x x

"Every wife is a Home Secretary." And

Palmer's Jewel Shop
28 BRIDGE ST. E.

To-day—1933—all the nations of the world need GOLD. There are millions of dollars lying around in Canada in discarded or broken jewelry. Bring your old gold here for highest cash value.

SHOWER GIFTS
See our 1.00 window display of Silver, China, Cut Glass and Pottery-ware.

SUMMER BAGS
White Washable Pigskin. Smart styles, zipper fastener .. 1.00

GRADUATION GIFT
A beautiful Rubova Baguette, 15 jewel movement and smartly styled engraved case.
24.75

Lake Shore Beach
NEW PICNIC GROUNDS
with
SAND—BATHING—TABLES WITH FIREPLACES AND SHADE
3 MILES SOUTH OF SMITHFIELD
ON NO. 2 HIGHWAY—FOLLOW THE SIGNS

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 29, 1913

Mr. and Mrs. John Cherry and daughter, of Victoria, B.C., are visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. George Lee and two little sons, Harry and Jack are spending a few weeks in Perth and other eastern places.

Rev. Myrun Fisher Hawley and Mrs. Hawley are visiting at the home of Mr. Jay Anderson, Bay View Farm, Meanaaaan. Mr. Hawley was formerly a resident of Mananaaaa for over twenty years, but has not visited his old home for about twenty-five years.

The finishing touches were given last evening to the recent privilim at the west side playground. It is a substantial structure and reflects credit on the builder, Mr. Harry Brooks.

Butter is selling at 28 cents and 30 cents per pound; eggs 20 cents to 22 cents per dozen, the former price for basket lots; dressed chickens $1.50 to $2.00 per pair. Strawberries are not plentiful and are selling at 18 cents per box.

30 YEARS AGO

JUNE 29, 1903

Mr. A. Finkle of Montreal, is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Mayzel and Miss Kathleen Bjork are spending their holidays with friends in Brantford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fitzpatrick of Rochester, N.Y., are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Chas. Duncan and family of Rochester, N.Y., are visiting relatives in the city.

Rev. Father Connolly of Brighton's Mills, formerly connected with St. Michael's Church here, was a visitor in the city today.

Mr. Leonard Howe, of Toronto, spent yesterday in the city with relatives. He left today for Whitago, where he has obtained a good position with a drug house.

The Rev. Joseph H. Locke, Mrs. Locke and family will leave early tomorrow to visit in Omemee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brockhurst, of Buffalo, N.Y., are the guests of Mrs. Atkins, Albert St.

Mrs. and Miss Sanders have returned to Belleville from Toronto where they spent the winter and spring.

FUEL RATES VARY GREATLY

Mr. W. E. Schuster Claims Belleville Must be Classed Lake Port

Belleville is a lake port recognized as such in the freight rate on American coal from Black Rock or International Bridge to Belleville fixed at $1.85 per net ton, bituminous $1.35. Third class rates are based on water competition from Genesee docks, N.Y.

In the matter of rates on British coal from Montreal to Belleville, a distance of 220 miles, rate $1.70 per ton compared with the rate from Montreal to Toronto of $1.30 per ton, a distance of 330 miles.

If the Toronto rate is based upon water competition so should the Belleville rate be. Until two years ago the rate on British coal to Belleville was $2.30 per ton, but was reduced to $1.80 from the opening of navigation until the close. This feature recognizes Belleville as a lake port.

Mr. W. E. Schuster, who has been carrying on negotiations with a view to getting a reduction in the rates, is asked that Belleville should be classed as a lake port.

40 YEARS AGO

JUNE 29, 1893

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Clark of this city are now visiting Scotland.

The Belnap Bros. have pitched their tent on the river side at Ormond's bridge and are catching frogs for the American market. They work all night and traverse the river from Plainfield to Fairfield's Bridge. They report fair success.

Mr. N. B. Falkiner is in Montreal on business.

Mr. S. R. Earle left for Chicago this morning.

Mr. Walter W. Lee is in Toronto looking after a large bridge contract.

Mr. P. C. Jones, dry goods merchant, left for England today on a buying trip.

Mr. Fred Diamond has secured a position on the staff of the Belleville Business College.

Messrs Homer Christie and James Mackie are in Montreal buying stock for a cigar factory which they will shortly establish in Belleville.

Mr. Alexander and Mr. John McFee will visit the Barrie silver mine next week.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 28, 1883

A well preserved relic of bygone times has just left the carriage factory of Jas. St. Charles. It is a bus which Mr. Fred Rikenston remembers having ornamented twenty-six years ago. The vehicle is not as tony now as well shaped and as light as those of the present time, but it is substantial. The bus was sent into Toronto for repairs. It will be in use again on that route on Monday next.

Prof. Smith, organist of the Methodist Episcopal Tabernacle, accompanied by Mrs. Smith and daughter, left today to visit friends in Toronto.

Through liberality of Ritchie and Co.'s nurseries and of those who live at the home of Mrs. Furnival the children at the Marcher Home will have an abundance of strawberries on Dominion Day.

The water and gas committee met last night and decided to reduce the number of gas lamps now in use in the city and to change the location of others. The proposition to construct water works, which was sent by the council to the committee, was laid over for further consideration.

In order to widen the market in Belleville for British coal satisfactory freight rates must be secured," he said today.

The rate from Montreal to Kingston is $1.50 the same as at Toronto. Please bear in mind that in these discussions the whole subject is to secure a wider market for British coal in order to allow for wider markets in England for Ontario farm products.

The Mail and Empire today carries an article from London dealing with a recent proposal exchanging cattle for Welsh coal.

They complain that Belleville is officially a lake port and entitled to all the benefits regarding rail rates that other towns and cities enjoy, such as Toronto, Oshawa and Kingston.

"Present dredging operations in the harbor are being carried on with a view to enabling deep draft boats to enter the harbor.

"I am absolutely certain that with a reasonable amount of newspaper publicity the C.P.R. and Canadian National will authorize a $1.50 rate. They have not made an effective argument to me and I know the subject thoroughly. Several prominent citizens have spoken to me and are astounded that Belleville should be

EXCLUSIVE LADIES' SHOPPE
279½ Front St. Belleville
Mid-Summer Clearing Sale
SPECIALS
200 DRESSES—VOILES, PIQUES AND SILK—FOR 1.79

BLOUSES
Printed Silks and Satins
98c

100 Ladies' Spring and Summer HATS
69c

White Hats - - Special 79c

PRINTED SILK DRESSES
Regular 7.95 and 6.95. Clearing at 4.95

SWISS ORGANDY DRESSES
With Slips. Regular 7.95, for 3.95

BEACH SLACKS WITH BLOUSE COMBINED—In White, Blue and Sand—Complete 98c

SWAGGER SILK COATS—In Three Quarter Length and Short Coats 2.95

SILK CREPE DRESSES—Regular 8.95—In all shades .. 4.95

WHITE FLANNEL SPORT COATS 8.95

WHITE SKIRTS
2.49—1.50—1.89
98c
In Linen, Crepes, Piques and Flannel.

FLANNEL BLAZERS
In All Shades.
1.50

LEATHER PURSES
With Zippers. Clearing at
79c

CLOTH SKIRTS
In various materials and in all shades. Clearing at 1.49

GIRDLES - 49c
BRASSIERES - 15c

SPACE WILL NOT PERMIT US TO MENTION ALL OUR BARGAINS
EXCLUSIVE LADIES' SHOPPE
279½ FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE, ONT. PHONE 2247

SHOTS CALLED "MURDEROUS"

Penitentiary Keeper Says Convict Behan Used Phrase

Kingston, Ont., June 29—(CP)—Keeper George Nolan first witness called in the trial of convict Sam Behan, charged with participating in the riots at Kingston Penitentiary in October last, told the court that Behan had said "this is murderous" as shots were fired in the direction of the convict mob the day the insurrection broke out.

The witness said that he saw Behan in the mail bag department the afternoon of the riot. "As shots were fired," he testified, "Behan said 'this is murderous'." He said that Warden Smith had told the accused that the convicts had brought it on themselves."

When the Warden asked Behan to have an agreement, Nolan said, the convict had replied that he was ready to "take the rap" if he had an outside trial.

"There is very little sentiment in America for any form of capital punishment."—Nicholas Murray Butler.

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. Scott

TURKEY'S JULY 4TH IS JULY 3!

ON JULY 3, 1908, THE YOUNG TURK REBELLION BEGAN IN THE VILLAGE OF RESNA, AND DID NOT REALLY END UNTIL ABDUL HAMID ABDICATED AND THE ANCIENT OTHOMAN AUTOCRACY WAS AT AN END

GEAR BAG

What are the "Three R's"?

What gift did Jacob make to Joseph, his son, which aroused the envy of Joseph's brothers?

What country was once inhabited by the Aztecs?

Correctly Speaking

"Asset" means "property applicable in the payment of debts." Should not be loosely used in the sense of "anything valuable or useful"; as "Bibb is an asset to the team".

Words of Wisdom

The history of every individual man should be a Bible.—Novalis.

Reprinted, 1933, by Scripps Howard Newspaper Alliance, Inc. 7-29

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day are fluent and reticent at times, and independent.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. Reading, writing and arithmetic.

2. 4, coal of many colors.

3. Mexico, from about 1200 to 1540.

COUNTY NEWS

McPHAIL'S CEMETERY IS DECORATED

Wooler—A large crowd attended the Decoration Day at McPhail's cemetery on Sunday afternoon. Friends were there from Peterboro, Codrington, Brighton, Norham, Colborne, Trenton, Port Hope and Wooler. The speakers were Major Relford, Rev. J. W. Flatt and Rev. A. Poulter. The male quartette (William Montgomery, L. H. Rowe, Alden Arthur and Bruce Ellis) accompanied by Mrs. Rowe, was much appreciated. The weather was very warm but the people were made comfortable. The flowers were bright and many of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt Haggerty and children spent Sunday at Frenchie's Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlow or Codrington, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Merrill on Sunday.

Miss G. Bell spent the week end at Eldorado.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Ross, Jean, Clare and Donald of Wellington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Terrill.

Miss Wooton of Belleville, spent the week end with Rev. and Mrs. Poulter and children.

Mr. W. A. Smith spent a week with her sister, Norman Heyrington at Hamilton and on Saturday he died. The remains remained until after the funeral on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. N. McColl is poorly again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Austin and family spent the week end at their cottage at the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott enjoyed a motor trip on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McColl were down east attending a fair last week.

Mrs. Sam McColl was children spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vardy.

Mrs. Bonesham spent this week with Mrs. Arsley Masters.

Mr. Dan McColl spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eol Terrill.

Bernice Sharpe spent the week in Frankford with Mrs. C. Carr.

The Sunday morning service in the United Church was conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Poulter, a vocal solo by Douglas Steinburgh and Mr. Lafferty of Toronto gave an address on "Temperance."

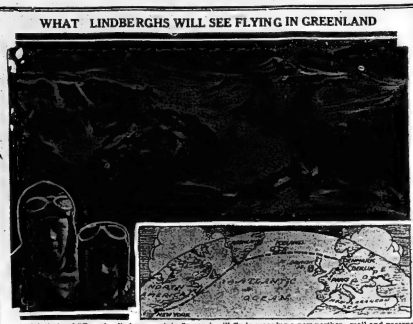
Mr. W. E. Scott is confined to his bed suffering from the summer flu.

Mrs. Ernest King and children of Toronto, spent a day with her sister, Mrs. Percy Gooding. Mrs. King and one child sailed on Saturday for England to spend the summer there at her old home. The other three children will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Gooding.

Miss Doris McCool is spending a few weeks in Wellington.

Mrs. Oliver is convalescing from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clarke of Colborne, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Terrill on Wednesday evening.



Miss M. Davey spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McColl.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dorland spent Sunday afternoon at Presqu'ile Pt.

Miss Clement and Miss Curry of Stirling, called on Mr. Clinton Terrill on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne McDonald of Bloomfield, spent Sunday with Mrs. R. Rowe.

WHAT LINDBERGHS WILL SEE FLYING IN GREENLAND

NEWS BUDGET OF 4TH AMELIASBURG

4th. Ameliasburg—Miss Sybil Vancott of Birch Run, Mich., was the guest of Miss L. Mastin last week.

Mr. Gerald Wyrott spent Sunday in Picton.

Mrs. George Cunningham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harold Wright of Bellevill.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Gibson were guests of Mrs. Ella Giles of Centre on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Demille spent Sunday with friends at Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Pauline Brannonbe of Bloomfield, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Walter Marshall on Sunday.

Messrs. Stuart and Thomas Kingston, and sister, Miss Maggie Kingston, called on Mrs. Margaret Dolan on Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Sager and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Price were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Alyea of Adams on Sunday.

Mrs. John Gibson visited her sister Mrs. Francis Wood of Ameliasburg on Wednesday.

Mr. Chas. Dolan of Belleville, is at Conseconton.

Misses Aneta and Dorothy Cross of Sprinbrug spent the week end with their father, Mr. Kenneth Cross.

Miss Margaret Mitchell spent Monday night with Mrs. Grant Crosley, Ameliasburg.

Miss Thelma Weir of Little Kingston has been engaged as teacher for Salem School.

Miss Marion Davis returned to her home at Carrying Place after spending some time with Mrs. Charles Sager and Mr. and Mrs. T. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cunningham visited at Mr. Leonard Wood's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jinks of North Lansdale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Vanoott.

Mrs. Colton of Oshawa, visited her son, Mr. Willie Colton on Sunday.

PINNED UNDER BUNDLE OF HAY

Melrose—Mr. Gordon Snider miraculously escaped a fatal accident on Wednesday last while unloading hay, when the hay fork tripped unexpectedly letting the bundle of hay fall on him. Mr. Snider suffered considerable pain and confined to his bed, is improving as well as can be expected. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The local church board held a meeting at the church last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Macfarlane and daughter, Myrtle and Frances were Sunday guests of Mrs. F. McKinney, Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaldson and family, second line, were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettingill, Picton; North Lansdale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Vanoott.

Mrs. Colton of Oshawa, visited her son, Mr. Willie Colton on Sunday.

Mrs. E. Badgley with her sister, Mrs. W. W. McCabe attended the afternoon session of the Ladies' Aid Convention at the Tabernacle Church, Belleville, on Thursday last.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late T. A. Leslie, of Thurlow, on Friday.

The ball game between Foxboro and Melrose team on the home grounds on Friday evening resulted with the visitors winning by the score of 7 to 6.

The Bible Study Class group of the United Church are trying their exams.

RAIN GREATLY NEEDED ON FARM

Lonsdale—Rain is badly needed in this vicinity, the gardens and pasture fields are drying up.

Some young men attended the ball game at Melrose on Tuesday evening.

Miss Helen McHenry called on Miss Reta Rashotte on Monday evening.

Miss Olive Vassie, nurse in Lockwood Clinic, Toronto, returned to her duties there after spending the past week with friends in this vicinity.

Miss Thelma Milburn entertained some company on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Cassidy and family and Mr. Hayes, accompanied by his daughters, Misses Reta and Angelin, with some others spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Lucy Sexsmith and her brothers.

Mr. Joe Hayes spent Friday in Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McRae entertained some friends on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCullough, Bobby and Franklin, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Francis and Mrs. James McCullough on Sunday.

A number of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Leinster, and gave a shower of lovely and useful gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Rose (nee Miss Jennie Brown); all spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. Frank McCabe was married also very recently; he is one of the boys from this vicinity and he entertained some of his young friends on Thursday evening. Mrs. Frank McCabe was formerly Miss Rose Gibson of Thurlow.

Miss Olive Vassie, Mrs. A. H. McCullough and Miss Kathleen spent Tuesday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCullough.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Leavens, and baby Carl, Corbyville, spent one day this week with her mother, Mrs. Mitchell McCullough.

Dr. and Mrs. Whiteman spent the week end with their aunt and uncle Mrs. James Whiteman and Mr. N. Whiteman. Dr. Whiteman is a son of Dr. Robert Whiteman, who formerly lived at Lonsdale.

Mrs. George Sexsmith is spending a few days with friends at Napanee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Farrell spent Friday in Kingston.

Mr. Harry Rebble, Deseronto, also Mr. Billy King, spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mr. J. M. McCullough.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Diamond and children, accompanied by his brother, spent an evening with Mrs. Jenna Whiteman.

Mr. Frank Hubbs spent Saturday evening and Sunday with friends at Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Trenton, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCullough. Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. McCullough and Kathleen attending service Sunday morning in the Church of the Redeemer at Deseronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sheridan spent a day recently here.

Mr. Wagar called on Mr. Frank McCullough on Sunday.

Mr. and Miss Warren, Deseronto, took dinner on Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCullough.

Mr. George Pearson called on Mr. Milburn on Monday.

The "greatest river in the world" is a counter equatorial current in the Pacific, which flows about ten degrees north and parallel to the Equator.

FOUR SQUARE CLUB PRESENTS GIFTS TO DEPARTING PASTOR

Empey Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson, Selby, were guests at Mr. Fred Kimmerley's on Thursday.

The Four Squares met on Thursday evening and after the usual business was concluded the officers were elected for the coming year. The congregation also met and presented Rev. and Mrs. Point with an occasional chair and Kenwood blanket. Although taken completely by surprise they both replied and thanked the people heartily. All are very sorry to have them move away, and wish them every success in their new field.

Mr. J. E. Sexsmith returned from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doidge, Selby, spent Tuesday at Mr. M. Doidge's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stapley and Miss Polly Stapley attended the funeral of their cousin in Stirling on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Solmes and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Kimmerly visited at Mr. Jim Jones', Thomasburg on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMath, Mc-Gillivray, Rev. and Mrs. Blow, Mrs. George Richmond and Mrs. Fred Kimmerly spent Friday evening at Mr. Will McCrae's.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Penny, Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Will Penny visited in Kingston on Sunday at Mr. George Saunder's.

Mr. O. E. Ashley was successful in carrying home second prize on the cattle judging in Napanee at the Holstein Field Day there recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Akey entertained Mr. and Mrs. Will Akey, Miss Edna Akey, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Akey, Point Anne; Mr. and Mrs. R. Akey, Sulphide; Mr. and Mrs. S. Greatrix and son of Picton on Sunday.

Quite a number from here attended the reopening at Selby and Sunday and had dinner with friends there: Mr. and Mrs. E. Price and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kimmerly, Doris, Delma, and Grant at Miss Lucille Higgins'; Mr. and Mrs. H. Kimmerly at Mr. Percy Hudgin's; Mr. and Mrs. John Mowers, Irene and Geraldine at Mr. Grimley's; Mr. Ernest Sexsmith and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ashley at Mr. S. D. O. Winters.

Mrs. H. Henderson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Yeomans in Belleville.

Mrs. E. Whittington spent Sunday at the parsonage.

The W.M.S. had a quilting at the church on Tuesday and quilted three quilts.

Miss Bea Mowers is visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Ruby Rikley spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. Fred Henderson.

Mrs. J. Haggerty, Mrs. F. Henderson and Mrs. O. E. Ashley attended an afternoon tea at Mrs. Chas. Vanslaitin's on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Haggerty was guest speaker.

Silver sword grows only in the crater of Haleakala, Hawaii.

Forget the weather

You CAN—if you eat to feel fit. That means more crisp, light foods—fewer heavy, hot dishes. Kellogg's Corn Flakes should come first on your list.

Enjoy with milk or cream and add fruits or honey. Rich in energy—and so easy to digest they don't "heat you up." Made by Kellogg in London, Ont.

Kellogg's for Koolness

THE RED & WHITE STORES

DOMINION DAY

You'll enjoy the Holiday Outing when the Picnic Hamper is filled with satisfying foods . . . bought at Red & White budget saving prices.

Real Savings for the Holiday

Fresh—Crisp—Flavourful

Gold Medal PICKLES
Sweet Mixed or Mustard
12-oz. bott. 24c
38-oz. Jar 43c

Gold Medal OLIVES
QUEEN Large 28 oz. bti. 29c
STUFFED No. 4 Jar 2 for 25c

RED AND WHITE Salad Dressing
Large 24c Small 15c

Educator Toasted Cheese Thins
Always Fresh Large Box 14c

MORNING GLORY
Creamery Butter Fresh 2 lbs. 41c
LIFEBUOY SOAP 3 cakes 25c
CHIPSO Quick Suds That Last pkg. 21c
GILLETT'S LYE 2 cans 25c

SPECIAL
Kellogg's Rice Krispies . . pkg. 10c
EXCELLENT FOR SALADS, ETC.
Singapore Sliced Pineapple 2 tins 25c
FLUFFO
Shortening 2 lbs. 21c Pure Lard 2 lbs. 19c
NEW CROP 3 CROWN
Australian Seedless Raisins 2 lbs. 25c
EXTRA SPECIAL
Crosse & Blackwell's Beans 11 oz. tins 7c
THE POPULAR BEVERAGE
Canada Dry Ginger Ale 2 12 oz. 20c 2 for 25c
Plus Usual Bottle Charge

KOLONA Coffee 1 lb. bag 29c

Frankford Sweet CORN
No. 2 Can 8c

RED AND WHITE BRAND
Or. Pekoe Tea, lb. 45c
Coffee, 1 lb. tins . 45c
Free Glasses with above.
Spaghetti, cooked tin 10c
Baking Powder 16 oz. 23c
Vanilla Extract, btl. 9c
Jelly Powders, 6 pkgs. 25c
Choice Peas, No. 4 tin 12c
Asst. Soups 3 tins 25c
Tomatoes, 2½ tins 10c
Floor Wax, lb. tins 29c
Pumpkin, choice, tin 10c
Cohoe Salmon Tall Tin 24c
Shredded Wheat . . . . . 2 pkgs. 25c

CANDY AND BISCUIT SPECIALS
McCormick's HOLIDAY ASST. BISCUITS lb. 25c
A FREE Bathing Cap with every pound.
PEANUT BUTTER KISSES lb. 15c

QUALITY ALWAYS HIGHER THAN PRICE

FIRST CHOICE FOR 18 YEARS IN A ROW

Through every business cycle for nearly two decades—especially in the le... when money had ... way—the pu... Goodyears th...

Despite the confu... the public bel... buy. Today ... of the majo... who want ...

...ed Accountant
...erville, Ont.
...564 157 Front St.

INSURANCE
E & MARTIN LIMITED
...eneral Insurance Agents
157 Front St.
Phone 1264 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
231 Front St. Phone 136

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
278 Front Street Phone 1167w

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman
Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

An interesting photograph of the Deroche-Wegenast wedding party appears in the Toronto press this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Young, 277 William street, are celebrating their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary on July 1st.

Mrs. A. B. Collins, Mrs. J. F. Dolan, Mrs. J. V. Doyle, and Miss Allan Evans were tea hostesses at the Bay of Quinte Country Club, yesterday afternoon.

Word has been received of the death of Mr. W. H. Buckley, who passed away in Genoa City Wisconsin, on June 24th. Mrs. Stanley Waddell and Mrs. Eugene Paisley of this city are step-daughters of the deceased.

Miss Gertrude Nightingale of Rome, N.Y., who has been spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. James F. Anderson, Trent Road, leaves tomorrow for Montreal from where she will sail for Europe with a touring party from Toronto University.

Sixty members of St. Andrew's Club enjoyed a picnic yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walbridge, Massassaga. Boating and a program of games was enjoyed. A delightful feature of the afternoon was the presentation to Miss Grace Horie, bride-to-be, of a gift by Mrs. J. O. Seymour on behalf of the Club.

Misses Emma and Edith Reid of Chicago, are the guests of Miss Mary George street.

Mr. Jas. A. Cokers lately retired district manager of the Bell Telephone Co. here, was in attendance Friday and Saturday last at the annual convention of the Charles Pleasford Sise Chapter No. 26 of the Telephone Pioneers of America, held in the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa. Some 630 men from all parts of Canada who had been in the service of telephone companies for 21 years and over were in attendance and Mr. Cokers reports meeting many old friends, and former fellow employees of the Bell Telephone Company. Mrs. Cokers was in Colborne with Mr. Cokers and they returned to the city following three weeks spent at Cornwall, House's Point, N.Y., St. Johns, Que., and resorts in the Laurentian Hills.

HALLOWAY W.M.S.

The June meeting of the Halloway W.M.S. was held at the church, with the president, Mrs. Bennett Wilson, took charge of the meeting. Hymn 97 was sung and the Lord's prayer repeated in unison.

The Scripture Lesson was taken from the fourteenth chapter of Matthew, read by Mrs. G. Oadman. Vera Rose, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call was answered by the name of her. Mr. Mutton gave a short talk on the sixtieth jubilee of the W.M.S. Miss Hilda Reid gave one of her good readings which is always enjoyed. Hymn 119 was sung and Mr. Mutton closed the meeting with prayer.

LITTLE BENNY

I was taking my puppy Junior for a walk on account of him needing exercise and me being the one that, suppose to give it to him, and Sherry Jocko was sitting on his front steps by himself, me saying, Hello Sherry, have you still got that?

Meaning the half a doller his aut gave him when he stayed at her house last Sunday and Sunday, and Sherry said, I still got it all rite.

O, you going to keep it all your life? I said, and he said, No, I'm libel to spend it the day now, all I needs a good ider.

Well G, I said, if you a good one I'll sell you a intrist in this dog for half of it, I said, and Sherry said, Do you mean a hair intrist and I'll be klose to him half the time, and you keep him the other half?

Like fun, a hair intrist, good nite, do you think I'm a fool? I said, and Sherry said, Well you want half of my half a dollar, gimme your half and half, what do you want fairer than that? he said.

Well G wimickers what's a half of a half a dollar, it's a quarter, so I'll give you a quarter intrist in Junior for it, I said, I'll give you his bike quarter, take the quarter he shakes to prove he's glad to see people, and I'll tell all the fellows so everybody will know every time he shakes your quarter intrist, I said.

Nothing doing, Sherry said, and I said, Well hay, wait a minnit, listen, there's a special privilege goes with it you can have the privilege of coming around to my house once a week and giving him a bath.

Thanks just a same but I gave a dog a bath once and he wouldn't keep still a second and I was exhausted for the rest of the day, Sherry said. Being the way I generally feel after I wash Junior, and I said, O well, all rite, if you don't want to I'm not going to coax you.

And I kept on going, feeling glad I still owned Junior all over, and Junior acting glad too.

Week-End
HAT
SALE
In Sand—Grey—Black
Navy and Brown
Straw
Values to 4.95
Special Clearing
98c
WOODLEY'S
273 Front St.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
192 Front ... Phone ...
If Modern ... it's Clean.

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go.
Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth it.
Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.
J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 318 224 FRONT ST.

Weddings

NEWBATT—GOULD

The United Church Manse, Bancroft, was the scene of a pretty wedding, the evening of Thursday, fifteenth of June, 1933, when the bride Earla Irene Gould, is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin W. Gould of Faraday Township. The groom, Mr. Alfred Edward Newbatt, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Newbatt or Cardiff Township.

The bride wore a becoming dress of brown lace crepe with ivory-colored trimming and carried a bouquet of pink peonies and sweet William. The matron of honour was Mrs. William Kerr also in brown crepe. Mr. Kerr supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by the minister of the United Church. The happy couple have left on a motor trip through Quebec and will with them all joy and prosperity in their married life.

STRICKLAND—FITZBETT

The marriage took place yesterday in St. Paul's United Church, Gilmour, of Miss Ruth Lily daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Fitzbett of Gilmour, to Albert Strickland, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Strickland of Trenton. Rev. W. Rowland officiated.

The church was decorated with pink, rose and blue delphiniums and the wedding music was played by Miss Ruth Bell of Stirling.

During the signing of the register Miss Bell played the Bridal Chorus.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of aquamarine chiffon cut on princess lines with raglin sleeves and trimmed with aquamarine mohair picture hat with matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of red Templar roses with blue cornflowers.

Miss Gertrude Fitzbett, Ruby Toms of Toronto, maid of honor, was her sister. She wore a pale green mousseline de soie with turban of chiffon to match. She carried a bouquet of pink butterfly roses.

Ronald Hanley of Toronto, who also wore a "Joan" frock of pale yellow chiffon over slip of the same matching turban of chiffon velvet. She carried a bouquet of red Templar roses. Miss Helen Fitchett of Stirling, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a pink flowered frock with a basket of baby butterfly roses.

The best man was Mr. Carman Burt of Picton and the ushers were Mr. Donald Ivey and Mr. Kenneth Sine, both of Gilmour.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother received, wearing a gown of brown and white crepe with brown accessories, a hat of white lace and a shoulder bouquet of butterfly roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a gown of navy blue crepe with white accessories and shoulder bouquet of butterfly roses. For the bride and groom left for a trip through the Maritimes. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue and white ensemble with white hat. On their return they will live in Toronto.

This Depression Just Child Play Says Woman of 102

Atlanta, Ga., June 29 (CP)—Experiences of five depressions over a lifetime of 102 years, leave Sarah L. Mincey of Sparta, Ga., cold to worry over today's economic problems.

"The present economic crisis," she says contemptuously, "is child's play beside what I've seen."

Here to celebrate a daughter, the 102 year old woman said she believed the world would be troubled less if people ate more fecia from the Bible instead of whiskey bottles and lipstick."

Results of Poster Contest Given

An inter-school Health Poster Contest of Public Schools and Collegiate Schools was held this term and judging of the posters submitted, was completed yesterday by Miss Betty Finlay, Victorian Order Nurse. The results of the contest are as follows:

Junior—Winnie Kellett, Queen Alexandra School; Honourable Mention—Queen Victoria—Billie Davies, Betty Ashman; Queen Mary—Nadine Hall Alice Bailey; Queen Alexandra—George Sloble.

Intermediate — Edwin Suiver, Queen Alexandra; Honourable Mention — Queen Victoria —Gwen McElman, Lloyd Peer; Queen Mary—Betty Dodda, Bruce Cronk; Queen Alexandra—Junior Derrig Margaret Coulby.

Senior—Marion Varley, Queen Alexandra; Honourable Mention — Queen Victoria—Ethel Parks, Garnet Lloyd; Queen Alexandra—Ruth Barlow, Everett Close; Queen Mary —Olive Wilson, George Winter.

The rules required that all posters had to be original and illustrate good health habits. Coloured drawings only were to be used and all work was to be done in the classroom.

JUDGE DIES ON TROLLEY

New York, June 29 (CP) — Edward Lazansky, 64, Judge of Sydney, Australia, died following a heart attack here today while riding on a trolley car.

Keeping the Permanent In Curl

Much of Its Beauty Depends Upon The First Finger Wave

By HELEN POLLETT

Surprising about permanent waves. Some of them are amazingly almost intelligent. They fall into pleasing lines require almost no attention. Others prove obstinate, will not conform to present day ideas as to how feminine locks should behave. Much depends upon the first finger wave, so choose your operator with care. The skilled specialist understands that soft fine hair won't respond to the same treatment that is given dry, thick locks. Don't forget that the shampoo if the wave is to survive and maintain a rhythmic pattern.

Too heroic brushing of the teeth is frowned upon by dentists. Diligent scrubbers are likely to injure the gums and harm the enamel. Brush away from the gums. Roll the brush, so the bristles will be forced between the teeth. Clean inner surfaces as well as outer ones and don't overlook the ends of the teeth. A small brush is more likely to make a thorough job than a large one, and grouped bristles are recommended.

Need a tonic pack and bleach for a skin that has gone yellowy, looks out of form? Whip the white of an egg, add one teaspoon of lemon juice and enough almond meal to make a paste the consistency of whipped cream. Spread over a clean skin surface. Lie down and rest or twenty minutes. Remove the pack with tepid water, dry, tap in cold cream.

Don't overlook chin and ear lobes. Liquid rouge has more endurance than compact blushes. But there's a trick in applying it. Moisten a piece of cotton with water, pour on a few drops of the liquid, squeeze the cotton slightly so as to thin the coloring agent, apply lightly. Careful powdering will tone down the border lines, do the proper blending act.

Beauty shops offer special blu-ings to be used for the purpose of going away with yellow streaks in white hair. Tr-- ne of a purplish cast, contain mild bleaching qualities. A few drops are added to the last rinsing water after the snowy crot has been shampooed.

Mosquito and Black-fly infestations are extremely bad this year.
Campers and Summer Cottage dwellers will find Fly-Tox a necessity. Be Prepared.
Your dealer will give you a Super Hand Sprayer Free with your first purchase of a can. Don't delay.
There is only one FLY-TOX

Correct Manners

Telegram of Good Wishes

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

1. I have had a young man teacher in High School for two consecutive years. He is to be married this Summer, and I would like to know if it would be correct for me to send him a telegram of congratulations? Although I have never met the bride, I should send it to her home, shouldn't I?

How should it be addressed—Mr. and Mrs. Smith?

2. What would be the most appropriate thing to say?

1. This would be a pleasant and thoughtful thing for you to do, and I am sure that they would very much appreciate it. The telegram should be addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, even though you have not met the bride, and should be sent to the home of the bride.

2. Some message of this kind: "Every good wish to you both for your happiness always."

Wedding Attire

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

My sister is to be married very soon in a church in the evening.

1. Is it proper to wear a hat? I have been to the ceremony, but of course, being for the attendants? If hats are to be worn, would you mind suggesting a type that would be satisfactory?

2. Is it proper to wear a semi-recollete (a dress not cut completely in the back but half way down the back)?

3. The attendants are to carry bouquets of field flowers and any suggestions as to selection of flowers so that there will be harmony will be greatly appreciated.

The maid of honour will be wearing light green organdy and the bridesmaids shall organdy.

D.

1. Usually this is a very special problem....the kind of headdress for the attendants at an evening wedding....but if you are fortunate to have this charming mode of hats-made-of-light-weight-materials to help us.

The hats should be small, of the type of an "evening hat". I suggest that they be of exactly the same shade as the attendants' dresses, to aid harmony. And I think that they would be lovely made of the softest kind of horsehair, with some simple decoration. Perhaps the bride-to-be would be interested in having this decoration a lovely crystal pin or clip, or it might be of imitation jewels. This might be the bride's gift to her bridesmaids.

2. Yes.

3. This is a charming plan.... field flowers with the green and flesh organdie as a lovely background. I suggest that you have yellow predominate in the combination, for this is especially with the green background, and delightful too with the flesh color. Some blues combined with this yellow, and you would have perhaps some Afrian daisies or the lighter shades of rose.

Cutting the Wedding Cake

Dear Mrs. Beeckman:

Please tell me how to cut a "real" wedding cake?

Reader.

It is usually easier to cut this cake from the center....that is, begin at the center and cut out toward the edge of the cake. This is better than cutting it all the way across at first. The bride usually cuts the first piece, often the first two pieces, and, if she wishes, she cuts all the pieces to be served to the guests.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

'Fatty' Arbuckle to Lie in Gold Room for View

New York, June 29—(CP)— The body of "Fatty" Arbuckle, who died in bed during the night, will lie until Saturday at the place where thousands battled seven years ago for a last look upon the face of Rudolph Valentino.

The remains of the noted actor will be on public view in the gold room on the funeral parlors of Frederick Campbell, scene of Valentino's opening until the funeral services at one p'm' but already attendants are making plans to avoid another jam.

Glass windows are being reinforced, furniture is being moved and arrangements are being made for extra police reserves.

Merchants in the interior of China are beginning to advertise.

PROTECTS HEALTH
InterFake Tissue
Interlake
PURE—SOFT
ABSORBENT
3 Rolls—2100 Sheets—25c
MADE IN CANADA
Interlake
Toilet Tissue

Beauty an Asset to Morale—or to Love

From a clipping sent me by a correspondent, a man at last, I note that the beauty business suffered less during the late hard times than any other industry. The gentlemen is quite cynical over permanents and lip sticks, but I don't see his argument.

During the depression, now happily taking flight, innumerable campaigns were carried on which I began with slogans "Spend a Dollar" or "Spend Half a Dollar." And women should not have spent that amount in keeping themselves attractive and well-groomed, instead of buying something useless to clutter up the house. I don't see.

What is more heartening than the sight of a pretty girl walking a man tramping the streets in search of work has doubtless breathed by a vision of lovely girlhood flashing by.

So, instead of being cynical, like the man who sent the clipping, over the price of a permanent or a jar of cold cream, it seems to me that a girl signing herself Effie B. has all the best of the argument.

Dear Miss Fairfax:

My way of doing my bit during the hard times was to keep the family as cheerful as possible by looking my best. The family, with the exception of myself, is entirely masculine, and consists of father, two brothers and my fiance who boards with us in the city.

Now I had two meals to get for, as office job do hold down, and it's so easy with all that, to let one's self go—to just throw things on the table and look like a frump.

Well I had heard that old fairy story about the Englishman putting on his best tie in the jungle, when he sat down to a solitary meal of reptile pie — whatever it was, just to keep his courage up, and I decided it was going to be that way with my men. So I hinted dinner would taste better if they brushed up, and that no one should be allowed to say a word about slimy eels or hard times.

It's surprising what it will do for you, if you just go through the motions of looking and acting as if everything were O.K. even when it wasn't.

So, when I cut down on lots of things I'd have liked to have, I always had a permanent and good wave article on the dresser.

The Dad hasn't got a job yet, but the brother, who has been idle for over a year, is back at work, and Fred and I are going to take a chance and be married in the Fall. I don't know how other women made out during the hard times, but my little experiment of always looking neat, and never having unhappy things spoken of during meals, made home a lot more comfortable for all of us.

Beauty may not be absolutely essential to a woman; I do not mean it is, but it helps in the handy aid. And Effie's idea of keeping up appearances, when things are let down, is wisdom of the first order.

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

LUMBERMEN RETURNED

London, June 28 (C.P. Cable) — Sources interested in the import of lumber from Canada were perturbed today at the announcement the Board of Trade has issued licences for the importation of 48,000 standards of Russian timber.

Experts from Martinique, French West Indie, last year were 12 per cent. greater than in 1931.

I have become convinced that you cannot legislate the human race to heaven."—Charles H. Parkhurst.

A Beauty Secret for Clothes Loveliness

It's really no secret for many—this habit of sending summer garments here regularly for cleansing. The cost is trifling, the results most satisfying. Send soiled and stained summer finery here for a beauty treatment.

MODERN
CLEANERS AND DYERS
192 Front ... Phone ...
If Modern ... it's Clean.

WHITE HATS

The New "Softie"

Featuring:
Crepe, Linen, Pique, Straw and Turbans
—Priced—
79c to $2.50
WOODLEY'S
273 Front St.

JUST AN Old English Custom!

IT'S ALL part of a grand tradition . . . this liking for a long, tall drink! Certainly it seems to be almost universally accepted as the civilized way to drink after sundown.

So you'll find Canada Dry all over the world. Wherever the ancient custom has gone, The Champagne of Ginger Ales has followed. And the reason is quite simple. No other ginger ale makes such a good long, tall drink.

Leave aside, for the moment, the remarkable flavour of Canada Dry . . . its purity . . . its sparkle . . . and just consider its balance. It doesn't merely mix . . . it blends! It makes a long, tall drink a thing of delight . . . no matter what else you use.

And, of course, that's just as true if you drink The Champagne of Ginger Ales all by itself. A more delightful drink to cool and refresh you on a warm day would be hard to find!

MAGNUM 20c
Plus 5c bottle deposit
12-OUNCE SIZE . . 2 for 25c
Plus 5c deposit per bottle

CANADA DRY The Champagne of Ginger Ales

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Conflicting Trends in Distillery Issues Make Market Irregular, Prices Somewhat Higher on Toronto Board—Oils Feature Trading And Golds Improve—Narrow Trading in New York — Pound Sterling Closes on Decline

Winnipeg, June 29—(CP)—Heartening before taking the plunge, wheat futures prices skidded sharply in early trading on the Winnipeg grain market today. Fractional opening declines were abruptly increased as values pounded lower, selling from all quarters, dropped more than two cents an hour after the start.

With trading at a hectic pace after a comparatively quiet start, futures at that time were 2 3-8 to 1 3-4 cents under Wednesday's close, July at 72 3-8, October 74 7-8 and December 78 1-4 cents.

Support which had lifted values fractionally from their opening 3-4 cent declines swept all the wheat futures skidded to 1 3-4 to 2 3-8 cents under yesterday's finish, July at 72 3-8, October 74 7-8 and December 78 1-4 cents.

Heavy rains were reported from Alberta and Saskatchewan which brought out selling. Offerings poured into the pit in a stream, bringing to mind the storm cents the local recessions from the "bull-market" 15-cent advances of the past few days.

Saskatchewan rains reported to have had a miniature cloud burst at several points. Two inches of rain fell at Shaunavon, and more than an inch at Moose Jaw and other points.

STANDARD EXCHANGE

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—Oils issues, some of which had not appeared for days, featured trading today on the Standard Mining Exchange in a generally weaker session. Oils were firm, gold also carrying Royalite, Home Oil, Mexland, Mayland, Associated Oils and Oil, Sarnia and others in the group to gains ranging up to 50 cents in Royalite.

Some improvement occurred in the senior golds which were mostly unchanged to fractions higher. Coniagas, McIntyre and Lake Shore held gains of 25 cents or more while Hollinger was off a few cents along with Wright Hargreaves. Teck-Hughes was steady.

Base Metals were soft with the exception of International Nickel which hardened a fraction. Noranda, Base Metal and Corporation, Vermilions and Coast Copper fluctuated narrowly and closed below yesterday.

The fairly moderate trading was featured by the oil issues which were in demand throughout. Interest in them being taken in oils on the stock exchange.

Declining bar silver prices upset the silver group where recent gains were partially cut. Although the premium on gold bullion in the market since Great Britain left the gold standard, the demand for the senior issues was not heavy and it was believed much switching had been done this week away from higher prices golds into industrial issues on the other exchanges.

TORONTO BOARD

Toronto, June 29—(CP)—Conflicting trends in the distillery group today gave this close of the Toronto Stock Exchange a mixed tone here but in other groups the day had retained its distinctly higher prices. Trading volume was much below that of yesterday.

Walkers common, which dropped abruptly on overnight orders, rallied to recover its former gain and close about 1-2 better. Distillers-Seagram, in the group, was heavy throughout, under a big turnover, closing off a point.

Bell Telephone rang up three points to 106, a new top and Montreal Power gained 2 1-4. Some uneasiness developed in Utilities, however, with Commonwealth, B.C. Power and Consumers Gas closing off.

Profit-taking cut 2 off present metals which has enjoyed a rapid rise. Other metals, such as Hamilton Bridge, Page Hersey and Steel of Canada, were up.

WALL STREET

New York, June 29 (AP) — The stock body of shares rallied short narrowly today with heavy buying in various specialties imparting periodic strength. The late tone was steady in firm. Advances of 2 to around 4 points were shown in Crown Cork, Drug, Standard Brands, Celanese, Columbian Carbon and American Telephone, Santa Fe, United States Steel, American Can and Allied Chemical were up fractions to around a point. National Distillers and Liggett and Myers B were heavy. Transfers approximated 4,500,000 shares.

NEW YORK

New York, June 29 (CP)—Flooded with rumors regarding an imminent currency stabilization agreement, the pound sterling declined sharply on the New York foreign exchanges today and closed six cents below yesterday's figure.

The Canadian dollar eased slightly with sterling, but its loss was held to ¼ of one cent, with the final rate was 9⅝ discount, or 91⅜ cents. The dollar's fluctuations were somewhat irregular.

Livestock

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—Cattle, sheep and lambs had not appeared for days, featured trading today on the Standard Mining Exchange in a generally weaker session. Oils were firm, gold also carrying Royalite, Home Oil, Mexland, Mayland, Associated Oils and Oil, Sarnia and others in the group to gains ranging up to 50 cents in Royalite.

Some improvement occurred in the senior golds which were mostly unchanged to fractions higher. Coniagas, McIntyre and Lake Shore held gains of 25 cents or more while Hollinger was off a few cents along with Wright Hargreaves. Teck-Hughes was steady.

Base Metals were soft with the exception of International Nickel which hardened a fraction. Noranda, Base Metal and Corporation, Vermilions and Coast Copper fluctuated narrowly and closed below yesterday.

The fairly moderate trading was featured by the oil issues which were in demand throughout. Interest in them being taken in oils on the stock exchange.

Declining bar silver prices upset the silver group where recent gains were partially cut. Although the premium on gold bullion in the market since Great Britain left the gold standard, the demand for the senior issues was not heavy and it was believed much switching had been done this week away from higher prices golds into industrial issues on the other exchanges.

TORONTO BOARD

Toronto, June 29—(CP)—Conflicting trends in the distillery group today gave this close of the Toronto Stock Exchange a mixed tone here but in other groups the day had retained its distinctly higher prices. Trading volume was much below that of yesterday.

Walkers common, which dropped abruptly on overnight orders, rallied to recover its former gain and close about 1-2 better. Distillers-Seagram, in the group, was heavy throughout, under a big turnover, closing off a point.

Bell Telephone rang up three points to 106, a new top and Montreal Power gained 2 1-4. Some uneasiness developed in Utilities, however, with Commonwealth, B.C. Power and Consumers Gas closing off.

Profit-taking cut 2 off present metals which has enjoyed a rapid rise. Other metals, such as Hamilton Bridge, Page Hersey and Steel of Canada, were up.

WALL STREET

New York, June 29 (AP) — The stock body of shares rallied short narrowly today with heavy buying in various specialties imparting periodic strength. The late tone was steady in firm. Advances of 2 to around 4 points were shown in Crown Cork, Drug, Standard Brands, Celanese, Columbian Carbon and American Telephone, Santa Fe, United States Steel, American Can and Allied Chemical were up fractions to around a point. National Distillers and Liggett and Myers B were heavy. Transfers approximated 4,500,000 shares.

NEW YORK

New York, June 29 (CP)—Flooded with rumors regarding an imminent currency stabilization agreement, the pound sterling declined sharply on the New York foreign exchanges today and closed six cents below yesterday's figure.

The Canadian dollar eased slightly with sterling, but its loss was held to ¼ of one cent, with the final rate was 9⅝ discount, or 91⅜ cents. The dollar's fluctuations were somewhat irregular.

Livestock

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—Early trading on the Toronto Livestock Market was very dull with only a few lambs sold up to 11 a.m. Cattle trade was very slow with not enough sales made to establish prices. Veal calves weak; hogs unsettled; lambs fairly active with opening 50 per cwt. lower than yesterday's closing level. No sheep.

Receipts as reported by the Dominion Livestock Branch were: Cattle 100; calves 70; hogs 130; sheep and lambs 450.

Cattle left over from yesterday totalled about 800 head. Bids on cattle were inactive.

Veal calves were practically at a standstill with no sales made up to 11 a.m.

Hogs were unsettled with no definite prices established. Packers were holding steady at $5.40 f.o.b. for bacon or $5.90 off cars.

Lambs opened 50c per cwt. lower selling at $8.00 per cwt. for choice with culls at $5.00. There were no sheep sold during the morning.

Quotations

Cattle—no quotations.
Calves—no quotations.
Hogs—no quotations.
Lambs—good, ewes and wethers, $8.; mediums $7.25 to $7.50; culls $5.
Sheep—no quotations.

MONEY BOX

(By the Canadian Press)

Exchange rates at noon today were:

Pound Sterling in Montreal 4.78; United States dollar in Montreal, 81.09 2-32; Pound Sterling in New York 4.34; Canadian Dollar in New York 91 1-4; Canadian Dollar in Paris 18.05 francs; U. S. Dollar in Paris 19.95 francs.

HELEN JACOBS WINS

WIMBLEDON Dr., June 29—(AP)—Helen Jacobs, United States women's Tennis Champion, started the day off right in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships by defeating Nancy Glover, British ranking English player, 6-2, 6-1.

MAIN STREET

Ramblings

PIPES—
A local gentleman who has long been known by the pipe he smokes recently broke his last and favorite tobacco burner. For years he steadfastly refused to have anything to do with these new fangled pipes with the modern gadgets and improvements. Even the dependable old briers made no impression on him. Not even a brand new and expensive meerschaum could tempt him to trade from the old-fashioned clay pipe he has always used. But last week he smashed the only one he had left. Since then he has some smokeless while making the rounds of the city to buy another one. Clerks in some of the more up-to-date stores in the city handed slightly when the subject of clay pipes is mentioned. Many of them, it appears, have never even seen one. There are no clay pipes. The manufacture is always the same. Not so long ago they were common. Kids used to buy them for a penny a piece to blow bubbles. Now they are as scarce as meerschaum pipers. Perhaps somewhere, in some of the older stores in the city, he may be able to find one, but up to the present he has had no luck. The last time he bought any, he informs us, he had to buy a case.

WATCHING—
Farmer out Maidoc way, so it is reported, for some time had been troubled with chicken thieves who made periodic swoops on the hen roosts, in the dead of night, killed and stuffed a dozen or more chickens in the bag and then made their silent getaway. Meanwhile the old dog snoozed blissfully on the old colonial couch unaware that murder was being done in the darkness. Tiring of finding decapitated heads lying about the chicken house every so often, the farmer took the advice of a friend. He purchased a half dozen or so guinea hens. Put them in a little coop just outside the door of the hen house. Now let anyone step on the farm yard at night, and the feathered watchmen set up such a shrill piercing screech they can be heard half way across the village. The guinea hens are receiving more comfortably these nights. Guinea hens, he says, never sleep.

WHIP-POOR-WILL—
City dwellers don't get much chance to get acquainted with the whip-poor-will. Only occasionally during slack. It is only at the first peep of day when the tired camper would willingly roll over in the blankets for another snooze that the bird with the monotonous reiteration of the words from which he gets his name, seems to be appreciated to the utmost. Generally he picks some low bough directly under the window of the cabin to pour forth his tiresome song long before dawn peeps over the hills. And the last thing at night he goes through the same performance. One time camper on a recent trip north decided to find out just exactly how many times the bird would repeat the same call. Carefully counting them he found that the bird with the precision of a mathematician made exactly 221, calls at the rate of 60 per minute, and always stops at the ends of the 221st call.

LIFESAVERS—
Conservation citizens lately have noticed a number of Front Street stores displaying in their windows little kapok filled life preservers, designed primarily for children. The idea so far seems to be good, though display has been mostly for educational purposes. There is little story connected with those life preservers. A professor of chemistry at the University of Toronto, Prof. M. A. Macphail, designed them and turned them over to the manufacturer without making a penny on the deal. He is a keen sailor, and now and then takes his motor boat over the Great Lakes and along the Atlantic coast. On two occasions he has seen a child drown, and he has been shaked at the carelessness of some parents in allowing their children to play in deep water without proper protection. So he designed the preserver for his grand children. He found a material that is lighter and more buoyant than cork. Then he gave the design to the manufacturer without profit or royalty. Sometime little lives may be saved in the future. When playing around the water the child wears the little jacket-like preserver continuously.

SOFTENING IN WHEAT CRISIS

Australia Sees Need of Restriction Upon Acreage

LONDON, June 29.—(AP)—Australian opposition to the programme of wheat acreage reduction with the view of raising the price of the world's principal staple commodity is manifested what was termed "a definite softening" today.

Stanley Bruce, head of a meeting of the representatives of Canada the United States and Argentina called especially at his request since it is clear that he and the Australian Government grant the necessity of acreage restriction.

He also expressed the belief that the Australian States, in which the power of cooperation rests with the project rests, may be brought around to a clear view providing certain conditions are met.

Grain Market

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ireland & Co.:

Wheat—July 73; Oct. 75 5-8; Dec. 77.

Rye— July 59 1-4; Oct. 52 3-8; Dec. 53 5-8.

Oats—July 40 1-4; Oct. 42 7-8; Dec. 44 1-2.

PROBE CROSS BURNINGS

Police Have no Knowledge of Klan Activity at Thamesville

THAMESVILLE, Ont., June 29. (CP)—Police today investigated burning crosses. Very active interest is to have inspired flight of Cheriff Smith, his wife and nine children to London, Ont.

Smith was acquitted last week on a moral charge involving a girl less than 18 years old.

The first burning cross was burned not far from Smith's home Sunday night. Since then two more have spoken to neighbors and received the impression another cross-burning might consider his presence undesirable. A second cross was erected the following night less than 60 feet from his house. The entire family was seen moving out of town early in the morning.

Provincial police had no knowledge of Ku Klux Klan activities in the neighborhood and certain belief the crosses had been burned by pranksters.

THREE CONFESS TO ROBBERY OF BANK

ST. Jerome, Que., June 29—(CP)—Albert Dubus 28, Paul Dubus, 21, and Donat Raymond, 21, pleaded guilty to holding up the St. Jovite Que. branch of the Bank of Montreal on May 29th and stealing $3000. The three men who were taken into custody by Detectives after a long search in the heavily wooded area in the vicinity of St. Jovite will be sentenced on July 24.

CONVICTED OF MURDER

ASHERST, N.S., June 29—(CP)—Trueman Dixon, 25, was found guilty today by a Cumberland County Jury on a charge of murdering Mrs. Homer Smith, elderly invalid who was found dead with her throat cut in the early morning of February 4.

Alvah Hemeon, Mr. Smith's companion on the night of February 3, was convicted on Monday and now awaits sentence.

WILES NAMED PRESIDENT

STRATFORD, Ont., June 29. — (CP)—H. T. Wiles, manager of the Bruce County branch, was elected president of the Association of Managers of Banks for the District and infirm which concluded its annual convention here today.

SEVEN DIE OF HEAT

Albany, N.Y., June 29.—(AP)—Seven deaths in New York State were charged to the heat wave which for the last three days has brought the highest temperatures of the season.

In the effort to establish rainfall there as a source of American textiles, chemists in Louisiana have worked out a chemical method for removing outer bark without injury to the fibre.

India has just placed an order for 118 auto trucks.

Great British and Ireland have 250,000 square miles under their boundaries; Germany has 643,000.

Stock Markets

Quotations furnished by Rigger and Crawford, F. H. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.50 p.m. Daylight Saving Time.

MINES

Ashley	1.05
Aron	03.
Barry Hollinger	12.
Base Metals	2.15.
Beaumont	84.
Central Patricia	26.
Dome	13.00.
Eldorado	2.56.
Falconbridge	10. 3.75.
Eldrado	1.15.
Hollinger	8.20.
Kirkland Lake	8.60.
Howey	58.
Kirkland Lake	40.
Lake Shore	40.50.
Macassa	66.
McIntyre	31.75.
Mining Corporation	2.10.
Ajax	112.
Big Missouri	27.
Bobjo	24½.
Britannia	61 6.55.
Breth. Trefh.	01.
Can. Kirkland	9d 07½.
Cent. Manitoba	13½.
Castle Trethe	20.
Coast Copper	5.50.
Conlaurium	11.
Dom. Explor.	9d 07½.
Fed. Kirkland	03.
Goldale	20.
Kirk. Townsite	37.
Malartic	16.
Malrobie	03½.
Manitoba Basin	3d 05.
Ross Mines	3d 8½.
McVittie	61.
McWatters	85.
Premier	1.15.
Reno	18.
St. Anthony	3d 38.
St. Antonio	1.07.
Wayside	10.
Wells Ackerman	3d 1.25.
Yukeno	3.00.
Noranda	31.60.
Inter. Nickel	19.25.
B. C. Pioneer	12.75.
Sherritt	1.20.
Imasco	1.16.
Stadacona	04.
Sudbury Basin	1.65.
Sylvanite	1.26.
Teck Hughes	6.15.
Vipond	53.
Venlines	1.08.
Wright Hargreaves	6.25.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil	15½.
Imperial Oil	9d 14¾.
McColl Frontenac	14.
International Pete.	19¼.
Supertest	19½.
Distill. Seagram	3d 24.
Walker's	3d 37½.
Walkers, Ltd.	15¾.
Canadian Ind. Alcohol	3d 11½.
Canada Bud.	3.
Can. Breweries	12.
Bell Telephone	105.
C.P.R.	19.
Canada Cement	7¾.
Canada Bldg.	21¼.
Cockshutt	12¾.
Dominion Stores	23¾.
Ford "A"	13½.
Steelers	133.
Loblaw "A"	14¾.
Massey Harris	3d 8¾.
Power Corporation	13.
Canada Vinegar	3d 20.
Steel of Canada	27½.
Brazilian	4.

NEW YORK

American Can	90¼.
Auburn	62.
Am. Pow. Power	16¾.
Anaconda	15¾.
A. V. Central	41¼.
Case, "T"	61.
Drug	63.
Elec. Auto Lite	23¼.
Gen. Cas.	58.
General Electric	29½.
Inter. Telephone	18¾.
Standard Oil of N. J.	38.
Chrysler, Ltd.	39.
North American	32.
Mid. Dairy Prod.	24½.
Montgomery Ward	25¾.
Nash	15.
Standard Brands	28¾.
American "T"	34.
Studebaker	127.
Vanadium	24¼.
Westinghouse	45½.
U. S. Steel	57¾.

Produce Market

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—The following quotations on produce delivered at Toronto are supplied by the United Farmers Co-operative Co. today:

Eggs—Extras 16c doz.; firsts 13c doz.; seconds cracked 10c doz.

Cream—No. 1 (P.O.B.) 19c lb.; No. 2 (delivered Toronto) 19c lb.; No. 3 (f.o.b. Toronto) 19c lb.; No. 4 (f.o.b. Toronto) 19c lb.

Butter—No. 1 (solids) 19½c lb.; No. 2 (solids) 19¼c lb.

Prince Edward and New Brunswick potatoes, per bag $1.00; new imported potatoes, per barrel $7.50.

Dealers' price on hand-picked beans, in carlots, per bushel P.O.B. at point of shipment $1.05.

FORSYTHE SMITH DIES

London, June 29 (CP)—Cable) — J. Forsythe Smith, Canadian Fruit Trade Commissioner in London, died today after an operation for appendicitis.

Leading paint makers expect 10 per cent general increase in paint prices within a month.

Nitroglycerine, the powerful explosive, is also one of the most potent heart stimulants known.

BIRTHS

KING—At Belleville General Hospital, June 22rd., to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry King, 14 Palmer Blvd., Toronto, a daughter. 129-11

BELLEVILLE
BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Bridge St. E.
Phone 774-W Day and Night
J. W. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Funeral Directors
Orland A. Finkston
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of
Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON
FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 47 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 1313

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
210-212 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
SERVICE
FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

MONUMENTS
A. C. Campbell
Granite Sculptor and Monument Dealer
21 Ridge Road, East, Belleville

BUSINESS LINERS

FARMERS ATTENTION!

Carload of Club Twine. Lowest cash price. Can be inspected before early. Foxboro Mill or J. W. Morgan, Foxboro. 127-21

FOR SALE

2-BURNER ELECTRIC PLATE almost new. Phone 2333W. 129-11

PROPERTY FOR SALE

14 ACRES IN VILLAGE OF STIRling, all in a square block, width of 300 across, with Henry Street passing through the centre. There are ten acres and more on each side, and four acres, with house and small lawn and a good garden on each side. Including about a quarter acre of raspberry bushes. Good well at door of house and watermain passes house. All sand in well that will not freeze in small fields, with close wire. 9 acres are under cultivation and rented for cash. Five minutes walk to Front Street and within minutes walk from Public and High Schools and Churches. All parties interested for sale from corn scuffler to grain binder; also 1929 Chevrolet Coach; Bell piano, without a scratch; 1 cow, 1 horse; set of harness; all kinds of garden tools. Property may be purchased in part. For further particulars apply to German Sine, Stirling. 121 26 tf

MOTORCYCLE IN GOOD CONDITION. Cheap. Apply Mrs. Wenz, 1 mile west of Rossmore. 126-21

The Bay of Quinte Agricultural Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
Head Office
Picton—Ont.
The Farmers' Friend
Insurance At Cost
See our Agent for Hastings County at the CRYSTAL HOTEL, SATURDAYS from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
CLAYTON W. BURP
Bloomfield, Ontario

LOST

WILL PERSON WHO TOOK BOY'S black bathing suit from dressing room Victoria Park, kindly phone 2264 and avoid further trouble. 129-11

For Rent Furnished
For July and August
TWO FINE HOMES—ONE ON EAST HILL AND ONE ON THE WEST HILL.
All Conveniences—Reasonable Rent—Very Comfortable
Belleville Locators
'PHONE 99 GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop. HOUSE 'PHONE 487

Classified Ad. Rates

PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagement Notices, 1.25; Deaths and Funeral Notices, $1.00; In Memoriam, $1.00. Above rates for ordinary insertion; charges for display notices will be on the one count line; Lodge and Meeting Announcements minimum charge 75c.

CLASSIFIED—Copy (For Sale, Wanted, etc.)—1½c per word each for first TWO insertions; subsequent insertions to be read, minimum 25 words for 25c.

COMING EVENTS—Not to exceed 25 words or under, over that 1c per word.

PROFESSIONAL, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—$3.00 per month (or less) per agate line (14 lines to inch) for first insertion; 10c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—3c per word, heading as count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for 75c; extension insertions, 1c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

To choose your Want Ad: when it appears from 1 to 6 times in The Ontario Intelligencer will not be discontinued after the first insertion of an incorrect ad. Phone 99 if it is not convenient.

Advertisers may have their copies addressed to Box Number care of this Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

TO RENT, MODERN HOME, FIVE bedrooms. All conveniences; best school district. Write Box 128 Intelligencer. 129-tf

EXPERIENCED COOK GENERAL FOR Camp. Apply evenings to Mrs. C. C. Wright, 207 Bridge East. 129-21

ALASKA CLOVER COULD HANdle a limited quantity, at reasonable cash price, for cement. E. Bishop & Son, Belleville, Ont. 31-tf

MAN WITH CAR TO HANDLE OUR business locally. Good pay and opportunity. Apply Manager, 76 Wilie immediately. Fuller Brush Co., Peterboro. 128-31

WANTED TO RENT

MEDIUM SIZED TENT FROM July 1 for two weeks. Box 127 Ontario Intelligencer, stating terms, size, etc. 127-21

WORK WANTED

CARPENTERING AND PAPER hanging and painting of all kinds. H. Gerow 161 Church Street. 127-61

TO-LET

7-ROOM HOUSE, ALL CONVENiences. Apply 46 North Front or Phone 1845W. 129-11

FURNISHED COTTAGE AT OAK Hill Lake. Phone 2333W. 129-11

FURNISHED HEATED APARTment also bed-sitting room. Garage. 191 Victoria Avenue. Phone 215. 128-11

SUMMER COTTAGE PARTLY furnished screened verandah. Apply Dan Goodrich or 'Phone 46 Ivy 3, Foxboro. 129-21

FRONT STREET APARTMENT over Bata bootery. Suitable for housekeeping, corner Victoria Avenue. Apply Mrs. Maracle. Phone 1536 128-21

FURNISHED COTTAGE AT WEllington. Screened verandahs. New awnings. Electricity. Apply to F. J. Sexsmith, 1611 Dundas St., Toronto or Belleville 704. 128-21

2½ EARL ST. — MODERN APARtment. Possession July 1st. Apply 30 Howard street. 128-41

APARTMENT—MODERN CONveniences electric stove frigidaire, 3 rooms. Phone 1611J. 127-tf

SEVERAL TWO OR THREE room apartments. Rent reasonable. Apply at Ontario Leader Wear. 123-tf

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences. 12 Albion St. or call 906J. 126-tf

MODERN APARTMENT, STEAM heated, electric refrigerator and stove, hardwood floors. Apply 32 Ontario Intelligencer. 121-tf

5 ROOM APARTMENT HEATED or otherwise. Electric stove, electric refrigerator, hardwood floors. Garage. Phone 2333W. R. Thompson, 104 Dundas St. W. Phone 826W. 123-tf

Taxpayers' Notice

Special meeting of all Taxpayers of the City of Belleville, Friday night at 8 p.m. in the City Hall. All taxpayers take notice and come to this meeting. 129-2c

Lakeshore Lodge at SANDBANKS
Picton, Ont.
"NATURE'S OWN VACTION LAND"
Will be open for guests from June 15th to Sept. 15th. Accommodation in Hotel or Cottages.
Dancing for public every Tuesday Evening beginning June 20th. Music by Lakeshore Aeradians.
Write for booklet to McDONALD and STANTON

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, EAVESTROUGHING
General Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1372 21-1m

LEGAL

T. V. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLicitor, Notary Public, etc., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Phone 24. 2tf-tf

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors and Notaries Public. Solicitors for Royal Bank. Chas. A. Payne, K.C., B. Arnott. Offices: 319 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners... Offices: 20 Bridge East, Belleville. Solicitors for Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on mortgages. W. N. Ponton, K.C., R. Ponton, K.C., E. G. Graham, Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. E. Wallbridge). Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office 26 Bridge St. E. Phone 8. E. G. Butler, K.C., Ormonde Butler.

B. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Buildings, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examinations by Radiodiast reveals all diseases in the early stages. Prof. diagnosis corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 800 or write 288 Coleman St., Belleville. Hours: Tuesdays and Fridays.

H. R. and Vera B. Pilcher CHIROPRACTORS
(Honour Graduates)
Pilch-Neuropathic System
415½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont.

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S. DR. R. CHARLES ADAMS, M.D.C.M. Wellington Street, Trenton. Appointment by office.
Office Hours:
9 to 10 a.m. 2 to 4 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle Street, Belleville
Phone 271. 66-tfm

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1965
A. L. BRYANT, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Forin St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. F. H. Wills, Branch Manager. 58-tf

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Subdivision Plans and Engineering, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE 2—P. O. BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

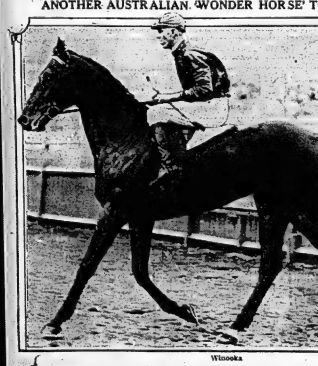
ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1364 157 Front St.

Taxpayers' Notice

Special meeting of all Taxpayers of the City of Belleville, Friday night at 8 p.m. in the City Hall. All taxpayers take notice and come to this meeting. 129-2c

Lakeshore Lodge at SANDBANKS
Picton, Ont.
"NATURE'S OWN VACTION LAND"
Will be open for guests from June 15th to Sept. 15th. Accommodation in Hotel or Cottages.
Dancing for public every Tuesday Evening beginning June 20th. Music by Lakeshore Aeradians.
Write for booklet to McDONALD and STANTON



INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED
General Insurance Agents
157 Front St.
Phone 1364 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Policy
SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST
Life and Fire Insurance
251 Front St. Phone 126

HALL & EARLE
General Insurance, Fire, Automobile, Accident, Plate Glass.
318 Front Street Phone 1164W

ANOTHER AUSTRALIAN WONDER HORSE TO VISIT U. S.

Winooka

Winooka, ace of Australian race tracks forget the brilliant Phar Lap, horses' vaults the United States victory at Agua Caliente, Mex., Wiand will attempt to make Ameri- nooka will be ridden by Jockey E. Britt in his American races.

VERIGIN AT GRAND FORKS

Doukhobor Head After Being Missing Turns up

Nelson, B.C., June 29 (CP)—Peter Verigin, titular head of Canada's 18,000 Doukhobor colonists, came out of seclusion today. Missing since he was abducted from deportation at Winnipeg a week ago, the Doukhobor leader turned up at Grand Forks, a sect community near here.

Verigin, according to reports, arrived quietly at Grand Forks earlier in the week.

Official League Ball ... 1.50
Official Softball ... 1.20
Selected Light Weight Seasoned Ash Bats ... 1.50
Full Finger Fielders' Glove, Horsehide Palm ... 1.95
Picnic Softball ... .30

Chrome Plated Irons with Hickory Shaft ... 1.35
Spalding Mulidot Golf Balls ... 3 for 1.00
Steel Shaft Irons ... 2.95
Golf Shoe Studs, box ... .60
Smart, Serviceable Caddy Bag, plain or bright colors ... 4.95

Tennis Net, Double Court Size — steam tarred ... 3.95
1933 Tennis Balls, ea. .25
Speed Up Your Game with this New Model Racket — See it and realize the wonderful value at ... 4.95

Keep your racket dressed with Get Preservative for long wear — per bottle with brush .50

Tents, Dunnage Bags, Packsacks and Fishing Tackle

Stephen Licence

296 Front St. Bicycle and Sport Goods Phone 985

BOAT UPSETS DURING STORM

New Yorker at Gananoque Recovering From Immersion

Gananoque, Ont., June 29.—(CP)—Henry T. Chittenden of New York was recovering today from effects of immersion suffered yesterday when a rowboat in which he and his wife sought to reach Tremont Park was swamped in the St. Lawrence River during a violent storm.

Chittenden was taken from the water exhausted by Jack Mallett and Vernon Turcotte, Mrs. Chittenden, a strong swimmer, insisted her husband be rescued before she would consent to being taken from the water.

Three young men who started to aid the Chittendens in another boat, ran into difficulties in the high seas and had to be towed ashore.

WEST CANADA IS DRENCHED

South Saskatchewan is Assured of Enough Moisture

WINNIPEG, June 29.—(CP)—Freshened by much-needed moisture the parched grain crops throughout the Prairie wheat belt today took on a new lease of life. Depleted moisture reserves were replenished as steady rains fell throughout Alberta and Saskatchewan and moved eastward into Manitoba.

Precipitation came at a critical time to avert extensive damage through drought and scorching heat during the past few weeks and assured of sufficient moisture for another week at least.

Creek near the Alberta Boundary, an inch of precipitation is recorded. Swift Current, Shaunavon and Assiniboia, in Southern Saskatchewan, reported heavy downfalls.

SECURITIES BOUGHT BACK BY DAUGHTER

Otto H. Kahn Gives Evidence at Banking Probe

Washington, June 29.—(AP)—Otto H. Kahn, senior partner of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., told United States Senate investigators today that securities he sold in December, 1930 were reacquired from his daughter three months later, through an exchange was dated the following day.

THOUSANDS ROMP OUT OF SCHOOLS IN CITY

Closing of School Term Celebrated in Gleeful Style.

Nearly 2500 juvenile hearts in Belleville were made glad this afternoon as students trooped out of school class rooms for the last time for two months. The summer holidays are here at last for the younger scholars of this city and those boys and girls who add up the 975 vacationists of the Belleville Collegiate and Vocational School whose months of summer recreation and relaxation from studies start on Friday last.

Of the total of 3,403 school hollidayers of Belleville, the Collegiate and Vocational School furnishes 475, Queen Alexandra School 525, Queen Mary School 511, Glenco, Victoria School 550, King George School 372 and St. Michael's Academy 80.

The Ontario Intelligencer wish the boys and girls a mighty happy summer and the time to their studies in September with renewed health and vigor.

CANADA'S PART IN GREAT WAR WRITTEN

Ottawa, June 29—(CP)—With the end of the Great War now nearly 15 years in the background, the part played in that conflict by Canada is now being officially written. Colonel A. Fortescue Duguid, D.S.O., Director of the Historical Section, Department of National Defence, is engaged in the work of compiling the first volume of the war history.

Outdoor Camping Lures Tourists

WITH the advent of summer and the opportunities it offers for outdoor relaxation in Canada's thousands of vacation spots, many holiday seekers are turning to the camping trailers like that illustrated above in tow of the Ford V-8 De Luxe three-window Coupe. Not only does this combination carry them to their destination but it also provides a "home on wheels" both en route and at their destination. To such travelers the beauty spots of Canada open their arms. They can stop where they choose—by the bank of a secluded lake, beside a tumbling brook or in the solitude of the forest. The Ford V-8 furnishes quick, comfortable transportation and the trailer provides complete sleeping, dining and living accomodations for four adults.

EXECUTES HIS TWO CHILDREN

35 Year Old Father Does Not Know Whether He's Sorry or Not

Muskogee, Okla., June 29 (CP)—Jap Ingram, 35 year old father who says he "don't know whether I'm sorry or not," was in jail here today, accused of executing his two young children.

Frightening relatives and neighbors told officers that Ingram, estranged from his wife, came to a little cotton farm near Coweta at the dinner hour yesterday, wounded two of his wife's relatives and then, putting his little son and daughter on the head, led them to the farmhouse wall and shot them down.

The two year old boy, Donald, died instantly, shot through the heart. His sister, Mary Lou, 4, lingered a few hours.

Brought to the Muskogee Jail where feeling ran high in Coweta, Ingram, an unemployed barber, told newspapermen he couldn't say he was sorry.

"They were dirty and ragged," he said. "I knew they had nothing to eat but corn bread."

"Ingram told me he'd rather see his children dead than starving," said Constable R. L. Jones, of Broken Arrow, who arrested the father.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR WEEK

SHIP'S STEWARD DIES

Was Found Unconscious on Deck of Ship With Fractured Skull

Montreal, June 29—(CP)—Unconscious since June 22, when he was found lying on the deck of the S. S. Calgaric with a fractured skull, F. W. Fox, steward of the ship died here today.

Harold Barnett, a shipman on board the same ship, was arraigned on a charge of assault yesterday in connection with the fatality. The charge was dismissed by Judge Victor Cusson, however, when it was learned that Fox had died. It is alleged that the fatality was the result of an argument between the victim and Barnett. An inquest will be held.

PRINCE WINS GOLF TOURNEY

Overcomes Handicap And Defeats Lady Astor

Walton Heath, Surrey, England, June 29 (CP)—Overcoming the handicap of conceding seven strokes to his feminine rival, the Prince of Wales today defeated Lady Astor, a member of the House of Commons, 2 and 1, to gain the final round of the annual parliamentary golf tournament.

The Prince, with a handicap of 11, conceded seven strokes on the basis of Lady Astor's special handicap of 29 for this event.

While waiting for her opponent to finish lunch Lady Astor kept two caddies busy retrieving practice tee shots. One was hit so well that she turned to the veteran Walton Heath pro, James Baird, and remarked:

"What a pity to waste one like that. Let's tell the Prince I started the match while waiting for him and finish it my drive."

The Prince started the match with a drive that bounced through a trap and onto the fairway and causing him to ejaculate: "My gosh, what a shot!"

Both were on the first green in two and holed out with two putts.

Let The IDEAL STORES Assist You in the Hot Weather

For Easy Meals We Suggest—
LOBSTER, halves, at 19c, LOBSTER will be higher in price; TUNA FISH at 22; CORNED BEEF at 14c; SARDINES (Crossed Fish) 2 for 29c; PORK AND BEANS, large tins, at 14c; SALMON (Cohoe), tall tins 23c.

Nothing nicer than a nice cool, crisp Salad. We have the Best and Freshest in TOMATOES (home grown and imported), LETTUCE (head and leaf), RADISHES, CUCUMBERS, GREEN ONIONS.
HELLMAN'S MAYONNAISE ... 23c
SALAD DRESSING, large bottle ... 25c

Get That FLY NOW!
FLY TOX in the new tins, at ... 33c 57c 97c
Sprayer Free with the first purchase
FLY SWATS, rubber or wire ... 10c
OXADE In ORANGE, LEMON or RASPBERRY. Each package makes 2 glasses ... 4 for 19c
GINGER BEER, DRY GINGER ALE
LIME RICKEY, pints, special ... 10c bottle
Containers extra
DILL PICKLES, extra good, and a large jar Special ... 25c
MALTED CHEESE ... 12c Chateau Cheese ... 12c
Try The IDEAL Tea Iced for a real cooler
More Cups to the pound ... lb. 39c

THE IDEAL STORES
220 FRONT ST.

McINTOSH BROS.

STORE-WIDE CLEARANCE

FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Terry Towels — Heavy quality white terry towels, Jacquard patterns, rainbow borders. Size 20 x 40 ins. Very Special, each ... 29c

Cushions — Fancy sateen covered cushions. Trimmed with contrasting colours. Suitable for verandahs, etc. 35c ea. 3 for 1.00

Dress Voiles — Fancy dress voiles in a range of pretty figured designs. Light and dark colourings. 36 inches wide. Fast colours. 3 yards for 1.00

Pillow Cases — Fine quality cotton pillow cases. Plain hemmed ends. 42 inches wide. Suitable for ordinary use. Each ... 29c

Cotton Sheets 1.19 — Good quality cotton sheets. Plain hemmed. Size 72 x 90 inches. Each ... 1.19

Linen Table Cloths — Fine quality linen damask cloths. Hemstitched edges. In sizes 2 and 2½ yards long. Reg. up to 2.95. Special, each ... 1.95

Ladies' Bathing Suits — Pure wool, shades of black or red. All sizes. Sun back. Sale ... 1.95

Fancy Bathing Suits — Pure wool, large range of combination shades. Two piece effects. All sizes. Belts to match. Special ... 2.95

Infants' Dresses — In voile, lace embroidered trimmed, for children up to 1 year. White only. Sale 75c and 1.39

Rubber Panties — Flesh shade. 15c pr.

Women's Cotton Vests — This vest washes and wears well. White shade only. Built-up shoulder. Special 4 for 1.00

Shawl Band — Pink satin shawl band. Two panels of elastic. Special for hot weather. Special 1.00 and 2.00

Ladies' Broadcloth Slips — Shades of white and sand only. See this slip as it is good value. Sizes to 44. Special ... 50c

Girls' Shorts and Blouses — In copen shade. Just the thing for outdoor wear. Sizes 8 to 14. Special, suit ... 1.59

Children's Swiss Organdie Hats — In plain or embroidered, shades of copen, peach and pink. Special 59c to 1.79

Children's Dresses — In prints, broadcloths, voiles, etc. Many different styles to choose from. In full ranges of shades. Sizes 7 to 14 years. Special 95c to 1.95

Misses' HATS — White hats that launder perfectly. Tight fitting. Just the thing for hot weather. Special ... 35c

Children's Silk PANTIES — Rayon panties with French pantie knee. Flesh shade only. Sizes 4, 6 and 8 ... Special 25c

PANTIES — Extra good quality of rayon. Well reinforced. Shades of white, maize, pink and green. Sizes 6 to 14 years. Special 39c and 50c

Children's Swiss Dresses — Dainty little dresses in Swiss voile or organdy. The sleeveless, cape sleeves or puff sleeves make these dresses suitable for any occasion. Shades of peach, pink, maize or pink. Sizes 3 to 10 years. 2.95 and 4.39

Sun Suits and Bathing Suits — Sun suits in finest botany wool with strap shoulder and mesh front. In shades of nile, copen, scarlet, yellow. Bathing suits of fine wool, shades of copen or sand. Sizes 2-6 years. Sale ... 69c

Children's Pyjamas — Crepe pyjamas in two piece style. Plain shades trimmed with contrasting binding. Sizes 6 to 14 years ... 1.00

Combinations — Fine balbrigan, strap shoulder and pantie knee. Sizes 4 to 12 years. Styles suitable for both boys and girls ... 59c

Women's Cotton Bloomers — Fine quality cotton, good strong elastic. White and pink shades only. Sizes medium and large. Special, each ... 25c

Women's Rayon Bloomers — Shades of white, flesh and peach. Medium size only. Sale 3 pairs for 1.00

Boys' Long Pant SUITS — In khaki or copen drill. Short sleeves and low neck. Sizes 3 to 5 years. Extra Special ... 95c

LADIES' CORSETS — Light weight corset for summer wear. Elastic top, 4 hose supports. All sizes. D. and A. make. Special ... 1.00 and 1.75

Boys' COVERALLS — In fine quality denim. Navy trimmed with red collar, cuffs and belt. Makes a splendid play garment. Sizes 2-8 ... 75c years. Special

BOYS' COTTON PULLOVERS — White sleeveless vests for boys, in sizes 26 to 34. None better at the price, each ... 25c

BOYS' BROADCLOTH WAISTS — Fine quality mercerized broadcloth waists in a full new assortment of patterns. Sizes 6 to 14 years. Each ... 69c

MEN'S COTTON HOSE — Canadian made hose in new patterns ... Pair 15c

BOYS' WOOL BATHING SUITS — All wool suits in black, red or light blue. Sizes 24 to 34. Reg. to 1.50 value. Week-end. Each ... 1.00

MEN'S WOOL BATHING SUITS — Pure wool suits in plain black only. Full range of men's sizes. Good quality. Special Value, each ... 1.19

PAPER WINDOW SHADES — For home or cottage. Standard size. Cream or green ... EACH 15c

Boys' Rayon POLO SHIRTS — Short sleeve polo shirts in sizes 26, 30 and 32. While only. Shop early. Each ... 50c

Men's Rayon POLO SHIRTS — White or sand shade. Sizes 38, 40 and 42. Short sleeves. Sale price, each ... 59c

Boys' Khaki Shorts — Well made shorts with belt loops, pockets, etc. Serviceable for the hot weather. Sizes 6 to 12 years. Pair ... 49c

Men's Plain White Shirts — Collar attached broadcloth shirts, just the thing for sport wear. All sizes to 17½. Friday and Saturday ... 89c

Men's and Boys' Baseball Caps — Flannel or cotton, with six vents. Flannel, each ... 35c Cotton, each ... 25c

Men's and Boys' Broadcloth Shorts — Short trunk underwear in the finest quality stitched broadcloth. Sizes 24 to 42. Strong elastic inserts. Week-end special ... 45c

Men's Balbrigan Shirts & Drawers — 49c

Men's Work Shirts — Dark or light blue chambray shirts in sizes 14½ to 17½, triple stitched. Very durable shirts for summer. Each ... 49c

Men's Balbrigan Combinations — Athletic buttonless style. Cream color. Sizes 34 to 44. Good quality. Suit ... 69c

Men's Pullovers — The ideal summer undergarment worn with shorts. Sizes 34 to 44. Special value, each ... 29c

McINTOSH BROS.
257 Front St. Belleville Phone 802

Section 2

The Ontario Intelligencer

Pages 9 to 16

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1933

SIXTEEN PAGES

HENRY WILL RETAIN PARTY LEADERSHIP

Hepburn Economies Are Flayed by Premier Who Assails C. C. F. Position

Henry Ready For Scrap, Not For Scrap Heap, He Tells Audience

POWER PROJECT

No Word Given Out as to Probability of Election

Mitchell June 29—Premier George Henry will head the party leadership of the Conservatives. So he declared last night here at a rally of several hundred persons from Perth County. He warmly denied rumors that he was broken down in health and ready for the scrap heap." Premier Henry declared that if it was any satisfaction to those in the constituency that he had received and circulated the reports he could safely say he was ready for the "scrap" at any rate.

"And when I have finished," he added amid laughter, "they will find their own political health is none too good."

Several hundred persons, braving the excessive heat, heard from the Prime Minister's lips the formal "final word" as to his leadership, for which the party in the field has been waiting for the past three months.

His Endorsation

"In December, 1930," said Premier Henry by way of further clarification of his position, "your political chief, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, decided to accept the Canadian High Commissionership in London, and in the constitutional manner he recommended me as Lieutenant-Governor as his successor. I accepted the unanimous co-operation of the Ministers and have since carried on the government with nothing added to my ranks." Subsequently, I was unanimously endorsed by the largest convention ever held by our party.

"The torch entrusted to me is still in my hands. They are not failing; and I propose to retain my present responsibilities as Prime Minister of this province."

Mr. Henry raked opposition criticism fore and aft and time and time again drew bursts of applause from his audience. Particularly enthusiastic was the reception given his leadership stand and his decision to remain at the helm of the ship of state.

For the matter of his ownership of a $5,000 block of Ontario Power Service Corporation bonds—a matter that was one of the high lights of the last session—Mr. Henry expressed himself as "entirely satisfied" to leave it to the verdict of the public the decision as to whether he was right or wrong.

"So long as my mind and conscience are clear," he said, "I don't care a rap if people accuse me of not being slick enough for a politician. I think I can have too much of slick politicians."

The Opposition, or some of them, charges the Premier, were out after his scalp, he declared. He added, "they won't get much to hang on to. I guess I got rubbed the wrong way while I was in office. However, they're after it. I suppose they don't like a farmer getting into their capitalistic scheme. At any rate they have succeeded in having the Abitibi Canyon Power plant for $16,000,000 in order to purchase some $23,000 worth of bonds in the company which I had bought some years ago at the time of 16 flotation.

Clash With Interests

"Once before, as a farmer, about 25 years ago, I had a clash with big interests. About 600 of us farmers in Ontario felt we were not getting enough for our milk and formed the Milk Board. That started a successful career, and in 1929 I sold out, and I am proud to admit it, for a handsome profit. I was no wizard, anticipating the depression that was just ahead of us. If I had been, I should have left my money in. But I am sure that many of you here tonight feel the same way. As it was, I made good use of these bonds. Four service bonds—and I didn't get any discount—and I paid the full market price to the last cent. Subsequently I was offered the Prime Minister's chair, and then two years later this position came up to take over the Abitibi plant.

"We handling it, as I have endeavored to show, in the best interests of the province. I still had my bonds, and along with the other holders, took the discount. It is true, as someone has pointed out, they were not registered in my name, and I could not transfer them to a friend to make the transaction for me, and thus kept out of the picture. But I am not in the habit of doing business that way. I don't believe you would. We are to act in that way.

"I think there are politicians who argue that because, at the low of the depression, some unfortunate individual in New York sold a few of those bonds, being no doubt hard pressed, at 50, therefore the entire undertaking could have been bought at that price. That is a deliberate falsehood. And they know it. There is not a person within the sound of my voice but knows that if the Government had made any attempt to buy those bonds on the market the price would have shot up, yes, probably above par. There is, I say, these slick politicians must have a poor conception of the intelligence when they insult you with such drivel.

"It is on that hand, therefore, you have these people noisily proclaiming that the government has squandered your money, and on the other hand you have men like Mr. Church, a Conservative member for North Waterloo, who rose in the House and declared that the government had driven too hard a bargain with the Abitibi people.

Hepburn Economies.

"Mr. Hepburn's economies are policies of destruction. Those who are in any way closely connected with the administration of the departments at Queen's Park and the expenditures of money know that while will know full well how the government has endeavored to cut down to the bone while endeavoring at the same time to maintain an efficiency basis. In that way we reduced expenditure this year by $4,250,000. I want to ask Mr. Hepburn with the proposes to cut 50 per cent. from the pensions of widows and from the general welfare work that is standing out in large drying times in such a prominent way.

"Would he also dismiss the experts from the agricultural staff, or 25 per cent. of the total male employees in the service?

"Mr. Nixon, I notice, started out bravely to follow his leader, but had weakened to the extent that he now favors a 40 per cent. cut. If he has any definite plan to put in the short time it has been under way, why should we suppose before an election rolls 'round?

Attack On C.C.F.

Section 98 of the Criminal Code is a major issue in the next Ontario general election.

Premier Henry revealed his government's policy on this controversial point when he charged the C. C. F. with being "out to get" Section 98 and Communists and all Communistic activities. He publicly challenged Progressive Leader Nixon to say whether he supported the C. C. F. platform. Mr. Nixon, he said, demands for repeal of the section; warned the Communists that they were "playing with fire" when it talked glibly of "a new social order," and declared that a definite ultimatum to the unemployed that while he had every sympathy with any genuine working man out of a job, he would not tolerate "communistic or other agitators who flatter them "with false promises".

Premier Henry said the C. C. F. was to make terms with the Hepburn-Nixon combination after the election. "Has it been made—the Prime Minister submitted that the public had a right to know—and if so, under these gentlemen stood. "And when their position was made clear," he added Mr. Henry, "the government will be prepared to take the issue and exchange the verdict of the people upon it."

Silent On Election.

As to the possible date of an election campaign, Mr. Henry had nothing to say—not a hint to pass on to the waiting candidates. He declared "whenever it may be, it will not be under any red flag in our municipal or any other hybrid flag, but under the banner of the Liberal-Conservative party that our province will go forward along the paths of further progress."

Personally, said the Premier, he was very proud—and he believed the people of Ontario were, too—of Attorney-General Price's firm, but fair, successful prosecution of those who would incite to violence and the overthrow of the present order of things which has been, he said, so characteristic of the province of Canada. The C.C.F., of course, were shouting for repeal of the section under which these Communists had been convicted. Was Capt. Philpott, former Liberal stalwart, now identified with the Woodsworth movement, looking out for job in the Hepburn Cabinet, when he, also, demanded the repeal? Mr. Hepburn thought that was the general attitude of Mr. Nixon? Was he supporting his "compatriots" in the marriage" partner, Mr. Hepburn?

Playing With Fire.

"The doctrines of violence and disorder, which have caused many nations, are being preached here. Even in some of our churches there are those who talk glibly of a 'new social order,' and appear desirous of acting as its leaders. I warn them here and now that they are playing with fire. I point to Russia with its churches turned into factories and stables, the communists which the embassies of Communism openly seek to establish here.

"For a brief time these would-be leaders may exhort before the new campfires, but when the forest is ablaze who shall save them?

"To give you some idea of the demands being made by a section of the community, whom, apparently the Premier would take under his wing, as he swings to the left in search of support, I will read a delegation from the Southern and Eastern Counties unions that 'Unemployment demanded of me in my office only last week.

"They demand', they said, 'a uniform scale of relief throughout the province, the rate to be $20 per week for a family of two, plus $2 for each child under fourteen years of age, and for single workers over sixteen.'

"Think of a man with a wife and three children, one being over sixteen, that would amount to $30 a week.

"This, they claim, is what was to continue until a scheme of non-contributory unemployment insurance was brought in, when the same principle would be in force to my mind, a distinction without any difference, so far as paying the bill is concerned.

Include Non-Citizens.

"Now, listen to this. The unemployment insurance is to be paid over every cent you prefer to call it, is to be made to every worker, single or married, youth and adult, industrial or agricultural, irrespective of age, creed, racial or national origin, citizen or non-citizen, age or political opinions without discrimination.

"I would draw your attention particularly to the fact that the hard-fisted taxpayers of Ontario shall support non-citizens in this generous manner. Is that the Liberal-Conservative spirit or one could be forgiven for thinking it was the Socialist Party of yesterday so that when the agents of Communism arrived they would have some money to carry on their activities!

"In hard cash do you realize what these demands amount to? According to present statistics of unemployment in Ontario, it would cost the province just $80,000 a week.

"And last year our total ordinary revenue, as you can see by the public accounts, was $44,000,000.

"Where, I ask, in all seriousness, do they expect us to get the money from?

OLD DARKEY IS NOW IN BAY

Giant Channel Cat Arrives to Tease Fishermen

Old Darky, giant channel cat, "with whiskers as long as a horse's tail, and as big as a barrel," has again been sighted in his favorite haunts in the shallow waters of the Bay, of Quinte, near the Bay bridge. Credited with cunning and strength by fishermen for the past years, Darky, the leviathan of his species in the Bay, has defied many Strange tales are told of this giant catfish, which has been hooked and variously reported to range from twenty pounds to fifty. Many have broken scores of heavy fishing lines during the fishing season last year. Fishing poles by the dozen have been broken and bent. Even heavy trolling line has not been strong enough to hold him. It is reported by a man who has had close call on hooks are still fastened in his mouth. Others have had lines worn off on the stones. Lengths of fish line trail after him like mooring ropes on a dirigible. And though he broke another heavy line on a 10-20-30 hook, he is still the task of having a blacksmith fashion a hook, a foot long, from a six pound of pork and of fastening the hook to a light but strong steel cable.

Water...ont Tragedy Only Old Canoe

Rumours of a drowning in the Bay of Quinte, on the south side of the city early last evening following the discovery from shore of an upturned canoe floating some distance out, but a short time after the government dock. When a local youth rowed out to the craft to retrieve it, however, it was found that the boat was an old one and that the bottom had fallen from the bottom. It was evidently an old one that had been set adrift.

ARTERY CUT IN COLLISION

Marlbank Man Badly Injured at Bogart's Corner

Tweed, June 29 (Special)—In a head-on collision between a car owned and driven by Alex Laird of Allore of Tweed and a machine driven by Mr. George Deshane of Marlbank, at Bogart's Corner, near Ritter's Store, three miles east of Tweed early last evening, Mr. Ornold Deshane, brother of George, miraculously escaped with his life when a large artery in the neck was cut, causing the injured man to bleed profusely. Only the promptness of Mr. Dennis Haley of Stone in rushing the bleeding man to the surgery of Dr. Dale, Tweed, soon after the accident occurred, saved the man's life, it is believed. Ten stitches in the neck were required to stop the copious flow of blood. At present he is suffering from shock and loss of blood.

Miss Verona Aller, driver of the other car, escaped with minor injuries to her tongue, requiring one stitch to close the wound. Her sister, a passenger in the car, received facial bruises and cuts from the flying glass.

The two cars, both of which are badly damaged, were almost head-on to the sharp turn near the corner, unaware of the approach of each other. The accident is being investigated by police constable W. Moon.

"There was no question about the artery being severed," declared Dr. M. G. Dale, of Tweed when questioned today. The cut was a bad one. It is very fortunate that Mr. Haley could render assistance and help the injured man get medical attention." Mr. Deshane was despite the fact that Dr. Dale is badly when brought to the office Signs of the blood coming from the neck with the regularity of the heart beat. Blood covered his shirt of the accident and the man's clothing. According to Dr. Dale, almost an hour had elapsed before the actual injury and the first treatment for it. By this time Mr. Deshane had become very weak from loss of blood. Ten stitches in his neck were required to stop the flow of blood, he pointed out. Mr. Deshane will probably recover.

COMEDIAN IS FOUND DEAD

Fatty Arbuckle Suddenly Called by Death at New York

NEW YORK, June 29.—(CP)—Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, famous comedian of the screen, several years ago, was found dead in bed early today at the Park Central Hotel Apartment where he had gone Arbuckle lived.

The Arbuckle had retired shortly after midnight. About 3 a.m. Mrs. Addie McPhail, another Addie McPhail, also at the hotel, heard the baby wail strangely still. She called Arbuckle's valet, and together they found him dead.

"Fatty" Arbuckle was virtually outlawed from the films in 1921 following his acquittal on a charge of manslaughter over the death of Virginia Rappe, San Francisco actress, at a party. A man who knows facts he has appeared on the stage and in motion pictures in the films was one of his early hopes.

Arbuckle was married three times, his former wives being Doris Deane and Minta Durfee.

He has been at work recently on a picture at a Long Island studio.

Born in Smith Jose, Calif., about 1890—Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, who died in New York today had a flair for taste of theatricals in San Jose.

He was born to nearby Santa Clara, where, at an early age he gained local fame for his clowning and acrobatics. His talents became ticket taker at the unique theatre, a 10-20-30 vaudeville house then operated by Syd Grauman, lated to become head of a chain of theatres world.

Arbuckle made his first stage appearance here, in illustrated songs. The theatre was destroyed here in an earthquake. Arbuckle drifted south and eventually into motion pictures.

GLOBE-TROTTER STARTS

Charleston, S.C., June 29.—(CP)—Julius B. Bridgeman, Charleston's 74-year-old globe trotter, leaves today on his 14th trip around the world.

Electrical energy has increased from about 2,000 to more than 80 billion kilowatt hours during the past 25 years.

MOTHER INSANE AT TIME OF MURDER

Mrs. Fella Had Been Worrying Over Payments on House

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 29 (CP)—Verdict of murder, committed by Mrs. Annie Fella, insane, while temporarily insane, was returned by the coroner's jury investigating the death of her husband, Peter Fella, aged 51.

Stephen and his mother were found dead at their home by Frederick Fella, the father, last Friday when he returned from work.

Evidence showed that for some time the mother had been worrying over possibility of losing the home owing to their inability to meet principal payments.

CROWS RAID CHICKEN PENS

Black Marauders Most Numerous This Year

The thieving, pilfering crow, sensible and staid appearing though he may be, has yet another black mark against his character. With an alarming increase in numbers in this district this year crows, bolder than ever, have even begun to invade chicken yards on nearby farms, stealing young chicken before the eyes of the very eyes. Swooping out of the sky in hawk-like fashion, a large crow descended into the chicken yard of Mrs. Evans, Front of Thurlow, on Monday of this week, and calmly picked a three weeks old chicken out of a brood following the hen. Other crows from time to time have perched on handy roosts around other farms in the district, not a stone's throw from the farm door. In Sidney's woods north of the city, once their especial nesting place the black marauders have returned in full force this year. West of the city, where Wallbridge Road, the tall pines have also attracted them in great numbers. Grim appearing farmers in the district have prepared to deter the crows from their black sowing piece, and do battle till death.

YOUNG SWIMMER IN GRAVE DANGER HERE

Boys Take Too Great Chances in Water

Waterfront residents aware of conditions they observe throughout the day when the bay is crowded with juvenile swimmers of all ages, point out the danger many of the boys undertake in their efforts to swim too far out in water beyond their depth. On two separate occasions this week swimming boys narrowly escaped death. On Tuesday evening, Mr. Charles Jefta, who had been passing in a boat near the Victoria Park, saw a lad of about 14 years of age who was swimming in the bay near the park and the east side of the waigreen and found he was too weak to swim back.

YOUTHS MAN CABIN CRUISER

Manned by a group of youths on a holiday cruise, a smart cabin cruiser, the Gypsy, from Syracuse, spent some time in the bay and harbor yesterday afternoon, and later in the day pulled out for Trenton.

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS

Cleveland, June 29 (CP)—Charles H. Wegman, a barber, was found dead in a hotel. He left a note which read: "In case I pass out s x x I want Dr. Ray W. Scott, heart specialist at Western Reserve University to have my heart. Just believe I know him but that he might be able to help others suffering from a leaky heart as I have for the past two years."

NEW YORK, June 29.—(CP)—A burglary job in which only full blast when a detective walked into court yesterday at Jurer Jack Bettinger and said:

"That man is supposed to be on trial in another court this very minute, after permitting a minor to drive his car."

The Judge, to forestall a mistrial, allowed the burglar defendants to plead guilty to the lesser charge of unlawful entry. Then he told Bettinger to hurry out and get himself tried.

3 COUNTRIES IN GOLD BLOC CAUSE CRISIS

Switzerland, Holland And Belgium Threaten to Walk Out

FRENCH VIEW

Britain Hold out Against Efforts to Bring Her Into Lure

London, June 28 (AP) — An ultimatum couched in courteous terms was presented to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, chairman of the World Economic Conference, by four European gold standard countries today, it was learned on high authority.

LONDON, June 29.—(AP)—The World Economic Conference was faced this morning with another grave crisis precipitated by the threat of several members of the Continental Gold Bloc to quit unless there is immediate stabilization in the near future.

Switzerland, Holland, and Belgium were understood in authoritative quarters to have served notice on Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, chairman of the Conference that unless stabilization has been done by 48 days ago left the Gold Bloc in a similar plight.

High Conference quarters interpreted this move as an effort to force Great Britain to render active aid to prevent currency fluctuations and to obviate the possibility of Gold Standard countries being forced off the basis.

Persistent efforts to swing Great Britain into line have thus far failed, as she has wished to keep her hands free to work in concert with the United States for stabilization when that country is ready to make the move.

Madoc Vicinity.

The Gold Bloc threat to desert the Economic Conference should it have been made in private meeting with the Prime Minister a heavy drop yesterday in the U.S. dollar intensified the feeling of the Gold Standard representatives.

Confidence Shaken

Gold Standard countries led by Finance Minister Georges Bonnet of France were understood definitely to have told Mr. MacDonald that the sole result of the Conference so far had been to shake confidence in their currencies and that it behooved the British Government to take some steps to end this state of affairs.

The Gold Bloc wants Great Britain to make immediate declaration of its willingness to maintain sterling at the present parity and to provide for the aid of the Bank of England in maintaining the pound sterling and in those European countries where it now obtains.

It is further understood that a time limit was set by the bloc in which Great Britain must decide to take action, or the four countries will leave the gathering of the world.

The bloc, it was said, told the Prime Minister of an intention to withdraw all ministers and important experts from the various secretaries in London to watch what went on.

BICYCLIST TOWED BY TRUCK HAS ESCAPE

Swerve Swings Rider in Way of Antomobile

An unidentified youth, who had been holding to the side of a truck with one hand while guiding himself on his bicycle, narrowly escaped injury when the truck swerved to proceed down Coleman street after crossing the lower bridge, and swung the bike into the path of an approaching car at the intersection of the Coleman and Cannifton roads. Prompt application of car brakes enabled the driver to avoid a collision, but the boy and bike had been knocked to the ground before the car of the bicycle received some damage.

ALL CHEESE SOLD GRADED HERE

For the first time on record all the cheese sold on the Belleville Cheese Board of Trade, on a Saturday, was graded in Belleville. Mr. J. L. Irwin, chief grader for Central Ontario, graded all the cheese sold Saturday last on the local board during the present week. In the past all cheese purchasing for Montreal dealers was largely graded after arrival at that port.

Telephones Disrupted as Electrical Storm Sweeps Across North

Silos, Barns, Trees Damaged as Wind Rages

MADOC ESCAPES

Communication Lines Suffer Greatly in Eastern Ontario Area

Heavy storms were general northwest and northeast of this city early Wednesday afternoon. This city received little more than a miniature wind storm as the threatening dark clouds spread over the Belleville area. The principal damage in this city was the only outcome here of the widespread afternoon storms.

The Bell Telephone Co. reported communication lines in the east and west of the city as disrupted and considerable damage done to the lines northwest and northeast of the city.

Peterboro District.

Storms passed Peterboro to the north and south, but city received only a smattering of rain accompanied by a high wind the early part of the afternoon. Falling branches trom trees put some little delay in the operation of communication and the electric power in the city was off for fifteen minutes due to a break in the line between Mayo Park and the city. A few hydro lines were also down in Peterboro but these were soon in order again. In Lakefield considerable rain fell with hail and torrential rain for a few minutes. Hay in the district was heavy enough to do extensive damage.

Madoc Vicinity.

Madoc reports this (Thursday) morning that little damage was done in that vicinity yesterday afternoon. Several trees shaken by last week's storm were toppled over in the village. Heavy rain poured down for a quarter of an hour and throughout the district an hour's rain followed the first downpour.

Mesopotamia correspondent of Eldarado indicate that that section of the country received the full blast of one of yesterday afternoon's storms. Many trees are reported to be down there and every out of a herd of fifteen cattle were killed by a stroke of lightning. Hail, also given by a truck driver who was so anxious to get out of the area that he did not stop to see the full extent of the damage.

North of Tyendinaga reports indicate was visited by a heavy storm that did considerable damage to crops and trees.

Another thunderstorm visited the district on Tuesday evening, Mr. Charles Jefta, who had been passing in a boat near the Victoria Park, saw a lad of about 14 years of age who was swimming in the bay near the park and the east side of the waigreen and found he was too weak to swim back.

DOG HAS LOVE OF SQUIRREL FOR NUTS

In Consequence He Is Rationed Daily on Nuts

It wasn't a squirrel that had been stealing the hickory nuts out of the basket in the pantry of the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Richmond, 92 Victoria Avenue, but the family dog.

So fond has the little wire-haired terrier become of hickory nuts that the family now gives him a regular supply. Doled out his rations, the terrier fills his jaws with the nuts, spreads them on the carpet and then proceeds to crack them. He eats the meat and leaves the shells in a litter all over the floor. That he asks for more.

Mr. Ketchekon and neighbours became interested when he found a squirrel in the family tree some time back.

REV. F.M. WOOTTON IS CALLED TO PETERBORO

Five Year Pastorate at Picton Has Been Very Successful

Picton, June 29—Rev. Frank M. Wootton, who has just completed a very successful five year pastorate at Picton has received and accepted the call to Trinity United Church, Peterborough. Mr. Wootton is highly esteemed preacher and a talented pastor. He has occupied important charges in Napanee, Stratford, Galt, Brantford and Brockville. He assumes his new charge in July.

COP STOPS SPEEDERS ACTS AS BEST MAN

In the Name of Love Patrolman Escorts Pair to Altar.

Parrell, Pa., June 29 (CP)—In the name of the law, Sergt. Albert A. Hain of the state highway patrol, hailed a speeding automobile and stopped to see what the trouble was.

But—in the name of love, the sergeant changed his mind, accompanied the motorist and his companion to a justice of the peace and served as best man at the wedding which followed.

The happy couple gave their names as Dyretch Beeger, 33, and Lena Riehl, 28, both of Philadelphia.

BICYCLE RIDER DIES AFTER TWO MILE RACE

Predent De Lille Dies While Motoring On Way Home.

Passaic, N.J., June 29 (CP)—President De Lille, of the bicycle racer, well known in Montreal, collapsed and died late last night after finishing a two-mile tandem race at the velodrome, Nutley. He was 33 years old.

While motoring to his home at Paterson, he suddenly fell unconscious. His companions brought him to St. Mary's Hospital here. Physicians pronounced him dead of a heart attack.

De Lille, teamed with Tini Revoli, ran second in the tandem race.

GOATS QUALIFY BY DRINKING BEER

New York, June 29 (CP)—Three mohair goats from Texas were presented to the new with a dish of beer.

The ceremony consisted of an act in which each goat stuck his muzzle in a big glass of beer and lapped it up. It was suggested it would be good for them.

"It's in their hair," said he.

NEW TRIAL FOR JARVIS IS SOUGHT

King, Ont., June 29 (CP)—Friends of Almelius Jarvis, 50, convicted in 1924 of conspiracy to defraud the Ontario government in a bond deal, today planned a renewed appeal that he be granted a new trial on the ground his conviction was a miscarriage of justice.

French-Speaking Appointment Urged

OTTAWA, June 29.—(CP)— Appointment of a French-speaking Jurist to the vacancy on the Ontario Supreme Court created by the death of Mr. Justice W. A. Logie was urged upon Hon. Hugh Guthrie Minister of Justice, today, by Legislation representative of the French Canadian Association of Ontario.

The Minister gave the delegation assurance that he would take their representations under consideration.

TWEED TENNIS CLUB GUESTS

Kingston Club Entertains Tweed Visiting Players

Tweed (Special)—Tweed Tennis Club was visited one day by the Kingston Club in the Limestone City on Saturday afternoon. Practically the entire membership of the club made the trip and participated in the tournament. All nineteen events were played, the invaders being victorious in seven. The results are as follows:

Ladies' Doubles—

Mrs. E. Moffat and Miss V. Kindred lost to Mrs. Chown and Mrs. C. Milne, 6-4, 8-6.

Misses G. Gordon and E. Clark won from Mrs. Milne and Mrs. Third, 12-10, 6-4.

Misses B. Gordon and F. Graham won from Misses Rogers and Keyes, 8-7, 6-4.

Misses V. Kindred and Mrs. Moffat won from Miss Robinson and Miss Brooks, 6-1, 6-4.

Men's Events—

Rollins and McGee lost to Thompson and MacDonnell, 7-5, 7-5.

Calvert and Courneyea lost to MacLaughlin and Malcolm, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

McTague and McGee lost to Lorne and McLeod, 6-3, 1-6, 6-3.

Clark and Moffat lost to Kent and Partridge, 6-2, 6-1.

N. Bowers and McCutcheon lost to Wright and Milne, 6-4, 6-4.

Mixed Events—

Miss D. Bowers and Rollins won from Miss MacDonald and Milks, 6-3, 6-2.

Miss V. Kindred and Rashotte lost to Mrs. Third and MacDonald, 7-5, 1-6, 6-3.

Miss F. Graham and McTague lost to Mrs. Chown and Malcolm, 9-11, 6-2, 6-4.

Miss M. Morrison and Clark lost to Miss Cottee and MacLachlan, 6-2, 6-2.

Miss F. Clark and Courneyea lost to Miss Milne and Lorne, 6-1, 6-4.

Miss B. Gordon and Calvert lost to Miss L. Milnes and McLeod, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

Mrs. Moffat and Moffat lost to Miss Keyes and Kent, 6-0, 8-7, 6-2.

Miss Bowers and Rogers won from Miss Rodgers and Partridge, 8-6, 6-3.

Miss D. MacDonald and McCutcheon lost to Miss Brooks and Wright, 6-2, 6-1.

Miss M. Morrison and Clark won from Miss Robinson and England 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Roslin Loses

Tweed—(Special)— Tweed Supertest team turned the tables on a Roslin softballers at the park on Tuesday night, winning by a score of 16-10.

Rev. Bill and J. Pargey of Roslin and R. Lucas of Tweed connected for home runs.

Roslin: O. Hart, c; J. Pargey, p; O. Ish ss; C. Parks 1b; G. Burleigh rf; Rev. Bill lf; S. Hart 2b; L. Montgomery cf; J. Hart lf.

Tweed—R. Terry c; G. Sinclair p; H. Peterson 1b; R. Hicks 2b; R. Lucas 3b; C. Shangnus ss; C. Vlineff rf; L. Lalonde cf; M. Lucas lf.

Score by innings:

Roslin	041 102 2—10
Tweed	214 153 2—16

Umpires—Thompson and Clark.

SOFT BALL

Staging a belated eighth innings rally the Trenton C.P.R. softball team pulled up even with the Grills' Garage nine and subsequently played them a 12 to 12 tie at the old College Field last evening. The Trentonites came in the rear on the score sheet when they broke even after batting meekly in the eighth to score 8 runs and knock up the old ball game.

Ehortt was manager Grills' choice for the pitching duties of the day with F. Bowler opposing him. The game was played before a large crowd of interested citizens.

The line-ups—Trenton C.P.R.: Rohan; Larry; Jordan; Kennedy; Chase; Miller; Long; E. Bowler; F Bowler.

Grills—Barrage; Burnett; White; Boyle; Reid; Haley; Ross; Thrasher and Shorty.

Score by innings R

C.P.R.	000 040 08—12
Grills'	410 020 23—12

Umpire—Miles and Neil.

KI-Y SOFTBALL

Three games were played in the bantam series of the local Ki-Y league softball last evening when the Roaring Tigers won from the Camels by the score of 34 to 11 at Queen Alexandra School grounds.

Al King George School grounding the Bearcats for the first time this evening at the hands of the Flying Canadians, the score being 35 to 8 in favor of the Canadians.

A much closer game was played at St. Michael's School grounds where the Rangers nosed out the St. Michael's bantams by the score of 17 to 11.

WOMAN ON BOARD OF PLOW COMPANY

Toronto, June 29 (CP) — Announcement was made today that Mrs. Frank Schulman, formerly Miss Margaret Cockshutt, has been appointed a director of the Cockshutt Plow Company.

"I don't know much about it yet" she said. "I only know I am honored by the appointment."

AL GETZEWICH

The ex-masked marvel who wrestles in Belleville next Wednesday night be-masked.

LIBEL APPEAL IS DISMISSED

Harpell Now Required to Surrender, No Further Appeal

Montreal, June 29 (CP)—Appeal of James J. Harpell, Gardenvale, Quebec, publisher, against conviction on a charge of criminal libel preferred by T. B. Macaulay, president of the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, was dismissed in a judgment handed down by the Court of King's Bench. The appeal judges were unanimous in their decision.

Harpell, who has been out on bail pending result of the appeal, was required to surrender yesterday. As the decision of the appeal judges was unanimous, no further appeal is allowable.

Articles printed in the Journal of Commerce, of which Harpell was publisher, and material in a book written by Harpell were the basis of the criminal action.

CANADIAN BOND ISSUE APPEARS

New York, June 29 (CP)—A large Canadian bond issue made its appearance on the market here today. It consisting of $60,000,000 Dominion of Canada 15 months' 4 per cent notes due October 1, 1934, at a price of 99¾. A syndicate headed by the Chase National Bank offered these notes together with $26,500,000 State of New York 2¾ per cent. and 3 per cent. bonds due 1934 to 1938 at prices to yield from 1 per cent. to 3.05 per cent.

People with red hair should use great caution in sun-bathing, says a European scientist.

GIRL FOUND DEAD IN COT

Inquest Will Probe Death of Telephone Operator

Arthur, Ont., June 29 (CP) — Miss Helen O'Neill, 30, night telephone operator here was found dead on a cot in the exchange office today. Police and Dr. J. K. Blair, coroner, immediately started investigations to determine cause of her death and announced an inquest would be held later today.

Office of W. A. Hiller, manager or the telephone company, said the girl was believed to have died from natural causes, although she appeared in good health when seen alive last.

The coroner was questioning neighbors in an attempt to confirm reports Miss O'Neill had been heard screaming shortly after a motorist sought her to locate a highway policeman following an accident.

Mr. Hiller found the body.

RED AND GREEN IN LONDON TRAFFIC

London, June 29 (C.P. Cable) — London goes red and green on Saturday so far as transport is concerned. The familiar red of the London omnibuses will be applied also to street cars and underground trains, while the buses and other services going into the country will be painted green.

DORLAND TAKEN TO PORTSMOUTH PEN

Toronto, June 29 (CP)—Albert Dorland, convicted bank robber serving a five-year penitentiary sentence and several fines in a Royal Commission enquiry here to determine if he was framed, was taken back to Portsmouth penitentiary yesterday to serve sentence.

AIR LINER FINDS AIR TOO COLD

St. Paul, June 29—(CP)—An airline passenger ship flying from here to Chicago found it too cool yesterday.

At an altitude of 13,500 feet, Lee Smith, pilot, found the temperature 32 degrees above zero was forced to come down to 8,500 feet to get his passengers warm.

It was 90 above on the ground.

30,000 TON RAILS ORDERED

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., June 29 (CP)—News from Ottawa that the Canadian National Railways would buy 30,000 tons of rails from the Algoma Steel Corporation at $44.00 a ton paved the way here for the corporation's mills would be opened soon.

Fur Cleaning

Proper Fur Cleaning Adds Years of Life to Your Coat . . . . .

IMPROPER Fur Cleaning Deteriorates the Pelts, Weakening the Seams, Cracking, and Hardening the Skins.

BE SAFE! Let Our "SAFE-WAY" Method Clean Your Coat.

Only a Furrier Can Do It Properly

THIS STORE CLOSES DOMINION DAY SATURDAY, JULY 1st. And MERCHANTS' HOLIDAY MONDAY, JULY 3rd.

JOSEPH T. DELANEY

17 CAMPBELL STREET

EXCLUSIVE FURRIER BELLEVILLE

PHONE 787

Fur Coats Remodelled, Repaired and Relined

AT LOW SUMMER RATES

All Work Thoroughly Guaranteed

VINA DELMAR STORY BRINGS POPULAR DUO TO BELLE SCREEN

The screen has done it again!

Once more the wistful, tender romance of two youngsters buffeted by fate comes from the pen of Vina Delmar. First featured in Red Book Magazine, it bursts into life on the screen. This year's "Bad Girl" is "Now and Forever", the new Sylvia Sidney-George Raft picture, which is the feature attraction at the Belle tonight and Friday, matinee and evening. It is a heart drama in every foot of its compelling story, a fine, moving drama played with matchless spirit by Sidney and Raft.

Directed by Marion Gering, who was the stage director of "Bad Girl" when Sylvia Sidney starred in that play on Broadway, "Now and Forever" moves swiftly, always holding interest in its story of a boy and girl who find their love in Central Park. In Vina Delmar's crisp telling, the drama gains potency and flavor, emerging a pungent and observant photograph in the heart interest tradition.

"Now and Forever" tells the story of a girl, released from jail where she and her husband were sent together. The girl, decoy in her husband's badger game, has paid the penalty, but the husband remains behind bars on a murder conviction. Once out, the girl, penniless, faces starvation.

At first, Glynn upon her as one of the many girls she has met, but the unswerving honesty of the girl and her gentleness capture his heart. With her steady encouragement, his ambition grows, he forsakes taxi piloting, and becomes a garage owner in a small suburban section. But the intrusion of a wealthy local girl with designs on Glynn, almost robs him of her new found happiness.

The drama rises to a resounding climax in the escape of the girl's husband. The conclusion of the picture is a gripping affair, pitched to the tragedy of this heart-hungry girl and the man she loves.

To the role of the girl, Sylvia Sidney imparts the luminous charm of her personality. She makes the small storm-tossed character a real, living being, aching for love and finding it, almost to lose its precious reward at the last moment. Raft, the suave and dismembat sinister performer, is a revelation in "Now and Forever".

Exceptional Shorts.

"The Plumber and the Lady", a very funny Mack Sennett all-star comedy, the Belle Canadian Weekly reel, and "Speaking of Operations", an original and tuneful musical revue, have been selected for presentation with the above feature offering.

Treasure Night.

Two special events will be presented on the Belle stage tonight at 9 p.m. Ten surprise gifts including a beautiful walnut secretary bookcase comprise the weekly treasure night presentation held at the Belle every Thursday evening, coupons will be distributed till 9 p.m. tonight. Tonight Mayor Geo. on behalf of the Belleville Kiwanis Club, will reopen the seals on the watch and the lucky one of the free trip to the Chicago World Fair or the cash equivalent will be awarded.

LAZY MAN SHOOTS COAL OIL LAMP OUT

Johnnie Brown to Pay $10 or go to Jail For Offence

Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., June 29—(CP)—Lazy Johnnie Brown ended putting out the lights is to cost Johnnie Brown $10 or 10 days in jail.

Instead of going to the lamp, raising the chimney and blowing out the flame, Brown reached for his rifle and shot the house into darkness from his bedside, Police Chief A. G. Shand investigated.

ARMADA STILL DELAYED

Orbetello, Italy, June 29 (AP)—Adverse weather conditions over the Alps and in Germany again prevented the departure today of the 25 Italian seaplanes on a cruise to Chicago.

Air Minister General Italo Balbo indicated a take-off tomorrow is improbable.

Both ultraviolet rays and infrared rays pass through human fabrics such as wool more easily than through other materials.

FIRST NIGHT IN FILMLAND

Brilliant Joyous English Comedy Packs Capitol Theatre

One of the most joyous comedies to visit Belleville in some time had its premier showing at the Capitol Theatre last evening in the sensational English success "Letting It The Sunshine". Beautiful girls, remarkable dancers, a comedian of marked talent and a succession of hilarious situations kept the audience in a happy state. The story is written by Anthony Asquith, son of the well known political figure and Lupino Lane is director.

Albert Burdon as Nobby Green, the singing, dancing window cleaner was continually in scrapes and the lovely Renee Gadd as Jane the housemaid with whom Nobby falls in love are the leading characters whose adventures reach a climax when they stumble on a robbery plot and endeavour to warn the society folks involved. Both these characters have appeared in productions at the Capitol before and will be remembered as the comedian and comedienne of "The Maid of the Mountains". Albert Burdon is starred for the first time in "Letting in the Sunshine" and it is safe to say that he will be seen as star in many more English comedies. Renee Gadd is a talented dancer and one of the cleverest specimens of English girlhood discovered when Albert and Renee whirl from one character dance to the other. Molly Lamont as Lady Anne and Henry Mollison as her dancing teacher in their exhibition number add further delight to the program.

The industrious window cleaner Nobby is re-introduced to Jane through the window of the locked house where she works and they go to the cinema together. Deciding on seats, getting programs and chocolates, the pair provide many laughs. Returning home they overhear a plot to rob the beautiful Lady Anne of her pearls at a fancy dress ball and then things happen, in such an amusing manner, that the audience is practically helpless with laughter. To miss this picture would be a really delightful farce.

The fascinating "Strange as it Seems", a Terry Laughon comedy and an interesting news reel are also shown.

GUNMEN FLEE AS WOMAN FAINTS

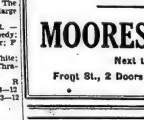
Chicago, June 29 (CP)—Four gunmen went to the Billings Memorial Hospital, but not for medical attention.

They went there to take the $175 they found in the hospital's office.

A woman escorting a patient fainted when she saw them.

They escaped.

In testing electric light bulbs, the Westinghouse Company has found that the electric eye works twice as fast and more accurately than a woman operator.



George Raft and Sylvia Sidney in story, "NOW AND FOREVER".

Vina Delmar's greatest romantic Vina Delmar's greatest romantic story, "NOW AND FOREVER," now at the Belle Theatre.

A large collection of books and maps recently presented to Harvard University includes some rare accounts of early voyages and explorations in America.

Don't Bother Cooking These Hot Days

Make Moores your headquarters for Tasty and Cooling Light Lunches.

Dainty Salads and Appetizing Sandwiches

MOORES DELICIOUS ICE CREAM

The Quickest Way to Coolness and the Surest Way to Enjoyment

MOORES

CANDY—ICE CREAM AND TEA ROOM

Next to Royal Bank

Front St., 2 Doors North of Campbell Street

KEEP COOL

ICED DRINKS
Coca Cola and ginger ale
5c

BATHING CAPS
13c to 1.09
See the new Flash Caps and the Transparent Dry Hair Caps.

CAPOK VESTS
Children can't sink with them.

SUNBURN CREAMS
We have tried them and know what is best.

FRUIT SALTS Cool the Blood
15c 23c 39c
Full Pound

EAURA SECORDS
For the Holiday
25 50c 1.00

MIX YOUR OWN DRINKS
Clicks and Tartaric Acids reduced to 2 oz. for 10c

CREOLIN
For garbage cans and general disinfecting. Large bottle
23c

See Our Reduced Prices on Patient Medicine and Toilet Articles

Dolan the Druggist

PHONE 138

W. WISE LADIES' WEAR SALE

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Sale Starts Friday 9 A.M.

After one year of business in Belleville we celebrate our first business anniversary here with a great deal of pride and pleasure—confident that we have served the public well and that our patronage have appreciated the high class goods we have offered them at such reasonable prices. For ourselves we certainly appreciate the patronage and courtesy of the ladies of Belleville and district, and can assure them that we will endeavor in the future as in the past to give them the utmost value for their money in HIGH CLASS WEARING APPAREL and MILLINERY at LOW PRICES.

We have never had a sale here, but to mark our appreciation of a year's pleasant dealing with Belleville patrons, we have arranged an offering of Greater Values sure to please.

Listed below are some of the anniversary bargains, others on display in the show window and in the store.

Come early for first choice.

WOMEN'S DRESSES:
Smart range of women's dresses in pastel shades, flowered georgettes, polka dots, flowered silks. Sizes 36-46, including half sizes. Reg. $5.95 to $17.50. ON SALE
$3.98 $10.98

CREPE DRESSES:
In white and pastel shades. Reg. to $6.95. Sizes 14 to 20. ON SALE
$2.88

Printed Flowered Silk and Polka Dot DRESSES AND SUITS
Regular 7.95 to 14.95. ON SALE
$4.95 to $8.95

Sand Crepe DRESSES
In a variety of styles and colours. Sizes 14 to 20. Reg. $13.95 to $16.50. ON SALE
$3.98 to $7.88

Smart Silk Swagger SUITS
Regular $14.95. ON SALE
$7.95 $10.95

EXTRA SPECIAL
A Range of Smart Voile, Crepe and Printed DRESSES
Reg. $2.95-$7.95. While they last
$1.98

A Smart Range of Silk Dresses, Suits and Organdy Gowns in the latest styles, materials and colours. Reg. $6.98-$12.95. ON SALE
$4.95-$8.95

Coats and Suits
Smart spring coats, all colours at prices far below cost. Sizes 14 to 46. Regular $12.95 to $39.50. ON SALE
$6.95 $19.50

Swagger Suits
Tweed and white swagger suits including two piece and three piece suits. Sizes 14 to 20. Reg. $16.50 to $25.00. SALE PRICE
$8.98 $12.98

Skirts, Blouses and Pullovers
All colours including white. Sizes 14 to 20. Reg. $2.95 to $3.95. SALE PRICE $1.59 $1.98

Millinery
White stitched crepe hats, reg. $3.95 to $7.95. ON SALE
$1.59-$1.98
EXTRA SPECIAL — A group of hats in all colours. Reg. 2.95 to 4.50. ON SALE
98c and 88c

We Carry a Full Range of Weldrest Hosiery
First quality, all the latest shades, in chiffon, crepe and service weight. Sizes 8½ to 10½. Regular 79c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sale Price 65c, 85c & 1.00

W. WISE

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear

287 Front St. Belleville Phone 1207

WILL ATTEND CHICAGO FAIR

Mountain View—Miss Sybil Vancoit who has been spending the past week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sprung has returned to Amelisburg, to spend a time with Mr. and Mrs. A. Vancoit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague and Eleanor, also Mrs. Grant Sprague, spent Sunday afternoon with relatives in Picton.

Miss Hazel Minaker and Miss Gladys Knox of Belleville, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ribley of Foxboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood and Ronald, also Miss Ila Wood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Adams of Centre.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wannamaker and Johnny of Rednersville, spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Miss Olive Vanwart spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Calnan, of Bayside.

Miss Eunice Gretney returned home on Sunday having completed her year's teaching at Worthington, near Sudbury and will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gretney.

Miss Bessie Way of Bowerman's, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Miss Marguerite Bristol of Sidney spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bristol.

Mrs. Dustin of Picton, is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Bovay.

Mr. R. Crawford of Belleville, spent the supper hour on Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sprague.

Mr. Sid Gretney spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. Gretney of Amelisburg.

Miss Gertrude Walbridge of Massassaga, spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sprague.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barber are enjoying a week's holiday in Toronto and Chicago and expect to attend the World's Fair. Mrs. Lottie the Barber is staying with the children while they are away.

A number of ladies from this vicinity attended the Women's Institute Convention at Demorestville on Thursday.

The Amelisburg and Rednersville softball game proved to be quite exciting resulting in a win for Rednersville by the score of 7-6.

W. M. S. MEMBERS SEW FOR THE NEEDY

Fourth Thurlow— Rain is badly needed in this district.

Mr. Harry Walker attended the Masonic Service which was held in Belleville on Sunday and took part in the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Cooley and Mr. Herman Clement took tea with Mrs. Wargar, Picton, Friday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Woods and family, fourth of Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lough and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lough, Chatterton, were entertained to dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Beer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller and girls took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Will Delior, Oak Lake, on Sunday.

Miss Bertha Badgley spent Monday of last week at the Sand Banks and Glenora.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker attended the funeral on Tuesday of the late Mrs. Van Alstyne in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blair and son of Trenton, Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. E. B. Way and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Badgley entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton and Mr. Wm. Phelps, third line; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Badgley, Desmondo; Mr. and Mrs. Kleczman and daughter of Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bins of Frankford, to dinner Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mary and Jean, spent Friday evening of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker, Picton.

Mr. George Milligan, Corbyville, took dinner Wednesday of last week with Mr. S. Cooley.

Mr. Everett Rollins of Belleville, had dinner on Monday with his brother, Mr. Joseph Rollins.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker on Sunday.

In spite of the intense heat a number of W. M. S. ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Chas. Cole on Wednesday of last week for the purpose of sewing clothes for needy children. The ladies served a dinner, spent part of the afternoon sewing and ended the day with the regular meeting. It was decided to have another sewing bee in the future.

Friends are pleased to learn that Mr. W. P. Way, who is in Bellville General Hospital is gradually improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller and girls motor to Niagara Falls recently. Miss Irene Miller remained for a few weeks.

GARDEN PARTY IS MUCH ENJOYED

Zion—No damage was reported from the severe storm which passed over the district late Wednesday afternoon.

A few-from this line attended the

ENJOY DAY OF PICNICKING AT THE "OUTLET"

Union Vale—Rain is much needed in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and family were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. T. Martin at East Lake.

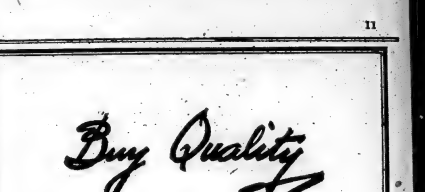
Miss Nina Leavitt of Oshawa, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. Leavitt and family a few weeks.

Mr. Kenneth Brown of Black Creek spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tubbs.

Quite a number from here were at the Outlet on Sunday and report a very large crowd.

Miss Marjorie Tubbs gave a birthday supper to a few of her friends on Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hughes of Drayton, returned home on Saturday after a week's visit with his sister, Mrs. C. Vincent and family.



Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pearsall, Reta and Leland were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan of Belleville.

Mrs. James Tubbs and Jack spent a few days last week with friends at Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Brown of Black Creek visited Mr. and Mrs. James Tubbs on Sunday.

Mr. Lamber Riedell of Picton, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vincent.

Limestone, made chiefly of the shells of ancient sea animals, is the most widely used of all rocks in industries.

The Milwaukee zoo serves this dinner to a hippopotamus every day at four o'clock: 30 pounds of chopped alfalfa hay, two pounds carrots, five pounds beets, two pounds onions, 15 pounds bran bread, one pound bran two pounds apples, half a pound of bananas.

HOLIDAY AT THE SEASIDE in Canada

45% Reduction in Fares to EASTERN QUEBEC and MARITIME RESORTS

On Sale during July and August
Good for 21 days.
Stop-overs permitted.

From BELLEVILLE to Return

Annapolis Royal (via Saint John and Digby)	$31.70
Annapolis Royal (via Truro or Windsor Jct. and D.A.
R.)	34.10
Charlottetown	31.15
Digby (via Saint John and C.P.S.S.)	30.85
Digby (via Truro or Windsor Jct. and D.A.R.)	34.10
Fredericton	29.40
Grand Cascapedia	29.95
Halifax	31.00
Moncton	27.35
Pictou	31.70
Riviere du Loup	24.85
Saint John	27.35
Sydney	34.10
St. Andrews	25.65
St. Stephen	25.35
Yarmouth (via Saint John and Digby)	32.40
Yarmouth (via Halifax and C.N. or via Truro or Windsor Jct. and D.A.R.)	34.10

Proportionately low fares between other points.

Full details and brief information from any railway ticket agent.

Canadian National
Canadian Pacific

HITLER CRUSHES ALL OPPOSITION PARTIES IN GERMANY

Chancellor Adalf Hitler of Germany is obliterating all political parties except the Nazis within the nation. He has he did away with the Communists. Then he dissolved or absorbed the Nationalists, the party of Alfred Hugenberg, minister of agriculture and economics. Following which the Social Democrats, who governed Germany from the downfall of the kaiser to the rise of Hitler, were proscribed. Many once-powerful Social Democrats, such as former Premier Otto Braun of Prussia, were driven into virtual exile and 30 per cent. of the German population deprived of representation when this once dominant political party was outlawed. The Catholic Centrist party, whose strength lies in Bavaria, and whose leader is former Chancellor Heinrich Brunning, was expected to be the next to be crushed. Thus the dictatorship in Germany becomes absolute.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF LATE ELISHA MAYNES

Thomasburg, June 26—The funeral of the late Mr. Elisha Maynes was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, being one of the largest held in this vicinity for some time. Former friends and neighbors from the surrounding country came to pay their last respects to a man who was admired by all who knew him. The services were taken by Rev. D. C. Hill of Rocky Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. H. B. Herrington of the United Church. Burial was under the auspices of the Orange Order No. 131 of which the deceased had been a member for many years.

Interment was made in Thomasburg Cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Albert Beatly, Henry Blakely, William Morton, Wesley Morton, Forbes Sharry and Albert Porter.

The late Mr. Maynes will be missed by all who knew him for his kind and helpful disposition. For a number of years he had acted as government judge at several of the annual autumn exhibitions in Ontario. He also took a keen interest in Forest Agricultural Society and Fair Board.

A terrific rain and wind storm accompanied by some thunder and lightning passed over this district late Wednesday afternoon causing considerable damage to the barn on the farm of Mr. John D. Embury, several telephone poles were flattened and many trees were blown down. Several cars on the road at that time were compelled to stop until the storm was over. Farmers welcomed the badly needed rain.

Mr. John D. Embury, a well known life-long resident of this community, suffered a stroke on Wednesday. His condition is serious. Mr. Embury was taken to Belleville Hospital by ambulance on Tuesday afternoon.

A number from here attended the Masonic service in Trenton United Church on Sunday morning.

Master Bob Oliver returned home on Sunday after visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Innes at Campbellford for a few days.

Mr. James Brown and daughter Alice returned to their home at Peterboro on Thursday after a few days visit at Mr. J. E. Brown's. This is the first time in many years for Mr. Brown to visit here.

Mrs. Walter Harrison spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Southworth at Glen Ross.

Several of the ladies of the United Church W.M.S. attended the open meeting at Tweed United Church on Friday afternoon when that society celebrated the forty-third anniversary of the founding of the Women's Missionary Society in Tweed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sherry and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coulson and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Millard Young at Shipdale.

A number of members of the Ladies Association attended the convention held at the Tabernacle United Church, Belleville, on Thursday. Mrs. W. H. Elliott and Mrs. H. Kennedy being delegates.

The local baseball team have some what improved since their first game and on Wednesday evening they won from the fourth line and on Thursday evening defeated Tweed in the return game.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Houston and Barbara Joan of Belleville spent the week-end with Mrs. Houston's mother, Mrs. Ella Way.

Miss Helen Howe has returned to Napanee after attending the funeral of her grandfather, the late Mr. Maynes.

Mrs. Albert Geen, Mrs. F. Bowyer and Mrs. Wilbur Sherry visited on Tuesday at Mrs. C. J. Carleton's.

Mr. David Calberry of Arnprior and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Calberry of Hoard's Station visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Calberry a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lancaster and Mr. Wendle spent the week-end in Toronto with Mrs. Lancaster's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mulvey of Belleville visited the latter's sister, Mrs. W. Harrison one day last week.

A few from here attended garden party at Fuller Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Maynes visited friends in Tweed on Sunday and attended the Maynes services.

The public school boys' baseball team played with the fourth line school boys on Tuesday evening and defeated them by the score of 18 to 10.

The public school pupils are busy completing their examinations for the term this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Adams enjoyed a picnic on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Platt of Northam.

Mr. McLean Grant of Toronto called on friends in the village last week.

LOBLAW'S for DOMINION DAY SUPPLIES!

"The BIRTH of a NATION"
Dominion Day
1867

LOBLAW'S Co-operate To Celebrate Aylmer Canada-First Week (June 26 - July 3)
By Displaying Aylmer Canadian-Made Products in all our Windows
SPECIALS on Sale for Week of June 29 to July 5

HOLIDAY STORE HOURS
8 A.M. to 6 P.M. WEDNESDAY:
8 A.M. to 12 A.M. SATURDAY:
8 A.M. to 11 P.M.
Store Closed All Day Monday

SPECIAL— A Timely Saving
MONARCH Pastry Flour
7-lb. Bag 22c 24-lb. Bag 63c

SPECIAL—
CRISCO
Makes Better Pastry
1-lb. Tin 19c

SPECIAL— LOBLAW CARAMEL KISSES
1-lb. Bag 15c Regular price 20 cents

SPECIAL— SOMOR PIMENTO OLIVES
11-oz. Jar 19c

BRUNSWICK SARDINES
Packed in Canada
Tin 5c

SPECIAL—A Welcomed "SPECIAL" at All Times
LOBLAW'S MADEIRA SPONGE CAKE
by the lb. 15c
by the Slab 57c

TODDY
"Builds Health"
½ lb. Tin 31c

SPECIAL— The "Irradiated Cereal"
MUFFETS
Package 8c

SPECIAL—AYLMER Green Label
CATSUP
12 oz. Bottle 11½c

SPECIAL— OLD ENGLISH Floor Wax
1-lb. Tin 37c

Hellman's Mayonnaise 8¾-oz. Jar 24c
Hellman's Blue Ribbon Salad Dressing 12-oz. Jar 23c
Hellman's Blue Ribbon Relish Spread 8¾-oz. Jar 24c

SPECIAL— Laundry Soap
PEARL WHITE
5 Bars 14c

FAIRY SOAP "It Floats"
5 cakes 21c

INGERSOLL Malted CHEESE
½lb. pkg. 12c

LOBLAW GROCETERIAS Co. Limited

KINGSTON IN FIRST PLACE BY GAME HERE

Wednesday's Match Easy Victory For Ponies Team

When the Kingston Ponies walked into the local ball yard and were literally presented with a ball game by the score of 11 to 6 yesterday, it was not a case of Lady Luck failing to smile on the home team but on the contrary the youthful Nationals looked like most anything but a baseball team. Eleven runs were chalked up against them and but five of them were really earned. And that's setting the earned run average rather high, also. Errors of omission were their downfall.

Ernie Holmes, after arriving somewhat late in the ball park, was the choice of the day for pitching duties. Holmes managed to stumble through nearly seven innings before he was chased to the showers and relieved by Bob Wild-ness on the part of Holmes, when he issued a free pass, a hit and a infield sack, via the four ball route, proved the downfall of the undoing. Coupled with a few rather glaring errors that also did not help the Kingston cause of the day, managed crew to any great extent on the score board.

Chuck Fournier, slight port-side hunter of the Ponies, was the star performer for the champions. His delivery proved no mystery to local swatsmen, for he dished out safe blows, two of them being triples, Sonny Green and Jack Millstone were the hitters. Taking advantage of the wildness of Holmes (2), Fournier (2), R. Smith, Matthews (2), Barrigar, 2nd. Attendance, 500. Time of game, 2.10. Umpires, Round, Kingston, and Woodley, Belleville.

Belleville	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
Scarlett, lf.	4	1	1	2	0	0
Green, c., p.	4	2	2	6	0	0
xWeir, 2nd., p.	4	0	0	1	2	0
R. Smith, lb.	4	0	2	10	1	0
Turcotti, cf.	4	0	1	0	0	0
Chamber, ss.	4	0	1	3	3	0
Matthews, rf.	3	1	1	0	0	0
Barrigar, 3rd.	4	1	1	1	0	0
Holmes, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
xMillis, c.	1	0	1	2	1	0
xxMorgan	2	0	0	0	0	0
Total	37	6	10	27	10	4

xCaught for Green in 7th.
xxReplaced Matthews in 8th.
xReplaced Holmes in 7th.

Kingston	AB	R	H	PO	A	E
G. Arnold, cf.	3	2	1	1	0	0
Scrutton, lf.	4	1	1	1	0	0
Compeau, ss	5	1	2	3	0	0
McGrade, rf.	5	1	2	3	0	0
H. Smith, 3rd.	3	2	2	1	2	0
Joyce, 1st.	4	0	2	6	1	1
J. Arniel, c.	4	1	1	13	1	0
Quinn, 2nd.	4	0	0	2	3	0
Fournier, p.	3	1	0	1	1	0
xBlone	1	0	0	0	0	0
Total	37	11	11	37	8	1

xReplaced Scrutton in 8th.

Score by innings:

Kingston	1	0	0	0	1	0	2	1	0—6
Belleville	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0—1

Summary: Earned runs, Kingston 5; Belleville 5. Three base hits, Green, Matthews. Two base hits, Scrutton, H. Smith, Struck out, by Holmes, 7, in 6 2-3 innings; by Weir 3 in 2 1-3 innings; by Fournier, 1. Bases on balls, off Holmes 12; off Weir 1; off Fournier, 3. Left on bases, Belleville 10; Kingston, 14. Hit by pitcher, by Holmes (2), Ball, Powers, Wild pitch, Holmes (3). Balk, Powers. Passed balls, Belleville 2. Double plays, Compeau to Smith to Hill; by pitcher, by Holmes (G. Arniel); by Fournier (Chamber, Scarlett); by pitcher, Holmes; winning pitcher, Fournier. Second base on balls, Smith, Weir. Stolen bases, G. Arniel, Scrutton (2); McGrade, Smith, J. Arniel, Compeau, Quinn, Fournier (2), R. Smith, Matthews (2), Barrigar. Attendance, 500. Time of game, 2.10. Umpires, Round, Kingston, and Woodley, Belleville.

PICTON WINS BY 7-1 SCORE

Behind the superb pitching of "Ron" Church the Picton interurbanites pulled ahead of the Belleville Veterans in the Bay of Quinte League race when they defeated the local Vine by the score of 7 to 1 at Picton yesterday afternoon. Bud Wilkins, who silenced the Picton bats during the last few innings of the Victorias to the Prince Edward County seat, was Coach Chuck Gerow's choice to hurl for the locals. Without doubt, one of the most sorry to the Pictonites yesterday, he was blasted from the mound in the second inning when four runs flurried Wilkin's hurling for the day and he was chased to the showers being replaced by Lott, of last year's Picton Aces hurler, who finished the game for the Vics.

With a fast breaking curve ball Church fanned nine batters, held batters before him, letting them down with only six hits, only one being of the extra base nature. Not a single local batsman could connect more than one safe blow from the deliveries of Church. Pete Cole was the big gun of the Picton club when he counted a single, a double and a home run to his individual score sheet during four official times at bat. Murphy counted two singles and a two base blow to his credit. Frederick and Rourke had two hits each.

The win places the Picton club in sole possession of fourth position in the league they have shared with Belleville since the opening day. The loss pulls the locals down into second place.

Manager Stanley Palmer and Blaker looked the best for the Vics while the entire roster of the homesters played excellent defensive ball with their hitters standing out.

The box score:

Belleville	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Blaker, 2b	3	0	0	2	3	0
Darrah, 2b	2	0	1	3	2	1
Green, cf	3	0	0	2	0	0
Blaker, lb	3	0	1	8	0	0
Palmer	3	0	0	2	0	0
Fidgler, ss	3	0	1	0	5	0
McDonald, rf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Scott, c	3	0	0	5	1	0
Wilkins, p	1	0	0	0	1	0
xLott, p	1	0	0	0	0	0
xMcCourie, c	1	0	0	1	0	0
xxLatchford	2	0	0	0	0	0
Total	31	1	3	24	9	2

a-replaced Wilkins in 4th.
x-replaced Scott in 4th.
xx-replaced McDonald in 6th.

Picton	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Hopkins, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0
Mighton, 2b	3	1	3	2	5	0
Rourke, rf	4	1	2	1	0	0
McQuaid, rf	0	0	0	0	0	0
Cole, 3b	4	1	3	1	1	0
Murphy, 3b	4	1	2	1	1	0
Abbott, lf	4	1	1	1	0	0
Frederick, c	4	0	2	7	0	0
Church, p	3	0	1	3	0	0
Total	36	7	14	27	13	0

Score by innings

Belleville	.....	000	010	000—	1
Picton	.....	211	011	10x—	7

Home runs—Cole; two base hits—Mighton, Rourke, Cole, Palmer. Struck out by Church 7; by Wilkins 4; left on bases Belleville 5; Picton 4; first on balls—off Wilkins 1; off Church 1; hoing pitcher Wilkins; hit by pitcher—Church Green. Double plays—Fidgler, Blaker, Palmer; Frederick, Point Anne, plate, Young. Picton, bases. Scorer Lou Allore.

CLEVELANDERS LOSE, PITCHER IS DRIVEN OUT

Foxx Leads With 18th Home Run For The Season

By OLLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer.

If Cleveland baseball fans expected an immediate right about face on the part of the Indians when Walter Johnson took over the managerial reins from Roger Peckinpaugh, they have been badly disappointed.

Of their last 17 games, the Indians have won only seven and dropped all except two of their last 10 encounters. Yesterday the Indians were the victims of the Washington Senators, rallying in losing 15-2 as the man piloted by Alvin Crowder chased Wesley Ferrell from the mound with a nine-run attack in the first inning.

The Senators failed to gain ground, however, as New York Yankees came from behind to plaster Detroit Tigers with eight runs in the seventh inning to gain a 10-7 triumph. The victory still left the world champions trailing by one full game.

Babe Ruth returned to the Yanks batting lineup and made his 17th home run of the season soaring over the center field scoreboard, a distance of 455 feet, for the longest hit ever made at Navin Field.

Foxx in Lead

But Jimmie Foxx jumped out in front from Ruth, Gehrig in the home run, hitting his 18th of the season, Philadelphia Athletics before the White Sox 8-6 when Jimmie Dykes poled a ninth inning hit after three runs had crossed the plate.

New York Giants went on a home run hitting spree to get an even break in a double header with Pittsburgh Pirates and gain a game on the Leaders, who dropped both two games to Boston. The Pirates won the first game 13-5 behind the effective hurling of Steve Swetonic and appeared to have the nightcap safely tucked away with a 6-0 lead the scores with a home run in the fifth. They were routed in the circuit blow, with two men on base, to clinch the game in the 10th by the score of 7-4.

The Braves, in defeating the Cubs 2-1 behind Big Bill Hallahan and Tex Carleton 4-3 in the first game and Phillies, 6-5 in the nightcap, kept Brooklyn splash a doubleheader the Reds winning the first game 8-1 with Paul Derringer hurling six-hit ball. The Dodgers squared matters by coming from behind to take the second 6-5

MOOSE LOSE BY MISPLAYS

Ten to Three Victory For Wellington in County League

Taking advantage of the mis-plays of the Belleville Junior Moose ballsters the Wellington Juniors kept their hold on the Quinte Junior League when they scored a 10 to 2 victory over the local "Loops Boys" in Wellington on Wednesday.

Lefty Phillips was on the mound for the Wellington kids and with a wide control variety of curves kept them piling up a score that might endanger the standing of the Wellington kids, who now are perched safely in second position in the league standings. Bird, Bennett and one half games behind the league leading Crafty Collister, who assumed the pitching duties of the Moose Juniors after being routed early in the pinches, was forced to accept defeat.

Pillingham, Stein, Kirby and R. Green were the big hitters for the winners with Henn and Robinson leading the locals with the willow while Jack Kidd handled the slants of the local hurler in an excellent manner.

The line-ups: Wellington—Stein, Kirby, Pillingham, c., Phillips, p., Donald, Pillingham, Vanderwater, 2b., Green, Phillips and Bowerman, lf., Junior Moose—Grant, Brown, Kelcher, Henn, c., Bird, 1b., Bennett, 2b., Collister, p., Robinson, Knott Harris and Munnings, rf.

Scoring by innings:

Umpires Ehlier and McDonald.

Moose Jrs.	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	3	1	0—6
Wellington	1	1	0	2	2	2	0	1	1	0—10

Umpires—Ehlier and McDonald.

Whalebone is not bone; it is an elastic substance found in the mouths of whales.

Jesse Owens

Jesse Owens, 19-year-old colored Cleveland high school track sensation, not only runs the 100 yards in world record time but is an ace in the broad jump. Here he is participating in northeastern Ohio A. A. U. meet.

New Mexico's legislature recently passed a tax bill providing a tax of four cents a gallon on all tu furnish free text books for students.

60,000 WILL ATTEND BOUT

Flock of "Angles" Leaves Faithful in Doubt Over Result

(By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, June 29 (AP)—Jack Sharkey, the temperamental ex-sailor from Boston, will defend his heavyweight championship of the world against Italy's "Man Mountain" Primo Carnera, in the ring round bout at Madison Square Garden's big bathtub bowl on Long Island tonight.

Under the stimulus of hot weather and the impetus given the field revival by the successful Max Baer-Max Schmeling scrap three years ago, a crowd of some 60,000 is expected to cram the bowl and pour more than $250,000 into the coffers of the Garden and of the Mile Punch, which shares in the receipts.

The disparity in the sizes of the contestants; Carnera's undoubtedly great punching power and the button job handed him an artistic lacing at Ebbets Field two years ago; Sharkey's temperament, which has betrayed him into costly mistakes in previous fights, give the mentality a flock of "angles" which still had them thinking and arguing in search of a favorite today.

ACTING MAYOR OF NAPANEE

Deputy Reeve, Dr. F. C. Wilson, has been appointed a acting-Mayor of Napanee during the absence of Mayor Arthur S. Kimmerly, who is attending the Rotary International Convention at Boston, Mass., the present week.

HOMER ENDS 19 INNINGS BALL GAME

Winsett's Twelfth of Season Gives Montreal Game

(By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer)

A duel between Montreal Royals and Buffalo Bisons for the head of the second division in the International League has brought the longest game by a good many innings the circuit has seen this season and as thrilling a finish as any fan could wish.

Tied for fifth place, the Royals and the Bisons battled for 19 frames —four hours of them scoreless—yesterday, and Montreal finally won out when Jimmy Winsett, who played for Buffalo last year, clouted a home run for "Ace" Elliott's delivery. The homer, Winsett's 12th. of the season, went sailing over the left field fence and with two on base to give the Royals a 10-8 decision and the higher place in the standing.

Second on the list of the day's thrillers was a near-perfect game pitched by Fred Fussell, veteran Albany southpaw, to beat Jersey City Skeeters 4-0. Fussell didn't give a run or but seven hits and two walks. One of those was wiped out by a double play.

Newark Bears made the afternoon's greatest progress in the cellar, Eatrens of the pennant fight by winning two games from Baltimore Orioles while the second place Rochester Red Wings dropped a 4-0 decision to Toronto Leafs and Ralph Birkofer.

Stellar pitching figure in all three games up on the Red Wings. Jim Bivin, veteran Leaf hurler, was pitched smartly for the Bears and Johnny Murphy, who was called in to aid him, earned brilliant relief ball. The Bears meanwhile pounded out 27 hits to win 11-3 and 8-3.

Birkofer set the Red Wings down with two singles, both by Manager George Toporcer, while the Leafs scored four unearned runs in the seventh inning to win the game and spoil a good job of flinging by Percy Kaufmann.

Electric welding has practically done away with riveting in German naval shipyards.

About half the insects of the world are harmful to man, and the other half render him a service.

For a Plunge Into Beach SMARTNESS
Choose Your Swim Suit Here
Quick & Robertson
CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

Yesterday's Deaths

(By the Canadian Press)

LONDON—Arthur Christopher Mahaffy, 63, publisher of 30 newspapers.

WINNIPEG—A. B. Rattray, 86, Canadian pioneer and philanthropist.

YARMOUTH, N.S., —Captain Richard Morton Ferguson, 91, noted skipper of sailing vessels.

ST. JOHN'S, Que.—Alfred Censarale, 53, St. John's Postmaster.

AUGUSTA, Me.—Dr. Theodore Wyman, 62, widely known surgeon, author and naturalist.

BARCELONA—Marques Mariano, 72, twice mayor of Barcelona.

AYLLON—Count James J. Richardson, 66, outstanding nonthroat specialist and co-founder of American College of Surgeons.

Railways in France are expected to reduce passenger rates.

Primo Carnera's Record in Ring

1928
Round	Opponent
1	Nello Gillotti	KO
10	Ialas Epifano	W
10	Rosman	W
10	Joe Thomas	W
4	Luigi Ruggirello	KO
10	Giuseppe Uccelli	W
1929
10	Mike Bourgion	W
3	Marcel Nilles	KO
6	Jack Rumbeck	KO
10	Signor Lotte	W
4	Joe Thomas	KO
3	Nicodemo	KO
3	Jaspers	KO
2	Phil Theodore	KO
1	Jack Stanley	KO
4	Young Stribling	W-Fr
6	Young Stribling	L-Fr
6	Frans Diener	KO
	(Carnera arrives in America)
1930
1	Big Boy Peterson	KO
1	Elmer Rioux	KO
2	Cowboy Bill Owens	KO
1	Hunter Martin	KO
1	Jim Sigman	KO
1	Man Mountain Erickson	KO
2	Farmer Lodge	KO
1	Roy Ace Clark	KO
	Silly Montgomery	KO
2	Chuck Wiggins	KO
1	Frank Zaitz	KO
1	George Trafton	KO
1	Jack McAuliffe	KO
10	Larry Gains	L
	(Carnera returns to America)
7	Jack Gross	KO
1	Gerry Peterson	KO
10	Hans Birkie	W
10	Stanley Poreda	W
1	Jack Gagnon	KO
10	Art Lasky	ND
10	Ted Sandrina	W
6	Gene Stanton	KO
3	Jack Taylor	KO
1	Les Kennedy	KO
3	Joe Santa	KO
7	John Schwake	KO
10	King Levinsky	W
10	Armand de Casta	W
4	K. O. Christner	KO
1	Joe Rice	KO
1	Jimmy Merriott	KO
1932
10	Jack League	W
1	Jack Spence	KO
10	Arnold Cheyfitz	W
	(Schaaf died shortly after)
1933
Years in ring		8
Number of bouts		84
Bouts won		76
Bouts won K.O.		62
Bouts lost		5
No decision bouts		1
Note: KO means knockout; W—won; L— lost; ND—no decision; F—foul.

(By Central Press)

Jack Sharkey's Record

1924
Round	Opponent
1	Billy Mahoney	KO
2	Pat Hace	KO
3	Dan Lucas	KO
7	Eddie Record	KO
4	Young Johnson	KO
10	Floyd Johnson	W
10	Homer Smith	W
10	Eddie Record	W
10	Al Roberts	W
10	Charley Weinert	W
9	K. O. by Romero Rojas
10	Jim Maloney	L
1925
10	Jack De Mave	W
10	Billy Montgomery	W
10	Jack Renault	W
10	Jack Gross	W
10	Charley Weinert	L
10	Jim Maloney	W
10	Johnny Risko	W
10	Bud Gorman	L
10	Jim Delaney	W
10	King Solomon	W
1926
2	Joe Lawson	KO
10	Gene Stewart	KO
7	Homer Smith	TKO
10	Eddie Huffman	W
10	King Solomon	W
10	Pat McCarthy	W
2	Bud Gorman	KO
10	George Godfrey	W
10	Harry Wills	W
1927
12	Mike McTigue	KO
10	Jack Taylor	KO
7	K. O. by Jack Dempsey.

1928
Round	Opponent
10	Tom Heeney	W
15	Johnny Risko	L
10	Jack Delaney	W
3	Leo Gates	KO
10	Arthur De Kuh	W
1929
10	K. O. Christner	W
10	Young Stribling	W
10	Jimmy Maloney	TKO
1930
3	Phil Scott	TKO
4	Max Schmeling	L-Fr
	(World heavyweight title)
1931
15	Max Schmeling	D
	(World Heavyweight title)
	Recapitulation
Years in ring		9
Number of bouts		47
Bouts won by K. O.		10
Bouts won by T. K. O.		6
Bouts lost		6
Bouts lost by K.O.		2
Title bouts		4
No decision bouts		2
Bud Gorman bouts		3
Note: KO means knockout; W —won; L—lost; ND—no decision; F—foul; TKO—technical knockout; D—draw.

(By Central Press)

After having given Primo Carnera an exhaustive examination a group of medical experts have declared that the giant Italian is far from a human freak, but is instead, a nearly perfect human being!

Dr. Fred Pierce, Dr. Printzlau and Dr. Hyman, in a joint picture above shows just where the Italian mountain's features conform to the ideal.

The have as many good facial and head points as Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney, Jack Sharkey and other pugilistic celebrities.

From Sullivan to Sharkey

Records of Previous Heavyweight Championship Fights
Compiled by Central Press Association

Year	Winner	Loser	Site	Rounds
1882	John L. Sullivan	Paddy Ryan	Mississippi City,	9 R
1889	John L. Sullivan	Jake Kilrain	Richbourg, Miss.	75 D
1892	James J. Corbett	John L. Sullivan	New Orleans, La.	21 K
1894	James J. Corbett	Charles Mitchell	Jacksonville, Fla.	3 K
1897	Bob Fitzsimmons	James J. Corbett	Carson City, Nev.	14 K
1899	James J. Jeffries	Bob Fitzsimmons	Coney Island, N.Y.	11 K
1899	James J. Jeffries	Tom Sharkey	Coney Island, N.Y.	25 D
1902	James J. Jeffries	Bob Fitzsimmons	San Francisco,	10 K
1903	James J. Jeffries	James J. Corbett	San Francisco, Cal.	23 K
1904	James J. Jeffries	Jack Munroe	San Francisco, Cal.,	2 K
1905	Marvin Hart	Jack Root	Reno, Nev.	42 D
1906	Tommy Burns	Marvin Hart	Los Angeles, Cal.	20 D
1907	Tommy Burns	Jack O'Brien	Los Angeles, Cal.	20 D
1907	Tommy Burns	Bill Squires	Colma, Cal.	1 K
1908	Jack Johnson	Tommy Burns	Sydney, Australia,	14 K
1909	Jack Johnson	Stanley Ketchel	Colma, Cal.	12 K
1910	Jack Johnson	James J. Jeffries	Reno, Nev.	15 K
1911	Jack Johnson	Jim Flynn	Las Vegas, N. M.	8 K
1914	Jack Johnson	Frank Moran	Paris, France	20 D
1915	Jess Willard	Jack Johnson	Havana, Cuba	26 K
1916	Jess Willard	Frank Moran	New York, N.Y.	10 N
1919	Jack Dempsey	Jess Willard	Toledo, O.	3 K
1920	Jack Dempsey	Billy Miske	Benton Harbor,	3 K
1921	Jack Dempsey	George Carpentier	New York, N.Y.	12 K
1923	Jack Dempsey	Tommy Gibbons	Jersey City, N.J.	15 D
1924	Jack Dempsey	Louis Firpo	Shelby, Mont.	15 K
1926	Gene Tunney	Jack Dempsey	New York, N.Y.	10 D
1927	Gene Tunney	Jack Dempsey	Philadelphia, Pa.	10 D
1928	Gene Tunney	Tom Heeney	Chicago, Ill.	12 K
1928	Gene Tunney	Tom Heeney	New York, N.Y.	15 K
1930	Max Schmeling	Jack Sharkey	New York, N.Y.	15 D
1931	Max Schmeling	Bill Stribling	Cleveland, O.	15 K
1932	Jack Sharkey	Max Schmeling	New York, N.Y.	15 D

—Series: After this fight, K—knockout. D—decision. S—stopped by police. N—no official decision. F—foul.

GOLF!
Suits, Knickers, Socks, Caps, and Sweaters
CHAS. J. SYMONS
206 Front St. Phone 82a

STATION L-O-V-E

BY CRAIG CARROLL

Elton Day, frantic shouting, faced her down the length of the table. But suddenly he was caught in strong hands, by Dick Mason's strong hands. He was jerked back into his chair. And, remarkably, loudly with no one to stop her, Judy went on.

"I didn't know anything about the letter. I really thought I destroyed the job. But I didn't. And the man who cheated for me put the blame on another man, on a man who sits in the room right now and that man thought I was to blame when he lost his job, and he hasn't forgiven me, he never, never will. All right, I deserve to lose him. I didn't play fair. But I'm playing fair now, I'm leaving. I'm through. Nobody will ever hear me on the air again . . . and good-bye. Good-bye to all of you!"

Suddenly she ran headlong from the room, She heard people shouting after her, she heard Dick Mason's voice calling, "Judy! Judy! Judy!"

She did not stop. She found a taxicab at the hotel stand, she was inside, she said breathlessly, "Come as fast as you can! There's some Judy following me! Somebody I've got to get away from! Drive!"

The cab swung sharply into the street, down to Wabash, up Wabash, roaring in and out among the slower truck standards. It turned again on Randolph, going east, then into the street that leads north, cut back to the street, cut through a crowded alley, then were cross-ing the river, speeding north, turning on Grand, speeding west again. Judy looked back. Cars came, but no car followed. She didn't know, she couldn't know, that Dick Mason had stopped, had caught Elton in his strong hands, held him against the wall, was telling poor-mazed-raving-Elton, "It is you? So you did that!"

She didn't know, then, at least, that Elton, squirmed suddenly, straightened suddenly, said calmly, quietly: "Yes it was I. But don't bother. I'll always be here. You can do what you want to me when you get back. But go after Judy. See that she doesn't get hurt. Don't let her go! Don't you! Don't you hear? Hurry!"

And she didn't know that Dick Mason heard those strange, quiet words and that, suddenly he let go of Day, suddenly he ran through

"Go Back to Hiawatha! No! No!"

the crowd, found his car roared after her.

She did. Much too late.

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO

Judy came home. She saw no one. She rapped quickly at Elsie's door. There was no answer. She hurried into her own room, caught up dress-es shoes, her makeup, whatever she could find without hunting in closets or bureaus, everything into her bag, closed it somehow, turned to run from the room.

Then, for the first time, she saw a scrubby little envelope on her dressing table, marked "Judy, Important" in big sprawling letters. She knew that this was only just a note. Only this much:

"Judy: Billy and I have gone to Crown Point. I'll be back at Mrs. Billy Townsend before you know it. You better wait, Judy. There's a grand idea, even if old fashioned. You bet. Love, . . . Elsie."

Billy! Elsie! And she'd been sorry for Elsie, she had called Elsie, with her big hands, and her capable, loose-shoulder shoulders, and her unhandsome, snappy face . . . And now Elsie was being married. At this moment, perhaps, being married to funny but little Billy who was as unhandsome as Elsie, and as capable, and as devoted.

And they'd be happy. They'd have a little apartment and they wouldn't worry, life would be right for them, things would go according to the rule, and they would laugh a great deal, and put money in the bank, and join a savings club, and be happy, be happy, be happy always together, the two who had seemed so pathetic only a little while before.

And she? And Judy Allison? Oh! She saw herself in the long mirror. She saw herself always lonely, secretly. A girl who'd always been secretly. In that dim, private place in which girls; at meal girls do believe. A girl who had been secretly, so terribly lonely, as the devotion of two men who said, each in his own way, "I love you." And new—Oh! No time to think! No time to remember!

She counted the money in her purse. She had just cashed her check. She had put nothing in the bank. Almost $200 left.

Go home? Go back and have her father say, "I wish you'd made good, Judy, I was counting on you!" Go back and have her mother be kind, terribly, pathetically kind to the daughter who couldn't stand on her own feet? Go back and have the neighbours whisper when she was not around? Go back to Hiawatha, where everything would always be the same as it always had been, and Judy Allison would be the girl who came home from Chicago because she couldn't stand up for herself?

No! No! She said it loudly, talking to herself, talking to the girl in the mirror. And again, no!

Then she ran down the steps, tugging at her heavy suitcase, "Miss Allison! Miss Allison!" Telephone! Miss Allison, somebody's calling you!" Mrs. Malone called after her.

But Judy did not hear.

She was in the taxicab, she was asking breathlessly: "Which train leaves for New York first? Hurry!"

The driver looked at his watch. "I'm on, I get a run in just fifteen minutes. If we can make it."

"We've got to make it, driver! Please!"

"All right. We will!"

The taxicab moved away from the curb. Judy looked straight ahead. She couldn't turn back any more, the house that had become home. She wouldn't meet the landlady any more, wouldn't hear half-questions, her hopeful, kind suggestions. She would be anything more of what had been Chicago to her. Never.

Perhaps one less stop light between the loop and the place where Judy lived would have been many things for Dick Mason. But the stop light was green, and the taxicab, angry policeman. And so Dick Mason's car came to the curb just as the taxicab carried Judy Allison away from him turned the corner three blocks away. And by the time Dick Mason had found the handicraft, had hurried out his demand, "Where's Judy?" and heard in answer, "She's gone. She caught that time Judy Allison was in the station buying a ticket, paying a breath-taking amount of money for it, hurrying up the steps with the red-cap tugging her suit case . . .

She got on the train. Dick, as the conductor signaled, just as the people kissed and drew away and dabbed handkerchiefs at tears they wanted to hide. So many people! So many people! So many people would would meet again, in a week in a month . . . But there was no one to say good-bye to Judy.

So he was standing that she should stop suddenly on the platform to throw a kiss at a man who she wouldn't see any more. Or at a man who did not even know she was going. Yes, the train moving, moment racing back downtown, hurrying from one railroad station to the next.

Dick Mason swung across town finally. Suddenly he remembered the time. He stared at his watch. It was twelve forty-two. Seventy minutes he must be on the air. The radio does not wait. Your time is your only time.

Blind, desperate, he found his way to the station he found his way to the information, he said the words he supposed to say, he saw nothing in the words but Judy Allison as she looked in that dramatic last moment; he heard nothing but her voice as she told him the truth he should have known for himself from the very beginning.

Judy Allison rode east. Time passed. Once a man stopped, leaned over her aisle, seemed to be preparing to say something. But Judy looked up and in her eyes, even, were tears in her eyes, turned away, went back to her own seat very quickly, did not return.

Back in Chicago, back in the radio station, the announcer went on, for Dick Mason as for the others. A man in the control room began to know how to go about being an announcer. A woman in the control room who said she would starve if she didn't get a job on the air, a client didn't get a job on the air, "I know all about music, I wrote the college cheer my junior year." An agency man to argue with over contracts, over talent, charges, over commissions.

Then finally, time for the audition that meant much to Dick Mason because it was his first show the first show he had planned and prepared and sold. Now he must produce it.

He found David Owen waiting. The director. Thin-faced solemn behind his glasses, smiling a little sardonically the people w he lined the audition room.

"Ready?"

"Yes. Ready," Dick said dully, not caring, barely even hearing. "You got the script?"

"Yes. And I think we'd better go straight through."

"All right, Dave. Who's first? For the girl, I mean."

"Lona Burdette."

Lona Burdette. The girl Judy had hated and feared. The girl who had been so blunt for what she pened to him—he knew that, now, Judy Allison. She was not a hypocrite to tell him so, to say, "I'm honestly sorry, but I'm in love with you." Not Judy Allison in love with you."

Lucky! And Judy gone! He smiled bitterly.

"Burdette?" he echoed. "Oh yes. Well, let's go. Dave. She can't hurt any more, anyhow."

"What?"

"Oh, I'm talking too much. Forget it, Dave. Let's go ahead."

So the Burdette girl stepped up to the microphone, holding the script just so in unconsciously practised hands. She read one line, another, another. They were lines Dick Mason had written with Judy Allison before him. Judy Allison's voice in his heart. When he was telling himself determinedly over and over, "You don't love her. You never did." When he knew that he did love her, that nobody else could explain it.

"No!" he jerked out suddenly. "No! I can't stand listening to this girl! Don't let her read any more!"

"All right, Dick. Miss Burdette, that will be all. Miss Howell you try it next."

And again the words. The words of a romance. A simple romance of a romance. Dick Mason, hollow, that would be set down by some listeners as the same thing he had written al-ready, that would make others re-member simple, quiet things they had said and believed once, a long time ago. Words meant for Judy. Words that Dick Mason, lonely, disheartened, bitter, had laughed over as he wrote them. But they were not at all funny to him now.

"No!" David Owen asked finally, "Dick, I don't know. I find a different idea of how that voice ought to sound. Say anybody else?"

Owen laughed. "Half a dozen. Take your choice, Dick. Dave. It doesn't matter much."

"All right. Mrs. Denny, you take the girl's lines."

And again the words. And the time the voice did not jar. It was Dick Mason's voice, Dick Mason's voice that it did not mean much. It was just a voice. Then another voice, a character called Norma Wayne who might be anybody in the world. Dick Mason's voice.

"She'll go. Is she all right with you, Dave?"

"She knows her business, Dick. She has the air a lady should have."

"You can work with her all right?"

"Of course."

"Then go ahead. You know your job a lot better than I do."

"Yes, I do," Dick said, and, a good actress, a trained voice, and if Dick Mason knew that nobody else in the world but Judy Allison would be told that the lovely words he had written for her, that was his own secret and his own sorrow.

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE

The audition for Dick's show went on. A test for the father's part. A father something like what Dick had imagined Judy's father would be. But it wouldn't matter, so long as the job was well done, well acted, the station, the sponsor would be.

Now came the task of selecting the voice which must be Judy. Not—ma—the hero's part. The voice that was to say the words he had written to say to Judy Allison, things he believed should be said things he had thought he would never have a chance to say.

And now he would never have that chance. He Judy had gone. Judy had gone because of his own blind because he was not wise enough to understand, because he had talked much about trusting without knowing the truth about trust himself.

All right. The first man. A man who chewed gum vigorously and mouthed the words brutally, forcibly.

"No," David Owen said for Dick. "No. Hmmm, you try it."

And again, the word was "No." And still again. And again. The words had been written for one man, written better than Dick Mason knew—written so well that nobody else in the world but that one man ought to say them. And perhaps Owen guessed the truth. Perhaps he knew much more, understood much more than he let Dick realize. For he said suddenly, very casually, "Dick."

"The Voices Came Through Plainly Sharply, into the car."

"Yes, Dave?"

"That's a hard part to cast."

"I know."

"It calls for more than most radio actors can give. Because most of them can't feel what you're trying to say."

"Yes?"

"Why don't you play it yourself?"

"Me?" Dick tried to laugh, but did it stiffly. "Me? Why?"

"Oh no. Read it once. Let me listen, Dick."

"No." Why not? Even saying the words would help. Even hearing himself say them as Judy should have heard him might ease the pain a little. All right.

"I'll try it, Dave. But only because there's so little time. It's not—I'm sorry. The director kept everything until the last possible minute. Just let us know this afternoon, and I wants to be on the air at 9.30 to-night. Crazy and I told him so. But he insisted. Seems he took a chance and signed up tentatively for next Wednesday, but he wants to get go ahead until the directors met this morning and O.K.'d what he'd already done. So that was the best I could do. Sorry."

"Never mind, Dick. We'll put it on the air, and we'll put it on right. Even if we haven't any time. So try the part."

Facing the microphone, Dick found he wanted to close his eyes. He didn't know why. Because, with his eyes closed, he could see Judy Allison. Because he knew that the words so well that he needed to look at the script only once or twice, because the words were so true that they could be said over and over and they would never grow old. "I don't want you to leave me. Not now. Not ever. There's such a little time left. Only years. When there ought to be centuries. When we ought never to die."

Something crashed loudly. He started, stared. It was only the door leading into the hall open.

"You'll do, Dick," Owen said, grinning. "You got more feeling into it than you need to, really. Well, let's go. We'll use you, Mrs. Denny, and Mr. Harford, and you Dick. And, Irvin, there's now much sound effect stuff in this. Here. Let's mark the sound cues. Otto, will you get that other microphone set up? All right, let's go."

Cues. Sound effects under-scored. Words overscored. Microphones. Three dreary paraphernalia of a business Dick Mason had thought he loved more than anything else a man could hope to follow.

Now he knew better. Now he knew that Judy Allison had taken everything from him when she went away, when she took her pitiful little speech and ran away before he could tell her that he loved her and hold her and tell her truth.

Judy rode east. Once she read a magazine. The story she began was a love story, a story about a man and a girl who were parted, who were reunited, who laughed. She closed the magazine and went into the dining car. She ordered without knowing what she had ordered, she ate without know-ing that she ate. She had never travelled on a big train like this train, she had many eaten in a dining car before. But none of it mattered. Only the trees that passed mysteriously in the dark. Not the people with handbags stamped with exotic labels from all over the

RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL AND THE FAMOUS HOLLYWOOD RESTAURANT

Are included in our special offer of THREE GLORIOUS DAYS in New York

BEST ROOM ACCOMMODATIONS $10 MEALS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Per Person—(2 in a room)

HOTEL PRESIDENT

WEST 48th STREET, NEAR BROADWAY, NEW YORK

CHOOSE ANY 3 DAYS, INCLUDING WEEKENDS OR HOLIDAYS

1st DAY—Arrive anytime during the day. Dinner at the Hotel. Admission to Radio City Music Hall. Nights lodging in a large double room with bath and radio.

2nd DAY—Breakfast and luncheon at the Hotel. Sightseeing trip around New York City. Dinner and entertainment at the Hollywood Restaurant. Nights lodging.

3rd DAY—Breakfast and luncheon at the Hotel. Visit to Chrysler Building Tower. Check out anytime before 7:00 P. M.

You may change the order of these features to suit your convenience. Tax and gratuities in any particular group, but may make up your own party.

FOR RESERVATIONS WRITE TO J. S. SUITS, Manager

"Canadian Funds will be accepted at par for both Rooms and Meals."

Dominion Stores Ltd. presents Your Picnic Camp & Supplies at DOMINION STORES

Where Quality Counts

Any way you take it, picnicing, camping, touring, or just fooling around the house, you can enjoy the holiday better if you shop for your holiday foods at "Dominion." You'll get Variety, Quality AND Economy.

Dominion Red Package TEA - lb. 31c

Chase & Sanborn's COFFEE lb. 41c

The White Naptha Soap P & G Soap 8 Bars 25c

Lynn Valley PEARS No. 1 Tin 10c

For a Charming Complexion LUX TOILET SOAP 3 Cakes 19c

All Brands, Except Frag Brotex Corned Beef No. 1 Tins 11c

No. 1. New Potatoes 5 lb. 25c

Head Lettuce - 5c

Salmon Flesh Cantaloupes 12½c

New Cabbage 5c head

Sweet Juicy Oranges 29c doz.

For Protection and Economy PENN-RAD 100% Pure Pennsylvania Motor Oil 1.39 4-qt. Sealed Tin

Summer Drinks Cooling and Refreshing HORNE'S CONCENTRATED GRAPE, LIME, LEMON ORANGE 11-oz. Bottle 25c

CROSSE & BLACKWELL'S TRUE FRUIT DRINKS ORANGE, LEMON, LIME CUP 8-oz. Tin 29c

KRAFT SALAD DRESSING Mr. Kitchen Fresh 12-oz. Jar 23c

CHRISTIE'S "Creamy Custard" BISCUITS lb. 24c

WELCH'S GRAPE JUICE bot. 27c

LOBSTER, Fancy Pack, ½'s tin 23c

SHRIMPS, Wet Pack - tin 19c

Clark's Potted Meats - 3 tins 25c

Evap. Milk, All Brands - large tin 10c

BEEKIST HONEY - 8-oz. jar 14c

McLarens STUFFED OLIVES, 11-oz. jar 23c

Nature's Best TOMATO JUICE No. 1 tin 5c

Crosse & Blackwell's SANDWICH PASTES - jar 23c

FRESH MEATS

Smoked Shoulders of Pork Picnic Style lb. 11c

Pressed Cottage Rolls - lb. 12c

PRIME BEEF

Boneless Pot Roast or BRISKET or SHANK lb. 8c

Prime Rib Roast or HAMBURG STEAK 3 lbs. 25c

Blade or Short Rib Roast - lb. 10c

Sliced JELLIED VEAL lb. 22c

Sliced CORNED BEEF lb. 19c

Sweet Brand WEINERS lb. 13c

DOMINION STORES LTD. CANADA'S LARGEST RETAIL GROCERS

When You Feel A Cold Coming On!

Stop it at "once" by taking ZUTOO TABLETS. Remember that Grippe and Pneumonia begin with a common cold. These tablets stop the pain and fever immediately, and assist nature in throwing off the cold. Taken in the beginning, the cold is often stopped overnight.

Zutoo FOR SALE EVERYWHERE 25c

WEAK WOMEN

Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women you can tell about from your own weak to-all-anything a that you did not have the strength to do your work! Women who are weak and run-down should take a tonic such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Made from herbs and backaches that are the result of female weakness, this medicine often yield to this marvelous medicine.

If you are one of the 100 women who report to us say that they are benefited by this medicine, Get a bottle from your druggist today . . . and watch the results.

CONFERENCE DELEGATES ARRIVING FOR ROYAL GARDEN PARTY

Delegates to the World Economic Conference in London, arriving at historic Windsor Castle, just outside London, for the garden party and luncheon in the honor of the visitors by the King and Queen of England. The British sovereigns are in residence a part of the time each year at the beautiful castle, which is 21 miles west of the metropolis, and just across the Thames from the historic school of Eton.

Watch for the TIGER Saturday

CHILD KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR

Little Margaret Gunning, Tweed, Narrowly Escaped Serious Injury

TWEED—Margaret, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gunning of Parnassus Corners narrowly escaped serious injury when she was knocked down by an automobile on the streets of Tweed on Saturday evening. The little girl attempted to cross the street, but apparently became confused when she saw the bright lights of an approaching car, driven by Mr. A. Lucas of Tweed, and darted back directly into the path of the car. Fortunately Mr. Lucas was driving at a slow rate of speed at the time and though the car passed over the child, the wheels did not touch her body. She was bruised about the legs and one stitch was required to close a slight cut in her head.

Departmental examinations are in progress at Tweed High School this week with Inspector A. W. McGuire, B.A., in charge, and Mr. A. E. Smith, B.A., Principal of Marmora Continuation School, Mr. T. E. Moffat is presiding in Madoc.

Mr. W. S. Gordon was in Toronto this week on business.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Nicholson of Hart Mills, and Mrs. Hugh Vogar of Bowmanville, visited their brother, Rev. R. N. Nicholson on Friday.

Church services at the United Church will be held at 7.30 p.m. instead of 7.00 p.m. beginning Sunday July 2nd, and continuing during July and August. The service in the morning of next Sunday will be patriotic in character.

Dr. and Mrs. Cooke and children left on Tuesday afternoon by motor, with trailer in tow, for the former's home at Algonquin. The trailer is fully equipped wherever night overtakes them.

Mr. H. W. Crosbie made a trip to Chatham on business this week. Rev. W. G. Hope Swayne accompanied him.

STRAWBERRY AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL WELL PATRONIZED

HUFFS ISLAND, June 29th — Mrs. R. A. Lazier and Mrs. F. Nightingale were callers at Mrs. C. Nightingale's and Mrs. J. Hartfield on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Barber is staying at Mr. Stanley Barber's while he and his wife and Mr. Frank Wallbridge are on a trip to the Chicago Fair and other points of interest.

Rev. G. Graham, Mr. J. Embury and Mr. E. Flagler were supper guests of Miss J. Huff on Thursday.

On Thursday evening a very successful strawberry and ice-cream social was held on the Anglican Church property in aid of that church. It was an ideal night and a good crowd was in attendance. The grounds were lighted by paper lanterns. The booth in the old Chinese laneterns. The booth was prettily decorated with bunting and flowers provided by Miss Bigones. A fish pond was operated and in a short time all the fish had been caught.

When darkness fell the crowd repaired to the school house where a concert was held by the Cub and Boy Scouts. A splendid programme of music and readings was enjoyed. Rev. G. Graham acted as chairman.

Those taking part in the programme were Misses Doris and Marion Wallbridge, organ duet; Marion Kenneth and Wilfred Mosley, solos; Miss J. Redner, reading; Miss Florence Barber, solo; Mr. E. Mosley, mouth organ solo and recitation; Miss M. Arbuckle, reading; Mr. A. Wilson, solo; Master Guy Osborne, selection with bones.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McPaul and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Wallbridge and spent the tea hour with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wallbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Nightingale and family and Mr. E. O. Anderson, Orland, spent Sunday with Miss B. Wallbridge and Mrs. R. A. Lazier, Massassaga.

Mrs. J. F. Anderson, Avondale and Miss G. Nightingale, Rossmore, N.Y., were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wallbridge and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Nightingale on Sunday.

Miss G. Nightingale leaves next week for a trip to the British Isles and the continent.

Mr. C. Sheicher, Belleville, took the service at the church of the Good Shepherd on Sunday evening, in the absence of Rev. G. Graham.

Employment in Australia is 25 per cent. greater than a year ago.

keep fit! Headaches, heaviness, depression will banish them all by keeping your system clean! Take ENO's one morning.
TAKE ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"

SCOURGE OF GRASSHOPPERS HITS CANADIAN PRAIRIES

Swarms of grasshoppers have again struck the prairies. The dread scourge that stripe grain fields a move thoroughly than a cyclone has completed with a hot sun and lack of rain threaten Canada's 1933 wheat crop. The only advantage to this is that it has had some effect in sending certain persons shooting to the dollar mark. In the layout above is shown scenes from the areas hit by the hoppers. At top, left, a field after a visit from millions of the pests. At left, below, the dead and dying after a concentrated attack with poison gas and other means of exterminating the locusts. At right, grasshoppers, shown in the circles, getting a good feed from the stocks of grain. When their meal is finished, there is little left for anything but burning.

FIRST FAMILY RE-UNION HELD

West Huntingdon, June 29.—The motto that "the family that plays together stays together" was put into action these days is "make hay while the sun shines". They have to have the beautiful sun for making good hay but a day's rain would be much welcomed.

Another young lady has helped to put West Huntingdon on the map in the person of Miss Katie Bray. It will be remembered that Katie had been in training for the nursing profession for the past two years at the Buffalo city hospital and on June 9 she graduated. The graduation exercises were held at 8-p.m. Friday, June 9 in Admiral Hayes' Hall on the University of Buffalo campus.

This is the season of the year for picnics, family reunions, etc. The family of Mrs. J. J. Wilcox held one on Saturday at the summer resort on Mr. Arthur Dunn's farm north of Fort Hope. Those attending from here were Mrs. J. J. Wilson and son Lorne, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wilson, Donald and Olive and Mrs. Melville Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fox and Mrs. Julia Fox of Centre have returned home after spending a few days with Mr. George Fox.

Miss Georgia Pitman gave a party to a number of her girl friends on Tuesday last week in honor of Miss Nan Sales who left this week for her home on the White Lake circuit near Renfrew. Among those who attended were the Misses Gladys Cooke, Vera Wilson, Olive McGowan and Sarah Wilson and Evelyn McInroy, also Mrs. Melville Donnan and Mrs. Thomas Emerson.

The Woman's Association of the United Church held a quilting at Mrs. Foster Wilson's on Thursday. Proceeds of the day amounted to $6.00.

The young ladies have become fired of standing around watching the boys play softball and have now organized a ladies' softball team with Mr. Lorne Wilson as manager. Perhaps the most prominent players are the Misses Evelyn and Hattie McInroy, Gladys Cooke, Ruby Bray, Frances Reid, Sarma Wright, Helen Wright, Vera Wilson, and Mrs. Horton. They are busy practising and will visit Mount Pleasant for their first game.

Rev. C. A. Sales left on Tuesday for his new circuit near Renfrew. Mr. Arthur Weaver of Stirling took his household goods in his large truck. Mrs. Sales is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Burke of Fuller for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Devolin of Queensboro visited at Mr. Frank Hammonds, Ridge Road, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barlow of the second of Thurlow spent Thursday at Mr. Foster Wilson's.

Miss Ruby Bray has visited with Miss Laura Tucker of Sine over the week-end.

The Endeavourers Sunday school class held their regular monthly meeting at Mr. William Fitchett's on Tuesday evening. The most interesting item of the programme was a debate by six members, "Resolved that a lazy, good natured wife is preferable to a tidy, ill-tempered wife." The various ladies taking part gave their own experiences. Mr. Phillip Carr acted as judge and the lazy wife was the winner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashley and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ashley attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Carman Ashley at Belleville on Wednesday of last week.

The many friends of Mr. George McGowan will be pleased to learn that he is improving nicely and will soon be able to sit up and enjoy life much better.

Rev. C. A. Sales preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning in the United Church. It was also Communion Sunday.

The new minister, Rev. R. Merriam is not expected until July 9 as his children are writing examinations. Miss Evelyn McInroy conducted the school on Saturday morning for her entrance class and in the afternoon they held a picnic in the nearby woods, enjoying a weiner roast. Those writing this year are Donald Stanley, Jack Wood, Leah Carr, Marion Richardson, and Irene Wood. Miss McInroy is anxious that all will be successful and no doubt this will as well as the extra coaching will aid in the successful passing of pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cougal of Madoc, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cougal of Dodfiant, Sask., were entertained at Mr. Howard Ashley's on Wednesday evening.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Harry Stapley and children in the sudden death of a husband and father. The late Harry Stapley was well known here, having lived on the farm now occupied by Lewis Reid for twelve years. A large number from here attended his funeral on Monday.

A number of the members of the Oxford Group of Belleville held a meeting at Mr. Ed. Pitman's home on Thursday evening. The team was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Campbell, Mrs. Gilroy, Miss White and Harold Hutchison. Those who attended report the meeting very inspiring and thanks are due these people for coming out to help. A lunch was served the visitors before returning to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Meehan and Miss Margaret of Madoc, Mrs. Hugh Barclay and Mrs. Jean of Driver, Sask., were visitors at Arthur and Lorne Wilson's on Thursday.

STIRLING LODGE OFFICERS INSTALLED

STIRLING—The newly elected and appointed officers of Stirling Lodge, A. F. and A. M. No. 99 GRO were installed at a regular meeting of the lodge in the Masonic Lodge-room on Monday evening.

Wor. Bros. G. B. Redford as Installing Master was assisted by Wor. Bros. Thos. W. Solmes, Wor. Bro. F. C. Mallory and Wor. Bro. E. A. Carleton.

The newly installed and invested officers were:

I.P.M.—Wor. Bro. C. R. Bastedo.
W.M.—Wor. Bro. F. C. McGuire.
S.W.—Wor. Bro. D. C. Haggerty.
J.W.—Wor. Bro. J. E. Salisbury.
Treas.—V. Wor. Bro. C. F. Wall.
Secretary—Wor. Bro. E. A. Carleton.
S.D.—Bro. Jos. Wilson.
J.D.—Bro. E. W. Grimshin.
I.G.—Bro. C. Duffin.
S.S.—Bro. J. C. Beacock.
J.S.—Bro. C. N. Baker.
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Butler motored to Oshawa on Sunday to join Mrs. Butler's sisters at the beach where a family re-union was held. Mrs. Roy B. Duffin returned home on Friday after spending the week in Toronto.

Mr. Clifford Baker has returned from Windsor where he spent the past week attending the Hydro Commissioners' Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hough and son Douglas of Deseronto were Stirling visitors over the week end.

Dr. George Hunt of Newburgh spent the week end with friends here. Dr. Hunt is enroute to Toronto where he will shortly enter St. Joseph's Hospital as an interne.

Mrs. Myrtle Crawford is visiting in Marmora.

Rev. J. A. Kolfend attended the summer session of Victoria College, at Pittsburg, Ont., this week.

Mr. R. W. Lawlor, B.A., principal of Stirling High School is presiding over examinations held in Marmora this week.

Mrs. W. L. Anderson is confined to bed with a attack of la grippe. Her many friends hope she may recover rapidly.

Mr. Allen Hollidohn, M.A. of the Athens High School staff spent the week end at his home here.

Mr. Tom Ward visited friends in Madoc on Sunday.

Mr. K. Rollins and Mr. Stanley Rollins of Cooper were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Rollins.

Rev. J. A. Kolfend, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church conducted the anniversary services at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Campbellford on Sunday.

Miss May Johnson is home for the summer vacation, having completed her term at Peterborough Normal School.

The funeral of the late Harry James Stapley was held on Monday afternoon from his late residence. Funeral services were conducted at 2.30 p.m. at Carmel United Church by Rev. E. W. Rowland who preached a comforting sermon. The large assembly of friends present testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew him. Following the ceremony the funeral cortege proceeded to Clarke's Cemetery, Oak Hills, where interment was made. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaving family in their sad loss.

The art and handicraft exhibit of work done during the year by the pupils was held at the Stirling Public School on Friday evening. Four rooms were devoted to the exhibits of art, needlework, wood-carving and every form of handicraft. A large crowd was on hand for the occasion and after viewing the outlay with interest the assembled crowd listened to hear the program which had been prepared by Miss Janet Moffat assisted by Miss Jean Van Cubbin. Addresses were given by Dr. T. B. Kennedy, chairman of the Board of Education, Principal Bowden and Dr. Wall who is also a member of the Board. A number of choruses were sung, some by the entire school and some by the entire school which were heartily applauded by an appreciative audience. The program was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Many favorable comments were passed on the splendid advancement which has been made in this new field of study by the Stirling Public School students.

SOCIAL HELD AT BRUCE MARTIN'S

PLAINFIELD—Some from here attended the social at Mr. Bruce Martin's last Tuesday night.

Mrs. W. Denny has returned home to Toronto after spending the last two weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. Maynes.

Mrs. M. Crane of New Jersey is visiting at Mrs. A. Bailley's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hall spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Weir.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hazard entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carr and Mr. and Mrs. Heasman of Stirling on Sunday.

Miss Mary Marshall visited friends in Belleville on Saturday.

Mrs. Sam Wood, Rochester, is visiting her mother Mrs. M. A. Latta.

Mrs. D. Hubel spent Tuesday with Mrs. M. Hubel.

Mrs. J. G. Latta has returned home from visiting her son Mr. N. Latta.

ECZEMA Chafing and Skin Irritations quickly relieved by DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Miss Reta Gowe and friend of Rochester spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Gowe.

A five-mile stretch of Colorado road is paved with rock from mine or dumps; gold in this rock is said to be worth $20,000.

DOMINION DAY EXCURSION
COBOURG to ROCHESTER N. Y.
Saturday, July 1st.
Only $1.25 Return CHILDREN ONLY 65c
STEAMER SCHEDULE STANDARD TIME
GOING RETURNING
Leave Cobourg ..... 8.00 a.m. Leave Rochester ..... 5.45 p.m.
Arrive Rochester ..... 1.45 p.m. Arrive Cobourg ..... 11.30 p.m.
EXCELLENT ORCHESTRA FOR DANCING ON BOARD
Low prices for meals on steamer—breakfast 75c, lunch and dinner 75c each. Lunch Counter Service
Ample free motor parking space at steamer dock at Cobourg
PURCHASE TICKETS FROM LOCAL CANADIAN NATIONAL AGENTS OR AT STEAMER
ONTARIO CAR FERRY COMPANY
COBOURG-ROCHESTER STEAMSHIP ROUTE
T-98
233, 29, 29

LIPSON'S GREAT PRE-HOLIDAY SPECIALS
Offering Red Hot Specials that are in Demand for this Hot Sultry Weather — Be Sure You Shop Friday and Saturday

Women's Beach Pyjamas
Clearing women's fast colour beach pyjamas — One and two piece styles. Reg. 1.29. Now priced at 59c

Women's Beach Shoes
Mesh and plain canvas strap shoes—leather soles and cuban heels. Reg. 1.35. Now priced at 1.00

All Wool Bathing Suits
Get one of these all wool bathing suits—will full sun back — Colours and black. Sizes to 42. Going at 1.37

White Canvas Oxfords
A white canvas oxford for summer sport wear. Cuban heel, leathers soles — Priced to go at 1.79

Women's Sport Shoes
Elk and brown and white and black sport shoes for women and growing girls. Sizes 2½ to 8. Now priced at 1.97

White Poiret Twill Skirts
Only 18 skirts in stock — All wool white flannels included — Now priced to go at, each 2.47

White Chamosuede and Silk Mesh Gloves
Simplex quality chamoisette gloves—also silk mesh with chamoisede trimming. Now priced at, pair
47c

CHILDREN'S DRESSES
Don't miss getting a few of these sample garments for children 2 to 7 years — A few 8 to 14 included at
39c

Store Open Saturday
Closed All Day Monday

Cotton Crepe Nighties
The lowest price on these crepe night gowns — White with pink and blue trimming. Now priced at
69c

Boys' Flannel Shorts
Only a few pairs of these boys' all wool shorts, with belt to match. Sizes 6 to 14 years — Worth 1.25. On Sale at
69c

Children's Patent Sandals
Children's patent strap sandals. Sizes 5 to 2 — Made with genuine belting sole — Worth 1.22. On Sale at
97c

Colored Bath Towels
Large size cannon bath towels priced for early selling at, each towel
19c

Children's Play Suits
Wash and play suits in dark colours and white — Various attractive colours. Sizes 2 to 8 years. Reg. 56c. On Sale at
49c

Kiddies' Overalls
Khaki and green chambray overalls for kiddies 2 to 6 years, with straps and bib. On Sale at 25c

Men's Rayon Polo Shirts
Clearing our men's rayon polo shirts at a ridiculously low price. Tan, sand, blue and green — Now priced at
49c

Men's Cotton Pullovers
Just received, men's fancy rack tight weight cotton pullovers, long sleeves, white and colours. On Sale at 97c

Men's Sport Oxfords
See these men's sport oxfords — Leather and rubber soles and heels — Priced in a great pre-holiday sale at 1.97

A Rack of Women's Dresses
See this rack of dresses — Almost 100 to choose from and every dress worth double the price. Your choice at 1.00

Men's Rayon Combinations
First quality heavy rayon knit combinations — Athletic style — for men. Sizes to 42. Now on sale at
59c

Silk to Top Full Fashioned Hose
First quality full fashioned hose — heavy service weight. Also a few chiffons. New shades. Priced at 59c

Lipson's
CHAIN OF POPULAR PRICED STORES

Tennis Footwear
Men's, boys' and women's tennis shoes priced lower than anywhere in Canada. — A complete range to choose from..

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

From heroes to hobos in three days—"The Belleville Nationals".

Just how a team can have such a reversal of form as Belleville displayed yesterday, following the sparkling efforts last Saturday at Peterboro, is more than the most interested fan can comprehend. To start with Ernie Holmes, after coming to the ball park just as the "umps" was about to call play, should never have been used on the hilltop. After he did assume the pitching duties it was clearly presumable that his efforts were far from being prolific. On the other hand all the "gift runs" garnered by the Ponies were not Holmes' fault. Again errors of omission were costly.

Of course the fans should remember that "Penney" Mills has one tough job on his hands. The reconstruction of a baseball team is no job to be envious of, especially after years of success on the diamond. For years past Belleville has been well to the fore in the amateur baseball world. The players who made the name of Belleville resound and flash echo to all parts of the Dominion relative to Belleville's baseball prowess have passed on and younger players have supplanted them. These youngsters will come along if given the public's support. It must be remembered—"knock" can knock but it takes a real fan to boost in the face of defeat."

We are not trying to allit yesterday's loss as the locals literally handed the Ponies the game on the well known silver platter. Incidentally Dr. Flynn, the Nationals' club physician, informs us that Jim Matthews' arm was not broken but badly wrenched. Matthews made a scuffled hit with the local fans during his first appearance in a local ball game. After taking a peep at the box score the lad from the O.B.D. did not let up down regarding our statement relating to his prowess on the diamond recently.

Following the game yesterday President Chas. Meagher announced that he had failed in his efforts of trying to persuade the Toronto Black Hawks to play the interlocking game here on Monday. Of course when the schedule was drawn up at Oshawa last spring it was decided that the interlocking games would be played on Victoria Day, Dominion Day and Civic Holiday. As a matter of fact all the interlocking games will be played on Saturday. This means that Belleville will have a Saturday baseball game. In the past the Nationals have shunned the week-end dates, much to the chagrin of many. Now, those who have for years wanted Saturday baseball will have an opportunity to demonstrate to the local executive that Belleville is a good Saturday baseball town.

As the citizens will be busy in the a.m. it was decided that both games against the Black Hawks should be played in the afternoon, which means that the fans will get two baseball games for one admission. Strange as it may seem, whenever a Toronto and a Belleville baseball game is on a real battle is assured. Belleville baseball clubs always rise to the occasion when a Toronto ball club comes to town which makes Saturday's twin bill a perfect natural. On the other hand if the locals can manage to eke out a two-ply win over the Black Hawks, who incidentally are right up in the running of the West Toronto loop now, they will not be so far behind the second-place Peterboro aggregation who have won but five games to date. In all probability Vinny Dimenti, who set the New Toronto nine down on Victoria Day, will hurl one of these games.

Apparently B. A. Fanning's local Victorias ran into a snag over at Picton yesterday. The Vics, who gave the Prince Edward County lads a swell baseball lesson right in their own back yard about two weeks ago, bowed to the Picton nine yesterday and incidentally were supplanted by their victors on the top rung of the Bay of Quinte ladder. Big Ron Church with his fast ball, had a day on, that's the whole story. Extra base hits by the home town batters spelled defeat for Rud Wilkins, who stopped the Picton club the last time they met.

Promoter Joe Corcoran tells us that he has signed Sandor Szabo, who won from Al Getsewich here last week, to meet Stanley Pinto in a finished match at the arena next Wednesday. Pinto, we know from personal experience, is a far better wrestler than he displayed here last week. The ex-Chicago veteran has grappled with such men as Jim Londos, "Strangler" Lewis, the late Stanley Stasiak, Jim Browning, Ed Don George and all the best "grapplers" who have been in the business for some years past. One of the features of Wednesday's bout is the fact that Al Getsewich (the masked marvel) will wrestle without his hood. We always were were of the opinion that the old stocking which Al wore was more of a hindrance than a help. He's a real smart wrestler and it is to be hoped that the fans will give him a big hand when he enters the ring Wednesday.

Apparently Wednesday, June 28, 1933, was a "black letter day" for Belleville's baseball clubs. The seniors bowed to Kingston, the intermediates to Picton, and we just learned that the Junior Moose dropped a game to the Wellington Juniors by the score of 10 to 3. "Not so hot," we'd say. "Or maybe we should say 'too hot.'"

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

JUNE 29 - MR. AND MRS. ITS ALWAYS THE OTHER MAN WHO IS "JUST RIGHT."

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Little Benny's Note Book

After supper pop started to smoke and think in his private chair with his feet up, and ma said, A nice quiet evening at home, could anything be better?

The answer, is No, ask me something hard, pop said, and I've got quite a lot of mending to do and then I can write some letters and the minnits will fly like magic feet.

What letters? pop said. You know how much I like to write letters, I have no letters to write, he said, and ma said, You certeny have, every body owes a certain percentage of unanswered letters and you're no shining exception. I've made out a list for you she said.

Return to Sender. Home for Abandoned Lists nothing doing, gods, pop said, and ma said, Now William I spent a good part of the afternoon making out this list, and I'm forgetting to take No for an answer. Nothing eases the conscience like overdue letters, she said.

My conscience never felt easier, thanks, in fact it's sleeping like an innocent child, pop said, and ma said, I don't believe it, you're just saying that for protective coloration. Now fetch and fondle that list and I'll write a few letters myself. She sent us a nicely worded telegram of congratulation on our country and that was 6 weeks ago and you have never written it, thanks to me and I'm not going to have her thinking it's my fault for not reminding you. Well, that's letter number one, ma said.

For pete sake is this the start of a quiet evening at home? pop said, and ma said, well of course, if you'd rather go out and play bridge, the Stevens would like to drop in and there isnte to a friendly rubber.

O, is anything to be done than a lot of silly letter writing, pop said. Him not thinking much of bridge and he started to get reddy, saying, By golies this is a fine evening for a pipe, I bet you cooked the whole thing up with deep premeditation.

Hee hee don't be silly, ma said, and they went out, pop still looking slgnicious.

Twelve undertikers sent the wrong body in a coffin to his house, James Cowie, of Glasgow, Scotland, and them for $1,000 damages.

12 BOATS IN OPEN CLASS

Scrapper Wins in Hair-line Finish From Mary Lou

A spanking breeze from the west which raised heavy rollers in the bay, was the order for the sailing punt races held in the harbor yesterday afternoon, and called out all of the skill of the young navigators to weather the course. The races were purely amateur runs with no prizes or points being awarded.

Sailing from after Bay Hill, owned by Maurice Callaghan romped home across the finish line ten minutes ahead of her only rival, the punt owned by Harry Semark. This is the third win in four races for the After You. Time given for the two laps was 1 hour and 34 minutes for Callaghan, and 1 hour and 34 minutes for the Semark punt. Both locals, however, were beaten badly by the little dinghy sailed by Messrs Martin and Mills, who came from the Country Club on invitation to join the races and were matched in a Class with the two large punts. Time for the dinghy to cover the course was given as 1 hour and 17 minutes. The dinghy held the lead all through the race, and changed the rough water better and was cleaner and faster in the stiff wind.

An open class race in which 12 smaller boats were started, Keller's Scrapper won in a hair-line finish from Mary Lou. Time for the Keller craft was set at 1 hour and 17 minutes, and for the Pinkle boat, 1 hour, 17 minutes and 20 seconds. It was the closest yet witnessed. Charles Dolan with the lobel lost second place position by only one minute, which time was given as 1 hour, 17 minutes and 81 seconds. He immediately appealed to Secretary Charles Jeffs for another number for his sail. "Anything but that number 13," he requested.

While attendance was cut down on the part of the spectators somewhat owing to the inclement weather, a large crowd was on hand on the pier to greet the runs. Mr. Percy Pitney acted as course supervisor during the afternoon.

How to Reduce Varicose Veins

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

Many people have become dependent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) as any first-class druggists and apply it night and morning as directed, you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moone's Emerald Oil is so harmless, yet most powerful germicide and two oun's last a very long time. Indeed, so powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic cases of piles are now entirely absorbed and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded—Doyle's Drug Store and Dolan the Druggist sell lots of it.

EXAM PAPER THEFT CHARGES

Toronto, June 28—(CP)— John Fyne and John Rule appeared in police court today charged with conspiracy in the theft of examination papers from the Province of Ontario and were remanded till Friday on Bail of $1,000 each. Fyne, 18, and Rule, 22, were arrested yesterday and charged with theft of matriculation papers of the Department of Education.

IS GASHED, BY MOWER KNIFE

Gilead, June 29.—Rain is greatly needed in this locality. Everything is seemingly scorched and heat is intense.

The Gilead softball team played the Plainfield softball team on Thursday evening, June 22. The score was 19 to 18 in favor of Gilead.

Mr. Ernest Leavens suffered a painful injury on Tuesday last when the knives which he was putting in the mower slipped inflicting a very deep gash in the hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Badgley of Thomasburg called on the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Badgley on Monday evening last.

Mr. Arthur MacLachlan of Colborne spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Balcanquel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wyatt entertained friends on Sunday last.

Services were conducted by Rev. Merrick on Sunday to a fair attendance. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed.

Mr. Gordon Bolderick is suffering a sprained ankle.

Charles Murray and George Sidney in "COHENS AND KELLYS IN TROUBLE" Coming Saturday to the CAPITOL Theatre

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES

(Eastern Standard Time)

THURSDAY

4.00—Green Brothers—WEAF
4.15—Associated Artists—WGR
4.30—The Romantikers—WEAF
4.30—Singing Lady—WJZ
4.45—Opera Hall Hour—CKAC
4.45—Orphan Annie—CFCF
4.45—Ray. Heatherton—WEAF
4.45—John Kelvin—CFRB
5.00—Organ Melodies—CNCT
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Betty Bartlett—CFRB
5.30—Cheerio—CNCT
6.00—Amos 'n 'Andy—CFCF
6.00—Chas. Carlile—WJZ
6.00—Moonlight Serenade—WEAF
6.15—Mitzi Green—WJR
6.15—Pleasure Time—CNCT
6.15—Countess Albani—WEAF
6.30—Rumford Hour—WEAF
6.45—The Goldbergs—WGR
6.45—Evening Prayers—CKCL
7.00—Variety Prgm—CFCF
7.00—Do-Re-Mi—WABC
7.00—Phantom Ringers—WJZ
7.45—Harpist—CKOC
8.00—Henry's Showboat—WEAF
8.15—Pray-Braggiotti—CFRB
8.30—Columbia Revue—WABC
8.30—Dance Hour—CNCT
9.00—Commission Prog—CFCA
9.00—Jack Pearl-Orch—WEAF
9.15—Windy City Revue—CFRB
9.30—Golden Chorus—WJR
9.45—Maude Roonty—WABC
10.00—Harmony Trio—WJZ
10.00—James Melton—WEAF
10.15—Phil. Regan, Tenor—WABC
10.30—Amateur Broadcast—WABC
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.00—The Coon Sanders—WJZ
12.00—Rocelaus Orch.—WABC

FRIDAY

7.00—Salon Musicale—WABC
7.30—Sunny Melodies—WABC
7.30—Morning Melodies—CFCF
8.00—Girls' Trio—CFCF
8.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.15—Morning Melodies—CFRB
8.15—Florenda Trio—WEAF
8.30—Cheerio—CFCF
9.00—Southern Singers—WJZ
9.30—The Looking Glass—WEAF
9.00—Breen and de Rose—WEAF
9.15—Myra, Lo, Jim—WJZ
9.15—Bill and Ginger—CFRB
9.30—The Happy Rambler—WEAF
9.45—Singing Strings—WJZ
10.00—Variety Musicale—WEAF
10.00—U. S. Marine Band—CNCT
10.15—Freddy Miller—WABC
10.15—Concert Prog.—CFRB
10.30—Morning Musicale—CFRB
10.45—Variety Prog.—CFCA
11.00—Old Fiddler—CFCA
11.00—Fiddlers Three—WJZ
11.15—Pleasure Time—CNCT
11.15—Jeanne Van Rayden—WJR
11.30—Concert Hall—WEAF
11.30—Orch.-Vocalist—WEAF
11.45—Rhythmic Serenade—WJZ
11.45—MacDowell's Serenade—WBEN
12.00—Rex Battle's Orch.—CKCL
12.30—Vincent Sorey Orch.—WJZ
12.15—Envo Aoili—CFRB
12.30—Farm-Home Hour—WJZ
12.30—Madison Ensemble—WABC
1.00—Hymn Sing—WHEN
1.00—Noonon Musicale—CFCA
1.30—The Roundtowners—CFRB
1.30—Ivy Scott, Soprano—WJZ
1.30—Wilson-Allen—WEAF
1.45—Stellex Sisters—CNCT
1.45—Three Shades Blue—WEAF
2.00—Somerset Recital—WEAF
2.15—Words and Music—WJZ
2.15—Jubilee Singers—CNCT
2.30—Variety Prog.—WJZ
2.45—Happy Jack Turner—WJZ
2.45—The Coon Sanders—WJZ
3.00—May We Present—WEAF
3.30—U. S. Army Band—WGR
3.30—Vocalists-Orch.—WJZ
3.45—Concert Artists—CFCA
4.00—Lucille Peterson—CNCT
4.15—John Kelvin—WABC
4.45—The Singing Lady—WJZ
4.30—Fireside Prog.—CKAC
4.45—Little Orphan Annie—WJR
4.45—Irving Rose Orch.—WJZ
5.15—On the Air—WABC
5.30—Birds and Blue—WGR
5.30—Happy Bakers—WABC
5.45—Jimie Fiain Bill—WABC
3.45—Neo Sloma—CKAC
6.00—Mildred Bailey—WABC
6.00—Amos 'n 'Andy—CFCF
6.00—Mountaineers—WEAF
6.15—Male Quartet—WJZ
6.15—Westphal's Orch.—WABC
6.30—Soloist Orch.—WEAF
6.30—Jack Rohr-Orch.—WJR
6.45—Bobbe Carter—WABC
6.45—Evening Prayers—CFCL
7.00—Jessica Dragonette—CNCT
7.00—Wayne Martin—WJZ
7.00—String Trio—CKCL
7.30—Bell Ringers—CKCA
7.30—The Buckaroos—CFRB
7.30—Burton Trio—CFRB
8.00—Vocalist-Orch.—WJZ
8.00—Irvin S. Cobb—WABC
8.15—Sweet Singer—WABC
8.15—Band Broadcast—CKOL
8.30—Variety Program—WJZ
8.30—Musical Variety—WEAF
9.00—Jerry Cooper—CNCT
9.00—Jack Benny—WEAF
9.00—Rook Variety—CNCT
9.30—The Country Club—WEAF
9.30—Edwin C. Hill—WABC
9.30—London Conference—WJZ
9.45—Luther's Trio—WJR
10.00—Nemesis—U. Orch.—CNCT
10.00—The Singers—WJZ
10.15—Little Jack Little—WABC
10.30—Musical Prog.—CFRB
10.30—Palisade Echoes—WJZ
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.30—M. Stern's Orch.—WEAF

DEFINITENESS DEMANDED BY AUSTRALIANS

Acreage Slash Plan Not Clear Enough For Them

2 HOURS' DEBATE

Whether Provisos Can Be Met is Still Uncertain

LONDON, June 29.—(AP)—After two hours of discussion today about new Australian conditions to further participation in four-power wheat acreage reduction proposals it was undecided whether the provisos can be met.

The Australian representative had previously been unable to join Canada, the United States and Argentina in the scheme but upon receiving further advices from his government, Stanley M. Bruce, Australian minister to London, asked the conferees to meet again.

The Australian Government asked that some definite assurance of the acreage slash should be evolved for presentation to the separate Australian States and that the principal European countries be approached and their cooperation be assured before the Australian States are asked to accept the restrictions.

New Australian Terms

At noon the Australians were invited to return and explain the situation further.

One delegate commented that the new Australian terms represented a "definite softening" of the old position in which the Australians indicated the objection that the latest stand does not represent even an agreement in principle, as understood here, but only that if the new conditions are met the Australian Government may be willing to attempt to persuade the States to consider the project further.

ON SALE
The Balance of Our Stock of Maxwell
LAWN MOWERS
Prices as low as 5.85
Solid Rubber
LAWN HOSE
Guaranteed
50 ft. lengths complete with couplings
3.19
SMITH HARDWARE
PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

SIDEWALKS ARE HEAVED

Expansion Lifts Twenty Feet of Concrete on Coleman St.

Speaking about heat waves—Yesterday's, heat was no mirage in this city that even the concrete sidewalks couldn't take it.

At the end of Cedar street, late yesterday afternoon, a large section of sidewalk about twenty feet long rose up some distance in the air with a resounding crack. The walk split, and several large fragments bounced like baseballs.

Department of Public Works' employees today had barricaded the section of sidewalk off and were busily repairing the damage which was considerable.

Expansion of the hot concrete on top of the pavement and the static condition of the comparatively cool bottom was blamed by the City Engineer for the sidewalk explosion. Several sections of walk in other sections of the city have also heaved noticeably.

Thunder is rarely heard as far away as 60 miles.

A method of washing and cooling air was patented as long ago as 1855.

Americans are eating about eight per cent more pork and lard per person than before the war.

Germans are taking steps to open new oil fields in Germany to make the country independent of foreign supplies.

G.T.R. SHARES APPEAL LOST

G. P. Lovibond of England Appears in Own Behalf

Toronto, June 29—(CP)—Action of George P. Lovibond, Essex, England, against the Grand Trunk Railway Company of Canada, the Canadian National Railways and the Attorney-General of Ontario in connection with preference and common stock issues of the G.T.R., was dismissed in the court of appeal at Osgoode Hall.

The plaintiff attempted on his own behalf and in interests of all other registered shareholders in the company to gain an appeal over the judgment of Mr. Justice Kerwin who upon determination of points of law dismissed the action. It was the appellants' contention that these shares had been transferred illegally.

BRIDGE TITLES ARE ANNOUNCED

New York, June 29—(CP)—C. F. Watson and C. F. Chapman, of Toronto, won the Canadian National North-South Bridge championship, the National Bridge Association announced today.

Cecile Highstead and Mrs. Ella G. Pimm, of Montreal, won the eastwest Dominion title.

Mrs. J. H. Slager and Fred Levy of Montgomery, Ala., are world bridge olympic champions.

Phone 3000 — THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED — Phone 3000

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

It's Bargain Day in the July A MONTH OF SALES..

SOMETHING DIFFERENT EVERY DAY Shop Early!

Fringed Rag Rugs

A convenient size for scatter use, 18 x 30 inches. Well woven, with fringed ends. In mottled patterns.
Special, each 25c
—main floor rear

Clearing! 3 Piece Fibre

Sun Room Suites

Strongly made, three piece fibre suite for the sun room. In sunfast, upholstered in pleasing black ground chintz, with flower pattern in bright shades. Cushions are spring filled for added comfort. Regularly 33.00. Special 27.49
three pieces .....

Special! Grey Enamel Metal Ice Refrigerators

10.95

A smart looking design, of metal with grey enamel finish. Ice box is of good capacity, and made from galvanized metal. Ice compartment top measures 19½ x 10 inches. Food chamber with one shelf is 18 x 17 x 14 inches in size. Height overall is 36 inches. Hinges and door fastenings are neatly nickel-plated.

Special July Sale Price 10.95

Beautiful
Filet Net Curtains

Tailored edge filet net curtains, in ivory and ecru shades. For the living room, dining room or the hall. Size about 40 inches by 2½ yards long.
Special, pair 98c
—main floor rear

36 Inch
Figured Sateen

In neat Paisley designs on a blue ground or sand ground with flowered effects. Excellent quality for covering cushions, cushion or making slip covers. 36 inches wide.
Yard 33c
—main floor rear

Crowd Bringer! Clearance of Rayon Lingerie

Made of beautiful quality rayon, the assortment comprised of bloomers, brassieres, gowns, slips and vests, etc. A variety of styles, tailored and lace trimmed — in white and a host of pretty pastels. Sizes, small, medium and large in the group. Regularly 89c. Clearing Friday, each or set 49c
—main floor right

Jacket Frocks of Crepe

For Misses and Women

These are of a beautiful soft crepe in a choice of yellow, green, blue, pink or peach. Smartly styled, they all feature a smart little jacket with each frock which enhances their appearance remarkably. Cool, smart looking and last but not least, inexpensive! Frocks of this frock—at a price that you'd ordinarily pay for a frock of much inferior quality. Sizes from 18½ to 46. The price only 5.95

Special!
Smart White Crepe Hats

A fine assortment of styles in this new shipment—and they are all of splendid quality white crepe—some smartly showing stitched designs and effects. With brims that dip and droop in very clever ways. A wide head size range.
Each 1.79

Special! New
Frocks with Hats to Match

For 7 to 13 Year Olds!

In smart polka dot and flowered effects, the material a cool, crisp fiesta voile which offers utmost in comfort for hot days. A clever assortment of styles, each frock with a smart little hat to match. A choice of several colors to choose from—sizes for 7 to 13 years. Special at 2.95

Women's White
Fabric Gloves

Special Pr. 49c

A new shipment for Friday, in neat pull-on styles, of all white, well textured chamois cloth. Excellent quality, sizes from 6½ to 8. July Special, pair 49c
—main floor left

Girls' Smart
Beach Suits

For Ages 7 to 14 Years

Cool, comfortable cut, girls' beach suits, in a choice of blue, navy, red or green. Sizes for 7 to 14 years. This style is particularly popular this season — and we urge early shopping for the best choice. Special, Friday, each 1.19

Clearing! Women's Sheer Blousettes

Of organdy, pique, and muslin, smart little blousettes for women, sizes from 34 to 40 in the lot. These display clever little touches such as tucks, puff sleeves, colored trimmings, or made with ties of matching material. In a smart range of colors, in plaids, or just smartly plain white. Each 97c
—main floor centre

2-Day Sale of Men's Made-to-Measure Suits Continues Friday!

Women's Lace Trimmed
Angel Skin Panties

Dainty angel skin panties in abbreviated style, for summer comfort. These button at the waist, and come in a fine assortment of shades. Lovely material—all sizes in the group. Special, pair 59c
—second floor

Kiddies'
Beach Suits

Cool and comfortable these little beach suits, of fine wool, in red, blue or green. A choice from two styles. Sizes 2 to 6 years. Special, each 89c
—second floor

Infants'
Flannelette Gowns

Snow white flannelette gowns for kiddies. Smartly trimmed in blue or pink.
Each 35c
—second floor

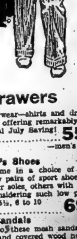
Sale! Of Arbors and Garden Trellis

Straight lattice trellis, 8 feet high, reg. 1.60 for 1.19
Arch Top Arbors, reg. 5.25, for 3.95
Square Top Arbors, reg. 9.25, for 6.95
—basement

Electric Grillettes

A splendid little electric grillette for making sandwiches and light lunches. Elements in top and bottom sections assure even toasting. Can be used for toasting, frying, broiling, etc. In bright nickel finish. Special, each 2.95
—basement

Men's Good Weight
Moleskin (Cotton) Trousers



Regularly priced at 1.95 pair. A special clearing line of men's sturdy moleskin (cotton) trousers, that are smartly tailored and full cut — finished with five pockets, cuffs, and belt loops. Sizes run from 26 to 44. July Special, pair 1.55

Men's Rain-Resist
Rayon Combinations

Of fine quality rayon, the popular run-resist quality, in either white or peach. These are athletic cut—and strongly reinforced. Sizes 36 to 44. Special, suit 89c

Men's Irish Linen
Handkerchiefs

All white, men's fine linen handkerchiefs, in generous size, with hand rolled hems. Regularly 25c each. Half price, Friday, at 2 for 35c

Men's Merino
Shirts and Drawers

Popular two piece summer weight underwear—shirts and drawers at this price—both the same weight and offering remarkably good value at this low price. It's truly a real July Saving! Special 55c
Sizes 36 to 44. Each ..... —men's store

Special in Children's Shoes

Calf and patent leather shoes that come in a choice of three styles, strap, tie or a neat pump. A few pairs of sport shoes and sandals also included. Some with leather soles, others with Panco soles, but all remarkably good value considering such low pricing as this. In black and brown, sizes 3 to 5½, 6 to 10 and 11 to 2. July Special, pair 69c

Women's Mesh Sandals

Smart looking and very comfortable, too! These mesh sandals for women. In white, with a leather sole and covered wood heel. A limited number of pairs, sizes from 3½ to 7 in the lot. You'll find them very dressy for wear with white frocks and summer suits or ensembles. Special Value, pair 1.29

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES

EATON GROCETERIA

DOMINION-DAY Specials

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY MONDAY, JULY 3

SPECIALS ON SALE FRIDAY & SATURDAY

EXTRA SPECIAL — Eatonia STRAWBERRY JAM 40-oz. Jar 27c

SPECIAL— CLOVERLEAF FANCY SOCKEYE SALMON No. 1 Tall Tin 28c, Halves Tin 16c. For the picnic sandwich or salad—this Fancy Quality Red Salmon will be found particularly delicious. Note the saving on the tall tin.

SPECIAL —SINGAPORE SLICED PINEAPPLE No. 1½ Size Tin 9c

SPECIAL—CAMPBELL'S—DELICIOUS—No. 1 Size Tin TOMATO JUICE 12 Tins 53c. A "zestful" drink for any hour of the day. Take advantage of the saving on the 12-tin offer.

SPECIAL — BOVRIL BRAND CORNED BEEF Size ½ for sandwiches as a new tasty spread or a salad, and include with that cold meat plate. No. 1 Size Tin 10c. Buy several tins.

SPECIAL—THE CHOICE OF THE MOVIE STARS LUX 4 Cakes for 25c TOILET SOAP

SPECIAL— HOSTESS SHOP BRAND CHOPPED OLIVES For Sandwiches, etc. 4-oz. Bottle 15c

SPECIAL—MARSHALL'S FAVORITE SARDINES 3 Tins for 23c

SPECIAL—KELLOGG'S RICE KRISPIES Package 10c

SPECIAL—Eatonia JUMBO QUEEN OLIVES 19-oz. Jar 24c

SPECIAL—BULK MACARONI 3 lbs. for 12c

SPECIAL—FOR THE PICNIC WAX PAPER 3 15-SHEET ROLLS 9c Rolls

Clean Clogged Drains SINKO Tin 27c

HOUSEHOLD WASHING SODA Pkt. 5c

POST'S BRAN FLAKES 2 Packages 25c

Be Prepared For Your Preserving Time
Fruit Sealers, small, doz. 1.18
Fruit Sealers, Med., doz. 1.27
Zinc Rings, doz. 23c
Rubber Rings, doz. 6c
Certo, bottle 29c

SPECIAL—McCormick's Holiday Assorted BISCUITS lb. 25c. Chocolate and Vanilla Semi-Sheetbread Sandwich Style. 1 Good Quality Rubber Bathing Cap FREE with each 1 lb. Biscuits.

Sealed Cottage ROLLS Boneless MILD CURED

A wonderful price this week-end makes this an outstanding value. lb. 10c

GOVERNMENT GRADED BLUE BRAND BEEF

CHUCK ROAST lb. 10c
BLADE ROAST lb. 12c
PRIME RIB lb. 17c
FRESH BRISKET lb. 8c

ROLLED ROAST VEAL lb. 12c

TIP-TOP SLICED SMOKED Bacon lb. 17c

Cooked Ham lb. 36c

SMOKED CHOICE Weiners 2 lbs. 25c

SLICED JELLIED VEAL lb. 24c

FRUITS - VEGETABLES

SPECIAL—NO. 1 Lemons Doz. 29c

SPECIAL—VALENCIA Oranges Doz. 23c

SPECIAL—HOME GROWN Lettuce 2 for 7c

CALIFORNIA SEEDLESS Grapefruit 2 for 23c Large Size

Cantaloups ea. 15c

EATON GROCETERIA

PROBABILITIES
Moderate to fresh shifting winds with thunderstorms. Saturday — Fresh southwest to northwest winds, partly cloudy with a few scattered showers or thunderstorms; cooler towards night.

The Ontario Intelligencer

TEMPERATURES
Maximum—84.
Minimum—60.
Rainfall—.6 inches.

BELLEVILLE ONTARIO FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1933

TEN PAGES

CONFERENCES FAIL TO BREAK DEADLOCK

Canada and United States Confer on Stabilization; Roosevelt is Favorable?

Canada Contends For Earliest Possible Settlement

OFFICIALS SILENT

Report That President Favorable to Joining Gold Bloc

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, June 30.—(CP-Cable) — Representatives of the United Kingdom and the Dominion conferred today on the currency stabilization crisis of the world economic conference.

The position of Canada it was understood, is that there should be stabilization of currencies in principle as the earliest possible moment.

High British authorities said today they understood definitely that President Roosevelt had replied favorably to a world economic conference plea the United States join Great Britain and continental countries in a plan to check foreign exchange speculation and prevent wide fluctuations in the American dollar.

London, June 30—(AP) — The deadlock over currency stabilization remained unbroken tonight after a series of conferences attended by leaders of the world economic conference. The next move was said to be up the United States government.

Whether the study might lead to a change in the attitude of President Roosevelt that stabilization of the dollar at this time is undesirable was a subject on which officials declined to comment.

Paper Issued on Saturday, No Issue Monday

The Ontario Intelligencer will be published on Saturday, July 1st. It will not be published on Monday, July 3rd. This is in harmony with the local arrangements generally for the observance of Dominion Day.

S. A. OFFICERS ASSUME POST

Adjutant And Mrs. Martin of Saint John, N. B., Take Local Command

Adjutant and Mrs. A. W. Martin, successor to Major and Mrs. J. Woolcott, in command of the Salvation Army in this city, arrived on Thursday from Saint John, N.B., where for the past two years they have been in command of the No. 1 Citadel Corps in that city.

The new officers have two children, Grace, Kenneth and Aileen, who will augment the strength of the local Corps Sunday school.

Adjutant and Mrs. Martin have travelled extensively in Salvation Army work during the last twenty years, having commanded since their marriage some important posts at various centres, such as Toronto, Montreal, London, Ont., Sherbrooke, P.Q., and Charlottetown, P. E.I. The adjutant organized the bands at the two latter places.

Mrs. (Adjutant) Martin was born in Leigh, Lancs., England and entered the work from Windsor Corps (Ontario) and has been a great support to her husband.

Adjutant Martin was born in Gillingham, Kent, England, and before coming to Canada was a member of the famous Gillingham Band, known as the "Hymn tune" band for the excellency of its hymn renditions. He entered the work from Victoria, B.C., Citadel Corps, where he commenced his career as a conductor, prior to entering the service as an officer. He reorganized the Chinese Corps in Toronto in the first year of officership in 1912.

The Adjutant was also an honor member of the Dominion Canadian Staff Band, which was lost to only a few men in the Empress Hotel disaster in 1914.

Adjutant and Mrs. Martin are also well known in the Province of the Salvation Army—Holiness meetings and Prayer meetings being their chief delight, and they will welcome those objects in the Belleville Corps.

They pay unstinting praise to the splendid work of their predecessors, Major and Mrs. Woolcott, who are now in command at Peterboro.

SPECIAL BROADCAST DOMINION DAY

A special Dominion Day coast-to-coast broadcast has been arranged for Saturday evening next at 9 o'clock, E.S.T., by the Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission. The program will continue for an hour.

Rt. Hon. Sir George Perley, Acting Prime Minister. Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, and Hon. Arthur Sauve, Premier of Quebec, will speak. The carillon of the Peace Tower of the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa, heard "O Canada" will be sung first in French by the commissaire, City of Montreal and then in English by the Mendelssohn Choir. Further music will be furnished by the band of the Grenadier Guards of Montreal.

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS

Philadelphia, June 30.—(AP).—A swarm of bees invaded the premises of Leo McGuigan and kept the family "imprisoned" several hours before they were lured away.

Chicago, June 30.—(CP)— After describing her husband in a divorce action as mean, irritable, disagreeable, unsympathetic, selfish, morbid, cool, bitter, brazen and jealous, Mrs. Mary Stiens withdrew her suit against him.

Minneapolis, June 30.—(CP) Cupid doesn't thrive on the heat at least not in Minneapolis. thinks George Hemperly, Clerk of the District Court.

Ordering Mrs. Hemperly issues 30 to 20 marriage licenses a day during the week average during the three weeks heat wave has fallen to less than half of that.

Warning Signs Dot North Country as Fire Risks from Drought Grow

Vigilance of residents in the townships of the northern section of the county again becomes marked as day succeeds day in which no rain or promise of rain appears. Crackling undergrowth in many sections stands warning of fire that may sweep whole sections of the country-side unless extreme care. Only a spark is needed in some cases to start a holocaust in the woods that have become dry and parched from signs.

the railway weeks. Officials of the northern sections have been busy lately tacking up the usual warning signs against unattended camp fires and the larger conflagration with the careless tossing of a cigar or cigarette butt from a passing car. On even the heavily travelled roads, in the north section to a local the roadside trees have been literally plastered with these warning

Thousands Homeless in Score of Villages of Trinidad

OPERATION ON BOY GOES ON DOCTOR DIES

While Assisting Surgeon Lies Dead on Floor, Doctors Continue

WATCH NEEDLE

Dramatic—Scene in Park East Hospital, New York

(By Dale Harrison)

New York, June 30 (CP)—Suppose that during a delicate surgical operation, the surgeon should die?

Arnold Alvitis, seven years old and a sufferer from spinal meningitis, has taken to the operating room of the Park East Hospital yesterday. His condition was grave and the operation was believed one.

Involved the extraction of a fluid from the spinal column.

Present, in addition to nurses, were doctors Arthur Sidrin, Aaron Goldblatt and Michael Mislig.

Dr. Goldblatt administered the anaesthetic. Dr. Sidrin handled the needle. Dr. Mislig held the tube into which the fluid was drawn.

The needle had been inserted. The operation was under way. Doctors were precious.

Dr. Mislig staggered. He clutched his breast and whispered "My heart!"

A nurse caught him as he started to fall. His weight was too great. Both dropped to the floor.

On the operating table, unconscious from the anaesthetic, the boy critically ill. Beside the table, on the floor, lay the 56 year old surgeon who had been taking part in the operation.

The hands of the surgeon holding the needle continued to move surely. The unconscious form of the other doctor concentrated on the patient. Hysterical reaction to the anaesthetic. The nurse functioning expertly.

At last it was done. Today it was pronounced successful.

When the two surgeons bent over Dr. Mislig, joining others who had been summoned, they found him dead.

KAHN AND PECORA SHAKE HANDS

OTTO KAHN

FERDINAND PECORA

Otto H. Kahn, internationally known banker, and head of the New York firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Co., shakes hands with Ferdinand Pecora (RIGHT), Senate banking committee counsel, as Pecora prepares to question him at length, before the Senate committee in Washington, concerning the firm's dealings.

PENSIONS AT 65 OR 60 YRS.

Survey in Civil Service Expenditures Proposed

OTTAWA, June 30.—The members of the Government, at a meeting of the treasury board yesterday, and at a lengthy cabinet council this afternoon, gave further study to the ways and means by which it is proposed to reduce the cost of public services, during the current fiscal year by $14,000,000. We are giving our attention to this matter almost every day," Rt. Hon. Sir George Perley, Acting Prime Minister, said "and we are making progress." No definite formula had been adopted, however, he said.

Efforts are being made to achieve the desired saving by economies in administration costs rather than by reducing salaries or dismissals. It is understood, however, that serious consideration is being given to a proposal that all civil servants, both in the inside and outside service, be retired if they have reached the age of 65 years, and some would set the limit at 60 years.

At the former age limit this program would vacate nearly 1,000 positions which could be abolished if not essential, or otherwise filled by promotion without the need for any new staff.

Such retirements, it carried out, would mean that the employee would receive an annual allowance in proportion to the years of service. Some difference of opinion has existed in the cabinet with respect to the mode of procedure, it is learned, but this is gradually being overcome and a definite plan may be announced shortly.

EXAM PAPER DEBARMENT

Students in Toronto Who Received "Aid" to be Debarred

TORONTO, June 30. A number of Toronto students who are reported by Provincial Police to have been "approached" in the recent alleged theft and sale of Physics and Mechanical School examination papers from the Education Department, Queen's Park, will have their written papers cancelled and will be debarred for a period of two years from participating in other exams.

Although officials of the department declined yesterday to state the number of students affected, they admitted that girls were concerned as well as boys, and that notification of their penalizing would be forwarded to them at a comparatively early date.

Contrary to certain press reports, only Middle school papers, in the form belief of the department figured in the theft for which John Rolfe, temporary employe, and John Fyne, high school student, were arrested by Provincial Police Inspector E. D. L. Hammond, Ike Tuesday afternoon.

Pupils who use stolen information are apt to forget, it was said by officials, the varied checks which the department can bring to bear on them. For instance, in the face of the recent examination paper, a pupil, writing on the papers known to have been stolen, to record far higher marks than the confidential reports of his teachers would indicate. Examiners would indicate his ability to make, that pupil, naturally, might come under suspicion.

ATTENDS MASS AT ST. PAULS

His Holiness Leaves Vatican to Mingle With Holy Year Pilgrims

By A. E. Stunts

ROME, June 30.—(AP)—Holy Year Pilgrims, among them many thousands renewed their homage today to the most illustrious of their number Pope Pius XI, as the Pontiff emerged from the Vatican to attended a brilliant high mass at the Basilica of St. Paul-Outside-the-Walls.

It was the third appearance of His Holiness of the famous Catholic rals of Rome following his avowed intention to mingle with pilgrims during the holy year to obtain eventual plenary indulgence.

Hundreds of especially-invited persons, including many Roman seminary students and Lay Pilgrims, and thousands of devout Romans, clustered in the Basilica early this morning.

Among them were Vice Chancellor Frans Von Papen of Germany, and Bishop McNally, of Hamilton, Ont.

St. Paul's is situated across Rome from Vatican City.

A new process of bleaching chips woollens has been widely adopted by British mills and is said to prevent yellowing even after repeated washings.

25 PER CENT INCREASE IN ALL BUILDING

Total Contracts Awarded in May Total $8,086,200

ONTARIO LEADS

Last Half of Year is Expected to be Far Better Than First

TORONTO, June 30.—(CP)—Building activity throughout Canada for June registered a 25-per cent increase over May in value and a corresponding increase in the number of buildings, it is shown by MacLean Building Reports Limited.

Total value of contract awarded for the Dominion amounted to $7,-086,200 compared with $5,516,100 in May. The number of building jobs increased from 1,283 in May to 1,558 in June.

Ontario led the other provinces with a total of 607 jobs amounting to $3,459,200. All provinces except Alberta and British Columbia registered increases.

Contemplated works in the Dominion totalled $24,112,600 the latest monthly figure since December of 1932, which indicates the autumn says, the last half of the year February will be a "great deal better than the first."

FRUIT DRIES IN ORCHARDS

All Crops Forced by Extended Drought With Heavy Loss

"Every day of the intense heat and high humidity we have been losing fruit," Reeve Wm. Ketcheson forced the growth of things throughout the district more than a week's normal weather would have done," declared Mr. A. Leslie Reid, Edward County farmer today.

Cherries are ripening and shriveling on the trees with the heat, he declared. Grain of all kinds is heading out on short stems and ripening prematurely. In some sections of Prince Edward County the cherry crop began to split and dropped open. Some of the fissures in the dry ground are so wide a man's hand can be laid edged down them. Tomatoes, roots and garden produce have been hit with a tough time of it during the past week.

"Unless a long, continued rain comes soon," he declared, "the crops are ruined, other 'won't be anything left at all."

AUTHORITY NEED HITLER DECLARES

BERLIN, June 30.—(AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler believes that to succeed with his government he must have powers as wide as his.

"The problems with which Germany is now confronted are the same the world over," the Nazi Chieftain told the new directorate of the German Publishers' Association.

"In the final analysis, those who would solve these problems will have to have the same authority as we in Germany.

"I think many countries existing as must take the same steps before many years."

Swimmer Sucked by Intake Pipe to Pumping Station, Lives

Ottawa, June 30—Sucked into a 16-foot watermain, helplessly carried along and finally dumped unceremoniously into a tank at a Queen street pumping station, Preston was last night was recovering from his horrifying experience. Some minutes in pitch-black darkness Preston was carried by the swirling waters. Then he was shot into space or but two inches between the surface of the water and the roof of the tube. At times his head was forced under the roof of the tube. His nose was badly skinned and nerve shattered.

Preston, with two of three others was diving from a pier above the Chaudiere Falls. He was not wearing a bathing suit, but when he came to at the pump house had to borrow a pair of trousers until he could recover his clothes on the far-off river bank.

On his final dive of the day, he suddenly was plunged into the mouth of the mammoth intake pipe. "I can't describe the trip," he said. It was dark, and only the rushing waters could be seen and felt. Then I found myself turned in an effort to fight back to the river, but the fast-moving waters rushed him along. I did not know where the pipe led to, and thought I was managed to stay afloat and let the water carry him where it willed.

Then, to his intense surprise, he plunged into the comparative light of the tank and a few seconds later climbed out of the water. Here he found a pump-house—in the heart of a residential area, and remembered his clothing had been left behind. In desperation he shouted to a man in an apartment house to throw him a pair of trousers and explanations followed.

The intake pipe carrying thousands of gallons into the heat-soaked city, had never before claimed a swimmer. Officials could not explain how Preston had been sucked into the orifice, but expressed the opinion a river-eddy had washed him into the danger zone.

TENTH INCH RAIN FALLS

Humidity, However is About Same as Yesterday

A tenth of an inch of rain fell over this city and immediate district early Friday morning, a torrential shower that reached the proportions of a miniature cloudburst during a short time in which it fell.

Described as the proverbial "million dollar rainfall", every drop was worth its weight in gold, according to farmers of the district, whose land has become parched and dry, with hardly any rain for the past twenty-seven days of practically rainless weather.

The rain followed a sleepless, gasping night for sweltering citizens perspiring in the high humidity ushered in by the record mark of degree of clammy, sticky moisture. With the cessation of the rain came cooler weather and a fresh breeze of winds which blew steadily from the west. They grew stronger as the early morning was noted following the rain.

On Friday ominous looking clouds, lowering and black, which covered the district during the morning, revived hopes of farmers in the section that eagerly scanned the skies for rain and more rain. Promise of thunderstorms late in the day and on Saturday was also held out by the weathermen.

Despite the cooling breeze and absence of sun on Friday owing to the still high humidity content of the air, temperatures showed no marked change from the previous day. Friday, just before noon, a high of 82 had been reached, with a low in the early morning of 69. These temperatures contrast with Thursday's 95 high and 60 low.

"T. B." NO IMMUNITY FOR CANCER INROADS

Sir Humphrey Rolleston Says "Myth" About "T.B." and Cancer

Toronto, June 30.—(CP)—Widespread belief that persons who have suffered from tuberculosis are immune to cancer was branded a myth today by Sir Humphrey Rolleston, distinguished British authority on tuberculosis at present attending the annual meeting of the International Tuberculosis Association here.

LEVY'S MODEL PLANE IS WINNER

NEW YORK, June 30.—(CP)—Albert Levy of Toronto today was declared winner of the Bloomingdale trophy at the United States Model Aeroplane contest, Levy was the championship for indoor flamage models with a flight of eight minutes and 56 seconds. John Tyakovich of Hartford, Conn., placed second when his ship stayed up eight minutes eight seconds. Two competitions were held yesterday.

THURLOW MAN FOUND OVERCOME

Hamilton, Ont., June 30—Daniel Phillips, Thurlow township, near Bellville, suffered severe sunstroke and excessive heat here yesterday and is in the hospital where he is under treation on a local street here today. Mr. Phillips was taken to a local hospital where he received medical attention. He informed the police that he had motored from Bellevile yesterday. His family were later informed of his misfortune.

STORM'S HAVOC

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, June 30.—(CP)—Scenes of death and destruction were described as repaired communication lines brought first reports from southern Trinidad of havoc wrought by Thursday night's hurricane.

Four crested rails, the first ever exhibited in captivity, have come to the London Zoo from Kenya, and a single young one has been born there.

STRIKE BALLOT TO BE PRESENTED SOON

24,000 Members of Running Trades Asked to Vote

OTTAWA, June 30.—(CP)—A strike-ballot to be presented to 24,000 members of the Canadian Railway running trade unions was expected to be drafted here today by the Vice-Presidents and General Chairmen of the five unions decided locked with railway officials over the proposed 20 per cent. wage reduction, unless officials decided to ask their members to vote on a strike-ballot. It is learned that the necessary authority to submit the strike-ballot.

Conductors and Telegraphers Unions joined with Trainmen, Firemen and Enginemen in a joint conference today for the strike-ballot last night but it was expected the Firemen's engineers and Trainmen would take a few days longer because of the different union constitutions.

MATTERN SEARCHER

Bill Alexander, above, veteran Alaskan pilot, is preparing to search for Jimmy Mattern, lost world-flier, world of Siberian wastelands.

ELEVEN LIVES LOST DURING HURRICANE

One Side of Island of Trinidad Unaware of Havoc

WIRES BROKEN

In Erin Alone Three Hundred Homes Destroyed

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad June 30.—(CP Cable) — Eleven lives were lost in Tuesday's hurricane according to belated reports reaching Port of Spain from Southern Trinidad today.

The storm left thousands homeless in a score of villages, destroying houses and causing havoc in the oilfields and cocoa plantations.

On the Northern side of the island the people were in ignorance of the disaster, as all wires were shattered. Nearly all telephone connections with the southwest and southeast sections were broken the night of the storm and it was not until last night that reports of the widespread damage reached here.

Even today it was impossible to estimate the losses, but the fate of Erin, where three hundred were destroyed, was taken as an indication of the predicament of people over a wide area.

FORCE CLERGY IN GERMANY

Concience on Submission to Nazi's Forces Protestants

Berlin, June 30 (AP)—Prussia's Protestant clergy and church elders will face a severe conflict of conscience next Sunday, when they must choose between two diametric orders with their own beliefs of possible criminal prosecution in the balance.

Their own 13 superintendents-general, leaders in the fight against the appointment of a Hitlerite as Prussian State Commissioner for Protestant churches, have asking for a day of atonement and prayer.

On the other hand, the Nazi Commissary and Reich Government has ordered that the Sabbath be a day of thanksgiving for unification.

Should the churchmen criticize the church policy of Chancellor Hitler's Nazi government they may be liable to arrest.

The orders for Sunday, therefore, will bring into daily focus whatever course —for or against the avowed Hitlerite ideal of complete Nazi-ization of all Germany—the churchmen choose.

Accompanying the Nazi order is the instruction to fly not only the church emblem but also the Reich's black, white, and red flags, and the Nazi swastika banners.

MAY BE CHAIRMAN

OTTAWA, June 30—Reports here were that the name of Gordon C. Perry, Toronto industrialist, is being considered for the chairmanship of the new Board of Trustees for the Canadian National Railways, Mr. Perry is in Montreal at present.

Missouri is trying a new aid for night-driving tourists: a 10 by 12-foot map of a county, placed at an important crossroad, and illuminated at night.

HEAVY FALL OF RAIN HERE

Welcome Downpour With Out Electrical Disturbance

The cloudy morning of Friday was productive of a long awaited downpour shortly after one o'clock this afternoon and the humidity which prevailed throughout the early morning hours and forenoon disappeared. A marked and welcome drop in temperature was soon noted after the heavy rain started in and the cooler weather still prevails as this paper goes to press and the well-needed rain continues in little wind or electrical disturbance as accompanied the rain.

Coming Events

BASEBALL DOUBLE HEADER—Dominion Day, Saturday, July 1st. Baseball Hosts at Belleville Nationals. Regular scheduled games. First game called at 2.30. Admission 25c Tax 2c. Cars Free. j-29-2t

FROM COAST TO COAST AND ACROSS THE OCEAN—Dominion Day, the voice of Judge Rutherford will be broadcast next Sunday when his speech in "Kingdom Blessings and Duties" will be repeated, in answer to popular demand. If you know of any orderloving Canadian who has not decided to lose hops in these days of uncertainty, invite them to listen to this speech. Be sure to have your receiving set in first class condition for this Watch Tower National address, which can be heard here on Station WOR, next Sunday, July second, beginning at 10:00 p.m.

DANCE TO-NIGHT AT CROWE Lake. Dancing every Friday night to Dutch Turney's Commodores and don't forget the Monday Frolic. Monday morning, commencing 12.01. Admission 75c per couple. j30-1

BAY OF QUINTE COUNTRY CLUB Dancing every night, Saturday night, Dancing at 8:30. Admission 50c per couple. Dutch Turney's Commodores playing. j30-2t

DANCING AT TWEED, MONDAY night, July 3rd. Regular Wednesday night dancing as usual Music by Dutch Turney's Commodores. j30-2t

LAWN SOCIAL ON ROBERT Wallace's lawn, Main St. West of Corbyville), Wednesday, July 5, Auspices Salem Church. Good program. Admission 25 and 15c. j30-1t

MIDNIGHT FROLIC, OAK LAKE commencing one minute after midnight Sunday until? Novelties, prizes, favours. Admission 75c. Dancing Wednesday, Friday, Saturday. j30-2t

EUCHRE EVERY FRIDAY EVENING in the Y.M.C.A. Army and Navy Veterans' Hall, Refreshments. Admission 25c.

City and District News

REV. DR. SEMPLE REACHES CITY

Rev. Dr. James Semple, formerly of Smiths Falls, the new pastor of Bridge Street United Church, has arrived in the city with his wife and family, to assume the Bridge St. pastorate.

SHORT CIRCUIT IN LOCAL CAR

A sedan owned by Mr. Wm Schwartz, William Street, which became short-circuited in the electrical system at the corner of I. ... ney Street and West Moira, gave members of No. 2 brigade of the local fire department a run to that location early Thursday evening. Little damage was caused the car.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL PROGRAM

A further development of the Daily Vacation Bible School program is scheduled for this evening when at 8 o'clock in Dundas St. United Church free pictures will be shown of Canadian activities. Two of last year's leaders in the work here in the person of Miss Helen Denike and Miss Bernice Arbuckle will tonight sing and recite in their respective roles. Those interested who were out in last year's contests will be presented with their prizes, and several boys and girls will also speak on some of the lessons learned bearing on scientific temperance. The public is assured of an interesting evening without cost and all are cordially invited.

BUILDING PERMITS SLIGHTLY DOWN

Building permits issued at the office of the city engineer for the month of June decided drop from this year over the total issued during the same month one year ago.

Minor alterations to dwellings, construction of private garages and building of one new home in the city last month brought the total to $5,815.00 for the eight permits issued. For the month of June one year ago a total of five permits were issued with an estimated building cost of $13,735.00.

LEAKY GASOLINE STOVE IGNITES

A leaky gasoline stove which had been used to prepare waffles, dispensed from the wheeled waffle and refreshment stand owned by Wm. Tedman, created consternation at the rear end of the park near the fire hall early last evening when the leaking gasoline became ignited and runa...

FIRE DAMAGE FOR JUNE LIGHT

Fire damage in the city for the month of June just ending was light, according to officials of the fire department, confined for the most part to grass fires and other minor ...

FOUR SQUARE

Criterion of Quality

Designed To Serve Discriminating Citizen

Full Money Value Safety With Despatch

Weddings and Funerals A Specialty

DAY FARE 25c NIGHT FARE 25c

MOIRA TAXI SERVICE

460

T. COLLYER, Prop. Belleville

Camera Bargains

1932 Models

No. 2 BROWNIE $1.75

No. 2A. BROWNIE $2.75.

Only a few left in stock

GET YOUR FILMS FOR THE HOLIDAY At DOLAN

THE DRUGGIST

Phone 138

SELECTION WEDGEWOOD DINNERWARE GIFT TO-NIGHT!

We Have a Few VEGETABLE DISHES Be Early!!

On The Screen LETTING IN THE SUNSHINE

COOLED CAPITOL TOMORROW! A Terrific Bill!

They're Here Again!

The world's foremost funsters in a dizzy riot of laughs that eclipses all previous efforts!

2.45 - 7.15

Come and laugh those blues away!

GEORGE SIDNEY CHARLIE MURRAY in KELLYS in TROUBLE with MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN

Andy Devine, Frank Albertson, Henry Armetta, Jobyna Howland, Maude Fulton.

LAST SHOW 8.50

AND ON THE SAME BILL!

A STUDY in SCARLET

DEVIL HORSE Final Episode

CANADIAN NEWS

Royal Princess Dinnerware Gift.

MONDAY & TUESDAY

OHILDREN!

Be at the matinee tomorrow to hear the result of the ESSAY CONTEST

HOLWAY BROS. ADD TO PLANT

New Wash Rack Adds to Appearance of "One Stop" Station

Another mark of progress and confidence in the growing and permanent prosperity of Belleville was manifest last week with the opening of the new wash rack building in connection with the automobile service station operated by Holway Bros., corner Front Street and Bridge Street, Belleville. The erection of this building completes the very fine plant of Holway Bros. and makes this a real "One-Stop" Station, where everything required by the motorist can be obtained including tires, accessories and a complete vulcanizing plant. Service and courtesy are the watchwords of this firm and no less famous are their services are rendered each automobile which stops there.

Holway Bros. are known familiarly as "Tiddy" and "Bounce", both Belleville native sons, and both active, energetic young men with a host of friends in business and social circles. Both the Holway boys have attained distinction in the athletic world, particularly in hockey, "Tiddy" being the famous clever defenseman on the London, Ontario professional hockey team, recently retired from active hockey but does a bit of coaching to keep his hand in.

For the past several years Holway Bros. have been agents for the Dominion Rubber Co. Ltd. Fronteuac Oil Co. interests in Belleville, and have been appointed agents for Dominion Tires, and a superior line of automobile accessories. This spring they extended their activities by taking over the McColl Frontenac Oil Co. Ltd. service station, now a "One-Stop Station" which they are operating very successfully.

The new wash rack building just completed in connection with the Belleville plant of this firm is of handsome design, 30x33 feet, very attractive and modern. It was erected at a cost of $4000, the contract being William Pepper, well known Belleville builder. The plumbing, heating and water system was installed by Murray Black, master plumber of this city, and everything about the plant is now strictly up to and if possible ahead of date. Messrs. Holway, "Toots" and "Bounce" are congratulated upon having made possible and deserve the congratulations which they are receiving from many friends upon their enterprise and progressiveness.

CITY BANKS QUITE BUSY

Banks in the city did a roaring business today, cashing more cheques, and doing more deposits, and paying out more cash than they have done for months. Every wicket in every bank in the city had its long line of customers with cheques in hand and bank books in purses and inside pockets. Perspiring tellers scurried incessantly during the morning and afternoon to keep up with the long shifting line of men and women.

"It's the end of the month," explained a bank official. "It's also pay day for the C.N.R., various business offices, city employees, and others. We're rushed to death."

OBITUARY

SAMUEL JONES

This (Friday) morning early, the oldest male resident of Hungerford township passed away in the person of Samuel Jones of Farnsworth Corners. Mr. Jones was in his 90th. year; May 3rd. last he celebrated his 87th. birthday. He had been in ill health for some time and the last eight months had been confined to is bed. The deceased was born in Tyendinaga but had spent most of his life in the community where his death occurred. Mr. Jones was a successful farmer of Hungerford and a member of the United church. He had ever had the high regard of residents of the neighborhood where he, for so many years made his home.

One son, Arthur H., of Ivanhoe, and a daughter, Mrs. George S. Graham, of Farnsworth Corners, survive.

Funeral service will be held on Sunday afternoon at Lodgeroom Church.

LATE PETER VAN ALLEN

Under Orange auspices, the funeral of the late Peter Van Allen took place Thursday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah J. Smith, 203 Bell St. Many old friends and fraternal brothers were in attendance to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of one whom they held in high esteem. Rev. T. Hicks, Rector, worth conducted the service at the house and at the grave in the Belleville cemetery. The last rites of the Loyal Orange Order were read at the place of interment, under direction of George F. Reed, O.A., with R. Nurse as chaplain.

The bearers were three members of the Royal Black Preceptory, A. J. Gough, Charles Bedford and Percy Hendon, and three members of Cannilton L.O.L. George F. Reed, F. Pound and H. Hall.

LATE MRS. HENRY H. PIGGOTT

Following an illness of sometime's duration, Mrs. Mabel Dexter Piggott, widow of Henry Hall Piggott, passed away Thursday afternoon at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Muriel D. Carman, Turnbull Apartments. The late Mrs. Piggott was born in Philipsburg and had made her home with her daughter here for the past two years. Deceased was a member of the Church of England and greatly liked by her friends she had made since coming to this city.

Three daughters survive, Mrs. G. I. apRoberts of Vancouver; Mrs. J. Henderson of Toronto, and Mrs. M. D. Carman of this city.

The funeral was held this (Friday) afternoon from the residence of her daughter, and interment made in the Belleville cemetery. The Rev. A. Beauchamp Payne, vicar of St. Thomas Church, officiated the service at the home and officiated at the graveside.

Acting as bearers were Messrs H. M. Jones, John Ryan, W. J. Cook and H. C. Thompson and nephews sons of the deceased. Donald and John Carman.

HATCHES PARTRIDGE

VANGUARD, Sask., June 30.—(CP)—A hen owned by William Price, Vanguard farmer, is credited with mothering 22 young Hungarian Partridge. She had taken possession of the wild bird's nest and hatched a healthy brood.

"Election Act Antiquated Inadequate and Expensive" Says Liberal Organizer

Belleville Women's Liberal Association Elects Officers

FINE TURNOUT

Miss Anna Hurley Again Chosen to Head Association

Despite the intense heat of the evening, the organization meeting of the Belleville Women's Liberal Club was a splendid success last evening, the speakers being Miss E. L. Mowat, Ottawa, Dominion President of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association and Vice-President of the Central, O. L. A. Miss Florella Pritchard of Toronto, provincial secretary of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association, Hon. Peter Smith, Toronto, and the local candidate Dr. J. A. Faulkner, Mrs. Fraser Affleck, Mrs. Gladstone, organizer of Kingston District, which comprises Hastings, Prince Edward, Lennox and Addington and Prontenac Counties was chairman.

At the election of officers, Miss Anna Hurley was named President; Mrs. G. H. Holton, vice-president; Mrs. Jack McIntosh secretary and Mrs. Percy Asselstine, treasurer.

Miss Mowat in her address urged the local club to affiliate with the Ontario Women's Liberal Association which was done on a motion.

Miss Pritchard in her splendid address urged the importance of shouldering individual responsibility and of eventually the franchise.

Responsibility of Voters

"Our aim should be to so amend the Voters' Act and Election Act that the responsibility will be placed on the voters. The present system is antiquated, is inadequate and quite expensive. In the last Provincial election in Ontario only 64.9 per cent. of the voters voted and only 43.9 per cent. of the urban population voted" she said. "Would you call this representative government? Just look at the thousands and thousands of people who neglect to assume their duty and responsibility!"

Miss Pritchard then enumerated the reasons why women should be particularly interested in the coming campaign. Generally speaking, women are housekeepers and as housekeepers, know something of financing and budgeting and have found in the budget of Ontario and its accounts a debt of $600,000,000 —An increase in the public debt equal to the entire revenue for the fiscal year 1931-32. In other words the Province spent $2 for every $1 raised by it in the fiscal year in force. It was the greatest increase in the history of the Province in the public debt.

Be Well Informed

How Holton Parliament strvsed the necessity for all being well informed in matters that affect the country. Factors on the success of Liberal organizations were actively the most important in the political life of the country, harmony, loyalty to the constituted principles of Liberalism and vision.

Dr. J. A. Faulkner briefly touched the zeal of the women in attending a meeting on such a disagreeably warm night. His address was brief and interesting. He stressed the keen and intelligent interest in the political problems of the day. By taking part in discussions, debates and addresses the women would familiarize themselves with the issues involved and the aims of the Liberal Party.

Votes of appreciation were extended to the speakers at the meeting, Mrs. Murray who had assumed chairmanship after election of officers and the club then adjourned until the fall.

WINDOW SCREENS

Best quality screens with hardwood frames. Priced

35c, 40c, 45c, 50c, etc.

SCREEN DOORS

2 popular styles, in 4 standard sizes. Priced

1.95 and 2.95

Fittings 25c Extra

SMITH HARDWARE

PLUMBERS & TINSMITHS

Bay of Quinte Intermediate Game At Exhibition Park

Monday, July 3rd

1.90 P.M.

Brighton vs. Victorias

WEEK-END SPECIAL

1929 Ohev. Two-Door Sedan

Perfect Mechanical Condition. Actual mileage under 11,000 miles. Original tires. Bargain for quick sale

300.00

This car has been driven by the original owner until now and has had excellent care.

EUREKA GARAGE

111 STATION ST.

Phone 2291

Your Camera Is Your Closest Companion These Days

Get Your Supply of

FILMS

For The Holiday Here

HOLLY'S and NEILSON'S

CANDIES

In Handy Boxes for Outing Parties

SCHRYVER'S

PHARMACY

Phone 49

WILLIAMS NOT RIGHT NAME

Holdsworth Sentenced to Reformatory on Suicide Attempt

Harold Holdsworth alias Harry Williams, 18, of Montreal, who was found lying in an unconscious condition on the C.P.R. tracks near the Belleville General Hospital last Friday evening pleaded guilty to a charge of attempting to commit suicide when arraigned before Magistrate Mikel in Friday's police court. Holdsworth was sentenced to serve not less than three months nor more than one year in the Ontario Reformatory.

While the charge was being read the young man informed the court that his name was not Williams as stated previously but Holdsworth. He stated that the sun must have effected him as he did not remember just what had happened nor how he arrived in the vicinity of the attempted suicide. Later the prisoner contradicted himself, however, by stating that he was afraid that he would not procure future employment.

Holdsworth was found by two local men a few minutes after the C.P.R. tracks partially strangled with telegraph wire twisted about his neck. Holdsworth was later revived in the Belleville General Hospital and had been confined to the county jail for observation for the past seven days. Magistrate Mikel ordered the prisoner a few questions to determine his sanity. The youth

Conference Activity is Suspended Awaiting Declaration by States

Aims to Stop Currency Speculation And Fluctuation

WHEAT PACT?

Three Provisos Made by Australia on Restrictions

(By DeWitt MacKenzie)

London, June 30 (AP)—Virtually all important activities of the World Economic Conference were suspended today while delegates awaited a declaration of President Roosevelt's attitude toward joining Great Britain and continental countries in stopping currency speculation and preventing violent fluctuations of the U. S. dollar.

It was understood on high authority that Secretary of State Cordell Hull and his assistant secretary, Raymond Moley, have sent a message to the President advising him the U. S. should join Europe in this action.

Australian Conditions

London, June 30 (AP)—Three conditions which the Australian Central Government will do everything possible to obtain the concurrence of Australian growers and states in an agreement to restrict wheat acreage was revealed to the Associated Press today.

"If they are agreed to, Australia accepts in principle the proposals which have been under discussion" said a cablegram from Canberra to representatives of Canada and others of the big four wheat producers who have been considering the restriction proposal at the World Economic Conference.

Consent Required

The message added, however, that consent of the growers and the state governments must be obtained and concluded with the statement that "the Australian government accepts the proposals subject to same arrangement with foreign countries, and urges that negotiations with these countries should be undertaken."

The first of the three provisos says for an arrangement, the exact nature of which is not determined, for "effective co-operation by European countries," commenting however, that Australia believes "this is common ground."

This section added that Australia "has no desire to press for an unreasonable scale of co-operation but any arrangement with European countries must be along the lines of reality."

Provision Per Acre

The second condition fixed the average production per acre which will be accepted as a basis for limitation.

Whereas the Australian average hitherto has been placed at 12 bushels, based on the production of the last ten years, the Australians insist on the acceptance of an average of 13.8 bushels, the average of the last three years.

To this committee, the note says that "to accept a reduction in yield to 13 bushels an acre would be a negation of all efforts made by Australian farmers to improve their efficiency."

Acceptance of these figures would provide a quota of about 16,000,000 acres, on which a 15 per cent reduction is to be considered.

According to the third term, "the Australian Government must insist upon having the right to export during the season of 1934-35, in addition to the amount provided for export during that year, any deficiency in export in the year 1933-34."

The Australians' proposals were being studied today by Prime Minister R. G. Bennett and other delegates from the major exporting countries.

BURNED AS STOVE BLOWS UP

BRANTFORD, Ont., June 30 (CP)—Thrown to the floor by an explosion from a coal oil stove, Mrs. G. Lutley was severely scorched and bruised at her home near Scotland village last night.

THOUGHT HIS STOMACH WOULD KILL HIM

Feels better than for 5 years

A Leeds, Eng., man writes: "For the last 2 years I have been able to do nothing, and quite thought it was only a case of time with me. I am feeling better than I have for the last five years. I hope everyone suffering with stomach trouble will give Maclean Brand Stomach Powder a trial."

Anyone with stomach trouble now can have the same treatment, this grateful man had—daily use by Englands hospitals and doctors for treating acute stomach trouble, Gastritis, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulence, Sick and Heartburn.

Maclean Brand Stomach Powder is the remarkable formula of a well-known and justly famous London, England, Stomach Specialist.

At your druggist's. Be sure to get the genuine Maclean Brand Stomach Powder with the signature, "Alex. Maclean." Never sold loose. Only in plainly marked, handy size bottles. 75c, powder or tablets. Sole Canadian distributors, Rigo Agencies, Toronto.

INDUCTION OF A. K. EDMISON

King Street Church Scene of Interesting Ceremony

Rev. Alex. K. Edmison, M.A., was formally inducted into the pastorate of King Street United Church, Trenton, on Thursday evening. Though the weather was not propitious owing to intense heat there was a good number present for the ceremony and the reception which followed.

Rev. Harold B. Neal, of Holloway Street United Church, officiated in the induction service and welcomed Rev. Mr. Edmison in the Belleville Presbytery.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. J. T. E. Blanchard of Bloomfield, his theme being "Jesus Christ in the Lives of Men." Rev. E. W. Rowland, of Stirling, spoke to the minister and congregation on the duties of the ministry and of the congregation.

Rev. C. B. Brethen of Grace Church, Trenton, also took part in the service.

After the induction ceremony the church was under the direction of Mr. Hearts rendered music.

Later the ministers and congregation were invited by Mr. E. L. Fraser, recording secretary of the church, to the church parlors where a reception was held for Rev. Mr. Edmison and Mrs. Edmison. Mr. Fraser extended greetings on behalf of the congregation to Mr. Edmison made an apt reply on behalf of Mrs. Edmison, himself and their children, Miss Dorothy and Ralph. A social hour followed.

Rev. Dr. James Semple, new pastor of Bridge Street United Church, Belleville, was present at the induction, having been long a personal friend of Mr. Edmison.

Mr. Edmison was formerly pastor of Holloway Street church, Monday, to which Rev. A. E. Jones, former minister at King Street Church, has been called.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Edmison is a son of the late Rev. J. T. Edmison, who was at one time minister of Holloway Street (then Methodist) Church, Belleville.

WIVES LIBEL FOR ALIMONY

Woman Says Men Should Have Same Break as Women

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 30.—(CP)—The House of Illinois Legislature approved of a Senate Bill to make wives liable for alimony as well as their former husbands.

"Men", said Mrs. Lottie Griffin Downers Grove Democrat, "should have the same break that the women have been getting."

The House applauded that statement.

STEEL WORKERS' GAME UNPLAYED FOR WORK

"Game Postponed on Account of Work"—No One Kicks

Pittsburgh, June 30 (CP)—The big ball game between the steel workers of Walker's Mills and the Pittsburgh Independents is still unplayed.

"Game postponed on account of work," read the notice on the day the mill opened.

Not a complaint was heard.

GRASSHOPPERS CAUSE THREE TO BE INJURED

Flies in Eye of Driver of Car at Manitou

MANITOU, Man., June 30.—Three persons were injured, one of them badly, in a head-on collision here today between two automobiles caused by a grasshopper flying into the eye of one of the drivers.

Sam Scott of Kaleida was approaching the highway on a side road when he was blinded by the insect in his eye. His car crashed into one driven by R. E. Dennison, lecturer in the Publicity Department of the National Parks Service, who was accompanied by J. C. Campbell, Parks Director. Both cars were wrecked.

Dennis was thrown fifteen feet but escaped with a few bruises. Campbell suffered fracture of ore cheek bone and several bruises. Scott, most seriously injured, had a knee crushed and was taken to the hospital by Morden.

A. L. SMITH IS DOUBTFUL

New York, June 30.—Alfred "A. Smith, writing in the New Outlook yesterday asserted he might be "old fashioned", but he could not understand how the National Recovery Act" can possibly work."

Infuse six heaping teaspoonfuls of "SALADA" Black Tea in a pint sized tea-pot. After six minutes stir well and pour liquid into half-gallon container. While hot, add a cup and a half of sugar and the juice of two lemons; then fill container with cold water. Do not refrigerate as tea will turn cloudy. Serve as required, with an ice cube in each glass.

"SALADA" TEA
"Fresh from the gardens"

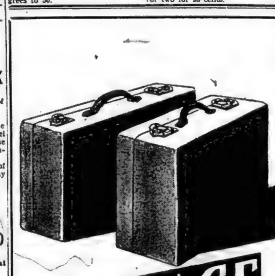
Armed Guards Patrol Alberta Town Following Attempt to Kill Witness

Hugh Stewart Notifies Police And is Given Protection

GUARDS STOP CAR

Vegreville, Alta., June 30.—(CP)—Armed guards patrolled the town of Vegreville early today following an attempt to shoot Hugh Stewart, a witness in the trial of William McLean charged with the murder of Walter Parslie, Marville farmer.

Armed guards were thrown about roads leading from the town and at dawn a few minutes after Stewart notified police and asked protection.



During the night, the guards stopped all cars leaving town and caused those riding in the machines to give credentials.

William McLean, and his father, Kenneth, were arrested at Knoxville, Tenn., following an international search three months ago. The McLeans had worked in the Marville district as farm hands. Parslie was killed last fall. Robbery was believed the motive for the slaying.

PRAYS FOR RAIN

Ottawa, Onth, June 30 (CP)—The Rev. V. H. Krull offered pleas "for rain and for the relief of animals and animals from the excessive heat" before the congregation of Ste. Peter and Paul's Roman Catholic Church.

The next day rain fell and the temperature dropped from 100 degrees to 30.

Don't start on your vacation with luggage that has seen better days. You'll have a better time for fine, new luggage. And with prices so low, why not? At $5 and up we've a marvelous selection of women's cases, men's Gladstones fitted cases, and camp trunks.

Haines' Shoe House
230 FRONT ST. PHONE 115

RESCUE PARTY NOW ON WAY

Will Search Systematically For Jimmy Mattern Lost Flier

New York, June 30 (CP)—The "Jimmie Mattern Rescue Expedition" soared away from Floyd Bennett Field at 7.36 a.m. Eastern Standard Time, today for Alaska, by way of Wilmington.

Chief Pilot William Alexander, in command of the rescue plane, said that on reaching Nome he and his three companions would "divide the map into sectors" and search systematically for the lost flier.

Mattern, a San Englo, Texas, man, who was attempting a flight around the world, took off from Khabarosk, Siberia, more than two weeks ago and vanished.

With Alexander went Fred Fetterman, mechanic who put Mattern's plane in shape for the flight; Harold Persons and Thomas Abbey, a motorcycle cop, who obtained a furlough to help with the search.

RADIS IMPROVE SERIES

GALT, Ont., June 30.—(CP)—Strawberry growers in the Ingersoll district today reported crops greatly improved by recent rains. Prices held steady at 13 cents a box for over 25 cents.

PEACE SYMBOL IN N. AMERICA FOR HUMANITY

Roosevelt Welcomed in Canada by Salute of 21 Guns

BORDER EXAMPLE

Sailor President in N. B. to Spend Brief Holiday

Welchpool, N.B., June 30.—Friendly relationships between Canada and the United States were cited as an example for the world by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in a brief address here Thursday afternoon as a reception immediately following his arrival on the yacht Amberjack II. In a motor car from which the President spoke were E. S. Roosevelt and Norman P. Davis, United States delegate to the Disarmament Conference at Geneva.

"Mr. Davis will go back to Geneva and show the world what a border without fortifications means between two great nations," declared President Roosevelt. The welcome to him constituted "probably the finest demonstration we could possibly have of permanent friendship between two nations."

If peace continues in the world "as it will if other nations follow the example of Canada and the United States, I shall come back here each summer by the first three years," the President told a cheering throng.

"I cannot only address you as an old friend of Campobello," he remarked as the outset. "It was first brought here forty-nine years ago because of bathing trouble," he added, as his listners laughed in response to the President's ready smile. He thanked the Dominion and provincial Governments for their part in the reception.

International touches featured the selection of the guests with only one precendent in Canada—the visit of President Harding to Vancouver after the Great War. As President Roosevelt stepped on the sloping lawn, near the Campobello Yacht Club, the City of Bangor, Maine, could be seen through the clear air over Friar Bay, decorated for the day by the new United States cruiser, Indianapolis, while two flying boats gave an impression of the Fourth of July. Scarlet-coated members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police scurried over the water in patrol boats and mingled on shore with the Roosevelt-uniformed State Troopers from Maine.

Before the Amberjack II bore in sight of those on shore, the Indianapolis took up its position and fired a Presidential salute of twenty-one guns. Two destroyers, Hilo and Bernadou were seen distinctly before the schooner-rigged yacht came into view over the steel-grey waters of Friar Bay.

cfpo P o c.c.

FREUD'S VIEW IS SUPPORTED

Attachment of Children to Opposite Sex of Parent a Fact

Chicago, June 30—The Freudian theory that sex attraction determines the bond between parent and child gained statistical support at the Annual Conference for the Advancement of Science.

Freudian theorists say that children were more strongly attached to the parent of the opposite sex. Strong affection for the parent and love on the part of a child aroused also an antagonism with the death of the parent or the same sex, a feeling evolving from jealousy the father, for example, being regarded by a son as a "rival" for his mother's affections.

Ross Stagner of the University of Wisconsin reported to a group of sociologists that studies he had made on children's attitude toward their parents apparently confirmed the general Freudian theory.

Stagner made his survey on a large croup of boys and girls in their late teens, submitting to them a slated list of questions.

Of the group analyzed, he said the girls showed stronger affection for their fathers, the sons for their mothers. In the case of minor verbal lashings aroused more antagonism toward parents than physical punishment, that children developed more hostility toward a father than was alternately mild and stern than one who was consistently inflexible.

ITALIANS WAIT TILL DAWN FOR DISPATCHES

Cheers News of Victory of Carriera over Sharkey

ROME, June 30.—(AP)—Several hundred boxing enthusiasts, among whom were several officials of the boxing federations, remained in newspaper offices here all night and at dawn today cheered wildly the news of Primo Carnera's victory.

Papers had printed extensive dispatches on training activities of Carnera and Sharkey, and arranged for special reports on the match.

FROM EDMONTON TO VANCOUVER IN A NEW FORD V-8

Enthusiastic owner tells of outstanding economy and comfort on 1180-mile trip

SURPRISED AT PERFORMANCE

OVER 25 MILES PER GALLON

1180 MILES WITHOUT FATIGUE

DID NOT HEAT ON MOUNTAINS

DECIDED SENSE OF SECURITY

RECOMMEND IT WITHOUT HESITATION

"I have just arrived in Vancouver from Edmonton via the Crow's Nest Pass, Spokane and Seattle. I drove over this route in a New Ford V-8.

"I was attracted to purchase this car on account of its appearance and roominess, but I have also been agreeably surprised at its performance.

"We had the tank full of gasoline when we left Edmonton and we drove straight through to Calgary, a distance of 204 miles. It required eight gallons to again fill the tank, on average of a little over 25 miles per gallon. The oil consumption was nil. I changed it at a little less than 1000 miles.

"Though the roads were bad in places over the mountains, the car did not heat at all. Because of the new added length of the chassis we did not feel tired after the 1180-mile drive. There is a decided sense of security in driving a car like this with an all-steel body and shatterproof glass, and I recommend it without hesitation."

F. T. Lundehl.
22 Balsam Apartments
Vancouver

NEW FORD 4 $590 UP
112-inch wheelbase. Long, low, roomy body, with rumble seat. Completely enclosed in rubber. Vari-Vue rear vision mounting. Ball-and-socket steering. Improved motor and chassis lubrication. Easy-riding, 112-inch wheelbase. Safety-plate glass all around. Silent synchromesh and Easy-Shift on Vertex eight-cylinder engine. 75 horsepower, 80 miles an hour. Owners report 22 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline. Exceptional quality and economy at a low price.
(Prices f.o.b. Ford Windsor, Ontario. Bumpers, spare tire, tube extra)

"VALUE FAR ABOVE THE PRICE"

NEW FORD V-8 $650 UP
A long, low, roomy body, with rumble seat. Luxurious riding comfort. 112-inch wheelbase. Completely enclosed in rubber. Vari-Vue rear vision mounting. Ease-Ability of Vertex eight-cylinder engine. 75 horsepower, 80 miles an hour. Owners report 22 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline. Exceptional quality and economy at a low price.
(Prices f.o.b. Ford Windsor, Ontario. Bumpers, spare tire, tube extra)

FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED
"THE CANADIAN CAR"

LIBERALS AND PROGRESSIVES COMMITTED TO FREE SPEECH

But Hold Every Man Personally For What He Says

OWEN SOUND, Ont., June 30.—(CP)—Liberals and Progressives of Ontario today stand committed to a policy of freedom of speech and of assembly, and for repeal of section 98 of the Criminal Code.

Definitely Mitchell F. Hepburn, Ontario Liberal leader, and H. C. Nixon, Progressive Chief, told a joint convention of North and East-ern electors yesterday they were most emphatically for freedom of speech, "but we hold every man personally responsible for what he says."

Mr. Hepburn called for all "forces opposed to reactionary Toryism to band together to beat the Ontario Conservative Government," while Mr. Nixon declared there are adequate provisions under the criminal code to deal with a speaker, who "goes further than invited to do, without Section 98."

Mr. Nixon said he did not agree with a policy of giving a policeman the power to prohibit a speaker from addressing a meeting while Premier R. B. Bennett was free to urge his followers to "place the iron heel of ruthlessness on the necks of those, who do not agree with him."

Premier Henry's speech at Mitchell was "just childish," to Mr. Hepburn's opinion, and had sounded the deathknell of Toryism."

HOGG REPLIES TO MEAD

CHICAGO, June 30.—(CP)—An attack by Daniel W. Mead yesterday against the two-stage plan Canada covers for merchandising of the St. Lawrence Seaway today had drawn sharp replies from a number of proponents of the project.

Chief Engineer Thomas H. Hogg of the Ontario Hydro Commission among them. Mr. Hogg told the gathering both the one and two-stage schemes are sound from the standpoint of engineering problems involved and from the broad economic viewpoint.

A MARK OF DISTINCTION

The SUPREME ACHIEVEMENT IN TIRE BUILDING

The DUNLOP "FORT" Tire—now made in Canada in a limited number of sizes—is the leader of a complete line of DUNLOP Tires which offer you unsurpassed value in every price range.

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER is published every afternoon (Sunday and holidays excepted) at The Ontario Intelligencer Building, Front Street.

W. H. NORTON, Publisher

AN OLDER CHAMPION

Ever and anon arrives one who breaks the rule about the play being to youth and youth alone.

Sir Michael Scott has come into a crown, the British Amateur championship. And he is 55 years of age. And the men he played against and defeated were younger men.

It was not, of course, mere chance. Such a perfect condition as will make a man of that age a champion golfer is not accidental.

Now while golf is not a game of strength it does require skill and even a good constitution and Sir Michael must possess them to win.

Scott at his age can wear his crown as a king and a man of experience in the world can.

His victory will stimulate older golfers whose playing may have excited the compassion and sympathy of young men of almost championship class and he may give rise to a new movement among the elders to play the game.

In golf the perfect precision and the restraint and control give a man of Scott's experience an advantage over the unreserve of many a younger player.

Doubtless if Sir Michael were known to every golfer, as he is known to his friends, he would be known as a man who has preserved himself so that in the realest sense the years do not count so much. Therein he is a model to all men who have left youth behind—to maintain a reserve of energy which will stand them in good stead when the years have passed.

A CHALLENGE REMAINS

Mount Everest is unconquered. Fliers have passed over its lofty pinnacle, the highest point of land on earth, but no one has yet set foot there.

Yesterday the expedition was given up. Old Harridan Nature has defeated man and his machine. Man steps back but only to let some one else attempt the seemingly impossible enterprise. So far all land attacks on the lonely citadel of ice have failed.

With it unconquered a challenge remains of man. Man has failed not from lack of courage but because weather conditions which make success under such an attempt a foregone impossibility, have intervened. Time for the conquest has gone and to attempt it now would be only a rash throwing away of life which is too precious to throw away without some hope of winning.

SWIMMING

Summer heat early in the summer of this year has made swimming more popular than ever. The waterfront, which is not a beach by any stretch of the imagination, is frequented by crowds daily and by hundreds of swimmers who use the harbor and the dock for their bathing.

This is a year when those who have not taken advantage of the opportunity to learn to swim have real regrets as they see others enjoying themselves in the water and able to take care of themselves.

But those who cannot swim may yet learn. The time, is opportune and the water is of the correct temperature, that is clear. Why not learn to swim now and in the winter why not continue the instruction in order next year to be fairly well fitted for life at a watering place or summer resort.

SUMMER SCHOOLS

With the advent of summer, meetings should be held as much as possible in the open. What is more appealing than a picnic type of meeting, with the freedom from restraint which the great open spaces creates in everyone?

There is to be a political school at Port Hope this summer, at which prominent men will speak.

The Y.M.C.A. holds at Lake Couchiching recreational and instructional summer schools which prepare young and adults for their place in life and for meeting the problems of the day. At the annual meeting of the Belleville Y.M.C.A. the advantages of such a school were pointed out by Captain Best. Religious summer schools are well known.

Surely the spaciousness of the grand outdoors ought to lend vision and create hope in the solution of present day problems.

GOOD ADVICE

The present hot spell has driven people to partake of almost every recommended protection against the heat. Medical Officer Cronk's recipe "Keep Cool" is, of course, the ideal and he gives several ways to keep cool, not to overeat, not to drink too freely of ice cold liquids, not to worry about the heat. These are three good rules to follow now and at almost any other time whether the heat is great or not.

x x x x

Health is the vital principle of bliss; and exercise, of health.—Thomson.

x x x x

Every man's task is his life-preserver.—Emerson.

SIDELIGHTS — GRAVE and GAY

SOUVENIR

It is the same, each well-loved scene of old.
The ships at anchor and ships sailing past
The Belver light, with gleams of red and gold
Against the twilight shadows, deepening fast.
No change I find in this remembered place
Whose every image in my heart is shrined;
No change, save in the absence of your face,
And (who can say?) this may be wholly kind.

Better, perhaps, that I can keep you so,
Always erect and young and proud and free;
Better, a hundredfold, that you should know
Only that other, fairer, braver me!
Unchanged, the sea, the sand, lights red and gold
And those dear memories God lets us hold!

—Aline Michaelis.

x x x x

MONTREAL LEAGUE FOR THE HARD OF HEARING, is an organization in Montreal which recently held its annual meeting. Its president said of the club: "It has been more than ever a haven where the deprivations of deafness and worries of the kinds can be put aside and programs of a social nature, or evenings of self improvement in the study of the art of speech reading can be enjoyed." The average attendance at lip-reading classes was 34. A magazine called "The Observer," is published by the organization.

x x x x

"THE RECORDS OF THE PRINGLES, OR HOPPRINGLES OF THE SCOTTISH BORDER," is a new book, by Alex. Pringle, M.A., Edinburgh, published in London, which will be of great interest to the clan of Pringles, many of whom reside in or near Belleville. The surname of Hop-pringle or Pringle, dates from the reign of Alexander III., who met his death at Kinghorn in March 1286, says the biographer, who states that the name Hop-pringle is derived from the old Norse, Hop, a haven, and ring, a rink, a round hill, so that the name means "hope of the round hill." The family belongs to the parish of Stow, about ten miles above Galashiels. One of the interesting characters in the book is Sir James Pringle, of whom the Earl of Lonsdale wrote in 1629: "One of the best husbandmen in the country, as appeared by his planting, and by his requiring his tenants to plant six fruit trees or forest trees." He was very successful. In Scotland wives alter not their surnames. They serve up dinner and supper with their hats on before their masters, each dish covered with another. There was a basin set to wash our hands in before we sat down. When seated Sir James said grace. Then ale or beer, collop, long kale, low or white kail which is cabbage, powdered beef, roast and boiled mutton, venison pie; then cheese and small bits on a pewter platter, and cheese uncut. The cloth being removed, a large towel, ewer and basin to wash was provided, and a green cover laid on, whereon were set cups of beer with little lawn serviettes and a glass of hot water. There were three boys to say grace, the thanksgiving, the paternoster, and a prayer for a blessing to God's Church, the goodman of the house, his parents, kinsmen, and the whole company. The collation at bedtime is a stoup of ale. In the morning and at other times when a man desireth to drink, he is given beer, and a narrow serviette to dry his mouth, and a wheat loaf and a knife, in observance of the good old rule, 'incipe et finito, sicco finito memento.' 'Begin with the liquid and finish with the solid.'

The history of the Pringle family is a stirring one, full of border raids and fierce fighting both along the Scottish border and in France where there was an army of 7,000 Scots at one time. The book is interesting to not only the Pringle family but to everyone interested in that stirring period of history when Scotland defied England and would have none of the usurper, preferring to make common cause with France.

x x x x

"Daddy, for homework I have to make some sentences into commands. Will you help me?"

"Ask your mother. She does all the commanding here."

x x x x

Wife—"How do you like my new hat?"
Husband—"I liked it much better on the milliner's stand."

x x x x

Miss Bluitt—"I'm going to help economize, Dad. A dressmaker is going to teach me to cut out my frocks."

Dad—"I'd rather you learned to cut out your cocktails and night clubs, my dear."

LOOKING BACKWARD

GLEANINGS FROM OUR FYLES OF BY-GONE YEARS

20 YEARS AGO

JUNE 30, 1913

The annual Grand Trunk Railway picnic under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will be held at Massassaga Park on July 16th. Mr. T. Marshall is chairman and Mr. J. W. Barlow is secretary of the committee in charge of the arrangements.

Representatives of English capitalists are expected in Belleville shortly to look over the suburban electric railway proposition. Mr. James G. Lindsay, former city engineer, has been in England, promoting the scheme.

Miss Carswell, Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Alex Ray, William street.

Miss Mae Hently of this city visited friends in Madoc recently.

Mr. John D. Hayes of the Postal Department, Toronto, is spending a few days at his home here.

Mr. Garnett Wilson of Rochester, N.Y., formerly of Belleville is spending a few holidays in the city.

30 YEARS AGO

JUNE 30, 1903

The public library will re-open on July 2nd, after undergoing a thorough renovation.

Mr. H. P. Moore, proprietor of the Acton Free Press, was a visitor in the city today.

Three hundred appeals against the assessment would make it appear that there is some dissatisfaction and the property owners have not been backward in saying so.

Broken machinery at the Melrose oil well has caused suspension of drilling. The well is now down seventeen hundred feet.

Col. Ponton has received a letter from that "Broth of a Boy", Jack McNair, whose game will not be forgotten soon in Belleville. He is at Lorenzo Marques, South Africa where there is quite a Belleville colony including Messrs. Geer, Mills and Baker. Times are good, money is plentiful and excitement is never failing.

Mrs. J. G. Sherk and Miss Norma Shirk have left the city to spend the summer at Phillipsburg Quebec.

40 YEARS AGO

JUNE 30, 1893

A few black bass have been caught in the vicinity of the bridge.

Large catches of rock bass and perch have been made at Wallbridge's cove lately.

Mr. Maurice Buckley was in town yesterday.

Mr. R. H. Potter has returned home from a trip to British Columbia.

Rev. John Halliwell, Varkleek Hill, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. Lyons Biggar returned this morning from the World's Fair, Chicago.

Mr. Wm. Hamilton, Manager of the Merchants Bank, and family are in Massassaga Park today to spend the summer at his cottage.

Prof. Paul Denys of the D. and D. I. left today to spend the summer at his home in St. Julien, Quebec.

Shiloh Hall looks quite bright now with its new coat of paint.

Mr. C. P. Holton is rebuilding his saw mill and expects to have it completed within six weeks.

Dominion Day falls on Saturday this year and will be observed here as a holiday on Monday.

Mr. J. W. London, Mrs. London and Mrs. Brooks are spending a few days in Toronto.

50 YEARS AGO

JUNE 30, 1883

Mr. A. Filion has added a young deer to the Trenton Zoo.

Little Clarke Edwards found a purse with $1.80 in it today and he is anxious to find the owner.

Mr. John Irwin of this city has been appointed a searcher and landing waiter in the customs.

A meeting of the Belleville club last night it was decided to go to Deseronto on Monday, which will be a holiday. The members will meet at the corner of Charles and Queen streets at six o'clock a.m.

At a meeting of the directors of the Belleville Opera House Company yesterday afternoon the following officers were appointed: President, Major Nelson Lingham; Vice President, W. H. Biggar; Secretary, W. H. Ponton; Treasurer, U. E. Thompson.

Lake and Jenkins have had some of the houses painted and they look now almost as good as new.

Every member of the Oka Lacrosse club is expected to attend practice next Tuesday evening. Turn out boys and get yourselves in good condition.

PLAYGROUNDS OPEN

Completely renovated and ready for the season's activities the East Hill playgrounds, situated at the corner of Bridge St. East and Bleecker, will be officially opened Monday next. The playgrounds, so available to all children desiring clean, wholesome recreation under the eyes of a matron.

A $20,000 automobile on display at the Chicago Fair is made of aluminum, and has a wheel base of 153 1-2 inches.

Why Last Week Was the Biggest In Our History

The production for the week of June 19 was $7,217,000, which excels even the heyday of 1929. It is 25% better than the previous best week in the Company's history.

Three facts combine to give the answer.

1. Our representatives wanted to determine just what they could accomplish in one week. They were encouraged to tackle the job because their efforts have met with marked success again throughout this year.

2. The public are more receptive to the life insurance idea. They have rediscovered that there is nothing which can take the place of life insurance in providing for their own future or that of their dependents.

3. Canadians have found in The London Life an organization that has proven itself by 38 years of faithful stewardship.

Buy life insurance and hold to it. It has never failed to fulfill all its obligations.

Established 1874
London Life
Insurance Company
"Canada's Industrial-Ordinary Company"
HEAD OFFICE - LONDON, CANADA

District Offices — 17 Bridge St. E., Belleville

One Stop covers all

HOLWAY BROS.
"TOOTS" and "BOUNCER"

Announcing
The Opening of a New and Modern
Wash Rack

Equipped with Steam Pressure and Hot Water and the very latest in Auto Washing apparatus.
This completes the equipment of this Modern Service Station on the principal corner of Belleville, Front and Bridge Streets, which now is a
ONE STOP STATION

Where everything can be obtained—Gas, Oil, Greasing, Washing, Etc.—Modern Vulcanizing Repair Work, Etc. Seven (7) Free Services—Drive away from this station in comfort with confidence.

COMPLETE LINE OF AUTO ACCESSORIES
VULCANIZING—GUARANTEED REPAIR WORK
DOMINION TIRES OF ALL SIZES

HOLWAY BROS.

Special!
Values for Saturday at COOK'S

Dainty Blouses
New Blouses in fine white organdy and fancy patterns. Special at 98c

Voile Dresses
Voile Dresses in new styles, light and dark patterns. Size 16 to 44. On Sale at 3.95

Silk Skirts
Silk Skirts in ruff crepe. Colors of white, navy, black and blue. Sizes 14 to 20. On Sale at 2.95

Organdy Dresses
Organdy Dresses in colored spots on white ground. Size 14 to 20. On Sale at 4.95

Dress Voiles
Dress Voiles in a big range of patterns. 36 inches wide. Only, yard 29c

John W. Cook
210 FRONT ST. BELLEVILLE

Do not hang up your watch as useless, till you've asked us to look at it. Maybe a mere trifle will make it go. Watches cost money and a good watch is well worth its cost.

Watch repairing is our specialty.
We do repairs quickly, guarantee results and ask reasonable prices always.

J. O. R. McCURDY
PHONE 318 224 FRONT ST.

McKEOWN'S Rexall Drug Store
Week-End Money Saving Values

HOUSE CLEANING
1 lb. FLOOR WAX
CHAMOIS
Both
50c

SORE FEET
Foot Soap — Foot Powder,
Both
35c

BLACK BAND NIPPLES
5c Each

PERFUMES
Assorted Odours
25c

Pompeian Face Powder 49c
Pompeian Face Cream 49c
English Health Salts 37c
Citrate Magnesia 22c
50c Zam Buk 29c
25c Mineral Oil 54c
ABS & C Tablets 10c
Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 25c
St. Dennis Bath Salts 19c
Witch Hazel Cream 19c
Kleenex 33c
Seidlitz Powders 2 for 25c

BATHING CAPS
Rubber, Fitted
2 for 25c

TOOTH BRUSHES
Good Quality
17c - 3 for 50c

Cara Nome FACE POWDER
19c

PICNIC SUPPLIES
Paper Cups
Paper Plates
Thermos Bottles
Films

DEVELOPING AND PRINTING — PROMPT SERVICE

COUNTY NEWS

INTERESTING NEWS FROM SHANNONVILLE

SHANNONVILLE—Mrs. Charles Howard and Miss Vivian Cornell of Belleville spent Tuesday last, guests of Mrs. Geo. Leverton, in Deseronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fuller have left on a motor trip to Sault Ste. Marie and other points.

A demonstrator of an Aluminum Company gave a health talk, served a dinner to a number of ladies on Friday night at the home of Mrs. K. R. Vivian which was much enjoyed by those present.

A large number attended the dance in the hall here on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murney who have spent the past month with their daughter, Mrs. Jack McDonald have returned to their home in Frankford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson of Marlbank were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson.

Mr. Sidney Goodfellow and family motored to Napanee on Sunday spending the day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell Kimmett.

The postponed ball game of Canniton vs. Shannonville boys was played here on Monday night before a large crowd, the result was a score of 4-1 in favor of the home team.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley MacDonald spent Sunday at Consecon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gallagher of Adolphustown were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Larme.

ALEX LESLIE DIES AT SALEM

SALEM—Mrs. Wilson of Fullerton spent a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Hagerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Nedewater, Deseronto, were callers on Sunday afternoon at Mr. Sullivan Haight's.

Miss Irene Murphy took tea on Thursday evening with Miss Marjorie Robinson.

Mrs. Robert Sparrow is entertaining her sister Mrs. Davidson, Campbellford, for a few days.

Mrs. Clarence Hagerman and Bernice spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Sam Sherman, Melrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brenton, Corbyville were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Roblin on Sunday.

"Congratulations" to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hagerman on June 28th a son (Ronald Allen).

Mr. Harry Taylor and mother, Shannonville, were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. William Haight.

Mr. Stanley Lyons, Kingston also Mrs. Emma Pettingale, Picton, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. James Sills on Sunday, Mrs. Pettingale is remaining for a week.

Mrs. Durnin, Saskatchewan, spent the tea hour Saturday evening with her niece Mrs. Clarence Hagerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herbert, Toronto, spent a couple of days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Leslie.

Mr. John Roblin, Belleville, spent Wednesday with Mr. Owen Roblin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sills took dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Eggleton, Bethany.

Mrs. Anderson, 2nd Line is staying for a few days with her sister Mrs. Clifford Hagerman.

Mrs. James Sills and Mrs. Pettingale took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snider, Melrose, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nina Dunning, Canniton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Peirce, Oshawa, also Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller and Marjory, Belleville were Sunday evening callers at Mr. Thos. Leslie's.

The sympathy of this neighborhood and surrounding district goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Leslie and family in the loss of their son and brother Alex. who passed away on Wednesday last with septic pneumonia.

Last Game of Series Makes Madoc 'Pullmans' Champions

MADOC—The fifth and last of the series of games between the champions (Trinity United Soft Ball Team) for 1932 and the Challengers (Pullman's All-Star Team) was played at the Armouries Grounds on Monday evening, but was concluded after the seventh inning on account of the threatening storm, the score being 18 to 7 in favor of Pullman's Team, thus making Pullman's the champions of Madoc Village for 1933.

The score by innings was:

Pullman's	0	2	0	1	0	2	3	—	8
Trinity	1	1	0	3	0	0	0	—	5

Line-ups—Pullman's—T. Rupert, p; A. Rupert, c; E. Weir, 1b; T. Akey, 2b; D. Whytock, 3b; V. Jack ss; D. Pullman cf; C. Wallbridge rf; G. Scopis lf.

Trinity United—D. Ashley and A. Ross, p; Wm. Woods c; W. Dingman 1b; M. Caverly 2b; L. Broad 3b; W. Ridout ss; K. Kincaid cf; E. Johnston rf; Ross and Ashley lf.

Umpire—Rowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reid of Millbrook spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Reid and other friends in Madoc.

Misses Jack Henderson and Bernadett Edwards left Madoc last week for training camp in Barrfield, Kingston, where they expect to remain for about a month to obtain their Bergrad's Diplomas.

Mr. T. E. Moffat of Tweed High School is in Madoc this week as Supervisor at the Lower and Middle School examinations.

BID FAREWELL TO PASTOR AND WIFE

Quercusboro, June 30.—On Tuesday evening a large number of the friends of Rev. J. P. Everson gathered at the Parsonage to spend a social hour with them before their departure for their new pastoral charge at Plainfield. The time was spent in social chat, a delicate lunch being served by the ladies before the group retired.

The following address was read by Mrs. Fred Rollins.

Dear Friends:—We have come together this evening for the purpose and pleasure of spending a last social hour with you.

The circumstances which have led to this assembly of your friends in your home tonight is one that comes often to a minister and his family.

The years of your sojourn with us have slipped by quickly. During that time we have received much comfort and spiritual development from Mr. Everson's earnest and helpful sermons, and more still by the example you have set by your life, your devotion to your work, your patience and never-failing kindness. Many sick beds have received the benefit of your prayers since you came to this community and your helpfulness in times of trouble will ever be remembered.

We shall always have the kindliest remembrances of you, Mrs. Everson, because of your devotion to every branch of our church work. Your assistance in the choir and as teacher in the Sunday school has added much to the success of our church work. Your labor in the women's societies was rendered in the most sympathetic and unselfish way.

As you both form new friendships may the old ones remain green and fragrant in the garden of memory.

Our prayer is that God may grant you both many years of successful labor in his vineyard and then may you have a joyful home-coming.

Signed on behalf of Quercusboro United Church.

Bruce Leslie, S. S. Supt.
Fred Rollins, Ch. Treas.
Mrs. Frank Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson and family of Marlbank visited with his aunts, the Misses Annie and Jennie Thompson on Sunday.

Miss Ida McCaig left on Monday for Toronto where she will spend a couple of weeks with her sister Jane before going to Saskatchewan to visit a brother and sister who reside there.

Rev. J. P. and Mrs. Everson left on Wednesday for their new pastoral charge at Plainfield. The Rev. E. W. Cafley and family of Plainfield arrived in Quercusboro the same day.

Mrs. Frank Thompson, Sr., of Marlbank, is the guest of her sisters-in-law, Misses Jennie and Annie Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers and family of Sulphide and Mr. and Mrs. John Whiteman spent Sunday with Mrs. Malcolm Whiteman.

COMMUNITY NEWS FROM HILLIER

HILLIER—Mrs. D. Ross and children of Belleville are visiting Mrs. Ross' Parents Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer, Mervia and Wilma Jordan from near Roslin are also visiting at this hospitable home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malmes spent Sunday at Christian St.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Alexander was the guest of their son and his wife on Monday at the 3rd concession.

Mr. and Mrs. William Locke called on Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Arthur of Consecon, were recent callers on Mrs. Levi Palmer and her sisters at "Meadow-Brook."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pearson and children of Toronto are to be week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer spent Sunday in Belleville with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Palmer and family.

Mrs. Ivey, Harwood or Wellington made some calls in this locality on Monday last.

Mr. Bert Raitray of Detroit is visiting his parents this week.

Mrs. Helen Edwards of Winnipeg was the guest on Thursday at the dinner hour of Mrs. C. N. Palmer.

LATTA GIRLS DEFEAT ROSLIN IN SOFT BALL

Latta, June 30.—The farmers are taking advantage of the dry weather in hauling their hay crop.

The W.M.S. held a quilting and dinner in the hall in Plainfield on Wednesday, the event was small owing to the hot weather. The proceeds amounted to $42.25.

The girls' softball team played their first game at Roslin last night, defeating Roslin 20 to 13. Much credit is due the local girls, it being in charge of Plainfield. They return their team about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Wilmot Denney returned home to Toronto on Sunday after spending the past two weeks under the parental roof.

A number attended the social in Latta on Wednesday evening and all report a wonderful program consisting of solos, readings and Plainfield orchestra.

Mr. F. L. Garrison has returned home from Toronto where he has been confined for the past fourteen weeks in St. Michael's Hospital.

Mr. Garrison is much improved after his accident and all are pleased to see him home again.

Rain is much needed in this district.

One kind of dinosaur, the triceratops, had a head so big that it made up about one-third of the animal's entire body.

W. C. T. U.

A very delightful parlor meeting under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. G. S. Ferguson. Albert street, Tuesday, June 27.

The conveners, Mrs. G. S. Sharpe and Mrs. Wilbur Sharpe, with the hostess, Mrs. Ferguson, received the guests at the door.

The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and peonies. The dining room was very pretty with lace table cloth and centre vase of roses. Dainty refreshments were served.

The speaker was Mrs. F. E. O'Flynn who presented the cause of total abstinence of spirituous liquors as a beverage, as given in the Bible. She quoted passages from Leviticus, the first, Psalm, and the words of Daniel and Timothy. She said we should not be critics, but be ready to help and encourage the weak ones who become victims of drink, and with Paul we should say, "If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no meat while the world stand." Mrs. O'Flynn gave a heart to heart talk to the ladies, urging us to be true Christians, standing by the word of God. She referred to the pioneer work done in the city of Belleville and the many who fearlessly led in the great cause of temperance.

Mrs. (Rev.) Neal read the Scripture from Acts, and gave an interesting account of the conversion of Paul who became a great evangelist. Many of his sayings point out the danger of the intoxicating bowl.

Mrs. Farnsworth spoke of some encouraging items of the temperance work and said, "America is not all wet". The New York Times quotes Mr. P. H. Odlum, Member of the N. Y. Orange, at the annual meeting of the Grain Growers, as saying there was more grain used to produce the increase of milk consumed, than was ever used to produce all the beer prior to the adoption of the 18th amendment. It suggest that legalized beer would bring good times to the farmer in an indirect intelligence. We should prepare for a greater educational program for our homes, our schools, our churches.

Frank E. Gannett, owner of a newspaper chain in the State of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, will ban from his papers all liquor advertising.

The Northwestern University, the University of Pittsburg and the Rutgers University have each taken action concerning the use of spirituous, vinous and fermented liquors.

Finland is finding real difficulty in the bootlegging which has greatly increased since the repeal of prohibition.

In France the "League Against Alcohol" is putting on a series of dry banquets where water, grapejuice and coffee are the only beverages provided. At all the proposed functions much will be made of the fact that Clemenceau, once honorary president of the league, was a water drinker. The league endeavors to tell the people to be tee-totalers in this land of drink.

Miss Reddick delighted all with two beautiful solos, "Turn to the Right" and "Just A'Wearyin' For You" by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

Mrs. Duff and Mrs. Jacobson rendered most beautifully a duet, "Life's Long Dream Is O'er."

Mrs. Pearsall, superintendent of the parlor meetings, extended to all a welcome hoping the meetings deepen the interest in the cause of temperance and to all a education.

You can stop that
HAY FEVER
Dr. Hayman's Ambrosial Balsam It starts with the first dose and stops with the last. Price $1.00 From one 12 dose or booklet Dealers. Write for free booklet. 143
RAZ-MAH

SHELL MOTOR OIL for Canada is produced in co-operation with Shell engineers in forty Shell refineries throughout the world. Because of this world experience Shell Motor Oil protects your car against heat, cold, pressure, friction and harmful carbon.

For instance, Shell's experience in Texas—where long distance driving is an old story—made possible Shell Motor Oil's superability to stand up under sustained high speeds. Shell refineries in Sumatra, Java and other equatorial countries deserve much credit for Shell Motor Oil's heat-resisting quality. Low pour point has been achieved through experience in making Shell Motor Oil for territory fringing the Arctic Circle.

Increase your motoring satisfaction—save money—by using only Shell Motor Oil. For your protection, Shell Motor Oil is sold only in sealed bottles—special Shell depots and delivered sealed to dealers and service stations.

Ask About Shell Free TOURING SERVICE

Shell offers complete touring service for motorists. Best route to take. Road conditions. Other valuable information. When planning a trip, ask your Shell dealer to get you full details of where and how to go—it's free.

BE SAFE WITH Sealed SHELL MOTOR OIL
AT NO EXTRA COST

THIS NEW TIRE WILL SAVE LIVES

REMARKABLE NEW INVENTION MAKES "SAFEST TIRE EVER BUILT" 3 TIMES SAFER FROM BLOW-OUTS

NO EXTRA COST TO PUBLIC

THIS is probably the most vital single announcement ever made about tires. It's the story of a life-saving invention—An invention that will save hundreds of lives . . . perhaps your life . . . and prevent hundreds of those terrible tire blow-outs that maim and cripple people.

How people are killed

For years sane speeds have been increasing. Big car or little—today they're built for speed. And when the speedometer reads 60, 70 and 80 miles an hour and . . . the best inside the tire carcass becomes terrific heat . . . body and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts . . . inside the tire, where you can't see it . . . and grows . . . like an insidious tumor, it gets bigger and bigger . . . until BANG! A blow-out! The rim hits the road . . . And a terrible drag sets in . . . Like some unseen monster pulling your car off the road.

So somebody simply HAD to build a safer tire. One that would stand the terrific strain of modern high-speed motors.

How Dr. Proved this blow-outs

To process you from blow-outs, every new Goodrich Safety Silvertown Tire has the amazing new Life-Saver Golden Ply. This new invention resists terrific heat—fabric and rubber don't separate. Thus, blisters don't form inside the tire. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming the very cause of blow-outs before they start.

Three times Safer at High Speeds

At gruelling speeds on the world's fastest track, the new Goodrich Safety Silvertown Tire with the Life-Saver Golden Ply lasted three times as long as first-quality tires that did not have this feature. Proved itself three times safer from blow-outs. Other tires blew . . . one-by-one—but the distance the New Silvertowns were run. The new Silvertowns NEVER blew . . . Rubber got so hot it fairly smoked . . . were right down to the fabric. But the Golden Ply refused to give.

Safest anti-skid tread

The tread, too, is safer from skidding. Scientific tests with leading makers of tires prove that Goodrich Safety Silvertowns have the most skid-resisting tread on the market. Even on wet, slippery pavements, the squeegee driving action of this famous tire gives your car extra road grip and reduces danger of skidding to the minimum.

Put this Silvertown Tire on your car. It costs you not one cent more than any other standard tire. Drive in where you see the "Mountie"—the brightly colored sign which identifies the Goodrich dealer. It tells you where Goodrich Tires are sold—the safest tires ever built.

MADE IN CANADA

The New Goodrich Safety Silvertown WITH LIFE-SAVER GOLDEN PLY

Look for the Mountie
This sign tells you we sell Goodrich Safety Silvertown with LifeSaver Golden Ply.

FREE This handsome emblem will mark your critical reflector to protect you if your tail light goes out. Come in and get yours, and become a member of the Silvertown Safety League.

Al's Tire Shop
301 Coleman St.
Phone 1380

W. E. Grills
85 Moira St. W.
Phone 1151F

Aselstine & Sons
40 Moira St. E.
Phone 229

Fashion Notes
Beauty Hints

Women's Interest In The Home

Mrs. C. Beeckman Beatrice Fairfax

Personals

Mrs. Ernest Martin, College Hill, who has been very ill, is improving.

Miss Mandy Irwin spent Friday in Campbellford, visiting friends in that village.

Miss Helen C. Deroche, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Judge O. and Mrs. Deroche.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clapp, Solvay, N.Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Farrell.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Farrell and Bill have returned from a motor trip through Western Ontario.

Miss Betty Smith, John street, will leave tomorrow for Cedar Nook Camp, near Bath, where she will spend some weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Doran, Mrs. W. B. Moore and Jean and Miss B. M. Ford, left this morning to spend the week end in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Farley and Dr. F. E. Farley, Toronto, have been the guests this week of Mrs. Jean Farley, sr. W. H. Lattimer.

Miss Belva I. Finlay, Reg. N., C.P.H.N., who has been in charge of Belleville Branch, Victorian Order of Nurses, has resigned and leaves for her home in Kincardine Ontario, today.

Tea hostesses at the Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club yesterday were Mrs. F. Robson, Mrs. G. Walkin and Mrs. W. Cooke. The winning rink was that of Mrs. W. McCreary, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. McGinnis, and Mrs. Gardiner (skip).

Mr. George Watkin, Cedar street, has received a telegram announcing the death in Chester, England, yesterday, of his mother. The late Mrs. Watkin had visited in Belleville, making many friends. Mr. Watkin visited his mother last year. The deceased is a sister of Mrs. J. Neale, Catharine St., and Mr. E. T. Austin, Cedar street.

About 180 members of Quinte Rebekah Lodge No. 133, enjoyed their annual picnic at Mrs. W. Jordan's yesterday afternoon at her summer cottage at Rossmore. The tables were beautiful with flowers, and delicious eats and after everyone had been served with the food, Mrs. McEwan N.G., moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jordan as ideal host and hostess, seconded by Mrs. Wm. Ashley. A 4 gallon container of ice cream and a peanut and candy scramble was then enjoyed by all. All journeyed to their homes thanking the Jordan's for the pleasant afternoon they spent at the cottage.

HEALTHIEST TOT AT WORLD'S FAIR

Three-year-old Jeail Funk of Chicago, who won first prize for development in the children's health and beauty contest at Enchanted Island, part of the Century of Progress exposition, eats her breakfast with her pet stuffed cogrie to keep her company. Jean likes plenty of milk with every meal.

Weddings

WRIGHT—BARLOW

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon, June 27th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barlow Victoria Ave., when their daughter Elizabeth Theda (Bessie) was united in marriage to Mr. George Wesley Wright, eldest son of Mrs. Wright and the late Richard Wright of Janetville, Ont.

The Rev. Wendell P. Woodger of Napanee, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives.

The young couple will reside in Belleville.

Almost 14,500 new books and new editions were published in England in 1932.

FRANKFORD L. O. L.

Frankford, June 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reid of Stirling spent the tea hour on Sunday with Miss Maggie Gay.

Mrs. Bruce Richardson and daughter Betty of Oshawa spent Thursday and Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fritz of Hillier spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Matthews at their summer cottage, Oak Lake.

The annual church service of L.O.L. 240, and L.O.B.A. of Frankford was held on Sunday afternoon at the United Church. One hundred and twenty-five Orangemen of Frankford, Stirling and other neighboring lodges formed an impressive parade and marched from the lodge rooms to hear a splendid address by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Lane, who emphasized the challenge of an Orangeman's obligation and exhorted Orangemen to live up to the principles of the order as friends of all men and defenders of the open Bible.

The sombrero gets its name from the Spanish word, sombre, meaning shade.

"Yes, Edna LOOKS lovely... but..."

PERSPIRATION ODOUR clinging in second-day underthings is so noticeable in summer! Too bad somebody doesn't tell Edna about this! A MINUTE way to help her keep as sweet as she looks!

1. Rinse undies in rich Lux suds after each wearing! Takes only 4 minutes. The new Lux Lux discolors . . . leaves fabrics soft as snow like magic even in lukewarm water.

2. Lux keeps underthings smart and colourful . . . prolongs their wear. Never rub with cake soap or ordinary soap — discolors fabrics containing harmful alkali.

In Summer beware!

Protect daintiness the modern, easy LUX way!

Underthings constantly absorb perspiration—particularly in warm weather! You may be offending and not know it. There's one way to be safe: Lux underthings after every wearing!

It's so easy! Just swish through safe Lux suds and rinse. Takes 4 minutes or less. Lux removes acids and perspiration odours—gives you sweet, clean, colourful things for next day.

. . . Ask for the new, big ECONOMICAL package

Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto

TUFT'S SCHOOL CLOSING, PUPILS ATTEND AT TWEED

Small Enrolment Responsible For Decision of Trustees

Tweed, June 30.—The school board of S. S. No. 14, Hungerford, more commonly known as Tuft's or Downey's Rapids School, has decided to close the school beginning with September next on account of the small enrollment of three pupils and also to aid the Department of Education in effecting a saving in department grants. On Tuesday evening their board members met the board of Tweed Consolidated School and an agreement was entered into by the two boards concerned whereby the pupils of S. S. No. 14 will be brought to Tweed Consolidated School for instruction. This will be done at no extra cost to the Consolidated school section, as the usual township grant to S. S. No. 14 will care for any additional cost of transportation.

Miss A. Mackintosh, B.A., Miss E. Stuart, B.A., and Miss H. Grindell of the staff of Tweed high school have returned to their homes in Guelph, Osgoode Station and Guelph respectively for the summer holidays.

The mercury rose to new heights on Wednesday, some thermometers recording as high as 85 in the shade.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Dales and family are camping at St. 1. G. Gordon's cottage, Birch Cliff, on Sugar Island, for a few days.

S. H. Connor and Joan are their guests.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Waite of Deseronto arrived on Wednesday to spend a couple of months at Tom Beatty's cottage at Sugar Island.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Beatty are spending a week at W. L. Ketchen's cottage.

The storm on Wednesday afternoon blew down a number of trees in the streets of Tweed. They fell across the Hydro wires and users were without electric lights and power for much of the afternoon.

A barn at Sibbo belonging to Mr. W. L. Ketchesn was struck by lightning during the same storm and burned to the ground.

Miss Mabel Gunning, a recent graduate of Peterboro Normal School and a former pupil of Tweed high school has been engaged as teacher of a school near Corbyville for the coming year.

Miss Marie Meiklejohn, teacher, of Belleville, has returned home for the holidays.

Miss Grace Houston, a member of Tweed Consolidated School staff has returned to her home in Kingston.

Miss Isabelle C. Campbell and Miss Florence Blaney have returned to their homes in Avonmore and Marxville for the summer holidays.

Some of the newest museum cases are made of glass plates cemented together, so that no wood or metal edges interfere with complete vision.

In One Month I Looked 10 Years Younger

"There were wrinkles around my eyes and mouth and an alarming sagging of the cheeks. To-day my complexion is fresh, firm and youthful—every bit as good as many of my girl friends who are fifteen years younger than I. It is due entirely to the wonderful discovery of a Vienna University Medical Professor that it is not age that causes wrinkles but a lack of Biocel in the human tissue. When applied in connection with other food ingredients Biocel restores youth to the skin. In four weeks it has made me 10 years younger. I recommend every woman over 25 to try this marvellous discovery."

Crème Tokalon Skinfood, (Rose Colour) contains "Biocel," a marvellous, highly concentrated tissue obtained from young animals. Discovered by Prof. Dr. Stejskal of the University of Vienna and used in his famous skin nutrition cure. In these tests on women from 35 to 72 years of age, wrinkles completely disappeared in 6 weeks. (See full report in Vienna Medical Journal.)

Use this new Crème Tokalon Biocel Skinfood (Rose Colour) at night—it nourishes and rejuvenates your skin while you sleep. In the morning use Crème Tokalon Skinfood (White Colour). This treatment is guaranteed to restore the expression of youth to the face, and to give you a new and beautiful complexion in 28 days or your money will be refunded in full.

More than 2,000,000 women, the world over, every day, use English made Tokalon products.

Tokalon for sale at Drug and Dept. Stores. NEW REDUCED PRICES—Rose Skinfood 50c; White Skinfood 35c; Vanishing Cream 50c; Foundation 50c.

FREE. By arrangement with the manufacturers, any reader of this paper may now obtain a de luxe Beauty Outfit containing a full size package of Tokalon Rose Skinfood (value 50c), a miniature jar of Tokalon "Bloome of Youth" (value 25c), a sample tube of Tokalon cream of orange (skin food, and other Tokalon preparations. Send 10 cents to cover cost of postage (packing, and other charges. Address: Tokalon, 10 Eaton Centre, Toronto. R. S. Madill & Co. (Depr. K-166), Hamilton, Ont.

New Way to Cook Cabbage, Keep Its Crispness

Here's a good way to cook cabbage. Cut it into wide strips and drop them into enough boiling salted water to nicely cover the cabbage. Cook for 8 to 10 minutes in an open vessel. This will keep the cabbage crisp, in its natural colour and free from any objectionable odour which it reaches the table. Dietists tell us that raw cabbage is one of nature's most nourishing foods, and used in salads raw cabbage makes very pleasant eating. However, those of us who prefer cabbage cooked will find the above an attractive recipe.

Taxation, Education and the Hydro would be the issues of the coming campaign and the urged her hearers to study these problems thoroughly.

FINE PROGRAM AT ROSLIN LAWN SOCIAL

Roslin, June 30.—The annual lawn social of the Roslin United Church was held on the church grounds on Wednesday evening. The weather was ideal and a large number attended. An excellent program was provided. Those assisting were: Mrs. (Dr.) G. H. Hoag of Belleville, Dr. E. McQuode of Trenton, Rev. P. C. Reazer of Roslin, soloists: Miss Verna of Tamworth, elocutionist; musical numbers were supplied by the Plainfield orchestra. Rev. H. B. Herrington was chairman for the evening.

Preceding the social a softball game was played between Plainfield and Roslin girls. The score was 20 to 13 in favor of the visitors. Umpires for the game were Mr. H. Palmer and Mr. A. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pargey and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ellis and family, Wooler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Waterhouse and family spent Sunday with Mrs. W. Clapsaddle.

The only damage reported from the severe wind and rain storm which passed over the district on Wednesday afternoon was a number of broken trees.

Some from this community attended a picnic at the Sandy Hole on Sunday.

Mr. C. and Mrs. Beazer and Mr. and Mrs. W. Gillespie spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coulter.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Wilson and Rodney, Mr. Hamilton Wilson and the Misses Golden and friends of Belleville enjoyed a picnic supper at the river on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Chisholm and family spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Delyea.

Mrs. G. C. Leavens of Kingston who has been staying with Mrs. J. Coulter for several weeks left on Thursday for Belleville where she will be the guest of Dr. W. C. and Mrs. Morgan for a few days.

Mrs. D. P. Leslie and Miss Elsie Rutherford attended the funeral of the former's brother at Perth on Tuesday.

Mr. Harry Bates of Belleville is visiting his brother, Mr. Arthur Bates.

"I Save Time, Labour, Worry"

States this Champion Jam and Jelly Maker

"Certo saves time, labour, worry and is profitable to use because you get more value from your fruit."

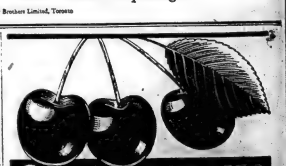
Mrs. J. Hodgins,
A Toronto Jam and Jelly Champion

THAVE won the following awards at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, and in every case Certo was used: strawberry jam, 1st prize; black currant jam, 1st prize; orange marmalade, 1st prize; red currant jelly, 1st prize; grapefruit marmalade and raspberry jam, 2nd prize."

You, too, should follow the example of this successful jam and jelly maker. Try Certo at once. With Certo you are sure to get prize-winning, economical jams and jellies, just as Mrs. Hodgins did, if you will simply follow exactly the Certo recipes which come in a booklet under the label on every Certo bottle.

Ask Us

Let us solve your jam or jelly making problems. Should you desire any information whatsoever, write to the Consumer Service Department, General Foods, Ltd., Cobourg, Ontario.



CERTO

MADE IN CANADA

CERTO

—Is fruit pectin.
—The natural jellying substance extracted from fruit.
—Jells the juice that would have boiled away by the old (long-boil) method.
—Makes 50 per cent. more jam or jelly at less cost per jar.
—Saves 35 the time. Saves the fruit flavour. Saves the fruit colour.
—Permits the use of any fruit—fresh, canned or dried—or fruit juice.

E3-33

Ontario's delicious cherry crop will be ready for you NEXT WEEK

ONTARIO cherries, not excelled anywhere in the world, will come onto the market in abundance next week. Get your appetite all ready for a feast of Ontario cherries—the juicy, healthful fruit that everyone enjoys. Buy Ontario cherries by the basket. Enjoy the fresh fruit. Use them for cakes, pie, salads, jelly, etc. Preserve or can a supply for next winter's use.

Help Ontario cherry growers to sell their crop—it will enable them to spend money for the goods and services you have to offer.

Eat Ontario Cabbage for Health!

Never have Ontario's fall cabbages been finer than this year's big crop. Eat cabbages often for health. They are rich in iron and vitamins, and contain a fibrous material which has been called "the broom of the digestive tract." They are reasonable in price.

ONTARIO

The Ontario Department of Agriculture will publish advertisements from time to time to assist the Ontario producer of farm, orchard and dairy products to sell his goods in his home market—Ontario.

Ontario Department of Agriculture

Col. The Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister. Jas. H. Fairbairn, Deputy Minister

FINANCIAL MARKETS

NEW YORK - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

Speculators in Canada Quit Market Today on Account of Holiday Saturday—Turnover on Walk-er's Falls Off Rapidly—Many Holding For Long Haul—Advances on Mine Board Predicts Brisk Market Next Week—New York Board Fairly Active in Medium Turnover.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, June 30 (CP)—Meeting support in the dips, principal leaders today on the Toronto stock exchange held in a narrow margin with the main trend of the day's slightly downwards on pre-holiday profit-taking.

Distillery stocks fluctuated considerably, going most to lower in the morning before buying support brought the prices up in the final hour and at the close Distillers Seagrams and Walkers showed only fractional losses while Brewers and Distillers of Vancouver, which came in for heavy volume, showed a fair rise of $3.00 after touching the old peak of $3.00.

Canadian Industrial Alcohol issues lost minor fractions in some cases as the breweries were gainers. Oil issues generally yielded fractions to profit-taking but B. A. Oil finished better by a fraction than yesterday.

TORONTO MINES

Toronto, June 30 (CP)—Strength in the gold mining stocks continued to the close today on the Standard Mining Exchange, gains ranging up to $1.75 in the higher priced issue being scored under a fair volume of trading.

All the senior golds advanced. Dome being particularly strong around $36.50, up $1.50 on the day. Hollinger 29 cents, McIntyre up $1.50 and substantial gains in Teck Hughes and Wright Hargreaves were made in the renewed demand which resulted from traders switching away from industrials.

Base Metals were led upward by International Nickel and Noranda with gains of more than $1 each early in the day and traded narrowly around the new levels through the session.

WALL STREET CLOSE

New York, June 30 (AP)—Early reactionary tendencies in the stock market today were largely eradicated by mid-day and prices tended to firm, then on under renewed buying in rails and gold mining shares. The late tone of the market was firm. Homestake skyrocketed 19 points and Alaska Juneau and Some were up about 2. Canada Dry advanced 4 points in heavy trading while issues up 2 to more than 3 included Du Pont, Sears Roebuck, Lackawanna, North Pacific and American Rolling Mills. Transfers approximated 3,500,000 shares.

EXCHANGE RATES

Exchange rates at 3 p.m. E.S.T. today were: Pound sterling in Montreal 4.67; U. S. dollar in Montreal, 1.00½; pound sterling in New York, 4.67½; Canadian dollar in New York 91%.

GRAIN

Closing quotations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as furnished by A. H. Ketcheson and Co. today:

July—Wheat, 57¾, October 75, December 78¾.

Rye—July 59¾, October 63¼, December 63.

Barley—July 41⅞, October 44, December 43.

The exchange will be closed tomorrow, Dominion Day.

jgb, 28, 30

Grain Market

Quotations furnished by Biggar and Gerrard, P. M. Wills branch manager. Quotations at 2.55 p.m. Daylight Saving time.

MINES

Ashley, 1.10.—
Amulet, 36.
Arno, 03¾.
Barry-Hollinger, bid 10.
Base Metals, 2.21.
Central Patricia, 29¼.
Dome, 36.50.
Eldorado, 3.60.
Hollconda, 2.86.
Granada, 1.15.
Hollinger, 29.50.
Hudson's Bay, 9.00.
Hayes, 94.
Kirkland Lake, 39.
Lake Shore, 42.25.
Macassa, 8.
McIntyre, 33.65.
Mining Corporation, 2.10.
McLeod River, 03.
Noranda, 32.75.
Noranda, 32¾.
International Nickel, 20.50.
O'Brien, bid 13.10.
Sherritt, 1.25.
Sisco, 1.10.
Stadacona, 64.
Sudbury Basin, bid 1.70.
Sylvanite, 1.26.
Teck Hughes, 6.40.
Upson, 04.
Ventures, 1.11.
Wright Hargreaves, 6.65.
Ajax, bid 1.12.
Big Dickenson, 38.
Bobjo, 24.
Braiorne, bid 6.50.
Broth, Thrasher, 21.
Brownlee, 04¼.
Can. Malartic, 07¼.
Castle Trethi., 50.
Cent. Manitou, 13¼.
Coast Copper, bid 5.50.
Coniaurum, bid 83.
Fred. Kirkland, 13.
Goldale, 17.
Kirk Townsite, 37.
Malartic, 15.
Malmbile, 40.
Manitoba Basin, 05¼.
Moffatt Hall, 03.
Mont. Mines, 06.
McVittie, 63.
McWatters, 64.
Premier, 1.15.
Reno, 2.31.
St. Anthony, bid 36.
S. Antonio, 1.10.
Wayside, 4.
Waite Ackerman, 1.35.

TORONTO

B. A. Oil, 15.
Imperial Oil, 9¾.
McColl Frontenac, 13¼.
International Pete, bid 19¼.
Supertest, 19½.
Distil. Seagrams, 23.
Walkers, 37¼.
Walker's pfd., 15¼.
Can. Ind. Alcohol, 11¼.
Canada Bud, 8¾.
Can. Breweries, big 11.
Bell Telephone, bid 105.
C.P.R., 16.
Canada Cement, 7¼.
Canada Malt, 31.
Dockasnit, 13.
Ford A, 13¾.
Massey Harris, bid 13¼4.
Loblaw A, 14¼.
Montreal Power, 36¾.
Massey Harris, bid 8¾.
Page Hersey, bid 64.
Power Corporation, bid 13¼.
Shawinigan, 17⅝.
Brazilian, 4¼.

NEW YORK

American Can, 91.
Austin, 03¼.
Am. Por. Power, 16¾.
Anaconda, 16¾.
N.Y. Central, 41¾.
Case, 89¼.
Drug, 60¾.
Elec. Auto Lite, 23¼.
Gen. Elec. 16¾.
General Motors, 26¾.
Inter. Telephone, 18¾.
Standard Oil of N.J., 37¼.
Chrysler, 34¼.
North American, 31¼.
Nat. Dairy Prod. 23½.
Montgomery Ward 24¾.
Radio, 9¼.
Standard Brands 27¼.
Stewart Warner, 7¼.
Amer. Tel. and T. 127⅛.
United Aircraft 34¼.
Vanadium 25¾.
Westinghouse, 45¼.
U.S. Steel, 46¼.

Most French wines today come from grapevines having American root stocks, the result of an agitating by the vine growers when an American insect almost ruined French vineyards. A commission visited France to import American root stock resistant to the pest.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Bird's Ideal Summer Resort, Oak Lake

NOW OPEN—FREE TO PUBLIC

Tennis Court, Diving Tower with Slide and Spring Board, Dressing Rooms, Swings, Horse Shoe Pitching Courts, Trotter-boards, Picnic Tables, Bridge or Lunch Tables with easy Chairs under sunshades. Arrange for an afternoon bridge game. Everything electrically lighted. Something new. A Children's Playground—Come and enjoy it kiddies.

Fully equipped cabins for rent by day or week.

Having secured an experienced short order cook from Toronto, we are prepared to serve dainty lunch-es at city prices. Electric refrigeration for ice cream. Free checking Service.

We cordially invite the public to use our grounds, but prohibit rolled down bathing suits, trunks only, and profanity.

Make Bird's Resort your Summer Recreation Headquarters.

India exported 55,000,000 pounds of tea in a recent month.

Liver Trouble

There is perhaps no organ in the body which, when it is abnormal in its function produces as far-reaching effects as does the liver. The liver is not only the largest gland in the body, but it is concerned in the process of digestion and also that system which serves to break down waste materials which would otherwise contaminate and carry on a destructive process.

Chiropractors relieve sufferers of liver trouble permanently by removing the pressure from the the nerves that supply the liver with life.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
Licensed Drugless Practitioners
BELLEVILLE, Ont.
421½ Bridge St. E. Phone 1274

LATE JUSTICE'S ESTATE

TORONO, June 30 —(CP)—Mrs. Mary Hamilton Logie, inherits the $667,31 estate left by her husband Mr. Justice William Alexander Logie who died June 6th.

Fredric March, Carole Lombard and Cary Grant in "The Eagle and the Hawk" featuring Jack Oakie coming to the Belle Theatre tomorrow.

George Sidney and Charlie Murray in "The Cohens and Kellys in Trouble".

Reginald Owen as Sherlock Holmes in "A Study in Scarlet", Both Feature Attractions at the Capitol tomorrow (Saturday).

ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to announce that after JULY 1ST. our office will be located at 32 BRIDGE ST. E., formerly occupied by Mowatt and MacGillivray, Brokers.

A. H. KETCHESON CO.

Correspondents of
J. H. CROSBY AND CO.
Members of Standard Stock and Mining Exchange
Winnipeg Grain Exchange
Montreal Curb
PHONE 291

Proclamation

PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Owing to the fact that July 1st, observed as a Public Holiday throughout the Dominion, falls on Saturday, and, as the Merchants of the City have decided to close their places of business on Monday, July 3rd, I would respectfully request that all citizens observe Monday, July 3rd, as a Public Holiday, instead of Saturday, July 1st.

GEO. O. TICE, MAYOR

jgb, 28, 30

For Rent Furnished

For July and August

TWO FINE HOMES—ONE ON EAST HILL AND ONE ON THE WEST HILL.

All Conveniences—Reasonable Rent—Very Comfortable

Belleville Locators

GEO. N. GORMAN, Prop.
'PHONE 99 HOUSE 'PHONE 667

F. C. Martin & Son
FUNERAL HOME
210-212 CHURCH ST.
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
PHONE 2005

FLOYD E. MARTIN
WILLIAM J. HARRISON

BELLEVILLE BURIAL COMPANY
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
27 Campbell St.
Phone 716-W Day and Night
J. WM. IMLAH
Proprietor
Mausoleum Crypts For Sale

TICKELL & BROWNE
Charles W. Browne
Orland A. Pinkston
Funeral Directors
FUNERAL HOME
At the Quiet Corner of
Victoria Ave. and Church St.

THOMPSON FUNERAL SERVICE
Thos. C. Thompson
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Phone 62 — 288 Front St.
Nights and Sundays 1313

MONUMENTS

A. C. Campbell
Memorial Craftsman
21 Bridge West Phone 1187

Auto Loans

CARS REFINANCED
NEW LOWER RATES
S. J. Fisher & Son
20 BRIDGE ST.
Representing
Campbell Auto Finance Co. Ltd.
Toronto, Ontario

jgb-Tu-F-tf

McAlpine Inn

Pandash Lake, Near Bancroft

NOW OPEN

All modern conveniences. Very low rates. Good fishing. Special attention to families and week-end parties. For further information write or phone

HOTEL BANCROFT
At Bancroft

jgb, 30

Big Dividends In Personal Appearance

The cost of keeping summer clothes at their peak of immaculateness is very small this year. Holiday fun is greater, too, for you don't have to worry over mishaps. Modern keeps you looking at your finest at all times.

MODERN

CLEANERS AND DYERS

192 Front St. Phone 728
If Modern Cleaned It's Clean

BUSINESS LINERS

MILLINERY

Mrs. Harman announces her July Sale of Millinery. Genuine bargains. 42 1-2 Bridge Street E. (Upstairs.) 130-tf

AUCTION SALE

Household Effects at 272 William street, on Tuesday, July 4th at one thirty o'clock.

Cco. O. Tice,
Auctioneer.

139-2t

LOST

SMALL TAN AND WHITE POMeranian Dog. Kindly call 228 George street. 'Phone 2049. Reward. 139-1t

BARBER SHOP FOR SALE

Good location. TOBACCO store for sale or rent. Apply Box W, Ontario Intelligencer. 130-2t

Classified Ad. Rates

PHONE 99

SOCIAL NOTICES—Births, 50c; Marriages and Engagements Notices, 1.00; Deaths and Funeral Notices, 01.00; In Memoriam, 01.00; Memorial Poetry, minimum charge, 01.00 for 24 lines or less; 1½c per word thereafter; Cards of thanks minimum charge 01.00.

CLASSIFIED — (For Sale, Wanted, Lost)—1½c per word per insertion first TWO insertions, subsequent insertions 1c per word. Minimum charge 30 words.

COMING EVENTS—2½c per insertion for 30 words or less; over that 1c per word per insertion.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS, LEGAL AND BUSINESS CARDS—(Yearly Contract) $1.00 per month per inch.

OFFICIAL, MUNICIPAL AND GOVERNMENT ADVERTISING—Rates those governing Legal Notices (Mortgage Sales, Wills, Estates, etc.) but first insertion 10c per line for subsequent insertions.

AUCTION SALES—Bills per week, handle to count as 12 words; minimum 25 words for 75c; consecutive insertions, 3c per word.

An initial or figure counts as one word.

In estimating allow five words to the line.

Telephone your Want Ads—PHONE 99 is the number to remember. PHONE 99 The Ontario Intelligencer will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an Error. Please advise us if it is wrong.

Advertisers will have their replies addressed to Box Number care of the Ontario Intelligencer.

WANTED

AT ONCE, 3-BURNER COAL OIL stove with oven, linoleum about fourteen by eighteen feet. Apply Demorestville, R. 1. 130-1t

TO RENT, MODERN HOME, FIVE bedrooms. All conveniences, near school. Write Box R Ontario Intelligencer. 130-3t

AT ONCE, COOK GENERAL FOR Camp. Apply evenings to Mrs. C. O. Walker, 221 John street. 130-2t

ALSIKE CLOVER COULD HANdle a limited quantity, at reasonable cash price, for export. C. E. Bishop & Son, Belleville, Ont. 126-3t

MAN WITH CAR TO HANDLE OUR business locally. Good pay and opportunity. Express allowance. Write immediately, Fuller Brush Co., Peterboro. 128-3t

WORK WANTED

CARPENTERING AND PAPER hanging and painting of all kinds. H. Gerow 161 Church Street. 127-6t

WANTED—HOGS AND CALVES shipped from Londale every Tuesday. Phone collect before twelve o'clock. Phone Scott Bros. Belleville, or Russell, Napanee. Phone 412. a15-e1-tf

TO-LET

$14 WILL RENT 5-ROOM HOUSE 32 Sinclair street. Newly decorated. Hardwood floors. 'Phone 2296. Possession at once. 130-2t

ONE OR TWO FURNISHED rooms; suitable for light housekeeping. Phone 2172 after 6 p.m. 130-2t

FOUR ROOM DWELLING FURnished, three piece bath, electric light, cellar, garage. Newly decorated throughout. Immediate. Mrs. Bruce Bottum, John street. 130-2t

5-ROOM HOUSE, ALL CONVENiences. Apply 46 North Front or Phone 1847W. 130-2t

SUMMER COTTAGE PARTLY furnished screened veranda. Apply Dan Goswell or 'Phone 298 Reg L. Pinkney. 129-1t

FRONT STREET APARTMENT Suitable for business or housekeeping, corner Victoria Avenue. Apply Mrs. Marsakas, 'Phone 1726 128-3t

52 EARL ST. 6 ROOMS AND bath. Garage. Possession July 1st. Apply 20 Howard street. 128-tf.

HOUSE WITH LARGE GARDEN and garage. Modern conveniences 12 Albion St. or call 9082. 128-tf.

MODERN APARTMENT, STEAM heated, electric refrigrator and stove, hardwood floors. Apply Ontario Intelligencer. 121-tf

5 ROOM APARTMENT HEATED or otherwise. Electric stove, electric refrigerator, hardwood floor. Garage. Apply 6, Thompson's, 104 Dundas St. W., 'Phone 869W. a26-tf

Taxpayers' Notice

Special meeting of all Taxpayers of the City of Belleville, Friday night at 8 p.m. in the City Hall. All taxpayers take notice and come to this meeting. 129-2t

FOR SALE

1 CHEV. COUPE, GOOD RUNNING condition. Cheap for quick sale. Apply 32 Bridge street. 130-2t

500 FT. NEW WHITE PINE INCH and sanding. Phone 1349F. 129-1t

FOURTEEN FOOT SKIFF AND auto trailer for sale. Apply 144 Albert street. 130-1t

ONE TRUCK CHASSIS AND CAB, 1927 new Rake Metal Co. and one spare 30x5, H.D. Eleven months in service, in excellent condition, for sale. 130-1t

ALSO 1929 TRUCK 1 1-2 TON. Stake body and call at real bargain price. Apply Trudeau Motor Sales, Belleville, 118 Front. 54. Phone 765.

SIDWAY SAND WICKER BABY carriage. Invincible. Good condition. Cost $24.50, sell for $15 cash. 34 Henry street. 130-1t

Taxpayers' Notice

Special meeting of all Taxpayers of the City of Belleville, Friday night at 8 p.m. in the City Hall. All taxpayers take notice and come to this meeting. 129-2t

INSURANCE

BONE & MARTIN LIMITED

General Insurance Agents
137 Front St.
Phone 1366 - Belleville

Protect yourself against accidents with our Automobile Insurance.

SANDY BURROWS and HOWARD FROST

Life and Fire Insurance
231 Front St. Phone

HALL & EARL

General Insurance, mobile Accident, Plate
218 Front Street Phone

Business Directory

PLUMBING, HEATING, RAVETRROUGHING
Gasoline Repairs
F. WHITE
PHONE 1378
j1-1m.

LEGAL

T. Y. WILLS, BARRISTER, SOLIcitor, Notary Public, &c., 18 Campbell St., Belleville. Telephone 74. m4-1z

PORTER, PAYNE & ARNOTT, Barristers, Solicitors, and Notaries Public, Solicitors for Royal Bank. Chas A. Payne, K.C., R. D. Arnott. Offices: 219 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

MALCOLM WRIGHT, BARRISter, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Office Campbell Street, Belleville.

PONTON, PONTON & GRAHAM, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners.. Offices: 38 Bridge East, Belleville. Solicitors Bank of Montreal. Money to loan on favourable terms. W. Ponton, K.C., R. D. Ponton, K.C., R. J. E. Graham, Office: Belleville.

WALLBRIDGE, CAMERON AND Co. (Successors to the late F. B. Wallbridge), Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries. Money to loan. Dominion Bank Building, corner Front and Bridge streets, Belleville, Ontario.

BUTLER & BUTLER, BARRISters, Solicitors, Notaries, etc. Office of bridge street E. E. J. Butler, K.C., Ormonda Butler.

R. C. DONNAN, COUNTY CROWN Attorney, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc. Offices: Court House Building, Belleville, Ontario.

CHIROPRACTOR

R. A. WYATT, Ph.C., SPECIAL examination with the Radiscant reveals all defects in the human frame. Foot disorders corrected, all diseases treated. Phone 900 or write 208 Dundas St., Belleville. Pirton, Tuesdays and Fridays.

H. R. and Vera B. Pitcher
CHIROPRACTORS
Honour Graduates
Palmer-Nesbitt Science
42½ Bridge St. E.
Phone 1274 Belleville, Ont

MEDICAL

DR. JOHN J. ROBERTSON, F.A.C.S.
DR. H. CHARLES ADAMS, M.D.C.M.
Westbrook X-Ray Equipment at office.
Office Hours:
8 to 10 a.m. 1 to 3 p.m. 7 to 8 p.m.
217 Pinnacle St. East, Belleville.
Phone 271

o8-6m.

OSTEOPATH

Hours 9-12 1-5 P.M.
Phone 1695
A. E. Hubbs, D.O.
OSTEOPATH
17 Ferris St.
Belleville, Ont.
Evenings by Appointment

STOCKS AND BONDS

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD, MEMbers of Toronto Stock Exchange. Phone 1738. P. H. Wills, Branch Manager. m5-1y.

FRASER AYLESWORTH

Ontario Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Civil Engineer. Land Surveys, Plans and Descriptions, etc., promptly attended to. PHONE—P. O. BOX 69 MADOC, ONT.

ACCOUNTANTS (CHARTERED)

ROSS E. NEAL
Chartered Accountant
Belleville, Ont.
Telephone 1364 137 Front St.

News of TRENTON and DISTRICT

By Special Correspondent

1300 FANS AT BOXING BOUTS

Eleven Events Staged For Aid of Relief Sport Fund

Trenton, June 30 (Special)—The third and last boxing tournament of the spring season sponsored by Relief Project No. 28 at the local base of the Royal Canadian Air Force was held last night before thirteen hundred rabid fans who were treated to eleven real good bouts.

Jimmy Leonard, former Ontario 126 pound champion, surprised the fans when he gained a decision over Ken. Robinson of the Trenton Canadian Corps of Signals, Ontario middleweight champion, in four rounds. The bout called the bout a draw and called for an extra round but Robinson clinched the fight to Leonard as he could not continue. Most fans thought Leonard should be given the decision at the end of the bout as he had the clearer progry and Leonard was favored with the last three rounds with the first one even. Howard Cole, the best hitting boy from Trenton, knocked out Signalman Peary of Camp Borden in the first round with a terrific blow to the head. Cole knocked Cable out at the last tournament with Cable weighing nearly 30 lbs. more than Cole. Bobby Kisse of Trenton, formerly of Belleville, staged a comeback after a year's absence from the ring when his opponent's seconds tossed the towel in the third round of their four round fight with Noel Lodge of Oshawa.

Gerde Morris, Belleville's pride as a bantamweight, lost the decision to Chris Mason of Oshawa after the two lads had fought an extra round of their 3-round contest.

Eddie Ia Second.

Bill Williams of Toronto quit in the second round and Cec. Simmons of Oshawa began to pound him at will.

Battling Angus Duffy won by a technical K. O. over Bob Schroeder of Belleville who gained rounds of applause by the hammering he took from the latter in the first chest bout and the hardest hitting of the evening.

Bill Crawford of Belleville K. O'd Bill Blackford of Otawa in a very little affair.

Little Len Maracle of Point Anne gained the decision over dancing Bill Smith of Oshawa. "Chuck" Peris of Trenton won after an extra round from Ray Crawford of Belleville. Gilbert Hamilton of Trenton gained the points over O. Burnett after an extra round in the first bout on the card.

Reg. Sergt.-Major T. J. Wallace of the R.C.C.S. at Camp Borden acted as referee. Wallace is a former middleweight champion of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines.

Mr. Charles Treverton of Belleville, William House and K. Couch of Trenton acted as judges.

The hard decisions given before the intermission caused rounds of laughter when six boxers entered the ring blindfolded. Some real hard blows were landed before the last man on his feet was declared the winner.

Credit is due to W. Adams, the trainer at the airport, and the work of Flying Officer L. E. Wray, sports officer, who is in charge of the boys and Wing Commander J. S. Breadner, D.S.C., to whose permission the fights are held.

Last night's fight results at the airport were:

Giani Shulman, Regina, gained decision over G. Burnett of Hamilton after an extra round.

"Chuck" Peris, Trenton, decision over Ray Crawford, Belleville, after an extra round.

Len Maracle, Point Anne, decision over Bill Smith, Oshawa.

Bill Crawford, Belleville, knocked out Bill Blackford, Otawa, in the first round.

Battling Duffy, Trenton, gained technical K. O. over Bob Schroeder of Belleville.

Vic Simmons, Oshawa, defeated Bill Williams of Toronto after referee stopped bout in second round.

Chris Mason, Oshawa, gained decision over Gerde Morris, Belleville, after an extra round.

Scotty Kline, Trenton, defeated Noel Lodge, Oshawa, after his second round in the local ring.

Howard Cole, Trenton, knocked out Signalman Peary of Camp Borden in the first round.

Howard Cole, Trenton, knocked out Signalman Peary of Camp Borden in the first round.

Jimmy Leonard gained decision over Ken Robinson, Ontario middleweight champion, after Robinson refused to go an extra round.

Monroe Win.

Monroe Win.

Montroe Gary for handed R.C.A.F. softballers a 11 to 1 trimming last evening in repay for the defeat the flyers handed them at their last meeting. Waldron of the dairymen limited the R.C.A.F. hitting and knocked a homer with Slight and Borden on bases in the third. Bruce Burtt pitched his first full game of the season and turned in a good striking out five of his opponents. Each team was credited with but one error and a double play combination was executed by the boys from the air camp when Lance Hammond threw one to Fellows who threw to second to Wilson who fired back to first getting Lawrence.

Montroe Dairy—Bliss, ss.; Bowden, 3b.; Waldron, lf.; Kennedy, c.; Heavey, 1b.; Lawrence, 2b.; Bell, c.f.; Dawson, r.f.; Burtt, p.

R.C.A.F.—Gibbe, ss.; Maslish, 3b.; Fellows, 1b.; Reeve, c.; Gould, 2b.; Drolet, c.f.; Wray, 3b and ss.; Pafford, r.f.; Winder, l.f.; Ceflta, p.; Seguros and Cefleta in the seventh.

Score by innings:

Montroe Dairy ... 0 0 4 0 2 2 3 —11
R.C.A.F. ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0—1

Umpires—Pisle, Long; bases, K. Chambers.

R. WALDRON HEART VICTIM

Well Known Trentonian Fatally Stricken While Attending Bout

Trenton, June 30—(Special)—This town is today in deep mourning for the sudden loss of one of its most popular and widely known citizens. Thursday evening, Robert Cameron Waldron was in attendance at the boxing tournament held at the airport and shortly before the intermission in the program he felt a choking attack coming on and made his way to the entrance to the lobby where he was stricken with a heart attack and expired before medical aid could reach him.

The late Mr. Waldron was born in Murray Township, 54 years ago, the son of the late Richard and Margaret (Young) Waldron. He successfully farmed in Murray till some four years ago, when he retired, and came to Trenton to reside. For a short time Mr. Waldron was engaged on construction work at Alnlite and Parnkford. The deceased was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and Trent Lodge No. 38 A.F. and A.M. To those left to mourn a most esteemed husband and brother, the sympathy of the entire community is extended.

Surviving are the widow, previous to marriage, Miss Verna Moran of Belleville; a brother, Fred at Brandon, Man.; and five sisters (Emma) Mrs. Jack Little, Yorke Rd. (Isobel) Mrs. J. W. Crews in Murray Township and Mrs. A. E. Hammond of Kamloops, B.C. at present visiting here, and Misses Annie and Jessie of Trenton.

The funeral will be held from his late residence, Saturday afternoon.

Right Uppercut to Jaw Wins Carnera Crown by Knockout in Sixth

Shakey in Good Fighting Form Defeated by Blow

SHARKEY FORCES

Once Freak in Side-Show Now Heivyweight Champion

Madison Squaer Garden Bowl, New York, June 30 — With one sweep of a paw that must have felt like a cobblestone wrapped in the leather sack, huge Primo Carnera, once a freak in a circus side-show, knocked out Jack Sharkey in the sixth round last night to win the heavyweight championship of the world after being belted all over the premises for the greater part of five rounds.

It was a stunning ending to a savage battle that tore through the battle pit of the Madison Square Garden's big arena on Long Island, an ending as amazing to the scant crowd of 16,000 as the knockout that Max Baer scored over Max Schmeling in the ring at the same spot a year ago extravaganzas.

Sneering at Carnera's 260½ lbs., the lanky height and tremendous reach, Sharkey forced the issue from the start. He wove forward, hands close to his body, feinting the mammoth Italian into pawing at his head the champion bobbed under, came up inside with two fast flailings to the body, or crossed with rights that started the man mountain trembling as though the earth were quaking under him.

After the first round in which Carnera might have had a slight advantage due to his punching the clean, Sharkey took the sixth, made a slow of the man he beat early two years ago in Boberg Field.

Even in the sixth, with the round almost ended, there was no hint of impending disaster for the champion. Sharkey bobbed in, as he had been doing from the start. Carnera, his opening, then flung a long, crashing right at the champion's jaw.

The massive Italian pulled back, his lips drawn from his white and mouthguard. A kind of a foolish grin. He mumbled something like "Good, Good," as Sharkey tore back. Then he lifted his tremendous right fist to the champion's jaw as they came to grips. The punch was a short uppercut inside as they were on the ropes.

Crumples to Floor

Sharkey crumpled to the floor by the ropes, stretched flat on his back, and lay there for a count of six with one amazed roar. As Referee Arthur Donovan picked up the count Sharkey never stirred. He was just beginning to move. His face buried in the canvas, his hands to his head, as the final 10 was tolled two minutes, twenty-seven seconds after the start of the sixth. Then his arms locked in and he dragged the beaten champion to his corner, still apparently in a daze.

If Sharkey came up to his prebattle statements the ring picture of him slumped in his chair, water from the bottle of his frantic seconds cascading over his hair, his closed eyes and his body, will be the last faithful will see of the man who has flared so spectacularly through his heavyweight career.

Right up to the first eight years. Right up to the final punch he was "fighting" one of the greatest battles of his career.

Bobbing, feinting, his lips in a thin snarl, eyes flashing between narrowed slits, the Boston sailor rip-ped into battle in flashes. He moved the giant Italian around, found his openings, then lashed his punches—long rights to the head—left hooks to the body, straight to the mark.

Slugs It Out

Three times in the second round, Sharkey's right cracked on Carnera's chin obviously hurting him, the third was close as Carnera, grabbing the champion in his great arms, heaved him about the ring.

So rough did the Italian become in the fourth round that he was twice warned by Referee Donovan against hitting and hitting and again for backhanding. But Sharkey's expression never changed. He stalked his man carefully, making him miss, giving him his only chances in the clinches, where Carnera's tremendous power held all the advantage.

A swarming attick in the fifth broke through Carnera's arms, and for a moment it seemed as though the Italian's course was run. He reeled as Sharkey chased him savagely, relentlessly, thudding left hooks to the body, winging every ounce of power he had behind his right to the head. Near the end of the round the right again landed full and clean again. Carnera's legs spread wide, is eyes stared a second and his hands started down but before Sharkey could get set for another clean smash the huge natural guard of Carnera's arms slid up again. He held tight and the bell rang.

But it Didn't Count

Sharkey had all the better of the sixth, and had Carnera in even graver danger when the final blow crashed him down. The Associated Press score card gave Sharkey four of the first five rounds, credited Carnera with only the first.

Sharkey, at 201 pounds, conceded Carnera almost 60 pounds in weight and the strain was obvious. A far better boxer even than he had been met, improved in his hitting, Carnera still was no match for Sharkey in ring generalship and clean punching. But one hefty belt with all his weight behind it offset that in the final exchange.

Carnera's victory gave him several firsts in the book of heavyweight records. He is the biggest man ever to win the greatest of boxing's crowns.

Originally a circus strong man, discovered in a carnival in France, Carnera was scarcely taken seriously as a boxer after his first barnstorming tour of the United States, in which he piled up a string of questionable knockouts.

Madison Square Garden Bowl, New York, June 29—A secret right uppercut, practiced in utmost privacy—the punch everybody said he couldn't learn—was the blow that brought the heavyweight championship of the world to Primo Carnera.

"Every day I practice it for months," the man mountain crowed in his guttural, broken English, as he sat in his dressing-room after his sensational victory over Jack Sharkey.

"Nobody thought Primo had uppercut, I show 'em, hah? I felt better every round,"—the illustrates with a flourish of his huge fists. "I feel feeling good when he went down. He never hurt me once."

And the great fellow pounded his chest and grinned with an expanse

Webster in Cigars means Quality

NOW 5¢

Smoke them and appreciate the difference

VACATION NEEDS

Bathing Pants and Shirts, Underwear, Shirts, Hosiery, Socks, all light weights needed.

H. S. JYMONS

Phone 135

Baseball—Double Header

Sat. Afternoon, Dominion Day, July 1st

CRACK

Toronto Hawks

At

Belleville

NATIONALS

First Game Called at 2.00 p.m.

ADMISSION 33c PLUS TAX

Cars Free

This is a baseball treat—2 scheduled games—One Admission—Belleville and District Fans Don't Miss It.

CURRENT SPORT

Knocks and Boosts

For some years back we have continually been approached by local baseball fans relating to the possibilities of playing ball and free series games in Belleville on a Saturday date. At last we have lived to see those arrangements completed and Saturday afternoon not only brings a senior baseball game to Belleville but a double header, and all for one admission.

x x x

Despite the fact that the Toronto Black Hawks, who are the Nat's. opponents on Dominion Day, fared rather poorly recently at the hands of the Kingston Frontes we understand that the Hawks have strengthened to no small degree and are now breaking the second place New Toronto outfit in the West Toronto loop race. One of the features to be presented by the visitors is their hefty hurler, "Beef" O'Halloran, who has scales at 225 pounds and tosses a mean ball over the plate for good measure.

x x x

For years past the fans about Belleville have been shouting "give us new faces to watch on the ball park" and this little request has been granted and the fans can now sit back and see players in other localities with out-of-town players particularly pasting some of the old favorites who have been seen on a local diamond before. Any how we understand that the youthful charges of "Peeney" Mills have sure been running in tough luck. The crew headed Smith of the Frontes assured us on Wednesday, that his nemesis was a team loose as many heart-breaking games as the Nationals have this year. With Weir, Utrouhl, Matthews, Smith and Holmes available for pitching duty the Nationals are not counting on two wins Saturday.

x x x

Every Dominion Day the annual Senior Doubles is the order of the day at the local lawn bowling green. This annual affair is generally tied up on the first day of the play, the rear. There is an unusually large entry this year which will make it necessary to start playing at 9 a.m. and complete the matches so that they are finished that evening. All local lawn bowlers are most anxious to obtain one of the passes at the Exhibition Park and with the large list of entries which is now on hand bowling is promised. Such old timers as Geordie and Alf Symons, Chas. Sulman, Arthur McGie, Bob Dewer, Wally Walsh and a host of other veterans are sure to dominate the green that day it's safe to say.

x x x

Official word was received from Kingston yesterday that the Intermourite Lawn was no longer available for girls' softball. This affects the Belleville-area received President Deazon and Secretary Vanderwoort over the following which it was announced, that Friday night's softball game between Trenton and same would be played at Victoria Park. The new diamond recently constructed there by the Parks Commission. In the meantime pending other arrangements relative to the use of the Armouries Lawn will be brought to bear.

x x x

fans at the College field proved most unsportsmanlike with the result that future games between the Cubs and the Bearcats will be played elsewhere.

Johnnie Bawden was on the hillton for the Cubs and was particularly invincible when he let the Cubs down with five small hits and but one run. Farmers also tried to stop the Bearcats, failed badly.

Even at the Cricket Field Grills' Garage nine continued their present winning streak by downing McNabb by the score of 18 to 5.

Delaney Bearcats—Ed. Denis, Caulin, Herns, Bawden, Green, C. Tuttle, H. Bawden, F. Tuttle, J. Bawden and Bailey.

College Hill—Lupenette, F. Murray, Green, Riley, Farmer, Robinson, J. Murray, Jenkinson, McDonald, Miller and Shillis.

Score by innings:

Delaney's . . 6 2 1 4 0 0 0—13 12 3
College Hill 0 0 0 0 1 0 0— 1 5 2

At the Cricket Field:

Grills' . . . . 0 0 2 3 3 4—18 runs
McNabb's . . 1 0 2 0 1 1 0— 5 runs

STUNNED BY LIGHTNING

BRANTFORD, Ont., June 30.—(CP)—Struck by lightning during a severe electrical storm which struck Wilsonville village south of here yesterday, Roy and Wilson Vernon were stunned as they worked in the tobacco fields. They were rushed to a doctor in Waterford, where they were revived.

Average length of a lion's life is 40 years.

For the first time since he started out on his triumphant trek towards the championship of the wrestling world Al Getzewich, known to all local sport fans as the Masked Marvel, will appear minus his old stocking in Belleville next Wednesday. Belleville wrestling fans will have the honor of seeing Getzewich appear in his first match without his mask Promoter Joe Corcoran informs us. Al meets Bruno Gorasini, heavyweight champion of Italy. . .

x x x

Marse Joe also tells us, that Sandor Szabo will have to change his tactics if he is to throw Stanley Pinto, the village bad-man in the final go. Pinto, it seems is a rough bomber, when he is tossed over the ropes as a headliner. He recently tossed Gus Sonenberg out of the ring and the ex-football star did not come back either. On the other hand Szabo can be rough, when the occasion arises, this he clearly demonstrated in the Maple Leaf Garden bout two weeks ago.

x x x

According to Physical Director Ralph Meeden there is more than a normal amount of interest being taken in this year's across-the-bay swim that is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. The large and valuable trophies are now on display in Ostrom's drug store window, supporting four large cups as well as the Bert Graham shield. Entries for the outside the city have been received with Gar Kelly of Kingston, who won the junior class last year, being entered in the senior race this season. The race is set for Saturday morning with the seniors swimming from the Government Dock in Rossmore and return while the ladies, juveniles and juniors swim from the south side of the bay to the local dock, accompanying the senior boys on their return trip of the splash. Some of the records which were established some years ago are expected to be lowered this year.

x x x

Last night's affair at the College Field when Vic Hanna received the decision over Johnny during a free-for-all fight was most regrettable. When the time came for Belleville fans swarm out on the field and participate in hostilities, which often its time to stop softball—or at least refuse to give any games in that immediate vicinity.

x x x

No logical reason can be established to warrant the fans swarming on to the field under any circumstances. The umpires and players can always attend to such situations. The sentiment, however, it looks as though the Cubs just can't help it, as we understand that they have been scrapping and fighting among themselves of late. No matter how high the feeling may run between the players the fans should be restricted to the side-lines. An example of some of the chief offenders might help in the future.

x x x

The smart set who laid their money on Sharkey because they were sure of a Sharkey-Baer fight in the offing sure slipped a cog.

AUSTRALIAN WHEAT FARLEY

SYDNEY, Australia, Friday, June 30.—(AP)—The Federal Government today called a special conference of the wheat producing states to be held here tomorrow to consider a proposal for the wheat industry plan worked out at the London Conference.

BRUNO GORASSINI

Who recently came from Italy after he annexed the Italian heavyweight wrestling crown and immediately meets Al Getzewich, of masked marvel fame at the Arena Wednesday.

FARMERS WAGE NEW CAMPAIGN

Within 10 Days Hoppers Will Be in Wing Stage

Winnipeg, June 30. — (CP)— Farmers in Western Canada, hopes renewed heavy rains in districts where drought and grasshoppers threatened destruction of the 1933 crop, today were preparing to wage a new campaign. They will have about 10 days to prepare their defences.

Drenching rain during the past 48 hours has assured much needed moisture in fields covering districts of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, but the grasshoppers' menace has taken a new turn. Within a week or ten days the hoppers will have developed into the winged stage, spreading from field to field, but never staying in one area long enough to bring total destruction.

In the grasshopper front thousands of gallons of poison-bait will be spread during the next few days, and campaigners hope for dull weather, and showers to aid them. In dull weather the grasshoppers lie dormant.

TWIN BILL IS OFFERED

Black Hawks and Nationals Will Tangle Twice on Saturday

With a twin bill being offered to the fans on Saturday afternoon when the Toronto Black Hawks of the West Toronto League meet Bill Mills' Nationals of the O.B.E. in a regular interlocking scheduled league tilt—incidentally rounds in both league standings, some real baseball is assured the fans of this district.

In years past the central loop moguls changed the rules of double headers but at the suggestion of President Reazon of the West Toronto loop the interlocking idea was sponsored by the local league in line with the understanding that all such games would be of the twinbill type.

The Black Hawks, who have strengthened considerably of late and now are fast closing in on the second place New Toronto outfit in the West Toronto loop, boast of the largest in stature hurler in Canada in Jim Hannah of the 250 pound scales at just above the 220 pound mark. Offensively is one of the leading hurlers in his league and is expected to stand up under the rifle threats at the exhibition park Saturday afternoon in one of the two scheduled games. Hannah's slugging mates constitute the other pitchers on the batting staff of the Hawks. Ed Keating looks after the receiving duties and is also the team's best hitter, boasting of an average of .335 thus far this season. Bennett, who formerly starred with Trenton, is pouted to be an infielder of note, while Edwards, the initial sacker, is the club's fastest player and also the first baseman with the best mitt in the thick of the West Toronto League fight and can be counted on to give the Nationals a real struggle.

Manager "Peeney" Mills announced today that Vinny Utrouhl would start one of the two games opposing Ernie Smith, Jim Matthews, Alex Weir and Holmes for relief duty and Johnnie Bawden will be the hurler being offered for one admission on Saturday afternoon when a record crowd than usual is being anticipated.

New Swim Suits

Models and Combination Effects in All Wool

Quick & Robertson

CORRECT CLOTHING FOR MEN

AUTHORIZED Ford SERVICE

We invite you to visit our garage and inspect our facilities for giving complete service to motorists. Including Service Truck and the following branches of repair work:

Motor and Chassis Reconditioning — Electrical Repairs — Batteries Recharged — Painting — Body and Fender Repairs — Complete Greasing Service.

—Stock of Genuine Ford Parts Always on Hand—

TRUDEAU MOTOR SALES

Phone 765 118 Front St.

OPEN ALL NIGHT

From now on we will remain open all night and no matter what hour you come in you will receive the same quick and efficient service as in the past.

QUICK LUNCHES—COOLING DRINKS—SANDWICHES

PATSY'S SANDWICH SHOP

NEXT TO QUEEN'S HOTEL—FRONT ST.

YOUNGSTERS—Fourteen two-year-old maidens break from the barrier in wild dash at Aqueduct race track

MEN'S SENIOR SOFTBALL

Continuing in their triumphant march towards the league championship the Delaney Bearcats literally swamped the slipping College Hill Cubs by the score of 13 to 1 in one of the most hectic games of the season at the College field last evening.

Flights among the players only kindled the feelings of the crowd until a general fistic encounter ensued when some 400 odd swarmed on the field and entered into one of the outbreaks with the result that Vic Hanna, of the Bearcats was seriously injured. The actions of the

Prepare Now for the Week-End Holiday

Select your Summer Suit and Flannels today. Tropical Worsteds and Lightweight Tweeds and Flannels.

Priced 13.95 up

Grey or Cream Flannel Trousers, for Golf and Outing Wear.

2.85 to 7.00

Shaw's Men's Wear

THE STORE OF FASHION

224 Front St. Phone 490

KI-Y SOFTBALL

Two juvenile and one bantam softball games were played in the Ki-Y League last night with the Blue Birds defeating the Black Hawks by the score of 17 to 5 in the bantam series and Die Hards also winning from St. Michael's by the score of 14 to 8, while the Orioles upset the apple cart by winning streak by beating them 11 to 1.

At Q.M.S.

Lucky Strikes 0 0 1 0 0 0 — 1 runs
Die Hards . . 4 3 1 3 3 1 — 14 runs
St. Michaels . 2 0 2 1 0 2 0 — 8 runs

Umpire—Tobe.

At Q.M.S.

Orioles . . . . 3 0 2 4 2 0 — 11 runs
Blue Birds . . 0 0 0 0 0 1 — 1 run

Umpire—Tobe.

Simple Remedy For Bad Stomach Gives Swift Relief

No Need of Strong Medicines or Diet. Safe and Simple Home Recipe Keeps Stomach in Fine Condition

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—Gas, Sourness, Bloating, Heartburn—you may have quick and certain relief by following this simple method.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial digestants or pull down your system with starvation diets. For within reason most folks can eat what they like if they will keep their stomach free from souring acids that bloat or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with a teaspoonful of Bisurated Magnesia—pleasant, harmless, inexpensive, form of Magnesia that promptly neutralizes acid and keeps your stomach sweet and clean. Get a bottle of Bisurated Magnesia, which any druggist will supply you at a trifling cost, should quickly convince you that the use of dangerous stomach distress is absolutely unnecessary.

ECZEMA, RASHES & OTHER SKIN TROUBLES
Soothed & Healed by Zam-Buk Ointment
Zam-Buk Medicinal Soap 25c. cake.

STATION L-O-V-E

BY CRAIG CARROLL

...tered, in the words he had ...ent from his own heart, the ...almost grieved words he had heard. ...w know he was writing.

Now, it was strange, it was wild, it was monosyllabic, but it happened. On that train, going east, on the train that carried Judy Allison farther away from Dick at each moment, the operator turned the dial a little, he heard a new station, he turned up the volume, and the voice came through plainly, sharply clearly, into the crowded car.

The voice of a woman Judy had never heard before. The voice of a man she would never hear again. Dick Mason she knew. Dick Mason's own deep, clear voice, saying things she had hoped he would say to her. Things he would never say, now. Saying, "Norma, you must leave me. Don't ever leave me." Saying "Norma your hands break my heart." Saying "Norma...

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR

Suddenly madly Dick was saying the thing that was in his heart, forgetting the script, forgetting the director, forgetting that he was on the air with thousands listening, forgetting everything but the one thing that mean more than anything else in the world.

Saying loudly, pleadingly, "Judy! Judy! I love you! Come back, Judy! Come back Judy!"

Then more: The madness passed. Perhaps only one person in ten thousand heard the slip that made an actor call a character named Norma by the wrong name and call Norma Judy. Perhaps only the people in the studio ever knew that Dick Mason had ad-libbed something that was not in the script, had said things he was not supposed to say. Certainly the client never knew that anything had gone wrong for the show was good, people liked it, they wrote letters, they asked for more. But Judy Allison had heard as though the words were spoken in the car; as though Dick were before her, pleading, his eyes earnest and deep and heartbreaking he was speaking to no one else in the world.

So a few minutes later, there was a determined girl who told a puzzled conductor I'm getting off at the next station. Help me, please. I've got to get back to Chicago in a hurry. On the first train. Got to. Got to. Please help me.

So, while Dick went away from the station, went looking for Billy and could not find him, went home alone, Judy Allison was riding back toward Chicago, going back to what she had left.

The Burdette girl waited. In Beauty Builder script crumpled in her hand. On the mimeo sheet, and the job would be done. Ten minutes and she would be on the air for Judy Allison's place. Not that she felt mattered so much to Lona Burdette not that she cared so much about the money but it would be a triumph, sweet triumph, victory long-delayed. Triumph over Fifield Day who needed to be punished; and over that girl who was gone somewhere, leaving her job for Lona Burdette to take. Lona Burdette to take, as Lona Burdette did take Judy Allison's place. Not that she felt mattered so much to Lona Burdette not that she cared so much about the money but it would be a triumph, sweet triumph, victory long-delayed. Triumph over Fifield Day who needed to be punished; and over that girl who was gone somewhere, leaving her job for Lona

"But—" Dick began. Then he gave up.

"All right, Mr. Jenks, I'll bulin her up all I can. Count on me."

"Thanks." Jenks said, much relieved. "Dick you're not looking so good. What happened yesterday—that was too bad? Straighten thing i ever heard. But I heard all along you weren't to blame. That's what I told 'em at the station right from the first. And Day doesn't matter. I told him I'd go on paying him. Need script, writer? I can get you this show. But he's not coming around the station any more. Says he's going out of town. Going to mail me the scripts. Said something about going home for a while, where ever he lives. And too bad about Judy."

"Yes. Too bad." Dick agreed. "Too bad."

"Well, we can't always tell what's going to happen" said Jenks with much originality. "Life's funny, you know. Well—see you later son."

"Good-by."

So Dick went to the studio, to prepare for the program.

"Miss Burdette," he said sharply.

"Yes, Mr. Mason." She almost trilled it, she almost sang. Triumph was sweet. And Dick Mason was a handsome boy. Maybe maybe, she told herself, this might mean more than just being on the show. You never could tell. That was what made it fun being on the radio. Never can tell what will happen next and if it doesn't, happen right you can fix it. If you're smart. And Lona Burdette who had the job she had wanted knew she was very smart indeed.

"There minutes," the operator said through the speaker from his booth.

"All right, Miss Burdette. You know the script?"

"Like a book."

"Then let's get set. Over there." She followed the pages on the table, she waited with her head tipped to a little on one side, so as to get a deeper chest tone.

"Two minutes."

"One minute."

The studio was clear, the doors closed they watched for the red light. Dick and the Burdette girl. They did not hear the big door open. And the Burdette girl did not know until the last possible second, until Dick Mason's announcement was almost finished that another girl stood before her, that another voice was going on the air.

That Judy Allison had come back. That she was reading her script as she had read it before carefully, slowly, her voice strong and clear and eager, her eyes on Dick Mason.

The Burdette girl gasped. She moved a step forward. Then she stood stockstill. She could do nothing. You can't fight in front of a microphone. You can't yell "It's my job, I wanted and I got it, and you got no right to come back. You can't do things like that on the radio. All Lona Burdette could do was watch Judy Allison come back to the job she had forfeited.

Suddenly Dick Mason heard a voice he had thought he was dreaming, and knew it was real. And suddenly he was looking toward Judy, his arms out.

And if thousands of women, listening to the Beauty Builder heard a strange sound over the radio like a kiss just as the program ended for that day, naturally it was not their business. Not at all.

THE END

HONOR ROLL

PRINCE OF WALES SCHOOL
S. S. No. 5 THURLOW

Senior Primer to Junior I (Easter)—Lena Benn, Harry Stocks, Gladys Morris, Norman Sweet, Grace Chamberlain, Muriel Peters, Gerald Turner, Bernice Button, Florence Tapp, Billie Arnott, Donald Vandervaster.

Senior Primer to Junior I (June)—Billie Nickle, Peter Vandervaster, Mack Nobles, Norman Barriage, Tommy Morris, Betty Clark, William Allum.

Junior Primer to Senior Primer (February)—Billie Nickle, Betty Clark, William Allum, Jennie Hoard, Betty Vandervaster, Gladys Barnum, Ruth Peder, Melbourne Barriage, Teddy Peder, Lorraine Vandervaster.

Junior Primer to Senior Primer (June)—Jennie Hoard, Marjorie Ward, Bessie Lucas, Mary Markle, Ethel Hedger, Reginald Morris, Harry Nickle.

Beginners to Junior Primer—Jack Welch, Bessie Nobles, Betty Markham, Olive Urch, Manetta Turner, Edna Wright, Beatrice Tapp, Carol Martin, June Shane.

—Irene B. Young, Teacher.

Junior II to Senior II — Shirley Tapp, Annabelle Townsend, Kathleen Gerald Jenkinson, Vernon Benn, Jimmie Shortt, Colin Grant, Reggie Tapp, Isabelle Hickfield, Gerald Jenkinson, Vernon Benn, Jimmie Shortt, Colin Grant, Reggie Tapp, Annabelle Townsend, Isabelle Hickfield, Kathleen Garfield Evans, Gordon Oliver, Eric Law, Frank Howe, Horace Daniels, William Adams, Bessie Hedger, Daisy Turner, Annie Way.

—K. M. Bird, Principal.

S. S. NO. 21, THURLOW

(Classes as they will be in Sept.)

Senior IV—Carman Huffman, Joe Bradden, Margaret Murray.

Junior IV—John Huffman, Ruth Hoskins, Ruby Hoskins.

Senior III — Maurice Bradden, Annie Clare, John Lawrenson, Clare York, Ruth Livingston, Ross Livingston.

Junior III—Willehmine Huffman, Isobel Huffman, Mary Hutchinson, Franklin Huffman, Helen Bradden.

Class II — James Murray, Earle Treverton, Glen Lawrenson.

Senior I—Lenore Bradden, Mona Wyatt, Dorothea Hoskins, Oscar Murray, Ward Hoskins.

Junior I—Alma Jones, Goldworth Livingston, Ronald Badgley, Norma Clare, John Hutchinson.

—Queenie Paul, Teacher.

WORKMAN BURIED BY COLLAPSING OF ROOF

Toronto Public Works Worker Loses Life in Excavation

TORONTO, June 30.—Sand and earth walls collapsed over Percy Goodnough, 37 years old, of Victoria Avenue, city works department employee, smothering him to death yesterday as he was at work under the sidewalk of Gothic Avenue, in a half an hour. Robert Wallace, of 302 Wallace Avenue, his fellow-worker, a truck driver, and policemen dug frantically with shovels before Goodnough was reached.

He never regained consciousness, although an inhalator was used for more than two hours.

Goodnough, father of eight children, a Salvation Army bandsman, and for 15 years a city employee, had ventured into the excavation to put up protective shoring when he was buried.

The collapse of the walls gave him no chance to make an outcry, what happened was observed by Wallace. He yelled to the woman under whose property he was working, and then began digging. He was joined by a truck driver. In a few minutes police were on the job.

Great Britain and Ireland have 300,000 Jews within their boundaries; Germany has 643,000.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
IN ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
BACKACHE RHEUMATISM
BLADDER TROUBLES
Sold 1887 THE PROVINCE

Watch for the TIGER
— Tomorrow —

Westminster Hotel
TORONTO
Centrally situated, close to shopping district and theatres. Fireproof. Tea room open till midnight. Single rooms with bath, $2.25; Double room with bath, $3.50 and up. Breakfast 25c to 70c. Luncheon 50c. Dinner 60c.
Write for Illustrated Folder
Sir Jarvis St., Yonge St. Subway Entrance

TILLIE THE TOILER

By Russ Westover.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

JUNE 30 MR. AND MRS. ONE OF THOSE RIDDLES

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

(Metropolitan Newspaper Service) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

R-A-D-I-O

FEATURES
(Eastern Standard Time)

FRIDAY

4.00—Lucille Petersen—CFCF
4.00—John Elvin—WABC
4.30—The Singing Lady—WJZ
4.30—Firesite Prog—CHAC
4.45—Harding Sisters—WEAF
5.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
5.00—On the Air—WABC
5.00—Pals Pastell—CFCF
5.15—Vass Family—WEAF
5.30—Happy Bakers—WEAF
5.30—Chee-rio—CFCF
5.45—Nest Mama—CFCF
6.00—Breen and de Rose—WEAF
6.00—Ann 'n And—CFCF
6.00—Mountaineers—WEAF
6.15—Male Quartet—WJZ
6.30—Campbell's Orch—WABC
6.30—Solist Orch—WEAF
6.30—Jack Robr-Orch—WJZ
6.45—Jack Arthur—WABC
6.45—Flying Fingers—CKCL
7.00—Jessica Draghoncich—CFCF
7.00—Nino Martini—WABC
7.00—Singing Trio—CFCA
7.15—Bell Ringers—CFCA
7.30—Goldbergs—CFRB
7.30—Burton Till—CFRB
8.00—Vocalist—Orch—WJZ
8.00—Irvin S. Cobb—WABC
8.15—Street Singer—WABC
8.30—Eastland Broadcast—CKCL
8.30—Variety Program—WJZ
8.30—Eastland Broadcast—WEAF
8.30—Joyce Trio—CFCF
9.00—Jack Benny—WEAF
9.00—Variety Program—WJZ
9.30—The Country Club—WEAF
9.30—Edwin C. Hill—WABC
9.30—London Conc'rt—WJZ
10.15—Little Jack Little—WABC
10.30—Musical Prog.—CFRB
10.30—Jesse Crawford—WJZ
11.00—Ralph Kirbery—WEAF
11.30—H. Stern's Orch.—WEAF

SATURDAY

Dominion Day Special Coast-to-coast Broadcast at 9 p.m.

7.00—Eggs and Bacon—CHCT
7.30—Morning Glee Club—CHCT
7.45—Harding Sisters—WEAF
8.00—Morning Devotions—WJZ
8.00—Chic Parnell—CHCT
8.15—Vass Family—WEAF
8.30—Happy Bakers—WEAF
8.30—Cheerio—CFCF
8.45—Nest Mama—CFCF
9.00—Breen and de Rose—WEAF
9.00—Ann Thrush—CFCF
9.00—Mountaineers—WEAF
9.15—Popular Prog.—CHCT
9.15—Singing Fingers—CFCF
9.30—Jack Turner, Songs—WJZ
9.30—Solist Orch—WEAF
9.30—Jack Robr-Orch—WJZ
9.45—Jack Arthur—WABC
9.45—Flying Fingers—CKCL
10.00—Concert Miniatures—CFRB
10.30—Lovers Lane—WEAF
10.30—Singing Trio—CFCA
10.45—Six Shoe Prog.—CFCA
11.00—Waterville Prog.—CFCF
11.00—John Marvin, Tenor—WEAF
11.15—Tyo Chamber—WJZ
11.30—Symposium—WJZ
11.30—Violinist-Orch.—WEAF
11.30—Vic and Sade—WJZ
12.00—Geo. Hall's Orch.—WABC
12.00—Organist Prog.—CHCT
12.15—Song Revue—WJR
12.30—Madame Queenie—CFRB
12.30—Horseshoe Prog.—CKCL
1.00—Dancing Parade—WJZ
1.00—Leo Reisman—WABC
1.30—Sterling Prog.—WJZ
2.30—Orch.-Vocalist—CFRB
2.45—Around Bandstand—CKCL
3.00—Music Matinee—WEAF
3.00—Morin Sisters—WJZ
3.15—Ethel Shutta—WJZ
3.30—Concert Favorites—CHCT
3.45—Instrumental—CHAC
4.00—Little People Hour—CKAC
4.00—The Ambassadors—CFRB
4.30—Canadian Oalilies—CHCT
4.30—Nici Sisters—WJZ
4.45—The Guiser—WABC
5.00—Indian Maid—CKCL
5.00—On the Air—WABC
5.15—Musical Prog.—CFCA
5.15—Jack Miller—WABC
5.30—Week Enders—WEAF
6.00—Evening Revue—CKCL
6.00—Captain's Variedeville—CKOC
6.15—Gypsy Nina—WABC
6.15—Violinist—WJZ
6.30—Three X Sisters—WJZ
6.30—Jack Robr—WABC
6.30—Jack and Loretta—WJZ
6.45—Flying Fingers—CKCL
7.00—Stanley Maude Peeler—CHCT
7.00—Mexican Tenor—WEAF
7.15—Bell Ringers—CFCA
7.30—Stadium Concert—WJZ
8.00—Light Opera Gems—WJZ
8.00—Commission Prog.—CFCA
8.00—Canadian Singers—CHCT
8.00—Interlude—CKOC
8.30—Studio Prog.—CKOC
8.45—Chas. Carlile—WABC
9.00—Vocal Artists—CFCA
9.00—Soloists and Orch.—WJZ
9.00—Dominion Day Prog.—CFRB
9.00—Studio Prog.—CFCF
9.15—Sixteen Singers—WJZ
9.30—Cuckoo Prog.—WEAF
9.30—Fantasia Land—CHCT
10.00—Vocal Trio—WJZ
10.00—John Fogarty—WEAF

French Toilet Soap

Made in France, and with a delightful fragrance of violet or carnation. Generous sized cakes. Special at 4 for 27c

—main floor right

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store Hours: Open 9 a.m. Close 6 p.m. Saturday: Open 9 a.m. Close 9.30 p.m.

Maraschino Cherries—49c

These delicious Maraschino cherries in syrup, with a coating of tasty chocolate—everyone in the family likes them — so you'll want to buy at this special low price Saturday. 49c

In 1b. boxes. Special, box

—main floor right

Crowd Bringer! Special Purchase of New Washable White Bags 59c

White handbags, of smooth washable fabric for only 59c! It's a crowd bringer for Saturday—and is the result of a very fortunate purchase. Smart shpes, with black and colored trimmings, with nickel-plated ornaments, and other smart touches that make them attractive. There's big variety—all in WHITE and all remarkable value! Well lined, some with slide fasteners, others with mirrors and change purses. It's the feature of the day—but you'll have to shop early, and 9 o'clock in the morning would not be a bit too soon. Special each

—main floor centre

Crepe Sleepers

Styles for either boys or girls—of soft cotton crepe, in the right weight for summer weather. An assortment of shades—for 4 to 6 years old. Each 75c

Kiddies' Sun Suits

You'll want one of these for over the holiday—all wool sun suits for wee ones 2 to 6 years. In a choice of smart colors. Each 89c

Comfortable Style Corselettes

An extremely comfortable style corselette for this hot weather. Gives firm support, yet not restricting your freedom in such an extent that they cause you discomfort. Of broadcast material—featuring the style with inner belt. Sizes 32, 36, 38 and 40. Each 79c

—second floor

PRE-HOLIDAY SPECIALS

For Thrifty Saturday Shoppers!

Shop Early for the Long Holiday—We are All Prepared to Meet Your Needs, with Prices that Mean Real Savings for You

Store Open All Day Saturday— Closed All Day Monday

Special in Neckwear

Summer neckwear that will do much toward freshening old frocks or making new ones very attractive. Included are organdy pieces, or corded pipes—in V neck and round neck styles. Some in collar style alone, others with cuffs to match. In white and a few pastels. Special each or set 79c

—main floor centre

Women's Stamped Cotton Aprons

Of strong, good wearing quality of factory cotton, trimmed in clever ways with bias tape, in various colors. Stamped in designs to embroider. Special, each 25c

—main floor right

Feature! Clearance of Better Quality Frocks—Reg. 8.95 to 19.50

This remarkable value includes such popular favorites as printed sheers and lovely qualities of plain and printed crepe frocks all this season's styles—regularly priced at 8.95 to 19.50. The style choice is varied—and these are frocks that stress exclusiveness and individuality—probably no two frocks alike in the group—with a size range from 14 to 40—with a few half sizes in the group. Every fashion-wise woman will want to take part in this event—so we urge early shopping Saturday. The price unusual considering the quality and style of these frocks. Note each price group!

—second floor

Reg. Priced 8.95 4.95 | Reg. Priced 12.95 and 10.95 6.95 | Reg. Priced at 19.50 and 15.75 10.95

Special Sale of Cool Voile Frocks

Special Each 2.95

Those dainty frocks that look so airy and are so very comfortable even on the hottest days—a special sale event means early shopping if you would share in the savings! A wide choice of styles, youthful and for the more mature figure, in color combinations and patterns, too, in just as smart an assortment. With all the new frills, perky little bows and other trimming interests that are so fashionable and good looking. Sizes 14 to 44. The price for Saturday, only 2.95

—second floor

Summery Frocks for Girls

A charming array for the young modern to make her selection from. Cool, summery frocks of print and voile, in almost any styles and color combination imaginable. Shop Saturday for the long week-end—you'll need several frocks for 1.98 going away. The price only

—second floor

New White Hats

You'll find the range very extensive at the C.D.S. with prices remarkably reasonable, too. Large brims, small brims, or medium brims, we can fill your requirements—in this smart group of white crepe hats—all cleverly trimmed 1.79 to 2.95 and ready for your selection. Priced

Repeat Sale! Men's Smart One Pant Worsted Suits

These come in light and dark shades and are all splendid quality worsteds—and offer good value Saturday for this small sum. Smartly tailored throughout, with trousers finished with belt loops, cuff bottoms and five pockets. Sizes from 36 to 42. Special, suit 11.75

Men's Strong Khaki Drill Trousers

Of extra weight khaki drill, strongly stitched and reinforced with cuff bottoms, pockets and belt loops. Just the thing for camp, or for around the garden. Sizes 28 to 44. Pair 1.00

Boys' Heavyweight Khaki Trousers

Of extra weight khaki drill, with cuffs, and belt loops, just like dad's. Roomy and comfortable in cut—they'll wear well and give long service. Buy them for camp, mothers, they are splendid value at this July price. Sizes 24 to 32. Pair 1.00

—men's store

Pre-holiday Sale!

Men's Shirt and Tie Sets Reg. 2.50 1.49

Each shirt has tie to match—and they regularly were sold for 2.50 a set. A famous make, cut to fit and wear well at all points. In a choice of fancy stripes and conventional patterns! Sizes 14 to 18½. A big pre-holiday event sale that men will want to attend early Saturday morning. Clearing, the shirt and tie, set

—men's store

Picnic Supplies

9" Paper Plates ..... 12 for 8c
Waxed Paper Cups ..... 10 for 10c
Vacuum Bottles in 2 sizes 98c, 1.19
Food Vacuums, each 53c, 79c
Waxed Paper ¼ lb. roll for 10c
Paper Servietles ..... 50 for 8c

Picnic Jugs

A necessity for picnic, or camping. Well made picnic jugs, with strong handle, and metal outside covering, housing a thick earthenware jug that keeps food either cold or hot. In size popularly called gallon size. Each 1.59

Novelties for the Beach

Beach Floats, and Water Wings ..... 39c to 1.25
Beach Bags and Balls ..... 15c to 95c
Bathing Caps, each ..... 15c to 29c
Sand Pails and Sifter Sets each ..... 5c to 35c

—main floor centre

36 inch Plain Cotton Broadcloth 13c

A repeat order of this lovely fine cotton broadcloth—all in solid tones, and all fast to sun and tubbings. Its numerous uses realized by every thrifty needlewoman. In blue, pink, rose, mauve, sand, yellow and black and white. Special, yard

—main floor rear

Fast Color Cotton Prints Special Yard 14c

A new shipment of these freshly colored, attractive prints. English manufacture, and every color fast to washings and sun. In lovely ideas in a host of patterns and color combinations. Yard

Crowd Bringer! Shionable Krinkle Candy—Reg. 95c

A limited number of yards at this special low price. A fine crisp quality in krinkled shadow stripe this season, and very fashionable for the cute puff sleeve blouses or for [illegible] blue, yellow, [illegible]

59c

Men's Smart Sport Oxfords

Comfortable, styles that men will appreciate. In pleasing brown and beige shades, with heavy crepe rubber soles and heels, with leather insole. Sizes 6 to 10. Special, pair 2.89

—men's store rear

Men's Canvas Boots, Pair 1.00

With sturdy duck uppers, and strong wearing rubber soles, and reinforced toe caps. Light, and extremely comfortable for summer wear. Sizes 6 to 11. Pair

—men's store rear

Boys' Calf Oxfords, Pair 1.59

Built on wide fitting lasts that are bound to give comfort and satisfaction for summer wear. Of black calf leather, with leather sole and rubber heel. Sizes from 11 to 13 and 1 to 5½. Special, pair

—men's store rear

Women's Smart Kid Shoes 1.98

An extremely comfortable style for women—of soft black kid leather with a comfortable built-in cushion sole. Fitted with rubber lifts on heels. EEE width, in sizes 2 to 7. Pair

—men's store rear

Goin' Fishing? Baits for Lake Trout

If you are going fishing for Lake Trout we can fill your requirements.

Invisible Copper Line	1.00
200 foot spool
Braided Bronze Line,	1.50
200 foot spool
Large Reel for wire	2.25
Free Spool Reel	4.95
William's Wobblers each	85c
William's Firefly and Wobbler	1.00

Bass Trolls and Plugs

Bear Valley Troll	35c
Spoon Trolls	35c 50c 25c
Kidney Spoons	35c 25c
Red Eye Wiggler	75c 1.50
O-Boy Weedless Spinner	75c
Bass O-reno Plugs	1.00
Pal-o-Mine Plugs	1.00

Telescopic Fishing Rods

When opened to full length they are nine feet long, but can be telescoped to any length desired. Reversible handle with cork grip and metal reel seat. July Clearing price 1.95

With wire snake guides, each 2.50

With agatine guides each

Eatonia Casting Rod

A jointed steel rod with large agatine guides, each section with special longue and groove joints to hold guides in straight line. Double grip cork handle with metal reel seat and lock. Four and five foot lengths Eatonia Value, each 2.75

—basement

Eatonia Casting Lines

A high grade waterproof line of silk. 50 yards on each spool. 18 lb. test 25c 27 lb. test 1.25

—basement

3 Piece Walnut and Gum Bedroom Suite

A very handsome creation for the bedroom, consisting of three pieces — in rich combination of walnut and gum wood: Suite of dresser with plain British plate mirror. Chest of drawers, and 4' 6" bed in the same matching design. Regularly 39.49 this is priced at 38.00. For Saturday, the three pieces

Beautiful Combination Voile and Rayon Curtains

Softly ruffled along the edge, these beautiful combination curtains are specially priced for Saturday shoppers. In cream ground with rose, blue, green, mauve and gold trimmings. Complete with valance and tie backs. Special, set 98c

Flags for July 1st.

In four popular sizes.

8 x 12 inch, each
14 x 17 inch, each
16 x 24 inch, each
21 x 24 inch, each

—third floor